1 THe dayes of Dauid drue nygh, that he ſhoulde dye, and he charged Solomon his ſonne, ſayeing,

2 (a) I goe the way of al the earth, be thou ſtrong therfore, and ſhewe thee ſelfe a man.

(o) I am redy to dye as al men muſt. Ioſua. 1. b.

3 Keepe thou the watche of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and keepe his ſtatutes, and his precepte, his iudgementes, and his teſtimonies, as it is written in the lawe of Moſes, that thou mayſt proſper in al that thou doeeſt, and in euery thing that thou medleſt withal: Deut. 31. f. Deut. 17. d.

4 That the Lorde alſo may make good his woorde whiche he ſpake vnto me, ſayeing, If thy children take heede to their way, that they walke before me in trueth, with al their hartes, and with al their ſoules, thou ſhalt not (ſayth he) be without a man on the ſeate of Iſrael.

5 Moreouer thou wotteſt howe Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia ſerued me, and what he dyd to the two captaynes of the hoaſtes of Iſrael, vnto Abner the ſonne of Ner, and vnto Amaſa the ſonne of Iether, whom he ſlue, and ſhed blood in time of peace (euen as it had benne in warre) and (b) put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his ſhoes that were on his feete. 1. king. 9. d. 2. Sa. 23. c.

(b) That is, he put the blooddy ſwoorde into his ſheathe.

6 Deale with him therefore accordyng to thy wysedome, & bryng not his hoore head
B downe to the graue in peace.
2.Sa.19.f. 7 But shewe kindnesse vnto the sonnes of Barzellai the Gileadite, that they may eate at thy table: for they came to me when I fled from Absalom thy brother.
2.Sa.16.b. 8 And beholde, thou hast with thee Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini of Bahurim, whiche cursed me with an horrible curse, in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came to meete me at Iordane, and I sware to him by the Lord, sayeing, I wyl not slay thee with ỹ sword.
2.Sam.19. 9 But thou shalt not count him as vngiltie: for thou art a man of wysedome, and knowest what thou oughtest to doo vnto him, his hoore head shalt thou bryng to the graue with blood.
10 And so Dauid slept with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid.
Actes.2.c. 11 And the dayes whiche Dauid raigned vpon Israel, were fourtie yeeres: seuen yeeres raigned he in Hebron, and thirtie & three yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem.
2.Chr.29.f 12 Then sate Solomon vpon the seate of Dauid his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightyly.
13 And Adonia the sonne of Haggith came to Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, and she saide, Commest thou peaceably? And 2.Sa.16.b. he saide, Peaceably.
C 14 He sayde moreouer, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. She saide, Say on.
15 And he sayde, Thou knowest that the kingdome was myne, and that al Israel (e) set their faces on me, that I shoulde raigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and geuen to my brother: for it is appointed him of the Lorde.
(e) In signe of their fauour and consent.
16 And nowe I aske a petition of thee, deny me not. And she saide vnto him, Say on.
17 And he sayde, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Solomon the king (for he wyl not say thee nay) that he geue me Abisag the Sunamite to wyfe.
18 And Bethsabe sayde, Wel, I wyl speake for thee vnto the king.
19 Bethsabe therefore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonia: and the king rose vp to meete her, and bowed him selfe vnto her, and sate him downe on his seate, and there was a seate set for the kinges mother, and she sate on his ryght syde.
20 Then she sayde, I desire a litle petition of thee, I pray thee say me not nay. And the king saide vnto her, Aske on my mother, for I wyl not say thee nay.
21 She sayde, Let Abisag the Sunamite be geuen to Adonia thy brother to wyfe.
22 And king Solomon answeared and saide vnto his mother, Why doest thou aske Abisag the Sunamite for Adonia? (b) aske for him the kingdome also: for he is myne elder brother, and hath for him Abiathar the priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zaruia.
(d) Meaning that if he should haue graunted Abisag, he would afterwarde haue aspired to the kingdome.
23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lord, sayeing, God doo so and so to me, yf Adonia haue not spoken this woorde agaynst his owne lyfe.
24 Nowe therefore as the Lord lyueth, whiche hath ordeyned me, and set me on the seate of Dauid my father, and made me an house as he promised, Adonia shal dye this day.
D
25 And king Solomon sent by the hande of Banaia, the sonne of Iehoiada, and he smote him, that he dyed.
26 And vnto Abiathar the priest saide the king, Geat thee to Anatoth vnto thyne owne feelds, for thou art woorthy of death: but I wyl not at this time kil thee, because thou bareste the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered with my father in al his afflictions.
27 (c) And so Solomon put away Abiathar from being priest vnto the Lorde: that he myght fulfyl the woordes of the Lorde, whiche he spake ouer the house of Eli in Silo.
(c) king Solomon deposed the high priest. 1.Sam.2.
28 Then tidinges came also to Ioab (for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though he turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, & caught holde on the hornes of the aulter.
29 And it was tolde king Solomon, howe that Ioab fledde vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and beholde, he is by the aulter: Then Solomon sent Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, sayeing, Goe and fal vpon hym.
30 And Banaia came to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and sayd vnto him, Thus saith the king, Comme out. And he sayde, Nay, but I wyl dye euen here. And Banaia brought the king woorde agayne, sayeing, Thus said Ioab, & thus he answeared me.
31 And the king saide vnto him, (f) Doo euen as he hath said, smite him, and burie him: that thou mayst take away the blood whiche Ioab shed causeleſſe, from me, and from the house of my father.
(f) It was lawful to take a wylful murtherer from the aulter. Exod.xxi.
32 And the Lorde shal bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two men, more righteous & better then he, and slue them with the swoorde, my father Dauid not knowing thereof, euen Abner the sonne of Ner, captayne of the hoast of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Iether, captayne of the hoast hoste of Iuda.

2. Sam. 3. 33 Their blood shal therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his seede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seede, and vpon his house, and vpon his seate, shal there be peace for euer of the Lorde.

34 So Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada went vp, and he fel vpon him, and slue him, and buryed him in his owne house in the wyldernesse.

F 35 And the king put Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada in his roome, ouer the hoste, and put (g) Sadoc the priest in the roome of Abiathar.

(g) And so tooke the office of the hygh priest from the house of Ely, & restored it to the house of Phinees.

36 And the king sent, and called Semei, and sayde vnto him, Buylde thee an house in Hierusalem, and dwel there, and see that thou goe not foorth thence any whyther.

37 For be thou sure, that the day that thou goest out, & passest ouer the riuer Cedron, thou shalt dye that day, and thy blood shalbe vpon thyne owne head.

38 And Semei sayde vnto the kyng, This sayeing is good: as my lorde the kyng hath sayde, so wyl thy seruant doo. And Semei dwelt in Hierusalem many a day.

39 And after three yeeres, two of the seruantes of Semei ranne away vnto Achis sonne of Maacha king of Geth: and they told Semei, sayeing, Behold thy seruantes be in Geth.

(h) His coueteous minde made hym venter his lyfe.

40 (h) And Semei stoode vp, and sadled his asse, and gate hym to Geth to Achis, to seeke his seruantes: and Semei went, and brought his seruantes agayne from Geth.

G 41 And it was tolde Solomon howe that Semei had gonne from Hierusalem to Geth, and was comme agayne.

42 And the kyng sent, and called Semei, and sayd vnto hym, Dyd I not charge thee by the Lorde with an othe, and testified vnto thee, sayeing, Be sure, that whensoeuer thou goest out, and walkest abroade any whyther, thou shalt dye the death? And thou saydest vnto me, It is good tydynges that I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lorde, and the commaundement that I charged thee withal?

44 The kyng sayde moreouer to Semei, Thou remembrest al the wickednesse whiche thyne hart knoweth, and that thou didest to Dauid my father: the Lord also shal bring thy wickednesse vpon thyne owne head:

45 And king Solomon shalbe blessed, and the seate of Dauid stablished before the Lorde for euer.

46 So the king commaunded Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada: whiche went out, and smote him, that he dyed: and the kingdome was stablished in the hand of Solomon.

The. iii. Chapter.

I. Solomon taketh Pharaos daughter to wyfe. 5. The Lorde appeareth to hym, and geueth him wysedome. 17. The pleadyng of the two harlottes, and Solomons sentence therein.

A 1 SOlomon made affinitie with Pharao kyng of Egypt, and tooke Pharaos daughter, and brought her into the (a) citie of Dauid, vntyl he had made an ende of building his owne house, and the house of the Lorde, and the wal of Hierusalem rounde about.

2. Chro. 1. a. (a) Bethlehem.

2 Duely the people sacrificed in (b) hygh places, because there was no house buylt vnto the name of the lord vntil those dayes.

(b) Where aulters were appoynted before the temple was buylt to offer vnto the lord

3 And Solomon loued the Lorde, walking in the ordinances of Dauid his father: saue onely that he sacrificed and offered incense vpon aulters in high places.

4 And the kyng went to Gibeon to offer there, for that was the speciall high place: & a thousande whole burnt offerynges did Solomon offer vpon that aulter.

2. Chro. 1. a.

5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night, and God sayde, Aske what (thou wylt) that I may geue it thee.

6 And Solomon sayde, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercye, when he walked before thee in trueth, in ryghteousnesse, and in plainenesse of hart with thee, and thou hast kept for him this great mercy, that thou hast geuen him a sonne to sit on his seate, as it is come to passe this day.

B 7 And nowe, O Lorde my God, it is thou that hast made thy seruant king, in steede of Dauid my father: and I am but young, and (c) wote not howe to goe out and in.

(c) To behaue mee selfe in this great charge of rulyng. Wisd. 9. a.

8 And thy seruant is in the middest of thy people whiche thou hast chosen, and verely the people are so many that they can not be tolde, nor numbred for multitude.

9 (d) Geue therefore thy seruant an vnderstandyng hart, to iudge thy people, that I may discerne betweene good and badde: for who is able to iudge this thy so mightie a people?

(d) Gouernement perteineth to men of wysedome and vnderstanding.

10 And this pleased the Lord wel, that Solomon had desyred this thing.

11 And GOD sayde vnto hym, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thee selfe long lyfe, neyther hast asked riches for thee selfe, nor hast asked the lyfe of thy enimies, but hast asked for thee selfe vnderstandyng and discretion in iudgement:

12 Beholde, I haue donne accordyng to thy woordes: lo, I haue geuen thee a wyse & an vnderstanding hart, so that there was none lyke thee before thee, neither after thee shal any aryse lyke vnto thee.

Mat. 6. Wisd. 7.

13 And I haue also geuen thee that whiche thou hast not asked, euen richesse & honour, so that there shalbe no king lyke vnto thee al thy dayes.

14 And if thou wylt walke in my wayes, to keepe myne ordinances and my commaundements, as thy father Dauid dyd walke, I wyl lengthen thy dayes.

(c) He knew that God had appeared to hym in a dreame. 2. Chro. 1. b.

15 When Solomon awoke, (c) beholde it was a dreame: and he came to Hierusalem, and stoode before the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and offered whole burnt offeringes, and peace offeringes, and made a feast to al his seruantes.

" or, victuelers.

16 Then came there two women that were "harlottes, vnto the kyng, and stoode before hym.

17 And the one woman sayde, Oh my lord, I & this woman dwel in one house, and I was deliuered of a chylde with her in the house.

18 And the thirde day after that I was deliuered, she was deliuered also: and we were togeather, and no stranger with vs in the house saue we two.

19 And this wiues chyld dyed in the night, for she smothered it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and toke my sonne from my syde whyle thine handmayd sleapt, and layde it in her bosome, and put her dead chylde in my bosome.

D

21 And when I rose in the morning to geue my chylde sucke, beholde it was dead: but when I had looked vpon it in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne whiche I did beare.

22 And the other woman sayde, It is not so, but my sonne liueth, & thy sonne is dead. And she sayde agayne, No, but thy sonne is dead, and my sonne is alyue. And thus they pleaded before the kyng.

23 Then sayde the kyng, The one sayth, This that is alyue is my sonne, and the dead is thyne: and the other sayth, Nay: but thy sonne is the dead, and the liuing childe is myne.

(f) The wysedome of king Solomon.

24 And the kyng sayde, (f) Bryng me a swoorde. And they brought out a swoorde before the kyng:

25 And the king sayd, Diuide the lyuyng chylde in two, and geue the one halfe to the one, and the other to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the liuing chylde was, vnto the kyng (for her bowels yerned vpon her sonne) and sayde, I beseech thee my lorde, geue her the lyuing chylde, & in no wyse slay it. But the other sayd, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but diuide it.

27 Then the kyng answeared, and sayde, Geue her the lyuing chylde, and slay it not: for she is the mother thereof.

28 And al they of Israel heard of the iudgement which the kyng had iudged, and feared the kyng: for they sawe that the wysedome of God was in hym, to doo iustice.

The. v. Chapter.

1. Hiram sendeth to Solomon, and Solomon to him, purposyng to buylde the house of god. 6. He prepareth stuffe for the buyldyng. 13. The number of the woorkemen.

A 1 AND Hiram kyng of Tyre sent his seruantes vnto Solomon: (for he had heard that they had annoynted hym kyng in the roome of his father) for Hiram was euer a louer of Dauid.

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, sayeing, 2.Sam.5.c.

3 Thou knowest howe that Dauid my father coulde not buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde his God, for the warres whiche were about him on euery syde, vntyl the Lorde put them vnder the soles of his feete. 2. Chr.2.a. 1. Chr.29.a

4 But nowe the Lorde my God hath geuen me rest on euery syde, so that there is neyther aduersarie nor euyl to resist.

5 And beholde, I am determined to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God, as the Lorde spake vnto Dauid my father, sayeing, Thy sonne whom I wyl set vpon thy seate for thee, he shal buylde an house vnto my name. 2.Sam.7.b

6 Nowe therefore commaunde thou, that they hewe me Cedar trees out of Libanon, and my seruantes shalbe with thyne: and vnto thee wyl I geue the hyre for thy seruantes, accordyng to al suche thinges as thou shalt appoynt: for thou knowest that there are not among vs, that can skil to hewe timber lyke vnto the Sidons.

7 (a) And when Hiram hearde the wordes of Solomon, he reioyced greatly, and sayd, Blessed be the Lorde this day, which hath geuen vnto Dauid a wyse sonne ouer this mighty people. (a) In Hiram is prefigured the vocation of the gentiles, who should helpe to buyld the spiritual temple.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, sayeing, I haue considered the thinges whiche thou sentest to me for, and wyl accomplishe all thy desyre concernyng tymber of Cedar trees and firre.

9 My seruantes shal bryng them from Libanon vnto the sea: & I wyl conuey them by sea in flotes, vnto the place that thou shalt shewe me, and wyl cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receiue them: and thou shalt doo me a pleasure agayne, if thou minister foode for myne house.

10 And so Hiram gaue Solomon Cedar trees, and firre trees, accordyng to al his desyre.

16 Beside the lordes whom Solomon appointed to ouersee the woorke, euen three thousande and three hundred, which ruled the people (and them) that wrought in the woorke.

17 And the king commaunded them to bring great stones, costly stones, & hewed stones, for the fundation of the house.

18 And Solomons masons, and the masons of Hiram, dyd hewe them, and the stone squarers: and so they prepared both tymber and stones for the buyldyng of the house.

The.vi.Chapter.

1. The buylding of the temple, and the fourme thereof. 12. The promise of the Lorde to Solomon.

1 AND in the foure hundred and fourescore yeere, after the childzen of Israel were comme out of the lande of Egypt, and in the fourth yeere of the raigne of Solomon vpon Israel, and in the moneth * Zif, whiche is the seconde moneth, he begaune to buyld the house of the Lord.

℟ 2.Chro. 3.a * Aprił

Actes.7.f. 2 And the house whiche king Solomon buylt for the Lorde, was threescore cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, & thirtie cubites hygh.

3 And he made a porche before the temple of the house, whiche was twentie cubites long, after the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broad, in ỳ fore front of the house.

4 And in the house he made * wyndowes, broade (without) and narowe (within.)

5 And by the wall of the house he made chambers rounde about, in the walles of the house rounde about the temple and the quier: & he made chambers round about.

6 The neathermost chamber was fyue cubites broade, and the middle was sixe cubites broade, and the thirde was seuen cubites broade: for without in the wal of the house he made reles rounde about, that (the beames of the chambers) shoulde not be fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And the house was buylt of stone, made perfect alredy before it was brought thyther: so that there was neither hammer nor axe, eyther any toole of iron heard in the house while it was in buyldyng.

8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the ryght syde of the house: and menne went vp with wyndyng stayres into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the thirde.

9 And so he buylt the house, and finished it: and seeled the house, beyng vauted, with seeling of Cedar trees.

10 And then he buylt chambers to al the temple, fyue cubites high: and they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar.

11 And the woord of the Lorde came to Solomon, sayeing,

12 Concernyng the house whiche thou art in buyldyng, yf thou wylt walke in myne ordinances, and execute my lawes, & keepe al my cõmaundementes to walke in them: then wyl I make good vnto thee my promise, which I promised Dauid thy father:

13 And I wyl dwelle among the childzen of Israel, & wil not forsake my people Israel. 2.Sam.7.b Exod.25.b.

14 Solomon therefore buylt the house, and finished it. ℭ

15 And seeled the walles of the house within with boordes of Cedar tree: euen from the pauement of the house, vnto the roofe, dyd he seele the walles of it within with Cedar tree, and boorded the floore of the house with plankes of fyre.

16 And he buylded twentie cubites in the sydes of the quier of the temple, both floore and walles with boordes of Cedar, and dressed it within the secrete place of the temple, euen in the most holy place.

17 But the house that is the temple before

* Some of the learned Iewes suppose that the wyndowes were narow without, & brode within.

before it, was fourtie cubites (long.)

18 And the Cedar of the house within, was carued with knoppes, and grauen with flowres: and al was Cedar tymber, so that no stone was seene.

19 And the quyer that was within the temple, he prepared, to set there the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde.

" or, within 20 And the quyer " before, was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in heyght: and he couered it with pure golde, and boorded the aulter with Cedar.

D 21 So Solomon couered the house within with pure golde: & he made golden barres runne along the quyer, which he had couered with golde.

22 And the whole house he ouerlayde with golde, vntil he had ended it: also al the aulter that was before the quyer, he ouerlayd with golde.

Exod. 25. b. 23 And within the quyer he made two Cherubims of " Olyue tree, ten cubites hygh.

" or, Pine tree. 24 Fyue cubites long was a wyng of the one Cherub, and fyue cubites long was a wyng of the other Cherub: so that from the vttermoste parte of one wyng, vnto the vttermost part of ỹ other, were ten cubites.

25 And the other Cherub was ten cubites hygh also: so that both the Cherubims were of one measure, and one fase:

26 For the heyght of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was it of the other.

Exod. 25. b. 27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner house: and the Cherubims stretched out theyr wynges, so that the one wyng of the one touched the one wal, and the one wyng of the other touched the other wal: and the other two wynges of them touched one another in the myddest of the house.

E 28 And he ouerlayde the Cherubims with golde.

29 And in the walles of the house rounde about, he made figures of carued and seeled woorke: (as namely) pictures of Cherubims, and palme trees, and grauen flowres within and without.

30 And the flooze of the house he couered with golde, within and without.

31 And in the entring of the quyer he made two doores of Olyue tree: and both the vpper and two side postes, were fyue square.

32 The two doores also were of Olyue tree, & he graued them with grauyng of Cherubims, and palme trees, & grauen flowres, and couered them with golde, and layde thynne plates of golde vppon the Cherubims and palme trees.

33 And so made he for the doore of the temple, postes of Olyue tree, foure square.

34 The two doores were of fyre tree, and eyther doore with fouldyng leaues.

35 And he graued thereon Cherubims, palme trees, and carued flowres: and couered the carued woorke with golde finely wrought:

36 And he buylt the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, and one row of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yeere was the fundation of the house of the Lorde layde, in the moneth " Zif. " Apryl.

38 And in the eleuenth yeere in the moneth " Bul, (whiche is the eyght moneth) was the house ful finished throughout al the partes thereof, according to al the fashion of it: And so was he seuen yeeres in buylding it. " October.

The. vii. Chapter.

1. The buylding of the houses of Solomon.
15. The excellent woorkmanshyp of Hiram in the peeces whiche he made for the temple.

A 1 BVt Solomon was buylding his owne house thirteene yeeres, and finished it al.

2 And he buylte the house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hygh: and it stoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillers, and Cedar beames were layd vpon the pyllers.

3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that laye on the pyllers, euen fyue and fourtie beames, fifteene in a rowe.

4 And there were wyndowes in three rowes, and the windowes were one against another, three folde.

5 And al the doores, with the side postes, and the vpper postes, were foure square, and had wyndowes one agaynst an other, three folde.

6 And he made a porche by the pyllers (that bare vp the house) fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade, and the porche was before those and the other pyllers: for there was a thicke tree set before them.

C 7 Then he made a porch to sit and iudge in, euen a porche of iudgement, seeled with Cedar throughout al the pauementes.

8 And his house wherein he dwelt, had an other hal more inwarde then the porche, of lyke woorke: and then Solomon made an house for Pharaos daughter, (whom he had taken to wyfe) lyke vnto the fashion of the porche.

9 And al these were of the best stones, hewed after a measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the fundation, 1. king. 3. a.

(a) These beames were layde vpon stones, that hanged out on the top of the wal, the breadth of a hande.

vnto the (a) beames that laye aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the out side towarde the great court.

10 And the fundation was layde vpon riche stones, and that very great stones, whereof somme were ten cubites, and somme eyght cubites.

11 And aboue were riche stones, squared after a certaine rule, & couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court rounde about, was with three rowes of hewed stones, and one rowe of Cedar plankes, after the manner of the inner court of the house of the Lorde, and of the porche of the temple.

13 And kyng Solomon sent and fet one Hiram out of Tyre,

C

2. Chro. 2. a

14 A wydowes sonne, of the tribe of Nephthali, his father being a man of Tyre: Which Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, ful of wysedome, vnderstandyng, and cunnyng, to worke al manner of worke in brasse: and he came to king Solomon, and wrought al his worke.

Exod. 31. a.

15 For he cast two pyllers of brasse, of eighteene cubites hygh a peece: and a stryng of twelue cubites did compasse either of them about.

16 And he made two pommelles of moulten brasse, (after the fashion of a crowne) to set on the toppes of the pyllers: the heyght of the one head peece conteyned fyue cubites, and the heyght of the other head peece conteyned fyue cubites also.

17 He made networke and writhen worke lyke chaynes, for the pommelles vppon the head peeces that were on the toppe of the pyllers: euen seuen (rowes) vppon the one head peece, and seuen vpon the other.

18 And so he made the pyllers, and two rowes of pomgranates rounde about in the one networke, to couer the pommelles that were vppon the toppe: and this he dyd also for the other head peece.

19 And the pommelles that were vpon the toppe of the pyllers, were after Lylie worke, in the porche, foure cubites.

20 And the pommelles vpon the two pyllers had also aboue ouer agaynst the myddst within the networke (pomgranates,) and vpon the seconde head peece were there two hundred pomgranates, in (two) rowes rounde about.

21 And he set vp the pyllers in the porch of the temple: and when he had set vp the ryght pyller, he called the name therof Jachin: and when he had set vp the leaft pyller, he called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And vpon the toppe of the pillers (were) Lylie worke: and so was the workmanshyp of the pyllers finished.

23 And he made a molten lauatorie, ten cubites wyde from brym to brym, rounde in compasse, & fyue cubites hygh: and a string of thirtie cubites dyd compasse it about.

24 And vnder the brym of it, there were knoppes rounde about, ten in one cubite, & they compassed the lauatorie round about: and the knoppes were caste with it in two rowes when it was caste. E

25 And it stoode on twelue oxen, of which, three looked toward the North, three toward the Weast, three toward the South, & three toward the East: and the lauatorie stoode vpon them, and al their hynder partes were inwarde.

26 It was an hand breadth thicke, and the brym was wrought lyke the brym of a cup, with flowres of lylies, and it conteyned two thousand (b) battes.

(b) A Bat and an Epha seeme to be both one measure. Ezech. 45. b. euery Bat cõteyneth about ten pottels, whereof the Epha sereueth to measure drye thinges, and the Batte for moyste thinges.

27 And he made ten feete of brasse: foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade a peece, and three cubites hygh.

28 And the worke of the feete was on this maner, They had sides, and the sides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the sides that were betweene the ledges, were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and lykewyse vpon the ledges that were aboue: & beneath the lions and oxen, were certaine additions made of thinne worke.

30 And vnder euery foote were foure brason wheeles, & * boordes of brasse: and in the foure corners thereof vnder the lauatorie, were vndersetters moulten, at the side of euery addition.

* or, tables.

F

31 And the stalke of the lauatorie was in the myddle of it, and aboue one cubite: but the stalke thereof was round, after the worke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: and also vpon the stalke were grauinges, with their bandes, foure square, and not rounde.

32 And vnder the sides were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned faste to the bottome, and the heyght of euery wheele was a cubite and an halfe.

33 And the workmanshyp of the wheeles was lyke the worke of a charet wheele: and their axeltrees, their nauels, spokes, and shaftes, were al moulten.

34 And there were foure vndersetters in the foure corners of one foote, and the vndersetters were of the very bottome it self.

35 And in the heyght of the bottome was there a rounde compasse of halfe a cubite hygh: and in that heyght of the bottome there proceeded both ledges and sydes out of the same.

36 For in the boordes of the ledges, and on the sides, he had grauen pictures of cherubims, lions, and palme trees, one by another another rounde about.

37 Thus made he the ten feete after this manner: and they had al one fashion of casting, one measure, and one syse.

38 Then made he ten lauers of brasse, one lauer conteynyng fourtie battes: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten feete, he put one lauer.

39 And he put fiue of those feete on the right syde of the house, & other fiue on the leaft: and he set the lauatorie on the ryght syde of the house eastwarde, and towarde the south.

40 And Hiram made pots, shouels, and basons, and so finished al the woorke that he made kyng Solomon for the house of the Lorde:

G 41 That is to say, two pyllers, and two rounde head peeces that were to be set on the toppes of the two pillers: and two net woorkes, to couer the two rounde head peeces which were vpon the top of the pillers:

42 And foure hundred pomegranates for the two netwoorkes, euen two rowes of pomegranates in one netwoorke, to couer the two head peeces that were to be set on the toppes of the pillers:

43 And the ten feete, and ten lauers on the feete:

44 The lauatorie, & twelue oxen vnder it:

45 And pots, shouels, and basons: and al these vessels whiche Hiram made to kyng Solomon for the house of the Lorde, were of bryght brasse.

46 In the playne of Iordane dyd the kyng cast them in the thicke clay, betweene Sotoh and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left al ỹ vessels (vnweighed:) because they were so exceeding many, neither found they out ỹ weight of the brasse.

48 And so Solomon made al the vessellles that parteyned vnto the house of the Lorde, the golden aulter, and the golden table whereon the shewe bread was:

49 And fiue candelsticks for the right side, and fiue for the leaft before the quier, of pure gold, with flowres, lampes, & snuffers of golde,

50 And bowles, flat peeces, basons, spoones, and masors of pure golde: and hyndges made he of golde, both for the doores of the quier the place most holy, and for the doores of the temple also.

2.Chro.5.a. 51 And so was ended al the woorke that king Solomon made for the house of the Lorde, and Solomon brought in the thynges whiche Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the syluer, gold, and vessels, and laid them vp among the treasures of the house of the Lorde.

The. viii. Chapter.

4. The arke is borne into the temple. 10. A cloude filleth the temple. 15. The kyng blesseth the people.

1 THen Solomon geathered the elders of Israel, and al the heades of the tribes, and them that were captaynes among the fathers of the chyldren of Israel, vnto him in Hierusalem, that they myght bryng vp the arke of the couenant of the Lord, out of the citie of Dauid, whiche is Sion. A 2.Chro.5.a.

2 And al the men of Israel assembled vnto kyng Solomon, to the feast that falleth in the moneth * Ethanim, whiche is the seuenth moneth. 2.Sam.6.B

* or, September.

3 And al the elders of Israel were come, and the priestes tooke vp the arke.

4 And they bare the arke of the Lorde, the tabernacle of the congregation, and al the holy vessellles that were in the tabernacle, those did the priestes & the Leuites beare.

5 And king Solomon, and al the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto hym, and went with hym before the arke, did offer sheepe, and oxen, that could not be tolde nor numbred for multitude.

6 And so the priestes brought the arke of the couenant of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple, and place moste holy, vnder the wynges of the cherubims:

7 For the cherubims stretched out their wynges ouer the place of the arke, and couered both it, and also the staues thereof a high vpon it. B

8 And they drewe out the staues, that the endes of them might appeare out of the holy place within the quier, but they were not seene without, and there they haue ben vnto this day.

9 And there was nothyng in the arke (a) saue the two tables of stone whiche Moses put there at Horeb, where the Lorde made a couenant with the chyldren of Israel whē he brought them out of the lande of Egypt. Deut. 10.a.

(a) He meaneth, nothing of the whole lawe remayned in the arke, sauing the two tables conteinyng the ten commaundements: hereby neyther excludyng Aarons rod, neyther the potte with Manna, which also were in the arke. Hebr. ix.

10 And when the priestes were come out of the holy place, the cloude filled the house of the Lorde, 11 That the priestes coulde not stande and minister, because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lorde had filled the house of the Lorde.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lorde sayd that he woulde dwel in the darke cloude.

13 I haue built thee an house to dwel in, an habitation for thee to abyde in for euer.

14 And the kyng turned his face, and blessed al the congregation of Israel: and al the the congregation of Iſrael ſtoode ſtyl.

15 And he ſayde, Bleſſed be the Lord God
2.Sam.7.c of Iſrael, which ſpake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, & hath with his hande fulfilled it, ſayeng,

16 Sence the day that I brought my people
Iſrael out of Egypt, I chose no citie of al the tribes of Iſrael to builde an house, that my name myght be therein: but I haue
2.Sam.7.a chosen Dauid to be ruler ouer my people Iſrael.

17 And it was in the hart of Dauid my father, to builde an house for the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

18 And the Lord ſayde vnto Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thyne hart to build an house vnto my name, thou diddeſt wel that thou waſt ſo mynded:

19 Neuertheleſſe, thou ſhalt not builde the house: but thy ſonne that ſhal come out of thy loynes, he ſhal build the house vnto my name.

20 And the Lord hath made good his word that he ſpake, and I am ryſen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and ſitte on the ſeate of Iſrael, as the Lorde promiſed, and haue built an house for the name of the lord
God of Iſrael:

D 21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the arke, wherein is the couenant of the Lorde, whiche he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt.

22 Solomon ſtoode before the aulter of the Lorde, in the ſight of al the congregation 2.Par.6.a. of Iſrael, and ſtretched out his handes to-warde heauen, and ſayde,

23 Lorde God of Iſrael, there is no God lyke thee, in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepeſt couenant and mercy with thy ſeruantes that walke before thee with al their hart.

24 Thou that haſt kept with thy ſeruant
Dauid my father that thou promiſedſt him:
thou ſpakeſt alſo with thy mouth, and haſt fulfilled it with thine hande, as it is come to paſſe this day.

2.Sam.7.c. 25 Therefore now, Lord God of Iſrael, keepe with thy ſeruant Dauid my father, that thou promiſedſt hym, ſayeing, Thou ſhalt not be without a man in my ſight, to ſit on the ſeate of Iſrael: ſo that thy children take heede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou haſt walked in my ſight.

Eſai.66.a 26 And now, O God of Iſrael, let thy word be verified whiche thou ſpakeſt vnto thy ſeruant Dauid my father.

27 Wyl God in deede dwel on the earth?
beholde, the heauen and heauens of al hea-uens are not able to conteyne thee: and howe ſhoulde then this house doo it that I haue builded?

28 Haue thou therefore reſpect vnto the E prayer of thy ſeruant, and to his ſupplicati-on, O Lorde my God, to heare the crye and prayer whiche thy ſeruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thyne eyes may be open towarde this house night and day, euen toward this place, of whiche thou haſt ſayde, My name ſhalbe there: that thou mayeſt hearken vnto the prayer which thy ſeruant prayeth in this place:

30 And regarde thou the ſupplication of thy ſeruant, and of thy people Iſrael, when they pray in this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and when thou heareſt, haue mercy.

31 If any man treſpaſſe againſt his neighbour, and there goe an oth betweene them, 2.Par.6.d and the one compel the other, and come, ſwearing before thine aulter in this house:

32 Then hearken thou in heauen, and doo & iudge thy ſeruantes, that thou condemne the vngodly, to bring his way vpon his head: and iuſtifie the righteous, to geue hym accordyng to his ryghteouſneſſe.

33 When thy people Iſrael be put to the Deut.30.a. wooſle before the enimie, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee, and afterwarde turne againe to thee, and knowledge vnto thy name, and pray, and make ſupplication vnto thee in this house:

34 Then heare thou in heauen, to be merciful vnto the ſinne of thy people Iſrael, and bring them againe vnto the land whiche thou gaueſt vnto their fathers.

35 If heauen be ſhut vp, & there be no rayne, F becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee: yet 1.Rex.18.a.
yf they pray in this place, and geue knowledge vnto thy name, and turne from their ſinne through thy ſcourging of them:

36 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercyful vnto the ſinnes of thy ſeruantes, and of thy people Iſrael, that thou ſhew them a good way to walke in, and geue rayne vpon the lande that thou haſt geuen to thy people to inherite.

37 If there be in the lande dearth, or peſti-lence, drouth, blaſting, graſhopper, or caterpiller: or yf their enimie beſiege them in the lande of their cities, or whatſoeuer plague or ſickneſſe chaunce vnto them,

38 Then what prayer and ſupplication ſo- Eſai.56.c.

Iſrael, whiche ſhal knowledge euery man forth his handes towarde this house:

linge place, and be merciful, and doo & geue

euery man according to his wayes, euen as thou that onely knowest his hart (for thou only knowest the hartes of al the chyldren of menne.)

40 That they may feare thee, as long as they lyue in the lande, whiche thou gauest vnto our fathers.

Iohn.12.c. 41 And lykewyse, yf a stranger that is not of thy people Israel, comme out of a farre countrey, for thy names sake:

42 (For they shal heare of thy great name, and of thy myghtie hande, and of thy stretched out arme,) and shal comme and pray in this house:

43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwellyng place, and doo al that the stranger calleth to thee for: that al nations of the earth may knowe thy name, and feare thee, as doo thy people Israel, and that they maye knowe that thy name is called vppon in this house whiche I haue buylded.

44 If thy people goe out to batayle agaynst their enimie, whithersoeuer thou shalt send them, and shal pray vnto the Lord (toward) the way of the citie whiche thou hast chosen, and (towarde) the house that I haue buylt for thy name:

Dani.6.c.

45 Heare thou in heauen their prayer and supplication, * and iudge their cause.

* or, maynteyne their right.

46 If they sinne agaynst thee (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angrye with them, and delyuer them into the hande of their enimies, so that they cary them away prisoners vnto the land of their enimies, whether farre or neare:

I.Ioh.1.b. 2.Chro.6. Eccle.7.

47 Yet yf they turne agayne vnto their hartes, (b) in the lande of them that caryed them away captiues, and returne and pray vnto thee in the lande of their enimies, saying, We haue sinned, we haue donne wyckedly, and haue committed vngodlynesse:

(b) Though the temple was the chefe place of prayer, yet he secludeth not them, that being let with necessitie, cal vpon him in other places, as Daniel dyd. Chap.6. Amos.9.b.

48 And so turne agayne vnto thee with al their hart, and al their soule, in the land of their enimies whiche led them away captiue, and pray vnto thee (toward) the way of their lande which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and (toward) the citie which thou hast chosen, and (towarde) the house which I haue buylte for thy name:

49 Then heare thou their prayer and supplication in heauen thy dwellyng place, and iudge their cause:

50 And be mercyful vnto thy people that haue sinned agaynst thee, and vnto al their iniquities, whereby they haue donne wyckedly agaynst thee, and geat thou them the fauour of those whiche led them away captiue, that they may haue cõpassion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thyne inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egipt, euen from the myds of the furnace of iron.

52 And let thyne eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them in al that they cal for vnto thee. 1.Esd.1.b.

53 For thou diddest separate them from among al the nations of the earth to be thine owne inheritance, as thou saydest by the hande of Moses thy seruant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lorde God.

54 And when Solomon had made an ende of prayeing al this prayer and supplication vnto the Lorde, he arose from before the aulter of the Lorde, and from kneelyng on his knees, and from stretching of his hands vp to heauen. Exod.19.a. 2.Chro.7.a

55 And stoode, and blessed al the congregation of Israel, with a loude voyce, saying,

56 Blessed be the Lorde that hath geuen reast vnto his people Israel, according to al that he promised: there hath not failed one woorde of al the good promise, whiche he promised by the hande of Moses his seruant. I.Sam.3.b.

57 The Lorde our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, and forsake vs not, neyther leaue vs:

58 But that he may bowe our hartes vnto hym, that we may walke in al his wayes, and keepe his commaundementes, his statutes, and his lawes, which he commaunded our fathers.

59 And these my woordes whiche I haue prayed before the Lorde, be nygh vnto the Lorde our God day and nyght, that he defende the cause of his seruant, and the cause of his people Israel at al tymes, as the matter shal requyre:

60 That al nations of the earth may know that the Lorde is God, and none but he.

61 Let your hart therfore be perfecte with the Lord our God, that ye walke in his statutes, and keepe his commaundementes, as this day.

62 And the kyng, and al Israel with hym, offered offerynges before the Lorde. 2.Chro.7.a

63 And Solomon offred a sacrifice of peace offeringes, which he offered vnto the Lord, (to wyt) twentie and two thousande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: And so the king and al the chyldren of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 The same day dyd the kyng halowe the myddle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde: for there he offered whole burnt offerynges, meate offeringes, and the fat of the peace offeringes: because the braſen aulter that was before the Lord, was to litle to receiue the whole burnt offeringes, ferynges, meate offerynges, and the fat of the peace offerynges.

65 And Solomon helde that same tyme an hygh feaste, and al Israel with hym, a very great congregation, euen from the entryng in of Hemath, vnto the ryuer of Egypt, before the Lorde our God (c) seuen dayes, and seuen dayes, euen fourteene dayes.

(c) Seuen dayes for the dedicatiō, & seuen dayes for the feast.

66 And the eyghth day he sent the people away, and they " blessed the king, and went vnto their tentes ioyous, and with glad hart, because of al the goodnesse that the Lord had donne for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

" or, thanked.

16 For Pharao kyng of Egypt, went vp, & tooke Gazer, and burnt it with fyre, and slue the Chanaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter, Solomons wyfe.

17 And Solomon buylte Gazer and Bethhoron the neather,

18 And Baalath, and Thamor in the wyldernesse, in the lande, 19 And al the treasure cities that Solomon had, and cities for his charettes, and cities for his horsmen, and al that Solomon desired, and would buylde in Hierusalem, in Libanon, and in al the lande of his dominion.)

20 And al the people that were leaft of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites, whiche were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were leafte after them in the lande, whom the chyldren of Israel also were not able to destroy: those dyd Solomon compel to bryng tribute, vnto this day.

Leuit. 25. f.

22 But of the chyldren of Israel dyd Solomon make no bondmen: but they were menne of warre, his ministers, his lordes, his captaynes, and rulers of his charettes, and his horsmen.

23 And these were the lordes that were set ouer Solomons worke, fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought the worke.

24 And Pharaos daughter came vp out of the the citie of Dauid, vnto her house whiche Solomon had built for her: and then dyd he also builde Millo.

25 And thrise a yeere dyd Solomon offer whole burnt offringes, and peace offringes vpon the aulter whiche he built vnto the Lord, and he burnt incense vpon the aulter that was before the Lorde, and so he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a nauie of shippes in Azion Gaber, whiche is beside Eloth, on the brinke of the red sea, in the lande of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent by shippe also of his seruantes that were shypmen and had knowledge of the sea, with the seruantes of Solomon:

(a) In the. 2. Chro. the. 8. Cha. is made mention of thirtie moe, which seeme to haue ben imployed for their charges.

28 And they came to Ophir, and fet from thence (a) foure hundred and twentie talentes of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

The. x. Chapter.

1. The queene of Saba commeth to heare the wysedome of Solomon. 18. His royal throne. 32. His power and magnificence.

A 1 Mat. 12. d. 2. Chro. 9. a

AND the queene of Saba hearyng the fame of Solomon (concerning the name of the Lord) came to proue him with harde questions.

2 And she came to Hierusalem with a very great trayne, with Cammelles that bare sweete odours, and golde exceedyng much, and precious stones: and she came to Solomon, and communed with hym of al that was in her hart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto her al her questions, so that there was not one thyng hyd from the kyng, whiche he expounded not vnto her.

4 And the queene of Saba consydered al Solomons wysedome, and the house that he had builded,

5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruantes, the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his "butlers, and his whole burnt sacrifices that he offered in the house of the Lorde: and "she was astonied.

* or, drynkyng vessels. "Heb. there was no more spirite in her.

6 And she sayde vnto the kyng, It was a true worde that I heard in myne owne land, of thy sayinges, and of thy wisdome.

B 7 Howbeit, I beleeued it not, til I came, & saw it with mine eyes: and behold, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wisedome and prosperitie exceedeth the fame whiche I heard of thee.

8 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruantes which stand euer before thee, and heare thy wisedome.

9 Blessed be the Lorde thy God whiche loued thee, to set thee on the seate of Israel, (a) because the Lord loued Israel for euer, and made (b) thee kyng, to doo equitie and righteousnesse.

(a) God loueth that people to whom he geueth a wise ruler. (b) The office of a kyng. 1. Reg. 9. c. 2. Chro. 9.

10 And she gaue the kyng fyue score talentes of golde, and of sweete odours exceedyng muche, and precious stones: there came no more suche abundance of sweete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to kyng Solomon.

11 The nauie also of the shippes of Hiram (that caryed golde from Ophir) brought lykewyse great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious stones, from Ophir.

12 And the kyng made of the Almuge trees pyllers for the house of the Lorde, and for the kynges palace, and made harpes and psalteries for syngers: there came no more suche Almuge trees, nor were any more seene vnto this day.

13 And kyng Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba, according to al her desyre, whatsoeuer she asked, besydes that he gaue her of a free wyl with his owne hande: and so she returned vnto her owne countrey, both she, and her seruantes.

C 14 Exod. 25. The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was syxe hundred, three score, and syxe talentes of golde, 15 Besydes that (he had) of marchantes, and of the marchandizes of the spices, and of al the kinges of Arabia, and of the lords of the countrey.

16 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targettes of beaten golde: syxe hundred sicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred shieldes of beaten golde: three pounde of golde went to one shielde, and the kyng put them in the house of the wood of Libanon.

18 And the kyng made a great seate of Iuorie, and couered it with the best golde. 1. Reg. 7. a.

19 And the seate had syx steppes, and the top of the seate was rounde behynde, and there were pommels on eyther syde on the place of the seate, and two Lions stoode beside the pommels.

20 And there stoode twelue Lions on the steppes, syxe on a syde: there was none lyke woorke seene in any kyngdome.

D Deut. 17. a. 21 And al king Solomons drinking vessels were of golde, and likewise al the vessels of the house of the wood of Libanon were of pure golde: and as for syluer, it was nothing woorth in the dayes of Solomon:

22 For the kinges nauie of shippes went on the sea vnto Tharsis, with the naule of Hirams shippes: euen once in three yeeres went the naule to Tharsis, & brought gold and syluer, Elephantes teeth, Apes, and Pecockes.

2.Chro.9.f. 23 And so kyng Solomon exceeded al the kynges of the earth, both in riches & wysedome.

24 And al the world resorted to Solomon, to heare his wysedome which God had put in his hart:

25 And brought hym euery man his present, vessels of syluer, and vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, and sweete odours, & horses, and mules, yeere by yeere.

26 And Solomon geathered togeather charets and horsemen. And he had a thousand and foure hundred charettes, and twelue
2.Chro.1.d. thousande horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the kyng at Hierusalem.

27 And the kyng made syluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar as plenteous as the wilde figge trees, that growe abundantly in the feeldes.

* or, for the companye of the kynges marchantes did receiue a number at a price.

28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, & fyne linnen: the * kinges marchantes receiued the linnen for a price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt * for sixe hundred sicles of syluer, that is, one horse for an hundred and fiftie, and euen so for al the kynges of the Hethites, & for the kyngs of Syria, did they bring them out * thorowe theyr handes.

The.xi. Chapter.

1. Solomon had a thousande wiues and concubines, whiche bring him to idolatrie.

3.Reg.3.a. Deut.17. verse.17. 1 BUt king Solomon loued many outlandishe women, & the daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonites, and Hethites:

2 Where as yet concerning these nations, the Lorde sayd vnto the children of Israel, Goe not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you, els wyl they turne your hartes after theyr gods: neuertheless, Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

(a) God tolerated in his people the Israelites pluralitie of wiues, aswel for the increase of that his people, as also for the mysterie, For Agar and Sara Abrahams wiues, Lea and Rachel Iacobs wyues, were figures of the synagogue, & of the true Church: but Christ hath called vs to the first institution, saying, There shalbe two in one fleashe. Mat.xix. Iudges.ii.b.

(a) 3 And he had seuen hundred wiues (that were) queenes, & three hundred concubines: and his wiues turned away his hart.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wyues turned his hart after other gods: and his hart was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as was the hart of Dauid his father.

5 For Solomon folowed Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and folowed not the Lorde perfectly, as dyd Dauid his father.

7 For then dyd Solomon builde an hygh place for Chamos the abomination of Moab, in the hyl that is before Hierusalem, and vnto Moloch the abomination of the chyldren of Ammon. B

8 (b) And likewyse dyd he for al his outlandyshe wiues, which burnt incense, and offered vnto theyr gods.

(b) Here it appeareth what danger it is to ioyne with infidels and wiues of strange religion.

9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his hart was turned from the Lord God of Israel, whiche had appeared vnto hym twyse,

10 And gaue him a charge concernyng this thyng, that he shoulde not folowe other gods: but he keapt not that which the Lord commaunded hym.

11 Wherfore the Lord said vnto Solomon, Forasmuche as this is donne of thee, and thou hast not keapt mine appoyntment, and my statutes whiche I commaunded thee, I wyl rent the kyngdome from thee, and wyl geue it to thy seruant.

12 Notwithstandyng, in thy dayes I wil not doo it, because of Dauid thy father: but wil take it from the hande of thy sonne.

13 Howbeit, I wil not take away al ỹ kingdome: but wil geue one (c) tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruant, & because of Hierusalem which I haue chosen. C

(c) Because the tribes of Iuda and Beniamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

14 And the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kinges seede, whiche was in Edom.

15 For when Dauid was in Edom, and Joab the captayne of the host was gonne vp to burie them that were slayne, he smote al the men children in Edom:

16 (For sixe monethes did Joab remayne there, and al Israel, tyl he had destroyed al the men chyldren of Edom,)

17 And this Hadad fled, & certayne other Edomites of his fathers seruantes with him, to come into Egypt: Hadad beyng yet a litle chylde.

18 And they arose out of Madian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt, vnto Pharao kyng of Egypt, whiche gaue hym an house, and appoynted hym victualles, and gaue hym lande.

19 And Hadad gat great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue hym to wyfe the sister of his owne wyfe, euen the syster of Thaphpenes the queene.

20 And the syster of Thaphpenes bare him Genubath

Genubath his ſonne, whom Thahpenes nouriſhed in Pharaos houſe: and Genubath was with Pharaos houſholde among the ſonnes of Pharao.

D 21 And when Hadad hearde in Egypt that Dauid was laid to ſleepe with his fathers, and that Ioab the captayne of the hoſt was dead alſo, he ſayde to Pharao, Let me depart, that I may goe to myne owne countrey.

22 Pharao ſayd vnto him, What haſt thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldeſt thus goe to thyne owne countrey? He anſweared, Nothyng: howbeit, let me goe.

23 And God ſtirred him vp another aduerſarie, one Rezon the ſonne of Eliada, whiche fledde from his lorde Hadadezer kyng of Zoba:

24 And he geathered menne vnto him, and became captayne ouer the companie when Dauid ſlue them: and they went to Damaſcus, and dwelt there, and raigned in Damaſcus.

25 Therefore was he an aduerſarie to Iſrael al the dayes of Solomon, & this was the miſcheefe, in that Hadad dyd abhorre Iſrael, and raigned ouer Syria.

26 And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite of Zareda (whoſe mother was called Zeruah, whiche was a wydowe) and he Solomons ſeruant, lyft vp his hande agaynſt the kyng.

27 But this was the cauſe that he lyft vp his hand agaynſt the kyng: Solomon built Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

E 28 And this felowe Ieroboam was a man of ſtrength and courage: and Solomon ſeeyng the young man that he was able to doo the worke, made hym ruler ouer al the charge of the houſe of Ioſeph.

29 And at that ſeaſon Ieroboam went out of Hieruſalem, and the prophete Ahia the Silonite met him by the way, hauing a newe mantel on him, and they two were alone in the feelde.

30 Ahia caught the newe mantel that was on hym, and rent it in twelue peeces, 31 And ſayd to Ieroboam, Take thee tenne peeces: for thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, Behold, I wyl rent the kingdome out of the handes of Solomon, and wyl geue tenne tribes to thee.

2. Chro. 7. c 32 And he ſhal haue one for my ſeruant Dauids ſake, and for Hieruſalem the citie whiche I haue choſen out of al the tribes of Iſrael:

33 Becauſe they haue forſaken me, and haue worſhipped Aſtaroth the god of the Sidons, & Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfyl my pleaſure, my ſtatutes, and my lawes, as dyd Dauid his father.

34 I wyl not take the whole kingdome out of his hande: but I wyl make hym cheefe al his lyfe long, for Dauid my ſeruantes ſake whom I choſe, becauſe he keapt my commaundementes and my ſtatutes:

35 But I wyl take the kyngdome out of his ſonnes hande, and wyl geue it vnto thee, euen tenne tribes of it: F 1. King. 12. e Pſal. 132. b.

36 And vnto his ſonne wil I geue one tribe, that Dauid my ſeruant may haue a lyght alway before me in Hieruſalem, the citie whiche I haue choſen me to put my name there.

37 And I wyl take thee, & thou ſhalt raigne accordyng to al that thy ſoule deſyreth, and ſhalt be kyng ouer Iſrael.

38 And if thou hearken vnto al that I commaund thee, and wylt walke in my wayes, and doo that is ryght in my ſight, that thou keepe my ſtatutes, and my commaundementes, as Dauid my ſeruant dyd, then wyl I be with thee, and buylde thee a ſure houſe, as I buylt for my ſeruant Dauid, and wyl geue Iſrael vnto thee:

39 And I wyl for this (offence whiche Solomon hath committed) pounyſhe the ſeede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 Solomon ſought therefore to kyl Ieroboam, and Ieroboam aroſe, and fledde into Egypt, vnto Siſac king of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt vntyl the death of Solomon.

41 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Solomon, and al that he dyd, and his wiſdome, are they not written in the booke of the woordes of Solomon? G

42 The tyme that Solomon raigned in Hieruſalem vpon al Iſrael, was fourtie yeeres.

43 And Solomon ſleapt with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid his father: and Roboam his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

The. xii. Chapter.

I. Roboam ſucceedeth Solomon. 20. Ieroboam raigneth ouer Iſrael.

1 AND Roboam went to Sichem: for al Iſrael were come to Sichem to make hym kyng. A 2. Chr. 10. a

2 And when Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat whiche was yet in Egypt hearde of it (for he fled to Egypt from the preſence of king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt: 1. King. 11. f

3 So they sent, and called hym: and Jeroboam and al the congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Roboam, sayeing,

1. King. 4. b 4 Thy father made our yoke greeuous, nowe therfore make thou the greeuous seruice of thy father and his sore yoke whiche he put vpon vs, lyghter, and we wyl serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for the space of three dayes, & then comme agayne to me. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Roboam tooke counsel with the old menne that stoode before Solomon his father whyle he yet lyued, and sayde, What counsel geue ye, that I may answere this people?

ℬ 7 And they sayde vnto hym, (a) Yf thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and folowe their mindes, and answeare them, and speake kinde woordes to them, they wyl be thy seruantes for euer.

(a) Graue and wyse counsel.

8 But he forsooke the counsel that the olde menne had geuen him, and called vnto his counsel young menne that were growen vp with him, and wayted on him:

9 And he sayde vnto them, What counsel geue ye, that we may answere this people? for they haue communed with me, sayeing, Make the yoke whiche thy father dyd put vpon vs, lyghter.

(b) Young and rashe counsel.

10 (b) And the young men that were growen vp with hym, spake vnto hym, sayeing, Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people that haue sayd vnto thee, Thy father made our yoke heauy, but make thou it lyghter vnto vs: euen thus shalt thou say vnto thē, My litle fynger shalbe wayghtier, then my father was in the loynes.

11 And nowe where as my father dyd lade you, and put a greeuous yoke vpon you, I wyl make it heauyer: my father hath chastised you with rodes, but I wyl correct you with * scourges.

* or, scorpions.

12 And so Jeroboam, and al the people, came to Roboam the thirde day, as the kyng had appoynted, sayeing, Comme to me agayne the thirde day.

13 And the kyng answered the people churlishly, and left the olde mens counsel that they gaue him:

℈ 14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young menne, sayeing, My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyl make it greeuouser: my father also chastised you with rodes, but I wyl chastise you with scourges.

1. King. 11. f 15 And the kyng hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of GOD, that he myght perfourme his sayeing whiche the Lorde spake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And so when al Israel saw that the king regarded them not, the people answeared the kyng with these woordes, sayeing, What portion haue we in Dauid? we haue no inheritance in the sonne of Jsai: to your tentes, O Israel, nowe see to thyne owne house Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tentes. 2. Sa. 20. a. 2. Chr. 10. d

17 Howbeit ouer the chyldren of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Juda, dyd Roboam raigne styl.

18 The kyng Roboam sent Aduram the receiuer of the tribute, and al they of Israel stoned hym to death: but kyng Roboam made speede to geat hym vp to his charret, and to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And they of Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid vnto this day.

20 And when al Israel heard that Jeroboam was comme agayne, they sent, and called him vnto the multitude, and made hym king ouer al Israel, and there was no tribe that folowed the house of Dauid, but Juda onely.

D Chap. 11. verse. 13.

21 And when Roboam was comme to Hierusalem, he geathered al the house of Juda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred & fourescore thousand of chosen menne, which were good warriours, to fyght against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome agayne to Roboam the sonne of Solomon. 2. Chr. 11. a.

22 And the woorde of God came vnto Semaia the (c) man of God, sayeing,

(c) The prophet of God.

23 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Solomon kyng of Juda, and vnto al the house of Juda and Beniamin, & to the remnant of the people, sayeing, 24 Thus sayth the Lorde, Ye shal not goe vp, nor yet fyght agaynst your brethren the chyldren of Israel: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is my doing. They hearkened therefore to the woorde of the Lorde, and returned to depart, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde.

25 Then Jeroboam buylt Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and buylt Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam thought in his hart, Nowe shal the kingdome returne to the house of Dauid. Judg. 8. d.

27 (d) For if this people goe vp, and doo sacrifice in the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, then shal the hart of this people turne agayne vnto their Lorde Roboam kyng of Juda, and so shal they kyl me, and goe agayne to Roboam king of Juda.

(d) Worldly policie agaynst Gods woorde.

28 Whereupon the king tooke counsel, and made two calues of golde, and sayde vnto them, It is muche for you to goe vp to Hierusalem; Tob. 1. a. Eccle. 47. d Exod. 32. d. Exod. 32. a.

30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) as farre as Dan.

Num.3.a. 1.king.17.g

31 And he made an house of hygh places, and made priestes of the lowest of the people, whiche were not of the sonnes of Leui.

32 And Ieroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eyght moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Juda, and offered on the aulter: and so dyd he in Bethel, to offer vnto the calues that he had made: and he put in Bethel the priestes of the hygh places whiche he had made.

33 And he went vp to the aulter, to burne incense whiche he had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eyght moneth, euen in the moneth whiche he had imagined of his owne hart: and made a solempne feast vnto the childzen of Israel, * and offered vpon the aulter, and burnt incense.

* or, and he went vp to the aulter to burne incense.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1. Ieroboam is reprehended of the prophete.
4. His hande dryeth vp.

A 1 AND beholde, there came a (a) man of God out of Juda by the woord of the Lorde, vnto Bethel: and Ieroboam stood by the aulter, to put incense.

(a) A prophete.

2 And he cryed agaynst the aulter in the woorde of the Lorde, and saide, O aulter, aulter, thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, a childe shalbe borne vnto the house of Dauid, Iosia by name, and vppon thee shal he offer the priestes of the high places that burnt incense vpon thee, and mens bones shalbe burnt vpon thee.

4.kin.23.b.

3 And he gaue a token the same tyme, sayeing, This is the token that the Lorde hath spoken it, Behold, the aulter shal rent, and the asshes that are vpon it shal fal out.

4 And when the kyng hearde the sayeing of the man of God, whiche had cryed agaynst the aulter in Bethel, he stretched out his hande from the aulter, sayeing, Holde him: And his hande whiche he put forth agaynst him, dryed vp, and he could not pul it in agayne to him.

5 The aulter also claue a sunder, and the asshes fel out from the aulter, accordyng to the token whiche the man of God had geuen by the woorde of the Lorde.

Num. 21.b. Actes.8.c.

6 And the kyng answeared, and sayde vnto the man of God, Oh pray vnto the Lorde thy God, & make intercession for me, that my hand may be restored me agayne. And the man of God besought the Lorde, and the kinges hande was restored agayne, and became as it was before.

7 And the kyng saide vnto the man of god, Comme home with me, that thou mayest dyne, and I wyl geue thee a rewarde.

8 And the man of God sayde vnto the kyng, If thou wouldest geue me halfe thyne B house, I wyl not goe in with thee, neither wyl I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me through the woorde of the Lorde, sayeing, Eate no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne agayne by the same way that thou camest.

10 And so he went another way, and returned not by ỹ way that he came to Bethel.

11 And there dwelt an olde prophete in Bethel, and his sonnes came and tolde him al the woorkes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: and the woords which he had spoken vnto the kyng, tolde they their father also.

12 And their father sayde vnto them, What way went he? And his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went, whiche came from Juda.

13 And he sayde vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. Which when they had sadled, he gate hym vp thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, & found him sitting vnder an oke, and he sayde vnto C him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Juda? And he sayde, I am.

15 He sayde vnto him, Comme home with me, and eate bread.

16 He answeared, I may not returne with thee, to goe in with thee: neither wil I eate bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was sayde to me in the woorde of the Lorde, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne agayne to goe by the way that thou camest.

18 He sayde vnto him, I am a prophete also as wel as thou, and an angel spake vnto me in the woorde of the Lorde, sayeing, Bryng him agayne with thee into thyne house, that he may eate bread, and drynke water: (And) he lyed vnto him.

19 And so he went agayne with him, & dyd eate bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete that brought him agayne.

21 And he cryed vnto the man of God that came from Juda, sayeing, Thus saith the Lorde, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lorde, and hast not keapt the comcommaundement which the Lord thy God commaunded thee,

22 But camest backe agayne, and hast eaten bread, and dronke water, in the place concernyng the whiche the Lorde did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke no water: thy carcasse shal not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And when he had eaten bread, dronke, he sadled him the asse, to wit, to the prophete whom he had brought agayne.

3.king.20.f 24 And when he was gonne, (b) a Lion met him by the way, and slue him: and his carcasse was cast in the way, and the asse stood thereby, and the Lion stoode by the corse also.

(b) The minister of god not dooing his duetie accordyng to gods woord, is in most danger of punishment.

25 And menne that passed by, sawe the carcasse cast in the way, and the Lion standing by the carcasse: and they came and tolde it in ỹ towne where the olde prophete dwelt.

26 And when the prophete, that brought hym backe agayne from the way, hearde thereof, he sayde, It is the man of God, he was disobedient vnto the woorde of the Lorde, and therefore the Lord hath delinered him vnto the Lion, whiche hath rent him, and slayne him, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde whiche he spake vnto him.

27 And he spake to his sonnes, sayeing, Saddle me an asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went, and founde his body cast in the way, and the Asse and the Lion stoode by the corse, and the Lion had not eaten the carcasse, nor hurt the Asse.

29 And the prophete tooke vp the body of the man of God, and layde it vpon the asse, and brought it agayne: and the olde prophete came to the citie, to lament, and to burie him.

30 And he layd his body in his owne graue, and then lamented ouer him, (sayeing,) Alas my brother.

31 And when he had buryed him, he spake to his sonnes, sayeing, When I am dead, see that ye bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buryed: lay my bones beside his bones.

4.king.23.b 32 For the sayeing whiche he cryed at the woorde of the Lorde against the aulter in Bethel, and agaynst al the houses of hygh places whiche are in the cities of Samarie, shal comme to passe.

The.xviii. Chapter.

1. Elias is sent to Achab. 13. Obadia hydeth an hundred prophetes. 40. Elias kylleth al Baals prophetes.

A 1 AFter processe of many dayes, the word of the Lord came to Elias in the third yeere, sayeing, Goe shewe thee selfe vnto Achab, and I wyl sende rayne vppon the earth.

Deut.11.b. 2 And Elias went to shewe hym selfe vnto Achab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Achab called Obadia, whiche was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Jezabel destroyed the prophetes of the Lorde, Obadia tooke an hundred prophetes, and hyd them by fiftie in a caue, and prouided bread and water for them.)

5 And Achab sayde vnto Obadia, Goe into the land, vnto al fountaynes of water, & vnto al brookes, yf so that we maye fynde grasse to saue the horses and mules alyue, that al the beastes perishe not.

6 And so they diuided the lande betweene them, to walke throughout it: Achab went one way by hym selfe, and Obadia went another way by hym selfe.

B 7 And as Obadia was in the way, beholde, Elias met hym: and he knewe hym, and fel on his face, and sayde, Art not thou my lord Elias?

8 And he answeared hym, I am he: goe and tel thy lord, Beholde, Elias is here.

9 He sayd, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hand of Achab, to slaye me?

10 As the Lorde thy God lyueth, there is no nation or kyngdome, whyther my lorde hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they sayde, He is not there, he tooke an othe of the kyngdome and nation, when he founde thee not.

11 And nowe thou sayest, Goe and tel thy lorde that Elias is here.

12 And as soone as I am gonne from thee, the spirite of the Lord shal carrye thee into sonme place that I doo not knowe, and so when I comme and tel Achab, and he can not finde thee, he shal slaye me: but I thy seruant feare the Lorde from my youth vp.

13 Was it not tolde my lorde what I dyd when Jezabel slue the prophetes of the Lorde? howe I hyd an hundred menne of the Lordes prophetes, fiftie menne in one caue, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread and water?

C 14 And thou sayest, Goe thou nowe & shewe thy lorde, Beholde, Elias is here, that he may slaye me.

15 And Elias sayde, As the Lord of hostes lyueth, before whom I stande, I wyl shewe mee selfe vnto hym this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Achab, and told him: and Achab went to meete Elias.

17 And when Achab sawe Elias, he sayde vnto hym, Art thou he þ troubleth Israel?

18 He answeared, It is not I that haue troubled Israel, but (a) thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commaundementes of the Lorde, and thou hast followed Baal.

(a) The ministers of gods word ought to be faithful and bolde to reproue the wicked without respect of persons.

19 Nowe therefore send, and gather to me al Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophetes of Baal, foure hundred and fyftie, and the prophetes of the groues, foure hundred, whiche eate at Jezabels table.

20 So Achab sent vnto al the children of Israel, and geathered the prophetes togeather vnto mount Carmel.

D 21 And Elias came vnto al the people, and sayde, How long (b) halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lorde be God, folowe him: but yf Baal be he, then goe after him. And the people answeared hym not one woorde.

(b) Religion is not an indifferent thing, but wholly to be embraced, & constantly professed.

22 Then sayde Elias vnto the people (agayne,) I onely remayne a prophet of the Lorde: but Baals prophetes are foure (c) hundred and fiftie.

(c) Baal hath more prophetes then God.

23 Let them therfore geue vs two oxen, and let them choose the one, and cut hym in peeces, and laye hym on wood, and put no fyre vnder: and I wyl dresse the other oxe, and laye hym on wood, and wyl put no fyre vnder.

24 And cal ye on the name of your goddes, and I wyl cal on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answeareth by fyre, let hym be God. And al the people answeared, and sayde, It is wel spoken. I. Sam. 9. c.

25 And Elias sayde vnto the prophetes of Baal, Choose you an oxe, and dresse him firste, for ye are many: and cal on the name of your goddes, but put no fire vnder.

26 And they toke þ one oxe that he did geue them, & they dressed it, & called on the name of Baal from morning, tyl noone, saying, O Baal heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to answeare: and they leapt vpon the aulter that they had made.

27 And at noone, Elias mocked them, and sayde, Crye loude, for he is a god, peraduenture he is talking or occupied in folowing vpon his enimies, or in his iourney, or it maye be he sleepeth, and muste be awaked (with your crye.)

28 And they cryed loude, & cut them selues, as

Gene.32.f.

32 And with the stones he made an aulter in the name of the Lorde: and he made a ditche about the aulter, as great as would conteyne two measures of seede.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the oxe in peeces, and layde hym on the wood, and sayde, Fyl foure barrels with water, and powre it on the whole burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

F 34 And he sayde, Doo so agayne. And they dyd so the seconde tyme. And he sayde agayne, Doo it the thirde tyme. And they dyd it the thirde tyme.

35 And the water ranne rounde about the aulter, & he filled the pit with water also.

36 And when they should offer the euening sacrifice, Elias the prophete came, & sayd, Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel, it shalbe knowen this day that thou art the God in Israel, & (that) I (am) thy seruant, and that I haue done al these thinges at thy commaundement, 37 Heare me, O Lorde, heare me, that this people may knowe that thou art the Lorde God, and (that) thou hast turned their hart agayne nowe at the last.

Iudic.6.d. Eccle.48.a 1.Mach.1.a 38 And the fire of the Lorde fel, and consumed the whole burnt sacrifice, & the wood, and the stones, and the duste, and licked vp the water that was in the pyt.

41 And Elias saide vnto Achab, Geat thee vp, eate, and drynke, for there is a sounde of muche rayne.

42 And so Achab went vp to eate and to drynke: and Elias went vp to the toppe of Carmel, & he layde him selfe flat vpon the earth, and put his face betweene his knees, 43 And sayd to his seruant, Goe vp, (I pray thee) and looke toward the way of the sea. And he went vp, and looked, & sayd, There is nothyng. And agayne he sayde, Goe agayne seuen tymes.

44 And at the seuenth tyme, he sayde, Beholde, there aryseth a litle cloude out of the sea, lyke a mans hande. He sayde, Goe and say vnto Achab, Prepare (thy charet) and geat thee downe, that the rayne stop thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes and wynde, and there was a great rayne: and Achab gate vp, and came to Iezrahel.

46 And the hand of the Lorde was on Elias, and he gyrded vp his loynes, and ranne before Achab, tyl he came to Iezrahel.

The.xix.Chapter.

1. Elias fleeyng from Iezabel, is nourished by the angel of God. 15. He is commaunded to annoynt Hazael, Iehu, and Eliseus.

1 AND Achab told Iezabel al that Elias had donne, and howe he had slayne al the prophetes with the swoorde. A

2 Then Iezabel sent a messenger vnto Elias, sayeing, So and so let the goddes doo to me, yf I make not thy soule lyke one of theirs, by to morowe this tyme. 1. king.2.b.

3 When he sawe that, he arose, and went for his lyfe, and came to Beer seba in Iuda, and leaft his seruant there.

4 But he hym selfe went a dayes iourney into the wyldernesse, and came and sate downe vnder a Iuniper tree, and he desired for his soule that he myght dye, and sayde, It is nowe ynough, O Lorde, take my soule: for I am not better then my fathers. Ionas.4.c. Daniel.12.

5 And as he laye and sleapt vnder the Iuniper tree, beholde, an angel touched him, and sayde vnto hym, Vp, and eate.

6 And when he looked about hym, behold, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a vessel of water at his head: and he did eate and drynke, and layde hym downe agayne to sleepe.

7 And the angel of the Lorde came agayne the seconde tyme, and touched hym, & sayd, Vp, and eate, for thou hast yet a great iourney. B

8 And he arose, and dyd eate and drynke, & walked in the strength of that meate, fourtie dayes, and fourtie nyghtes, euen vnto Horeb the mount of God. Exod.34.d. Matth.4.d.

9 When he came thyther vnto a caue, he lodged therein al night, & behold, the word of of the Lorde came to hym, and sayde vnto hym, What dooest thou here, Elias?

Rom. 11. a. 10 And he answeared, I haue ben ielous for the Lorde God of hostes sake: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine aulters, and slayne thy prophetes with the swoorde: and I only am leaft, and they seeke my lyfe, to take it away.

Eccle. 48. a. 11 And he sayde, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lorde. And beholde, the Lorde went by, and a myghtie strong wind that rent the mountaynes, and brake the rockes before the Lorde, but the Lorde was not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake, but the Lorde was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake, came fyre, but the Lord was not in the fyre: and after the fyre, came a smal styl voyce.

13 And when Elias heard, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stoode in the entring in of the caue: and beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, and sayde, What dooest thou here, Elias?

C 14 And he answeared, I haue ben ielous for the Lord God of hostes sake, because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, cast downe thyne aulters, and slayne thy prophetes with the swoorde, and I only am leaft, and they seeke my lyfe to take it away.

15 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Goe, and turne thy way to the wildernes, vnto Damascus: and when thou comest there, annoynt Hazael kyng ouer Syria:

2. Reg. 8. d. 2. Reg. 9. b. 16 And Iehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou annoynt kyng ouer Israel: and Eliseus the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah, shalt thou annoynt to be prophete in thy roome.

17 And who so escapeth the swoorde of Hazael, hym shal Iehu slay: and yf any man escape the swoorde of Iehu, him shal Eliseus put to death.

Rom. 10. a. (a) Wycked idolaters are not of God. 18 And I haue leaft me seuen thousande in Israel, of whiche neuer man (a) bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kyssed hym with his mouth.

19 So he departed thence, and founde Eliseus the sonne of Saphat plowyng, and hauyng twelue yoke of oxen before hym, and he with the twelue: and Elias went by hym, and cast his mantle vpon hym.

Luke. 9. c. 20 And he leaft the oxen, & ran after Elias, and sayd, Let me, I pray thee, kysse my father and my mother, and then I will folow thee. He sayde vnto him, Goe backe againe, for what is it that I haue donne to thee?

D 21 And when he went backe agayne from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, & slue them, and dressed the fleashe, with the instrumentes of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: and then he arose, & went after Elias, and ministred vnto hym.

The. xx. Chapter.

1. Samaria is besieged. 13. The Lorde promiseth the victory to Achab by a prophete.

1 AND Benhadad the king of Syria gea- A thered al his host togeather, hauyng thirtie and two kinges with hym, and horses, and charrets: and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and warred agaynst it.

2 And he sent messengers to Achab king of Israel, into the citie, and sayde vnto hym, Thus sayth Benhadad, 3 Thy syluer and thy gold is mine, and the fayrest of thy wiues, and of thy children, be myne.

4 And the kyng of Israel answeared and said, My lord king, according to thy sayeing, I am thine, and al that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came agayne, they sayde, Thus sayth Benhadad, Forasmuche as I haue sent vnto thee, sayeing, Thou shalt deliuer me thy syluer, and thy golde, and thy wiues, and thy children:

6 I wyl therefore sende my seruantes vnto thee to morowe this tyme, and they shal searche thyne house, and the houses of thy seruantes, and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shal take it in theyr handes, and bryng it away.

7 Then the king of Israel sent for al the el- B ders of the lande, and sayd, Take heede, I pray you, and see howe this felowe goeth about mischeefe: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, for my children, for my syluer, and for my golde, and I denyed hym not.

8 And al the elders, and al the people sayd, Hearken not vnto hym, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he sayde vnto the messengers of Benhadad, Tel my lorde the kyng, Al that thou diddest sende for to thy seruant at the first time, that I wil do: but this thyng I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought answeare againe.

10 And Benhadad sent vnto hym agayne, and sayde, Thus and thus do the gods vnto me, yf the dust of Samaria be yenough for al the people that folowe me, to take euery man an handful.

11 And the king of Israel answeared, and sayde, Tel hym, Let not hym that putteth on his harneste, boast hym selfe, as hym that putteth it of.

12 And when Benhadad heard that tidinges (as he was with the kinges drynkyng within within the pauilions,) he sayde vnto his seruantes, Put your selues in order. And they set them selues in aray agaynst the citie.

13 And beholde, there came a prophete vnto Achab king of Israel, sayeing, Thus sayth the Lorde, Hast thou seene al this great multitude? beholde, I wyl deliuer it into thyne hande this day, and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde.

C 14 And Achab sayde, By whom? He sayd, Thus saith the lord, Euen by the seruants of the gouernours of the shyres. He sayde agayne, Who shal order the battayle? And he answeared, Thou.

15 Then he numbred the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres, and they were two hundred, and thirtie, and two: and after them also he numbred al the people of the children of Israel (euen) seuen thousande.

16 And they went out at noone: but Benhadad dyd drynke tyl he was dronken in the pauilions, both he, and the kynges, euen thirtie & two kinges that holpe hym.

17 And the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres went out firste, and Benhadad sent out, and they shewed him, sayeing, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 He sayde, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alyue: or whether they be come out to fyght, take them yet alyue.

19 And so those young men of the gouernoures of the shyres, came out of the citie, and the host after them:

20 And they slue euery one his enimie (that came in his way:) and the Syrians fled, and they of Israel folowed after them: & Benhadad the kyng of Syria scaped on a horse, with his horsemen.

D 21 And the kyng of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charrets, and with a great slaughter, slue he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a prophete to the king of Israel, and sayde vnto hym, Goe forth, and play the man, be wyse, and take heede what thou dooest: for when the yeere is gone about, the kyng of Syria wil come vp agaynst thee.)

23 And the seruantes of the king of Syria sayde vnto him, The gods of the hilles are their goddes, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fight agaynst them in the playne, and (for what ye wyl) we shal haue the better of them.

24 And this doo, Take the kinges away, euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their roomes:

25 And number thee an host, lyke the host that thou hast lost, such horses, & suche charets, and we wyl fyght agaynst them in the playne, and thou shalt see vs geat the better of them. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and dyd euen so.

26 And after the yeere was gone about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphec, to fyght agaynst Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbred, and with their whole number went they agaynst them, & the children of Israel pytched before them, like two lytle flockes of kyds: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and saide vnto the kyng of Israel, Thus sayth the Lord, Because the Syrians haue said, The Lorde is but GOD of the hylles, and not God of the valleyes: therefore wyl I deliuer al this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde. C

29 And they pytched one ouer agaynst the other seuen dayes: and in the seuenth day the battel was ioyned, and the children of Israel slue of the Syrians, an hundred thousande footemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphec into the citie, and there fel a wal vpon twentie and seuen thousande of the men that were leaft: and Benhadad fled, & came into the citie from chamber to chamber.

31 And his seruantes sayde vnto him, Beholde, we haue hearde say that the kynges of the house of Israel are mercifull kynges: we wil therefore put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heades, and goe out to the kyng of Israel, it may be, he wil saue thy lyfe.

32 And so they gyrded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heades, and came to the kyng of Israel, and sayde, Thy seruant Benhadad sayth, I pray thee let me lyue. He sayde, Is he yet alyue? he is my brother.

33 And the men tooke that woorde for good lucke, & haftily caught it out of his mouth, and sayde, Yea thy brother (a) Benhadad. He sayde, Goe, bring hym hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto hym, & he caused hym to come vp into the charret. (a) He is aliue.

34 And he saide vnto him, The cities whiche my father tooke from thy father, I wil restore againe, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damascus, as my father dyd in Samaria: and I wyl make an appoyntment with thee, and sende thee away. And so he made an appoyntment with him, and sent him away.

35 And there was a certaine man, of the chil- F dren of the prophetes, whiche sayde vnto his neighbour in the woorde of the Lorde, Smite me, I pray thee. And ỹ man would not smyte hym.

36 Then sayde he vnto hym, Because thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, beholde, as soone as thou art departed from me, a lion shal slay thee. And as 3.king.13.d soone as he was departed from him, a lion founde hym, and slue hym.

37 Then he founde another man, and sayd, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smityng, he wounded hym.

38 So the prophet went foorth, and wayted for the kyng by the way, and put him selfe out of knowledge, with ashes which he laid vpon his face.

39 And when the kyng came by, he cryed vnto the kyng, and said, Thy seruant went out in the myddes of the batayle, and behold, there went away a man, whom an other man brought vnto me, & sayde, Keepe this man: and yf he be missed, or loste, thy lyfe shal goe for his, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy seruant had here and there to doo, he was gonne. And the kyng of Israel sayd vnto hym, Euen so shal thy iudgment be, as thou hast geuen sentence.

41 And he hasted, and tooke the ashes away from his face, and the kyng of Israel knew hym that he was of the prophetes:

3.king.22. 42 And he sayd vnto hym, Thus sayth the Lorde, Because thou hast let goe out of thy hand a man whom I appoynted to dye, thy lyfe shal goe for his lyfe, and thy people for his people.

43 And the kyng of Israel went to his house, heauie, and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

The. xxi. Chapter.

8. Iezabel commaundeth to kil Naboth for the vineyarde that he refused to sel to Achab. 19. Elias reproueth Achab, and he repenteth.

A 1 AFter these thynges, Naboth the Iez- 1.Sam.8.b. raelite had a vineyarde in Iezrahel, harde by the palace of Achab, kyng of Samaria.

3 And Naboth sayde to Achab, The Lorde forbyd that from me, that I shoulde geue the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 And Achab came into the house, heauie, and euyl apayd, because of the word which Naboth the Iezraelite had spoken to hym: for he had sayde, I wyl not geue thee the inheritance of my fathers: And he layde him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread.

5 But Iezabel his wyfe came to hym, and sayde vnto hym, Why is thy spirite so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he sayde vnto her, For I spake vnto Naboth the Iezraelite, and said vnto him, Geue me thy vineyarde for money: or els if it please thee, I wyl geue thee (another) vineyarde for it. And he answeared, I wyl not geue thee my vineyarde.

7 And Iezabel his wyfe sayd vnto him, (a) Doest thou nowe gouerne the kyngdome of Israel? vp, and eate bread, and set thine hart at reast: I wyl geue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Iezraelite.

8 And so she wrote a letter in Achabs name, and sealed it with his seale, & sent the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letter, sayeing, Proclayme a (b) fast, and set Naboth on hygh among the people:

10 And set two vnthryftes before him, to beare witnesse against him, sayeing, Thou dyddest blaspheme God and the kyng: and then cary him out, and stone him to death.

11 And (c) the menne of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours which dwelt in his citie, dyd as Iezabel had sent vnto them, and as it was wrytten in the letter whiche she had sent vnto them.

12 They proclaymed a fast, and set Naboth among the cheefe of the people.

13 And there came in two menne the chyldren of Belial, and sate before him: and the (two) vnthryftie persons witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, sayeing, Naboth dyd blaspheme God and the kyng. And they caryed hym out of the citie, and stoned hym with stones, that he dyed.

14 And then they sent to Iezabel, sayeing, Naboth is stoned to death.

15 And when Iezabel hearde that Naboth was stoned to death, she sayde to Achab, Up, and take possession of the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezraelite, whiche he denyed to geue thee for money: for Naboth is not alyue, but dead.

16 And when Achab hearde that Naboth was dead, he stoode vp, to goe downe to the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezraelite, and to take possession of it.

17 And the woorde of the Lorde came to Elias the Thesbite, sayeing,

1.king.22.f. 20 And Achab sayde to Elias, Hast thou founde me, O thou myne enimie? He answeared, I haue founde thee: for thou hast sold thee selfe to worke wickednesse in the syght of the Lorde.

26 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd, Take Michea, & cary him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Joas the kynges ſonne, 27 And ſay, Thus ſayth the kyng, Put this felowe in the priſon houſe, and feede hym with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntyl I returne in peace.

E 28 And Michea ſaid, If thou returne in peace, the Lorde hath not ſpoken by me. And he ſayd, Hearken ye people, euery one of you.

29 And ſo the king of Iſrael, and Joſaphat the kyng of Iuda, went vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead.

30 And the kyng of Iſrael ſaide vnto Joſaphat, I wyl change my apparel, and wyl enter into the battel, but put thou on thyne apparel. And the king of Iſrael changed hym ſelfe, and went to battel.

31 But the kyng of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaynes that had rule ouer his charrets, ſayeing, Fyght neyther with ſmal nor great, ſaue only againſt the kyng of Iſrael.

32 And when the captaynes of the charrets ſawe Joſaphat, they ſayde, Surely it is the kyng of Iſrael. And they turned to fyght againſt hym: And Joſaphat cryed.

33 And when the captaynes of the charrets ſawe that he was not the kyng of Iſrael, they turned backe from hym.

34 And a certaine man drewe a bowe ignorantly, and ſmote the kyng of Iſrael betweene the ribbes and his harneſſe: Wherfore he ſaid vnto the driuer of his charrets, Turne thy hande, and carie me out of the hoſt, for I am "hurt.

"Heb. ſicke.

35 And the battel encreaſed that day: and F the kyng ſtoode ſtyl in his charret againſt the Syrians, and dyed at euen: And the blood ranne out of the wounde, into the middes of the charret.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the hoſt, about the goeyng downe of the ſunne, ſayeing, Euery man to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, & was brought to Samaria, & they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one waſhed the charret in the poole of Samaria, and the dogges licked vp his blood, and they waſhed his armour, according vnto the woorde of the Lorde whiche he ſpake. Chap. 21. c.

39 The reaſt of the woordes that concerne Achab, and al that he did, and the Iuorie houſe which he made, and al the cities that he builded, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael?

40 And ſo Achab ſlept with his fathers, and Ahazia his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

41 Joſaphat the ſonne of Aſa, began to raigne vpon Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Achab kyng of Iſrael. 2. Par. 20. c

42 And Joſaphat was thirtie and fiue yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned twentie and fiue yeeres in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Aſuba, the daughter of Silhi.

43 And he walked in al the wayes of Aſa his father, and bowed not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lorde:

Lord: Neuertheleſſe, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incenſe yet in the high places.

44 And Iosaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

3. Reg. 15. f. 45 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Iosaphat, and the might that he vſed, and howe he warred, are they not writtē in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Iuda?

46 And the remnant of the ſtewes of the males which remayned in the dayes of his father Asa, he put cleane out of the lande.

(d) In the time of this kyng, Idumea was ſubiect to Iuda, and was gouerned by whom they of Iuda appoynted. 47 (d) There was then no kyng in Edom, the deputie was king.

48 And Iosaphat made ſhyppes in the ſea, to come through Tharſis to Ophir for golde, but they went not, for the ſhyppes brake at Eziongaber.

49 Then ſayde Ahazia the ſonne of Achab vnto Iosaphat, Let my ſeruantes goe with thy ſeruantes in the ſhyppes. But Iosaphat woulde not.

50 And Iosaphat did ſleepe with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iehoram his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

51 Ahazia the ſonne of Achab began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria the ſeuenteenth yeere of Iosaphat kyng of Iuda, & raigned two yeeres ouer Israel.

52 But he did euyl in the ſyght of the lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to ſinne.

53 For he ſerued Baal, and worſhipped him, and prouoked the Lorde God of Israel vnto wrath, accordyng vnto al that his father had donne.

The firſt Chapter.

2. Ahazia by a fal falleth ſicke, and conſulteth with Beelzebub.

1 THen Moab rebelled againſt Israel, after the death of Achab.

2 And Ahazia fel through a lattes window of his vpper chāber that he had in Samaria, and whyle he was in his ſickneſſe, he ſent meſſengers, and ſayde vnto them, Goe and enquire of (a) Beelzebub the god of Ekrom, whether I ſhal recouer of this my diſeaſe.

(a) The god of flyes: ſo called, either for that the people thought that he could preſerue them frō the flyes, wherewith that coūtrey was infected, or becauſe flies were ingendred in great abundance, of the blood of the ſacrifices to that idol.

3 But the angel of the Lord ſpake to Elias the Thelbite, Ariſe, and goe vp againſt the meſſengers of the kyng of Samaria, and ſay vnto them, Is there not a God in Israel, that ye goe to aſke counſel at Beelzebub the god of Ekrom?

4 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death. And Elias departed.

5 And when the meſſengers turned backe agayne vnto him, he ſayd vnto them, Why are ye nowe come agayne?

6 They anſwered him, There came a man vp agaynſt vs, and ſayde vnto vs, Goe and turne agayne vnto the kyng that ſent you, and ſay vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Is there not a God in Israel, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom? therefore thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed one whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

7 And he ſayd vnto them, What manner of man was that whiche came vp, and met you, and tolde you theſe wordes? B

8 And they anſwered him, It was an hearie man, and gyrt with a gyrdle of leather about his loynes. And he ſayde, It is Elias the Thelbite. Mat. 3. b.

9 Then the kyng ſent vnto hym a captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: which came to him (and beholde, he ſate on the top of an hyl) & he ſpake vnto him, Thou man of God, the king hath ſayde, Come downe.

10 Elias anſwearing and ſaid to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If I be a man of God, let fyre come downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. (b) And there came fire from heauen, and conſumed hym and his fiftie. (b) The threatninges of gods prophetes are effectual againſt the wicked.

11 Agayne alſo he ſent vnto him another captayne tayne ouer fyftie, with his fyftie: And he ſpake and ſayde vnto hym, O man of God, thus hath the kyng ſayde, Make haſte, and comme downe.

12 Elias anſweared and ſayde vnto them, If I be a man of GOD, let fyre comme downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. And there came fyre of God from heauen, and conſumed him and his fyftie.

13 And the king yet agayne ſent the thirde captayne ouer fyftie, with his fyftie men: And the thirde captayne ouer fyftie went vp, and came and fel on his knees before Elias, and beſought him, and ſaide vnto him, Oh man of God, I pray thee, let my lyfe, and the lyfe of the fyftie thy ſeruantes, be precious in thy ſyght.

14 Beholde, there came fyre downe from heauen, & burnt vp the two fore captaynes ouer fyftie with their fyfties: therefore let my lyfe nowe be pretious in thy ſyght.

15 And the angel of the Lorde ſayde vnto Elias, Goe downe with him, and (c) be not afrayde of him. And he aroſe, and went downe with him vnto the king.

(c) God boldeneth his miniſters to doo their meſſage.

16 And he ſayde vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Foraſmuch as thou haſt ſent meſſengers to aſke counſel at Beelzebub the God of Ekron (as though there had benne no God in Iſrael, whoſe woord thou mighteſt ſeeke after) therefore thou ſhalt not comme downe of the bed on whiche thou art gonne vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

17 And ſo he dyed, according to the woorde of the Lorde whiche Elias had ſpoken: and Ioram (his brother) beganne to raigne in his ſteade, in the ſecond yeere of Ioram the ſonne of Ioſaphat king of Iuda, becauſe he had no ſonne.

18 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Ahazia, what thinges he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Iſrael?

The.ii. Chapter.

8. Elias diuideth the waters with his cloke. 11. He is taken vp into heauen. 23. The chyldren that mocke Eliſeus are rent in peeces with beares.

2 And Elias ſayde vnto "Eliſeus, Tarie here, I pray thee, for the Lorde hath ſent me to Bethel. Eliſeus ſayde vnto him, As the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, I wyl not leaue thee. And they came downe to Bethel.

" or, Eliſa.

1.Sa.28.d

3 (a) And the chyldren of the prophetes that were at Bethel, came out to Eliſeus, and ſayd vnto him, Knoweſt thou not how that the Lorde wyl take away thy maiſter from thy head this day? He ſayde, I knowe it alſo, holde you your peace.

(a) The children of the prophetes, that is, the diſciples of the prophets

4 And Elias ſayde vnto him, Eliſeus tary here, I pray thee: for the Lorde hath ſent me to Iericho. He ſayde, As the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, I wyl not leaue thee. And ſo they came to Iericho.

5 And the chyldren of the prophetes that were at Iericho came to Eliſeus, and ſayd vnto him, Knoweſt thou not that the Lord wyl take away thy maiſter from thy head this day? He anſweared, I knowe it alſo, holde ye your peace.

6 And Elias ſayd vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lorde hath ſent me to Iordane. He ſaid, As the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, I wyl not leaue thee. And ſo they two went togeather.

7 And fyftie menne of the ſonnes of the prophetes came, and ſtoode on the other ſyde a farre of: and they two ſtoode by Iordane. B

8 And Elias tooke his mantel, and wrapt it togeather, and ſmote the waters, and they were diuided part the one way, & part the other: ſo that they two went ouer thorowe the drye lande.

9 And aſſoone as they were ouer, Elias ſayde vnto Eliſeus, Aſke what I ſhal doo for thee yer I be take away from thee. And Eliſeus ſayde, I pray thee, let thy ſpirite be double vpon me.

10 And he ſayde, Thou haſt aſked an harde thing: neuertheleſſe, if thou ſee me when I am take away from thee, thou ſhalt haue it ſo: if thou doo not, it ſhal not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, beholde there appeared a charet of fyre, and horſes of fyre, and parted them both a ſunder, and Elias went vp through the whyrle winde into (b) heauen.

Eccle. 48.a.

(b) A teſtimonie of the reſurrection.

12 And Eliſeus ſawe, and cryed, O my father, O my father, the charet of Iſrael, and the horſemen thereof. And he ſawe him no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, and rent them in two peeces.

13 He tooke vp alſo the mantel of Elias that fel from him, and went backe agayne, and ſtoode by Iordanes ſyde, 14 And tooke the mantel of Elias that fel from him, and ſmote the waters, and he ſayde, Where is the Lorde God of Elias, and he him ſelfe? And when he had ſmitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Eliſeus went ouer.

15 And when the chyldren of the prophetes, which were at Iericho, ſaw him frō a farre, they ſayde, The ſpirite of Elias dooth reſt on Eliſeus: And they came to meete hym, and fel to the grounde before hym, 16 And ſayde vnto hym, See, now there be with thy ſeruantes fyftie ſtrong menne, let them goe, we pray thee, and ſeeke thy maiſter: if ſo be the ſpirite of the Lorde hath taken hym vp, & caſt hym vpon ſomme mountayne, or into ſomme valley. And he ſayde, Ye ſhal ſende none.

17 And when they lay vpon him, tyl he was aſhamed, he ſayde, Sende. They ſent therfore fyftie menne, whiche ſought hym three dayes, but founde hym not.

18 And when they came agayne to hym (whiche taryed at Iericho) he ſayde vnto them, Dyd I not ſay vnto you, that ye ſhoulde not goe?

19 And the menne of the citie ſayd vnto Eliſeus, Beholde yꝛ, the dwelling of this citie is pleaſant, as thou thee ſelfe ſeeſt: but the water is nought, & the ground "barren.

"or, kylleth the inhabitantes.

20 He ſayd, Bring me a new cruſe, and put ſalt therein. And they brought it to hym.

D 21 And he went vnto the ſpring of the waters, and caſt the ſalt in thyther, and ſayde, thus ſayth the Lorde, I haue healed theſe waters, there ſhal not comme hencefoorth either death or barrennelſe.

22 So the waters were healed vnto this day, accordyng to the ſayeing of Eliſeus, whiche he ſpake.

23 And he went vp frō thence vnto Bethel: and as he was goeyng vp the way, there came litle chyldren out of the citie, & mocked him, and ſayde vnto him, Goe vp thou balde head, goe vp thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe, & looked on them, and curſed them in the name of the Lord: & there came two ſhee beares out of ẏ wood, and tare fourtie and two children of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he turned agayne to Samaria.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The raigne of Ioram. 6. He and Ioſaphat goe to warre againſt Moab, whiche rebelled. 24. The Moabites are ouercome.

A 1 NOwe Ioram the ſonne of Achab began to raigne vpon Iſrael in Samaria the eightenth yeere of Ioſaphat king of Iuda, and raigned twelue yeeres.

2 And he wrought euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde, but not lyke his father and lyke his mother: for he put away the images of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheleſſe he cleaued vnto the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Meſa king of Moab was a lorde of ſheepe, and rendered vnto the king of Iſrael an hundred thouſande lambes, and an hundred thouſande rammes, with the wool.

5 But when Achab was dead, the kyng of Moab rebelled agaynſt the kyng of Iſrael.

6 And king Ioram went out of Samaria the ſame ſeaſon, and numbred al Iſrael:

B 7 And went, and ſent to Ioſaphat the kyng of Iuda, ſayeing, The kyng of Moab hath rebelled agaynſt me, wylt thou comme with me agaynſt Moab in battayle? He anſwered, I wyl comme vp: for as I am, ſo art thou: and as my people be, ſo are thy people: and my horſes as thy horſes. 1. King. 22.

8 And he ſayde, What way ſhal we goe vp? And he anſweared, The way through the wylderneſſe of Edom.

9 And ſo the king of Iſrael tooke his iourney, and the kyng of Iuda, and the kyng of Edom: And when they had compaſſed the way ſeuen dayes, they had no water for the hoſt, and for the cattayle that "folowed them. "Heb. were at their feete

10 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde, Alas, the Lorde hath called theſe three kinges togeather, to deliuer them ouer into the hande of Moab.

11 But Ioſaphat ſayde, Is there not here a prophete of the Lorde, that we may enquire of the Lorde by hym? And one of the kyng of Iſraels ſeruantes anſweared, and ſayde, Here is Eliſeus the ſonne of Saphat, whiche powred water on the handes of Elias. 2. king. 22. a 12 And Ioſaphat ſayde, The woorde of the Lorde is with him. And ſo the kyng of Iſrael, and Ioſaphat, and the kyng of Edom went downe to hym.

13 And Eliſeus ſayde vnto the king of Iſrael, What haue I to doo with thee? Geat thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophetes of thy mother. And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd vnto hym, Oh nay: for the Lord hath called theſe three kynges togeather, to deliuer them into the hande of Moab.

C 14 And Eliſeus ſayd, As the Lord of hoſtes lyueth, in whoſe ſight I ſtande, and it were not that I regard the preſence of Ioſaphat the king of Iuda, I would (a) not looke towarde thee, nor yet ſee thee. (a) God ſuffereth his woorde to be declared to the wicked, becauſe of the godly that are among them.

15 But now bring me a minſtrel. And when the minſtrel played, the hande of the Lorde came vpon hym:

16 And he ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Make this valley ful of ditches:

17 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye ſhal ſee neyther neither winde nor rayne, yet the valley shal be fylled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye, and your beastes, and your catel:

18 And this is yet but a smal thing in the syght of the Lorde, forasmuche as he wyll gene ouer the Moabites also into your handes:

19 And ye shal smyte euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shal felle euery pleasant tree, and stop euery wel of water, and marre euery good plat of ground with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when al the Moabites heard that the kinges were come vp to fyght agaynst them, they gathered al that was hable "to put on harneste, and stoode in the border of the lande:

"Hebre. to girde him selfe with a girdle.

22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vppon the water, that the Moabites sawe the water a farre of as redde as blood.

23 And they saide, This is the blood of slaughter: The kinges are slayne, and one haue smitten another: Now therefore Moab geat thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the hoast of Israel, the Israelites stood vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they folowed vppon them, and smote Moab,

25 And they ouerthrewe the cities, and on euery good parcel of lande cast euery man his stone, and fylled it, and they stopt al the welles of water, & feld al the good trees, only in Kirharaseth leaft they the stones thereof: howebeit they went about it with slinges, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab sawe that the batayle was to sore for him, he tooke with him seuen hundred men that drue the swoorde, to haue gonne through (euen) vnto the kyng of Edom: but they coulde not.

27 And then he tooke his eldest sonne that shoulde haue raigned in his steade, and offred him for a whole burnt offering vppon the wal: And there was (a) great indignation agaynst Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne lande.

(a) The Israelites were greatly offended, because of the crueltie of the facte.

The.iiii.Chapter.

4. God increaseth the oyle to the poore wydowe by Eliseus. 12. He obteyneth for the Sunamite a sonne at Gods hande. 28. Who dyed, and was rayfed vp agayne.

1 AND there cryed a certayne woman of the wyues of the sonnes of the prophetes vnto Eliseus, sayeing, Thy seruant my husbande is dead, and thou knowest that thy seruant dyd feare the Lorde: And the creditour is comme to fet my two sonnes to be his bondmen. A

2 Eliseus saide vnto her, Tel me what I shal doo for thee? What hast thou in thyne house? She saide, Thyne handemayde hath nothyng at al in the house, saue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He sayde vnto her, Goe, and borowe vessels for thee without, of al thy neighbours emptie vessels, and that not a fewe:

4 And when thou art comme in, thou shalt shut the dooze after thee, and after thy sonnes, and powre out into (a) al those vessels: and set asyde that whiche is ful.

(a) God euer prouideth for them that truft in him, although he suffer them many times to falle into great neceſſitie.

5 And so she went from him, and shut the dooze after her, and after her sonnes: and they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she sayde vnto her sonne, Bryng me yet a vessel. And he sayd, I haue no mo. And the oyle ceased. B

7 Then she came, and told the man of god: and he sayde, Goe, and sel the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto: but lyue thou and thy chyldren of the rest.

8 And it felle on a day that Eliseus came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that tooke him in for to eate bread: And so it came to passe, that from that time forth (as oft as he came that way) he turned in thyther to eate bread.

9 And she saide vnto her husband, Behold, I perceiue that this is an holy man of god, whiche passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candelsticke: that he may turne in thyther when he commeth to vs.

11 And on a day he came thyther, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, 12 And sayde to Gehezi his seruant, Call this Sunamite. And when he called her, she presented her selfe before him.

13 And agayne he saide vnto him, Tel her, beholde, thou hast ben careful for vs with al this care, (b) What shal we nowe doo for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captayne of the hoast? She answeared, I dwel among mine own people.

(b) The seruantes of god are not vnthankful for benefites receiued.

14 And he saide agayne, What is to be done for her? Gehezi answered, Verely she hath no childe, and her husbande is olde.

15 And he sayde, Call her. And when he had called her, ſhe ſtoode in the doore.

Gene.18.k. 16 And he ſayde, At this time appoynted, accordyng to the time of lyfe, thou ſhalt imbrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſayde, Oh nay my lorde thou man of God, doo not lye vnto thyne handmayde.

17 And the wyfe conceiued, and bare a ſonne that ſame ſeaſon that Eliſeus had ſaid vnto her, accordyng to the tyme of lyfe.

18 And when the childe was growen, it felle on a day that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he ſaide vnto his father, My head, my head. And he ſaide to a lad, Cary hym to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, & brought him to his mother, he ſate on her knees tyll noone, and then dyed.

21 And ſhe went vp, and layde him on the bed of the man of god, and ſhut (the doore) vpon him, and went out,

D 22 And called vnto her huſbande, and ſayd, Sende with me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the aſſes: for I wyl runne to the man of god, and come againe.

23 And he ſaide, Wherefore wylt thou goe to him, ſeeing that to day is neither newe moone nor ſabboth day? And ſhe anſweared, Al ſhalbe "wel.

" Hebre. peace.

24 Then ſhe ſadled an aſſe, and ſayde to her ſeruant, Dryue and goe forwarde, ſtay not for me to geat vp, except I bid thee.

25 And ſo ſhe went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel: and when the man of God ſawe her "farre of, he ſaide to Gehezi his ſeruant, Beholde, yonder is the Sunamite:

" or, ouer against him

26 Runne therefore to meete her, and ſay vnto her, Is al wel with thee, and with thy huſbande, and with the ladde? And ſhe

E anſweared, Al his wel.

27 And when ſhe came to the man of GOD vp to the hil, ſhe caught hym by the feete: but Gehezi went to her to thruſt her away. And the man of God ſayde, Let her alone, for her ſoule is "vexed within her, and the Lorde hath hidde it from me, and hath not tolde it me.

28 Then ſhe ſayde, Dyd I deſyre a ſonne of my Lord? did I not require thee that thou ſhouldeſt not deceiue me?

2.king.9.a. 29 Then he ſaide to Gehezi, Girde vp thy loynes, and take my ſtaffe in thyne hande, and goe thy way: yf thou meete any man, (c) ſalute him not: and yf any ſalute thee, anſweare him not agayne: & laye my ſtaffe vpon the face of the childe.

I.Sa.28.b.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layde the ſtaffe vpon the face of the childe, but there was neither voyce, nor any feeling: wherefore he went againe to meete him, and told him, ſayeing, The childe is not awaked.

32 And when Eliſeus was comme into the houſe, beholde, the childe was dead, and layde vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and ſhut the doore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lorde, 34 And went vp, and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vppon his handes, and when he ſo lay vpon the child, the fleaſhe of the childe waxed warme.

35 And he went agayne, and walked once vp and downe in the houſe, and then went vp, and layde him ſelfe vpon him agayne: and then the childe "gaſped ſeuen times, and opened his eyes.

" or, ſneeſed, that is oftentimes.

36 And he called Gehezi, and ſaide, Call for this Sunamite. So he called her: whiche when ſhe was comme in vnto him, he ſayd vnto her, Take thy ſonne.

37 Therefore ſhe went in, and felle at his feete, and bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, F and tooke vp her ſonne, and went out.

Luke.v.c

38 Eliſeus came agayne to Gilgal, & there was a dearth in the lande, and the chyldren of the prophetes dwelt with him: and he ſayde vnto his ſeruant, Set a great pot on (the fyre) and make pottage for the children of the prophetes.

39 And one went out into the feelde to geather herbes, and founde a wylde vine, and geathered thereof wilde gourdes his lappe full, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knewe it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and when they had taſted of the pottage, they cryed out, and ſayde, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they coulde not eate thereof.

41 But he ſayde, Bryng meale. And he caſt it into the pot: and he ſaide, Fil for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.

42 There came a man from Baal Saliſa, G and brought the man of God bread of the fyrſt fruites, euen twentie loaues of barly, & ful eares of corne in the huſke: & he ſaide, Geue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his ſeruant anſweared, Why ſhal I ſet this before an hundred men? He ſaide agayne, Geue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus ſayth the Lorde, They ſhal eate, and there ſhalbe leaft ouer.

Iohn.6.a.

44 And ſo he ſet it before them, and they dyd eate, and left ouer, accoꝛding to the wooꝛde of the Loꝛde.

The. v. Chapter.

1. Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leproſie.
16. Eliſeus refuſeth his gyftes.

A 1 NAaman, captayne of the hoſt of the kyng of Syria, was a great man, and honoꝛable in the ſyght of his maiſter, becauſe that by hym the Loꝛde had geuen healthe vnto Syria: He was alſo a myghtie man, and expert in warre (but he was) a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had bꝛought out of the countrey of Iſrael a litle mayde, and ſhe was with Naamans wyfe.

3 And ſhe ſayde vnto her lady, I woulde to God my loꝛde were with the pꝛophete that is in Samaria, foꝛ he woulde deliuer hym of his leproſie.

(a) Naaman. 4 And he (a) went in, and tolde his loꝛde, ſayeing, Thus and thus ſayde the mayde that is of the lande of Iſrael.

5 And the king of Syria ſayd, Goe thy way thyther, and I wyl ſende a letter vnto the kyng of Iſrael. And he departed, and tooke with hym tenne talentes of ſyluer, and ſyxe thouſande peeces of golde, and ten changes of raymentes:

6 And bꝛought the letter to the kyng of Iſrael, conteyning this tenour, Nowe when this letter is comme vnto thee, beholde I haue therewith ſent Naaman my ſeruant to thee, that thou mayeſt rydde him of his leproſie.

B 7 And when the kyng of Iſrael had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſayd, Am Deut. 32. f. I God, that I ſhould ſlay, and make alyue? Foꝛ he dooth ſende vnto me, that I ſhoulde deliuer a man from his leproſie: Wherfoꝛe conſyder, I pꝛay you, and ſee howe he ſeeketh a quarrel againſt me.

8 Whiche when Eliſeus the man of GOD had heard, how that the king of Iſrael had rent his clothes, he ſent to the kyng, ſayeing, Wherefoꝛe haſt thou rent thy clothes? Let him comme nowe to me, and he ſhal knowe that there is a pꝛophete in Iſrael.

9 And ſo Naaman came with his hoꝛſes, and with his charettes, and ſtoode at the dooꝛe of the houſe of Eliſeus.

10 And Eliſeus ſent a meſſenger vnto him, ſayeing, Goe, and waſhe thee in Joꝛdane ſeuen tymes, and thy fleaſhe ſhal come againe to thee, and thou ſhalt be cleanſed.

11 But Naaman was wꝛoth, and went away, and ſayde, Beholde, I thought with mee ſelfe, he woulde ſurely comme out, and ſtande and cal on the name of the Loꝛde his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leꝛpoſie.

12 Are not Abana and Pharphar, riuers of Damaſcus, better then al the waters of Iſrael? Yf I waſhe me alſo in them, ſhal I not be cleanſed? And ſo he turned him, and departed with diſpleaſure.

13 And his ſeruantes came, and commuued with hym, and ſaid, Father, if the pꝛophete had bid thee doo ſomme great thing, oughteſt thou not to haue donne it? Howe muche rather then when he ſayth to thee, Waſhe and be cleane?

C 14 Then went he downe, and waſhed hym ſelfe ſeuen tymes in Joꝛdane, accoꝛdyng to the ſayeing of the man of GOD, and his fleaſh came agayne, lyke vnto the fleaſhe of a litle chylde, and he was cleanſed.

Luke. 4. c 15 And he tarned agayne to the man of god, he & al his company, and ſtoode befoꝛe him, and ſayde, Behold, I know now that there is no God in al the woꝛlde, but in Iſrael: nowe therfoꝛe, I pꝛay thee, take a * bleſſing

* oꝛ, reꝛwarde. of thy ſeruant?

1. king. 17. a. 16 But he ſaide, As the Loꝛde lyueth befoꝛe whom I ſtande, I wyl receiue none: And when the other woulde haue conſtrayned hym to receiue it, he woulde not.

17 And Naaman ſayde, Shal there not be geuen to thy ſeruant as muche of this earth as two Mules may beare? Foꝛ thy ſeruant wyl henceꝛoꝛth offer neyther whole burnt ſacrifice, noꝛ offering, vnto any other gods, ſaue vnto the Loꝛde.

18 But herein the Loꝛde be mercyful to thy ſeruant, that when my maiſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmon foꝛ to wooꝛſhip there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe mee ſelfe in the houſe of Rimmon: when I doo bowe downe, I ſay, in ỹ houſe of Rimmon, the Loꝛde be mercyful vnto thy ſeruant becauſe of this thyng.

19 Unto whom he ſayde, (b) Goe in peace. And when he was departed from him, as it were a furlong of grounde,

(b) The pꝛophet dyd not approoue his act, but after the common manner of ſpeache he bade hym farewel.

20 Gehezi the ſeruant of Eliſeus the man of God, ſayde, Beholde, my maiſter hath ſpared Naamã this Syrian, that he would not receiue at his hande thoſe thynges that he offered: as the Loꝛde lyueth, I wyl runne after hym, and take ſomewhat of hym.

D 21 And ſo Gehezi folowed Naaman: and when Naaman ſawe hym runnyng after hym, he lyght downe from the charet to meete hym, and ſayde, Is al wel?

2. King. 4. b 22 He anſweared, Al is wel: beholde, my maiſter hath ſent me, ſayeing, See, there be comme to me euen nowe from mount Ephraim two young menne, of the children of the prophetes: Geue them, I pray thee, one talent of ſyluer, and two change of garmentes.

23 And Naaman ſayde, With a good wyl, take two talents. And he conſtrayned him, & bound two talentes of ſiluer in two bags, with two change of garmentes, and layde them vpon two of his ſeruantes, to beare them before him.

"or, forteſſe, or ſecrete place.

24 And when he came to the "lower place, he tooke (them) from their hande, and beſtowed (them) in the houſe, and he let the menne goe, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and ſtoode before his maiſter: and Eliſeus ſayde vnto hym, whence (commeſt thou) Gehezi? He ſayde, Thy ſeruant went no whyther.

(c) Was not I preſent with thee in ſpirite.

26 But he ſayde vnto hym, (c) Went not myne hart (with thee) when the man turned agayne from his charet to meete thee? Is it nowe a tyme to receiue money, to receiue garmentes, olyue trees, vineyardes, sheepe, and oxen, menne ſeruantes, and maydē ſeruantes?

(d) Couetouſneſſe pouniſhed. 2. King. 15. a 27 (d) The leproſie therefore of Naaman ſhal cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy ſeede, for euer. And he went out from his preſence a leper as whyte as ſnowe.

The. vi. Chapter.

6. Eliſeus maketh iron to ſwimme aboue the water. 8. He diſcloſeth the kyng of Syrias counſel to the kyng of Iſrael.

א 1 THe chyldren of the prophetes ſayd vnto Eliſeus, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwel with thee, is to litle for vs:

2 Let vs goe, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and buylde vs a place to dwel in. And he anſwered, Goe.

3 And one ſayde, Be content, I pray thee, and comme with thy ſeruantes. And he anſwered, I wyl comme.

4 And ſo he went with them: & when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood.

5 But as one was fellyng downe of a tree, the axe head fel into the water: and he cryed, and ſayde, Alas maiſter, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God ſayde, Where fel it? and he ſhewed him the place: And he cut downe a ſticke, and caſt it in thyther, and immediatly the iron dyd ſwimme.

ב 7 Therefore ſayde he, Take it vp. And he ſtretched out his hande, and tooke it vp.

8 Then the kyng of Syria warred agaynſt Iſrael, and toke counſel with his ſeruants, and ſayde, In ſuche and ſuch a place ſhalbe my campe.

9 And the man of God ſent vnto the kyng of Iſrael, ſayeing, Beware that thou goe not ouer to ſuche a place, for there the Syrians are lurkyng.

10 Therefore the kyng of Iſrael ſent to the place whiche the man of God tolde hym, and warned him of, (a) and ſaued him ſelfe from it, not once, nor twyſe.

(a) God wyl diſcloſe the craftie counſel of the wicked.

11 And the hart of the kyng of Syria was troubled for this thing, and he called for his ſeruantes, and ſayd vnto them, Wyl ye not ſhewe me whiche of our men (betrayeth me) to the kyng of Iſrael?

12 And one of his ſeruantes ſayd, None my lorde, O kyng: but Eliſeus the prophete, that is in Iſrael, telleth the kyng of Iſrael, yea the woordes that thou ſpeakeſt in thy priuie chamber.

13 He ſayde, Goe, and ſpye where he is, that I may ſende and fetch hym. And one tolde hym, ſayeing, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore ſent he thyther horſes, & charrets, and a myghtie hoſt: and they came by night, and compaſſed the citie about. ג

15 And when the ſeruant of the man of god roſe vp early to goe out, beholde there was an hoſt round about the towne, with horſes and charrettes: and his ſeruant ſayde vnto hym, Alas maiſter, what ſhal we doo?

16 He anſweared, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.

17 And Eliſeus prayed, and ſayde, Lord, I beſeech thee open his eyes, that he may ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he looked: and behold the mountayne was ful of horſes, and charrettes of fyre, rounde about Eliſeus. 2. Chr. 32. a

18 And when they came downe to hym, Eliſeus prayed vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſſe. And he ſmote them with blindneſſe, accordyng to the worde of Eliſeus. Gen. 19. c. Wiſd. 19. c

19 And Eliſeus ſayde vnto them, This is not the way, neyther is this the towne: folowe me, and I wyl bring you to the man whom ye ſeeke. But he ledde them to Samaria.

20 But when they were comme to Samaria, Eliſeus ſayde, Lorde open their eyes, that they may ſee. And the Lorde opened their eyes, and they ſawe, and beholde they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Eliſeus when he ſawe them, My father, ſhal I ſmite them, ſhal I ſmite them? ד

22 And he anſwered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: but ſmite thoſe that thou haſt taken with with thine owne ſwoorde, and with thyne owne bowe: but rather ſet bread and water before them, that they may eate & drinke, and goe to their maiſter.

23 And he prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten & dronke, he ſent them away, and they went to theyr maiſter: & ſo the ſouldiers of Syria came no more into the lande of Iſrael.

24 After this, Benhadad king of Syria gathered al his hoaſt, and went vp, and beſieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: & behold, they beſieged it, vntil an aſſes head was ſolde for foureſcore ſiluer pence, and the fourth part of a (b) cab of doues doung for fyue peeces of ſiluer.

(b) The Hebrues wryte, that they burned it in the ſiege for lacke of wood.

26 And as the king of Iſrael was going vpon the wal, there cryed a woman vnto him, ſayeing, Helpe me my lorde, O king.

27 He ſayde, If the Lorde doo not ſuccour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine preſſe?

28 And the king ſaide vnto her, What wylt thou? She anſweared, Yonder woman ſayde vnto me, Bryng thy ſonne, that we may eate him to day, and we wil eate mine to morowe, Leuit. 26. d. Deut. 28. f. Lamen. 4. b.

29 And ſo we dreſſed my ſonne, and dyd eate him: and I ſaide vnto her the other day, Bryng thy ſonne, that we may eate him: And ſhe hath hyd her ſonne.

30 And when the king heard the woords of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wal, and the people looked, and behold, he had a ſackcloth vnder (c) vpon his fleaſhe.

(c) Thus Hypocrites ſeeing gods iudgement, thinke to pleaſe hym with outwarde ceremonies, whō in proſperitie they wyl not knowe.

31 Then he ſayde, God doo ſo, and more alſo to me, yf the head of Eliſeus the ſonne of Saphat, ſhal ſtande on him this day.

32 But Eliſeus ſate in his houſe (and the elders ſate by him) & the king ſent a man before him: but yer the meſſenger came to him, he ſaide to the elders, Haue ye not ſeene howe that the ſonne of this murtherer hath ſent to take away myne head? Be circumſpect when the meſſenger commeth, and ſhut the dooze, and holde him at the dooze: Is not the ſounde of his maiſters feete behinde him?

33 Whyle he yet talked with them, behold, the meſſenger came downe vnto him, and ſaide, Behold, this euyl is of the Lorde, and what more ſhal I looke for of the lord?

The. vii. Chapter.

I. Eliſeus prophecieth plentie of vitayle and other thinges to Samaria.

1 Then Eliſeus ſayde, Heare ye the woord of the Lorde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, To morowe this time (ſhal) a meaſure of fyne flowre be ſolde for a ſicle, and two meaſures of barley for a ſicle, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a certayne lorde (on whoſe hande the kyng leaned) anſweared the man of God, and ſayd, Behold, yf the Lord would make windowes in heauen, myght this ſayeing come to paſſe? He ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee it with thyne eyes, but ſhalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure lepzous men at the entring in of the gate: and they ſayd one to another, Why ſit we here vntyl we dye?

4 If we ſay, We wyl enter into the citie: beholde, the dearth is in the citie, and we ſhal dye therein: and yf we ſit ſtil here, we dye alſo. Nowe therefore come, and let vs flee vnto the hoaſt of the Syrians: yf they ſaue our lyues, we ſhal lyue: yf they kil vs, then are we dead.

5 And they roſe vp in the twylyght, to goe to the hoaſt of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermoſt part of the hoſt of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the Lorde had made the hoaſt of the Syrians to heare a noyſe of charettes, and a noyſe of horſes, and the noyſe of a great hoaſt: inſomuche that they ſaid one to another, Loe, the king of Iſrael hath hyred agaynſt vs the kinges of the Hethites, and the kinges of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs: Eſai. 13. a.

7 Wherefore they aroſe, and fledde in the twylyght, and leaft their tentes, and theyr horſes, and their aſſes, and the feelde which they had pitched, euen as it was, (a) and fledde for their lyues. B

(a) The wicked neede no greater enimie, then their owne conſcience, to purſue them.

8 And when theſe lepers came to the edge of the hoaſt, they went into a tent, and dyd eate and drinke, and caryed thence ſiluer and golde, and rayment, and went and hid it, and came agayne, and entred into another tent, and caryed thence alſo, and went and hyd it.

9 Then ſaide one to another, We doo not wel, this day is a day to bryng good tydynges, and we holde our peace. If we tary til the day light, ſomme miſcheefe wyl come vpon vs: Nowe therefore come, that we may goe, and tel the kinges houſehold.

10 And ſo they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, ſayeing, We came to the campe of the Syrians, & ſee, there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horſes and aſſes tyed, and the tentes were as they were woont to be.

11 And the porters cryed, and declared (it) to the kinges house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and sayd vnto his seruantes, (b) I wyl shewe you nowe what the Syrians haue donne vnto vs: They knowe that we be hungry, and therefore are they gonne out of the campe, to hyde them selues in the feelde, sayeing, When they come out of the citie, we shal catche them aliue, and geat into the citie.

(b) He mistrusted the prophetes wordss, and as one more politike then godly, cast more perrils then needed

13 And one of his seruantes answeared, and sayde, Let men take, I pray you, fyue of the horses that remayne and are leaft in the (multitude:) (behold, they are as al the multitude of Israel that are leaft in the citie: behold (I say) they are euen as al the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we wyl sende, and see.

14 They tooke therefore the horses of two charettes, and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, sayeing, Goe, and see.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, & loe, al the way was ful of clothes, and vessels, whiche the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoyled the tentes of the Syrians: and so it came to passe, that a measure of fyne flowre was solde for a sicle, & two measures of barley for a sicle, according to ỳ woord of the lord.

17 And the king appointed that lorde (on whose hande he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people (c) trode vpon hym in the gate, and he dyed according to the woorde of the man of God, whiche he sayde when the kyng came downe to hym.

(c) The fayth lesse derider of gods prophete punished.

18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the kyng, sayeing, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fyne floure for another, shalbe to morowe this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 Whereunto that Lorde answeared the man of God, and sayde, Yea and yf the Lord made wyndowes in heauen, myght it comme to passe? And he saide, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto hym: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The.viii. Chapter.

1. Eliseus prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeeres.

A 2. king. 4. a.

1 THen spake Eliseus vnto the woman (whose sonne he had restored to lyfe agayne,) sayeing, Up, and goe thou and thyne house, and soiourne where so euer thou canst: for the Lorde hath called for a dearth, and the same shal comme vpon the lande seuen yeeres.

2 And the woman arose, and dyd after the sayeing of the man of god: and went both she and her household, and soiourned in the lande of the Philistines seuen yeeres.

3 And at the seuen yeeres ende, the woman came agayne out of the lande of the Philistines, and went out to cal vppon the kyng for her house and for her lande.

4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, sayeing, Tel me, I pray thee, all the great deedes that Eliseus hath donne.

5 He tolde the king howe he had restored a dead body to lyfe agayne: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne he had raised vp agayne, cryed to the king for her house and for her lande: And Gehezi sayde, My lorde, O king, this is the woman, & this is her sonne, whō Eliseus raysed vp agayne.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she tolde him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlayne, sayeing, Restore thou vnto her al that are hers, and al the (a) fruites of the feeld, sence the day that she leaft the lande, vnto this time.

(a) The king caused that to be iustly restored, whiche was wrongfully holden from her.

7 And Eliseus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the kyng of Syria was sycke, and one tolde him, sayeing, The man of God is come hyther.

8 And the kyng sayde vnto Hazael, Take a present in thyne hand, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lorde by him, sayeing, Shal I recouer of this disease?

9 And so Azael went to meete him, & tooke the present with hym, & of euery good thing of Damascus, euen as muche as fourtie Cammelles coulde beare: and came and presented hym selfe before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, sayeing, Shal I recouer of this disease?

10 And Eliseus said vnto him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt (b) recouer: howbeit, the Lorde hath shewed me that he shal surely dye.

(b) Meaning that he shoulde not dye of that disease, yet he should die by the hande of Hazael the messenger.

11 He looked vpon him stedfastly, vntil he was ashamed: and the man of God weapt.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? He answeared, For I knowe the euil thinges that thou shalt doo vnto the chyldren of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fyre, and their young men shalt thou slay with the swoorde, and shalt dasht out the braynes of their sucking children, and al to teare their women with chylde.

13 But Hazael saide, What is thy seruant a dogge, that I should doo this great thing? And Eliseus answeared, The Lorde hath shewed shewed me ỳ thou shalt be kyng of Syria.

14 And so he departed from Eliseus, and came to his maister, whiche sayde to him, What sayd Eliseus to thee? He answered, He tolde me that thou shouldest recouer.

15 And on the morowe, he tooke a thicke cloth, and dypt it in water, and (c) spread it on his face: and he died, and Hazael raigned in his steade.

(c) Hazael vnder pretence to refreashe the king, stiffled him with this cloth.

16 The fifth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, Iosaphat beyng also kyng of Juda, Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat kyng of Juda beganne to raigne.

2. Chr. 21. a

17 Thirtie and two yeeres olde was he when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeeres in Hierusalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kynges of Israel, as they that were of the house of Achab: for the daughter of Achab was his wyfe, and he dyd euyl in the sight of the Lorde.

2. Sam. 7. c

19 And the Lord woulde not destroy Juda, because of Dauid his seruantes sake, as he promised, to geue him alway a light among his children.

20 In those dayes Edom rebelled against Juda, & made them a king of their owne.

2. Sam. 8. c. 1. Chr. 22. f 1. Chr. 21. a 21 So Ioram went to Zair, he, and al his charettes with ỳ hym, and he rose by nyght, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in with the captaines of his charretes, and the people fled into their tentes.

D

22 But Edom rebelled, so that he woulde not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: then Libnah rebelled that same time.

23 The rest of the woordes that concerne Ioram, & al that he dyd, are they not witten in the booke of the chronicles of the kinges of Juda?

24 And Ioram reasted with his fathers, and was buryed beside his fathers, in the citie of Dauid: and Ahazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

2. Chr. 22. a

25 In the twelfth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, kyng of Israel, dyd Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Juda, begynne to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeeres old was Ahazia when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of Omri, kyng of Israel.

27 But he walked in the way of the house of Achab, and dyd euyl in the sight of the Lord, as dyd ỳ house of Achab: for he was the sonne in lawe of the house of Achab.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Achab, to warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.

29 And king Ioram went backe againe to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes whiche the Syrians had geuē him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: & Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Juda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab in Iezrahel, because he was sicke there.

The. ix. Chapter.

6. Iehu is made kyng of Israel. 24. And killeth Ioram the king thereof.

1 AND Eliseus the prophete called one of the chyldren of the prophetes, & sayde vnto hym, Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thyne hande, and geat thee to Ramoth (in) Gilead.

2. king. 4. c.

2 And when thou commest thyther, looke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, and goe to hym, & make hym aryse vp from among his brethren, and cary hym to a secrete chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the Lord, I haue annoynted thee to be kyng ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarryeing.

4 And so the seruant of the prophete gate hym to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, beholde, the captaynes of the host were sittyng togeather, and he sayde, I haue an errande to thee, O captayne.

6 And Iehu sayde, Unto whiche of al vs? Ye sayd, To thee, O captayne. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, & sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I haue (a) annoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel.

1. king. 19. c.

(a) This annoyntyng was for kinges, priestes, & prophets, whiche were al fygures of Messias, in whom these three offices were accomplished.

B

7 Thou shalt smyte the house of Achab thy maister, that I maye auenge the blood of my seruantes the prophetes, and the blood of al the seruantes of the Lorde, of the hand of Iezabel:

8 For the whole house of Achab shalbe destroyed, and I wyl destroy from Achab, him that maketh water against the wal, & him that is prisoned & forsaken in Israel:

9 And I wyl make the house of Achab, like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, & like the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia.

10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shal eate her in the feeld of Iezrahel, and there shalbe none to bury her. And he opened the doore, and fledde.

11 Then Iehu came out to the seruantes of his lorde, and one sayde vnto hym, Is al wel? Wherefore came this mad felow to thee?

thee? And he sayde vnto them, Ye knowe what manner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They sayde vnto hym agayne, It is not so, tel vs. He sayde, Thus and thus spake he to me, sayeing, Thus sayth the Lord, I haue annointed thee to be king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder hym on the toppe of the stayres, and blewe with trumpettes, sayeing, Iehu is kyng.

14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, conspired agaynst Ioram: (Ioram keapt Ramoth Gilead, he, and al Israel, because of Hazael kyng of Syria.

2. king.8.§. 15 And kyng Ioram returned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes whiche the Syrians had geuen hym, when he fought with Hazael kyng of Syria.) And Iehu sayde, If it be your myndes, then let no man departe, and escape out of the citie, to goe and tel in Iezrahel.

2. Chr.22.b 16 So Iehu gate vp (into a charet) & went to Iezrahel, where Ioram lay: and Ahazia kyng of Iuda, was comme downe thyther to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Iezrahel, spyed the companye of Iehu as he came, and sayde, I see a company. And Ioram sayde, Take an horsman, and sende to meete them, that he may aske whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsbacke to meete hym, and sayde, Thus sayth the kyng, Is it peace? And Iehu sayd, What hast thou to doo with peace? * turne thee behynde me. And the watchman tolde, sayeing, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not agayne.

* or, folowe me.

19 Then he sent out another on horsbacke, which came to them, and sayd, Thus saith the kyng, Is it peace? Iehu answeared, What hast thou to doo with peace? turne thee behynde me.

20 And the watchman tolde, sayeing, He came to them also, & commeth not agayne: and the dryuyng is lyke the dryuyng of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, for he dryueth (the charet) as he were mad.

D 21 And Ioram sayde, Make ready. And the charet was made ready, and Ioram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Iuda, went out eyther of them in his charet, agaynst Iehu, and met hym in the feelde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

22 And when Ioram sawe Iehu, he sayde, Is it peace, Iehu? He answeared, What peace should there be, so long as the whordomes of thy mother Iezabel, & her witchcraftes are so great?

23 And Ioram turned his hande, and fled, and sayde to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia.

24 And Iehu tooke a bowe in his hand, and smote Ioram betweene the armes, and the arrowe went through his harte, and he fel downe flat in his charet.

25 Then saide Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take (hym) and cast him in the plat of the grounde of Naboth the Iezrahelite: for I remember, that when I and thou rode together after Achab his father, the lord layd this heauie burden vpon hym:

* or, spake this prophetie agaynst hym.

26 I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, sayd the Lorde, and I wyl quyte it thee in this grounde, sayth the Lorde. Nowe therefore take and caste hym in the plat of grounde, accordyng to the woorde of the Lord.

27 But when Ahazia the kyng of Iuda sawe this, he fledde by the way of the garden house: and Iehu folowed after hym, and sayde, Smyte hym also in the charet, at the goeyng vp to Gur, by Iebleam. And he fledde to Meziddo, and there dyed.

28 And his seruantes caryed hym in a charet to Hierusalem, and buryed hym there in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid. E

29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, beganne Ahazia to raigne ouer Iuda.

30 And when Iehu was comme to Iezrahel, Iezabel hearde of it, and paynted her face, and tyred her head, and looked out at a wyndowe.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, she sayd, Had (b) Zimri peace whiche slue his maister?

(b) As though she woulde say, treason can haue no good successe

32 And he lyft vp his eyes to the wyndowe, and sayde, Who is of my side, who? And there looked out to hym two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he sayde, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, and her blood dashed towarde the wal, and toward the horses: and he trode her vnder foote.

34 And when he was comme in, he did eate F and dronke, and sayde, Goe and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, and bury her, for she is a kynges daughter.

35 And so when they came to bury her, they 1. king.16.§ founde no more of her then the skul, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.

36 Wherefore they came agayne, and tolde hym: and he sayde, This is the woorde of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of his seruant Elias the Thesbite, sayeing, In 1. king.21.f. the feelde of Iezrahel shal dogges eate the fleashe of Iezabel.

37 And

37 And ſo the carkaſſe of Jezabel was euen as doung vpon the earth in the feelde of Jezrahel, ſo that no man myght ſay, This is Jezabel.

The. x. Chapter.

6. Iehu cauſeth the ſeuentie ſonnes of Achab to be ſlayne. 25. He kylleth alſo al the prieſtes of Baal.

A 1 AChab had threeſcore and ten ſonnes in Samaria: and Jehu wrote letters, and ſent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Jezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Achabs chyldren, ſayeing, Joſu. 8. g.

2 Now when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your maiſters ſonnes, ye haue with you both charrets and horſes, a ſtrong citie haue ye alſo, and harneſſe.)

3 Looke whiche of your maiſters ſonnes is beſt and moſt meete, and ſet hym on his fathers ſeate, and fight for your lordes houſe.

4 But they were exceedingly afrayde, and ſayde, See, two kynges were not able to ſtande before hym: howe ſhal we then be able to ſtande?

5 And he that was gouernour of Achabs houſe, and he that ruled the citie, the elders alſo, and the tutours, ſent to Jehu, ſayeing, We are thy ſeruantes, and wil doo al that thou ſhalt byd vs, we wil make no man kyng: therefore doo thou what ſeemeth good in thyne eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, ſayeing, If ye be myne, and wyl hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men that are your maiſters ſonnes, and come to me to Jezrahel by to morowe this tyme: (and the kynges ſonnes were threeſcore and ten perſons, and they were with the great men of the citie, whiche brought them vp.)

B 7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kynges children, and ſlue them, euen threeſcore and ten perſons, and layde theyr heades in baſkettes, and ſent them to hym to Jezrahel.

8 And there came a meſſenger, and tolde him, ſaying, They haue brought the heads of the kynges ſonnes. And he ſayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntyl the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and ſtoode, and ſayd to al the folke, Ye be righteous: behold, I conſpired againſt my maiſter, and ſlue hym: But who ſlue al theſe?

10 Learne here, that there ſhal fal vnto the earth nothing of the woorde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake concernyng the houſe of Achab: for the Lorde hath brought to paſſe the thynges that he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruant Elias.

11 And ſo Jehu ſlue al that remained of the houſe of Achab, in Jezrahel, and al that were great with hym, and his kynſfolkes, and his prieſtes, ſo that he let nothyng of hym remayne. 1. Reg. 21. g.

12 And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Jehu was in the way of the houſe where the ſhepheards did ſheare theyr ſheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Juda, and ſayde, What are ye? They anſweared, The brethren of Ahazia are we, and goe downe to ſalute the children of the kyng and of the queene.

14 And he ſayd, Take them alyue. Whom C when they had taken alyue, they ſlue them at the wel whiche was beſyde the houſe where the ſheepe are ſhoren, euen two and fourtie men, neither leaft he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Jonadab the ſonne of Rechab, comming againſt him, and he bleſſed hym, and ſaide to him, Is thine hart ryght, as myne hart is true with thyne? And Jonadab anſweared, Yea that it is. Then geue me thyne hande. And when he had geuen hym his hande, he tooke hym vp to hym into the charret, Iere. 25. a.

16 And ſayde, Come with me, and ſee my zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And ſo they made hym ryde in his charret.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlue al that remayned vnto Achab in Samaria, til he had deſtroyed hym, according to the ſaying of the Lord whiche he ſpake to Elias.

18 And Jehu geathered al the people togeather, and ſayd vnto them, Achab ſerued (a) Baal a litle, but Jehu ſhal ſerue him more. 2. Sa. 16. g. (a) Baal ſignifieth Altaroth, the idol of the Sidonians.

19 Now therfore, cal vnto me al the prophets of Baal, al ſuche as ſerue him, and al his prieſtes, and let none be lacking, for I haue a great ſacrifice to do to Baal, and therefore whoſoeuer is myſſed, he ſhal not lyue. But Jehu did it for a ſutteltie, to the intent that he myght deſtroy the ſeruantes of Baal. 1. Reg. 16. d.

20 And Jehu ſayde, "Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaymed it. " Heb. ſanctifie.

21 And Jehu ſent vnto al Iſrael, and al the ſeruantes of Baal came, that there was not a man leaft behinde that came not: and they came into the houſe of Baal, and the houſe of Baal was ful from the one end to another.

22 And he ſayd vnto him that was the keeper of the veſterie, Bring fooeth garmentes for for al the seruantes of Baal. And he brought them out garmentes.

23 And when Iehu went with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, he saide vnto ỹ seruantes of Baal, Search, and looke that there be here with you none of the seruantes of the Lorde, but the seruantes of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice & whole burnt offeryng, Iehu appoynted fourescore men without, and sayde to them, Yf any of the men whom I haue brought vnder your handes escape, he that letteth hym goe, shal dye for hym.

25 And as soone as he had made an ende of offeryng the whole burnt sacrifice, Iehu sayde to the men of warre, and to the captaynes, Goe in, & slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and the men of warre, and the captaynes, cast them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the house of Baal, & made a draught house of it, vnto this day.

E 28 And so Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them (neyther from) the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iehu, Because thou hast done ryght wel in brynging to passe the thyng that is ryght in myne eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Achab accordyng to al thynges that are in myne hart, therefore shal thy children, vnto the 2.Reg.15.a. fourth generation, sit on the seate of Israel.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the law of ỹ lord God of Israel with al his hart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam, whiche made Israel to sinne.

2.Reg.8.c. 32 In those dayes the Lorde began to cutte Israel short, and Hazael smote them in al the coastes of Israel, 33 From Iordane eastward, euen al the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Basan.

34 The reast of the woordes that concerne Iehu, and al that he did, and al his power, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Israel?

35 And Iehu sleapt with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioachas his sonne raigned in his steade.

36 And the tyme that Iehu raigned vpon Israel in Samaria, is twentie and eyght yeeres.

The.xi.Chapter.

1. Athalia putteth to death al the kynges sonnes, except Ioas the sonne of Ochosias.
15. Iehoiada causeth Athalia to be slayne.
18. Baal and his priestes are destroyed.

1 AND Athalia the mother of Ahazia, A when she sawe that her sonne was 2.Par.22. dead, she arose, and destroyed al the kynges seede.

2 But Iosaba the daughter of kyng Iozam and sister of Ahazia, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale hym from among the kynges sonnes that were slaine, & his nurse with him in the bed chamber, and hyd him from Athalia, that he was not slaine.

3 And he was with her hyd in the house of the Lorde sixe yeeres: & Athalia did raigne ouer the lande.

4 And the seuenth yeere Iehoiada sent and 2.Par.23.a fet the rulers ouer hundreds, with the captaines, and them of the garde, & tooke them to hym into the house of the lord, and made a bonde with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lorde, and shewed them the kynges sonne.

5 And he commaunded them, saying, This is it that ye must doo, One thirde parte of you, whose duetie is to come in on the sabboth day, shal keepe the watch of the kinges house:

6 And another thirde parte shal keepe the gate of Sur: and another thirde part shal keepe the gate whiche is behynde them of the garde: and so shal ye keepe the watche of the house of Messah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, al that goe B out on ỹ sabboth day, shal keepe the watch of the house of the Lorde about the kyng.

8 And ye shal compasse the kyng rounde about, and euery man shal haue his weapon in his hande: and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let hym be slayne: and see that ye be with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines ouer the hundredes did 2.Par.24.a accordyng to al thynges that Iehoiada the priest commaunded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the sabboth day, with them that shoulde goe out on the sabboth, and came to Iehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captaynes ouer hundredes, did the priest geue kyng Dauids speares and shieldes, that were in the temple.

11 And

11 And they of the garde stoode, and euery man had his weapon in his hande, rounde about the kyng, from the ryght corner of the temple, to the leaft, along by the aulter and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kynges sonne, & put the crowne vppon hym, and delyuered hym the (a) witnesse, and made him king, and annoynted hym, and they clapte theyr handes, and sayd, God saue the king.

2. Chr. 23. d 13 And when Athalia heard the noyse of the runnyng of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the Lorde.

C 14 (b) And when she looked, beholde, the kyng stoode by a pyller, as the maner was, and the singers, and the trumpetters by the king, and al the people of the land reioyced, and blewe with trumpettes: & Athalia rent her clothes, and cryed, Treason, treason.

(b) Where the kynges place was in the temple.

15 But Iehoiada the priest, commaunded the captaynes of the hundreds, that had the rule of the host, and sayd vnto them, Haue her forth of the * ranges, and yf any folow her, kyl hym with the swoorde. For the priest had sayde, She maye not be slayne in the house of the Lorde.

* or, out of the temple.

16 And they layde handes on her, tyl she came into the way by the whiche the horses went into the kyngs palace, and there was she slayne.

2. Chr. 23. c 17 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene the Lorde, and the kyng, and the people, that they should be the Lordes people, and also betweene the kyng and the people.

18 And al the people of the lande went into the house of Baal, & destroyed it, his aulters also, and his images brake they downe lustilie, & slue Mathan the priest of Baal, before the aulters: and the priest set watch ouer the house of the Lorde, 19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundredes, the captaynes, and them of the garde, and al the people of the lande, and they brought the kyng from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kynges palace, and he sate hym downe on the seate of the kynges.

20 And al the people of the lande reioyced, and the citie was in quyet, and they slue Athalia with the swoord, beside the kynges palace.

D 21 Seuen yeeres old was Ioas when he beganne to raigne.

The. xii. Chapter.

6. Ioas maketh prouision for the repayring of the temple. 20. Ioas is kylled by two of his seruantes.

A 1 AND Ioas beganne to raigne in the seuenth yeere of Iehu, fourtie yeeres

2. Chro. 4. a raigned he in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beer-seba.

2 And he dyd that whiche was good in the syght of the Lorde, as long as (c) Iehoiada the priest enfourmed hym.

(a) So long as rulers gene care to the true ministers of god, they prosper.

3 But the hygh places were not taken away: for the people offered, and burnt incense yet vpon the hygh places.

4 And Ioas sayde to the priestes, Al the siluer of the dedicate thinges that be brought to the house of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and al the money that euery man with a wyllyng hart geueth, & bringeth into the house of the Lord:

Exod. 30. b. Leuit. 27. a. Exod. 36. a.

5 Let the priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquayntance, to repayre the broken places of the house, whersoeuer any decaye is founde.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeere of kyng Ioas, the priestes had mended nothyng that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then kyng Ioas called for Iehoiada the priest, and the other priestes, and sayd vnto them, Why repayre ye not the broken places of the temple? nowe therefore see that ye receiue no more money of your acquaintance, excepte ye delyuer it to repayre the temple withal.

8 And the priestes consented to receiue no more money of the people, except to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and set it beside the aulter, on the right syde, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lord, and the priestes that kept the vessels, put therin al the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

10 And when they sawe there was muche money in the chest, the kynges scribe and the hygh priest came vp, and tolde the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and put it into a bagge.

2. king. 22. a

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the handes of them that executed the woorke, and that had the ouersyght of the house of the Lorde: and they brought it out to the carpenters and buylders that wrought vpon the house of the Lorde, 12 And to masons and hewers of stone: and they brought tymber and free stone to repayre the decay in the house of the Lorde, & to al that went out to mende the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lorde, bowles of siluer, instrumentes of musicke, basons, trumpettes, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

of

¶ 14 But they gaue that to the workmen, & repayred therewith the house of the Lorde.

15 Moreouer, they reckened not with the menne, into whose handes they delyuered that money to be bestowed on workemen: for they dyd theyr businesse vpon trust.

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lorde, for it was the priestes.

17 Then came Hazael kyng of Syria vp, & fought agaynst Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Joas kyng of Juda, tooke al the halowed thinges that Iosaphat, Joram, and Ahazia his fathers kynges of Juda had dedicate, and that he hym self had dedicated, and al the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and in the kynges house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, & so he departed from Hierusalem.

19 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Joas, and al that he did, are they not wrytten in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Juda?

3. Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the handes of the Syrians. 5. He prayeth vnto God, and is delyuered.

¶ 1 IN the three and twentieth yeere of Joas the sonne of Ahazia kyng of Juda, Joachas the sonne of Iehu beganne to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuenteene yeres.

2 And he wrought that whiche was euyl in the syght of the Lorde, and folowed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lorde was angry with Israel, & delyuered them into the hande of Hazael kyng of Syria, and into the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, al theyr dayes.

4 And Joachaz besought the Lord, and the Lorde hearde hym: for he consydered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the kyng of Syria troubled them.

7 Neyther dyd he leaue of the people to Joachaz, but fiftie horsmen, ten charets, and ten thousand footmen: for the kyng of Syria destroyed them, and made them lyke threashed dust. B Deut. 16. 2. king. 8. b.

8 The reast of the woordes that concerne Joachaz, and al that he did, and his power, are they not wrytten in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Israel?

9 And Joachaz sleapt with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joas his sonne raigned in his steade.

10 In the thirtie and seuenth yeere of Joas kyng of Juda, beganne Joas the sonne of Joachaz to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria, sixteene yeeres, 11 And dyd that whiche is euyl in the sight of the Lorde, and departed not from al the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, ẏ made Israel sinne: for he walked therin.

12 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Joas, and al that he dyd, and his power, wherewith he fought agaynst Amazia kyng of Juda, are they not wrytten in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Israel?

13 And Joas sleapt with his fathers, and Ieroboam sate vppon his seate: and Joas was buryed in Samaria, among the kynges of Israel.

14 When Elizeus was fallen sicke of his sickneſſe whereof he dyed, Joas the king of Israel came downe vnto hym, and weapt before hym, and sayde, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsmen of the same. ¶

15 Eliseus sayde vnto hym, Take bowe and arrowes. And he tooke vnto hym bow and arrowes.

16 And he sayd to the kyng of Israel, Put thyne hande vpon the bow. And he put his hande vpon it: and Eliseus put his hands vpon the kinges handes, 17 And sayde, Open a wyndowe eastwarde. And when he had opened it, Eliseus sayde, Shoote, and he shot. And he said, The arrowe of healthy of the Lord, and the arrowe of healthy agaynst Syria: for thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphec, tyl thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he sayde, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he sayde vnto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thryse, and ceassed.

19 And

19 And the man of God was angry with hym, and sayd, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe tymes, and then thou haddest smitten Syria tyl thou haddest made an ende of them: where nowe thou shalt smite Syria but thryse.

20 And so Elisens dyed, and they buryed hym: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the lande (a) the same yeere.

(a) Other reade, the yeere folowing, whiche best agreeth with the Hebrue.

21 And as they were buryeing a man, and spyed the souldiers, they cast the man into the sepulchre of Eliseus: and when the man was rolled downe, and touched the bones of Eliseus, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete.

Eccl. 48. 14 22 But Hazael kyng of Syria, vexed Israel al the dayes of Joachaz.

23 And the Lorde had mercye on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his couenant made with Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and woulde not destroy them, neyther caste he them from hym as yet.

24 So Hazael the kyng of Syria dyed, and Benhadad his sonne raigned in his steade.

25 And Joas the sonne of Joachaz went agayne, and tooke out of the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities whiche he had taken away out of the hande of Joachaz his father in warre: for three tymes dyd Joas beate hym, and restored the cities vnto Israel agayne.

10 Thou hast smytten Edom, thyne hart hath made thee proude: enioy this glory, and tary at home: why dooest thou prouoke to mischeefe, that thou shouldest be ouerthrowen, and Juda with thee?

11 But Amazia woulde not heare: and Joas kyng of Israel went vp, and he, and Amazia kyng of Juda, sawe eyther other at Bethsames, whiche is in Juda.

12 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, & they fled euery man to theyr tentes.

13 And Joas kyng of Israel, tooke Amazia kyng of Juda, the sonne of Joas, the sonne of Ahazia, at Bethsames, and came to Hierusalem, and brake downe the wal of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

5. Hoſea kyng of Iſrael is taken.

1 IN the twelfth yeere of Achaz kyng of Iuda, beganne Hoſea the ſonne of Elah to raigne in Samaria vpon Iſrael nine yeeres: A

2 And did that which was euyl in the ſight of the Lorde, but not as the kynges of Iſrael that were before him.

3 And Salmanaſar king of Aſſyria came vp againſt hym, & Hoſea became his ſeruant, and gaue hym * preſentes. * or, tribute

4 And the kyng of Aſſyria founde treaſon in Hoſea: for he had ſent meſſengers to So kyng of Egypt, and brought no preſent vnto the kyng of Aſſyria from yeere to yeere: and therefore the kyng of Aſſyria ſhut hym vp, and bound hym in the priſon houſe.

5 And then the kyng of Aſſyria came vp throughout al the land, and gate vp againſt Samaria, and beſieged it three yeeres. 1. King. 18. c

6 In the nienth yeere of Hoſea, the king of Aſſyria tooke Samaria, and caryed Iſrael away vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Hala and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the (a) Medes. 1. King. 18. 3. Eſdr. 13. c

7 For it came to paſſe, that the chyldren of Iſrael ſinned agaynſt the Lorde their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hande of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and feared other gods. B

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen, whom the Lorde caſt out before the children of Iſrael, & (in the ceremonies) whiche the kynges of Iſrael had made.

9 And the chyldren of Iſrael went about to hyde thoſe thinges that were not wel, from the Lorde their God: and they buylt them high places in al their cities, both in the towres where they keapt watche, and alſo in the ſtrong townes:

10 And they made them images and groues in euery high hil, and vnder euery "thicke tree: "Heb. greene.

11 And there they burnt incenſe in al the hygh places, as dyd the heathen whom the Lorde caryed away before them, and wrought wicked thinges to anger the Lord withal:

(b) It is not ſafe to folow our fathers, except it may appeare they were godly.

15 For they refuſed his ſtatutes, & his couenant that he made with their fathers, and the witneſſes wherewith he witneſſed vnto them, and they folowed vanitie, and became vayne, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concernyng whom the Lorde had charged them, that they ſhoulde not doo like them.

16 But they leaft al the commaundementes of the Lorde their GOD, and made them images of metal, euen two calues, & (made) groues, and woꝛſhipped al the (c) hoaſt of heauen, and ſerued Baal.

18 And the Lorde was exceeding wroth with Iſrael, and put them out of his ſyght, that there was leaft but the tribe of Juda only.

19 Neuertheleſſe, Juda alſo keapt not the commaundementes of the Lord their god, but walked in the ceremonies of Iſrael whiche they made.

20 And the Lorde caſt of al the ſeede of Iſrael, and vexed them, & deliuered them into the handes of ſpoylers, vntil he had caſt them out of his ſyght:

21 For (d) he cut of Iſrael from the houſe of Dauid, and made them a king, euen Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat: and Jeroboam dꝛewe Iſrael away, that they ſhoulde not folowe the Lorde, and made them ſinne a great ſinne.

22 For the children of Iſrael walked in al the ſinnes of Jeroboam whiche he did, and departed not therefrom, 23 Until the Lorde put Iſrael away out of his ſyght, as he had ſaid by al his ſeruants the pꝛophetes: and ſo was Iſrael caryed away out of their owne lande to Aſſyria, euen vnto this day.

(e) Of theſe people came the Samaritanes, of whom mention is made in the goſpel

24 And the king of Aſſyria bꝛought menne from Babylon, from (e) Cutha, from Aua, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in ſteade of the children of Iſrael, and they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And at the beginnyng of their dwellyng there, they feared not the Lord, & the Lord ſent Lions among them, which ſlue them.

26 Wherefoꝛe they ſpake to the king of Aſſyria, ſayeing, The nations whiche thou haſt tranſlated and put in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of ỹ God of the lande: therefoꝛe he hath ſent Lions vppon them, and behalde they ſlay them, becauſe they knowe not the manner of woꝛſhippyng the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Aſſyria commaunded, ſayeing, Cary thither one of the prieſtes whom ye bꝛought thence, and let hym goe and dwel there, and teache them the faſhion howe to ſerue the god of the countrey.

28 And then one of the prieſtes, whom they had caryed from Samaria, came & dwelt in Bethel, and taught them howe they ſhoulde feare the Lorde.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houſes of the hygh places whiche the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Aſima.

31 The Auites made Nibbaz & Tharthak: & the Sepharuites burnt their children in fyre to Adramelech, & Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And ſo they feared the Lorde, and made them prieſtes of the baſeſt of them, which ſacrifyſed foꝛ them in the houſes of the high places.

33 And ſo(f) they feared the Lorde, & ſerued their owne goddes, after the manner of the people whom they caryed thence.

(f) We can not worſhip god and idols.

34 And vnto this day they doo after the old manner: and neither feare God, neyther doo after their ordinances and cuſtomes, noꝛ doo after the lawe & commaundement whiche the Lorde commaunded the chyldren of Jacob, whom he called Iſrael.

35 And the Lorde made a couenant with them, & charged them, ſayeing, Feare none other gods, noꝛ bowe your ſelues to them, noꝛ ſerue them, noꝛ ſacrifyce to them:

Gene.32.c. Jud.6.b. Jere.10.a.

36 But feare the Lorde, whiche bꝛought you out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and a ſtreatched out arme, hym feare, and to him bowe, and to him doo ſacrifyce.

37 The ſtatutes, ordinances, lawe, & commaundement whiche he wꝛote foꝛ you, ſee that ye be diligent to doo foꝛ euermoꝛe, and feare not any other gods.

F

38 And the couenant that I haue made with you, see ye forgeat not, and feare none other goddes:

39 But the Lord your God ye shal feare, and he shal deliuer you out of the handes of all your enimies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but dyd after their olde custome.

41 And so these nations feared the Lorde, and serued their images also, like as dyd their children, & their childrens children: euen as did their fathers, so doo they vnto this day.

4. Hezekia king of Iuda putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idols. 7. and prospereth.

9 And in the fourth yeere of king Hezekia, (whiche was the seuenth yeere of Hosea, sonne of Ela king of Israel) Salmanazar king of Assyria, came vp against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And after three yeeres they tooke it: euen in the sixth yeere of Hezekia (that is to say, the ninth yeere of Hosea king of Israel) Samaria was wonne.

11 And the king of Assyria did cary away Israel vnto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the ryuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they woulde not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord their God, but transgressed his couenant, and al that Moses the seruant of the Lorde commaunded, and woulde neither heare them, nor doo them.

19 And Rabsake saide vnto them, Telle ye Hezekia, I pray you, thus sayth the great kyng, euen the king of Assyria, What confydence is this that thou hast?

20 Thou thinkest surely I haue eloquence, but counsel and strength are for the warre: on whom then doost thou trust, that thou rebellest agaynst me.

21 Doost thou trust to the staffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wyl goe into his hande, and pearse it: euen so is Pharao king of Egypt vnto al that trust on him.

25 Moreouer, am I comme nowe without the bidding of the Lord to this place, to destroy it? The Lorde sayde to me, Goe vp to this lande, and destroy it.

26 And Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, and Sobna, and Joah, sayde vnto Rabsake, Speake, I pray thee, to thy seruantes in the Syrians language (for we vnderstande it) and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on the wal.

27 And Rabsake sayd vnto them, Hath my maister sent me to thy maister and thee, to speake these woordes? Hath he not sent me because of the menne whiche sit on the wal, that they may eate their owne dongue, and drinke their owne "pisse with you?

28 And so Rabsake stoode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, sayeing, Heare the woordes of the great kyng, euen of the king of Assyria.

29 Thus sayth the kyng, Let not Hezekia beguile you, for he shal not be able to deliuer you out of myne hande:

30 Neither let Hezekia make you to trust in the Lorde, sayeing, The Lorde shal surely deliuer vs, & this citie shal not be geuen ouer into the hande of the kyng of Assyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezekia: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Deale kindly with me, and comme out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne vine, & of his owne figge tree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne wel, 32 Tyl I comme, and fette you to as good a lande as yours is, a lande of corne and wine, a lande of bread and vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of olyue trees, and of hony, that ye may lyue, and not dye: and hearken not vnto Hezekia, for he beguyleth you, sayeing, The Lorde shal deliuer vs.

33 Hath euery one of the goddes of the nations, deliuered his lande out of the hande of the king of Assyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath, and of Arphad? & where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, & Iua? Dyd they deliuer Samaria out of myne hande?

35 And what God is among al the gods of the nations, that hath deliuered his lande out of myne hande? (d) Shal the Lorde deliuer Hierusalem out of myne hande?

(d) An execrable blasphemie, to compare dead idols, with the lyuing God.

36 But the people helde their peace, and answeared not hym a woorde: for the kyng had commaunded, sayeing, Answeare him not.

37 Then Eliakim the sonne of Helkia, whiche was the stewarde of the housholde, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekia, with their clothes rent, & tolde him the woordes of Rabsake.

The. xix. Chapter.

6. God promiseth Esai victorie to Hezekia.

1 SO it came to passe, that when king Hezekia hearde it, he rent his clothes, and A Esai. 37. a.
put on sackecloth, & came into the house of the Lorde,

2 And sent Eliakim, whiche was the stewarde of the household, and Sobna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, clothed in sacke, to Esai the prophete, the sonne of Amoz.

3 And they sayd vnto him, Thus sayth Hezekia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the childzen are comme to the birth, and there is no strength to be deliuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy GOD wyl heare al the woordes of Rabsake, whom the king of Assyria his maister hath sent to rayle on the lyuing God, and to rebuke him with woordes whiche the Lorde thy God hath hearde: and lyft thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are leaft.

5 So the seruantes of kyng Hezekia came to Esai.

6 And Esai sayd vnto them, So shal ye say to your maister, Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afrayde of the woordes which thou hast hearde, with whiche the young menne of the kyng of Assyria haue rayled on me.

7 Beholde, I wyl sende a blast vpon him, B and he shal heare tidynges, and so returne Esai. 37. c. to his owne lande, and I wyl bring to passe 2. Chr. 32. d that he shal fal vpon the sword, euen in his owne lande.

8 And Rabsake went backe agayne, and found the king of Assyria, fyghting against Libna: for he had hearde how that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he hearde menne say of Thirhaka king of Ethiopia, Behold he is come out to fyght agaynst thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezekia, sayeing, 10 Thus speake to Hezekia king of Juda, sayeing, Let not thy GOD deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, sayeing, Hierusalem shal not be deliuered into the hande of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kinges of Assyria haue donne to al landes, howe they haue vtterly destroyed them: and shalt thou escape?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which myne ancestours haue destroyed: As Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the chyldren of Eden, which were in Thelassar?
13 Where is the kyng of Hamath, and the kyng of Arphad, the king of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena, and Iua?
¶ 14 And Hezekia receiued the letter of the hande of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekia went vp into the house of the lord, and layde it abroade before the Lorde.
(a) It is the true refuge and succour in al dãgers, to flee vnto the Lorde by earnest prayer.
15 And Hezekia (a) prayed before the Lord, and sayde, O Lorde God of Israel, whiche dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer al the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.
16 Lorde bow downe thine eare, and heare: open Lorde thyne eyes, (I beseeche thee,) and see: and heare the woordes of Sennacherib, whiche hath sent (this man) to raile on the lyuyng God.
17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kynges of Assyria haue destroyed nations and their landes, 18 And haue set fyre on their goddes: for they were no goddes, but the woorke of the handes of man, euen of wood & stone: and they destroyed them.
19 Nowe therfore, O Lorde our God, I beseeche thee, saue thou vs out of his hande, that al the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lorde God.
20 And Esai the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekia, sayeing, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel. That whiche thou hast prayed me concernyng Sennacherib king of Assyria, I haue heard it.
¶ 21 This is therefore the woorde that the Lorde hath sayde of hym, (b) The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, & laughed thee to scorne (O thou king of Asyria) the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.
(b) Hierusalē is called virgin, because as yet it had not benne taken by the enimie. Mat. 23. d. Zach. 2. b.
22 Whom hast thou rayled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? Agaynst whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lyfted vp thyne eyes so hygh? euen agaynst the holy one of Israel.
23 By the hand of thy messengers thou hast rayled on the Lorde, and sayde, With the multitude of my charettes, I am comme vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, along by the sydes of Libanon, and I wyl cut downe the hygh Cedar trees, and the lusty fyre trees thereof: and I wyl goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.
24 I haue digged and dronke strange waters: and with the step of my goyng wyl I drye al the water pooles that are besieged.
25 Hast thou not heard howe I haue ordeyned suche a thyng a great whyle agoe, and haue prepared it from the beginnyng? And shal I not now bryng it forth, that it may destroy and bryng strong cities into wast heapes of stones?
26 And the inhabiters of them shalbe of litle power, and faint harted, and confounded, and shalbe lyke the grasse of the feelde, or grene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houses, or as the corne that is vnripe and smitten with blastyng.
27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out, & thy goyng in, & thy fury agaynst me. Psal. 37. a.
28 And because thou ragest against me, and ¶ thy tumult is comme vp to myne eares, I wyl put my hooke in thy nostrels, and my byt in thy lippes, & I wyl bring thee backe agayne the same way thou camest.
29 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekia, Ye shal eate this yere of such thinges as growe of them selues, and the next yeere suche as comme vp of those that dyd growe of their owne accorde, and the thirde yeere sowe ye and reape, plante vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof.
30 And it that is escaped and leaft of the daughter of Iuda, shal yet agayne take rooting downeward, and beare fruit vpward.
31 For out of Hierusalem shal go a remnant and a number that shal escape out of mount Sion: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes shal bring this thing to passe.
32 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde concernyng the kyng of Assyria, He shal not come to this citie, nor shoote an arrowe into it, nor comme before it with shielde, nor cast a bancke agaynst it.
33 But shal goe backe agayne the way he came, and shal not comme into this citie, sayth the Lorde.
34 For I wyl defende this citie, to saue it, for myne owne sake, and for Dauid my seruantes sake.
35 And the selfe same nyght the angel of the Lorde went out, and smote in the host of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore and fyue thousande: and when the remnant were vp early in the morning, beholde they were al dead coarses.
36 And so Sennacherib kyng of Assyria auoyded, and departed, and went againe and dwelt at Niniue.
37 And as he was in a temple woorshypping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sareser his owne sonnes (c) smote hym with the swoorde: and they escaped into the lande of Armenia, and Asarhadden his sonne raigned in his steade.
¶ (c) This was the iust iudgment of God for his blasphemie, that he should be slayne before that idol whiche he preferred before the lyuing God: & by them by whom he ought by nature to haue benne defended.

The. xx. Chapter.

1. Hezekia being ſycke, 7. receiueth the ſigne of his health.

A 1 ABout that time was Hezekia ſicke vnto death: and the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amoz came to him, and ſayde vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Put thyne houſeholde in an order, for thou ſhalt dye, and not lyue.

2.Chro.32. Eſai.38.a.

2 And Hezekia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lorde, ſayeing,

3 I beſeeche thee, O Lorde, remember nowe howe I haue walked before thee in trueth, and with a perfect hart, and haue donne that whiche is good in thy ſyght: And Hezekia weapt ſoare.

4 And afore Eſai was gonne out into the middle of the court, the woord of the Lord came to him, ſayeing,

5 Turne agayne, and tel Hezekia the captayne of my people, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, (a) I haue heard thy prayer, and ſeene thy teares, & behold, I wyl heale thee, ſo that on the thirde day thou ſhalt goe vp vnto the houſe of the lord:

(a) God is moued with true prayer and vnfained repentance.

6 And I wyl adde vnto thy dayes yet fyfteene yeeres, and I wyl deliuer thee and this citie, out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, and wyl defende this citie, for myne owne ſake, and for Dauid my ſeruantes ſake.

B 7 And Eſai ſaide, Take a lumpe of dryed figges. And they tooke and layde it on the ſoare, and he recouered.

8 And Hezekia ſaide vnto Eſai, What ſhal be the ſigne that the Lorde wyl heale me, and that I ſhal goe vp into the houſe of the Lorde the thirde day?

Eccle.48.c. 9 Eſai anſwearred, This ſigne ſhalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lorde wyl doo that he hath ſpoken: ſhal the ſhadowe goe forward ten degrees? or goe backe agayne ten degrees?

10 Hezekia anſweared, It is a lyght thyng for the ſhadowe to goe downe ten degrees, I deſyre not (that) but let the ſhadowe goe backwarde ten degrees.

Eccle.48.c. 11 And Eſai the prophete called vnto the Lorde, and he brought the ſhadowe ten degrees backwarde, by whiche it had gonne downe in the dyal of Achaz.

Eſai.39.a. 12 The ſame ſeaſon Berodach Baladan, the ſonne of Baladan king of Babylon, ſent letters and a preſent vnto Hezekia: for he had hearde howe that Hezekia was ſycke.

"Hebre. heard them. 13 And Hezekia "was glad of them, and ſhewed them al his treaſure houſe, ſiluer, golde, odours, pretious oyntment, all the houſe of his armoure, and al that was found in his treaſures: there was nothing in his houſe and in al his realme, that Hezekia ſhewed them not.

14 And Eſai the prophete came vnto kyng Hezekia, and ſayde vnto him, What ſayde theſe menne? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekia ſayde, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon. C

15 And he ſayde agayne, What haue they ſeene in thy houſe? Hezekia anſweared, Al the thinges that are in my houſe, haue they ſeene: there is nothing among my treaſures, that I haue not ſhewed them.

16 And Eſai ſayde vnto Hezekia, Heare the woorde of the Lorde.

17 Beholde the dayes comme, that al that is in thyne houſe, & what ſo euer thy fathers haue layde vp in ſtore vnto this day, ſhalbe caryed into Babylon: and nothyng ſhal be leaft, ſayth the Lorde.

2.kin.24.a. and.25.b. Iere. 20.b. vearſe.27.

18 And of thy ſonnes that ſhal proceede out of thee, and whiche thou ſhalt begeat, ſhal they take away, and they ſhalbe chamberlaynes in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezekia ſayde vnto Eſai, (b) Welcome be the woorde of the Lorde, whiche thou haſt ſpoken. And he ſayde, Shal there not be peace and trueth in my dayes?

(b) He humbleth hym ſelfe vnto the woorde of the prophete.

20 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Hezekia, and al his power, and howe he made a poole and a conduite, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

21 And Hezekia ſleapt with his fathers, and Manaſſe his ſonne raigned in his ſteade. 2.Chr.32.f. Matth.1.a.

The. xxi. Chapter.

3. Kyng Manaſſe reſtoreth idolatrie, 16. and vſeth great crueltie.

1 MAnaſſe was twelue yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and raigned fiftie and fyue yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Hephziba. A 2.Chr.33.a

2 And he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the Lord, euen after ỹ abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

3 For he went and built vp the high places, whiche Hezekia his father had deſtroyed, and he reared vp aulters for Baal, and made groues, as dyd Achab kyng of Iſrael, and woorſhipped al the hoaſt of heauen, and ſerued them.

Deut.28.d. 2.king.18.a Reade chap. 17.c.

Reade chap. 16. vearse. 3. Leuit. 20. d. Deut. 18. b. 2. king. 16. a 5 And he buylt aulters for all the hoast of heauen, (euen) in two courtes of the house of the Lorde.

6 And he offered his owne sonne in fyre, and gaue heede vnto witchcraft and sorcerie, and mainteyned wourkers with spirites, and tellers of fortunes, & wrought much wickednesse in the syght of the lord, to anger him.

7 And he put an image of a groue that he had made, in the temple, of whiche the lord saide to Dauid and Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Hierusalem, which I haue chosen out of al tribes of Israel, wyl I put my name for euer, 1. king. 9. a.

8 Neither wyl I make the feete of Israel moue any more out of the lande whiche I gaue their fathers: so that they wyl obserue and doo al that I haue commaunded them, and accordyng to al the law, that my seruant Moses commaunded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse led them out of the way, to doo more wickedly then dyd the heathen people, whom the Lorde destroyed before the chyldren of Israel.

10 And the Lorde spake by his seruantes the prophetes, sayeing, Iere. 15. a.

11 Because Manasse king of Iuda hath done suche abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then al the Amorites whiche were before him dyd, and hath made Iuda sinne also with his idols: Iere. 19. a.

12 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Beholde, I wyl bryng suche euyl vpon Hierusalem and Iuda, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shal "tingle.

13 And I wyl stretche ouer Hierusalem the squaring line of (a) Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Achab: and I wil wype out Hierusalem, as a man wipeth a dishe, and when he hath wyped it, turneth it vpsyde downe.

14 And I wyl leaue the (b) remnant of mine inheritance, & deliuer them into the hande of their enimies, and they shalbe robbed and spoyled, of al their aduersaries:

15 Because they haue done euil in my sight, and haue angred me, sence the time their fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day.

16 And Manasse (c) shed innocent blood exceeding muche, tyl he replenished Hierusalem from corner to corner, besyde his sinne wherewith he made Iuda to sinne, and to doo euyl in the syght of the Lorde.

17 The rest of the woordes that concerne Manasse, and al that he dyd, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

18 And Manasse sleapt with his fathers, and was buryed in the garden of his owne house, euen in the garden of Oza, and Amon his sonne raigned in his steade. 2. Chr. 33. d

19 Amon was twentie and two yeeres olde when he begamne to raigne, and he raigned two yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Mesullemeth, the daughter of Harus of Iotba.

20 And he dyd euyl in the syght of the lorde, as his father Manasse dyd:

21 And walked in al the way that his father walked in, and serued the idols that his father serued, and woorshipped them:

22 And he forsooke the Lorde God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lorde. D

23 And the seruantes of Amon conspired agaynst him, and slue the king in his owne house.

24 And the people of the lande slue al them that had conspired against king Amon, and the people made Iosia his sonne king in his steade.

25 The rest of the woordes that concerne Amon, what thinges he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Iuda?

26 And "they buryed him in his sepulchre, in the garden of Oza, and Iosia his sonne raigned in his steade.

The. xxii. Chapter.

4. Iosia repayreth the temple. 8. Helkia fyndeth the booke of the lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosia, 14. who sendeth to Hulda the prophetisse to inquire the lordes wil.

1 IOsia was eyght yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned thirtie and one yeeres in Hierusalem: His mothers name also was Iedida, the daughter of Adaia of Bozcath. A

2 He dyd that whiche is vyght in the syght of the Lord, and walked in al the wayes of Dauid his father, and (a) bowed neyther to the vyght hand, nor to the leaft. 2. Chr. 34. a (a) His zeale was prophecied of, and his name mentioned by Iddo the prophete, more then three hundred yeeres before. iii. king. xiii. a

3 And in the eyghteenth yeere of the raigne of kyng Iosia, the kyng sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, the sonne of Mesulam the scribe, to the house of the Lorde, sayeing, and beyng but eyght yeeres olde, he sought the god of his father Dauid. ii. Chro. iii.

4 Goe vp to Helkia the hygh priest, that he may summe the syluer whiche is brought into the house of the Lorde, whiche the keepers of the porche haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that doo the woorke, and that haue the ouersyght of the house of the Lorde:

and

and let them geue it to them that woorke in the house of the Lord, to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

6 Euen vnto carpenters and masons, and woorkers vpon the walles, and for to buye tymber & free stone, to repayre the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckonyng be made with them, of the money that is delyuered into theyr hande, but let them doo it vppon trust.

8 And Helkia the hygh priest, sayde vnto Saphan the scribe, (b) I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read it.

(b) This was the copy that Moses leafte them, as appeareth. 2. Chro. 34. which either by the negligence of the priestes had ben lost: or els by the wickednesse of idolatrous kinges had ben abolished.

9 And Saphan the scribe came to the king, and brought him woorde agayne, and said, Thy seruantes haue "geathered the money that was found in the temple, and haue delyuered it vnto them that doo the woorke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde.

"Heb. Melted.

10 And Saphan the scribe shewed the king, sayeing, Helkia the priest hath delyuered me a booke: and Saphan read it before the kyng.

11 And when the kyng had heard the woordes of the booke of the law, he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commaunded Helkia the priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kinges, sayeing,

Jerem. 21. a

13 Goe ye, and enquyre of the Lorde for me, and for the people, and for al Juda, concerning the woordes of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is kyndeled agaynst vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the woordes of this booke, to doo accordyng vnto al that whiche is wrytten therein for vs.

(c) Or the colledge which was neare to the temple, & where the learned assembled to intreate of the scriptures and doctrine of the propheres.

14 So Helkia the high priest, and Ahikam, Achbor, and Saphan, & Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetisse, the wyfe of Sallum the sonne of Thikua, the sonne of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: (which prophetisse dwelt in Hierusalem in the (c) house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

15 And she answeared them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Tel the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bryng euyl vppon this place, and on the inhabitours thereof, euen al the woordes of the booke whiche the kyng of Juda hath read:

(d) The workes of mans hande here signifieth al that man inuenteth beside the word of god, whiche are abominable in gods seruice.

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other goddes, to anger me withal, the(d) woorkes of theyr hands: my wrath also shalbe kyndled agaynst this place, and shal not be quenched.

18 But to the kyng of Juda whiche sent you to aske counsel of the Lorde, so shal ye say, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, as touchyng the woordes whiche ye haue hearde:

19 Because thyne harte dyd (e) melte, and because thou hast humbled thee selfe before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake agaynst this place, and agaynst the inhabiters of the same, howe that they shoulde be destroyed and accursed: and hast rent thy clothes, and weapt before me, I also haue hearde (it) sayth the Lorde:

(e) Meanyng that he dyd repent.

20 Beholde therefore, I wyl receiue thee vnto thy fathers, and thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes shal not see al the euyl whiche I wyl bryng vppon this place. And they brought the kyng word agayne.

3 And the kyng (a) stoode by a pyller, and made a couenant before the Lord, that they shoulde walke after the Lorde, and keepe his commaundementes, his witnesses, and his statutes, with al their hart, and al their soule, and make good the woordes of the sayde couenant, that were wrytten in the foresayde booke: and al the people consented to the couenant.

7 And he brake downe the celles of the male stewes that were by the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangynges for the groue.

8 And he brought al the priestes out of the cities of Juda, and defiled the hygh places where the priestes had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beer seba, and destroyed the high places of the gates that were in the entring in of the gate of Iosua the gouernour of the citie, whiche were on the leaft hand (as a man goeth in) to the gate of the citie.

8 And when the Philistines heard that Dauid was annoynted kyng vpon al Israel, al the Philistines went vp to seeke Dauid: and Dauid heard of it, and went out agaynst them.

9 And the Philistines came in, and spread them selues through ỹ valley of Rephaim.

10 And Dauid (b) asked counsayle at God, saying, Shal I goe against ỹ Philistines? & wilt thou deliuer them into mine hande? 11 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Goe vp: for I wil deliuer them into thyne hande. And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid sayd, God hath diuided mine enimies with mine hand, as a man would diuide water: And therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we sought hym not as the fashion ought to be. 1. Par. 13. b.

2.Sa.14.a. 2 And Dauid sayde to Ioab, and to the rulers of the people, Go ye, and number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan: & bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Ioab answeared, The Lorde make his people an hundred tymes so many mo as they be: but my lorde, O kyng, are they not al my lordes seruantes? why then dooth my lorde require this thing? why wyl my lorde be a cause of (a) trespasse to Israel?

(a) Dauid offended in numbring the people, partly because he dyd it of ambition, but cheefly for that he payed not to the vse of the temple for euery one numbred halfe a sicle, according to the lawe.

4 Neuertheless the kynges woorde preuayled agaynst Ioab: and Ioab departed, and walked throughout al them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem agayne,

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and al they of Israel were a thousand thousand, and an hundred thousande menne that drue swoorde: and Iuda was foure hundred, threescore, and tenne thousande menne that drue swoorde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: for the kynges woorde was abominable to Ioab.

7 And the Lorde was displeased with this B thing, and smote Israel.

8 And Dauid sayd vnto God, I haue sinned Exod.30. exceedingly in dooyng this thing: and now 2.Sam.24. I beseeche thee, doo away the wickednesse verse.9. of thy seruant, for I haue donne very foolishly.

9 And the Lorde spake vnto Gad Dauids * Seer, sayeing,

* or, prophete.

10 Goe, and tel Dauid, sayeing, Thus saith the Lorde, I geue thee the choyse of three things: choose the one of them, that I may doo vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde, Choose thee

12 Either three yeeres famine, or three monethes to be destroyed before thyne aduersaries, and that the swoord of thyne enimies may ouertake thee: or els the swoorde of the Lorde, & pestilence in the lande three dayes, & the angel of the Lord destroying throughout al the coastes of Israel: and now aduise thee selfe what woorde I shal bring againe to hym that sent me.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto Gad, I am in an exceedyng strayt: let me fal nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for passyng great are his mercies) but let me not fal into ỹ hande of menne.

14 So the Lord sent pestilence vpon Israel: C & there were ouerthrowen of Israel threescore and tenne thousande menne.

15 And God sent the angel vnto Hierusalem 2.Sam.24. to destroy it: and as he was about to de- verse.16. stroy, the Lord beheld, and had compassion on the euyl, and sayde to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, let nowe thy hande ceasse. And the angel of the Lorde stoode by the threshyng floore of * Ornan the Iebusite.

* or, Areuna.

16 And Dauid lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the angel of the Lorde stande betweene the earth and heauen, hauyng a drawen swoorde in his hande, stretched out toward Hierusalem: then Dauid and the elders of Israel, whiche were clothed in sacke, fel vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid sayde vnto God, Is it not I that comaunded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue sinned, and donne euyl in deede: and what haue these sheepe donne? Let thyne hande, O Lorde my GOD, be on me, and on my fathers house: but (b) not on thy people, that they shoulde be punished.

(b) Thus he sheweth true repentance, & a fatherly care towarde his people,

18 And the angel of the Lord commaunded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid shoulde goe vp, and set vp an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threshing flooze of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid went vp, accordyng to the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lorde.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the angel, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hid them selues: but Ornan was threshing wheate.

D 21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan loked and saw Dauid, and went out of the threshing flooze, and bowed him selfe to Dauid with his face to the grounde.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ornan, Geue me the place of the threshing flooze, that I may buylde an aulter therin vnto the lord: thou shalt geue it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

23 And Ornan sayde vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lorde the kyng doo that which seemeth good in his eyes: Lo, I geue thee oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshing instrumentes for wood, and wheate for meate offering, I geue it al.

24 And kyng Dauid sayde to Ornan, Not so, but I wyl bye it for as muche money as it is wooxth: for I wyl not take that whiche is thyne for the Lorde, nor offer whole burnt offeringes without cost.

2. Sam. 24. verse. 24. 25 And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sicles of gold, sixe hundred by waight.

(c) God declared, that he hearde his request in that he sent downe fyre from heauē, for els they might vse no fyre in sacrifice, but of that whiche was reserued styl vpon the aulter. Leuit. Chap. 6. ver. 13. and came downe from heauē. Leui. Chap. 9. ver. 14. as appeared by the punishment of Nadab & Abihu, Leui. Chap. 10. verse, 1.

26 And Dauid buylt there an aulter vnto the Lorde, & offered whole burnt offeringes and peace offeringes, and called vpon the Lord, and he heard hym from heauen in (c) fire vpō the aulter of whole burnt offering.

27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the angel, he put vp his swoorde agayne into the sheath of it.

28 At that time, when Dauid sawe that the Lorde had hearde him in the threshing flooze of Ornan the Iebusite, he vsed to offer there:

29 (For the tabernacle of the Lorde which Moses made in the wylderneſſe, and the aulter of whole burnt offering, (were) at that season in the hygh place at Gibeon:

30 And Dauid coulde not goe before it to aske counsel at God, for he was afrayde of the swoorde of the angel of the Lorde.)

The. xxii. Chapter.

2. Dauid prepareth thynges necessary for the buyldyng of the temple.

A 1 AND Dauid sayde, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the aulter for the whole burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commaunded to geather togeather the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set masons to hewe and pullishe stones for the building of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nayles, & doores of the gates, and to ioyne withal, and abundance of brasse without wayght,

4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons & they of Tyre brought muche Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid sayde, Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to be buylded for the Lord, must be magnifical, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie throughout al countreyes: I wyl therfore make ordinances for it. And so Dauid prepared many thinges before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged him to buylde an house for the lord God of Israel.

B 7 And Dauid sayde to Solomon, My sonne, I thought in myne hart to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God: 2. Sam. 7. b

8 But the worde of the Lorde came to me, saying, Thou hast shed (a) muche blood, and hast made great battayles: thou shalt therfore not buyld an house vnto my name, for thou hast shedde muche blood vpon the earth in my syght.

(a) This declareth how greatly God abhorreth the shedding of blood, seeyng Dauid for this cause is stayed to buylde the temple of the Lorde. Albeit he tooke no warre in hande, but by Gods commaundement, and against Gods enimies.

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I wyl geue hym rest from al his enimies rounde about: for his name is Solomon, and I wyl send rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shal buylde an house for my name, and he shal be my sonne, and I wyl be his father, and I wyl establishe the seate of his kyngdome vpon Israel for euer.

11 Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lorde be with thee, and prosper thee, and thou shalt buylde an house to the Lorde thy God, as he hath sayde of thee.

12 And the Lorde shal geue thee wysedome and understandyng, and shal geue thee * commaundementes for Israel, that thou mayest keepe the lawe of the Lorde thy God.

* or, charge

13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede, and fulfillest the statutes and lawes whiche the Lorde charged Moses with for Israel: plucke vp thyne hart therefore, and be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.

C 14 Beholde, accordyng to my powertie haue I also prepared for the house of the Lorde an hundred thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande thousande talentes of sluer:

ſilner: and as for braſſe and iron, it can not be numbred (for it is very muche) and I haue prepared timber and ſtone: and thou mayſt prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou haſt workemen with thee ynowe, and maſons, and carpenters, to worke in ſtone and timber, and many men that be actiue for euery worke.

16 And of golde, ſilner, braſſe and iron, there is no number: vp therefore and be doing, and the Lorde ſhalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded al the lordes of Iſrael to helpe Solomon his ſonne, (ſaying,)

18 Is not the Lorde your God with you? and hath he not geuen you reſt on euery ſyde? for he hath geuen the inhabitours of the lande into my hande, and the lande is ſubdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

19 Nowe therefore ſet your hartes and your ſoules to ſeeke the Lorde your God: vp, and buylde ye the temple of the Lorde God, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy veſſels of God into the houſe ſo buylt for the name of the Lorde.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

26 That the Leuites alſo ſhoulde nowe no more beare the tabernacle, and al the veſſels for the ſeruice thereof.

27 For according to the laſt woords of Dauid, the Leuites were numbred from twentie yeeres and aboue.

28 And their office was vnder the hande of the ſonnes of Aaron, for the ſeruice of the houſe of the Lord in the courtes and celles, and in the purifying of all holy thinges,

4 Moreouer, the Lord God of Israel chose me before al the house of my father, to be king ouer Israel for euer: for in Iuda woulde he choose a captayne, and of the householde of Iuda is the house of my father, and among the sonnes of my father he had a lust to me, to make me kyng ouer al Israel.

1.Sa.16.a.

5 And of al my sonnes (for the Lorde hath geuen me many sonnes) he hath chosen Solomon my sonne, to syt vpon the seate of the kingdome of the Lorde in Israel.

13 For the diuisions of the priestes and Leuites that wayted by course, and for al the workemanship that shoulde serue for the house of the Lorde, and for al the vesselles that shoulde serue in the house of the Lorde:

14 For gold, and for the wayght of gold, for al vessels of sundry ministrations, for all manner of vessels of siluer in wayght, and for al vessels what so euer purpose they serued vnto:

18 And for the aulter of incense pure golde by wayght, and golde for the patterne of the charret of the Cherubims that streatched out their winges and couered the arke of the conenant of the Lorde.

D

19 Al (he sayde) was geuen me by writyng of the hande of the Lorde, whiche made me vnderstande al the woorkemanship of the patterne.

Exod.5.

20 And Dauid said to Solomon his sonne, Be strong, and of good courage, and doo manfully: feare not, nor be faynt harted, for the Lorde God, euen my God, is with thee, and he shal not fayle thee, nor forsake thee, vntyl thou hast fynished al the worke that must serue for the house of the Lorde.

21 Beholde, the priestes and Leuites are diuided in companyes, for al manner of seruice that parteyneth to the house of God, they are with thee for al manner of woorkmanship, and to are al that excel in wysedome for any manner of seruice, thou hast also the princes and al the people wholy at thy commaundement.

yet young and tender, and the wooꝛke is great: foꝛ the house shal not be foꝛ man, but foꝛ the Loꝛde God.

2 Moꝛeouer, I haue pꝛepared with al my myght, foꝛ the house of my God, golde, foꝛ vessels of golde, siluer, foꝛ them of siluer, bꝛasse, foꝛ thyngs of bꝛasse, iron, foꝛ thinges of iron, and wood, foꝛ thynges of wood, & Onyx stones, and stones to be set, * glysteryng stones, and of diuers colours, and al manner of pꝛecious stones, and Marble stones, in great abundance.

* Some reade, Carbuncle stones.

3 And because I haue lust to the house of my God, I haue of myne owne pꝛoper good, of golde and siluer which I haue geuen to the house of my God, beside al that I haue pꝛepared foꝛ the holy house,

4 Euen thꝛee thousande talentes of gold of Ophir, and seuen thousand talentes of tryed siluer, to ouerlay the walles of the house withal.

5 The golde, foꝛ thynges of golde, siluer, foꝛ them of siluer, and foꝛ al manner of wooꝛke by the handes of artificers: and whosoeuer is (a) wyllyng, maye this day (b) consecrate his hande vnto the Loꝛde.

(a) He was not only liberal him selfe toward the buylding of Gods house, but also prouoked others.

(b) That is, may offer to the buylding of the house of the Lord.

6 And so the ancient fathers, and the loꝛdes of the tribes of Israel, the captaynes of thousands, and hundꝛedes, with the loꝛdes that were rulers ouer the kynges wooꝛke, were wyllyng:

7 And gaue foꝛ the seruice of the house of God, fiue thousande talentes of golde, and ten thousande peeces (of golde) and tenne thousande talentes of siluer, and eightéene thousande talentes of bꝛasse, and one hundꝛed thousande talentes of iron.

8 And they with whom pꝛecious stones were founde, gaue them to the treasure of the house of the Loꝛde, by the hande of Iehiel the Gersonite.

9 And the people reioyced when they were so wyllyng to geue theyꝛ goodes, and with a perfecte harte they offered wyllyngly to the Loꝛde, and Dauid the kyng reioyced with great gladnesse.

10 And Dauid blessed the Loꝛde beꝛoze al the congregation, and sayd, Blessed be thou Loꝛde God of Israel, our father, from euer and foꝛ euer.

11 Thyne, O Loꝛde, is greatnesse, and power, gloꝛie, victoꝛie, and pꝛayse: foꝛ al that is in heauen and in earth, is thyne, & thyne is the kyngdome, O Loꝛde, and thou excellest aboue al, euen as the head of al.

12 And richesse and honour comme of thee, and thou raignest ouer al, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thyne hande it is to make great, and to geue strength vnto al.

13 And nowe our God we thanke thee, and pꝛayse thy gloꝛyous name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we shoulde be able to geue these thynges so wyllyngly? but al thynges comme of thee, and of that whiche we receiued at thyne hande, we haue geuen thee. E

15 Foꝛ we be but strangers beꝛoze thee, and soiourners, as were al our fathers: our dayes on the earth also are but as a shadowe, and there is none abydyng. Gene. 47. b.

16 O Loꝛde our God, al this stuffe that we haue pꝛepared to buylde thee an house foꝛ thy holy name, commeth of thyne hande, and is al thyne. Wisd. 2. b.

17 I wote also, my God, that thou tryest the hartes, and hast pleasure in vnfaignednesse: and in the vnfaignednesse of myne hart, I haue wyllyngly offred al these thinges: & nowe haue I seene thy people which are founde here to offer vnto thee wyllyngly, and with gladnesse.

18 O Loꝛde God of Abꝛaham, Isahac, and of Israel our fathers, (c) keepe this foꝛ euer in the desire of the thoughtes of the hart of thy people, and pꝛepare their hartes vnto thee. (c) Continue them in this good minde, that thei may serue thee wyllyngly.

19 And geue vnto Solomon my sonne a perfect hart, to keepe thy commaundementes, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to doo al, and buylde the house foꝛ the which I haue made pꝛouision.

20 And Dauid sayde to al the congregation, Now blesse the Loꝛd your God. And al the congregation blessed the Loꝛde God of theyꝛ fathers, and bowed downe theyꝛ heades, and wooꝛshypped the Loꝛd, and the kyng.

21 And they offered offerynges vnto the Loꝛde: and on the moꝛowe after the sayde day, they offered whole burnt offerynges vnto the Loꝛde, euen a thousande young oxen, a thousande rammes, and a thousande sheepe, with theyꝛ dꝛynke offerynges, many sacrifices offered they foꝛ al Israel, D

22 And dyd eate and dꝛynke beꝛoze the Loꝛde the same day with great gladnesse: and they made Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng the seconde tyme, and annoynted hym pꝛince beꝛoze the Loꝛde, and Zadoc to be the hygh pꝛieste.

23 And Solomon sate on the seate of the Loꝛde, and was kyng in steade of Dauid his father, and pꝛospered: and al they of Israel obeyed hym. 1. king. 2. c.

The. ii. Chapter.

3. Solomon sendeth to Hiram the king of Tyrus for wood and woorkemen.

A 1 AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the Lorde, and an house for his kingdome.
2 And Solomon tolde out threescore and ten thousande men to beare burdens, and fourescore thousande men to hewe stones in the mountayne, and (a) three thousande and sixe hundred to ouersee them.
3 And Solomon sent to Hiram the kyng of Tyre, sayeing, As thou diddest deale with Dauid my father, and diddest sende hym Cedar wood to builde hym an house to dwel in (euen so deale with me:)
4 Beholde, I builde an house for the name of the Lord my God, to offer vnto him holy thynges, and to burne sweete incense, and to set shewe bread before hym continually, to offer whole burnt sacrifices of the morning, and euenyng, on the Sabboth dayes, in the first day of euery newe moone, and in the solemne feastes of the Lord our God: for it is an ordinance to be continually kept of Israel.
5 And the house which I build shalbe great: for great is our God, aboue al goddes.
6 But who is able to builde him an house? when that heauen, and heauen aboue al heauens is not able to receiue hym, what am I then, that should build him an house? nay, but euen to burne sacrifice before hym (shal this building be.)
B 7 Sende me nowe therefore a cunning man that can woorke in golde, & siluer, in brasse, & iron, in purple, crymson, (b) yelowe silke, and that can skil to graue, with the cunning men that are with me in Juda & Hierusalem, whom Dauid my father dyd prepare.
8 Sende me also Cedar trees, Pine trees, and (c) Algume trees out of Libanon: for I wote that thy seruantes can skyl to hewe tymber in Libanon: and beholde, my men shalbe with thyne, 9 That they may prepare me timber ynough: for the house whiche I am determined to builde, shalbe woonderful great.
10 And beholde, for the vse of thy seruantes the cutters and hewers of tymber, I haue geuen twentie thousande measures of beaten wheate, & twentie thousande measures of barley, and twentie thousand battes of wine, and twentie thousand battes of oyle.
11 And Hiram the king of Tyre answeared in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the Lorde hath loued his people, therfore hath he made thee kyng ouer them.
12 And Hiram sayde moreouer, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which made heauen and earth, and that hath geuen Dauid the kyng a wyse sonne, and one that hath discretion, prudence, and vnderstandyng, to build an house for the Lord, and a palace for his kyngdome.
13 And nowe I haue sent a wyse man, and a man of vnderstandyng, whom my father Hiram did vse:
14 The sonne of a woman of ỹ (d) daughters of Dan, & his father was a man of Tyre, & he can skil to woorke in gold, and syluer, in brasse, & iron, in stone, & timber, in purple, and yelowe silke, & fine white, and crimson, and can graue sundry manner of graunynges, and to fynde out diuers manners of subtile woorke that shalbe set before him, with thy cunnyng men, and with the cunnyng men of my lorde Dauid thy father.
15 Nowe therefore, the wheate, and barley, oyle, and wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him sende vnto his seruantes:
16 And we wil cutte wood in Libanon, as muche as thou shalt neede, and wil bring it to thee in flotes by sea to Japho, from whence thou mayest cary them to Hierusalem.
17 And Solomon numbred al the strangers that were in the lande of Israel, after the number of them whom his father Dauid had numbred: and they were founde an hundred, fiftie, and three thousande, and sixe hundred.
18 And he set threescore and ten thousande to beare burdens, and fourescore thousand to hewe stones in the mountayne, and three thousande and sixe hundred officers to set the people a woorke.

3 And these are the patternes whereby Solomon was instruct to buylde the house of God: The length was threescore cubites, after the olde measure, & the breadth twentie cubites.

4 And the porch that was before the length in the front, accordyng to the breadth of the house, was twentie cubites, & the heigth was an hundred and twentie cubites: and he overlayde it on the inner syde with pure golde.

5 And the greater house he seeled with firre tree, whiche he overlayde with the best golde, and graued thereto paulme trees, and chaynes.

6 And he overlayde the house with pretious stone beautifully: and the golde was golde of Paruaim.

7 The house (I say,) the beames, postes, walles, and doores thereof, overlayde he with golde, and graued Cherubims on the walles.

8 And he made the house moste holy: whose length was twentie cubites, lyke to the breadth of the house, and the breadth thereof was also twentie cubites: and he overlayde it with good golde, euen with syxe hundred talentes.

9 And the weight of the nayles of gold was fyftie sicles: and he overlayde the vpper chambers with golde.

12 And euen so the one wyng of the other cherub was fyue cubites, reachyng to the wal of the house: and the other wyng was fyue cubites also, and reached to the wing of the other cherub.

13 So that the wynges of the sayde cherubims were stretched out twentie cubites: and they stoode on theyr feete, and looked inwardes.

14 And he made a forehangyng of * yelowe silke, purple, crymson, and fyne whyte, and caused the pyctures of cherubims to be broodered thereon.

* or, violet colour.

15 And he made before the house two pyllers of thirtie and fyue cubites hygh, and the head that was aboue on the top of euery one of them, was fyue cubites.

16 And he made chaynes of wreathen wooрke for the quier, and put them on the heades of the pyllers, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaynes.

17 And he reared vp the pyllers before the temple, one on the ryght hande, and the other on the leaft: and called the ryght Iachin, and the leaft Boaz.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The aulter of brasse. 2. The lauatorie. 6. The caldrons. 7. The candelstickes, &c.

1 AND he made an aulter of brasse, twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and ten cubites high. Leuit.6.b.

2 And he cast a brasen lauatorie of ten cubites from brim to brym, rounde in compasse, & fiue cubites high, and a line of thirtie cubites dyd compasse it rounde about. 1.King.7.d

3 And vnder it, was the fashion of oxen, whiche did compasse it rounde about: with ten cubites did they compasse the lauatorie rounde about, & there were two rowes of oxen, which were cast like moulten wooрke.

4 And it stoode also vpon twelue oxen: three looked towarde the north, three towarde the west, three toward the south, and three toward the east, and the lauatorie was set vpon them: and al theyr backes were towarde the lauatorie.

5 And the thicknesse of it, was an hande breadth, and the brym lyke the brym of a cup, with flowres of Lillies, and it receiued and helde three thousande battes.

6 And he made ten lauers, and put fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the leaft, to washe and cleanse in them suche thinges as they offered for a whole burnt offeryng: but the great lauatorie was for the priestes to washe in. 1.King.7.a.

7 And he made ten candelstickes of golde, accordyng to the paterne that was geuen of them, and put them in the temple, fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the leaft.

8 And he made also ten tables, and put them in the temple, fyue on the right side, and fyue on the leaft: and he made an hundred basons of golde.

9 And he made the courte of the priestes, and the great court, and doores to it, and overlayde the doores of them with brasse.

10 And he set the great lauatorie on the ryght syde of the east ende, ouer agaynst the south.

11 And Hiram made pottes, shouelles, and basons, and finished the wooрke that he was appoynted to make for kyng Solomon in the house of God.

12 The

12 The two pyllers, and the bowles, and the pommelles on the top of the two pyllers, & the two wreathes to couer the two bowles of the pommelles, whiche were on the top of the pyllers, 13 And foure hundred pomegranates on the two wreathes: two rowes of pomegranates on one wreathe, to couer the two bowles of the pommelles.

¶ 14 And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes.

15 The greate lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it.

16 Pottes also, shouels, and fleshhookes: and al these vesselles dyd (a) Hiram his father make to kyng Solomon for the house of the Lorde, of brysht brasse.

(a) Hiram is called Solomons father, because Solomon reuerenced hym, and fauoured hym as his father.

17 In the playne of Iordane dyd the kyng caste them, euen in the claye grounde that is betweene Socoth and Saredatha.

18 And Solomon made al these vesselles in great abundance: for the wayght of brasse coulde not be reckened.

19 And Solomon made al the vesselles that were for the house of God, the golden aulter also, and the tables to set the (b) shewe bread vpon.

(b) In Hebrue, the bread of the faces, because they were set before the arke where God shewed his face.

20 Moreouer, the candlesticks, with their lampes to burne, after the maner before the quyer, and that of precious golde.

21 And the flowres, and the lampes, & the snuffers, made he of golde, and that perfect golde.

22 And the * dressyng knyues, basons, spoones, and censers of pure golde: & the doore of the temple, and the inner doores within the place moste holye, and the inner doores of the temple were gylted.

* Some reade, hookes: and others, instruments of musicke.

The.v.Chapter.

The thynges dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple.

A 1 AND so al the woorke that Solomon made in the house of the Lorde was finished: and Solomon brought in al the thynges that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the siluer and golde, and al the iewels, and put them among the treasures of the house of God.

1.king.7.g.

1.king.8.a. 2 Then Solomon geathered the elders of Israel togeather, and al the heades of the tribes and ancient fathers of the chyldren of Israel, vnto Hierusalem, to bryng the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of 2.Sam.6.b the citie of Dauid, whiche is (in) Sion.

3 Wherefore, al the menne of Israel resorted vnto the kyng, in the feaste, euen in the (a) seuenth moneth.

(a) Septemb.

4 And al the elders of Israel came, and the Leuites tooke vp the arke.

5 And the priestes and the Leuites brought away the arke of the tabernacle of the congregation, and al the holy vesselles that were in the tabernacle, and they bare them.

6 And kyng Solomon, and al the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto hym before the arke, offered sheepe and oxen, so many, that they coulde not be tolde, nor numbred, for multitude.

7 And the priestes brought the arke of the ℣ couenant of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quyer of the temple, within the place moste holy, and set it vnder the wynges of the Cherubims,

8 So that the Cherubims stretched out theyr wynges ouer the place of the arke, & the Cherubims couered both the arke and her barres aboue on hygh.

9 And the barres of the arke were so long, that the " heades of the barres were seene without the arke, within the quyer, but not without: and there (the arke) remayned vnto this day.

" or, endes.

10 But there was nothyng in the arke, saue the two tables whiche Moses put therein at Horeb, when the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israel, after they were comme out of Egypt.

1.king.8.f.

11 And when the priestes were comme out of the holy place (for al the priestes that were present, were sanctified, and dyd not then wayte by course:

12 That both the Leuites and the singers, vnder Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, were appointed to sundry offices, with their children and brethren, and were aryed in fyne whyte, hauyng cymbales, psalteries, and harpes, and stoode at the east ende of the aulter, and by them an hundred and twentie priestes blowyng with trumpettes:

13 And the trumpet blowers and the singers so agreed, that it seemed but one voyce in praysing and thankyng the Lord, & when they lyfte vp theyr voyce with the trumpettes, cymbales, and other instrumentes of musicke, & when they praysed the Lord, howe that he is good, and that his mercie lasteth euer:) the house of God was filled with a cloude, 14 So that the priestes coulde not endure to ¶ minister by the reason of the cloud: for the Maiestie of the Lorde had filled the house of God.

The.vi.Chapter.

3. Solomon blesseth the people. 4. He prayseth the Lorde. 14. He prayeth vnto God for those that shal pray in the temple.

1 Then

A 1 Then Solomon sayde, The Lorde hath 1.king.8.b. spoken, howe that he wyl dwel in the darke cloude.

2 And I haue buylte thee an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for euer.

3 And the kyng turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and al the congregation of Israel stoode.)

4 And he sayde, Blessed be the Lorde God
"or power. of Israel, whiche hath with his "handes fulfilled it that he spake with his mouth to my father Dauid, sayeing,

2.Sam.7.a 5 Since the day that I brought my people
1.king.13.b. out of the lande of Egypt, I chose no citie among al the tribes of Israel to buylde an neither chose I any man to be a ruler ouer 2.Chro.7.d my people Israel:

and.12.d. 6 Sauyng that I haue chosen Hierusalem, that my name myght be there, and haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel.

B 7 And when it was in the hart of Dauid
2.Sam.7.a my father, to buylde an house for the name
1.king.8.b. of the Lorde God of Israel,
1.Chr.22.b 8 The Lorde sayde to Dauid my father,
For as muche as it was in thyne hart to buylde an house for my name, thou diddest wel that thou thoughtest in thine hart.

9 Notwithstandyng, thou shalt not buylde the house: but thy sonne, whiche shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde an house for my name.

10 The Lorde therfore hath made good his sayeing that he hath spoken: and I am ry-sen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, & I am set on the seate of Israel, as the Lorde promised, and haue buylte an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel.

(a) Mea- 11 And in it haue I put the arke, wherin is nyng the the (a) couenant of the Lord that he made two tables. with the chyldren of Israel.

12 And the kyng stoode before the aulter of the Lord, in the presence of al the congregation of Israel, & streatched out his handes:

13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffolde of fyue cubites long, and fyue cubites broade, and three of heyght, and had set it in the myddes of the great court, and vpon it he stoode, and kneeled downe vpon his knees, before al the congregation of Israel, and streatched out his handes towarde heauen,)

C 14 And sayde, O Lord God of Israel, there
1.king.8.c. is no god lyke thee in heauen, nor in earth,
2.Mac.2.b. which kepest couenant, and shewest mercy vnto thy seruantes that walke before thee with al their hartes.

15 Thou which hast kept with thy seruant
Dauid my father, the thinges that thou promisedst hym: thou saydest it with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine han-des, as it is to see this day.

16 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, keepe 1.king.2.a.
with thy seruant Dauid my father, the 2.Chro.7.d
thinges that thou promisedst hym, sayeing, Thou shalt in my sight not be without a man that shal sit vpon the seate of Israel, so that thy childrē take heede to their wayes, to walke in my lawe, as thou hast walked before me.

17 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, let thy saying be true, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid.

18 (And wyl God in very deede dwel with 1.king.8.f.

howe muche lesse the house whiche I haue buylded?)

19 Let it be thy pleasure therefore to turne to the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken vnto the voyce and prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth before thee.

20 And let thyne eyes be open toward this house day and nyght, ouer this place wher-of thou hast sayde that thou wouldest put thy name there, to hearken vnto the prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth in this place.

21 Hearken vnto the prayers of thy seruant, D and of thy people Israel, whiche they pray in this place: heare thou, I say, out of thy dwellyng place, euen out of heauen, heare, and be mercyful.

22 If a man sinne (b) agaynst his neygh- 1.king.8.d.

23 Then heare thou from heauen, and doo and iudge thy seruantes, that thou reward the vngodly, and recompence hym his way vpon his head, and iustifie the ryghteous, and geue hym accordyng to his ryghteous-nesse.

24 And yf thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enimie, because they haue sinned agaynst thee: yet yf they turne and geue thankes vnto thy name, and make intercession, & pray before thee in this house.

25 Then heare thou from heauen, and be mercyful vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bryng them agayne vnto the lande whiche thou gauest to them and to their fathers.

26 When heauen is shut vp, and there be no Deut.10.b.

thee: yet yf they pray in this place, & con-fesse thy name, and repent from their sinne, for the whiche thou chastenest them.

27 Then

27 Then heare thou in heauen, and be merciful vnto the sinne of thy seruantes, and of thy people Israel, and guide thou them into the good way to walke in, & sende rayne vpon thy lande whiche thou hast geuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.

¶ 28 And if there be dearth in the land, or pestilence, corruption, or blastyng of corne, grashoppers, or catterpillers, or that theyr enimies beleege them in the "cities of their lande, or whatsoeuer plague or sickenesse it be:

Chap. 20. verse. 9. "or, in the land of theyr gates.

29 Then what supplications and prayers soeuer shalbe made of any man, and of al thy people Israel, when euery one shal knowe his owne soare, & his owne greefe, and shal stretche out theyr handes towarde this house:

30 Thou shalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, and shalt be mercyful, and geue euery man accordyng vnto al his wayes, as thou doeest knowe euery mans hart: (for thou (b) only knoweest the hartes of the chyldren of men,)

(b) God only knoweth the hart of men. 1.King. 8.c. Iohn. 12.c Actes. 8.f.

31 That they may feare thee, and walke in thy wayes as long as they lyue in the lande whiche thou gauest vnto our fathers.

32 Moreouer, the stranger whiche is not of thy people Israel, yf he come from a farre lande for thy great names sake, and thy myghtie hande, and thy stretched out arme: yf they come, I say, and pray in (c) this house,

(c) He sheweth that before God there is no difference of persons. But al people that feareth him & worketh righteousnesse is accepted, Actes. x. Deut. 6. d.

33 Thou shalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwelling place, and shalt doo accordyng to al that the stranger calleth to thee for: that al people of the earth may knowe thy name, and feare thee, as dooth thy people Israel, and that they may knowe howe that in this house whiche I haue built, thy name is called vpon.

34 If thy people goe out to warre agaynst theyr enimies by the way that thou shalt sende them, and they pray to thee in the way towarde this citie whiche thou hast chosen, euen towarde the house whiche I haue built for thy name:

35 Then heare thou from heauen their supplication and prayer, and helpe them in theyr ryght.

1.King. 8.e. 1.Iohn. 1.d.

36 If they sinne agaynst thee (as there is no man but he doth sinne) and thou be angry with them, and deliuer them ouer before theyr enimies, and they take them, and cary them away captiues vnto a land farre or neare:

37 Yet if they repent in theyr hart, in the land where they be in captiuitie, and turne and pray vnto thee in the land of theyr captiuitie, sayeing, We haue sinned, we haue done euyl and wyckedly:

38 And turne agayne to thee with al theyr hart, and al theyr soule, in the lande of their captiuitie where they keepe them in bondage, and so pray towarde their land whiche thou gauest vnto theyr fathers, euen towarde the citie whiche thou hast chosen, and towarde the house which I haue built for thy name:

39 Then heare thou from heauen, euen from thy dwellyng place, theyr supplication and theyr prayer, and iudge theyr cause, and be mercyful vnto thy people whiche haue sinned agaynst thee.

40 Nowe my God, let thyne eyes be open, and thyne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Nowe vp, O Lord God, into thy (d) resting place, thou, & the arke of thy strength: O Lorde God, let thy priestes be clothed with health, and let thy saintes reioyce in goodnesse.

Psal. 132. a. (d) That is, into thy temple.

42 O Lorde God, turne not away the face of thyne (e) annoynted: remember the mercies whiche thou hast promised to Dauid thy seruant.

(e) Heare my prayer whiche am thine annoynted kyng.

The. vii. Chapter.

1. The fyre consumeth the sacrifice. 2. The glory of the Lord filleth the temple.

1 AND when Solomon had made an end of prayeing, there came downe fyre from heauen, and consumed the whole burnt offeryng, and the sacrifices, and the house was filled with the glory of the lord.

A 1.King. 8.k. Leuit. 9.d. 1.King. 8.g. 2.Mac. 2.b.

2 And the priestes coulde not goe into the house of the Lorde, because the glorye of the Lorde had fylled the Lordes house.

3 And when al the chyldren of Israel sawe howe the fyre and the glorye of the Lorde came downe vpon the house, they fel downe flat vpon theyr faces to the earth, vpon the pauement, and woorshipped, and confessed vnto the Lorde, That he is gratious, and that his mercy lasteth euer.

4 And the kyng, and al the people, offered sacrifices before the Lorde.

1.King. 8.g.

5 And kyng Solomon offered a sacrifice of twentie and two thousande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: and so the kyng, and al the people, dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priestes wayted on theyr offices, and the Leuites had the instrumentes of musicke of the Lorde, whiche kyng Dauid had made to confesse vnto the Lorde, That his mercy lasteth euer, Dauid praysyng God by them, and the priestes blewe with trumpettes before them, and al they of Israel stoode.

7 More-

7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde: for there he offered whole burnt offerynges, and the fat of the peace offeringes, because the brasen aulter whiche Solomon had made, was not able to receiue the whole burnt offerynges, and the meate offerynges, and the fat.

1. Mac. 3. g. (a) That was the feast of tabernacles.

8 So at the same time Solomon keapt a(a) feaste of seuen dayes, and al Israel with him, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entryng in of Hamath, vnto the ryuer of Egypt.

9 And in the eigth day, they made an assemblie: For they keapt the dedication of the aulter seuen dayes, & the feast seuen dayes.

10 And the three and twentieth day of the seuenth moneth, he let the people departe into theyr tentes glad and meery in hart, for the goodnesse that the Lorde had shewed to Dauid, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

The. viii. Chapter.

2. The cities that Solomon built. 12. His sacrifices whiche he offered.

1 AND after (a) twentie yeeres, when Solomon had built the house of the Lorde, and his owne house: (a) Signifyng that he was twentie yeres in building them.

2 He built the cities that Hiram gaue hym, and caused the chyldren of Israel to dwel there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zoba, (b) and strengthed it. (b) Other reade, he ouercame it.

4 And he built Thadmor in the wildernes, and repayred al the store cities which were in Hamath.

5 And he built Bethoron the vpper, and Bethoron the neather, strong cities, hauing walles, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalah, and al the store cities that Solomon had, and al the charet cities, and the cities of the horsemen, & euery pleasant place that Solomon had lust to builde in Hierusalem, and Libanon, and throughout al the lande of his dominion.

7 And al the people that were leaft of the ℣ Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites whiche were not of the children of Israel,

8 But were the chyldren of them whiche were leaft after them in the land, and were not consumed of ỹ children of Israel, them dyd Solomon make to pay tribute, vntyl this day.

9 But of the chyldren of Israel, dyd Solomon make no seruantes for his worke: but they were men of warre, and rulers, and great lordes with him, and captaines ouer his charets and horsemen.

10 And kyng Solomons officers that ouersawe and ruled the people, were two hundred and fiftie. Reade 1. King. 9. verse. 23.

11 And Solomon brought the daughter of Pharao

Pharao out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had buylded for her: for he sayde, My wyfe shal not dwel in the house of Dauid kyng of Israel, for it is holy, because that the arke of the Lorde is comme vnto it.

12 Then Solomon offered whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lorde, on the aulter of the Lorde, whiche he had buylt before the porche:

Chap.4.a.

13 Doyng euery thyng in his due tyme, and offering accordyng to the commaundement of Moses, in the Sabbothes, new moones, & solemne feastes, three tymes in the yeere, (that is to say) in the feast of sweete bread, in the feast of weekes, and in the feast of tabernacles.

Exod.23.c. Deut.16.c.

℣ 14 And Solomon set the sortes of priestes to their offices, as Dauid his father had ordered them, and the Leuites in their watches, for to prayse and minister before the priestes day by day, & the porters by course at euery gate: for so had Dauid the man of God commaunded.

1.Chro.9.d.

15 And they omitted not the commaundement of the king vnto the priestes and Leuites, concerning any manner of thing, and concernyng the treasures.

16 For Solomon made prouision for the charges from the fyrst day that the fundation of the house of the Lorde was layde, tyl it was fynished, that the house of the Lorde was perfect.

17 Then went kyng Solomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the sea syde in the lande of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent hym by the handes of his seruantes ships, and seruantes that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruantes of Solomon to Ophir, and caryed thence foure hundred and fyftie talentes of golde, and brought it to king Solomon.

The.ix.Chapter.

I. 9. The queene of Saba commeth to see Solomon, and bringeth gyftes.

℣ 1 AND when the queene of Saba hearde of the fame of Solomon, she came to proue him in harde questions at Hierusalem, with a very great company, with camels that bare spices, & plentie of golde and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she cõmuned with him of al that she had in her hart.

3.king.10.a Mat.12.d. Luke.11.b.

2 And Solomon soiled her al her questions, and there was not one woorde hydde from Solomon, whiche he tolde her not.

3 And when the queene of Saba had seene the wysedome of Solomon, and the house that he had buylt,

4 And the meate of his table, the syttyng of his seruantes, and the standyng of his wayters, their apparel, his butlars, their apparel, " his goeyng vp by the whiche he went into the house of the Lord: there was no more spirite in her.

5 And she sayde to the kyng, The sayeing which I heard in myne owne land of thyne " actes, and of thy wysedome, is true.

" or, sayeinges.

6 I beleeued not the wordes of them, vntyl I came, and myne eyes had seene it: and beholde, the one halfe of thy wysdome was not tolde me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy menne, and happy are these thy seruantes whiche stande before thee alway, and heare thy wysedome. ℣

8 Blessed be the Lorde thy God, which had lust to thee, to set thee (kyng) on his seate, that thou myghtest be kyng for the Lorde thy GOD: because thy God loueth Israel, to make them continue euer, therefore made he thee kyng ouer them, to doo ryght and equitie.

9 And she gaue the kyng an hundred and twentie talentes of golde, and of spices exceedyng great abundance, and precious stones: neyther was there any more suche spice as the queene of Saba gaue king Solomon.

10 And the seruantes of Hiram and the seruantes of Solomon whiche brought golde from Ophir, brought also Algumme wood and precious stones.

11 And the kyng made of the Algumme wood stayres in the house of the Lorde, and in the kynges palace, and harpes, and psalteries for syngers: and there was none such wood seene (before) in the lande of Juda.

12 And kyng Solomon gaue to the queene of Saba euery pleasant thyng that she asked, (a) besides that which she had brought vnto the kyng: and so she turned, and went away to her owne land with her seruantes.

(a) Besyde that, that is to say, the recompence of that which she had brought vnto the kyng.

13 The wayght of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was syxe hundred threescore and syxe talentes of golde:

15 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: and syxe hundred sycles of beaten golde were spent vpon one target.

16 And three hundred sheeldes made he of beaten golde: and three hundred (peeces) of golde went to one sheelde: and the kyng put them in the house that was in the forest of Libanon.

17 And the kyng made a great ſeate of yuorie, and ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there were ſyxe ſteppes to the ſeate, with a footeſtoole of golde faſtened to the ſeate: and pommels on eche ſyde of the ſyttyng place, and two lions ſtandyng by the pommels.

19 And twelue lions ſtoode on the one ſyde and on the other vpon the ſyxe ſteppes: ſo that there was no ſuch wooꝛke made in any kyngdome.

20 And al the dꝛinkyng veſſels of kyng Solomon were of golde, and al the veſſels of the houſe that was in the foꝛeſt of Libanon were of pꝛecious gold: foꝛ ſyluer was counted nothyng wooꝛth in the dayes of Solomon.

D 21 Foꝛ the kinges ſhippes went to Tharſis with the ſeruantes of Hiram, euerye thꝛee yeeres once came the ſhyppes to Tharſis, and bꝛought golde, ſyluer, yuoꝛy, and apes, and pecockes.

23 And al the kynges of the earth ſought the pꝛeſence of Solomon, to heare his wyſdome that God had put in his hart.

24 And they bꝛought euery man his pꝛeſent, veſſels of ſyluer, and veſſels of golde, rayment, harneſſe, ſpices, hoꝛſes & mules yeere by yeere.

30 And Solomon raigned in Hieruſalem vpon al Iſrael fourtie yeeres.

31 And Solomon ſleapt with his fathers: and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid his father, and Roboam his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

The. x. Chapter.

4. The rigour of Roboam. 13. He foloweth lewde counſel. 16. The people rebel.

1 AND Roboam went to Sichem: foꝛ to Sichem were al Iſrael comme togeather to make him kyng. A 1. King. 12. a

2 And when Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat (which was fled into Egypt from the pꝛeſence of Solomon the kyng) heard it, he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they ſent and called him: And ſo Ieroboam and al they of Iſrael came, and communed with Roboam, ſayeing, 1. King. 11. g

4 Thy father layde a greeuous yoke vpon vs: nowe therefoꝛe remit thou ſomewhat of the greeuous ſeruice of thy father, and of his heauy yoke that he put vpon vs, and we wyl ſerue thee.

5 And he ſayd to them, Comme agayne vnto me after thꝛee dayes. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Roboam counſayled with the elders that had ſtande befoꝛe Solomon his father whyle he yet lyued, and he ſayde, What counſayle geue ye me to anſweare this people agayne?

7 And they tolde him, ſayeing, If thou be kinde to this people, & ſhewe thee ſelfe lowly to them, and ſpeake louyng wooꝛdes to them, they wyl be thy ſeruantes foꝛ euer. B

8 But he left the counſel whiche the elders gaue him, and toke counſel with the young menne that were growen vp with him, and (a) that ſtoode in his pꝛeſence. (c) Whiche were of his counſel, and ſecretes.

9 And he ſayde vnto them, What aduiſe geue ye, that we may anſwere this people, whiche haue communed with me, ſayeing, Abate ſomewhat of the yoke which thy father dyd put vpon vs?

10 And the young menne that were growen vp with hym, ſpake vnto him, ſayeing, Thus ſhalt thou anſweare the people that ſpeake vnto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it ſomwhat lyghter foꝛ vs: thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, My litle fynger ſhalbe thicker then my fathers loynes.

12 And ſo Ieroboam and al the people, came to Roboam the third day, as the king bade, ſayeing, Comme agayne to me the thirde day.

13 And the kyng anſweared them cruelly, and kyng Roboam left the counſayle of the aged menne,

14 And anſweared them after the aduiſe of C the

the young men, sayeing, My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyl adde thereto: my father chastised you with whippes, but I wyl chastise you with scourges.

1.king.12. vearse.15. 15 And so the kyng hearkened not vnto the people: but the occasion came of God, that the Lorde myght make good his sayeing, 1.king. 11.f. whiche he spake by the hande of Ahia the Silonite to Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And when al Israel sawe that the kyng woulde not agree vnto them, the people answeared the king, sayeing, What portion 1.king. 12.d haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: Euery man to his tent oh Israel, and nowe Dauid see to thyne owne house. And so al Israel gate them to their tentes.

17 So that Roboam raigned ouer no moe of the children of Israel then dwelt in the cities of Iuda.

18 Then king Roboam also sent Haduram that was ruler ouer the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he dyed: but kyng Roboam made speede to geat hym vp to his charet, to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled agaynst the house of Dauid vnto this day.

The.xi.Chapter.

4. Roboam is forbidden to fyght agaynst Ieroboam.

A 1 1.king.12.a. AND when Roboam was come to Hierusalem, he geathered of the house of Iuda and Beniamin, nine score thousand chosen men of warre, to fyght agaynst Israel, and to bryng the kingdome agayne to Roboam.

2 And the woord of the Lorde came to Semeia the man of God, sayeing,

3 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Solomon king of Iuda, and to al them of Israel that are in Iuda and Beniamin, and say,

4 Thus sayth the Lord, ye shal not goe vp, nor fyght agaynst your brethren: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is donne of me. And they obeyed the woordes of the Lorde, and returned from going agaynst Ieroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Hierusalem, and buylt strong cities in Iuda.

6 He buylt vp Bethlehem, and Etam, and Thecoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,

8 Gath, and Mareſa, and Ziph,

B 9 Adurahim, Lachis, and Azecah,

10 Zoraa, Aialon, and Hebron, whiche is in Iuda and Beniamin, strong cities.

11 And he repayred the strong holdes, and put captaynes in them, and stoze of vitayle, and wine, and oyle:

12 And in al cities he put sheeldes & speares, and made them exceedyng strong, hauyng Iuda and Beniamin on his syde.

13 And the Priestes and the Leuites that were in al Israel, resorted to him out of al their coastes.

14 For the Leuites leaft their suburbes, and their possession, and came to Iuda and Hierusalem: for Ieroboam and his sonnes had cast them out from ministring vnto the Lorde.

16 And after the Leuites, there went out al the tribes of Israel, suche as submitted their hartes to seeke the Lord God of Israel, and came to Hierusalem, to offer vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.

17 And so they strengthed the kingdome of Iuda, and made Roboam the sonne of Solomon myghty three yeeres long: for three (b) yeeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon.

(b) So long as they feared god, and set foorth his woorde, they proſpered.

18 And Roboam tooke him Mahalath the daughter of Ierimoth the sonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihael the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Isai:

19 Whiche bare hym children, Ieus, Samaria, and Zaham.

20 And after her he tooke Maacha ỹ daughter of Absalom, whiche bare him Abia, Atthai, Ziza, and Selomith. 1.king.15.a.

21 And Roboam loued Maacha the daughter of Absalom aboue all his wyues & concubines: for he tooke eyghteene wyues and three score concubines, and begate twentie and eyght sonnes, and three score daughters. Reade Iudges chapter. 19.a. D

22 And Roboam made Abia the sonne of Maacha, the cheefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him kyng.

23 (c) And he played wysely, and scattered al his children throughout al the countreys of Iuda & Beniamin, vnto euery strong citie: & he gaue them abundance of vitayle, and obteyned many wyues. (c) Others reade, and he taught hym.

The.xii.Chapter.

1. Roboam forsaketh the Lorde, and is punished by Sesac.

1 AND when Roboam had stablished the kyngdome, and became myghty, he forsooke the lawe of the Lord, and (a) al Israel with hym. A (a) As the prince is, so for the most part the people wyl be.

2 And in the fyfth yeere of kyng Roboam, Sesac the kyng of Egypt came vp against Hierusalem (because they had transgressed agaynſt the Lorde)

3 With twelue hundred charets, and three-score thouſande horſemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt: Lubim, (b) Sukim, and the Ethiopians.

(b) Whiche were a people in Africa called the Troglodites, becauſe they dwelt in holes.

4 And he tooke the ſtrong cities in Juda, and came to Hieruſalem.

5 Then came Semeia the prophete to Roboam, and to the lordes of Juda that were geathered togeather within Hieruſalem for Seſac, and ſayd vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lorde, Ye haue leaft me, and therefore haue I alſo (c) leaft you in the handes of Seſac.

(c) God neuer leaueth vs, vntil we haue caſt hym away.

6 Wherevpon the lordes of Iſrael and the kyng humbled them ſelues, and ſayd, The Lorde is ryghteous.

ℬ 7 And when the Lorde ſawe that they ſubmitted them ſelues, the woorde of the Lord came to Semeia, ſayeing, They ſubmit them ſelues, therefore I wyl not deſtroy them, but I wyl deliuer them somewhat, and my wrath ſhal not be powred out vpon Hieruſalem, by the hande of Seſac.

9 And ſo Seſac kyng of Egypt came to Hieruſalem, and tooke away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kinges houſe, he tooke al: and he caryed away the ſheeldes of golde which Solomon made.

10 In ſteade of whiche, king Roboam made ſheeldes of braſſe, and committed them to the handes of the cheefe of the garde, and that keapt the entrance of the kynges houſe.

1. king. 14. c. 11 And when the king entred into the houſe of the Lorde, the garde came and fet them, and brought them agayne vnto the garde chamber.

12 And when he humbled him ſelfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from him, that he woulde not deſtroy altogeather: and in Juda al was wel.

13 And ſo king Roboam waxed mighty, and raigned in Hieruſalem: and Roboam was one and fourtie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned ſeuenteene yeeres in Hieruſalem, the citie whiche the Lorde had choſen out of al the tribes of Iſrael to put his name there: And his mothers name was Naama an Ammoniteſſe.

Ɛ 14 And he dyd euyl, becauſe he prepared not his hart to ſeeke the Lorde.

1. king. 14. f.

15 The actes alſo of Roboam fyrſt and laſt, are they not written in the ſayinges of Semeia the prophete, and of Iddo the Sear, whiche noted the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Roboam and Jeroboam.

16 And Roboam ſleapt with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid, and Abia his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1. Abia maketh warre agaynſt Ieroboam. 4. He ſheweth the occaſion. 12. He truſteth in the Lorde and ouercommeth Ieroboam.

1 THe eyghteenth yeere of kyng Jeroboam, began Abia to raigne ouer Juda. A 2. king. 15. a

2 And he raigned three yeeres in Hieruſalem: (His mothers name alſo was Michaia the daughter (a) of Uriel of Gibea:) And there was warre betweene Abia and Jeroboam.

(a) Called otherwyſe Abſalom.

3 And Abia ſet the batayle in araye, with the armie of valiant menne of warre, euen foure hundred thouſande choſen menne: And Jeroboam ſet him ſelfe in aray to fyght agaynſt hym, with eyght hundred thouſande pickt men, whiche were ſtrong, and menne of armes.

4 And Abia ſtood vp vpon Zemaraim, an hyl whiche is in mount Ephraim, & ſayde, Heare me thou Jeroboam and al Iſrael.

5 Doo not you knowe howe that the Lorde God of Iſrael gaue the kyngdome ouer them of Iſrael to Dauid for euer, euen to hym, and to his ſonnes, with a (b) ſalted couenant?

(b) With a firme & perpetual, becauſe that thing whiche is ſalted is preſerued from corruption: he meaneth alſo that it was made ſolemnly and confyrmed by offering of ſacrifices, where as they vſed ſalt, as was ordeyned. Num. viii. vearſe. xix.

6 And Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat the ſeruant of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid, is ryſen vp, and hath rebelled agaynſt his Lorde.

7 And there geathered to hym lewde men, the children of Belial, and preuayled agaynſt Roboam the ſonne of Solomon, when Roboam was (c) young and tender harted, and coulde not ſtande before them.

(c) In hart and courage.

8 And nowe ye ſay that ye be hable to preuayle agaynſt the kyngdome of the Lorde, whiche is in the hand of the ſonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and haue the golden calues whiche Jeroboam made you for goddes.

9 And haue ye not caſt out the prieſtes of the Lorde the ſonnes of Aaron and the Leuites, and haue made you prieſtes after the manner of the nations of other landes? ſo that who ſo euer commeth and conſecrateth his hande with a young ore and ſeuen rammes, the ſame may be a prieſt of them that are no goddes.

10 But we belong vnto the Lorde our God, whom whom we haue not forſaken, & the prieſtes are the ſonnes of Aaron whiche miniſter vnto the Lord, and the Leuites wayte vpon their office.

Exod.29.f 11 They burne vnto the Lord euery morning and euenyng whole burnt ſacrifices, and ſweete incenſe: the ſhewe bread ſet they in order vpon a pure table, and prepare the candleſticke of golde, with the lampes of the ſame, to burne euer at euen: and truely we keepe the watche of the Lord our God, but ye haue forſaken him.

Leuit.10.a 12 And beholde, God hym ſelfe is our captaine, and his prieſtes blow with the trumpets, and crye alarum agaynſt you. O ye chyldren of Iſrael, fyght not agaynſt the Lorde God of your fathers: for it wyl not proſper with you.

13 But for al that Ieroboam conueyed men priuily about, to comme behynde them: and ſo they were before Iuda, and the layers in wayte were behynde them.

¶ 14 And when they of Iuda looked about, behold, the battayle was before & behinde, and they cryed vnto the Lord, & the prieſtes blewe with the trumpets.

15 And the menne of Iuda gaue a ſhoute: and as the menne of Iuda ſhouted, it came to paſſe that God ſmote Ieroboam and al Iſrael, before Abia and Iuda.

16 And the chyldren of Iſrael fledde before Iuda, and God deliuered them into their hande.

17 And Abia, and his people ſlue a great ſlaughter of them: there fel downe wounded of Iſrael fyue hundred thouſande choſen menne.

18 And ſo the childrē of Iſrael were brought vnder at that tyme, and the chyldren of Iuda preuayled, (d) becauſe they leaned vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.

(d) The cauſe of victorie.

19 And Abia folowed after Ieroboam, and tooke cities from him, Bethel with the townes belonging therto, Ieſana with the townes that belonged thereto, and Ephron with her townes.

20 And Ieroboam recouered no ſtrength agayne in the dayes of Abia: and the Lord plagued him, and he dyed.

21 But Abia waxed mightie, and maried fourteene wyues, and begate twentie and two ſonnes, and ſyxteene daughters.

22 The reſt of the actes of Abia, his maners and his ſayeinges, are written in the ſtorie of the prophete Iddo.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

3. Aſa deſtroyeth idolatrie, and commaundeth his people to ſerue the true God.

1 SO Abia ſleapt with his fathers, & they buryed him in the citie of Dauid, & Aſa his ſonne raigned in his ſteade, in whoſe dayes the land was in quietneſſe ten yeeres. A

2 And Aſa did that was good and ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his God.

3 For he tooke away ſtrange aultres, & the hygh places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues:

4 And commaunded Iuda to ſeeke the lord God of their fathers, and to doo accordyng to the lawe and commaundement.

5 And he put away out of al the cities of Iuda, the high places and the images: and the kingdome was quiet before him.

6 And he buylt ſtrōg cities in Iuda, becauſe the lande was in reſt, & he had no warre in thoſe yeres: for the lord had geuen him reſt.

7 Therfore he ſayd vnto Iuda: let vs buyld theſe cities, and make about them walles, towres, gates, and barres, for the lande is yet in reſt before vs: becauſe we haue ſought the Lorde our God, we haue ſought hym, & he hath geuen vs reſt on euery ſyde. And ſo they buylt, and it proſpered with them. B

8 And Aſa had an armie of menne that bare ſheeldes & ſpeares, out of Iuda three hundred thouſande, and out of Beniamin that bare ſheeldes and drue bowes two hundred and foureſcore thouſand: al theſe were valiant menne.

9 And there came out agaynſt them Zarah of Ethiopia, with an hoſt of tenne hundred thouſand, and three hundred charrets, and came as farre as Mareſa. 2. Chr. 17. b. Joſue. 15. g

10 And Aſa went out before hym, and they ioyned the battayle in the valley of Zephata, beſyde Mareſa.

11 And Aſa cryed vnto the Lord his God, & ſaid, Lord, it is no hard thyng with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therefore, O Lorde our God, for we truſt to thee, and in thy name we goe agaynſt this multitude: thou art the Lorde our God, & no man ſhal preuayle agaynſt thee. 1. Sa. 14. d 12 So the Lorde ſmote the Ethiopians before Aſa and Iuda, & the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Aſa and the people that was with hym, folowed after them vnto Gerar: and the Ethiopians hoſt was ouerthrowē, that there was none of them left, but were deſtroyed before the Lord and before his hoſt: and they caried away a myghty great pray.

14 And they ſmote al the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: and they ſpoyled al the cities, and there was exceedyng muche ſpoyle in them. C

15 They ſmote alſo the tentes of cattayle, and caryed away plenty of ſheepe and cammels, and returned to Hieruſalem.

The.xv.Chapter.

1. The exhorration of Azaria. 8. Aſa purgeth his countrey of idolatry. 14. They ſweare togeather to ſerue the Lorde. 16. He depoſeth his mother for her idolatrie.

A 1 AND the ſpirite of God came on Azaria the ſonne of Obed.

2 And he went out to meete Aſa, & ſaid vnto hym, Heare me Aſa, and al Juda and Beniamin, the Lorde is with you, whyle ye be with him: and when ye ſeeke him, he wil be founde of you: and agayne, when ye forſake hym, he alſo wyl forſake you.

(a) For the ſpace of xii. yeeres vnder Roboam, and three yeeres vnder Abia, true religion was neglected, & idolatry planted.

3 Now for a long (a) ſeaſon Iſrael hath ben without the true God, & without prieſtes to teache, and without lawe,

4 And when any man in his trouble dyd turne vnto the Lorde GOD of Iſrael and ſought hym, he was founde of them.

5 And in that tyme there was no peace to hym that dyd goe out and in, but great ſedition was there among al the inhabiters of the earth.

6 And nation was deſtroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God did moue al aduerſitie among them.

B 7 Play ye therefore the menne, and let not your handes ſlacke: for your woorke ſhalbe rewarded.

(b) He had two names, both Azaria, and Obed.

8 And when Aſa heard thoſe woordes, & the prophecie (b) of Azaria the ſonne of Obed the prophete, he tooke courage, & put away the abominable idols out of al the lande of Juda and Beniamin, and out of the cities whiche he wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued the aulter of the Lorde that was before the porche of the Lorde.

9 And he geathered al Juda and Beniamin, and the ſtrangers with them, out of Ephraim, Manaſſe, and Simeon: for there fel many to hym out of Iſrael, when they ſawe that the Lorde his GOD was with hym.

(c) May.

10 So they aſſembled togeather at Hieruſalem the (c) thirde moneth, the fyfteenth yeere of the raigne of Aſa.

11 And they offered vnto the Lorde the ſame time, of the ſpoile which they had brought, ſeuen hundred oxen, and ſeuen thouſande ſheepe.

(d) A lawe of death for idolaters. Deut. 13.

12 And they made a couenant to ſeeke the Lorde GOD of their fathers with al their hart, and al their ſoule.

13 And whoſoeuer woulde not ſeeke the Lorde God of Iſrael (d) ſhoulde dye for it, whether he were ſmal or great, man or woman.

14 And they ſware vnto the Lorde with a C loude voyce, ſhowting and blowyng with trumpets and ſhawmes.

15 And al they in Juda reioyced at the other: for they had ſworne vnto the Lorde with al their hart, and ſought hym with al their luſt, and he was founde of them: and the Lorde gaue them reſt rounde about on euery ſyde.

(e) His grãdmother, and herein he ſhewed that he lacked zeale: for ſhe ought to haue dyed both by the couenant, & law of God.

16 And kyng Aſa put (e) Maacha his mother out of aucthoritie, becauſe ſhe had made an idol in a groue: and Aſa broke downe her idol, and ſtamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Cedron.

17 But al the hygh places were not taken away out of Iſrael, though the hart of Aſa was perfect al his dayes.

18 And he brought into the houſe of GOD the thynges that his father had dedicate, and that he him ſelfe had dedicate: euen ſyluer, and golde, and veſſels, 19 And there was no more warre vnto the thirtie and fyue yeere of the raigne of Aſa. Jud. 4. b.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1. Aſa for feare of Baaſa king of Iſrael, maketh a couenant with Benhadad king of Syria. 7. He is reproued by the prophete.

A 1 IN the thirtie & ſyxth yeere of the raigne of Aſa, came Baaſa kyng of Iſrael agaynſt Juda, and buylt Rama, to the intent that he woulde let none paſſe out or in to Aſa kyng of Juda. 1. king. 15. c.

2 And Aſa fet out golde and ſyluer out of the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and (out) of the kynges houſe, and ſent to Benhadad kyng of Syria that dwelt at * Damaſec, and ſayde, * or, Damaſcus.

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thyne: beholde, I haue ſent thee ſyluer and golde, that thou wylt comme & breake thy league with Baaſa kyng of Iſrael, that he may depart from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Aſa, and ſent the captaynes of his armies to the cities of Iſrael: & they ſmote Ion, Dan, and Abilmaim, and al the ſtrong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baaſa heard this, he left buyldyng of Rama, and let his woorke ceaſſe.

6 And then Aſa the kyng toke al Juda, and caryed away the ſtones and tymber of Rama wherwith Baaſa was a buyldyng, and he buylt therwith Geba and Miſpah.

7 At that tyme Hanani the Seer came B to Aſa kyng of Juda, and ſayde vnto hym,

Becauſe

(a) God reproueth such leagues as are made with infidels 2.Chr.24.c

(a) Because thou hast trusted in the king of Syria, and not rather put thy trust in the Lorde thy God, therefore is the hoast of the kyng of Syria escaped out of thyne hande.

8 Had not the Ethiopians and Lubim an exceedyng great hoast, with many charets and horsemen? and yet because thou trustedst in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thyne hande.

9 For the eyes of the Lorde beholde al the earth, to strength them that are of perfect hart towarde him: herein thou hast donne foolishly, and therefore from henceforth thou shalt haue warre.

(b) The prophete of god is pounished for speakyng his message, and thus the wicked in steade of turning vnto god by repentance, cõtemne the admonition of the prophetes and ministers of god.

10 And so Asa was wroth with the Sear, and put him into a (b) prison house, for he was displeased with him, because of this thyng: and Asa destroyed (certayne) of the people the same season.

11 And beholde, these deedes of Asa fyrst and last, are written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirtie and ninth yeere of his raigne fel sicke in his feete, and his disease continued very long, and in his sickenesse he sought not the Lorde, (c) but Phisitions.

(c) He sheweth that it is in vayne to seeke to the phisitions, except first we seeke to God to pourge our sinnes, which are the cheefe causes of al our diseases, and after vse the helpe of the phisition, as a meane by whom god woorketh.

13 And Asa sleapt with his fathers, and dyed in the fourtie & one yeere of his raigne.

14 And they buryed him in his owne sepulchre, which he had made for him selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde him in the bed whiche was fylled with diuers kindes of spices, and sweete odours, made by the craft of the apothecaries: and they made a very great burnyng.

The. xvii. Chapter.

5. Iosaphat trusting in the Lorde, prospereth in rychesse and honour. 6. He abolisheth idolatrie, 7. and causeth the people to be taught.

A 1 AND Iosaphat his sonne raigned in his steade, and preuayled agaynst Israel.

2 And he put souldiers in al the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the lande of Juda, & in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Iosaphat, because he walked in the former wayes of his father Dauid, and sought not Baalim:

4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundementes, and not after the doynges of Israel.

5 And the Lorde stablished the kyngdome in his hande, and al Juda brought him presentes, so that he had abundance of rychesse and honour.

6 And he lyft vp his harte vnto the wayes of the Lorde, and he put downe yet more of the high places and groues out of Juda.

7 In the thirde yeere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, & to Michaia, that they should (a) teache in the cities of Juda:

B

(a) Iosaphat sent visitours abrode into the countreys to see religion reformed, and the people truely instructed,

8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeia, Nethania, Zebadia, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonia, Tobia, and Tob adonia, Leuites: and with them Elisama and Joram, Priestes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout al the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

10 And the feare of the Lorde fel vpon al the kyngdomes of the landes that were round about Juda, and they fought not agaynst Iosaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought Iosaphat gyftes, and tribute siluer, and the Arabians brought him cattel, euen seuen thousande & seuen hundred rammes, and seuen thousande and seuen hundred lee goates.

12 And so Iosaphat prospered, and grewe vp an hygh: and he buylt in Juda castels, and cities of store.

13 And he had great " substance in the cities of Juda: but the men of armes and strongest souldiers were in Hierusalem.

" or, great woorkes.

14 And these are the " offices of them in the house of their fathers: the captaynes ouer thousandes in Juda, Adna the captayne, and with him of fyghtyng men, three hundred thousande.

" or, numbers.

C

15 And next to his hande was Jehonan a captayne, and with hym two hundred and fourescore thousande.

16 And next him was Amazia the sonne of Zichri, whiche of his owne good wyl offered him selfe vnto the Lorde, and with him two hundred thousande myghty menne of warre.

17 And of the children of Beniamin, Eliada a man of myght, and with him armed men with bowe and shielde two hundred thousande.

18 And next him was Iosabad, and with hym an hundred and fourescore thousande that were prepared for the warre.

19 These wayted on the king, besides those whiche the king put in the strong cities throughout al Juda.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1. Iosaphat maketh affinitie with Achab. 10. Foure hundred prophetes counsel Achab to goe to warre. 14. Michea is agaynst them. 29. The effect of his prophecie.

A 1 AND Iosaphat had abundance of ry-with Achab.

2 And after certayne yeeres he went downe to Achab to Samaria: and Achab slue many sheepe and oxen for him, and for the people that he had with him, and entrea-ted him to goe vp with hym vnto Ramoth
(in) Gilead.

3 And Achab king of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat king of Juda, Wylt thou goe with me to Ramoth (in) Gilead? And he answered him, I wylbe as thou, & my people shalbe as thyne (and we wyl goe) with thee to the warre.

1.king. 22.a 4 And Iosaphat saide vnto the kyng of Israel, Seeke counsel, I pray thee, at the woorde of the Lorde this same day.

5 Therefore the kyng of Israel geathered togeather of prophetes foure hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shal we goe to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fyght, or shoulde I cease? And they sayde, Goe vp, and God shal deliuer it into the kinges hande.

6 But Iosaphat sayde, Is there yet here neuer a prophete more of the Lordes, that we myght aske of hym?

B 7 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosa-1.king. 22.b phat, There is yet one man, by whom we may aske the Lorde: but I hate hym, for he neuer prophecieth me good, but alway euil:
and the same is Micha the sonne of Iemla.
And Iosaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the kyng of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, and sayde, Featche hither quickely Michea the sonne of Iemla.

9 And the king of Israel and Iosaphat kyng of Juda sate eyther of them on his seate in their apparel, in a threshing flooze beside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophecied before them.

10 And one Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana
1.king. 22.b had made him hornes of iron, and sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde, With these thou shalt pushe Syria, vntyl they be brought to nought.

11 And al the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead, and it shal prosper with thee: for the Lorde shal deliuer it into the hande of the kyng.

12 And the messenger that went to call Miwoordes of the prophetes (speake) good to the king with one assent: let thy woordes therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, that thou speake that whiche is pleasant.

13 And Michea sayde, as the Lorde lyueth, euen what my god saith, that wil I speake.

14 And when he was come to the king, the kyng sayde vnto him, Michea, shoulde we goe to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fyght, or leaue of? And he sayde, Goe vp, & al shalbe wel, & they shalbe deliuered into your hand.

15 And the king sayd to him, So and so many times doo I charge thee that thou saye nothing but the trueth to me, in the name of the Lorde. C 1.king. 22.b

16 Then he sayde, I dyd see all Israel scattered in the mountaynes, as sheepe that haue no shepheard, and the Lord saide, (b)
These haue no maister: let them returne euery man therefore to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosa-phat, Dyd I not tel thee, that he woulde not prophecie good vnto me, but euyl?

18 But he sayd agayne, Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde: I sawe the Lorde sit vpon his seate, and al the company of heauen stood on his right hand & on his leaft.

19 And the Lorde sayde, Who shal deceiue Achab kyng of Israel, that he may goe vp and be ouerthrowen at Ramoth (in) Gilead? And one sayde this, another sayd that.

20 And there came out a spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde, I wyl deceiue him. And the lord said vnto him, Wherin?

21 And he saide, I wyl goe out, and be a (c) lying spirite in the mouth of al his proph-etes. And the Lorde sayde, Thou shalt de-ceiue hym, and shalt preuayle: goe out, and doo euen so.

22 And nowe therefore beholde, the Lorde hath put a lying spirite in ỹ mouthes of (al) these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyl agaynst thee.

23 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea vpon the cheeke, and saide, By what way went the (d) spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake with thee?

24 And Michea sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see the day when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber for to hyde thee selfe.

25 And the king of Israel sayde, Take ye Michea, and bryng hym to Amon the go-uernour of the citie, and to Joas the kings sonne.

26 And ye shal say, Thus sayth the kyng, Put this felowe in the prison house, and feede hym with bread of affliction, & water of trouble, vntil I come again in peace.

27 And Michea saide, If thou come agayne in peace, then hath not the Lorde spoken by me. And he saide, Hearken to ye people euery one of you.

28 And so the king of Israel and Iosaphat the king of Juda went vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead.

29 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosa-

30 But the kyng of Syria had commaunded the captaynes of the charets that were with hym, sayeing, See that ye fyght not against smal or great, saue against the kyng of Israel onely.

31 And when the captaynes of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayde, It is the king of Israel: and therefore they compassed about hym to fyght. But Iosaphat cryed out, and the Lorde helped hym, and God * chased them away from hym.

The. xix. Chapter.

1. After Iosaphat was rebuked by the prophete, he calleth agayne the people to the honouring of the Lorde.

A 1 AND Iosaphat the kyng of Juda came home agayne in peace to Hierusalem.

2 And Jehu the sonne of Hanani the Sear, went out to meete hym, and sayde to kyng Iosaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therefore is wrath comme downe vppon thee from before the Lorde:

3 Neuertheless, there are some good actes founde in thee, in that thou hast hewen downe the groues out of the lande, and hast prepared thyne hart to seeke God.

(a) He visited al his countrey, & brought his people from idolatrie, to the knowledge of the true God.

4 And Iosaphat dwelt at Hierusalem, and turned, (a) and went out to the people from Beer seba to mount Ephraim, and brought them agayne vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

5 And he set iudges in the lande, throughout al ỹ strong cities of Juda, citie by citie,

(b) To preserue you, yf you do iustly, & to punishe you yf you do contrary.

6 And sayde to the iudges, Take heede what ye doo: for ye execute not the iudgementes of man, but of God, whiche is (b) with you in the iudgement.

7 Wherefore nowe let the feare of the Lord be vppon you, and take heede, and be dooing (the thing that pleaseth hym:) for there is no vnryghteousnesse with the Lorde our God, that he shoulde haue anye respecte of persons, or take rewardes.

8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem dyd Iosaphat set of the Leuites, and of the priestes, and of the ancient fathers ouer Israel, in the iudgment and cause of the Lorde, and they returned agayne to Hierusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shal ye doo in the feare of the Lorde faythfully, and with a pure hart:

10 What cause so euer come to you of your brethren that dwel in theyr cities, betwene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundement, betweene statutes and ordinances: ye shal warne them that they trespasse not agaynst the Lorde, and so wrath comme vpon you and your brethren: Thus doo, and ye shal not offende.

11 And behold, Amaria the hygh priest is among you in al matters of the lord, & Zebadia the sonne of Ismael, a ruler of the house of Juda, for al the kynges matters: There be officers of the Leuites also before you, take courage to you therefore, and be dooyng (manfully) and the Lorde shalbe with suche as be good.

The. xx. Chapter.

3. Iosaphat and the people pray vnto the Lorde. 22. The marueylous victorie that the Lorde gaue hym agaynst his enimies. 30. His raigne and actes.

A 1 AFter this also, the chyldren of Moab and the chyldren of Ammon, and with them other of the Ammonites, came agaynst Iosaphat to batayle. A

2 And there came somme that tolde Iosaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude agaynst thee from the other side of the sea, & out of Syria, and beholde they be in Hasason Thamar, which is in Engadi.

3 And Iosaphat feared, and set hym selfe to seeke the Lorde, and proclaymed fastyng throughout al Juda.

4 And Juda geathered them selues togeather, to aske counsaile of the Lord: and they came out of al the cities of Juda, * to make intercession to the Lorde.

* or, to enquyre of the Lorde.

5 And Iosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Juda and Hierusalem, in the house of the Lorde, before the newe court,

6 And sayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen, and raignest not thou on al the kyngdomes of the heathen, and in thine hande is power & might, and there is no man that is able to withstande thee?

7 Art not thou our God whiche dyddest cast B

13 And al Iuda ſtoode before the Lorde, with theyr young ones, theyr wyues, and theyr chyldren.

C 14 And there was Iahaziel the ſonne of Zacharia, the ſonne of Banaia, the ſonne of Iehiel, the ſonne of Matthania, a Leuite, of the ſonnes of Aſaph, and vpon him came the ſpirite of the Lorde in the myddes of the congregation:

15 And he ſayde, Hearken al Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem, and thou kyng Joſaphat, Thus ſayth the Lord vnto you, Be not afrayde, nor faynt harted, by reaſon of this great multitude: for the batayle is not yours, but Gods.

16 To morow goe ye downe againſt them: beholde, they comme vp by the clyft of Ziz, and ye ſhal finde them at the ende of the brooke, before the wylderneſſe of Ieruel.

Exod.14.b. 17 Ye ſhal not neede to fight in this batayle, but ſtep footh, and ſtand, and beholde the helpe of the Lorde which is with you: feare not, nor let your hartes fayle you, O ye of Iuda & of Hieruſalem, to morowe goe out againſt them, for the Lord wyl be with you.

(b) Declaring his faith and obedience to the woord of the Lorde. 18 And Joſaphat (b) bowed his face to the earth, and al Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem fel before the Lorde, worſhypping the Lorde.

19 And the Leuites of the chyldren of the Caathites, and of the chyldren of the Corahites, ſtoode vp to prayſe the Lorde God of Iſrael, with a loude voyce on hygh.

20 And when they aroſe early in the morning, they gate them out vnto the wylderneſſe of Thekoa: and as they went out, Joſaphat ſtoode, and ſayde, Heare me, O Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem: Put your truſt in the Lorde your God, that ye may be founde faythful: geue credence to his prophetes, and ſo ſhal ye proſper.

21 When he had conſulted with the people, and ſet ſomme to ſing vnto the Lorde, and to prayſe hym in the beautie of holyneſſe, & to goe out before the armie, and to ſay, Prayſe yͤ Lord, for his mercie laſteth euer, D

22 And when they beganne to ſhowte, and to prayſe the Lorde, the Lorde layde ambuſhmentes againſt the chyldren of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were comme againſt Iuda, and they were ouerthrowen with ſtrokes among them ſelues.

23 For the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, roſe againſt the inhabiters of mount Seir, and they ſlue, and deſtroyed them: And when they had made an ende of the inhabiters of Seir, euery one helped to deſtroye another among them ſelues.

24 And when Iuda came toward Miſpah in the wylderneſſe, they looked vnto the multitude, and behold, they were dead carkaſſes fallen to the earth, and none eſcaped.

25 And when Joſaphat and his people came to take away the ſpoyle of them, they found among them abundance of goods, raiment, and precious iewelles, whiche they tooke for them ſelues, more then they could cary away: ſo that they were three dayes in geatheryng of the ſpoyle, it was ſo muche.

26 And the fourth day they aſſembled in the valley of bleſſyng: for there they (c) bleſſed the Lord, and therfore they called the name of the ſame place, The valley of bleſſyng, vnto this day.

(c) Gaue thankes vnto the Lord for that victorie.

27 And ſo al the menne of Iuda and Hieruſalem, returned with Joſaphat theyr head, for to goe againe to Hieruſalem with gladneſſe: for the Lorde had made them to reioyce ouer theyr enimies.

28 And they came to Hieruſalem with E pſalteries, and harpes, and ſhawmes, vnto the houſe of the Lorde.

29 And the feare of God fel on the kyngdomes of al landes, when they had hearde that the Lorde fought againſt the enimies of Iſrael.

30 And ſo the realme of Joſaphat was in tranquilitie, and his God gaue him reſt on euery ſide.

31 And Joſaphat raigned vpon Iuda, and was thirtie & fiue yeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned twentie and fiue yeres in Hieruſalem, and his mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi. 2.king.22.f

1. King. 22. verse. 43. 33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared theyr hartes vnto the GOD of theyr fathers.

34 The rest of the actes of Iosaphat firste and last, beholde, they are wrytten among the sayeinges of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which noted them in the booke of the kings of Israel.

35 After this, did Iosaphat kyng of Iuda ioyne hym selfe with Ahazia kyng of Israel, whose mynde was to doo wyckedly:

36 He ioyned hym selfe with hym, to make shyppes to goe to Tharsis: and they made the shyppes in Ezion Gaber.

(a) God woulde not haue his to ioyne in societie with idolaters & wicked men.

37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Maresa, prophesied agaynst Iosaphat, saying, Because thou hast (a) ioyned thee selfe with Ahazia, the Lorde hath broken thy workes. And the shippes were broken, that they were not able to goe to Tharsis.

7 Howbeit, the Lorde woulde not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the couenant that he had made with Dauid, as he promised to geue a lyght to hym and to his sonnes for euer.

8 In his dayes the Edomites rebelled, when they were vnder the dominion of Iuda, and made them selues a kyng. B

9 And Ioram went foorth with his lordes, and al his charrets were with him: and he rose vp by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in, and the captaines of the charrets.

The.xxii.Chapter.

10. Athalia purteth to death al the kinges linage. 11. Ioas escapeth.

A 1 AND the inhabiters of Hierusalem made Ahazia his young sonne king in his steade: for the men of warre that came (a) with the host of the Arabians, had slayne al his eldest sonnes: And so Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Iuda, was made kyng.

(a) Meanyng the Philistines.

(b) Whiche is to be vnderstande, that he raigned twētie yeres, his father yet liuing, but after his fathers death he was confirmed kyng, when he was fourtie and two yeeres olde.

2 (b) Fourtie and two yeeres olde was he when he began to raigne, & he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of (c) Amri.

(c) She was Achabs daughter, who was the sonne of Amri.

3 And he walked also in the wayes of the house of Achab: for his mother by her counsel enticed hym to doo wyckedly.

4 Wherefore he dyd that whiche was euyl in the syght of the Lorde, as dyd they that were of the house of Achab: for they were his (d) counsaylers after the death of his father, to his destruction.

(d) Euyl counsailours make an euil kyng.

5 And he walked after theyr counsayle, and went with Ioram sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, to fyght agaynst Hazael kyng of Syria at Ramoth (in) Gilead: and the Syrians smote Ioram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes whiche were geuen hym at Rama, when he fought with Hazael kyng of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Iuda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab at Iezrahel, because he was diseased.

(e) To the intent that there should be none to make title to the crowne; and so she might vsurpe the gouernment.

10 But when Athalia, the mother of Ahazia, sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, and (e) destroyed al the kynges seede in the kynrede of the house of Iuda.

11 And Iosabeth the daughter of the kyng, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale hym from among the kynges sonnes that were slayne, and put hym and his nurse in a priuie chamber: and so Iosabeth the daughter of kyng Ioram, the wyfe of Iehoiada the priest, (and the sister of Ahazia) hid him from Athalia, that he was not slayne.

12 And so he was with them hid in the house of God sixe yeeres, and Athalia raigned ouer the lande.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

1. Ioas the sonne of Ahazia is made kyng. 14. Athalia is put to death. 17. The temple of Baal is destroyed. 19. Iehoiada appoynteth ministers in the temple.

A 1 AND in the seuenth yeere Iehoiada, beyng bolde, tooke the captaynes of hundreds, Azariah the sonne of Ioram, and Ismael the sonne of Iehohanan, Azaria the sonne of Obed, Maasia the sonne of Adaia, and Elisaphat the sonne of Zichri, and made a bonde with them. 2. King. 11. g.

2 And they went about in Iuda, and gathered the Leuites out of al the cities of Iuda, and the ancient fathers of (a) Israel, and they came to Hierusalem.

(a) Meanyng of Iuda and Beniamin. Chap. 21. verse. 4.

3 And al the congregation made a bonde with the kyng in the house of God: and he sayd vnto them, Behold, the kynges sonne must raigne, as the Lorde hath sayde of the chyldren of Dauid. 2. King. 2. g and. 9. b. 2. Par. 6. c. and. 7. d. and. 21. b.

4 This is it therefore that ye shal do, The thirde part of you shal on the sabboth come to the priestes, Leuites, and keepers of the porches,

5 And another thirde parte shalbe by the kinges house, and another thirde part shalbe at the gate of the fundation: and al the people shalbe in the courtes of the house of the Lorde. Exod. 27. b.

6 But there shal none come into the house of the Lorde, saue the priestes and Leuites that minister, they shal goe in, for they are holy: but al the people shal kepe the watch of the Lorde.

7 And the Leuites shal compasse the kyng rounde about, and euery man shal haue his weapon in his hande, and what other man soeuer doth come into ỹ house (of the Lord) he shalbe slayne: and let them be with the kyng when he commeth in, and when he goeth out. B

8 And the Leuites, and al Iuda, dyd according to al thinges that Iehoiada the priest had commaunded, and toke euery man his men that came in on ỹ sabboth, with them that went out on the sabboth day: neyther did Iehoiada the priest let the companyes depart.

9 And

9 And Iehoiada the prieſte, delyuered to the captaynes of hundredes, ſpeares, ſhieldes, and bucklers, that had parteyned to king Dauid, and were in the houſe of God.

10 And he ſet al the people (euery man hauyng his weapon in his hande) from the ryght ſide of the temple, to the leaft ſide of the temple, along by the aulter and the temple, rounde about the kyng.

11 And they brought out the kynges ſonne, and put vpon hym the crowne, and the * teſtimonie, and made hym kyng: and Iehoiada and his ſonnes annoynted hym, and ſayde, God ſaue the kyng.

Deut.17.d. * or, royal aparel.

12 When Athalia hearde the noyſe of the people runnyng, and prayſing the king, ſhe came to the people into the houſe of the Lorde.

13 And ſhe looked, and beholde, the kyng ſtoode * in his place at the entryng in, and the lordes and the trumpettes were by the kyng, and al the people of the lande reioyced, blowyng with trumpettes, and the ſingers were with inſtruments of muſicke, and ſuch as could ſing prayſe: but Athalia rent her clothes, & ſayd, Treaſon, treaſon.

* or, at his pyller.

14 And Iehoiada the prieſte went out to the captaynes of hundredes, that were gouernours of the hoſt, and ſaid vnto them, Haue her forth of the ranges: and (b) who ſo foloweth her, let hym be ſlayne with the ſwoorde: For the prieſte ſayde, That they ſhoulde not ſlaye her in the houſe of the Lorde.

(b) Meanyng to take her parte.

15 And they layd handes on her, tyl ſhe was comme to the entryng of the horſe gate, beſide the kinges houſe, and there they ſlue her.

16 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene hym, and al the people, and the kyng, that they ſhoulde be the Lordes people:

2.king.9.d.

17 And al the people went to the houſe of Baal, and (c) deſtroyed it, and brake his aulters and his images, and ſlue Matthan the prieſte of Baal, before the aulters.

(c) Accordyng to their couenant made.

18 And Iehoiada * put the officers for the houſe of the Lorde, vnder the hande of the prieſtes and Leuites, as Dauid had diſtributed them in the houſe of the Lorde, to offer whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lord, as it is wrytten in the law of Moſes, with reioyceyng and ſingyng, as it was ordeyned by Dauid.

* or, appoynted. 1.Chr.15.a. Num.28.a.

19 And he ſet porters by the gates of the houſe of the Lord, that none which was vncleane in any thyng, ſhould enter in.

20 And he tooke ỳ captaynes of hundredes, and al the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and al the folke of the land, and cauſed the king to comme downe out of the houſe of the Lorde, and they came through the hygh gate into the kinges houſe, and ſet the king vpon the ſeate of the kyngdome.

21 And al the people of the lande reioyced, and the citie was in tranquilitie after that they had ſlayne Athalia with the ſwoorde. D

The.xxiiii. Chapter.

1. Ioas repayreth the houſe of the Lorde.
25. Ioas is kylled of his owne ſeruantes.

1 IOas was ſeuen yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned fourtie yeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Zibia of Beer ſeba, A

1. king, 12.a

2 And Ioas dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſight of the Lorde, al the dayes of (a) Iehoiada the prieſte.

(a) Who was a faythful counſaylour, and gouerned hym by the woorde of God.

3 And Iehoiada gaue hym two wynes, and he begate ſonnes and daughters.

4 And after this, Ioas was mynded to renue the houſe of the Lorde.

5 And he geathered togeather the prieſtes, and the Leuites, & ſayde to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iuda, and geather of al Iſrael, money to repayre the houſe of your God, from yeere to yeere, & ſee that ye haſte the thing: Howbeit, ỳ Leuites were ſlacke.

6 And the kyng called Iehoiada that was the (b) cheefeſt, and ſayde vnto hym, Why requyreſt thou not of the Leuites to bryng in out of Iuda and Hieruſalem, the collection of money, accordyng to the commaundement of Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde, and of the congregation of Iſrael, for the tabernacle of witneſſe?

(b) For he was the high prieſte. Exod.30.b.

7 For wicked Athalia & her children, brake vp the houſe of God, and al the thyngs that were dedicate for the houſe of the Lord, did they beſtowe vpon Baalim. B

8 And at the kinges commaundement they made a cheſt, and ſet it without at the gate of the houſe of the Lord:

2.king.12.b

9 And made a proclamation through Iuda and Hieruſalem, to bring in to the Lord, the taxation of money that Moſes the ſeruant of God ſet vpon Iſrael in the wylderneſſe.

Exod.30.b.

10 And the lordes and al the people reioyced, and brought in, and caſt into the cheſt * vntyl it was ful.

* or, vntyl they had made an ende.

11 And at the ſame time they brought in the cheſt, vnto them which were in the kinges buſineſſe, by the hande of the Leuites, and when they ſawe that there was much money: the kynges ſcribe, and one appoynted by the hygh prieſte, came and emptyed the cheſt, and tooke it, and carryed it to his place agayne. Thus they dyd day by day, and geathered muche money.

12 And the kyng and Iehoiada gaue it to ſuch such as did labour and worke in the house of the Lorde, and hyred Masons and Carpenters to repayre the house of the Lorde, & so dyd the artificers in iron and brasse, to mende the house of the Lorde.

13 And so the workemen wrought, and the worke mended through theyr handes: and they made the house of God as it ought to be, and strengthed it.

¶ 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the reast of the money before the kyng and Iehoiada, and therewith were made vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister withal, * chargers, and spoones, vesselles of golde and siluer: and they offered whole burnt offerynges in the house of the Lorde continually, al the dayes of Iehoiada.

* or, morters, or bowles.

15 But Iehoiada waxed olde, and dyed ful of dayes: for an hundred and thirtie yeeres olde was he when he dyed.

16 And they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid, among the kynges, because he dealte wel with Israel, and with God, and with his house.

17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the (c) lordes of Iuda, and made obeysance to the kyng: and the kyng hearkened vnto them.

(c) Whiche were flatterers and idolaters.

18 And so they leafte the house of the Lorde God of theyr fathers, and serued groues & idolles, and then came the wrath of God vppon Iuda and Hierusalem for this theyr trespasses sake.

19 And he sent prophetes to them, to bryng them agayne vnto the Lord, and they testified vnto them, but they would not heare.

20 And the spirite of God came vpon Zacharia the sonne of Iehoiada the priest, whiche stoode by the people, and sayd vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why transgresse ye the commaundementes of the Lord, that ye can not prosper? For because ye haue forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.

¶ 21 And they conspired agaynst hym, (d) & stoned hym with stones, at the commaundement of the king, euen in the court of the house of the Lorde.

(d) Idolaters are euer cruel.

22 And so Ioas the kyng remembred not the kyndenesse whiche Iehoiada his father had donne to hym, but slue his sonne, and when he dyed, he sayde, The Lorde looke vpon it, and requyre it.

23 And when the yeere was out, the host of Syria came vp against him, and they came against Iuda and Hierusalem, and destroyed al the lordes of the people from among the people, and sent al the spoyle of them vnto the kyng to Damascus.

24 For the Syrians came with a smal companie of menne, and the Lorde delyuered a very greate host into theyr hande, because they had forsaken the Lorde God of theyr fathers: & they gaue sentence against Ioas.

25 And when they were departed from hym, they leaft hym in great diseases: and his owne seruantes conspired agaynst him, for the blood of the (e) chyldren of Iehoiada the priest, and slue hym on his bed, and he dyed: and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid, but not in the sepulchres of the kynges.

2.king.12.b

26 And these are they that conspired against hym: Zabad the sonne of Simeath, an Ammonite, and Iehosabad the sonne of Simrith, a Moabite.

27 (f) And his sonnes, and the summe of the taxe that was rayled in his tyme, & the repayring of the house of God, behold, they are wrytten in the storie of the booke of the kynges: and Amazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

(f) That is, concernyng his sonnes.

The.xxv.Chapter.

3. Amazia putteth them to death whiche slue his father. 14. He falleth to idolatrie.

1 AMazia was twentie and fiue yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned twentie and nyne yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Iehoadan, of Hierusalem. A

2 And he dyd that whiche is (a) rycht in the sight of the Lorde, but not with a perfect hart.

(a) Meaning in respect of his predecessours, albeit, he had his imperfections.

3 And as soone as he was setled in the kingdome, he slue his seruantes that had killed the kyng his father.

4 But he slue not theyr chyldren, because it is wrytten thus in the lawe and booke of Moses, where the Lorde commaunded, sayeing, The fathers shal not dye for the chyldren, neyther shal the chyldren dye for the fathers: but euery man shal dye for his owne sinne.

Deut.24.c. 2.king.14.b Iere.31.c. Ezech.18.c

5 And Amazia geathered Iuda togeather, and made them captaynes ouer thousandes, and ouer hundredes, accordyng to the houses of theyr fathers, throughout al Iuda and Beniamin: and he numbred them from twentie yeeres olde, and aboue, and found among them three hundred thousand chosen menne able to goe to bataple, and that couldе handle speare and shielde.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand strong fightyng menne out of Israel, for an hundred talentes of siluer.

7 And there came a man of God to hym, & said, O king, let not the armie of Israel come with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, (to wit) with al the chyldren of Ephraim. B

8 But yf thou wylt needes (be faythleſſe,) come on, & take the battel in hand, & God ſhal make thee fal before the enimie: for God hath power to helpe, & to caſt downe.

9 And Amazia ſayde to the man of GOD, What ſhal we doo then for the hundred talentes whiche I haue geuen to the hoſte of Iſrael? The man of God anſweared, The Lorde is able to geue thee muche more then they be.

10 And Amazia ſeparated the armie that was come to hym out of Ephraim, to goe home agayne: wherefore they were exceeding wroth with Iuda, and returned home in great anger.

2.Reg.14.b 11 And Amazia tooke hart, and caryed out his people, and went to the ſalt valley, and ſmote of the chyldren of Seir, ten thouſand.

12 And other ten thouſande dyd the chyldren of Iuda take alyue, and caryed them vnto the toppe of a rocke, and caſte them downe from the top of the rocke, that they al to burſte.

(b) That is, the hundred thouſande of Iſrael.

13 But the ſouldiers of the (b) armie whiche Amazia ſent away that they ſhould not goe with his people to battel, fel vpon the cities of Iuda, from Samaria, vnto Bethron, and ſmote three thouſand of them, and tooke muche ſpoyle.

¶ 14 And after that Amazia was come from the ſlaughter of the Edomites, he brought the goddes of the chyldren of Seir, and ſet them vp to be his goddes, and bowed hym ſelfe before them, and burned incenſe vnto them.

15 Wherefore the Lorde was wroth with Amazia, and ſent vnto hym a prophet, whiche ſayd vnto hym, Why haſt thou ſought the goddes of the people, which were not able to (c) deliuer theyr owne people out of thyne hande.

(c) That whiche can not deliuer others, nor ſaue it ſelfe, is no God, but an idol.

16 And as the prophete talked with hym, the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Haue men made thee of the kynges counſayle? Ceaſſe, why wylt thou be beaten? And the prophete ceaſſed, and ſayde, I am ſure that God is minded to deſtroy thee, becauſe thou haſt done this, and agreeſt not vnto my counſel.

2.Reg.14.b 17 Then Amazia king of Iuda tooke aduiſe, and ſent to Joas the ſonne of Joahaz the ſonne of Jehu kyng of Iſrael, and ſayde, Come, that we may ſee one another.

18 And Joas king of Iſrael, ſent to Amazia kyng of Iuda, ſayeing, A thiſtle that is in Libanon, ſent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, ſayeing, Geue thy daughter to my ſonne to wyfe: and there came a wylde beaſt of Libanon, and trode downe the thiſtle.

2.King. 14. verſe.8. 2.King.14 verſe.9.

19 Thou ſayeſt, Loe, thou haſt ſmytten the Edomites, and thyne hart maketh thee proude to glorifie thee ſelfe: Now therfore byde at home, why dooeſt thou prouoke vnto euil, that thou mayeſt perithe, both thou, and Iuda with thee?

20 But Amazia would not hearken to him: for it came of God, euen to delyuer them into the hande of theyr enimies, becauſe they ſought counſel at the gods of Edom.

21 And ſo Joas the kyng of Iſrael came vp, D and they ſawe eyther other, both he, and Amazia kyng of Iuda, at Bethſames, which is in Iuda.

22 And Iuda was put to the wooꝛſe before Iſrael, and they fled euery man to his tent.

23 And Joas the kyng of Iſrael tooke Amazia king of Iuda, the ſonne of Joas, ỹ ſonne of Joahaz, at Bethſames, and brought him to Hieruſalem, and tare the wal of Hieruſalem, from the gate of Ephraim, vnto the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

24 And he tooke away alſo al the golde and ſyluer, and al the veſſelles that were found in the houſe of God with Obed Edom, and the treaſures of the kinges houſe, the chyldren alſo that were in hoſtage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amazia the ſonne of Joas kyng of Iuda, lyued after the death of Joas ſonne of Joahaz kyng of Iſrael, fifteene yeeres.

26 The reſt of the actes of Amazia firſt and laſt, are they not written in the booke of the kynges of Iuda and Iſrael? 2.Kin.14.f.

27 And after the time that Amazia did turne away from the Lorde, they conſpired treaſon agaynſt hym in Hieruſalem, and when Luke.1.b. he was fled to Lachis, they ſent to Lachis after hym, and ſlue hym there:

28 And brought hym vp with horſes, and buryed hym with his fathers in the citie of Iuda.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

1. Ozias obeying the Lord, proſpereth in his enterpriſes. 16. He waxeth proude, and vſurpeth the prieſtes office.

1 THen al the people of Iuda tooke Ozias, which was ſixteene yeeres old, and A 2.Kin.15.a. made hym kyng in the roome of his father Amazia.

2 And he built Eloth, and brought it againe to Iuda, after that the kyng was layde to ſleepe with his fathers.

3 Sixteene yeeres olde was Ozias when he began to raigne, and he raigned fiftie and two yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Iecholia of Hieruſalem.

4 And he dyd that whiche was right in the ſyght of the Lorde, accordyng to al as dyd his father Amazia.

5 And

2.Kin.12.b. (a) This was not that Zacharia whiche was the ſonne of Iehoiada, but ſome other prophete of that name.

5 And he ſought God in the dayes of (a) Zacharia, who had vnderſtandyng in the viſions of God: and as long as he ſought the Lorde, God made hym to proſper.

6 And he went to battayle againſt the Philiſtines, and brake downe the wal of Geth, and the wal of Jabne, and the wal of Aſdod, and built cities about Aſdod, and among the Philiſtines.

7 And God holpe hym againſt the Philiſtines, & againſt the Arabians that dwelt in Gur baal, and Hamehunim.

8 And the Ammonites gaue tribute to Dzias, and his name ſpread abroade euen to the entring in of Egypt: for he played the man exceedyngly.

9 Moreouer, Dzias built towres in Hieruſalem by the corner gate, and by the valley gate, and at the turnyng of the wal, and made them ſtrong.

10 And he built towres in the wylderneſſe, and digged many welles: for he had muche cattayle in the valleyes and playnes, plowmen, and vinedreſſers in the mountaynes, and in Charmel: for he loued huſbandry.

11 And Dzias had an hoſt of fighting men, that went out to warre in the armie, accordyng to the number of theyr office, vnder the hande of Jeiel the ſcribe, and Maaſia the ruler, and vnder the hand of Hanania, (whiche was) one of the kynges lordes.

12 And the whole number of the auncient fathers, and of the men of might, were two thouſande, and fyre hundred.

13 And vnder the hande of them, was the armie of the men of warre, euen three hundred and ſeuen thouſand, and fiue hundred, that made warre with the power of an armie, helpyng the kyng againſt the enimies:

14 And Dzias prouided them throughout al the hoſt, ſhieldes, ſpeares, helmettes, habergynnes, bowes, and ſlynges for to caſte ſtones.

15 And he made ſubtil engins in Hieruſalem, whiche he inuented, and layde on the towres and corners, to ſhoote arrowes and great ſtones withal: and his name ſpread farre abroade, because he had prepared to hym ſelfe marueylous ſtrength.

(b) Proſperitie puffeth vp the hart of man, and maketh hym often to forget God.

16 But in his ſtrength (b) his hart aroſe to his deſtruction: for he tranſgreſſed againſt the Lorde his God, and went into the temple of the Lorde to burne incenſe vpon the aulter of incenſe.

17 And Azaria the prieſt went in after him, and with hym foureſcore prieſtes of the Lorde, that were valiant men:

18 And they ſtoode againſt Dzias the king, and ſayde vnto hym, It parteyneth not to thee Dzias, to burne incenſe vnto the lord, but to the prieſtes the chyldren of Aaron, that are conſecrated for to offer incenſe: (c) come therefore out of the ſanctuarie, for thou haſt treſpaſſed, and it is no worſhyp to thee before the Lorde God.

(c) Though his zeale and intentiō ſeemed good, yet becauſe they were not ruled by gods woord, his fact was wicked, and iuſtly puniſhed. 1.King.15.a

19 And Dzias was wroth, and had incenſe in his hande to burne it, and ſo whyle he had indignation againſt the prieſtes, the leproſie ſprang in his forehead before the prieſtes in the houſe of the Lorde, euen beſyde the incenſe aulter.

20 And Azaria the cheefe prieſte, with al the other prieſtes, loked vpon him, and behold, he was become a leper in his forehead, and they thruſt hym from thence, and he haſted to goe out, becauſe the Lorde had ſmytten hym.

21 And Dzias the kyng continued a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt ſeuerall in an houſe, beyng a leper, and ſhut out of the houſe of the Lorde: And Iotham his ſonne had the gouernance of the kynges houſe, and iudged the people of the lande. D 1.Sam.15. verſe.5. Leuit.13. verſe.46.

22 The reſt of the actes of Dzias firſt and laſte, did Eſai the prophete, the ſonne of Amos, wryte.

23 And ſo Dzias ſleapt with his fathers, and they buryed hym with his fathers in the feelde of the burial whiche (was) beſide the ſepulchres of the kynges: for they ſayd, He is a leper. And Iotham his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

I. Iotham raigneth, and ouercommeth the Ammonites. 8. His raigne, and death. 9. Ahaz his ſonne raigneth in his ſteade.

1 IOtham was twentie and fiue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned ſixteene yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Ieruſa, the daughter of Zadoc. A 2.King.15 verſe.32.

2 And he did that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, in al poyntes, as did his father Dzias, ſaue that he came not into the (a) temple of the Lord: and the people dyd yet wickedly.

(a) To wit, to offer incenſe againſt gods woorde, as Ozias his father did. Chap.26. verſe.16.

3 He built the high gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the wal (where the houſe of ordinance was) he built muche.

4 Moreouer, he built cities in the mountaynes of Juda, and in the wood country he built caſtles and towres.

5 He fought with the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, and preuayled againſt them: and the chyldren of Ammon gaue hym the ſame yeere an hundred talentes of ſyluer, and ten thouſand meaſures of wheate, and ten

ten thousande of barly: so muche dyd the chyldren of Ammon gene hym the seconde yeere, and the thirde also.

6 So Iotham became myghty, (b) because he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God.

(b) Al prosperitie commeth of god, who neuer fayleth them that put their trust in hym.

7 The rest of the actes of Iotham, and al his warres, and his conuersation, loe they are written in the booke of the kinges of Israel and Iuda.

8 He was twenty and fyue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and raigned syxteene yeeres in Hierusalem.

9 And Iotham sleapt with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: and Achas his sonne raigned in his steade.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1. Achas an idolater is geuen into the handes of the Syrians and the kyng of Israel. 23. Achas increaseth his idolatrie. 26. His death, and succession.

1 ACHAS was twentie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned syxteene yeeres in Hierusalem, and he did not that whiche is right in the syght of the Lorde as dyd his father Dauid:

2. King. 16.

2 For he walked in the wayes of the kinges of Israel, and made moulten images for Baalim.

Deut. 18. f. 2. King. 16. verse. 3.

3 He offred incense in the valley of the sonne of Hinnon, & burnt his children in fyre, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde cast out before the chyldren of Israel.

4 He offered also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on mountaines, and vnder euery greene tree.

5 Wherefore the Lorde his God deliuered hym into the hande of the kyng of the Syrians, which smote hym, and caryed away a great multitude of his captiue, & brought them to Damascus: and he was deliuered into the hande of the kyng of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter.

2. King. 16.

6 For Pekah the sonne of Romelia slue in Iuda, an hundred and twentie thousand in one day, whiche were al fyghtyng menne: and that because they had forsaken the lord God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri a * mighty man of Ephraim, slue Maasia the kynges sonne, and Azrica the gouernour of the house, & Elcana that was next to the kyng.

* or, tirant.

8 And the chyldren of Israel tooke prisoners of their brethren two hundred thousande women, sonnes, and daughters, and caryed away muche spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophete of the Lordes, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and sayd vnto them, Behold, because the Lorde God of your fathers is wroth with Iuda, (a) he hath deliuered them into your hand, & ye haue slayne them with cruelnesse that reacheth vp to heauen.

(a) Al victorie commeth of God.

10 And nowe ye purpose to keepe vnder the chyldren of Iuda and Hierusalem, and to make them bondmen and bondwomen: and doo ye not lade your selues with sinne in the syght of the Lorde your God?

11 Nowe heare me therfore, and deliuer the captiues agayne whiche ye haue taken of your brethren: for els shal the great wrath of God be vpon you.

12 Wherfore certayne of the heades of the chyldren of Ephraim, as Azaria the sonne of Iohanan, Berechia the sonne of Misillemoth, and Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stoode vp agaynst them that came from the warre:

13 And sayde vnto them, Bryng not in the captiues hyther: for where as we haue offended towarde God alredy, ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and trespasse: for our trespasse is great alredy, and there is a fierce wrath agaynst Israel.

14 And vpon that, the menne of armes left the captiues and the spoile before the lordes and al the congregation:

15 And the menne that were nowe rehearsed by name, rose vp, & tooke the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed al that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shoed them, and gaue them to eate and to drynke, and annoynted them, and caryed al that were feeble of them vpon asses, and brought them to Iericho ye citie of Palme trees, to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne.

16 At that same tyme did kyng Achas send vnto the kynges of the Syrians, to haue helpe of them.

17 And the Edomites came agayne, and slue sommie of Iuda, and caryed away captiues.

18 And the Philistines inuaded the cities in the lowe countrey, and toward the south of Iuda: and tooke Bethsames, and Aialon, and Gederoth, and Socho with the townes longyng therto, and Thimna with the townes of the same, Gimso and the townes thereof, and dwelt there.

2. King. 16.

19 For the Lorde brought Iuda lowe, because of Achas kyng of * Iuda, whiche made Iuda naked, and transgressed sore agaynst the Lorde.

* or, Israel.

20 And Thilgath Phalasar kyng of the Assyrians, came vpon hym, and troubled hym, rather then strengthed hym.

D 21 For Achas tooke away a portion out of the house of the Lord, and out of the kynges house, and out of the Lordes houses, & gaue vnto the kyng of the Assyrians: and yet it helped hym not.

22 And in the very tyme of his tribulation, dyd king Achas trespasse yet more agaynst the Lorde.

23 For he offered vnto the goddes of Damascus, which (b) smote hym, and he said, Because the goddes of the kynges of Syria helpe them, therefore wyl I offer to them, that they may helpe me also: but they were his destruction, and (the destruction) of al Israel.

(b) As he falsly supposed.

24 And Achas geathered togeather the vessels of the house of god, and brake them, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lorde, and made hym aulters in euery corner of Hierusalem.

26 The rest of his actes, and his woorkes first and last, behold they are written in the booke of the kynges of Juda and Israel.

27 And Achas slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Hierusalem: but brought hym not vnto the sepulchres of the kynges of Israel, and Hezekia his sonne raigned in his steade.

The. xxix. Chapter.

3. Hezekia repayreth the temple, and aduertiseth the Leuites of the corruption of religion.

A 1 HEzekia began to raigne when he was
2. king. 18. a fyue and twentie yeeres olde, and he raigned nine and twentie yeeres in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zacharia.

(a) whiche Achas had shut vp.

(b) An example for al princes, that first of al thei stablisshe the true religion of God.

2 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the syght of the Lord in al pointes, as did Dauid his father.

3 He opened the (a) doores of the house of the Lorde, in the first yeere and (b) first moneth of his raigne, and repayred them.

(c) Meanyng al the idols, aulters, groues, and whatsoeuer was occupyed in their seruice, and wherewith the temple was defyled.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Leuites, and geathered them togeather into the east streete,

5 And said vnto them, Heare me ye Leuites, and nowe be sanctifyed, & halow the house of the Lorde God of your fathers, (c) bring sylthynesse out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed, and done euyl in the eyes of the Lorde our God, and haue forsaken hym, and turned away their faces from the * habitation of the Lorde, and turned their backes on it.

* or, tabernable.

B 7 And besyde that, they haue shut vp the doores of the porche, and quenched the lampes, and haue neither burnt incense, nor offered whole burnt offerynges in the holy place vnto the God of Israel.

8 (a) Wherfore the wrath of the Lord fel on Juda and Hierusalem, & he hath brought them to trouble to be woondred on, and to be hissed at, euen as ye see with your eyes.

(d) The contempt of religion, is the cause of gods plagues.

9 For loe, our fathers were ouerthrowen with the swoorde, & our sonnes, our daughters, and our wyues were caryed away captiue for the same cause.

10 And nowe it is in myne hart to make a couenant with the Lorde God of Israel, that he may turne away his heauy indignation from vs.

Nom. 18. a 11 Nowe therfore my sonnes be not negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, & for to minister and serue him, and to burne incense.

12 Then the Leuites arose, Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Azaria, of the chyldren of the Caathites: & of the sonnes of Merari, Cis the sonne of Abdi, and Azaria the sonne of Jahalelel: and of the sonnes of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah:

13 And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Jehiel: and of the sonnes of Asaph, Zacharia and Matthania:

C 14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jehiel, and Simei: and of the sonnes of Idithun, Semaia, and Oziel.

15 And they geathered their brethren, and purifyed them selues, and came according to the commaundement of the king, and the woordes of the Lord, for to cleanse the house of the Lorde.

16 And the priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lorde, to cleanse it, and brought out al the vncleannesse that they founde in the temple of the Lord, into the court of the house of the Lorde: and the Leuites tooke it, to carie it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifye, and the eyght day of the moneth came they to the porche of the lord: so they sanctifyed the house of the Lorde in eyght dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an ende.

18 And they went in to Hezekia the kyng, and sayd, We haue cleansed al the house of the Lord, the aulter of whole burnt offring, with al his vessels, and the shewe bread table with al his * apparel:

* or, vessels

19 And

19 And al the vessels whiche king Achas did cast aside when he raigned & transgressed, them we haue prepared and sanctified, and beholde, they are before the aulter of the Lorde.

20 And Hezekia the king rose early, & gathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lorde.

21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rammes, seuen sheepe, & seuen hee goates, to be a sinne offering, for the kingdome, for the sanctuarie, and for Juda: and he commaunded the priestes, the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the aulter of the Lorde.

D 22 And they slue the oxen, and the priestes receiued the blood, and (e) sprinckled it on the aulter: lykewyse when they had slayne the rammes, they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: they slue also the sheepe, and they sprinckled the blood vppon the aulter.

(e) For without sprinckling of blod, nothing coulde be sanctifyed. Hebr. 9. Exod. 24.

23 And then they brought foorth the hee goates for the sinne offering, before the king and the congregation, and (f) put theyr handes vpon them.

(f) They that offered a sinne offering, must lay their handes vpon it, Meanyng that they them selues had deserued that death: and also that they dyd consecrate it to god, therby to be sanctifyed. Exod. 29. vearse. 10. 1. Chr. 25. a.

24 And the priestes slue them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the aulter, to make satisfaction for al Israel: for the king commaunded that the whole burnt offering and the sinne offering (thoulde be made) for al Israel:

25 And set the Leuites in the house of the Lorde, with cymbales, psalteries, & harpes, accordyng to the commaundement of David, and of Gad the kinges Seer, and Nathan the prophete: for so was the cõmaundement of the Lorde through the hande of his prophetes.

26 And the Leuites stood, hauing the instrumentes of David: and the priestes held the trumpettes.

E 27 And Hezekia commaunded to offer the whole burnt offering vpon the aulter: And when the whole burnt offering beganne, the song of the Lorde beganne also, and the trumpets, with the instrumentes that were ordeyned by the hande of David kyng of Israel.

28 And al the congregation worshipped, singyng a song, and blowyng with the trumpets: and al this (continued) vntyl the whole burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an ende of offering, the king & al that were present with hym, bowed them selues, and worshipped.

2. king. 16. b 1. Chro. 16. vearse. 8.

30 And Hezekia the king & the lordes spake to the Leuites, to prayse the Lorde with the wordes of David & of Asaph the Seer: and they sang prayses with gladnesse, and the other bowed them selues, and worshipped.

31 And Hezekia answeared and sayde, Now ye haue consecrated your handes vnto the Lorde: goe to therefore, and bryng the sacrifyces and thanke offeringes into the house of the Lorde. And the congregation brought in the sacrifyces and thanke offeringes, and whole burnt offeringes, as many as were of a free liberal hart.

32 And the number of the whole burnt offeringes whiche the congregation brought, was threescore and ten oxen, an hundred rammes, and two hundred sheepe: whiche (were) al for the whole burnt offering of the Lorde.

33 And there (were) dedicated sixe hundred oxen, and three thousande sheepe.

34 And the priests were to fewe to slay al the whole burnt offerings: but their brethren the Leuites dyd helpe them, tyl they had ended the worke, and vntyl the priestes were sanctifyed: for the Leuites were purer harted to be sanctifyed then the priests.

35 And thereto the whole burnt offeringes were many, with the fat of the peace offeringes, and the drinke offeringes that belong to the whole burnt offering: and so the seruice parteynyng to the house of the Lorde, was finished.

36 And Hezekia reioyced, and al the people, that God had made the folke so ready, and that the thyng was so soone donne.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1. The keeping of the Paseouer by the kynges commaundement.

A 1 AND Hezekia sent to al Israel and Juda, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse, that they shoulde comme to the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, and keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lorde GOD of Israel.

Num. 9. b. (a) Though they ought to haue done it in the first moneth, as Exodus. xii. yet yf any were not cleane or had a long iourney, they myght defer it to the seconde moneth, as Num. ix. vearse. x.

2 And the kyng helde a counsayle with his lordes, and al the congregation of Hierusalem, to keepe the feast of Passeouer in the (a) seconde moneth:

3 For they coulde not keepe it at that tyme, because the priestes were not sanctifyed sufficiently, neither was the people gathered togeather to Hierusalem.

4 And the thyng pleased the kyng and al the congregation.

5 And they decreed that it shoulde be proclaymed throughout al Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come & hold the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lord god of Israel at Hierusalē: for they had not done it of a great (ſeaſon) as it was (b) written.

(b) That is, in ſuche ſort and perfection as God had appoynted.

6 So the poſtes went with letters of the kinges and of his lordes, throughout al Iſrael and Juda, and at the commaundement of the kyng they ſayde, Ye childzen of Iſrael, turne agayne vnto the Lord God of Abzaham, Iſahac, and Iſrael, and he wyl returne to the remnant that are eſcaped of you out of the hand of the kinges of the Aſſyzians.

ℬ 7 And be not ye like your fathers and your bzethzen, which treſpaſſed agayaſt the lord God of their fathers, which gaue them vp to be deſtroyed, as ye ſee.

8 And nowe be not ye ſtiffe necked lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your ſelues vnto the Lozde, & enter into his holy place, whiche he hath ſanctifyed foz euer, and ſerue the Lozde your God, & the fierceneſſe of his wzath ſhal turne away from you.

9 Foz yf ye turne agayne vnto the Lozde, then ſhal your bzethzen and your chyldzen fynde compaſſion in the preſence of them that tooke them captiue, & they ſhal come agayne vnto this lande: foz the Lord your God is gratious and mercyful, and wyl not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto hym.

10 And ſo the poſtes went from citie to citie, through the land of Ephzaim and Manaſſe, euen vnto Zabulon: (but they) laughed them to ſcozne, and mocked them.

Exod. 34. a.

11 Neuertheleſſe, yet diuers of Aſer, Manaſſe, and of Zabulon, ſubmitted them ſelues, and came to Hieruſalem.

12 And the hande of God was in Juda, and he gaue them one hart to doo the cõmaundement of the king and of the rulers, accozding to the woozde of the Lozde.

13 And there aſſembled to Hieruſalem much people, and there was preſent a mighty great congregation, to holde the feaſt of ſweete bzead in the ſeconde moneth.

ℭ 14 And they aroſe, and remoued the aulters that were in Hieruſalem: and al the aulters foz incenſe dyd they away, and caſt them into the bzooke Cedzon.

2. Chzo. 28.

15 And they ſlue ỳ Paſſeouer the fourteenth day of the ſecond moneth: and the prieſtes and Leuites whiche were (c) aſhamed, ſanctifyed them ſelues, and bzought in the whole burnt offeringes into the houſe of the Lozde.

(c) Seeing their owne negligence, and the redy neſſe of the people.

16 And they ſtood in their office after theyz maner, and accozding to the lawe of Moſes the man of God: & the prieſtes ſprinckled the blood (whiche they receiued) of the hande of the Leuites.

17 Foz there were many in the congregation that were not ſanctifyed, and therefoze the Leuites had the charge of the killing of the Paſſeouer foz euery one that was not cleane, to ſanctifye hym vnto the Lozde.

18 Foz many of the people, and very many of Ephzaim, Manaſſe, Iſachar, and Zabulon, were not cleanſed, and yet dyd eate the Paſſeouer, agayaſt the lawe appoynted: but Hezekia prayed foz them, ſayeing, The good Lozde be mercyful towarde euery one 19 That prepareth his hart to ſeeke the lozd God, the God of his fathers, though he be not (cleanſed) accozdyng to the purifycation of the ſanctuarie.

20 And the Lozde hearde Hezekia, and (d) healed the people.

(d) That is, dyd accepe them as purifyed.

21 And the childzen of Iſrael that were preſent at Hieruſalem, held ỳ feaſt of ſweete bzead ſeuen dayes with great gladneſſe: & the Leuites & the prieſtes prayſed the Lozd day by day, (ſinging) with loude inſtrumentes vnto the Lozde.

22 And Hezekia ſpake * comfoztablie vnto al the Leuites that had good knowledge (to ſing) vnto the Lozde: and they dyd eate throughout that feaſt ſeuen dayes long, and offered peace offeringes, and thanked the Lozde God of their fathers.

* oz, to the hart.

23 And the whole aſſemblie tooke counſel to ℬ doo ſo other ſeuen dayes: and they helde thoſe ſeuen dayes with gladneſſe.

24 Foz Hezekia king of Juda, dyd geue to the congregation (e) a thouſande young oxen, and ſeuen thouſand ſheepe: & the lozdes gaue out to the congregation a thouſande oxen, and ten thouſand ſheepe, and a great number of the prieſtes were ſanctifyed.

(e) Hezekia beſtowed his goodes liberally, for the ſetting forth of gods glorye.

25 And al the congregation of Juda, with the prieſtes and Leuites, and al the congregation that came out of Iſrael, & the ſtrangers that came out of the lande of Iſrael, and that dwelt in Juda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladneſſe in Hieruſalem: foz ſince the time of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid king of Iſrael, there was no ſuche ioy in Hieruſalem.

27 And the prieſtes and the Leuites aroſe, and bleſſed the people: and their voyce was heard (of the Lorde) and their prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwellyng place.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

1. The people deſtroy idolatrie. 2. Hezekia appoynteth prieſtes and Leuites, 4. and prouideth for their liuing.

1 AND when al theſe thinges were finiſhed, al Iſrael that were preſent in the cities of Juda, went out and bzake the images, and cut downe the groues, & al to bzake the high places & aulters throughout al Juda and Beniamin, in Ephzaim alſo and Manaſſe, vntyl they had vtterly deſtroyed destroyed them al: and al the chyldren of Israel returned every man to his possessiō, and to their owne cities.

2 And Hezekia appoynted sundrie companies of the preistes and Leuites, after the diuersitie of their ministrations, euery man according to his office both preistes and Leuites, for the whole burnt offeryng and peace offerynges, to minister, and to geue thankes and prayse in the gates of the (a) host of the Lorde.

(a) That is, in the tēple where they assembled.

3 And the kynges portion of his substance that he gaue, were dayly whole burnt offerings in the morning and euenyng, & whole burnt offeringes for the Sabboth dayes, newe moones, and solemne feastes, accordyng as it is written in the lawe of the Lorde.

Num.28.b. 4 And he bade the people that dwelt in Hierusalem, to geue a (b) part to the preistes and Leuites, that they myght with more courage apply them selues to the lawe of the Lorde.

(b) The tithes and first fruites for the maintenance of the priests and Leuites.

5 And assoone as the kynges commaundement came abroade, the chyldren of Israel brought abundance of fyrste fruites, of corne, wine, oyle, hony, and of al manner of fruites of the feelde, and the tythes of al manner of thinges brought they in plenteously.

6 And the children of Israel and Iuda, that dwelt in the cities of Iuda, they also brought in the tythes of oxen and sheepe, and other holy tythes, whiche were consecrate vnto the Lorde their God, and layed them al by heapes.

7 In the thirde moneth they beganne to lay the heapes in manner of a fundation, and fynished them in the seuenth moneth.

8 And when Hezekia and the lordes came and sawe the heapes, they blessed the Lord, and his people Israel.

9 And Hezekia questioned with the preistes and the Leuites concernyng the heapes.

10 And Azaria the cheefe priest, of the house of Sadoc, answeared hym, and sayde, Since the people beganne to bryng the heaue offeryngs into the house of the Lord, (c) we also haue had ynough to eate, & yet remayneth plentie: for the Lorde hath blessed his people, and this heape is leaft.

(c) The ministers were liberally prouided for.

11 And Hezekia bade prepare * the chambers in the house of the Lorde: and they dyd prepare them,

* Or, store houses.

12 And caried in the first fruites, the thithes, and the dedicate thinges faythfully, ouer whiche Chonania the Leuite had the rule, and Semei his brother next to hym:

13 And Iehiel, Azaria, Nahath, Asael, Ierimoth, Iosabad, Eliel, Ismachia, Mahath, and Banaia, were ouerseers, ordeined by Chonania, and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezekia the kyng, and Azaria was the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Chore the sonne of Imma the Leuite and porter of the east doore, had the ouersyght of the thinges that were offered of a free wyl vnto GOD, to distribute the oblations of the Lorde and the holy thinges that were consecrate. C

15 And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Iesua, Semeia, Amaria, & Sechania, in the cities of the preistes (appoynted) of their fidelitie to geue to their brethren their partes, aswel to the smal as to the great:

16 Also to their generation, beyng males, from three yeeres olde and vpwarde, euen vnto euery one that entereth into the house of the Lorde, they shal geue day by day for their ministration, and for their geuyng attendance, and for their diuers waytinges by course,

17 Both to the generation of the preistes and Leuites throughout the householde of their fathers, from twenty yeeres & aboue, to wayte when their courses came:

18 And to the families of al their babes, wyues, sonnes and daughters, through al the congregation: for vpon the fidelitie of them, were the holy thinges bestowed.

19 And to the children of Aaron the preistes whiche were in the feeldes and suburbes of their cities, citie by citie, the menne whose names were expressed afore, shoulde geue portions, to al ỹ males among the preistes, and to al the Leuites, accordyng to their number.

20 And of this maner did Hezekia throughout al Iuda, and wrought that is good and ryght and true before the Lorde his God. D

21 And in al the woorkes that he beganne for the seruice of the house of GOD, accordyng to the lawe & the commaundementes, he sought his God: and that dyd he with al his hart, and prospered.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

1. Sennacherib inuadeth Iuda. 3. Hezekia prepareth for the warre. 7. He exhorteth the people to put their trust in the Lorde.

1 AFter that these deedes were faythfully donne, Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians came, and entred into Iuda, and compassed the strong cities, & thought to winne them for him selfe. a 2.King.18.c Esai.36.a. Eccle.48.c

2 And so when Hezekia sawe that Sennacherib was comme, and that he was pur-

3 He tooke counſel with his lo̲rdes and men of myght, to ſtoppe the water of the fountaynes without the citie: and they did helpe hym.

4 Fo̲r there geathered many of the people togeather, and ſtopt al the welles, and the bro̲oke that ranne thro̲ugh the myddes of the lande, ſayeing, Why ſhal the kynges of the Aſſyrians comme and fynde muche water?

5 And Hezekia went to luſtily, and built vp the wal where it was bro̲oken, and made vp the to̲wres, and an other wal without, and repayred Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many dartes and ſheeldes.

6 And he ſet captaynes of warre ouer the people, and geathered them togeather to him in the large ſtreete of the gate of the citie, and ſpake gently to them, ſayeing,

B 7 Plucke vp your hartes and be ſtrong: be not afrayde no̲r diſcouraged fo̲r the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and fo̲r al the multitude that he hath with hym: fo̲r there be mo with vs then with hym.

(b) This declareth that Hezekia dyd euer put his truſt in God, and yet made hym ſelfe ſtrong, and vſed lawful meanes leaſt he ſhoulde ſeeme to tempt God.

9 After this dyd Sennacherib king of the Aſſyrians, ſend of his ſeruantes to Hieruſalem (but he him ſelfe remayned beſyde Lachis, hauing al his power with hym) vnto Hezekia kyng of Iuda, and vnto al Iuda that were at Hieruſalem, ſayeing, 10 Thus ſayth Sennacherib kyng of the Aſſyrians, Wherein doo ye truſt, O ye that dwel in Hieruſalem whiche is beſieged?

11 Doth not Hezekia entice you to geue ouer your ſelues vnto death, hunger, and thirſt, ſayeing, The Lo̲rd our God ſhal rid vs out of the hande of the kyng of the Aſſyrians?

(c) The wicked make no difference betweene true religion and falſe.

13 Knowe ye not what I and my fathers haue donne vnto al people of the landes? Were the gods of the people of other lands able o̲r myghtie to ſaue their landes out of my hande?

C 14 Whiche of al the goddes of thoſe nations that my fathers deſtroyed, coulde deliuer his people out of my hande? And ſhal your God be able to deliuer you out of my hande?

15 Wherfo̲re nowe let not Hezekia deceiue you, no̲r perſwade you of this faſhion, no̲r yet beleeue hym: Fo̲r as no god among al nations and kyngdomes was able to rydde his people out of my hande, and out of the hande of my fathers: howe muche leſſe ſhal your goddes be able to keepe you out of my hande?

16 And yet mo thinges dyd his ſeruantes ſpeake agaynſt the Lo̲rde God, and agaynſt his ſeruant Hezekia.

17 And Sennacherib alſo wro̲te a letter to raile on the Lo̲rd God of Iſrael, and ſpake agaynſt hym, ſayeing, As the goddes of the nations of (other) landes haue not benne able to deliuer their people out of my hand: euen ſo ſhal not the God of Hezekia deliuer his people out of my hande.

18 And they cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes ſpeache vnto the people of Hieruſalem that were on the wal, to feare them, and to make them faynt harted, and that they myght take the citie.

19 And they ſpake agaynſt the God of Hieruſalem, as agaynſt the goddes of the nations of the earth, (whiche were) the wo̲o̲rkes of the handes of menne.

22 And ſo the Lo̲rde ſaued Hezekia and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem out of the hande of Sennacherib the kyng of the Aſſyrians, and from the hande of al other, and mayntayned them on euery ſyde.

23 And many bro̲ught offerynges vnto the Lo̲rde to Hieruſalem, and preſentes to Hezekia kyng of Iuda: ſo that he was magnifyed in the ſyght of al nations fro̲ thence fo̲o̲rth.

26 Notwithſtanding, Hezekia ſubmitted him ſelfe, after that his hart was ryſen vp, he, & the inhabiters of Hieruſalem: and the wrath of the Lo̲rde came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekia.

27 And Hezekia had exceeding much riches

and

28 And made store houses for the fruites of 31 And when the princes of Babylon sent vnto him ambassadours, to enquire of the woonder that was donne in the lande, god leaft him, (f) to trye him, and that al that was in his hart myght be knowen.

(f) God tempteth his faythful, to trye them.
32 The rest of the deedes of Hezekia, and his goodnesse, beholde, they are written in the vision of Esai the prophete the sonne of Amos, in the booke of the kinges of Iuda and Israel.
33 And Hezekia slept with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the most woorthy place of the sepulchres of the sonnes of Dauid, and al Iuda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem dyd hym honour at his death: and Manasses his sonne raigned in his steade.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

7 And he put the carued image, and an idol B
whiche he had made, in the house of God: of whiche house God sayde to Dauid and to Solomon his sonne, In this house and in Hierusalem which I haue chosen afore al the tribes of Israel, wyl I put my name for euer.

9 And so Manasses made Iuda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem to erre, and to doo woorse then the heathen whom the Lorde destroyed before the chyldren of Israel.
10 And the Lorde spake (a) to Manasses, and (a) Meanyng by his pro-

11 Wherefore the Lorde brought vpon them

12 And when he was in tribulation, he be-

16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lorde, and sacrifyced thereon peace offeringes, and thanke offeringes, and charged Iuda to serue the Lorde God of Israel.
17 Nenertheleſſe, the people dyd offer styll

18 The rest of the actes of Manasses, and his

19 And his prayer, and howe that he was hearde, and al his sinnes, and his trespasse, and the places where he made high places, and set vp groues and images before he was humbled, beholde, they are written among the sayeinges of the Seers.

20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in his (c) owne house, and Amon his sonne raigned in his roome.

(c) Because he had so horribly offended against the Lorde, they did not bury him in the sepulchre of the kinges, but in the garden of the kinges house.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and raigned two yeeres in Hierusalem.

22 But he did euyl in the syght of the Lorde, like as did Manasses his father: for Amon sacrifyced to al the carued images whiche Manasses his father had made, and serued them, 23 And submitted not him selfe before the Lorde, as Manasses his father had humbled him selfe: but Amon trespassed greatlye.

2.king.21. 24 And his owne seruantes conspired against him, and slue him in his owne house.

25 But the people of the lande slue al them that had conspired against king Amon: and the same people of the lande made Iosias his sonne king in his roome.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

I. Iosias destroyeth the idols, 8. and restoreth the temple. 14. The booke of the lawe is founde.

A 1 IOsias was eyght yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, & he raigned in Hierusalem thirtie and one yeeres.

2.king.22.a 2 And he dyd that whiche was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the ryght hande nor to the leaft.

3 In the eyght yeere of his raigne, when he was yet a childe, he beganne to seeke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelfth yeere he beganne to purge Juda and Hierusalem from the hygh places, groues, carued images, & images of metal.

4 And they brake downe the aulters of Baalim euen in his (a) presence: and other images that were in greater honour then they, he caused to be destroyed: and the groues, carued images, and images of metal, he brake, and made dust of them, and strowed it vppon the graues of them that had offered vnto them.

(a) He would see the reformation with his owne eyes. 2.king.23.a

5 And he burnt the bones of the priestes vpon the aulters of them, and cleansed Juda and Hierusalem:

(b) The godly zeale of this good prince, is a woorthy example for al princes to folowe. 2.king.22.a 6 And so dyd he in the cities of Manasse, Ephraim, Simeon, vnto Nephthali, and in the wyldernesse of them rounde about.

7 He plucked a sunder the (b) aulters and the groues, and dyd beate the images, and stampe them to powder, and cut downe al the idols throughout al the land of Israel, and returned to Hierusalem agayne.

8 In the eyghteenth yeere of his raigne, when he had purged the land and the temple, he sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, and Maasiah the gouernour of the citie, and Joah the sonne of Joahaz the recorder, to repaire the house of the Lorde his God.

9 And when they came to Helkiah the high priest, they deliuered the money that was brought into the house of God, whiche the Leuites that keapt the entreys had geathered of the hand of Manasse and Ephraim, and of al that yet remayned in Israel, and of al Juda and Beniamin, and they returned to Hierusalem.

10 And they put it in the handes of the woorkemen that had the ouersyght of the house of the Lorde, & they gaue it to the labourers, that wrought in the house of the Lorde, to repayre and mende the house.

11 Euen to masons & carpenters gaue they it, to geat hewed stone, and timber, for couples, and for beames of the houses whiche the kinges of Juda had destroyed.

12 And the men dyd the woorke (c) vppon trust: and the ouerseers of them to courage them forward, were Jahath and Obadia, Leuites, of the children of Merari: and Sacharia and Mesullam of the children of the Caathites, and other of the Leuites, whiche al coulde skyl of instrumentes of musicke.

(c) Faythfull offycers.

13 And ouer the bearers of burdens, & ouer al that wrought in what so euer woorkemanship it were, were there scribes, officers, and porters of the Leuites.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into ỹ house of the lorde, Helkia the priest founde the booke of the lawe of the Lorde (geuen) by Moses.

2.king.22.b 15 And Helkia answeared and sayde to Saphan the scribe, I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan.

16 And Saphan (d) caryed the booke to the kyng, and brought the kyng woord againe, sayeing, Al that was committed to thy seruantes, that doo they.

(d) For the king was cõmaunded to haue continually a copie of his booke, & to reade therin day & night. Deut.xvii.c.

17 And they haue geathered togeather the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, & haue deliuered it into the handes of the ouerseers of the woorke, and to the handes of the woorkemen.

18 And then Saphan the scribe shewed the kyng, sayeing, Helkia the priest hath geuen me a booke: And Saphan read in it before the king.

19 And when the king had heard the woords of of the lawe, he (e) tare his clothes.

(e) For sorow that the word of God had ben so long suppressed.

20 And the king commaunded Helkia, and Ahikan the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, & Saphan the scribe, and Asaa a seruant of the kinges, sayeing,

D 21 Goe and enquire of the Lord for me, and for them that are leaft in Israel and Iuda, concernyng the wordes of the booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not keapt the worde of the Lorde, to doo after al that is wrytten in this booke.

22 And Helkia, and they that the king had (appoynted,) went to Hulda a prophetisse, the wyfe of Sallum the sonne of Thecuath, the sonne of Hasra, keeper of the wardrobe (for she dwelt in Hierusalem within the seconde wal) and so they communed with her.

23 She aunswered them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Tel ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Euen thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bryng euyl vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters thereof, euen al the curses that are wrytten in the booke whiche they haue read before the kyng of Iuda:

25 Because they haue forsaken me, & haue offered vnto other gods, to anger me with al manner woorkes of theyr handes: therefore is my wrath set on fire agaynst this place, and shal not be quenched.

26 And as for the kyng of Iuda which sent you to enquyre of the Lorde, so shal ye saye vnto hym, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, concernyng the woords which thou hast hearde,

(f) The ende of godsthreatenynges, is for our repentance.

27 Because thyne harte dyd (d) melt, and thou dyddest humble thee selfe before God, when thou heardest his woordes agaynst this place, and agaynst the inhabiters therof, and humbledst thee selfe before me, and taredst thy clothes, and dyddest weepe before me, I haue heard it also, sayth the lord.

E 28 Behold, I wyl take thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes shal not see al the mischeefe that I wyl bryng vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters of the same. And they brought the kyng woorde agayne.

2.king.22.a 29 Then the kyng sent, and geathered togeather al the elders of Iuda and Hierusalem:

30 And the kyng went vp into the house of the Lorde, and al the menne of Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and the priestes and Leuites, and al the people greate and smal, and (the kyng) did reade in their eares al the woordes of the booke of the couenant that was founde in the house of the Lorde.

31 And the kyng stood at his standyng, and made a couenant before the Lord, to folow the Lorde, and to keepe his commaundementes, his witnesses, and his statutes, with al his hart, and with al his soule, and to fulfyl the woordes of the couenant wrytten in the sayde booke.

32 And he set in theyr roome al them that were found in Hierusalem and Beniamin: and the inhabiters of Hierusalem dyd accordyng to the couenant of the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

33 And Iosias put away al manner of abominations out of al landes that parteyned to the chyldren of Israel, and (g) constrayned al that were founde in Israel, to serue the Lorde theyr God: and they turned not aside from the Lorde God of theyr fathers, as long he lyued.

(g) Because he hadde charge ouer al, and must answeare for euery one that perished, he thought it his duety to see that al should make profession to receiue the word of god.

The .xxxv. Chapter.

I. Iosias keepeth the Passeouer. 2. He setteth forth Gods seruice. 20. He fighteth agaynst the kyng of Egypt, and dyeth. 24. The people bewayle hym.

1 AND Iosias helde the (feast of) Passeouer vnto the Lorde in Hierusalem, & they (a) slue the Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the firste moneth.

A 2.king.23.a 3.Esd.1.a. (a) The scripture vseth in sundry places to cal the lambe the passeouer, whiche was but the signe of the passeouer, because in al sacramentes the signes haue the names of the thynges whiche are signified.

2 And he set the priestes in their offices, and ayded them in the seruice of the house of the Lorde,

3 And saide vnto the Leuites that taught al Israel, and were sanctified vnto the Lord, Put the holy arke in the house which Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng of Israel dyd builde, it shalbe no more a burden vpon your shoulders: but now serue the Lord your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare your selues by your ancient houshoulds and companies, accordyng to the wrytyng of Dauid kyng of Israel, and the wrytyng of Solomon his sonne:

5 And stande in the holy place, accordyng to the diuision of the ancient housholdes of your brethren the children of the people, and after the diuision of the ancient housholdes of the Leuites:

6 Kyl the Passeouer, and sanctifie your selues, & prepare your brethren, that they may doo accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde by the hande of Moses.

7 And Iosias gaue to the people, sheepe, lambes, and kyddes, al for the Passeouer, B and for al that were present, thirtie thousande by tale, and three thousand oxen: and these were of the kynges substance.

8 And

8 And his lordes gaue wyllyngly both vnto the people, and to the priestes, and vnto the Leuites: Helchia also, Zacharia, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the priestes for the Passeouer offerynges, two thousande and fiue hundred (sheepe) and three hundred oxen.

(a) Liberal prouision for the ministery

9 (a) Conania, Semeia, & Nathanael, his brethren, and Hasabiah, and Iehiel, and Iosabad, rulers of the Leuites, gaue vnto the Leuites Passeouer offerings, fiue thousand sheepe, and fyue hundred oxen.

10 And so the seruice was prepared, and the priestes stoode in theyr places, and the Leuites in theyr distinct companies, at the kynges commaundement:

11 And they slue the Passeouer, & the priestes sprinckled the (blood) with their hand, and the Leuites pulled of the skinnes of the beastes.

12 And they set away the whole burnt offerynges to geue them vnto the people that were diuided by ancient houses: and that they shoulde offer vnto the Lorde, lyke as it is wrytten in the booke of Moses: and so (dyd they) with the oxen also.

Leuit. 1. a. Exod. 12. b.

13 And they dressed the Passeouer with fire as the manner was: and the other dedicate beastes sodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, and diuided them speedyly among al the people.

¶ 14 And afterwarde they made ready for them selues, and for the priestes: for the priestes the children of Aaron (were busied) in offerynge of whole burnt offerynges, and the fat, vntyl nyght: therefore the Leuites prepared for them selues, & for the priestes the sonnes of Aaron.

1. Chr. 25. a. and. 26. d.

15 And the singers the chyldren of Asaph stoode in theyr standyng, accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, and Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, the kinges (b) Seer: and the porters wayted at euery gate, and myght not departe from their seruice: for their brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

(b) Meaning the prophet.

16 And so al the seruice of the Lorde was prepared the same day, to offer the Passeouer, and to offer whole burnt offerynges vpon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Iosias.

17 And the chyldren of Israel that were present, keapt the Passeouer the same time, and the feast of sweete bread, seuen dayes.

18 And there was no Passeouer like to that keapt in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the prophete, neyther dyd al the kynges of Israel hold such a Passeouer as did Iosias, and the priestes, and Leuites, and al Iuda and Israel that were present, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

19 This Passeouer was holden in the eighteenth yeere of the raigne of Iosias.

20 After al this, when Iosias had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came vp to fight agaynst Charcamis beside Euphrates: and Iosias went out agaynst him. 2. king. 23. f

21 Whiche sent messengers to hym, & sayd, What haue I to doo with thee, thou king of Iuda? Be not thou agaynst thee selfe this day, for my warre is agaynst another house, & God bade me make haste: leaue of therfore, and meddle not with God whiche is with me, lest he destroy thee.

D or, I comme not agaynst thee this day, but agaynst the house of mine enimie 22 Neuertheless, Iosias would not turne his face from hym, but rather tooke aduise to fight with hym, and hearkened not vnto the woordes of Necho, out of the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

or, changed his apparel to fight with hym.

23 And the shooters shot dartes at king Iosias: and the kyng sayde to his seruantes, Carry me away, for I am sore wounded.

24 His seruantes therefore had hym out of that charet, and put hym in another charet that they had: & when they had brought hym to Hierusalem, he dyed, and was buryed in the sepulchre of his fathers: and al Iuda and Hierusalem mourned for Iosias.

25 And Ieremias lamented Iosias, and al singing men, and singing women mourned for Iosias in theyr lamentations, to this day, and made the same lamentations an ordinance in Israel, and beholde, they are wrytten in the lamentations. Zacha. 12. a.

26 The rest of the actes of Iosias, and his goodnesse, as it is wrytten in the lawe of the Lorde, 27 And his sayeinges first & last, beholde, they are wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Israel and Iuda.

2 And Ioahaz was twentie and three yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned three monethes in Hierusalem.

3 And the kyng of Egypt put hym downe at Hierusalem, and condempned the lande in an hundred talentes of siluer, and a talent of golde.

4 And

4 And the kyng of Egypt made Eliakim his brother kyng, vpon Juda and Hierusalem, and turned his name to Joiacim: and Necho tooke Joahaz his brother, and caryed hym to Egypt.

5 Joiacim was twentie and fyue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem, and he did euil in the syght of the Lorde his God.

12 And he did euil in the syght of the Lorde his God, and humbled not hym selfe before Jeremi the prophete at the mouth of the Lorde.

13 And he rebelled agaynst kyng Nabuchodonosor, whiche had receiued an oth of him by God: but he was styfnecked, and to harde harted to turne vnto the Lorde God of Israel.

C 14 Moreouer, al the cheefe of the priestes, and the people, transgressed woonderfully after al manner of abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the lord, whiche he had halowed in Hierusalem.

15 And the Lorde God of their fathers sent Jere.25.a.
to them by his messengers, rysyng vp betymes, and sendyng: for he had compassion on his people, and on his dwellyng place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his woordes, and misused his prophetes, vntyl the wrath of the Lorde arose agaynst his people, and tyl there was no remedie.

17 And so he brought vpon them the kyng 2.Kin.25.a.

18 And al the vesselles of the house of God, both great and smal, and the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kyng, and of his lordes: al these caried he to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wal of Hierusalem, and burnt al the palaces thereof with fyre, and destroyed al the goodly iewelles thereof.

Xerxes the sonne of the sayd Darius succeeded him: but is not hers placed in the number of the monarchies, for that he left his kingdome to Darius longhand his sonne, (according to the custome of the Persians) when he went to warre against the Grekes. The Greke hystoriographers not respecting that custome, number the said Xerxes, & Cambyses aboue mẽtioned, among the sayde monarchies successiuely in order, whiche is the cause that they count more yeeres in the sayde monarchie, that is to saye. 226. yeeres.

As touchyng theyr confused names, ye shal vnderstande, that among the Persians, Darius signifieth, he that subdueth: Xerxes, a warriour: Artaxerxes, a greate warriour. Also, that this name Assuerus, is drawen from the Hebrues, in steade of Artaxerxes. Further, that Artaxerxes was the common name of al kynges of Persia, as Pharao was the common name of the kynges of Egypt, and Caesar, of the Romishe Emperours. Therefore where ye fynde many indifferently named Darius, or, Artaxerxes, or both togeather, that is the cause of the difficultie, howe to vnderstande vnder what kyng that happened, whiche is restyted in the sayde bookes of Esdras, Nehemias, Esther, Daniel, and other places of the holye Scriptures, except ye wel marke them, and wel vnderstande the contentes of this table.

The first Chapter.

1. Cyrus sendeth agayne the people that was in captiuitie, 8. and restoreth them theyr holy vessels.

A (a) After that he and Darius had won Babylon. 2.Chr.36 b Jerem.25.c

IN the (a) firste yeere of Cyrus kyng of Persia, (that the woord of the Lorde spoken by the mouth of Jeremie, myght be fulfilled) ꝑ Lord styred vp the spirite of Cyrus kyng of Persia, that he caused to be proclaymed throughout al his empire, and to be wrytten, sayeing,

2 Thus sayth Cyrus the kyng of Persia, The Lorde God of heauen hath geuen me (b) al the kyngdomes of the earth, & hath commaunded me to buyld hym an house at Hierusalem, whiche is in Juda.

(b) For he was cheefe monarche of the worlde, and had many nations vnder his dominion,

3 Whosoeuer nowe among you is of his people, the Lord his God be with hym, and let hym goe vp to Hierusalem in Juda, and buylde the house of the Lorde God of Israel, (he is the God) that is at Hierusalem.

4 And whosoeuer remayneth yet in anye manner of place, where he is a stranger, let the menne of that place helpe him with siluer and golde, with goods and cattel, beside that whiche they wyllyngly offer for the house of God that is at Hierusalem.

B 5 Then gate vp the principal fathers of Juda and Beniamin, and the priestes and Leuites, and al they whose spirite God had rayſed to goe vp, and to buylde the house of the Lorde whiche is at Hierusalem.

(c) The Babylonians & Chaldeans gaue them these giftes. Thus rather thé the children of god should want for theyr necessities, he would stirre vp the hartes of very infidels to helpe them.

6 And (c) al they that were about them, strengthed theyr hande with vessels of siluer and golde, with goodes, and cattel, and iewelles, besides al that was willingly offered.

7 And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of Hierusalem, and had put in the house of his God.

8 Those dyd Cyrus the kyng of Persia bryng forth by the hande of Mithridates the treasurer, and numbred them vnto (d) Sesbazer the prince of Juda.

(d) So the Chaldeans called Zorobabel, who was the cheefe gouernour: so that the preeminence still remayned in the house of Dauid.

9 And this is the number of them: thirtie chargers of golde, a thousand chargers of siluer, twentie and nyne knyues:

The.iii.Chapter.

1. The Israelites builde the aulter of God, 6. They offer to the Lorde. 7. They prepare for the temple, 11. and syng vnto the Lorde.

A 2.Esd.8.a. 1 AND when the seuenth moneth came, and the chyldren of Israel were nowe in their cities, the people came together as one man, to Hierusalem.

2 And there stoode vp Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and his brethren the priestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of (a) Salathiel, and his brethren, and builded the aulter of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offeringes theron, as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moses the man of God.

(a) That is the nephewe of Salathiel, for he was the sonne of Pedaia. Reade 1. Chro. iii. verse. xix.

3 And the aulter set they vpon his sockets: for there was a fearefulnesse among them, because of the people of those countreyes, therefore they offered whole burnt offeringes thereon vnto the Lord, (euen) whole burnt offerynges, mornyng and euenyng.

Exod. 23. verse. 16. 4 And they helde the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered whole burnt sacrifices dayly, according to the number and custome day by day.

5 Afterward they offred dayly whole burnt offerynges also, and in the newe moones, and in al the feast dayes that were consecrated vnto the Lorde, and al manner of freewil offeringes, which they did of their owne free wyl offer vnto the Lorde.

6 From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde: but the fundation of the temple of the Lorde was not yet layde.

B * or, woorkemen. 7 They gaue money also vnto the masons and * carpenters, and meate, & drinke, and oyle, vnto them of Sidon and of Tyre, to bryng the Cedar tymber from Libanus by sea vnto Joppa, according to the graunt that they had of Cyrus the kyng of Persia.

8 In the seconde yeere of their comming vnto the house of God at Hierusalem, in the seconde moneth, began Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and the remnant of their brethren, the priestes and Leuites, and al they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Hierusalem: and appoynted the Leuites from twentie yeeres olde, and aboue, to see that the woorke of the house of the Lorde went forwarde.

9 And Iosue stoode with his sonnes, and brethren, & Cadmiel, with his sonnes, and the chyldren of Iuda, as one man, to set forwarde the woorkemen of the house of God, the chyldren of Henadad, with their children, and their brethren the Leuites.

10 And when the builders layde the fundation of the temple of the Lord, they appointed the priestes in their * aray with trumpets, & the Leuites the chyldren of Asaph with cymbales, to prayse the Lorde after the " manner of Dauid kyng of Israel.

11 And they sang togeather when they gaue praise and thankes vnto the Lord, Because he is gratious, and because his mercy endureth for euer vpon Israel: And al the people showted loude in praising the Lord, because the fundation of the house of the Lorde was layde.

12 But many of the priestes and Leuites, and cheefe fathers, and auncient men, whiche had seene the firste house, when the fundation was layde before their eyes, (b) weapt with a loude voyce, and many showted aloude with ioy:

(b) Because they saw that it was nothing so glorious as that temple whiche Solomon had builte. Notwithstanding, Aggeus comforteth them, & prophesieth that it shalbe more beautiful then the first. Agge. 2, meaning, because Christ and his apostles shoulde preache the gospel, and worke miracles therein, 13 So that the people coulde not discerne the ioyful sounde and gladnesse, from the noyse of the weepyng among the people: for the people showted with a loude crye, and the noyse was heard farre of.

The.iiii.Chapter.

2 And they came to Zorobabel, and to the principal fathers, and sayd vnto them, We wyl builde with you, for we seeke the Lord your God, as ye doo, and we haue donne sacrifice vnto hym synce the tyme of Asor Haddon the kyng of Assur, whiche brought vs vp hyther.

3 And

God, and yet woorshipped idols also: & therefore were they great enimies to the Iewes.

3 And Zorobabel, and Iosue, and the other ancient fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them, It can not be that you and we togeather shoulde buylde the house vnto our God: for we our selues wyl buylde alone vnto the Lord our God of Israel, as Cyrus the king of Persia hath commaunded vs.

4 And the folke of the lande "discouraged the people of Iuda, and troubled them as they were buylding: "Heb. made their handes weake.

5 And hired counsellers agaynst them, to hinder their diuice, as long as Cyrus the kyng of Persia lyued, vntyl the raigne of Darius kyng of Persia.

6 And in the raigne of (b) Asuerus, at the begynnyng of his raigne, wrote they vnto hym a complaynt agaynst the inhabiters of Iuda and Hierusalem. (b) He was also called Artaxerxes, whiche is a Persian name, and signifieth an excellent warriour.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counsel, vnto Artaxerxes ỹ king of Persia, with fayre wordes: and the writing of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians: B

11 This is the tenure of the letter that they sent vnto king Artaxerxes, Thy seruantes, and the menne that are nowe beyonde the water, and in Cheeneth (salute thee.)

12 Be it knowen vnto the kyng, that the Iewes which came vp from thee to vs, are comme vnto Hierusalem, a citie seditious and frowarde, and buylde the same, and set vp the walles therof, & lay the fundations.

13 Be it knowen nowe vnto the kyng, that if this citie be buylded, & the walles made vp againe, then shal not they geue toule, tribute, and custome, and so they shal hynder the kinges tribute.

C 14 And now we remembryng that we were brought vp in the kynges pallace, & would no longer see the kinges dishonour, therfore sent we out also, and certified the king, 15 That it may be sought in the booke of the chronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the booke of the chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is seditious and noysome vnto the kynges and "landes, & that they cause other also among "or, prouinces. them to rebel of old: and for the same cause was this citie destroyed.

16 Therefore doo we certifie the king, that if this citie be buylded agayne, & the walles therof made vp, thou shalt hereafter haue no portion beyonde the water.

17 Then sent the kyng an answeare vnto Rehum the recorder & Samsai the scribe, and to the other of their companions that dwel in Samaria, and vnto the other that were beyonde the water "in Selam, and "Cheeth. "or, peace & saluation. "or, Cheneth.

18 The letter whiche ye sent vnto vs, hath benne openly read before me.

19 And I haue cõmaunded to make search, and it is founde that this citie of olde hath made insurrection against kinges, and that rebellion and sedition hath benne committed therein.

20 There haue benne mightie kynges also at Hierusalem, which haue raigned ouer al countreys beyonde the water: and toule, tribute, & custome was geuen vnto them.

21 Geue ye now therfore commaundement, D that the same menne be forbydden, and that the citie be not buylded agayne, tyl I haue geuen another commaundement.

22 Take heede nowe that ye be not negligent to doo this: for why shoulde the kyng haue harme thereby?

23 Nowe when the tenure of kyng Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Samsai the scribe, and their companions, they went vp in al the haste to Hierusalem vnto the Iewes, and forbade them with violence and power. (c) Not altogeather, for the prophets exhorted them to continue, cap. 5. verse. 1. but they vsed the lesse diligence, because of their troubles, 24 Then (c) ceassed the woorke of the house of GOD at Hierusalem, and continued so vnto the seconde yeere of Darius kyng of Persia.

I. Aggeus and Zachari doo prophecie. 3. The woorke of the temple goeth forwarde, contrary to the mynde of Thathanai. 6. His letters were sent to Darius.

1 THE prophetes Aggeus, and Zachari A the sonne of Iddo, prophecied vnto the Iewes that were in Iuda and Hierusalem in the name of the God of Israel.

2 Then gate vp Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and began to buylde the house of God at Hierusalem: and with them were the prophets of God, (a) whiche helped them. (a) Whiche encouraged them to goe forwarde.

3 At the same tyme came to them Thathanai, whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and their companions, and sayde thus vnto them, Who hath commaunded you to buyld this house, and to make vp these walles?

4 Then sayde we vnto them after this maner, What are the names of the menne that make this buyldyng?

(b) His fauoure and the spirite of strength.

5 But the (b) eye of their God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they coulde not cause them to ceasse, tyl the matter was brought to Darius: and then they answeared by letters thereunto.

6 This is the tenure of the letter that Thathanai whiche was captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and the counsailours of Apharsath, whiche were beyonde the water, sent vnto kyng Darius.

B 7 And the matter that they sent vnto hym, was witten thus within the letter, Unto Darius the king, al peace.

8 Be it knowen vnto the king, that we went into the prouince of Iurie to the house of the great GOD, whiche is buylded with mightie great stones, and beames are layde in the walles, and the woorke goeth fait foorth, and prospereth in their handes.

9 Then asked we the elders, and sayd vnto them thus, Who cōmaunded you to buylde this house, and to make vp the walles therof?

10 We asked their names also, that we myght certifye thee, and write the names of the menne the were their rulers.

16 Then came the same Sasbazar, & layde the fundation of the house of God which is at Hierusalem: Since that tyme also vntyl nowe hath it benne in buyldyng, and yet it is not fynished.

The. vi. Chapter.

I. At the commaundement of Darius king of Persia, after the temple was buylded and dedicate, the children of Israel keepe the feast of vnleauened bread.

5 And let the golde and syluer vessels of the house of GOD, whiche Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the temple at Hierusalem, and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, and brought agayne vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place, in the house of God.

6 Now therfore thou Thathanai captayne beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and your counsaylers, and Apharsechei, which are beyonde the water, geat ye away from them.

7 Let the woorke of the house of this God B alone, that the captayne of the Iewes and their elders may buylde the house of God in his place.

8 I haue commaunded what ye shal doo to the elders of Iuda for the buyldyng of the house of God, that of the kynges goodes, euen of the tribute beyonde the water, forthwith expences be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hyndred.

9 And

9 And yf they haue neede of calues, rams, and lambes for the whole burnt offering of the God of heauen, wheate, ſalt, wine, and oyle, after the cuſtome of the prieſtes at Hieruſalem, let the ſame be geuen them dayly, that there be no default:

10 That they may haue to offer ſweete ſauours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kinges lyfe, and for his chyldren.

11 And ſuch a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man ſoeuer he be that altereth this worde, there ſhal a beame be taken from his houſe, and ſet vp, and he ſhalbe hanged thereon, and his houſe ſhalbe made a dounghil for the ſame thyng.

12 And the God that ſet his name there, deſtroy al kinges & people that put to their hande to aulter and to breake downe this houſe of God whiche is at Hieruſalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be donne with ſpeede.

13 Then Thathanai the captayne (of the countrey) beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, with their counſaylours, accordyng to that which kyng Darius had ſent, ſo they dyd ſpeedyly.

℣ 14 And the elders of the Iewes buylded, and they proſpered through the propheciyng of Aggeus the prophete, & Zachari the ſonne of Iddo, and they buylded, and they finiſhed it accordyng to the commaundement of the God of Iſrael, and after the commaundement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes, kynges of Perſia.

15 And this houſe was finiſhed the thirde day of the moneth (a) Adar, euen in the (b) ſixt yeere of the raigne of kyng Darius.

(a) That is, the twelfth moneth, and conteyneth part of Februarie, and part of Marche.

16 And the chyldren of Iſrael, the Prieſtes, the Leuites, and the other chyldren of the captiuitie, held the dedication of this houſe of God with ioy.

(b) Whiche was the two and fourtie yeere after their firſt returne from Babylon.

17 And offred at the dedication of this houſe of God an hundred calues, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes: and for the reconciling of al Iſrael twelue hee goates, accordyng to the number of the tribes of Iſrael:

18 And ſet the prieſtes in their ſundry courſes, and the Leuites in their diuers offices, to miniſter vnto God at Hieruſalem, as it is written in the booke of Moſes.

19 And the chyldren of the captiuitie helde the Paſſeouer vppon the fourteenth day of the fyrſt moneth:

Num. 3. Deutr. 6. Num 8. Deutr. 9.

20 For the prieſtes and Leuites were purifyed altogether, and killed the Paſſeouer for al the chyldren of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the prieſtes, and for them ſelues.

21 And the chyldren of Iſrael whiche were comme agayne out of captiuitie, and al ſuche as had ſeparated them ſelues vnto them, from the fylthyneſſe of the heathen of the lande, to ſeeke the Lorde God of Iſrael, dyd eate, 22 And helde the feaſt of vnleauened bread ſeuen dayes with ioy: for the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the hart of the kyng of Aſſur vnto them, to ſtrengthen their handes in the woorke of the houſe of God, euen the God of Iſrael.

The. vii. Chapter.

I. By the commaundement of the kyng, Eſdras and his companyons come to Hieruſalem. 27. He geueth thankes to God.

1 AFter theſe thynges, there was in the raigne of (a) Artaxerxes kyng of Perſia, one Eſdras the ſonne of Saraia, the ſonne of Aſaria, the ſonne of Helkia,

(a) The Hebrues write that the kinges of Perſia were called by this name, as Pharao was a common name to the kinges of Egypt, and Cæſar to the Emperours of Rome.

2 The ſonne of Sallum, the ſonne of Zadoc, the ſonne of Ahitob,

3 The ſonne of Amaria, the ſonne of Aſaria, the ſonne of Meraioth,

7 And there went vp certayne of the chyldren of Iſrael, of the prieſtes, leuites, ſingers, porters, and of the Nethinims, vnto Hieruſalem, in the ſeuenth yeere of kyng Artaxerxes.

8 And he came to Hieruſalem in the fyfth moneth, euen in the ſeuenth yeere of the kyng.

9 For vpon the fyrſt day of the fyrſt moneth, begaunne he to goe vp from Babylon: and on the fyrſt day of the fyfth moneth came he to Hieruſalem, accordyng to the (c) good hand of his God (that was) vpon him.

(c) Accordyng to the fauour and mercy of god,

10 For Eſdras prepared his hart to ſeeke the lawe of the Lorde, and to doo it, and to teache the preceptes and iudgementes in Iſrael.

11 And this is the tenure of the letter that kyng Artaxerxes gaue vnto Eſdras the prieſt, and ſcribe, whiche was a wryter of the woordes and commaundementes of the Lorde, and of his ſtatutes ouer Iſrael.

12 Artaxerxes king of kinges, vnto Eſdras the prieſt and ſcribe of the lawe of the God of heaueu, peace and ſalutation.

13 I haue cõmaunded that al they of the people of Iſrael, and of the prieſtes & Leuites in my realme, whiche are mynded of their owne good wyl to goe vp to Hieruſalem, goe with thee.

¶ 14 And therefore art thou ſent of the kyng and of his ſeuen counſailers, to viſite Iuda and Hieruſalem, accordyng to the lawe of thy God, whiche is in thy hande:

15 And that thou ſhouldeſt take with thee ſiluer and golde, whiche the king and his counſaylers offer of their owne good wyll vnto the God of Iſrael, whoſe habitation is at Hieruſalem:

16 And al the ſiluer and gold that thou canſt fynde in al the * countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of their owne good wyl, and the prieſtes geue wyllyngly for the houſe of their GOD whiche is at Hieruſalem:

* or, prouince.

17 That thou mayſt buy diligently with the ſame money, oxen, rammes, and lambes, with their meate offeringes and drinke offeringes, and thou ſhalt offer them vppon the aulter of the houſe of your God whiche is at Hieruſalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to doo with the remnant of the ſyluer and golde, that doo after the wyl of your God.

19 And the veſſels that are geuen thee for the miniſtration in the houſe of thy God, thoſe deliuer thou before God at Hieruſalem.

20 And whatſoeuer thing more ſhalbe needful for the houſe of thy God whiche is neceſſary for to ſpende, thou ſhalt receiue the charges out of the kinges treaſure houſe.

21 I king Artaxerxes haue commaunded al
D the treaſures beyond the water, that looke what ſo euer Eſdras the prieſt and ſcribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requireth of you, that ye fulfyll the ſame ſpeedyly,

1. King. 7. d. 2. Chro. 2. d. vearſe. 10.

22 Vntil an hundred talentes of ſyluer, and tyl an hundred quarters of wheate, and tyl an hundred battes of wine, and til an hundred battes of oyle, and ſalt without meaſure.

23 Whatſoeuer alſo is the commaundement of the God of heauen, let the ſame be done without any delay for the houſe of the god of heauen, that he be not wroth agaynſt the realme, and agaynſt the kyng and his chyldren.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to require taxing and cuſtome, and yeerely rentes, vpon any of the prieſtes, leuites, ſingers, porters, Nethinims, and miniſters in the houſe of his God.

25 And thou Eſdras, after the wyſedome of thy God, that is in thyne " hande, ſet iudges and arbitrers (by my authoritie) to iudge al the people that is beyonde the water, euen al ſuche as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, thoſe ſee that ye teache.

" or, minde.

26 And who ſo euer wyl not fulfyl the lawe of thy God, and the kynges lawe, let hym haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in priſon.

27 Bleſſed be the Lorde God of our fathers, whiche ſo had inſpired the kinges hart, to garnithe the houſe of the Lorde that is at Hieruſalem: 3. Eſd. 8. a.

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto me in the preſence of the king and his counſaylers, and before al the kinges hygh eſtates: and I was comforted euen as the hande of the Lorde my God was vppon me, and ſo geathered I the heades of Iſrael togeather, that they myght goe vp with me.

3 Of the chyldren of Zechania, among the chyldren of Pharos, Zachari, and with hym were numbred an hundred and fyftie menne.

4 Of the children of the captayne of Moab, Elioenai the ſonne of Zerahia, and with hym two hundred menne.

5 Of the chyldren of Zechania, the ſonne of Iahaſiel, and with him three hundred menne.

6 Of the chyldren of Adin, Abed the ſonne of Ionathan, and with him fyftie menne.

7 Of the chyldren of Elam, Eſaias the ſonne of Athalia, and with hym ſeuentie menne.

8 Of the chyldren of Saphatia, Zebadia the B ſonne of Michael, and with hym fourescore menne.

9 Of the chyldren of Ioab, Obadia the ſonne of Iehiel, and with hym two hundred and eyghteene menne.

10 Of the children of Selomith, the ſonne ofIoſaphia, and with him an hundred and threeſcore menne.

11 Of

11 Of the chyldren of Bebai, Zachari the ſonne of Bebai, and with hym twentie and eyght menne.

12 Of the chyldren of Aſgad, Johanan the ſonne of Hakatan, & with hym an hundred and tenne menne.

13 Of the chyldren of Adonicam that were the laſt, whoſe names are theſe: Elipheket, Jehiel, and Samaiah, & with them three-ſcore menne.

C 14 Of the chyldren of Biguai, Uthai, and Zabud, and with them ſeuentie menne.

15 And I geathered them togeather by the water-that runneth towarde Ahaua, and there abode we three dayes: and I looked among the people and the prieſtes, & founde there none of the chyldren of Leui.

16 Then ſent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zacharia, and to Meſullam, the rulers, and to Joiarib and Elnathan, whiche were menne of vnderſtanding.

17 And to thoſe gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the cheefeſt at Caſphia, and I told them what they ſhould ſay vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Caſphia, that they ſhoulde cauſe the miniſters of the houſe of our God to comme vnto vs.

or, and I ſent vnto.

18 And through the good hande of our God vpon vs, they brought vs a very wyſe man from among the chyldren of Moholi the ſonne of Leui the ſonne of Iſrael, and Sarabia with his ſonnes & his brethren, euen eyghteene.

19 And Haſabia, and with him Eſaias of the chyldren of Merari, with his brethren, and their ſonnes, twentie.

20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to miniſter vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: whiche al were named by name.

D 21 And euen there at the water beſyde Ahaua I proclaymed a faſt, that we myght humble our ſelues before our god, and ſeeke of him a ryght way for vs, and for our chyldren, and for al our ſubſtance.

22 For I was aſhamed to require of the kyng ſouldiers and horſemen, to helpe vs againſt the enimie in the way: for we had ſpoken vnto the kyng, ſayeing, The hand of our God is vpon al them that ſeeke hym in goodneſſe, and his power and wrath is againſt al them that forſake hym.

23 So we faſted, and beſought our God for this, and he was intreated of vs.

24 And I tooke out twelue of the cheefe prieſtes, Sarabia, and Haſabia, and tenne of their brethren with them,

25 And waied them the ſyluer and golde, & veſſels that were appoynted for the houſe of our God, whiche the kyng and his counſaylers, & his lordes, and al Iſrael that were there at hande, had geuen togeather.

26 And I waied vnto their hand fyre hundred and fiftie talentes of ſyluer, and in ſiluer veſſels an hundred talentes, and in golde an hundred talentes:

27 Twentie baſons of golde of a thouſand (a) drams, and two coſtly veſſels of good braſſe, as cleare as golde.

(a) A dram is the eyght part of an ounce.

28 And I ſayd vnto them, Ye are conſecrate vnto the Lorde, lyke as the veſſels are holy alſo: and the golde and ſyluer are geuen of a good wyl vnto the Lorde God of your fathers. E

29 Watche ye, and keepe them: for ye ſhal way them downe before the cheefe prieſtes, and Leuites, and ancient fathers of Iſrael at Hieruſalem, in the treaſuries of the houſe of the Lorde.

30 Then tooke the Prieſtes and Leuites the waied ſyluer and golde, and veſſels, to bring it to Hieruſalem vnto the houſe of our God.

31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahaua on the twelfth day of the firſt moneth, to goe vnto Hieruſalem: and the hande of our GOD was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hande of the enimies, and of ſuche as layde wayte for vs by the way.

32 And we came to Hieruſalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 But on the fourth day was the ſyluer and golde and veſſels waied in the houſe of our God by the hande of Meremoth the ſonne of Uria the prieſt, & with hym was Eleazar the ſonne of Phinehes, and with them was Joſabad the ſonne of Joſue, and Noadia the ſonne of Bennoi, the Leuites.

34 Accordyng to the number and weyght of euery one, was the waight al written vp at the ſame tyme.

35 And the chyldren of the captiuitie, which were comme out of captiuitie, offred whole burnt offeringes vnto the God of Iſrael, twelue bullockes for al Iſrael, ninety & fiue rammes, ſeuenty and ſeuen lambes, twelue hee goates for ſinne (offring) al to the whole burnt offeryng of the Lorde. F

36 And they deliuered the kynges commiſſion vnto the kynges officers, and to the captaynes (that were) beyonde the water: and they promoted the people, and the houſe of God.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. Eſdras complayneth on the people that had turned them ſelues from God, and maryed with the gentiles. 6. He prayeth vnto God.

A 1 When these thinges were done, the rulers came to me, and sayde, The people of Israel, and the priestes and Leuites are not separated from the people of the lands, as touching their abominations: namely of ỳ Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

2 For they haue taken the daughters of the same to them selues and to their sonnes, and the holy seede is mixed with the nations of the landes, and the hand of the princes and rulers hath benne principal in this trespasse.

3.Esd.8.c

3 And when I hearde this sayeing, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt of the heare of my head and of my beard, and sate * mourning.

* or, sate downe astonyed.

4 And there resorted vnto me al suche as feared the woordes of the God of Israel, because of the trangression of the (people) of the captiuitie: And I sate * mourning vntyl the euenyng sacrifice.

Exod.29. verse.39. Num.28. verse.3.

5 And about the euenyng sacrifice I arose vp from my heauynesse, & rent my clothes and my rayment, and fel vpon my knees, and spread out my handes vnto the Lorde my God,

B 6 And sayde, My God, I am ashamed, and dare not lyft vp myne eyes vnto thee my GOD: for our wickednesses are growen ouer our head, and our trespasse is waxed great vnto the (a) heauen.

(a) They so exceede, that they can growe no greater. Deut. 18.d. 2.Chr.32.b 1.king.24.d

7 Since the tyme of our fathers haue we benne in great trespasse vnto this day, and because of our wickednes haue we and our kynges and our priestes benne deliuered into the hande of the kynges of the nations, vnto the swoorde, into captiuitie, into a spoyle, and into confusion of face, as (it is to see) this day.

8 And nowe for a litle space grace hath ben shewed from the Lord our God, in causing a remnant to escape, and in geuyng vs (b) a nayle in his holy place, that our God may lyght our eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe, to take breath in our bondage:

(b) That is, a restyng place: it is a similitude taken of the that remayne styl in a place Esai.22. verse.23.

9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercy vnto vs in the syght of the kyng of Persia, to geue vs lyfe to set vp the house of our God, and to redresse the desolation thereof, and to geue vs a walle in Iuda and Hierusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shal we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, 11 Whiche thou hast commaunded by thy seruantes the prophetes, sayeing, The land vnto whyche ye goe to possesse, it is an vncleane land, because of the fylthynesse of the people of the landes, which with their abominations haue made it ful of vncleannesse on euery syde.

Exod.23. verse.32.

12 Therfore shal ye not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, & their daughters shal ye not take vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their peace and wealth for euer: that ye may be strong, and * enioy the goodnesse of the lande, and that ye and your chyldren may haue the inheritance of it for euermore.

* or, pardoned our iniquities.

(c) That is, hast not vterly cast vs downe, and destroyed vs for our sinnes. Deut.28. verse.13.

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry towardes vs, tyl thou hadst consumed vs, so that there shoulde be no remnant, nor any escaping?

15 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remayne yet escaped, as (it is yet to see) this day: Behold also, in thy presence are we in our trespasses, and because of it may we not stande before thee.

The.x. Chapter.

I. The people repent and turne, and put away their strange wyues.

A 1 AND when Esdras prayed after this manner, and (a) knowledged, weapt, and lay before the house of God, there resorted vnto hym out of Israel a verye great congregation, of menne, and women, and chyldren: and the people weapt very sore.

(a) His sinnes & the sinnes of the people

2 And Sechania the sonne of Iehiel, one of the chyldren of Elam, answered, and sayde vnto Esdras, We haue trespassed agaynst our God, and haue taken strange wyues of the people of the lande: Yet nowe there is (b) hope in Israel concernyng this thyng.

(b) Meaning that Israel may repent, and God receiue them to mercy.

3 For nowe we wyl make a couenant with our God, and put away al the wyues and suche as are borne of them, accordyng to the counsel of the Lorde, and of those that feare the commaundementes of our God, that we may doo accordyng to the lawe.

4 Geat thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we also wyl be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and doo it.

5 Then arose Esdras, and tooke an othe of the cheefe priestes and Leuites, and of al Israel, that they shoulde doo accordyng to this woorde: and they sware.

3.Esd.9.a.

6 And

6 And Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliasib: and when he came thyther, he did eate no bread, nor drinke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of the people that had ben in captiuitie.

B 7 And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Juda and Hierusalem, vnto al them of the captiuitie, that they should geather them selues togeather vnto Hierusalē:

8 And that who so euer came not within three dayes, according to the deuice of the rulers and elders, al his substance shoulde be forfayted, and he should be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then al the men of Juda and Beniamin, geathered them selues togeather vnto Hierusalem, within three dayes, euen ỹ twentieth day of the ninth moneth, & al the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled, because of this matter, and for the rayne.

10 And Esdras the priest stoode vp, and said vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wyues, to make the trespasse of Israel yet more.

Deut. 7. a. Jud. 3. a.

* or, geue prayse.

11 * Confesse nowe therefore vnto the Lord God of your fathers, and doo his pleasure: and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the strange wynes.

12 And al the congregation answeared, and sayde with a loude voyce, It shalbe so, and we wyl doo as thou hast sayde.

C 13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, and the people are to faynt to tary without in the streete, neyther is this a woorke of one day or two: for * we haue offended very soare in this thyng.

* or, we are many that haue offended in this thyng.

14 Let our rulers stande therefore in al the congregation, and let al them which haue taken strange wyues in our cities, comme at the time appoynted, and let the elders of euery citie & their iudges be with them, til the fierce wrath of our god for this matter be turned from vs.

15 Then were appoynted Jonathan the sonne of Asahel, and Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: and Mesullam and Sabathai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuitie did euen so: and Esdras the priest, and the auncient heads through the house of their fathers, al menne of great fame separated them selues, and sate them downe in the fyrst day of the tenth moneth, to examine ỹ matter.

17 And vntil the fyrst day of ỹ fyrst moneth, they were finishing the businesse, with all the men that had taken strange wyues.

18 And among the children of the priestes, there were menne founde that had taken strange wiues: namely among ỹ children of Iosue the son of Iosedec, & of his brethren, Maasia, and Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedalia.

19 And they gaue their handes, that they woulde put away their wyues: and they that hadde trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespasse.

20 And among the children of Immer: Hanani, and Zebadia.

21 Among the children of Harim: Maasia, Elia, Semeia, Jehiel, Ozias.

25 And of (c) Israel: among the children of Pharos, Remeia, Iesia, Melchia, Miamin, Eliezer, Melchia, and Banaiah.

(c) Meanyng of the common people: for before he spake of the priestes.

5 And ſayde, O Loꝛde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, thou that keepeſt couenant & mercie foꝛ them that loue thee, and obſerue thy commaundementes:

Dan. 9. a. Exod. 20. a. Deut. 7. b.

6 Let thyne eares hearken, I beſeeche thee, and let thyne eyes be open, that thou mayſt heare the pꝛayer of thy ſeruant, whiche I nowe pꝛay befoꝛe thee day and nyght, foꝛ the thyldꝛen of Iſrael thy ſeruantes, and knowledge the ſinnes of the childꝛen of Iſrael, whiche we haue ſinned againſt thee: both I and my fathers houſe haue ſinned.

7 We haue greeuouſly ſinned againſt thee, and haue not keapt thy commaundements, ſtatutes, and iudgementes, whiche thou

8 I beſeeche thee call to remembꝛance the woꝛde that thou commaundedſt thy ſeruant Moſes, and ſaydeſt, Ye wyl tranſgreſſe, & I wyl ſcatter you abꝛoade among the nations.

9 But yf ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commaundementes, and doo them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vttermoſt part of heauen, yet wil I geather you from thence, and wyl bꝛyng you vnto the place that I haue choſen to ſet my name there.

10 They are thy ſeruantes and thy people whom thou haſt deliuered thꝛough thy great powꝛ, and in thy myghty hande.

11 O Loꝛde, I beſeeche thee, let thyne eare hearken to the pꝛayer of thy ſeruant, and to the pꝛayer of thy ſeruantes, whoſe deſire is to feare thy name: and let thy ſeruant pꝛoſper this day, and graunt him mercie in the ſyght of (b) this man. Foꝛ I was the kynges Butler.

(b) That is of king Artaxerxes.

The. ii. Chapter.

I. After Nehemias had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, II. he came to Hieruſalem, 17. and buylded the walles.

1 IN the moneth (a) Niſan, in the twentieth yeere of kyng Artaxerxes, the wine ſtood befoꝛe him: and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the kyng: and I had not benne befoꝛe heauy in his pꝛeſence.

(a) Whiche was the firſt moneth of the yere, and conteyneth parte of March and part of April.

2 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, Why lookeſt thou ſo ſadly, ſeeing thou art not ſicke? It is nothyng els, but that thou art heauy harted. And I was ſoare afrayde,

3 And ſayde vnto the kyng, God ſaue the kyng foꝛ euer: howe ſhoulde I not looke ſadly, when the citie & place of my fathers buryals lye waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fyꝛe?

4 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, What is then thy requeſt? I made my pꝛayer alſo to the God of heauen,

5 And ſayd vnto the kyng, If it pleaſe the kyng, and if thy ſeruant haue found fauour in thy ſyght, ſend me vnto Juda, vnto ỹ citie of my fathers buryals, ỹ I may build it.

6 And the kyng ſayde vnto me (the queene ſitting by hym,) Howe long ſhal thy iourney continue, and when wylt thou comme agayne? And it pleaſed the kyng to ſende me, and I ſet hym a tyme,

7 And ſayde vnto the king, If it pleaſe the king, let hym geue me letters to the captaynes which are beyonde the water, that they may comay me ouer, til I come into Juda:

B

8 And letters vnto Aſaph the Loꝛde of the kings wood, that he may geue me tymber, to make beames foꝛ the gates of the palace whiche is harde by the houſe, and foꝛ the walles of the citie, and foꝛ the houſe that I ſhal enter into. And the kyng gaue me acꝛoꝛdyng to the " hande of my God whiche was good vpon me.

" oꝛ, fauour.

9 And

9 And when I came to the captaynes beyonde the water, I gaue them the kynges letters: and the kyng had ſent captaynes of the armie, and horſemen with me.

10 Sanaballat alſo the Horonite, and Tobia a ſeruant the Ammonite, hearde of it, and it greeued them ſore that there was comme a man whiche ſought the wealth of the chyldren of Iſrael.

11 And I came to Hieruſalem, & was there three dayes.

12 And I gate me vp in the nyght ſeaſon, & a fewe menne with me, neyther tolde I any man what God had geuen me in my hart to do at Hieruſalem: & there was not one beaſt with me, ſaue it ỹ I rode vpon.

13 And I departed in the night by the valley porte, before the dragon wel, & to the doung porte, and conſydered the walles of Hieruſalem, howe they were broken downe, and the portes thereof conſumed with fyre.

14 And I went ouer vnto the wel porte, & to the kynges * conduit, and there was no roome for the beaſt that was vnder me to paſſe.

15 Then went I in the nyght by the brooke ſide, and conſydered the wal, and turned backe, and came home agayne by the valley porte.

16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went, or what I dyd, neyther dyd I as yet tel it vnto the Iewes, to the prieſtes, to the noble menne, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the woorke.

17 Afterwarde ſayde I vnto them, Ye ſee the miſerie that we are in, howe Hieruſalem lyeth waſte, and howe the gates thereof are burnt with fire: comme therfore and let vs buyld vp the wal of Hieruſalem, and that we be no more a rebuke.

18 Then I tolde them of the hande of my God, that it was gratious ouer me, and the kynges woordes that he had ſpoken vnto me: and they ſayde, Let vs geat vp, and buylde. And they (b) ſtrengthed their handes to good.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, & Tobia the ſeruant an Ammonite, and Geſem the Arabian hearde it, they laughed vs to ſcorne, and deſpiſed vs, and ſayd, What is this that ye doo? Wyl ye * fal (c) away from the kyng?

20 Then anſwered I them, and ſaid, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs proſperitie, & we his ſeruantes wyl geat vp and buylde: as for you ye haue no portion, nor ryght, nor remembrance in Hieruſalem.

* or, ſiſhe poole.

(b) They wer encouraged, and gaue them ſelues to do wel, & to trauayle in this woorthy enterpriſe.

* or, rebel.

(c) Thus the wicked whē they wyl burden the children of god, euer lay treaſō vnto their charge, both becauſe it maketh thē moſt odious to the world, and alſo ſtirreth the hatred of princes moſte againſt them.

The. iii. Chapter.

The number of them that buylded the walles.

1 AND Eliaſib the hygh prieſt, gate hym vp with his brethren the prieſtes, and they buylded the ſheepe gate, they repayred it, and ſet vp the doores of it: euen vnto the towre Mea (a) repayred they it, and vnto the towre of Hananeel.

2 Next vnto hym alſo buylded the menne of Iericho: and beſide him buylded Zachur the ſonne of Amri.

3 But the fiſhe porte dyd the chyldren of Aſnaa buylde, whiche alſo layde the beames thereof, and ſet on the doores, lockes, and barres of it.

14 But the doung porte buylded Melchiah the ſonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Bethacharem: he repayred it, and ſet on the doores, lockes, and barres thereof.

(a) In Hebrue, they ſanctified it, that is, they finiſhed it, & ſo dedicated it to the lord by prayer, in deſiring him to maintaine it.

(b) The ryche and mighty woulde not obey them whiche were appoynted officers in this worke, neither wold they helpe thereunto.

* or the ſurchanters ſonne.

15 But

15 But the wel gate repayred Sallum the sonne of Cholhoſah, the ruler of the fourth parte of Miſpah: he buylded it, and cou-ered it, and ſet on the dores, lockes, & barres thereof: and the wal vnto the ſiſhe poole Siloah by the kinges garden, and vnto the ſteppes that goe downe from the citie of Dauid.

16 After hym buylded Nehemias the ſonne of Aſbok, the ruler of the halfe parte of Bethzur, vntyl the other ſide ouer agaynſt the ſepulchres of Dauid, and to the ſiſhe poole that was repaired, and vnto the houſe of the myghtie.

17 After hym buylded the Leuites, Rehum the ſonne of Bani: and next vnto him buyl-ded Haſabia the ruler of the halfe parte of Keilah in his quarter.

18 After hym buylded their brethren Banai the ſonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah.

19 And after hym buylded Ezer the ſonne of Joſue, the ruler of Miſpah, the other peece, hard ouer agaynſt the goeyng vp to the houſe of ordinance (that was) in ỹ corner.

20 Againe, after hym brake foorth Baruch the ſonne of Zachai, of (c) indignation, and repayred the other peece from the turnyng corner, vnto the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib the hygh prieſte.

(e) Agaynſt hym ſelfe, conſydering his owne ſlackneſſe.

21 After hym alſo buylded Merimoth the ſonne of Uria, the ſonne of Haccos, the other peeece, from the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib, euen as long as the houſe of Eliaſib extended.

(d) Whiche dwelt in the plaine countrey by Iordane and Iericho, and yet had houſes in Hieruſalem.

22 After hym buylded the prieſtes, the (d) men of the playne.

23 After hym buylded Beniamin and Haſub, ouer agaynſt theyr houſe: and after hym wrought Aſaria the ſonne of Maaſia, the ſonne of Anania, by his houſe.

24 After him alſo builded Bennui the ſonne of Henadad, the other peece, from the houſe of Azaria, vnto the turnyng (of the wal,) and vnto the corner.

25 After hym buylded Pala the ſonne of Uſai, ouer agaynſt the corner, and the high towre which lieth out ouer from the kinges houſe that was beſide the court of the priſon:
after him, Phadaia the ſonne of Pharos.

1. Eſd. 2. verſe. 43.

26 As for the Nethinims, they dwelt in the ſtrong holde, vnto the water gate, toward the Eaſt, and to the towre that lyeth out.

27 After hym buylded they of Thecua the other peece, ouer agaynſt the great towre that lyeth outwarde, vnto the wal of the ſtrong holde.

28 But from aboue the horſe gate foorth, buylded the prieſtes, euery one ouer againſt his houſe.

29 And after them buylded Zadoc the ſonne of Immer, ouer agaynſt his houſe: after hym buylded alſo Semeia the ſonne of Sechania, the keeper of the Eaſt gate.

30 After hym buylded Hanania the ſonne thinims, and of the Marchantes, ouer agaynſt the gate Mephkad, and to the parlour in the corner.

32 And betweene the parlour of the corner, vnto the ſheepe gate, buylded the goldeſmythes and the Marchantes.

The. iiii. Chapter.

7. The buyldyng of Hieruſalem is hyndered.
15. But God breaketh theyr enterpriſe.
17. The Iewes buylde with one hande, and holde theyr weapon in the other.

1 BUT when Sanaballat heard that we A buylded the wal, he was wroth in him ſelfe, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the Iewes:

2 And ſayde before his brethren, and the ſouldiers of Samaria, What doo theſe impotent Iewes? * wyl the (heathen) ſuffer them? ſhal they offer? ſhal they perfourme it in one day? ſhal they make the ſtones whole agayne, that are brought to duſt, and brent?

* or, wyl they fortifie them ſelues.

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beſide hym, and ſayde, Though they buylde, yet yf a fox goe vp, he ſhal breake downe their ſtonie wal.

4 Heare, O thou our God, for we are deſpi-ſed, turne their ſhame vppon their owne head, and geue them ouer * into deſpiſing in the lande of their captiuitie.

* or, for a praye.

5 (a) Couer not their wickednesse, and let not their ſinne be put out in thy preſence:
for they haue prouoked the buylders.

(a) Let thy plagues declare to the worlde, that they ſet them ſelues againſt thee and thy church: thus he prayeth only, hauyng reſpecte to gods glory, and not for any priuate affection or grudge.

6 And ſo buylded we the wal, and it was ioyned whole togeather vnto the halfe heyght thereof: and the people were mynded to labour.

7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Aſdodites, heard that the walles of Hieruſalem were made vp, and that the breaches beganne to be ſtopped, they were very wroth,

8 And conſpired altogeather to comme and fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem, and to make an
* hynderance therein.

Heb. Make a ſtay.

9 Neuertheleſſe, we made our prayer vnto our

our God, and ſet watchemen by them day and nyght, becauſe of them.

10 And Juda ſayd, The ſtrength of the bearers is feeble, and there is yet much more moter, and we are not able to buylde on the wal.

11 And our aduerſaries ſayd, They ſhal not knowe, neyther ſee, tyl we come in the mides among them, and ſlay them, and cauſe the woorke to ceaſſe.

12 But when the Iewes (which dwelt beſide them,) came, they tolde vs (b) tenne tymes, that in al places where ye goe vnto, they are appoynted to fal vpon vs.

(b) That is, often tymes.

13 Therefore ſet I the people after theyr kynredes, with theyr ſwordes, ſpeares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behynde the wal, vpon the toppes of the ſtones.

C 14 And I looked, and gate me vp, and ſaid vnto the cheefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afrayd of them: but thynke rather vpon the great lord whiche ought to be feared, and fight for your brethren, your ſonnes, your daughters, your wyues, and your houſes.

2. Eſd. 1. b. and. 9. f.

15 Neuertheleſſe, when our enimies hearde that we had gotten word of it, God brought theyr counſayle to nought: and we turned al agayne to the wal, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the ſpeares, ſhieldes, bowes, and breaſtplates, and the rulers (ſtoode) (c) behynde al the houſe of Juda.

(c) To ouerſee them, & to encourage them in their woorke.

17 They whiche builded on the wal, and they that bare burdens, and thoſe that laded them, with one hande did euery one his woorke, & with the other helde his weapon.

18 For euery one that buylded, had his ſworde gyrded by his thigh, and ſo builded they: And he that blewe the trumpet, was beſyde me.

19 And I ſayde vnto the principal men, to the rulers, and to the other people, The woorke is great and large, and we are ſeparated vpon ỹ wal one farre from another.

20 Looke in what place therefore ye heare the noyſe of the trumpet, reſort ye thyther vnto vs, and our God ſhal fyght for vs:

D 21 And we wyl be labouryng in the woorke. And the halfe parte of them helde theyr ſpeares, from the morning ſpryng, tyl the ſtarres came forth.

22 And at the ſame tyme, ſayde I vnto the people, Let euery one with his ſeruãt lodge within Hieruſalem, that in the night ſeaſon we may watche, & labour on the day time.

23 As for me, and my brethren, my ſeruants, and the men of the watche whiche folowed me, we put neuer of our clothes, ſaue only becauſe of the waſhyng.

The. v. Chapter.

I. The people are oppreſſed, and in neceſſitie. 7. Nehemias forbiddeth vſurie.

1 AND there aroſe a great complaynt of the people and theyr wiues, agaynſt theyr brethren the Iewes.

A

2 For there were ſome that ſaid, Our ſonnes, and daughters, & we, are very many: therefore wyl we take corne for them, that we may eate and liue.

3 Some alſo there were that ſayde, Let vs ſet our landes, vineyardes, and houſes to pledge, and take vp corne in the dearth.

4 But ſome there were that ſayd, We haue borowed money for the kynges tribute, and that vpon our landes and vineyardes.

5 And now our fleaſhe is as the (a) fleaſhe of our brethren, & our chyldren as their chyldren: and loe, we bryng into ſubiection our ſonnes, & our daughters, as ſeruantes, & ſome of our daughters are ſubdued vnto bondage alredy, and no ſtrength is there in our hands to redeeme them, and other men haue our landes and vineyardes.

(a) That is, although we are of the kynrede and ſtocke that our rulers be of: yet they not regarding our neceſſitie, doo take our children & lands to gage: and ſo bring vs in like bondage as our brethren which remayne ſtyl in the captiuitie.

6 And when I hearde theyr complaynte, and ſuche woordes, it diſpleaſed me ſoare.

7 And I aduiſed ſo in my mynde, that I rebuked the counſaylers, and the rulers, and ſayde vnto them, Euery one of you taketh vſurie of his brother. And I brought a (b) great congregation agaynſt them,

(b) Or multitude of people, either becauſe they ſhoulde be moued with pitie, or els aſhamed, ſeeyng howe many were oppreſſed by them, & alſo might heare the iudgement of others, which ſhoulde be as it were witneſſes of their cruel dealing towarde their brethren.

8 And ſayde vnto them, We after our abilitie haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, whiche were ſolde vnto the heathen: and wil you ſel your brethren agayne? and ſhal they be ſolde vnto vs? Then helde they theyr peace, and coulde fynde nothyng to anſweare.

9 And I ſayde, It is not good that ye doo: ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, becauſe of the (c) rebuke of the heathen that are our enimies?

(c) Who by this occaſion wyl blaſpheme the name of god, ſeeyng that our doynges are no better then theyrs.

10 I, and my brethren, and my ſeruantes, do lende them money and corne: I pray you let vs leaue of this vſurie.

11 Therefore, this ſame day, I pray you, ſee that ye reſtore them theyr lands againe, theyr vineyardes, olyue gardens, and theyr houſes, and remit the hundred parte of the money, of the corne, wine, and oyle, that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then ſayd they, We wyl reſtore them agayne, & wil require nothing of them, and wyl doo as thou haſt ſpoken. And I called the prieſtes, and tooke an othe of them, that they they shoulde doo accoꝛding to this pꝛomise.

13 And I shooke my lappe, and sayde, God shake out euery man after the same maner from his heuse and labour, that mayntey-neth not this wooꝛd, euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And al the congregation sayd, Amen, and pꝛayseꝺ the Loꝛd: And the people ꝺyꝺ accoꝛꝺyng to this pꝛomise.

¶ 14 And from the time fooꝛth that the (king) committed vnto me to be captayne of them that were in the lande of Juda, euen from the twentieth yeere, vnto the thirtie & two yeere of king Artaxerxes, that is twelue yeres, I with my bꝛethꝛen liued not of such sustenance as was geuen to a captayne.

15 Foꝛ the olde captaynes that were befoꝛe me, had ben chaꝛcheable vnto the people, and had taken of them bꝛead and wine, beſyde fourtie sicles of syluer, yea and their seruantes had oppꝛessed the people: but so ꝺyꝺ not I, and that because of the feare of God.

" oꝛ, but rather I foꝛtified a poꝛtion in the wooꝛke of this wal.

16 " But I laboured also in the wooꝛke vpon the wal, and we bought no lande: and al my seruantes came thyther togeather vnto the wooꝛke.

17 Moꝛeouer, there were at my table an hunꝺꝛed and fiftie of the Jewes and rulers, whiche came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.

18 And there was pꝛepaꝛed foꝛ me ꝺayly an oxe and sixe choſen sheepe, and biꝛdes were pꝛepaꝛed foꝛ me: & euer once in tenne ꝺayes wine foꝛ al in abundance: Yet requiꝛed not I the " lyuyng of a captayne, foꝛ the bondage was gꝛeeuous vnto the people.

" oꝛ, bꝛead.

2.Esd.6.d 19 Thynke vpon me my God vnto the best, accoꝛꝺyng to al that I haue donne foꝛ this people.

The.vi. Chapter.

8. Nehemias answeareth with great wisedome & zeale to his aduersarie. 11. He is not discouraged by the false propheres.

¶ 1 AND when Sanaballat, Tobia, & Gesem the Arabian, and the other of our enimies heard, that I had builded the wal, and that there were no moe " gappes therein: (howbeit, at the same tyme, had I not hanged the dooꝛes vpon the gates,)

" oꝛ, bꝛeaches.

2 Sanaballat and Gesem sent vnto me, saying, Come, that we may meete and take counsel togeather in the villages that are in the playne of the citie Dno. Neuertheleſſe, they thought to doo me euyl.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a gꝛeat busineſſe to do, & I can not come downe: Why should the wooꝛke ceaſſe, whileſt I leaue it, and come downe to you?

4 Howbeit, they sent vnto me foure tymes after the same maner: and I gaue them the same answeare.

5 Then sent Sanaballat his seruant againe vnto me the fifth tyme, with an open letter in his hande.

6 Wherin was wꝛitten, It is told the heathen, and Gesem hath sayde it, that thou and the Jewes thinke to rebel: foꝛ the whiche cause thou buildeſt the wal, that thou mayeſt be theyꝛ kyng, accoꝛꝺyng to theſe (a) wooꝛdes:

(a) As the same goeth. B

7 And hast oꝛdeyned the pꝛophets to pꝛeach of thee at Hieꝛusalem, & to say, He is king of Juda. And nowe shal this come to the kynges eares: come nowe theꝛefoꝛe, and let vs take our counsel togeather.

8 And I sent vnto hym, sayeing, There is no such thyng donne as thou sayeſt, foꝛ thou faygneſt them of thyne owne hart.

9 Foꝛ they were al mynded to make vs afrayde, saying, They shal withꝺꝛaw theyꝛ handes from theyꝛ wooꝛke, that it shal not be finished: Now theꝛfoꝛe, stꝛengthen thou my hande.

10 And I came vnto the house of Semaia the sonne of Delaia, the sonne of Mehetabeel, and he had shut hym selfe within, and sayde, Let vs come togeather in the house of God, euen vnto ẏ middeſt of the temple, and shut the dooꝛes of the temple, foꝛ they wyl come to slay thee, yea euen in the night wil they come to put thee to death.

11 And I sayde, Shoulde any such man as I, flee? Who is, that beyng as I am, wyl goe into the temple to saue his lyfe? I wyl not goe in.

12 And loe, I pꝛeceiued that God had not sent hym, but that he pꝛonounced this pꝛophecie agaynst me: foꝛ Tobia and Sanaballat had hyꝛed him foꝛ money.

13 Theꝛefoꝛe was he hyꝛed, that thꝛough feare I shoulde so doo, and sinne, that they myght haue an euyl repoꝛt of me, to lay to my charge.

14 My God, thinke thou vpon Tobia, and Sanaballat, accoꝛꝺyng vnto theſe theyꝛ wooꝛkes, and on the pꝛophetisse Noadia, and the other pꝛophetes that woulde haue put me in feare. ¶

15 And the wal was finished in the twentie and fifth ꝺay of the moneth (b) Elul, in (c) fiftie and two ꝺayes.

(b) Whiche was the sixth moneth, and conteyneth part of Auguſt, & part of Septeber.

16 And when al our enimies heard theꝛof, al the heathen that was about vs, were afraid, & their courage fayled them: foꝛ they pꝛeceiued that this wooꝛke came of our god.

(c) After that I had sent Sanaballat his answeare

17 And at the same tyme were there many of ẏ cheefe of Juda, whoſe letters went vnto Tobia, & agayne from Tobia vnto them.

18 Foꝛ

18 For there were many in Juda that were ſworne vnto hym: for he was the ſonne in lawe of Sechania the ſonne of Arah, and his ſonne Johanan had the daughter of Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia.

19 And they ſpake good of hym before me, and tolde hym my woordes: and Tobia ſent letters to put me in feare.

The.vii. Chapter.

1. After the wal once buylded, is the watch appoynted. 6. They that returned from the captiuitie are numbred.

A Eccle.49.b

1 NOwe when the wal was buylded, I hanged on the * doores alſo, and the Porters, Singers, and Leuites, were appoynted:

* or, gates.

2 And I commaunded my brother Hanani, and Hanania the * ruler of the caſtle at Hieruſalem, (for he was a faithful man, & feared God more then dyd many other,)

* or, prince of the palace.

3 And I ſayd vnto them, Let not the gates of Hieruſalem be opened, vntyl the ſunne be whot: and whyle they ſtand by, let them ſhut the doores, and barre them. And we appoynted certayne citizens of Hieruſalem, to be watchemen, euery one to keepe his watch, and euery one to be ouer againſt his houſe.

4 As for the citie, it was large of roome, & great, but the people were fewe therein, and the houſes were not buylded.

The. viii. Chapter.

2. Esdras gathereth togeather the people, and readeth the lawe to them.

1 AND al the people gathered them selues togeather as one man, in ỳ streete that was before the water gate, and they sayde vnto Esdras the scribe, that he should fetche the booke of the lawe of Moses, whiche the Lorde commaunded to Israel.

A 1. Esd. 3. &. 1. Esd. 7. verse. 6. Deut. 31.

2 And Esdras the priest brought the lawe before the congregation, both of men, and women, and al that coulde vnderstand, ỳ hearken vnto it, vpon the first day of the seuenth moneth.

3 And he read therein in the streete that was before the water gate, from ỳ morning vntyl vntil the woone day, before men and women that dyd hearken to it: and the eares of al the people were (inclined) vnto the booke of the lawe.

4 And Eſdras the ſcribe ſtoode vpon a pulpet of wood whiche they had made for the preaching, and beſyde him ſtoode Matthathia, Sema, and Anaiah, Uriah, Helkia, and Maaſeiah, on his ryght hande: and on his leaft hande ſtoode Pedaia, Miſael, and Melchia, and Haſum, Haſabadana, Zachari, and Meſullam.

5 And Eſdras opened the booke before al the people, (for he ſtoode aboue al the people:) and when he opened it, al the people ſtoode vp.

6 And Eſdras prayſed the Lorde the great God: and al the people anſwearedAmen, Amen, liftyng vp theyr handes, and bowed them ſelues, and wooꝛſhypped the lord, falling downe vpon theyr faces to the ground.

B 7 And Joſue, Bani, Serebia, Jamin, Accub, Sebethai, Hodaia, Maaſia, Celita, Azariah, Joſabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites cauſed the people to gene heede vnto the lawe: and the people ſtoode in theyr place.

Nehe.7. verſe. 65. 8 And they read in the booke of the law of God diſtinctly, and gaue the ſenſe, and cauſed them to vnderſtande the readyng.

9 And Nehemias, which is Athirſatha, and Eſdras the prieſt & ſcribe, and the Leuites that cauſed the people to take heede, layde vnto al the people, This day is holy vnto the Lorde your God, be not ye ſoꝛry, and (a) weepe not. For al the people wept when they hearde the wooꝛdes of the lawe.

(a) The Leuites do not reproue thé for mourning for their ſinnes, but aſſure them of gods mercies, for as muche as they are repentant.

10 And he ſayde vnto them, Goe your way, and eate the fat, and dꝛynke the ſweete, and ſende parte vnto them alſo that haue not prepared for them ſelues: for this day is holy vnto our Lord: be not ye ſoꝛry therfoꝛe, for the ioy of the Lorde is your ſtrength.

11 And the Leuites ſtylled al the people, and ſayd, Holde your peace, for the day is holy, be not ſad therefoꝛe.

12 And al the people went theyr way to eate, and to dꝛynke, and to ſend part vnto other, and to make great mirth, becauſe they had vnderſtande the wooꝛdes that were declared vnto them.

13 And on the next day were geathered togeather the cheefe fathers among al the people, and the prieſtes, and Leuites, vnto Eſdras the ſcribe, that they myght vnderſtande the wooꝛdes of the lawe.

C Leuit. 23.f 14 And they found wꝛitten in the law which the lord had commaunded by Moſes, that the chyldꝛen of Iſrael ſhoulde dwel in boothes in the feaſt of the ſeuenth moneth:

15 And that they ſhoulde cauſe it to be declared and proclaymed in al theyr cities, and throughout Hieruſalem, ſayeing, Goe fooꝛth vnto the mount, and fetche Olive bꝛanches, Pine bꝛanches, Myrtel bꝛanches, Paulme bꝛanches, and bꝛanches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is wꝛytten.

16 And ſo the people went fooꝛth, and fet them, and made them boothes, euery one vpon the rooke of his houſe, and in theyr courtes, and in the courtes of the houſe of God, and in the ſtreete by the water gate, and in the ſtreete of the pooꝛte of Ephꝛaim.

17 And al the congregation of them that were come agayne out of the captiuitie, made boothes, and ſate vnder the boothes: for ſynce the tyme of Joſua the ſonne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the chyldꝛen of Iſrael (b) donne ſo: and there was very great gladneſſe.

(b) That is, were not ſo vniuerſally geathered togeather as one man, as verſe. 1.

18 And euery day from the fiꝛſte day, vnto the laſt, read Eſdras in the booke of the lawe of God: and ſeuen dayes helde they the feaſt, and on the eight day they geathered togeather, accoꝛding vnto the manner.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. The people repent, and forſake theyr ſtrange wiues. 5. The Leuites exhorte them to prayſe God.

1 IN the twentie and fourth day of (a) this moneth, came the chyldꝛen of Iſrael togeather agayne, with faſtyng, and ſackeclothes, and earth vpon them.

(a) Meanyng the ſeuenth moneth, as Chap. 8. verſe. 2.

2 And they that were of the ſeede of Iſrael, were ſeparated from al the ſtrange chyldꝛen, and ſtoode, and knowledged theyr ſinnes, & the wyckednelle of theyr fathers:

3 And ſtoode vp in theyr place, and read in the booke of the lawe of the Lorde theyr God foure tymes on the day, & they knowledged, and wooꝛſhypped the Lorde theyr God foure tymes (on the day.)

4 Then ſtoode vp vpon the ſtayres of the Leuites, Joſue, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabaniah, Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed londe vnto the Lorde theyr God:

5 And the Leuites, Joſue, and Cadmiel, Bani, and Haſabnia, Serebiah, & Hodia, Sebania, and Phathahia, ſaid, Stand vp, and prayſe the Lorde your God for euer, and let thankes be genen vnto the name of thy glory, whiche excelleth al thankes geuyng and prayſe.

6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou haſt made heauen, and the heauen of al heauens, with al their hoſt, the earth, and al thinges that are therein, the ſea, and al that is therein, and and thou preseruest them al, and the host of heauen woorshyppeth thee.

B 7 Thou art, O Lord, the God that hast chosen Abram, and broughtest hym out of Ur in Chaldea, and calledst him Abraham:

Gen.11. verse.31. Gen.17. verse.5. Gen.15.

8 And foundest his hart faythful before thee, and madest a couenant with hym, to geue vnto his seede the land of the Chananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Jebusites, and Gergesites, and hast made good thy woordes: for thou art righteous, Exod.3.d.

9 And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and hearde their complaynt by the red sea,

10 And shewed tokens and woonders vpon Pharao and al his seruantes, and on al the people of his lande: for thou knewest that they were presumptuous and cruel against them: and so madest thou thee a name, as it is this day.

Exod.14. verse.22.

11 And the (red) sea diddest thou diuide in sunder before them, so that they went thorow the middest of the sea * drye shod: and their persecuters threwest thou into the deepe, as a stone in the mightie waters:

* or, on drye lande.

Exod.13. verse.21.

12 And leddest them on the day time, in a cloudie piller, and on the nyght season, in a piller of fyre, to shewe them lyght in the way that they went.

Exod.19.a. Exod.20. verse.1.

13 Thou camest downe also vpon mount Sinai, & spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgements, true lawes, good commaundementes, and statutes:

C 14 And declaredst vnto them thy holy sabboth, and commaundedst them preceptes, ordinances, and lawes, by the hand of Moses thy seruant:

Exod.16.b. Exod.17.d. Deut.1. verse.8.

15 And gauest them bread from heauen, when they were hungrye, and broughtest foorth water for them out of the rocke, when they were thirstie, & promisedst them that they shoulde goe in, and take possession of the land ouer which thou haddest lift vp thyne hande for to geue them.

16 But they, and our fathers, were proude and hardnecked, so that they followed not thy commaundementes:

17 And would not obey, neyther were mindful of the woonders that thou diddest for them: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heades to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O GOD of mercies, gratious, and ful of compassion, of long sufferyng, and of great mercy, yet forsookest them not.

Exod.32. verse.4. Exod.13.b. Num.14. verse.14. 1.Cor.10. verse.2.

18 Moreouer, when they had made them a moulten calfe, and sayde, This is thy god that brought thee out (of the lande) of Egypt, and dyd blasphemies:

19 Yet forsookest thou them not in the wyldernesse, according to thy great mercies: and the cloudie piller departed not from them on the day time to leade them the way, neither the piller of fyre in the night season, to shew them lyght in the way by whiche they shoulde goe. Exod.16.d.

20 And thou gauest them thy good spirite to enfourme them, and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, and gauest them water when they were thirstie. Exod.17.d.

21 Fourtie yeeres long diddest thou feede them in the wyldernesse, so that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not olde, and their feete swelled not. D Deut.8.b

22 And thou gauest them kyngdomes and nations, and diddest (b) scatter them into corners: so they possessed the lande of Sehon, and the lande of the kyng of Hesbon, and the lande of Og kyng of Basan. (b) Meanyng the heathen, Num.21.f

23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, & broughtest them into the lande whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers, that they shoulde goe into it, and haue it in possession.

24 And the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the lande, euen the Chanaanites, & gauest them into their handes, with their kynges, and the people of the lande, that they might do with them what they woulde. Iosue.2.a.

25 And they wan their strong cities, and a fatte lande, and tooke possession of houses that were ful of al manner of goodes, * welles dygged out, vineyardes, oliue gardens, and many fruitful trees, and they did eate, & were filled, & became fat, and liued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse. * or, cisternes.

26 Neuertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled agaynst thee, and cast thy law behind their backes, and slue thy prophets, * whiche exhorted them earnestly, that they might bryng them agayne vnto thee, and dyd great blasphemies. 2.Chro.24. * or, whiche protested among them to turne them to thee.

27 Therefore thou gauest them ouer into the hand of their enimies that vexed them, and in the tyme of their trouble when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and through thy great mercy thou gauest them sauiours, whiche helped them out of the hande of their enimies.

28 But when they came to reast, they turned backe agayne, to do euyl before thee: therefore leauest thou them in the hande of their enimies, so that they had the dominion ouer them: and when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and many tymes hast thou deliuered them, according to thy great mercie,

29 And * testifyedst vnto them, that thou myghtest bring them agayne vnto thy law: notwithstandyng they were proude, and hearkened not vnto thy cõmaundementes, but sinned * in thy lawes, whiche if a man doo, he shal lyue in them: and (c) turned the shoulder away, and were stifnecked, and wouldo not heare.

30 Yet many yeeres dyddest thou forbeare them, and * testifyedst vnto them through thy spirite by the hande of thy prophetes, and yet wouldo they not heare: therefore gauest thou them into the hande of the nations of the landes.

31 And for thy great mercies sake thou hast not vtterly consumed them, neyther forsaken them: for thou art a gratious and mercyful God.

32 Now therfore our God, thou great God, myghtie and terrible, thou that keepest couenant and mercie, regard not a litle al the trauayle that hath comme vnto vs, and our kynges, our princes, our priestes, our prophetes, and our fathers, and al the people since the tyme of the kynges of Assur, vnto this day.

33 And truely thou art iust in al that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast donne ryght: as for vs, we haue benne vngodly.

34 And our kynges, and our princes, our priestes, and our fathers haue not donne thy law, nor regarded thy commaundementes, and thy * earnest exhortations wherewith thou hast * exhorted them.

35 And they haue not serued thee in their kyngdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou gauest them, and in the large and * plenteous lande whiche thou gauest before them, and haue not conuerted from their wicked woorkes.

36 Beholde, we are in bondage this day, and so is the land that thou gauest vnto our fathers to eate the fruites and goodnesse thereof, beholde there are we bondmen.

37 And great is the increase of it vnto the kinges, whom thou hast set ouer vs because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes and cattayle, euen as they wyl them selues: and we are in great trouble.

38 Nowe because of al this, make we a sure couenant and write it, and our princes, Leuites, and priestes seale vnto it.

38 The other quier of them that gaue thankes, went ouer againſt them, and I after them, and the halfe part of the people vpon the wall beyonde the Furnace gate, vnto the bzode wall, 39 And beyonde the pozt of Ephzaim, and beyonde the olde gate, beyonde the fyſhe gate, and the towze of Hananeel, and the towze of Mea, euen vnto the Sheepe gate, and they stoode stil in the * pzyson gate.

40 And so stoode the two quiers of them that gaue thankes in the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me:

41 And the prieſtes, namely Eliakim, Maaſia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zachari, and Hanania, with trumpettes:

44 At the same tyme were the men appoynted ouer the treasure houses, wherein were the heaue offeringes, the fyzstlinges, and the tithes, that they shoulde geather them out of the seeldes about the cities, to distribute them vnto the prieſtes and Leuites accozdyng to the lawe: foz Juda was glad of the prieſtes and Leuites that serued. 2. The .xiii. Chapter.

1. The lawe is read. 3. They separate from them al strangers. 30. An ordinance to serue god.

1 AND that day dyd they reade in the booke of Moses in the audience of the people, and therein was founde written, that the Ammonites and Moabites shoulde neuer come into the congregation of God: A Num. 22. vearse. 5. Deut. 23. vearse. 3.

2 Because they met not the chyldzen of Israel with bzead and water, but hyzed Balaam againſt them that he shoulde curse them: and our God turned the curse into a blessing. Num. 22. vearse. 5.

3 Nowe when they had heard the law, they separated from Israel euery one that had * mixt hym selfe therein.

* or, strangers.

4 And before (a) this had the prieſt Eliasib the ouerseyght of the treasurie of the house of our GOD, and he was kinseman vnto Tobia,

(a) That is, before the chyldren of Israel had separated the strangers from among them

5 And had made him a great chamber, and there had they afore tyme layed the offeringes, frankencense, vessels, and the tithes of cozne, wine, and oyle, whiche was commaunded to be geuen to the Leuites, singers, and pozters, and the heaue offeri..ges of the prieſtes.

6 But in al this (tyme) was not I at Hierusalem: for in the two & thirtie yeere of Artaxerxes kyng of Babylon came I vnto the kyng, and after certayne dayes obteyned I licence of the kyng to come to Hierusalem.

B 7 And I gate knowledge of the euyl that Eliasib did for Tobia, in that he had made hym a chamber in the court of the house of God.

8 And it greeued me sore: therefore I cast foorth al the vessels of the house of Tobia out of the chamber:

9 And commaunded them to cleanse the chambers, and thyther brought I agayne the vessels of the house of GOD, with the meate offering, and the incense.

10 And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites had not benne geuen them, & that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites & singers that executed the worke.

11 Then reproued I the rulers, & said, Why is the house of God forsake? And I geathered them together, & set them in their place.

12 Then brought al Juda the tythes of corne, and wyne, & oyle, vnto the treasures.

13 And I made treasurers ouer the treasure, Selemiah the priest, and Zadoc the scribe, and of the Leuites, Phadaia: & vnder their hande was Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Matthania: for they were counted faythful, and their office was to distribute (the portions) vnto their brethren.

C 14 Thinke vpon me, O my God herein, and wype not out (b) my " mercy that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the officers thereof.

15 And the same tyme saw I in Juda somme treading wine presses on the Sabboth, and bryngyng in sheaues, and whiche laded asses also with wyne, grapes, and fygges, and al burdens, & brought them into Hierusalem vpon the Sabboth day: and I rebuked them earnestly the same day that they solde the victuales.

16 There dwelt menne of Tyre also therein, whiche brought fyshe and al manner of ware, and solde on the Sabboth vnto the chyldren of Juda in Hierusalem.

17 Then reproued I the rulers in Juda, and sayde vnto them: What euyl thing is this that ye doo, and breake the Sabboth day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought al this plague vpon vs, and vpō this citie? and ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabboth?

19 And when the portes of Hierusalem began to be (c) darke in the euening before the Sabboth, I cōmaunded to shut the gates, and charged that they should not be opened tyl after the Sabboth: and somme of my seruantes set I at the gates, that there should no burdē be brought in on the Sabboth day.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchantes once or twise ouer nyght without Hierusalem with al manner of wares.

21 Then reproued I them sore, and sayde D vnto them, Why tary ye al nyght about the walle? If ye doo it once agayne, I wyl lay handes vpon you: from that tyme foorth came they no more on the Sabboth.

22 And I sayde vnto the Leuites, that they shoulde cleanse them selues, and that they shoulde comme & keepe the gates, to halow the Sabboth day: Thinke vpon me, O my God concernyng this also, and spare me according to thy great mercy.

23 In those dayes also sawe I Iewes that maryed wyues of Asdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their chyldren spake halfe in the speache of Asdod, & could not speake in the Iewes language, but according to the language of the one people and of the other people.

25 Then I reproued them, and (d) cursed them, & smote certayne men of them, and " made them bare: & tooke an othe of them by God, Ye shal not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shal ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, or for your selues.

(d) That is, dyd excommunicate them, or dryue them out of the congregatiō. " or, plucat of their heare.

26 Dyd not Solomon the kyng of Israel sinne by these thinges? and yet among many Heathen was there no kyng lyke hym, whiche was deare vnto his God, and God made hym kyng ouer al Israel: and yet neuertheless outlandishe women caused hym to sinne. 1. King. 4. b. 1. King. 11. a 27 Shal we then obey vnto you, to doo al this great euyl, and to transgresse agaynst our God, and marrie strange wyues?

28 And one of the chyldren of Iehoiada the E sonne of Eliasib the hygh priest, was the sonne in lawe of Sanaballat the Horonite: but I chased hym from me.

29 O my God, thinke thou vpon them that defile the priesthod, and the couenant of the priesthod and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from al suche as were outlandishe, and appoynted the courses of the priestes and Leuites, euery one in his office:

31 And to offer the wood at times appointed, and the first fruites: Thynke thou vpon me, O my God, for the best.

(b) He protesteth that he dyd his duetie with a good conscience, yet he iustifieth not him selfe herein, but desireth God to fauoure him, and to be mercyful vnto hym for his owne goodnesse sake, as verse, 22. " or, kindnesse.

(c) About the time that the sonne went downe, for the Sabboth lasted from the sunne going downe of the one day, to the sunne setting of the other.

The fyrst Chapter.

3. Kyng Ahasuerus maketh a royal feast. 10. Whereunto the queene Vasthi wyl not comme. 19. For whiche cause she is put away. 20. The kynges decree touching the preeminence of man ouer his wyfe.

1 N the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus whiche raigned from India vnto Ethiopia ouer an hundred & twentie and seuen prouinces.)

2 In those dayes when the kyng Ahasuerus sate on his seate (a) royal, whiche was in the palace of Susan:

(a) That is, had rest and quietnesse.

3 In the thirde yeere of his raigne, he made a feast vnto al his princes and seruantes: and the mightie menne of Persia and Media, the captaynes also and rulers of his countreys were before hym.

4 And he shewed the richesse and glory of his kingdome, and the glorious worshyp of his greatnesse many dayes long, an hundred and fourescore dayes.

5 And when these dayes were expired, the kyng made a feast vnto al the people that were in the palace of Susan, both vnto great & smal, seuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kynges palace,

6 Where there hanged white, greene, and * yelowe clothes, fastened with cordes of fyne sylke and purple in siluer ringes, vpon pyllers of marble stones: the * benches also were of golde and syluer made vpon a pauement of * greene, white, yelowe, and blacke marble.

* or, blewe, or violet coloured clothes.
* or, beds, or tables.
* or, porphyre, marble, alabaster, & blewe colour.

7 And they dranke in vessels of golde, and changed vessel after vessel, and royal wyne in abundance, according to the power of the kyng.

8 And the drinkyng was by an order, none might compel: for so the kyng had appoynted to al the officers of his house, that they shoulde doo according to euery mans pleasure.

B

9 And the queene Vasthi made a feast also for the women in the palace of Ahasuerus.

10 And on the seuenth day when the kyng was mery after the wyne, he commaunded Mehuman, Bizetha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the seuen chamberlaynes that dyd seruice in the presence of kyng Ahasuerus, 11 To fetche the queene Vasthi with the crowne regal into the kynges presence, that he myght shewe the people and princes her fayrenesse: for she was beautiful.

12 But the queene Vasthi wouldе not come at the kinges word by his chamberlaynes: then was the kyng very wroth, and his indignation kindled in hym.

13 And the kyng spake to the wyse menne which (b) knewe the tymes (for so was the kynges manner towardes al that knew the lawe and the iudgementes:

(b) That is, whiche were learned men, and knewe the lawes & actes of their elders in tymes past.

14 And the next vnto hym were, Carsena, Sethar, Admata, Tharsis, Mares, Marsena, and Memuchan, the seuen princes of Persia and Media, whiche (c) sawe the kynges face, and sate the fyrste in the kyngdome.)

(c) Whiche were his cheefe counselers, and might haue alwayes accesse vnto hym.

15 What, shal we doo vnto the queene Vasthi according to the lawe, because she dyd not according to the worde of the kyng Ahasuerus whiche he commaunded by his chamberlaynes?

16 And Memuchan answeared before the kyng and the princes, The queene Vasthi hath not onely donne euyl against the king, but also agaynst al the princes, and agaynst al the people that are in al the prouinces of king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene shal comme abroade vnto al women, so that they shal despise their husbandes before their eyes, and shal say, The kyng Ahasuerus commaunded Vasthi the queene to be brought in before hym, but she wouldе not comme.

18 And so shal the princesses in Persia and Media say lykewyse this day vnto al the kynges princes when they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shal there aryse to muche dispitefulnesse and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there goe a commaundement from hym, and let it be written according to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi comme no more before kyng Ahasuerus, and let the king geue her royal estate vnto another that is better then she.

20 And when this commaundement of the king which shalbe made, is published throwout al his empire, whiche is great, al women shal holde their husbandes in honour none both among great and small.

21 This sayeing pleased the king and the princes, and the king did accordyng to the woorde of Memuchan.

22 For he sent letters foorth into al the kinges prouinces, into euery lande accordyng to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man should be lorde in his owne house: and this to be published after the language of his people.

The. ii. Chapter.

2. After the queene is put away, certayne young maydens are brought to the kyng.
14. Esther pleaseth the king, and his made queene.

1 AFter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe * alayed, he thought vpon Vasthi, and what she had donne, and what was decreed agaynst her.

* or, appeased.

2 Then said the kinges seruantes that ministred vnto him, Let there be faire young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoynt officers in al the prouinces of his empire, that they shoulde bryng togeather al the faire young virgins vnto the palace of Susan to the womans * buildyng, vnder the hande of Hegai the kinges chamberlayne that kept the women, to geue them * their apparel.

* or, house.
* or, things for purification. ver. 12.

4 And that the mayden whiche pleased the king, shoulde be queene in Vasthis steade. And this pleased the king, and he dyd so.

5 In the palace of Susan there was a certayne Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Iemini,

6 Whiche was caryed away from Hierusalem with the captiuitie, when Iekonia the kyng of Iuda was led away, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caryed thence:

2. king. 24. & Iere. 24. a.

7 And he nourished Hadassa (that is Esther,) his vncles daughter: for she had neyther father nor mother, and she was a faire and beautiful mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father & mother were dead) receaued for his owne daughter.

8 So when the kinges commaundement and commission was published, and many maydens were brought togeather into the palace of Susan vnder the hand of Hegai, Esther was brought also vnto the kinges house vnder the hande of Hegai the keeper of the women.

9 And the mayden pleased him, & she founde fauour in his sight: and he caused * ornamentes to be geuen her speedyly, and suche thinges as belonged to her, and appoynted her seuen comely maydens out of the kings house, * and fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singularly in the house of the women.

* or, her thinges for purification.
* or, and he gaue change to her, and to her maides, of the best in the house of the women.

10 But Esther shewed not her people and her kinrede: for Mardocheus had charged her, that she shoulde not tel it.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, that he might knowe howe Esther did, and whas shoulde become of her.

12 And when the appoynted time of euery mayden came, that she shoulde goe in to the king Ahasuerus, after that she had benne twelue monethes accordyng to the manner of ỹ women (for so were ỹ daies of their purifycation accoplished, sixe monethes with oyle of myrrhe, & sixe monethes with sweete odours, and in the purifying of the women:

13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) what so euer she required, that must be geuen her, to goe with her out of the (a) womens * buyldyng vnto the kinges palace.

(a) There were three houses appoynted for women: one for virgins, another for concubines, the thirde for queenes.
* or, house.

14 In the euenyng she went, and on the morowe she returned into the seconde house of the women (abidyng) vnder the hande of Saasgaz the kinges chamberlayne, which keapt the concubines: and she came in vnto the king no more, except it pleased the kyng to haue her, and that she were called by name.

15 Nowe when the course came of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardochens (whiche had receiued her as his owne daughter) that she should comme in vnto the kyng, she desyred nothing but what Hagai the kinges chamberlayne the keeper of the women sayde: and Esther founde fauour in the syght of al them that looked vpon her.

16 And Esther was taken vnto kyng Ahasuerus into his house royal, in ỹ tenth moneth (whiche is the moneth (b) Tebeth) in the seuenth yeere of his raigne.

(b) Whiche conteyneth part of December, and part of Ianuarie.

17 And the king loued Esther aboue all the women, and she founde grace and fauour in his syght, more then al the virgins, so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her queene in stead of Vasthi.

18 And the king made a great feast vnto al his princes and seruantes, which feast was because of Esther, and caused the prouinces to be in (c) quietnesse, and gaue gifftes as became the royaltie of a kyng.

(c) He released their tribute.

19 And when the virgins were geathered together the second time, Mardochens sate in the kinges gate.

20 And as yet had not Esther shewed her kinrede and her people, accordyng as Mardocheus had bidden her: for Esther dyd after the worde of Mardocheus, lyke as yf she had benne yet vnder his gouernance.

21 At the same time (whyle Mardocheus sate in the kinges gate) two of the kynges chamberlaines, Bigthan & Theres, which keapt the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay their handes on the king Ahasuerus:

22 Whereof also Mardocheus gate knowledge, and tolde it vnto queene Esther, and Esther certifyed the kyng thereof in Mardocheus name.

23 And when inquision was made, it was founde so, and they were both hanged on tree: and it was written in the Chronicles before the kyng.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. Haman after he was exalted, obteyned of the kyng, that al the Iewes shoulde be put to death, because Mardocheus had not donne him worshipp as other had.

1 After these actes dyd kyng Ahasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, and set hym on high, and set his seate aboue al the princes that he had with hym.

2 And al the kynges seruantes that were in the kinges gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the kyng had so commaunded concernyng hym: but Mardocheus (a) bowed not the knee, neither dyd hym reuerence.

3 Then the kynges seruantes whiche were in the kynges gate, sayde vnto Mardocheus, Why transgressest thou the kings commaundement?

4 And though they spake this dayly vnto hym, yet would he not heare them, therefore they tolde Haman, that they myght see howe Mardocheus matters would stand, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe.

5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto hym, nor dyd reuerence vnto hym, he was ful of indignation.

6 And thought it to litle to lay handes only on Mardocheus, for they had shewed hym the nation of Mardocheus: wherefore he sought to destroy al the Iewes that were throughout the whole empire of Ahasuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus.

7 In the fyrst moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelfth yeere of kyng Ahasuerus, they cast Phur, that is a (b) lot, before Haman from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman sayd vnto kyng Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered abrode, and dispersed among al people in al the prouinces of thyne empyre, and their lawes are diuers from al people, and doo not after the kinges lawes, therefore it is not the kynges profite to suffer them.

9 If it please the kyng, let it be written, that they may be destroyed: and so wyl I " way downe ten thousand talentes of siluer, by the handes of them that haue the charge of this busynesse, to bring it into the kinges treasurie.

" or, pay.

10 And the kyng tooke his ryng from his hande, & gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, the Iewes inimie.

11 And the kyng sayde vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thyne, and doo with that people as it pleaseth thee.

12 Then were the kynges " scribes called, on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written accordyng as Haman commaunded vnto al the kynges officers, and to the captaynes that were ouer euery prouince, & to the rulers of euery people in the countreys on euery side, according to the writing thereof, and to euery nation after their language, in the name of kyng Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the kynges ryng.

" or, secretaries.

13 And the letters were sent by postes into al the kinges prouinces, to roote out, to kil, and to destroy al Iewes both young and olde, children and women, in one day, vpon the thirtieth day of the twelfth moneth, (whiche is the moneth Adar) and to spoyle them as a pray.

14 This was the tenure of the writing, that there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in al prouinces, and published vnto al people, that they shoulde be redy against the same day.

C Reade. vearse. 7.

15 And the postes went in al haste accordyng to the kinges commaundement, and in the palace of Susan was the commaundement deuised: and the kyng and Haman sate and dranke, when in the meane tyme the (c) citie of Susan was disquieted.

(c) That is, the Iewes whiche were in Susan.

The. iiii. Chapter.

5. Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the cruel decree of the king against the Iewes. 16. She willeth that they pray for her.

1 When Mardocheus perceiued al that was donne, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with asshes, & went out into the middes of the citie, and cryed loude and lamentably.

A

2 And came before the kinges gate, but he myght

(a) This fact of Mardocheus semed to come by the singuler motion of gods spirite, to thende he myght execute his iust iudgement against wicked Haman, and also bryng Mardocheus to honour for the preseruation of his people: for otherwyse to obey magistrates in al ciuil behauiour, is gods commaundement. Rom. 13.

(b) To know what moneth and day shoulde be good to goe about this thing, that it might haue good successe, but god disappoynted their lottes and expectation.

might not enter within the kinges gate, because he had sackcloth on.

8 And in al prouinces, countreyes, and places, as farre as the kynges woorde & commaundement came, there was greate lamentation among the Iewes, fastyng, weeping, and mourning, and many lay in sackclothes and in ashes.

4 So Esthers maydens, and her chamberlaynes, came, and tolde it her: then was the queene exceedyngly astonyed, and she sent rayment that Mardocheus should put on, and laye the sackcloth from hym: but Mardocheus wouldе not take them.

5 Then called Esther Hathach, (one) of the kynges chamberlaynes, whiche stoode before her, & gaue hym a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, to knowe what it was wherefore he dyd so.

6 So Hathach went foorth to Mardocheus, vnto the streete of the citie, which was before the kynges gate:

℣ 7 And Mardocheus tolde hym of al that had comme vnto hym, and of "the summe of siluer that Haman had promised to way downe into the kinges treasurie, because of the Iewes, yt he wouldе destroy them.

"Heb. declaration.

8 And he gaue hym the copie of the kynges commaundement that was deuised at Susan to destroy them, that he myght shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and to charge her that she shoulde goe in vnto the kyng, and make her prayer and supplication vnto hym for her people.

9 And when Hathach came in, he told Esther the woordes of Mardocheus.

10 And againe Esther spake vnto Hathach, and commaunded hym (to say) vnto Mardocheus, 11 Al the kynges seruantes, and the people in the prouinces of the kyng knowe, that whosoeuer commeth within the court vnto the kyng, whether it be man or woman, whiche is not called, * the commaundement is, that the same shal dye, excepte the kyng hold out the golden scepter vnto hym, for then he shal liue: but I haue not ben called to come in vnto the kyng now this thirtie dayes.

* or, there is a lawe of his.

12 And when Mardocheus was certified of Esthers woordes, 13 Mardocheus bade say agayne vnto Esther, Thynke not with thee selfe that thou shalt escape in the kynges house more then al the Iewes.

* or, breathyng.

14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this tyme, then shal the Iewes haue * helpe and delyuerance out of an (a) other place, and thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kyngdome * for this cause sake?

* or, for such a time.

(a) This Mardochus spake in the confidence of that fayth which al gods children ought to haue, whiche is, that god wouldе deliuer them by one meanes or other.

15 Esther bade them geue Mardocheus this answeare,

16 Goe and geather al the Iewes that are found at Susan, & fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drynke not in three dayes, neyther day nor nyght, I and my maydens wyl fast lykewyse: & so wyl I goe in vnto the king, whiche thyng is yet contrary to the commaundement, and (b) yf I perishe, I perishe.

(b) I wyl put my lyfe in danger, and referre the successe to God, seeing it is for his glory, and the delyuerance of his people.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, & dyd accordyng to al that Esther had commaunded hym.

The. v. Chapter.

1 Esther entreth in vnto the kyng, & bydeth hym and Haman to a feaste. 11, Haman prepareth a gallous for Mardocheus.

A

1 AND on the thirde day, Esther put on her royal apparel, and stoode in the court of the kynges palace within, ouer agaynst the kynges house: and the king sate vpon his royal seate in the kynges palace, ouer agaynst the gate of the house.

2 And when the kyng sawe Esther the queene standyng in the courte, she founde grace in his sight: and the kyng helde out the golden scepter that was in his hande: So Esther stept forth, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then sayd the kyng vnto her, What wilt thou, queene Esther? and what requyrest thou? (aske) euen the halfe of the empire, and it shalbe geuen thee. Marke. 6. d

4 And Esther answeared, If it please the kyng, let the kyng and Haman comme this day vnto the banquet that I haue prepared for hym.

5 And the kyng sayde, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath sayde. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the kyng sayde vnto Esther at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? And what requyrest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shalbe donne.

7 Then answeared Esther, and sayde, My ℣ petition and desire is,

8 If I haue founde grace in the sight of the kyng, and if it please the kyng to geue me my petition, and to fulfil my request, then let the king and Haman comme to the banquet that I shal prepare for them, & so wyl I doo to morowe as the king hath sayde.

9 Then went Haman foorth the same day ioyful & meary in his mynde: but when Haman man saw Mardocheus in the kynges gate, that he stoode not vp, nor mooued for hym, he was ful of indignation at Mardocheus.

10 Neuertheleſſe, Haman refrayned hym ſelfe, and when he came home, he ſent and called for his freendes, and Zares his wife.

11 And Haman tolde them of the glorye of his richeſſe, and the multitude of his chyldren, and al the thynges wherein the kyng had (a) promoted hym ſo greatly, and how that he had ſet hym aboue the princes, and ſeruantes of the king.

12 Haman ſayde moreouer, Yea Esther the queene dyd let no man comme in with the kyng vnto the banquet that ſhe had prepared, except me: and to morow am I bydden vnto her alſo with the kyng.

13 But in al this am I not ſatiſfied, as long as I ſee Mardocheus the Iewe ſittyng at the kynges gate.

14 Then ſayde (b) Zares his wyfe, & al his freendes vnto hym, Let them make a gallous of fyftie cubites hygh, and to morowe ſpeake thou vnto ỹ kyng that Mardocheus maye be hanged theron: then goe thou in merely with the kyng vnto the banquet. And Haman was wel content withal, and cauſed the gallous to be made.

(a) Thus the wicked when they are promoted, in ſtead of conſyderyng their charge, and humblyng them ſelues, waxe ambitious, diſdaynful, and cruel.

(b) The comfort & counſel which he receiued of his wife, and freendes, through the prouidence of god, was turned to his deſtruction.

The. vi. Chapter.

1. The kyng turneth ouer the Chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10. and commaundeth Haman to cauſe Mardocheus to be had in honour.

A 1 THe ſame nyght coulde not the kyng ſleepe, and he commaunded to bryng the * Chronicles and Storyes: and they were read before the kyng.

2 Then it was founde wrytten, how Mardocheus had tolde that Bigthana & Theres the kynges two chamberlaynes whiche kept the * doores, ſought to laye handes on kyng Ahaſuerus.

3 And the kyng ſayde, What honour and dignitie hath beene geuen to Mardocheus therefore? Then ſayde the kynges ſeruantes that miniſtred vnto hym, There is nothyng at al donne for hym.

4 And the kyng ſayd, Who is in the court? (for Haman was come into the court without before the kynges houſe, that he might ſpeake vnto the king to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for hym.)

5 And the kynges ſeruantes ſayd vnto him, Beholde, Haman ſtandeth in the courte. And the kyng ſayde, Let hym come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the kyng ſaid vnto hym, What ſhalbe donne vnto the man whom the kyng woulde fayne bryng vnto worſhyp? (Haman thought in his harte, Whom deſireth the kyng to bryng vnto worſhyp more then me?)

* or, the booke of recordes, and the chronicles. Eſth. 2. b.

* or, theſholdes.

7 And Haman anſwered the king, Let the B man whom the kyng pleaſeth to bryng vnto worſhyp, be brought hyther,

8 That he maye be arayed with the royal garmentes which the kyng vſeth to weare, and the horſe that the kyng rydeth vpon, & that the crowne royal may be ſet vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horſe be deliuered vnder the hande of one of the kinges moſt noble princes, that they may aray the man withal, whom the kyng is diſpoſed to bryng to honour, and cauſe hym to ryde vpon the horſe through the ſtreets of the citie, and proclayme before hym: Thus ſhal it be done to the man whom the kyng pleaſeth to bryng to honour.

10 And the kyng ſayde to Haman, Make haſte, and take as thou haſt ſayde, the rayment and the horſe, and doo euen ſo vnto Mardocheus the Iewe, that ſitteth before the kynges gate: and let nothyng fayle of al that thou haſt ſpoken.

11 Then tooke Haman the rayment, and the horſe, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought hym on horſebacke through the ſtreete of the citie, and proclaymed before hym, Thus ſhal it be donne vnto the man whom the kyng is diſpoſed to honor.

12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kynges gate: but Haman gate hym home in al the haſte mournyng, and his head couered:

13 And tolde Zares his wyfe, and al his freendes, euery thyng that had befallen hym. Then ſayde his wyſe menne, and Zares his wyfe vnto him, If it be Mardocheus of the ſeede of the Iewes, before whom thou haſt begunne to fal, thou ſhalt not preuayle againſt hym, but ſhalt ſurely (a) fal before hym.

(a) Thus god ſometyme putteth in the mouth of the very wicked, to ſpeake that thing which he hath decreed to come to paſſe.

14 And whyle they were yet talking with hym, came the kinges chamberlaynes, and cauſed Haman to make haſte to come vnto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

The. vii. Chapter.

3. The queene prayeth for herſelfe, and her people. 6. She accuſeth Haman, and he is hanged on the gallous whiche he had prepared for Mardocheus.

1 AND the kyng and Haman came to A banquet with queene Esther.

2 And the kyng ſayd agayne vnto Esther on the ſeconde day at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, queene Esther, that it maye be geuen thee? and what Eſth. 5. a.

requirest thou? If it be euen to halfe of the empire, it shalbe done.

3 And Esther the queene answeared, and sayde, If I haue founde grace in thy sight, O kyng, & if it please the kyng, then grant me my lyfe at my desyre, and my people for my petitions sake.

4 For we are solde, I, and my people, to be destroyed, to be slayne, and to perishe: and would God that we were solde to be bondmen, and bondwomen, then would I hold my tongue: although the enimie could not recompence the kynges (a) losse.

(a) Meanyng the tribute whiche the Iewes payde vnto the king.

5 The kyng Ahasuerus answeared, and sayde vnto quene Esther, Who is he? and where is he that dare presume in his mynd to doo after that manner?

6 And Esther said, The enimie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedyngly afrayde before the kyng and the queene.

B 7 And the kyng arose from the banket, and from the wine in his displeasure, & (went) into the palace garden: and Haman stoode vp, and besought queene Esther for his lyfe: for he sawe that there was a mischiefe prepared for hym of the kyng already.

8 And when the kyng came agayne out of the palace garden into the place where they dranke wine, Haman had layde hym vpon ẏ bed that Esther sate vpon. Then said the kyng, Wyl he force the queene also before me in the house: As soone as that woorde went out of the kynges mouth, they (b) couered Hamans face.

(b) This was the maner of the Persians, whē one was out of the kynges fauour Esther. 2. d

9 And Harbona, one of the chamberlaynes that stoode before the kyng, sayd, Beholde, there standeth yet a gallous in Hamans house, fiftie cubites high, whiche he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for the kyng. Then the kyng sayde, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kynges wrath pacified.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 After the death of Haman, was Mardocheus exalted. 14. Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

A 1 THe same day did king Ahasuerus geue the house of Haman the Iewes enimie, vnto queene Esther, and Mardocheus came before the king: for Esther told what he was vnto her.

2 And the kyng tooke of his ring whiche he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther set Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet more before the kyng, and fel downe at his feete weepyng, and besought him that he would put away the wyckednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined agaynst the Iewes.

4 And the kyng held out the golden scepter towarde Esther. Then rose Esther, and stoode before the kyng,

5 And sayde, If it please the kyng, and yf I haue founde grace in his syght, and yf it be acceptable before the kyng, and I please him, then let it be written that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called agayne, whiche letters he wrote to destroy ẏ Iewes whiche are in al the kynges prouinces.

6 For howe can I suffer and see the euyl that shal come vnto my people? or howe can I beare and looke vpon the destruction of my kynrede?

B 7 And the king Ahasuerus said vnto queene Esther, and to Mardocheus the Iew, Behold, I haue geuen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, because he layde hande vpon the Iewes.

8 Write ye also for the Iewes as it lyketh you in the kynges name, and seale it with the kynges ryng: For the wrytynges that were wrytten in the kynges name, and sealed with the kynges ryng, durste no man disanul.

9 Then were the kynges scribes called at the same tyme, euen in the thirde moneth (that is, in the moneth (a) Siuan) on the three and twentieth day therof, and it was written according as al as Mardocheus commaunded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaynes in the prouinces whiche are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely, an hundred, twentie, and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince according to the wrytyng therof, and vnto euery people after theyr speache, and to the Iewes according vnto theyr wryting and language. Dan. 6. c.

(a) Whiche conteineth part of May, and part of Iune.

10 And he wrote in ẏ kyng Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kynges ryng, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swyfte young Mules, sent he the writinges,

11 Wherein the kyng graunted the Iewes, in what cities soeuer they were, to geather them selues togeather, and to (b) stande for their lyfe, and for to roote out, to slay, and to destroy al the power of the people and prouince that woulde trouble them, both chyldren, and women, and to spoyle theyr goodes:

(b) That is, to defend them selues against al that would assaile them.

12 Upon one day in al the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, namely, vpon the thirteenth day day of the twelfth moneth, whiche is the moneth Adar.

Esther. 3.b. 13 The tenour of the wrytyng was, howe there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in al and euery prouince, and published among al people, and that the Iewes should be ready agaynst that day to auenge them selues on theyr enimies.

¶ 14 And so the postes that rode vpon the swyft Horses and Mules, made haste with al speede to execute the kinges woorde: and the commaundement was deuised in the pallace of Susan.

15 And Mardocheus went out from the king in royal apparel, of * yelowe and whyte, and with a great crowne of golde, beyng arayed with a garment of * silke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioyced, and was glad.

* or, blewe.

* or, fine linnen.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was come lyght and gladnesse, ioy and worshyp.

17 In al prouinces and cities into what places soeuer the kynges word and commaundement reached, (there was) ioy and mirth, a feast and good dayes among the Iewes: insomuche that many of the people in the lande became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. At the commaundement of the kyng, the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14. The ten sonnes of Haman are hanged.

A 1 IN the twelfth moneth, (that is, the moneth Adar) vpon the thirteenth day of the same, when the kynges woorde and commaundement drewe neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enimies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.

Esther. 3.b.

2 For then gathered the Iewes togeather in theyr cities within al the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, to lay hande on suche as woulde do them euyl, and no man coulde withstand them: for the feare of them was come ouer al people.

3 And al the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, and deputies, and officers of the kyng, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them.

4 For Mardocheus was great in the kinges house, and the reporte of him was noysed in al the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes smote al theyr enimies with the stroke of the swoorde, & slaughter, and destruction, and dyd what they would vnto theyr enimies.

6 And at the palace of Susan, the Iewes destroyed (a) fiue hundred men.

B (a) Beside those three hundred that they slue the second day, as verse. 15.

7 And slue Pharsandatha, Dalphon, Asphatha,

8 Phoratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Pharmastha, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

10 The ten sonnes of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha, the enimie of the Iewes: but * on his goodes they layde no handes.

* or, on the pray.

11 At the same tyme was the kyng certified of the number of those that were slayne in the palace of Susan.

12 And the kyng saide vnto queene Esther, The Iewes haue slayne and destroyed fiue hundred men in the palace of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Haman: What haue they done (thinkest thou) in other landes of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requirest thou more to be donne?

13 Esther answeared, If it please the king, let him suffer the Iewes which are in Susan, to morowe also to doo accordyng vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten sonnes vpon the tree.

14 And the king charged to doo so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, & they hanged Hamans ten sonnes. ¶

15 For the Iewes that were in Susan, gathered them selues together vpon the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slue three hundred men at Susan: but on theyr goodes they layde no handes. Esther. 3.b.

16 As for the other Iewes that were in the kyngs prouinces, they came togeather, and stoode for theyr lyues, and had reast from theyr enimies, and slue of theyr enimies seuentie and fiue thousande: howbeit, they layde no handes on theyr goodes.

17 (This they did) on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same moneth reasted they, which day they held with feasting and gladnesse.

18 But the Iewes that were at Susan, came togeather, both on the thirteenth day, and on the fourteenth: and on the fifteenth day of the same they reasted, and held that day with feastyng and gladnesse.

19 And therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the villages, & vnwalled townes, helde the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar with gladnesse and feastyng, and (b) keapt holy day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neyghbour.

(b) As the Iewes doo vnto this day, callyng it in the Persians language Phurim, that is, the day of lottes.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these woordes, and sent letters vnto al the Iewes that were in al the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, both nigh and farre:

21 That they shoulde make a lawe among them them ſelues, and holde the fourteenth and fyfteenth day of the moneth Adar yeerely, 22 As the dayes wherein the Iewes came to reaſt from their enimies, & as a moneth wherein their paine was turned to ioy, and their ſorowe into a ioyful day: and that in thoſe dayes they ſhoulde make feaſtes and gladneſſe, and one to ſende gyftes vnto an other, and to diſtribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Iewes promiſed to doo as they had begun, and as Mardocheus had wrytten vnto them:
24 Becauſe Haman the ſonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, al the Iewes enimie, had deuiſed agaynſt the Iewes, howe he might Eſther.3.b. deſtroy them, and cauſed to caſte Phur, (that is a lot) for to conſume them, and to bryng them to nought.
25 But when Eſther came before the king, he commaunded by letters, that his wicked deuice, whiche he imagined againſt the Iewes, ſhould be turned vpon his owne head, and that he and his ſonnes ſhoulde be hanged on the tree.
26 For the whiche cauſe they called theſe dayes Phurim, becauſe of the name of the lot, and becauſe of al the wordes of this wrytyng, and what they them ſelues had ſeene, and what had come vnto them:
27 And the Iewes ordeyned, and tooke it vppon them and their ſeede, and vppon al ſuch as ioyned them ſelues vnto them, that they woulde not miſſe, but obſerue theſe two dayes yerely, accordyng as they were
E wrytten and appoynted in their ſeaſon.
28 And that theſe dayes are to be remembred, and to be keapt of chylders chyldren among al kynredes in al landes and cities: in theſe dayes of Phurim, whiche are not to be ouerſlypte among the Iewes, and the memorial of them ought not to periſh from their ſeede.
29 And queene Eſther the daughter of Abihail, and Mardocheus the Iewe, wrote with al auctoritie to confirme this ſecond writing of Phurim.
30 And he ſent the letters vnto al the Iewes, to the hundred twentie and ſeuen prouinces of the empire of Ahaſuerus, with woordes of peace and trueth:
31 To confirme theſe dayes of Phurim in their tyme appoynted, accordyng as Mardocheus the Iewe, and Eſther the queene had appoynted them: and they bound their * ſoule and their ſeede to faſtyng & prayer. * or, ſelues.
32 And the decree of Eſther confirmed theſe woordes of Phurim, and was wrytten in the booke.
33 And the kyng Ahaſuerus layde tribute vpon the land, and vpon the iles of the ſea. F
34 And al the actes of his power, and of his myght, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus, wherewith the kyng magnified hym, be they not wrytten in the bookes of the Chronicles of the kynges of Medes and Perſia?
35 For Mardocheus the Iewe, was the ſeconde next vnto kyng Ahaſuerus, & greate among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethren, as one that ſeeketh the wealth of his people, and ſpeaketh peaceably for al his ſeede.

4 And his ſonnes went and banquetted in their houſes, euery one his day, and ſent and called for their three ſiſters to eate and drynke with them.
5 And when the dayes of their banquettyng were gone about, Iob ſent and ſanctified them, and gate vp early, and offered for euerye one a whole burnt offeryng: for Iob ſayde, It may be that my ſonnes haue donne ſomme offence, and haue ben (c) vnthankful to God in their hartes. Thus did Iob

6 And vppon a day when the (d) chyldren of God came and stoode before the Lorde, Satan came also among them.

7 And the Lord sayd vnto Satan, Whence commest thou? Satan answeared the Lord, and sayde, From compassyng the earth to and fro, and from walkyng through it.

8 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Hast thou not consydered my seruant Iob, how there is none lyke hym in the earth? a perfect and a iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euyl?

9 Satan answeared, and sayde vnto the Lord, Doth Iob feare God (e) for nought?

10 Hast thou not "preserued hym and his house, & al that he hath on euery side? thou hast blessed the worke of his handes, and his possession is increased in the lande.

11 But laye thyne hande nowe vppon hym, and touch al that he hath, and he shal (f) curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Loe, al that he hath be in thy "power, only vppon hym selfe see that thou laye not thyne hande. And Satan went foorth from the (g) presence of the Lorde.

13 And vppon a certayne day when his sonnes and daughters were eatyng and drynking wyne in their eldest brothers house,

14 There came a messenger vnto Iob, and sayde, The Oxen were plowyng, and the Asses feedyng beside them:

15 (h) And the Sabees came violently, and tooke them away: yea, they haue slayne thy seruantes with the edge of the sword, and I onely am escaped alone to tel thee.

16 Whyle he was yet speakyng, there came another, and sayd, The fire of God is fallen from heauen, and hath burnt vp thy sheepe, and seruantes, and consumed them, and I onely am escaped alone to tel thee.

17 And whyle he was yet speakyng, there came another, and sayde, The Chaldees made out three bandes, and fel vppon the Cammelles, and haue caryed them away, yea, and slayne thy seruantes with the swoorde, and I onely am gotten away alone to tel thee.

18 And whyle he was yet speaking, there came another, and sayde, Thy sonnes and thy daughters were eating and drynking wyne in their eldest brothers house, 19 And behold, there came a myghty great wynde from beyonde the wyldernesse, and smote the foure corners of the house, which fel vpon thy chyldren, and they are dead, & I am gotten away alone to tel thee.

20 Then Iob stoode vp, and (i) rent his clothes, and shaued his head, fel downe vpon the grounde, woorshypped, 21 And sayde, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shal I turne (k) thyther agayne: the Lord gaue, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lorde.

22 In al these thynges dyd Iob not offend, nor charged God foolishly.

(d) Meaning the angels, whiche are called the children of god, because they are willyng and ready to execute his wyl.

(k) Whereby is meant the belly of the earth, which is the mother of vs al.

The. ii. Chapter.

9. Iobs wyfe tempteth hym to forsake God. 11. His three freendes visite hym.

1 AND on a day, the chyldren of GOD came and stoode before the Lorde, and Satan came also among them, & stood before the Lorde.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, From whence commest thou? Satan answeared the Lorde, and sayde, I haue gonne about the lande, and walked through it.

3 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Hast thou not consydered my seruant Iob? how there is none lyke vnto hym in the earth, a perfecte and a iust man? one that feareth God, and escheweth euyl, and continueth styl in his vprightnesse, although thou moouedst me agaynst hym, to destroy him (a) without cause.

4 And Satan answeared the Lorde, and sayde, (b) Skynne for skynne, yea, a man wyl geue al that euer he hath for his lyfe.

5 But laye thyne hande nowe vpon hym, & touche his bone and his fleashe, and he shal curse thee to thy face.

6 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thyne hande, but saue his lyfe.

7 So went Satan foorth from the presence of the Lorde, & smote Iob with sore byles, from the sole of his foote, vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke a potsharde to scrape hym: and he sate downe among the ashes.

9 Then sayde his wyfe vnto hym, Dooest thou continue yet in thy perfectnesse? (c) curse God, and dye.

10 But he sayde vnto her, Thou speakest lyke a foolish woman: shal we receiue good at the hand of God, & (d) not receiue euil? In al these thinges did not Iob sinne with his lyppes.

11 Nowe when Iobs three freendes hearde of al the trouble that came vppon hym, they came euery one frō his owne place (namely) Eliphaz the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, & Zophad the Naamathite: for they were agreed togeather, to comme to shewe their compassion vpon hym, and to comfort him.

Iob. 1. 8. Iob. 1. 8.

(a) God alloweth Iobs innocencie, because he ceassed not to feare god, although god tryed hym with plagues causeleste, at Satans request.

(b) That is, as a man wyl be content with the losse of another mans skynne so he maye spare his owne: so is Iob content to beare the losse of his chyldrens skynnes, liues, and bodyes in patience, rather then to suffer his owne skynne and body to be touched.

(c) For death was appoynted to hym that blaspheamed and cursed god, as, Leuit. 24. verse 15. meaning that he should be soone rid out of his payne.

(d) That is, to be patient in aduersitie, as we reioyce when he sendeth prosperitie.

"Heb. Towarde the heauen.

13 They sate them downe by him also vpon the ground seuen dayes and seuen nightes, and none spake a worde vnto him, for they sawe that his greefe was very great.

The.iii.Chapter.

I. Iob complayneth, and curseth the day of his birth. II. He desireth to dye, as though death were the ende of al mans miserie.

A 1 AFter (a) this, opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Iob answeared, and sayde,

3 Let the day perishe wherin I was borne, (b) and the night in the which it was said, There is a manchylde conceiued.

4 The same day be (turned to) darkenesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, neither let the lyght shyne vpon it.

5 But let it be stayned with darkenesse and the shadowe of death, let the (dimme) cloud fal vpon it, whiche may make it terrible, as a most bitter day.

6 Let the darke storme ouercome that night, and let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor counted in the number of the monethes.

7 Desolate be that night, and without gladnesse.

B 8 Let them that curse the day, and that be ready to rayse vp mournyng, geue it also their curse.

"Heb. twylyght.

9 Let the starres of that "night be dimme thorough darkenesse of it, let it looke for lyght, but haue none, (c) neyther let it see the dawning of the day.

(c) The Hebrue speache is, the eye liddes of the mornyng.

10 Because it shut not vp the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hid sorow from myne eyes.

11 Why dyed I not in the byrth? Why did not I perishe as soone as I came out of the wombe?

12 Why set they me vpon their knees? Why gaue they me sucke with their breastes?

13 Then shoulde I nowe haue lyen styl, I shoulde haue sleapt, and ben at reast,

C 14 Like as the kynges and "lordes of the earth, whiche haue builded them selues "special places:

"Heb. counsellours. "Heb. desolate.

15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses full of syluer:

16 Or (why) was not I hyd, as a thing borne out of tyme, (either) as young chyldren whiche neuer sawe the lyght?

17 There (d) must the wycked ceasse from their tyrannie, and there suche as laboured valiantly, be at reast.

(d) That is, death is the end & helpe from the tirannie and wickednesse of them.

18 There the (e) prisoners rest together, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour:

19 There are smal and great, and the seruant (is) free from his maister.

20 Wherefore is the lyght geuen to hym that is in miserie? and lyfe vnto them that haue heauie hartes?

21 Whiche long for death, and finde it not, though they searche more for it, then for treasures:

22 Whiche reioyce exceedyngly, and be glad when they can fynde the graue,

23 From whom their endes are hyd, and concealed by God?

24 For my syghes come before I eate, and my roarings are powred out like the water:

25 For the thyng that (f) I feared is come vpon me, and the thyng that I was afrayd of, is happened vnto me.

(e) Here Iob declareth the sore plagues he bare, counting him self in worse state then the vilest persons, and bounde prisoners: of which cares, after opinion of the flesshe, he accompteth death the only end

(f) That is, aduersitie, which beyng in prosperitie, he feared.

26 Was I not happie? Had I not quietnesse? Was I not in reast? and nowe commeth suche miserie vpon me.

The.iiii.Chapter.

5. Eliphaz blameth Iob for impaciencie, 7. vniustice, and for the presumption of his owne righteousnesse.

1 AND Eliphaz the Themanite answered, and sayde,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be discontent? (a) But who can withholde hym selfe from speakyng?

3 Beholde, thou hast ben an instructer of many, and hast strengthened the (b) weery handes.

4 Thy wordes haue set vp him that was falling, thou hast refreashed the weake knees.

5 But nowe it is come vpon thee, and thou art greeued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is this thy feare, thy confidence, thy hope, and thy (c) vpryght lyuyng?

7 Consyder, I pray thee, who euer perished beyng an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?

8 For as I haue prooued by experience, they that plowe iniquitie, and sowe wretchednesse, reape the same.

9 With the blast of God they perishe, with the breath of his nosethrilles are they consumed away.

10 The rearing of the Lion, and the voyce of the Lion, & the teeth of the Lions whelpes are pulled out.

11 The (d) Lion perisheth for lacke of pray, & the Lions whelpes are scattred abroade.

(a) Because of thy soare affliction, & thy impaciencie.

(b) Meaning, thou hast holpen and comforted many in miserie, & canst thou not rule thee selfe nowe?

(c) By this he gethereth that Iob was but an hypocrite, & had not perfect feare nor trust in god.

(d) That is, God wil punish tirantes whiche are compared to Lions, although men neglectyng their office, do wynke at them.

12 But

(c) Here Eliphaz ſheweth the maner of diuine reuelation by the holy ghoſt, ſaying that that whiche he wyl now declare, is not humane reaſon, but as reuealed vnto hym from God.

12 But wheras a thing was (c) hid from me, yet myne eare hath receiued a litle thereof.
13 In the thoughtes and viſions of ỹ night, when ſleepe commeth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me, and dreade, which made al my bones to ſhake.
15 The winde paſſed by before my preſence, & made the heares of my fleſhe to ſtande vp.
16 It ſtoode, and I knew not the face therof, an image there was before myne eyes, and in the ſtylneſſe heard I a voyce.
17 Shal man be more iuſt then God? or ſhal a man be purer then his maker?
18 Beholde, he founde not trueth in his ſeruantes, and in his angels there was follie:
19 Howe muche more in them that dwel in (f) houſes of clay, and whoſe fundation is but duſte, whiche ſhalbe conſumed, as it were with a moth?

(f) Meanyng mans body, whiche is nothyng but duſt & clay. ii. Cor. v. verſe. i.

20 They ſhalbe ſmytten from the morning vnto the euenyng: yea, they ſhal peryſhe for euer, when no man regardeth them.
21 Is not theyr royaltie gone away with thē? they ſhal dye truely, and not in wiſdome.

The. v. Chapter.

I. 2. Eliphaz ſheweth the difference betweene the children of God, and the wycked.

A 1 CRye, I pray thee, if there be any that wyl anſweare thee, and (a) looke thou vpon any of the holy.

(a) He wylleth Iob to conſyder the example of al them that haue lyued godly, whether any of them were plagued in ſuche ſort as he was.

2 As for the fooliſhe man, wrathfulneſſe killeth hym, and enuie ſlayeth the ignorant.
3 I haue ſeene mee ſelfe when the fooliſhe was deepe rooted, and ſuddenly I curſed his habitation.
4 His children were without proſperitie, and they were ſlayne in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them.
5 His harueſt was eaten of the hungry, and taken from among the thornes, and the thirſtie drunke vp theyr labour: it is not the earth that bryngeth forth iniquitie,
6 Neyther commeth ſorowe out of the grounde:
B 7 But man is borne vnto labour, like as the ſparkes flee vp.

(b) If I were in thy caſe, I woulde craue helpe of God, ſaith Eliphaz.

8 But (b) I would alke counſel at the lord, and talke with God:
9 Whiche doth great thinges, and vnſearchable, (and) marueyles without number.
10 He geueth rayne vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the ſtreetes, 11 To ſet vp them that be of lowe degree, and that thoſe which are in heauineſſe may be exalted to ſaluation.
12 He deſtroyeth the deuiſes of the ſubtyl, ſo that theyr handes are not able to performe that whiche they do enterpriſe.
13 He compaſſeth the wiſe in theyr owne craftineſſe, and maketh fooliſhe the counſel of the wycked.
14 They run into (c) darkneſſe by fayre day, and grope at the noone day, as in the night.
15 But he deliuereth the poore from the ſwoorde, from their threatninges, and from the violence of the myghtie.
16 He is the hope of the poore, & the mouth of the wycked ſhalbe ſtopped.
17 Beholde, bleſſed is the man whom God correcteth, therfore refuſe not thou the chaſtenyng of the almyghtie.
18 For he maketh a wounde, and he healeth: he ſmyteth, and his hande maketh whole agayne.
19 He ſhal deliuer thee in (d) fire troubles, and in the ſeuenth there ſhal no euyl come to thee.
20 In hunger he ſhal ſaue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the ſwoord.
21 Thou ſhalt be hid from the ſcourge of the tongue, and when deſtruction commeth thou ſhalt not neede to feare.
22 In deſtruction and dearth thou ſhalt be mery, and ſhalt not be afrayde of the beaſtes of the earth.
23 For the (e) ſtones of the lande ſhalbe confederate with thee, and the beaſtes of the feelde ſhalbe at peace with thee.
24 And thou ſhalt knowe that thy dwelling place ſhalbe in reſt, and thou ſhalt viſite thy habitation, and ſhalt (f) not ſinne.
25 Thou ſhalt ſee alſo that thy ſeede ſhalbe great, and thy poſteritie as the graſſe vpon the earth.
26 Thou ſhalt come alſo to thy graue in a ful age, like a corne sheafe cut downe in due ſeaſon.
27 Loe, this we our ſelues haue proued by experience, and euen thus it is: hearken thou to it alſo, that thou mayeſt take heede to thee ſelfe.

C (c) That is, in thynges manifeſt and playne, they want godly wiſdome & grace to ſee.

(d) Alluding to the ſixe dayes of gods firſte woorke, and the ſeuenth day he reſted, meaning that of al thy cares & troubles, god wyl deliuer thee, & bring thee to reaſt, as in the ſeuenth day.

(e) Shewyng that whē we haue god our freende, al creatures of his, wil ſerue to our good.

(f) God ſhal ſo bleſſe thee, that thou ſhalt haue occaſiō to reioyce in al thynges, and not to be greeued.

The. vi. Chapter.

I. Iob anſweareth, that his payne is more greeuous then his fault. 8. He wiſheth death. 14. He complayneth of his freendes.

1 BUt Iob anſweared, and ſayde,
2 O that my complaynt were (a) truely weighed, & my pouniſhment layde in the ballances togeather:
3 For nowe it woulde be heauier then the ſande of the ſea: and this is the cauſe that my woordes fayle me.
4 For the arrowes of the almighty are vpon me, the poyſon thereof hath drunke vp my ſpirite, and the terrible (b) feares of God are ſet againſt me.

(a) Meaning that his troubles are exceſſiue, and vnmeaſurable, as the ſandes of the ſea.

(b) Declaryng that he was not afflicted only bodyly, but alſo pricke inwardly in his mynde.

5 Doth

5 Doeth the wylde asse roze when he hath grasse? oz loweth the oxe when he hath fodder?

6 That whiche is vnsauerie, (c) shal it be eaten without salt? oz is there any taste in the whyte of an egge?

7 The thynges that sometyme I myght not away withal, are now my meate, foz very sozowe.

8 O that I myght haue my desyze, and that GOD would graunt me the thing that I long foz:

9 O that God would begin and smite me, that he would let his hande goe and take me cleane away:

10 Then should I haue somme comfoz, yea I would desyze hym in my payne that he would not spare, (d) foz I wyl not deny the wooydes of the holy one.

11 Foz what power haue I to endure? and what is myne ende, "that my soule myght be pacient?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? oz is my fleashe of brasse?

13 Is it not so that there is in me no helpe: and that my * substance is taken from me?

14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comfozted of his neyghbour: but the feare of the almyghtie is cleane away.

15 Myne owne brethren passe ouer by me as the water brooke, and as the ouerflowing of waters whiche doo hastyly goe away.

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snowe is hyd.

17 Whiche when they haue passed by, doo vanishe: and when the heate commeth, they sayle out of their place.

18 They depart from the course of their wonted chanel to other places, they run in vayne, and perishe.

19 They that went to (e) Theman consydered them, and they that went to Saba wayted foz them.

20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther, and were ashamed.

21 Euen suche truely are ye, nowe that ye see my miserie ye are afrayde.

22 Dyd I desyze you to bzyng vnto me, oz to geue me any of your substance?

23 Oz to deliuer me from the enimies hande, oz to saue me from the hand of the tirantes?

24 Teache me, and I wyl hold my tongue: and wherein I haue erred, cause me to vnderstande.

25 Howe strong are the wooydes of trueth? and whiche of you can rebuke oz repzoue them?

26 Doo ye imagine to repzone (f) wooydes, that the talke of the afflicted shoulde be as the wynde?

27 Ye fal vpon the fatherlesse, and digge a pit to ouerthzowe your owne freende.

28 And therefoze be content, and (g) looke nowe vpon me, and I wyl not lye before your face.

29 Turne I pzay you, "be indifferent iudges: turne agayne (and ye shal see) myne vngyltynesse, whether there be any vnrygh-teousnesse in my tongue, oz vayne wooydes in my mouth.

The. vii. Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth the shortnesse and misery of mans lyfe.

1 IS there not an appoynted tyme to man vpon earth? are not his dayes also lyke the dayes of an (a) hyzed seruant?

2 Foz lyke as a bonde seruant desyzeth the shadowe, and as an hyzelyng wouldeth haue the reward of his wooyke:

3 Euen so haue I laboured whole monethes long in vayne, and many a careful nyght haue I tolde.

4 When I layde me downe to sleepe, I sayde, O when shal I aryse? and (b) measuryng the euenyng, I am euen ful with tossyng to and fro vnto the dawnyng of the day.

5 My fleashe (c) is clothed with wozmes, and dust of the earth: my skinne is wythered and become hozrible.

6 My dayes passe ouer moze speedily then a weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my lyfe is but a wynd, and that myne eye shal no moze see pleasures:

8 Yea and the eye that hath seene me, shal see me no moze: foz yet thou (d) fasten thyne eye vpon me, I comme to nought.

9 The cloude is consumed and vanished away: so he that goeth downe to the graue (e) shal comme no moze vp,

10 Noz turne agayne into his house, neyther shal his place knowe him any moze.

11 Therfoze (f) I wyl not spare my mouth, but I wyl speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bitternesse of my mynde.

12 Am I a sea oz a whale fysshe, that thou keepest me (so) in pzison?

13 When I say, My bed shal comfoz me, I shal haue semme refreshyng by talking to mee selfe vpon my couche:

14 Then feaxest thou me (g) with dreames, and makest me so afrayde through visions,

(a) Can we beare tribulations that are vnsauerie and vnpleasant, seeyng we can not away with thinges that are vnsauerie to the mouth.

(d) Meanyng that he had rather dye, then to deny the words of the holy one, that is, then through his impacience to distrust in gods promise "Heb. If I shoulde prolong my life.

* Or, strength, wysdom, oz law.

(e) The man was one of the twelue princes of Israel, and inhabited the south part of Arabia, of who the region was called Thema, by the which men passe into the whole countreys of Arabia, thinking to finde water there to quenche their thirst, but they are deceiued.

(f) Doo ye goe about by your tauntes to make me deeme that I speake fondly, because I am in this miserable state.

(g) To consider my cause whether I fayne or no. "Heb. Let there be none iniquitie.

(a) Meaning that his case is worse then eyther the hyreling, or bondman.

(b) Declaring his sore paynes, in that eche houre was lothsome & grieuous vnto hym.

(c) Hereby he sheweth why he was so dispised, in that his disease was very strange & horrible.

(d) That is, fasten thy iudgement, whiche is so heauy, that I can not beare it.

(e) Before the general iudgement.

(f) That is, seeing my lyfe vanisheth as the wynde, and that there is no returne after death, I wyl refreshe mee selfe by expressing the greefes of my burdened mynde.

(g) That is, I am in extreme affliction cõtinually nyght and day.

15 That my ſeule wiſheth rather to periſhe and dye, then my bones to remayne.

(h) Seeing I haue ſo litle time to lyue, geue me ſomme reſt.

16 I am weery, I ſhal not lyue alway: (h) O ſpare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.

(i) As though Iob had ſaid, there is no cauſe why thou ſhouldeſt eſteeme man.

17 What (i) is man that thou doeſt magnifie him? and that thou ſetteſt thy hart vpon him?

18 Thou viſiteſt him early and euery day, euery moment dooſt thou trye him.

(k) Why doeſt thou not ceaſſe to pouniſhe me.

19 Why (k) goeſt thou not fro me, nor letteſt me alone, ſo long tyl I may ſwalow downe my ſpittle?

20 I haue offended, what ſhal I doo vnto thee, O thou preſeruer of menne? Why haſt thou ſet me (as a marke) agaynſt thee, ſo that I am a burden to mee ſelfe?

D 21 Why dooſt thou not pardon my treſpaſſes, and take away myne iniquitie? Beholde nowe muſt I ſleepe in the duſt, and if thou ſeekeſt me in the morneyng, I ſhal not be.

The.viii. Chapter.

1. Bildad ſheweth that Iob is a ſinner, becauſe God pouniſheth the wiked, and preſerueth the good.

A 1 THen anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

2 Howe long wylt thou talke of ſuche thinges? howe long ſhal the wordes of thy mouth be as a (a) mightie winde?

(a) He declareth that thoſe mens words which wil deminiſh any thing fro the iuſtice of God, are but as a puft of winde that vaniſheth away.

3 Doeth God peruert the thing that is lawful? or doth the almightie deſtroy the thing that is right?

4 For ſeeing that (b) thy ſonnes ſinned agaynſt him, did not he ſende them into the place of their iniquitie?

(b) And therefore are iuſtly plagued, but thou rather art more bounde to god, becauſe he hath geuē thee ſpace to repent.

5 If thou wouldeſt nowe reſort vnto God betymes, and make thy prayer to the almightie,

6 If thou wouldeſt liue a pure and godly lyfe: ſhoulde he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy righteouſneſſe proſperous?

7 Inſomuche that wherin ſoeuer thou haddeſt litle afore, thou ſhouldeſt haue nowe great abundance.

(c) Here Bildad confirmeth his ſayinges by the authority of the fathers.

8 Enquire I pray thee (c) of the former age, and ſearch diligently among their fathers:

(d) That is, lately borne.

9 (For we are but of (d) yeſterday, and conſyder not that our dayes vpon earth are but a ſhadowe.)

10 Shal not they ſhewe thee, and tel thee, and vtter the wordes of their hart?

(e) Meaning that as a ruſh without moyſture can not grow: ſo can not an euyl man lyue, without repentaunce moyſtened with Gods grace.

11 May a (e) ruſhe growe without moyſtneſſe? or, may the graſſe growe without water?

12 No, but whyleſt it is nowe in his greeneneſſe, though it be not cut downe, yet wythe it before any other hearbe:

13 So are the pathes of al that forgeat god, & the hypocrites hope ſhal come to nought.

14 His confydence ſhalbe deſtroyed, and his truſt ſhalbe a (f) ſpiders webbe.

(f) Which is ſpon to day, & to morowe ſwept away: whereto is lykened the houſe of the wicked, his riches & his ſubſtance.

15 He ſhal leane vpon his houſe, but it ſhal not ſtande: he ſhal holde hym faſt by it, yet ſhal it not endure.

16 (But) the greene (tree) in the ſunne ſhooteth forth his branches in the garden.

(g) That is, ſo that there remayneth nothing there to proue whether the tree had growen there or no.

17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountayne, and are folden about the houſe of ſtones.

18 If any plucke it from his place, and it deny, (g) ſayeing, I haue not ſeene thee:

19 Beholde, it wyl reioyce by this meanes, if it may growe in another moulde.

20 Beholde, God wyl not caſt away a vertuous man, neyther wyl he * helpe the vngodly.

* or, take ỳ vngodly by the hande.

21 Thy mouth ſhal he fyl with laughing, and thy lippes with gladneſſe.

22 They alſo that hate thee, ſhalbe clothed with ſhame, and the dwelling of the vngodly ſhal comme to nought.

The.ix. Chapter.

1. Iob declareth the myghtie power of God, and that mans ryghteouſneſſe is nothyng.

1 IOB anſweared, and ſayde,

2 I knowe it is ſo of a trueth: for howe may a man (compared) vnto God be (a) iuſtified?

(a) Iob anſwered to Eliphas & Bildads oratiõs, confeſſing mans iuſtice to be nothing, being compared to God.

3 If he wyl argue with hym, he can not anſweare him one thing of a thouſande.

4 He is wyſe in hart, & mightie in ſtrength: who hath benne ſearce agaynſt him, and hath proſpered?

5 He (b) tranſlateth the mountaynes or euer they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath.

(b) Here foloweth the infinite power of God, wherby doth appeare mās weakeneſſe the more.

6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pillers thereof ſhake withal.

* or, heyght

7 He commaundeth the ſunne, and it ryſeth not: he cloſeth vp the ſtarres as vnder a ſeale.

(c) These be the names of certayne ſtarres, declaring that the powres of heauenare at his commaundemēt.

8 He him ſelfe alone ſpreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the * waues of the ſea.

9 He maketh the Waynes of heauen, (c) the Orion, the Seuen ſtarres, and the ſecrete places of the ſouth.

(d) Though his woonderous workes be before myne eyes, yet am I not able to comprehend the.

10 He dooth great thinges and vnſearchable: yea and wonders without number.

11 Lo, (d) when he goeth by me, I ſhal not ſee him, and when he paſſeth, I ſhal not perceiue him.

12 If he be haſtie to take away, who wyl make make him (e) restore it? or who wyl say vnto him, What dooest thou?

13 God wil not withdrawe his anger, and the most mighty doo stowpe vnder him.

14 Howe muche lesse shal I answeare him? or howe shoulde I fynde out my woordes with him?

15 For though I were righteous, yet might I not geue him one woorde againe, but meekely submit mee selfe to him as my iudge.

16 If I had called vpon him, and he had answeared me, (f) yet woulde I not beleeue that he hearde my voyce:

17 He troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause.

18 He wil not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse.

19 If (men wyl speake) of strength, loe he is strong: yf (men wyl speake) of iudgement, who shalbe my pleader?

20 If I wil (g) iustifye mee selfe, mine owne mouth shal condemne me: if I wil be a perfect man, he shal proue me a wicked dooer.

21 (Though) I were perfect, yet I know not my soule, and am weery of my lyfe.

22 This is one poynt, and therefore I sayd, He destroyeth both the perfect & vngodly.

23 And though he slaye sodenly with the scourge, wyl he laugh at the pounishment of the innocent?

24 As for the earth, it is geuen ouer into the hande of the wicked, and he shal (h) couer the faces of the iudges thereof: if not, where is he, or who is he? (that can shewe the contrary?)

25 My dayes are more swyft then a runner, they are gone, & haue seene no good thing.

26 They are passed away as ỹ shippes that be good vnder sayle, and as the Eagle that fleeth to the pray.

27 If I say, I wil forgeat my complayning, I wyl cease from my wrath, and comfort mee selfe:

28 Then am I afraide of al my sorowes, for I know we that thou wylt not iudge me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then (i) labour I in vaine?

30 If I washe mee selfe with snowe water, and make myne handes neuer so cleane at the wel:

31 Yet shalt thou * dippe me in the mire, & (k) myne owne clothes shal defyle me.

32 For he that I must geue answeare vnto, and with whom I goe to the lawe, is not a man as I am:

33 Neither is there any dayesman to laye his hande betweene vs.

34 Let him take his rodde away from me, yea let him make me no more afrayde of him, 35 And then shal I answeare him without any feare: but * because I am not so, I holde me stil.

* or, I haue nothing to make for me.

(e) Declaring that God doth al thinges iustly, & is vnsearchable in his dooinges, whiche not one can controle.

(f) A miserable case when man is brought to suche desperatiõ, where as God hym selfe saith, before they cry I wyl heare them.

(g) If I would stand in mine own defence, yet god hath iust cause to condemne me yf he examine myne hart & cõscience.

(h) That they can not see to doo iustice.

(i) As yf he had said, If I be wicked & shalbe iudged as the vngodly, why taryest thou so long to thrust me into the graue, why do I abide al this in vain?

* or, plunge me in the pit.

(k) Shewyng our righteousnesse before god to be nothyng, but as a defiled cloth.

The.x. Chapter.

1. Iob is weerie of his lyfe, and setteth out his frailenesse before God. 20. He desyreth him to stay his hande. 22. A description of death.

1 MY soule is (a) cut of though I liue, I wil powre out my complaint against mee selfe, and wyl speake out of the very * heauynesse of my soule.

2 I wil say vnto God, O (b) doo not condemne me, but shewe me wherefore thou contendest with me?

3 Thinkest thou it wel donne to oppresse me? to cast me of, being the woorkes of thy handes? and to (c) maintayne the counsel of the vngodly?

4 Hast thou fleashly eyes? or dooest thou looke as a man looketh?

5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of (d) man? and thy yeeres as mans yeeres?

6 That thou makest suche inquisition for my wickednesse, & searchest out my sinne?

7 Thou knowest (e) that I haue not done wickedly, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande.

8 Thy handes haue made me, and fashioned me altogeather rounde about, wylt thou then destroy me?

9 Remember, I beseeche thee, that thou madest me as the moulde of the earth, and shalt bring me into dust againe.

10 Hast thou not powred me as it wer milke, and turned me to cruddes like cheese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skinne and fleashe, & ioyned me togeather with bones and sinowes.

12 Thou hast graunted me lyfe, and donne me good: and thy (f) visitation hath preserued my spirite.

13 Thou hast hydde these thynges in thyne hart, (yet) I am sure that thou remembrest this thyng.

14 If I dyd sinne, thou haddest an eye vnto me, and shalt not pronounce me innocent from myne offence.

15 If I haue donne wickedly, wo is me therfore: yf I haue donne righteously, yet (g) dare I not lyft vp my head, so full am I of confusion, and see myne owne miserie.

16 And let it encrease, hunt me as a Lion, but thou wylt returne and shewe thee selfe marueylous vpon me.

* or, bitternesse.

(a) I am more like to a dead man, then to one that liueth.

(b) That is, in thy secret iudgement doo not lay thinges to my charge.

(c) Wylt thou helpe the wicked, and leaue me destitute.

(d) That is, changeable, as though he woulde say, Art thou not the same god that thou wast wont to be? mercyful and good to Iob?

(e) That is, I can not offend, by reason thou kepest me lowe in affliction.

(f) Thy fatherly care and prouidence whereby thou preseruest me.

(g) That is, I wyl walke in meeke humilitie.

" or, plagues.

17 Thou bryngest freshe " witnesse agaynst me, and thy wrath increasest thou vppon me: diuers and many are the plagues that I am in.

18 Wherefore hast thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had perished, and that no eye had seene me.

19 And that I were as though I had not benne, but brought from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let hym then leaue of from me, and let me alone, that I may comfort mee selfe a litle,

D

21 Before I goe (thyther from whence) I shal not turne agayne, euen to the land of darknesse and shadowe of death:

22 Yea a lande as darke as darknesse it selfe, and into the shadowe of death where is (k) none order, but the light (is there) as darknesse.

(k) That is, no difference betweene light and darknes.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. Iob is vniustly blamed of Sophar. 7. The maiestie of God can not be searched. 14. God is mercyful to the repentant. 18. The godly shal lyue in safetie.

1 THen answeared Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde,

A

2 Shoulde not (he that maketh) many woordes be answeared? Shoulde he that (a) bableth much be commended therein?

(a) For not he that speaketh muche, but he that speaketh truely, speaketh wel.

3 Shoulde thy lyes make men holde theyr peace? and when thou mockest (others) shal no man make thee ashamed?

4 For thou hast sayde, (b) My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thyne eyes.

(b) Here Sophar layeth to Iobs charge wordes that he spake.

5 But O (c) that God woulde speake, and open his lippes agaynst thee,

(c) Sophar goeth about to proue Iob to be iustly plagued.

6 That he myght shewe thee the (d) secrets of wysedome, howe thou hast (deserued) double, according to right: Knowe therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thyne iniquitie.

(d) Whiche is not to stande in iustifying thee selfe.

7 Art thou hable to finde out (the secrets of) God? Or wylt thou attayne to the perfectnesse of the almyghty?

8 He is (e) hygher then heauen, what art thou hable to doo? deeper then the hel, how wylt thou then knowe him?

(e) If man be not hable to comprehend the height of heauen, the deapth of hel, the length of the earth, & the breadth of the sea, whiche are but creatures, howe can he attayne to the perfect knoledge of the creatour?

9 The measure of hym is longer then the earth, and broder then the sea.

10 Though he turne al thynges vpsyde downe, close them in, or gather them together, who wyl turne him from his purpose?

11 For it is he that knoweth vayne men, he seeth their wickednesse also, shoulde he not then consyder it?

12 Yet vayne man woulde be wyse, though man (newe) borne, is like a wylde asses coult.

13 If thou preparedst thyne hart, and liftedst vp thyne handes towarde hym:

14 If thou wouldest put away the wickednesse whiche thou hast in hande, so that no vngodlynesse dwel in thy house:

C

15 Then myghtest thou (f) lyft vp thy face without " shame, and then shouldest thou be sure, and haue no neede to feare.

(f) Suche are the quiet mindes of those that truely repent " or, spottes.

16 Then shouldest thou forgeat thy miserie, and thynke no more vpon it, then vpon the waters whiche passeth by.

17 Then shoulde thy " lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou shouldest shine foorth, and be as the morning.

" or, age.

18 Then myghtest thou be bolde, because there is hope, and take thy rest quietly, as compassed with a trenche.

19 Then mightest thou lye downe, and none to make thee afrayde, yea many one should make suite vnto thee.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they shall fayle, and they shal not escape, and theyr hope (shalbe) sorowe of mynde.

The. xii. Chapter.

1. Iob accuseth his freendes of ignorance. 7. He declareth the myght and power of God. 17. And howe God changeth the course of thynges.

1 SO Iob answeared, and sayd,

2 Then no doubt ye are the people, and (a) wysedome shal perishe with you.

(a) As though he shoulde say, your wysdome exceedeth al other, and when ye die, al wysdome shoulde perishe with you.

3 But I haue " vnderstandyng as wel as ye, and am not inferiar to you: yea, who knoweth not these thynges?

" Or hart.

4 I am as one mocked of his neyghbour, who calleth vpon GOD, and he heareth him: the iust and the vpryght is laughed to scorne.

(b) That is, as he that despiseth the lyght in the night season may soone stumble, so they that refuse the afflicted which thinne before gods face, do geat to them selues his wrath to their peril.

5 Being as a light (b) despised in the harts of the riche, and as one redy to fal.

6 The houses of robbers are in wealth and prosperitie, and they that malitiously meddle agaynst God, dwelle without care in those thynges that God hath (c) geuen rychely with his hande.

(c) The Hebrewe reade, whom God inwith his hand.

7 Aske the catayle, (d) and they shal enfourme thee: the foules of the ayre, & they shal tel thee.

(d) For euen the catayle, and al creatures do declare godspower, as it is sayde, The heauens declare the glory of God.

8 Speake to the earth, and it shal shewe thee: or to the fyshes of the sea, and they shal certifye thee.

9 What is he, but he knoweth that the hand of the Lorde made al these?

10 In

(f) For God dooth not onely create his creatures, but also nourisheth, cherisheth, and preserveth them styl.

10 In whose hande is the (f) soule of euery lyuyng thyng, and the breath of al mankynde?
11 Dooth not the eares deserne the woordes? and the mouth taste the meate?
12 Among olde persons there is wisdome, and in age is vnderstandyng.
13 Yea with (God) is wysedome & strength, counsel and vnderstanding.

(g) Here Iob proueth that nothing is comparable to gods power, or can preuayle against it.

14 Beholde, (g) if he breake downe a thing, who can set it vp againe? if he shut a thing, who wyl open it?
15 Behold, if he withholde the waters, they drye vp: yf he let them goe, they destroy the earth.
16 With hym is strength and wysedome: both the deceiuer and he that is deceiued are (h) his.

(h) He sheweth that nothing is done in this world without gods wyl and ordinance.

17 He caryeth away the wyse menne as it were a spoyle, & maketh the iudges fooles.
18 He looseth the rule of kynges, and gyrdeth their loynes with a bonde.
19 He leadeth away the great menne into captiuitie, and turneth the myghtie vpside downe.
20 He stoppeth the mouth of them that speake trueth, and disapointeth the aged of their vnderstandyng.
21 He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the myghtie weake.
22 Looke what lyeth hyd in darknesse, he declareth it openly, and the very shadowe of death bryngeth he to lyght.
23 He increaseth the people, and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiply, and diminisheth them.
24 He taketh away the hart of them that be heades of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in the wyldernesse out of the way.
25 They grope in the darke without lyght, and he maketh them to stacker lyke a drunken man.

The. xiii. Chapter.

20. Iob prayeth vnto God that he woulde not handle hym rygorously.

1 LO, (a) al (this) haue I seene with myne eye, heard with mine eare, and vnderstande it.

(a) Meaning, I knowe the power of god aswel as you.

2 What ye knowe, that same doo I knowe also, neyther am I inferior vnto you.
3 Neuertheless, I talke with the almighty, and my desyre is to commune with God.
4 As for you ye are woorkemaisters of lyes, and (b) vnprofitable phisitions altogeather.

(b) That is, you are vnmeete for my disease, which seeke not the medicine to cure it, but rather to encrease it, with your lies and tales to trouble me.

5 Moulde GOD ye keapt your tongue, for then myght ye be taken for wyse menne.
6 Nowe heare my reasonyng, and ponder the argument of my lyppes.
7 Wyl you speake (c) wickedly for Gods (defence) and talke deceitfully for his (cause?)
8 Wyl ye accept the person of hym? or wyl ye contende for God?
9 Shal that helpe you when he calleth you to reckening? or as one man mocketh another, doo ye so mocke hym?
10 He shal surely reproue you, if ye doo secretly accept any person.
11 Shal not his excellencie make you afraid? shal not his feare fal vpon you?
12 Your (d) remembrance is lyke vnto dust, and your bodyes lyke the clay.
13 Hold your tongues before me, that I may speake, and let comme on me what wyl.
14 Wherfore doo I (e) teare my fleash with my teeth, and (f) put my soule in myne handes?
15 Lo, though he slay me, yet wyl I trust in him: but I wyl reproue myne owne wayes in his syght.
16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no (g) hypocrite comme before hym.
17 Heare diligently my woordes, and ponder my sayeinges with your eares.
18 Behold, now haue I prepared my iudgement, and knowe that I shalbe founde (h) righteous.
19 What is he that wil (i) goe to lawe with me? if I nowe holde my tongue, I dye.
20 Neuertheless, doo not these two things vnto me, and then wyl I not hyde mee selfe from thee:
21 Withdrawe thyne hande farre from me, and let not the feareful dread of thee make me afrayde.
22 Then cal, and I wyl answeare: or let me speake, and geue thou me an answeare.
23 Howe many are my misdeedes & sinnes? let me knowe my trangressions and offences.
24 Wherfore hydest thou thy face, and holdest me for thyne enimie?
25 Wylt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, and wylt thou pursue the drye stubble?
26 For thou layest sharpely to my charge, and pounishest me for the sinnes of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feete also in the (k) stockes, and lookest narowly vnto al my pathes, and makest the print thereof in the heeles of my feete:
28 And I as a rotten thing doo consume away, as a garment that is moth eaten.

(c) Marke what I shal lay agaynst you, for I blame you not in that ye declare gods power, but because you fayne a carnal and humane iustice to be in him: and so of true thinges, ye conclude lyes.

(d) Your fame shal comme to nothyng.

(e) That is, sore vexe and torment mee selfe as though I shoulde rent and teare my fleashe with teeth.

(f) That is, to set my life in dangers.

(g) Here it appeareth that Iobs trust & hope in God was not al perished, discharging him selfe of kypocrisie wherewith they charged hym.

(h) That is, not condemned for my sinnes, as you doo reason.

(i) To proue that God plagueth me for myne offences.

(k) Thou makest me thy prisoner, and doest so oppresse me, that I can not stirre hande nor foote.

The.xiiii. Chapter.

1. Iob deſcribeth the ſhortneſſe and miſerie of the lyfe of man. 14. Hope ſuſtayneth the godly. 22. The condition of mans lyfe.

A 1 MAN that is borne of a woman hath but a ſhort tyme to liue, and is ful of miſerie.

(a) This expreſſeth mãs ſhortneſſe of lyfe, and the vnſtableneſſe therof, being compared to a floure, to a ſhadow, and to the graſſe in the fielde.

2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe (a) like a floure: he fleeth as it were a ſhadowe, and continueth not.

3 Doeſt thou (b) open thyne eyes vpon ſuch one, and bringeſt me into thy iudgement?

4 Who can make it cleane that commeth of an vncleane thing? no body.

5 The dayes of man ſurely are determined, the number of his monethes are knowen onely vnto thee, thou haſt appoynted him his bondes whiche he can not goe beyonde.

(b) Meaning, that ſeeyng man is ſo frayle, he ſhoulde not handle hym ſo extremely.

6 Go from him, that he may reſt, vntyl his day (c) comme whiche he looketh for, lyke as an hyrcling dooth.

(c) That is, death, which he deſireth, as the hireling wayteth in the ende of his labour to receiue his wages.

7 For if a tree be cut downe, there is ſome hope yet that it wyl ſprout & ſhoote forth the branches agayne.

8 Though the roote of it be waren olde in the earth, and the ſtocke thereof be dead in the groũde:

9 Yet when it getteth the ſent of water, it wyl budde and bring forth bowes, lyke as a tree that is planted.

(d) Iob ſaith not this as hauing no hope of immortalitie, but as one ſore tormented.

10 (d) But as for man, when he is dead, periſhed, and conſumed away, what becommeth of him?

11 As the waters paſſe from the ſea, and as the ſtudde decayeth and dryeth vp:

12 So man after he is aſleepe riſeth not, he ſhal not wake tyl the heauens be no more, nor ryſe out of his ſleepe.

13 O that thou wouldeſt hyde me in the graue, and kepe me ſecrete, vntil thy wrath were paſt, & to appoynt me a time wherein thou mighteſt remember me.

14 May a dead man lyue agayne? All the dayes of my lyfe wyl I wayte ſtyl, tyl my changing ſhal comme.

(e) Thou pla geſt me now, yet when thou ſhalt cal me vp at domes day, I ſhal anſwere thee, for thou art merciful.

15 Thou ſhalt (e) cal (me) and I ſhal anſweare thee, " deſpiſe not thou the worke of thyne owne handes.

" or, thou ſhalt loue.

16 For now thou (f) numbreſt al my goinges, and geueſt no delay vnto my ſinne.

(f) That is, thou haſt al my deedes numbred, ſpare me therefore.

17 Myne iniquitie is ſealed vp as it were in a (g) bagge, & thou addeſt (punniſhment) vnto my wickednes.

(g) Thou keepeſt al my ſinnes in ſtore, and ſuffreſt none vnpouniſhed

18 The mountaynes fal away at the laſt, the rockes are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearſe through the very ſtones by litle and litle, the ſtudes waſhe away the gravel and earth: ſo ſhalt thou deſtroy the hope of man.

20 Thou preuayleſt ſtil againſt him, ſo that he paſſeth away: thou chãgeſt his " eſtate, and puttest him from thee.

" or, face.

21 And whether his chyldren comme to wooſhip or no, he can not tel: and if they be menne of lowe degree, he knoweth not.

D

22 But whyle his (h) fleaſhe is vpon him, it muſt haue ſorowe: and his ſoule ſhal mourne within hym.

(h) Whyle he lyueth.

The.xv. Chapter.

1. Eliphas blameth Iob, becauſe he chalengeth wyſedome and puriteneſſe to hym ſelfe.

1 THen anſweared Eliphaz the Themanite, and ſayde,

A

2 Shal a wyſe mans anſweare be as the winde, and fyl his belly with the (a) winde of the eaſt?

(a) Woordes to no effect ſpoken, are lykened to the eaſt wind, which drieth vp the moyſture as ſoone as it falleth: So fooliſh wordes vaynely periſhe aſſoone as thei be ſpoken.

3 Shal he reprooue with a wooꝛd that is nothing wooꝛth, and ſpeake the thinges which can do no good?

4 Surely thou haſt caſt of feare, and refrayneſt prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth ſetteth fooꝛth thyne owne iniquitie, ſeyng thou haſt choſen the tongue of the craftie.

6 Thyne owne mouth condempneth thee, and not I: yea thyne owne lippes ſhape an anſweare againſt thee.

B

7 (b) Art thou the firſt man that euer was borne? or waſt thou made before the hylles?

(b) That is, art thou ſo ancient, that al wiſdome is in thy head?

8 Haſt thou heard the ſecrete counſel of god? & doeſt thou reſtraine wiſdome to thee ſelf?

" or, is ther any ſecrete thing within thee?

9 What knoweſt thou that we knowe not? and what vnderſtandeſt thou, but we can the ſame?

10 With vs are both old & aged menne, yea ſuch as haue lyued longer then thy father.

(c) As one ſtandyng in thyne owne conceit.

11 Thinkeſt thou it a ſmal thing of the conſolations of God? " with thee is a lyeing wooꝛde.

(d) So reade, anſwearing him, at thy pleaſure: the Hebrue is, anſwearing him in thy ſpirite.

12 Why dooth thyne (c) hart ſo bewitche thee? and whereforе wincheſt thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy minde is ſo (d) puft vp againſt God, & letteſt ſuche wooꝛdes goe out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he ſhould be cleane? and he whiche is borne of a woman, whereby he might be righteous?

" or, among his ſaintes there is none without fault.

15 Beholde he dooth not " truſt his ſaintes, yea the heauens are not cleane in his ſyght:

16 Howe muche more then an abominable and vile man, whiche (e) drinketh wickednes lyke water.

(e) Whiche hath a deſire to ſinne, as he that is thirſtie to drinke.

17 I wyl tel thee, heare me, and I wil ſhewe thee that I haue ſeene:

18 Whiche wyſe menne haue told, and haue not hidde that whiche they receiued from their fathers:

19 Vnto

19 Unto whom alone the earth was geuen, and no ſtranger went among them.

(f) Here he repeateth certaine places of the leuitical lawe for his proofe, whiche in deede the fathers ſo ſpake, but did not vnderſtande them as Eliphaz dyd.

20 The (f) vngodly ſorowoeth al the dayes of his lyfe, as it were a woman with child, and the (g) number of a tyrantes yeeres are vnknowen.

(g) He ſhalbe alwayes in feare day & night, not knowyng any thing certayne.

21 A feareful ſounde is (euer) in his eares, and when he is in peace, the deſtroyer ſhal come vpon him.

22 He beleeueth neuer to be deliuered (h) out of darkneſſe: for the ſwoord is alwayes before his eyes.

(h) That is, out of the troubles and feares which fal vpon him

23 He wandreth abroade for bread where it is, knowyng that the day of darkneſſe is redy at his hande.

24 Trouble and anguiſhe wyl make him afrayde, they ſhal preuayle agaynſt hym, as a kyng with his armie.

(i) That is, abundance of ryches hath made him ſo proud, that he forgetteth God.

25 For he hath ſtreatched out his hande agaynſt God, and armed him ſelfe agaynſt the almighty.

26 He runneth proudly vpon him, and with a ſtiffe necke fyghteth he againſt him.

27 Where as he (i) coureth his face with fatneſſe, and maketh his body wel likyng.

28 Therefore ſhal his dwellyng be (k) in deſolate cities, and in houſes whiche no man inhabiteth, but are becomme heapes of ſtones.

(k) That is, he ſhal haue no certayne and ſure place to dwel in.

29 He ſhal not be riche, neither ſhal his ſubſtance continue, neither ſhal the proſperitie thereof be prolonged vpon the earth.

30 He ſhal neuer depart out of darkneſſe, the flame (l) ſhal drie vp his branches, with the blaſt of the mouth (of God) ſhal he be taken away.

(l) That is, ſuch bleſſing as god gaue hym, ſhalbe turned into curſing.

31 He beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie ſhalbe his recompence.

32 He ſhal periſhe afore his time be worne out, and his (m) branche ſhal not be greene.

(m) That is, his progenie or offspring ſhal not continue.

33 He ſhalbe plucked of as an vntimely grape from the vine, and ſhal let his flowre fal as the oliue dooth.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites ſhalbe deſolate, and the fyre ſhal conſume the houſes of ſuche as are greedy to receiue gyftes.

35 He conceiueth trauayle, and beareth vanitie, and their belly bryngeth forth deceipt.

The. xvi. Chapter.

I. Iob moued by the importunacie of his freendes, 7. counteth in what extremitie he is, 19. and taketh God to witneſe of his innocencie.

(a) For they more bite him with cruel wordes then comfort hym.

1 Iob answeared, and ſayde,
2 I haue oft times heard ſuch thinges: (a) miſerable geuers of comfort are ye, al the ſort of you.
3 * Shal not vayne woordes comme yet to an ende? or what maketh thee bolde ſo to anſweare?
4 I coulde ſpeake as ye doo alſo: but would God that your (b) ſoule were in my ſoules ſteade, then coulde I frame woordes for you, and ſhake my head at you:
5 I would ſtrengthen you with my mouth, and releaſe your (payne) with the talking of my lippes.
6 For al my woordes my ſorowe wyl not ceaſſe: and (c) though I holde my tongue, what am I eaſed?
7 But nowe he hath made me weery, thou haſt made deſolate al (d) my congregation.
8 And that thou (e) haſt fylled me with wrinckles, my fleſhe is recorde, and my leanenеſſe ryſeth vp agaynſt me, and beareth witneſſe thereof in my face.
9 His wrath hath torne (me,) he hateth me, and gnaſheth vppon me with his teeth: myne enimie looketh fiercely vppon me with his eyes.
10 They haue opened their mouthes wyde vpon me, & (f) ſmitten me vpon the cheeke deſpitefully, they geather them ſelues together agaynſt me.
11 God hath ſhut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me (g) into the handes of the wicked.
12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath al to ſhaken me, and ſet me as a marke for him ſelfe.
13 His (h) archers compaſſe me rounde about, he woundeth my raines, and dooth not ſpare, my * bowels hath he (i) powred vpon the grounde.
14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon another, and is fallen vpon me like a giant.
15 I haue ſowed a ſackcloth vpon my ſkinne, and wallowed my  head in the duſte.
16 My face is wythered with weeping, and in myne eyes is the ſhadowe of death.
17 Howbe it there is no wickednеſſe in my handes, but my prayer is cleane.
18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let my crying fynde no roome.
19 For loe, my witneſſe is heauen, and he that knoweth me is in the height.
20 My freendes geue me many woordes to ſcorne, and myne eye powreth out teares vnto God.
21 O that a body myght pleade with God, as one man dooth with another.
22 Yet the number of my yeeres is comme, and the way that I muſt goe, is at hande, from whence I ſhall not turne agayne.

(b) Woulde ye ſuffered that whiche I ſuffer?

(c) For God wyl haue his pleaſure ouer me.

(d) My houſe holde, children, and ſubſtance.

(e) Not by reaſon of yeres, but by reaſon of my greefe, ſhewing his extreme paines

(f) That is, deſpitefully handled me, whiche ſtriking on the cheeke ſignifieth.

(g) To proue him, and not to deſtroy him.

(h) His plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me.

(i) God hath not only ſtricken outwardly my body and al my ſubſtance, but alſo touched my inwarde partes.

* or, woords of winde.

* or, gall.

 Hebre. horne.

(a) In al Iobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the reſt moſt greeuous, that they that ſhould chearfully comfort him, did cruelly vexe him and mocke him.

" or, mockers.

(b) That is, make promiſe with me O God, that I may talke with thee, for I wyl not reaſon with them, for they are fooles.

(c) That they can not vnderſtand the cauſe of my puniſhmēt: but iudge me wicked, not knowing thy wyſdom, wherby thou doeſt afflict thy children.

" or, tabyet.

(d) Though the godly ſee them ſelues afflicted of god as the wicked are, yet they diſpaire not, knowing that the iuſt alſo are puniſhed for proofe of them.

" or, come nowe.

(e) Seeing I am but corruption.

The. xvii. Chapter.

1. Iob ſayth that he conſumeth away, and yet dooth patiently abyde it. 10. He exhorteth his freendes to repentance, 13. ſhewing that he looketh but for death.

1 MY breath is corrupt, my dayes are ſhortened, I am harde at deathes dooze.

2 (a) " Frowarde men are with me, and myne eye muſt continue in the bitterneſſe of them.

3 O deliuer me, and (b) looke out one to be my ſuretie in thy ſyght: what is he that knoweth who wyl promiſe for me?

4 For thou haſt withholden their hartes (c) from vnderſtandyng, therefore ſhalt thou not ſet (them) vp on hygh.

5 He that ſpeaketh flatterie to his freende, the eyes of his chyldren ſhal fayle.

6 He hath made me a bywoorde of the people, where as afore I was their " ioy.

7 Myne eye is dimme for very heauyneſſe, and al my ſtrength is like a ſhadowe.

8 Vertuous men therefore ſhal wel conſyder this, and the innocent ſhal take part agaynſt the hypocrite.

9 The ryghteous alſo wyl (d) keepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes wyl euer be ſtronger and ſtronger.

10 As for al you, turne you, and " great you hence, (I pray you,) ſeeing I can not fynde one wyſe man among you.

11 My dayes are paſt, and my counſayles and thoughtes of my hart are vaniſhed away, 12 Changing the nyght into day, and the lyght approching into darkneſſe.

13 Though I tary neuer ſo muche, yet the graue is my houſe, and I haue made my bed in the darke.

14 I ſayde to corruption, Thou art my father: and to the wooꝛmes, You are my mother, and my ſyſter.

15 (e) Where is then nowe my hope? or who hath conſydered the thing that I looke for? (My hope) ſhal goe downe with me into the pit, and lye with me in the duſt.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1. Bildad rehearſeth the paines of the vnfaythful and wicked.

1 THen anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

2 When wyl ye make an ende of your woorꝺes? Marke wel, and then we wyl ſpeake.

3 Wherfore are we counted as beaſtes, and reputed ſo vyle in your ſight?

4 He deſtroyeth him ſelfe with his anger: ſhal the earth be forſaken, or any ſtone remooued out of his place (a) becauſe of thee?

5 Yea the light of the vngodly ſhalbe put out, and the ſparke of his fyre ſhal not ſhine.

6 The (b) light ſhalbe darke in his dwelling, & his candel ſhalbe put out with hym.

7 The ſteppes of his ſtrength ſhalbe reſtrained, and his owne counſaile ſhal caſt him downe:

8 For his feete are taken (as it were) in the net, and he walketh vpon the ſnares.

9 The grinne ſhal take him by the heele, and the thirſtie of blood ſhal catche him.

10 The ſnare is laide for him in the ground, and a pitfal in the way.

11 Fearefulneſſe ſhal make hym afraide on euery ſyde, and ſhal driue him to his feete.

12 (c) Hunger ſhalbe his ſtrength, and deſtruction ſhalbe redy at his ſyde.

13 He ſhal (d) eate the ſtrength of his owne ſkinne, euen the fyrſt borne of death ſhal eate his ſtrength.

14 His hope ſhalbe rooted out of his dwelling, and ſhal bring him to the (e) kyng of feare.

15 (Other men) ſhal dwel in his houſe, and it ſhalbe none of his, and brimſtone ſhalbe ſcattered vpon his habitation.

16 His rootes ſhalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue ſhal his branche be cut downe.

17 His remembrance ſhal perithe from the earth, & he ſhal haue no name in ỹ ſtreete.

18 They ſhal driue hym from the (f) lyght into darkneſſe, and chaſe him cleane out of the worlde.

19 He ſhal neither haue " children nor kinſfolkes among his people, no nor any poſteritie in his dwellinges.

20 They that comme after him, ſhalbe aſtonyed at (g) his day, and " they that goe before ſhalbe afrayde.

21 Suche are nowe the dwellinges of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

(a) That is, ſhal God change the accuſtomed order of his operation for thee: and not afflict the wicked as his order is?

(b) His wyſdome ſhal periſhe, and from this place vnto the ende of the Chapter, Bildad goeth about to proue Iob wicked, becauſe god plageth him, as he dooth the wicked man.

(c) That is, he ſhal not attayne to that whiche he deſireth, for al his power and might ſhalbe taken away by hunger.

(d) Meanyng the vngodly ſhalbe the deſtruction of the ſtrength of his owne ſkinne, that is, of his children and poſteritie.

(e) Whiche is death, the moſt feareful and terrible of al thinges

(f) From proſperitie to aduerſitie.

" or, ſonne nor nenieu,

(g) That is, at his fal.

The. xix. Chapter.

1. Iob reproueth his freendes, 15. and reciteth his miſeries and greeuous paines. 25. He aſſureth him ſelfe of the general reſurrection.

1 IOb anſweared, and ſayde,

2 Howe long wyl ye vexe my ſoule, and trouble me with woorꝺes?

3 Loe, tenne times haue ye reproched me, and are not aſhamed, but haue laughed me to ſcorne.

4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, mine error rour then remayneth with mee (a) selfe.

5 But if ye wyl aduance your selues against me, & rebuke me for the shame that is come vpon me:
6 Know this then, that it is (b) God which hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 If I complayne of the violence that is donne vnto me, I can not be heard: and if I cry, there is no sentence geuen with me.
8 He hath hedged vp my way that (c) I can not passe, and he hath set darknesse in my pathes.
9 He hath spoyled me (d) of myne honour, & (e) taken the crowne away from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on euery side, and I am * gonne: my hope hath he taken away, as a tree pluckt vp by the roote.
11 His wrath is kyndeled against me, he taketh me as though I were his enimie.
12 His (f) menne of warre comme togeather, whiche made theyr way ouer me, and besieged my dwellyng rounde about.
13 He hath put my brethren farre awaye from me, and myne acquayntance are also become strangers vnto me.
14 Myne owne kinsfolkes haue forsake me: and my best acquaynted haue forgotten me.
15 * The seruantes and maydens of myne owne house tooke me for a stranger, and I am become as an aliant in theyr sight.
16 I called my seruant, and he gaue me no answeare: (no though) I prayed hym with my mouth.
17 Myne owne wyfe myght not abyde my breath, (though) I prayed her for the chyldrens sake of myne owne body.
18 Yea, the * young men despised me, and when I rose, they spake euyl vppon me.
19 All my most familiars abhorred me: and they whom I loued best, are turned against me.
20 My bone cleaueth to my skynne, and to my fleash, only there is leaft me the skinne about my teeth.
21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my frendes, for the hande of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me as God (doth) and are not satisfied with my fleashe?
23 O that my woordes were now wrytten, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an iron penne in lead, or in stone, to continue.
25 For I am sure that my redeemer liueth, and that I shal (g) ryse out of the earth in the latter day.
26 And * shalbe couered agayne with my skynne, and shal see God in my fleashe:
27 Whom I mee selfe shal see, and myne eyes shal beholde, and none other for me: this my hope is layde vp in my bosome.
28 But ye sayd, Why is he persecuted, and there was a deepe matter in me?
29 (h) But beware of ye sword: for the sword wyl be auenged of wickednesse, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

(a) Asthough he would say what haue you to doo with that, the fault is myne, and not yours.
(b) He declareth that his afflictiō cometh of god, though he be not able to fele the cause in him selfe.
(c) That is, I can not goe from these my afflictiōs.
(d) That is, of my riches & substance.
(e) That is, destroyed my chyldren: for the crowne of the aged are childers children, as it is in the prouerbes.
* or, vndonne.
(f) That is his great plagues layd on me.
* or, they that dwelt with me.
* or, folkes.
(g) Somme reade, that he shal stand last on the earth, meanyng, that Christe shal come at the latter ende vnto iudgement, & raise vp them that ly in the dust
* or, though after my skynne the woormes destroy this body, yet shal I, &c.
(h) That is, the iudgmēt of god, the reuenger of iniquitie: meaning, though their wicked endeuortoke place nowe, yet god wyl hereafter cōsider him, & be reuenged of the euyl.

The. xx. Chapter.

1. Sophar sheweth that the wicked and the couetous shal haue a short end, 22. though for a tyme they florishe.

1 THen answeared Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde,
2 For the same cause do (a) my thoughtes compel me to answeare, and therefore make haste.
3 I haue (sufficiently) heard the (b) checking of my reproofe, therfore the spirite of my vnderstanding causeth me to answere.
4 Knowest thou not this of olde, and since God placed man vpon earth,
5 (c) That the gladnesse of the vngodlye hath ben short, & that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twynckling of an eye?
6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauen, so that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:
7 Yet he perisheth for euer lyke his doung, (in so muche) that they whiche haue seene hym, shal say, Where is he?
8 He shal vanishe as a dreame, so that he can no more be founde, and shal passe away as a vision in the nyght.
9 (So that) the eye whiche saw him before, shal haue no more sight of him, & his place shal * knowe hym no more.
10 His children shal please the poore, and his handes shal restore theyr goodes.
11 From his youth his bones are ful of sinnes, whiche shal lye downe with him in the * earth.
12 When wickednesse was sweete in his mouth, he hyd it vnder his tongue.
13 That he fauoured, that would he not forsake, but keapt it close in his throte.
14 The bread that he dyd eate, is turned to the poyson of serpentes within his bodye.
15 The riches that he deuoured shal he parbreake agayne: for God shal draw them out of his belly.
16 He shal sucke the gal of serpentes, and the adders tongue shal slaye hym:
17 So that he shal no more see the ryuers and brookes of hony and butter.
18 The thyng he hath laboured for, shal he restore, and (d) shal not eate of it: great trauaile shal he make for riches, but he shal not

(a) Because Iob bragged of his innocēcie (as they thought) Sophar enterrupted his talke, as though he bosted in vayne, for that God accepteth none but the repētant sinner.
(b) For two causes Sophar spake: one, because Iob in answering toucheth hym: and for that he deemed his knowledge sufficient to answeare agayne.
(c) Sophar euen to the ende of this chapter, alleageth true sentēces: but he erreth, in that he thought Iob for impietie and hypocrisie to be plagued.
* or, see.
* or, dust.
(d) For euyl gotte goodes god wyl some take away, & restore to them from whom they were craftely spoyled and rauened.

not enioy them,
19 Because he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, and not buylded them.
20 Because he could not perceiue when his belly was wel, through his greedy desire he shal not escape.
D 21 There (e) shal none of his meate be left, therefore shal no man looke for his goodes.
22 When he had plenteousnesse of euerye thyng, yet was he poore, though he was helped on euery side.
23 And it shal comme to passe, that wherewith he purposed to fil his belly, God shal powre the furie of his wrath thereon, and shal cause his indignation to raigne vppon hym, and vpon his meate.
24 He shal flee from the iron weapon, and the bowe of steele shal stryke hym through.
25 The swoorde is drawen out, and goeth through the body, and glystereth of his gal: so feare shal comme vpon hym.
26 Al darknesse shalbe hyd in their secrete places, (f) an vnkindeled fire shal consume hym: and looke what remayneth in his house, it shalbe destroyed.
27 The heauen shal (g) declare his wickednesse, and the earth shal take parte agaynst hym.
28 The substance that he hath in his house shalbe taken away, and perishe in the day of the Lordes wrath.
29 This is the portion that the wicked man shal haue of God, and the heritage (that he may looke for) of God, because of his (h) woordes.

(e) That is, his heyres & executours shal gape in vayne.
(f) That is, fire frō heauen: & here Sophar toucheth Iob, for that his freendes and chyldren were consumed by fire.
(g) There is nothing hyd that shal not be opened, & the earth shal eyther be vnfruitful or bring forth things hurtful to the wicked.
(h) Spoken agaynst god.

The. xxi. Chapter.

1. Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 15. insomuche that they blaspheme God.

A 1 IOb answeared, and sayde,
2 HEare diligently my woordes, & that shalbe in steade of your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I maye speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on.
4 Is it with (a) man that I make this disputation? whiche if it were so, shoulde not my spirite then be in sore trouble?
5 Marke me, and be abashed, and (b) laye your hande vpon your mouth.
6 For when I consyder, I am afraide, and my fleashe is smytten with feare.
7 Wherefore doo wicked men lyue, come to their olde age, and encrease in rychesse?
8 Their chyldren lyue in their sight, and their generation before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from al feare, and the rodde of God is not vpon them.
10 Their bullocke gendereth, and that not out of tyme, their cowe calueth, and is not vnfruitful.
11 They sende foorth their chyldren by flockes, and their sonnes daunce.
12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the sounde of the instrumentes of musicke.
13 They spend their dayes in wealthinesse, but (c) sodaynely they goe downe to the graue.
14 They say also vnto God, (d) Go from vs, we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.
15 Who is the almyghtye, that we shoulde serue him? and what profite should we haue yf we should pray vnto hym?
16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodnesse in their hande, therfore wyl I not haue to do with the counsayle of the vngodly.
17 Howe oft shal the (e) candle of the wicked be put out, and their destruction come vpon them? D what sorowe shal God geue them for their part in his wrath?
18 Yea, they shalbe euen as haye before the wynde, and as chaffe that the storme caryeth away.
19 God wyl laye vp the sorowe of the (father) for his chyldren: and when he rewardeth hym, he shal knowe it.
20 Their owne miserie shal they see with their eyes, and drynke of the fearful wrath of the almyghty.
21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the (f) number of his monethes is cut short?
22 Seeyng God hath the hyghest power of al, who can teache hym any knowledge?
23 (g) One dyeth in his ful strength, being in al ease and prosperitie.
24 His breastes are ful of mylke, and his bones runne ful of marowe.
25 Another dyeth in the (h) bytternesse of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.
26 They shal sleepe both alike in the earth, and the wormes shal couer them.
27 Beholde, (i) I knowe what ye thynke, yea and the subtiltie that ye imagine agaynst me.
28 For ye say, (k) Where is the princes palace, & where is ỹ dwelling of the vngodly?
29 Haue ye not asked them that goe by the way? doubtlesse ye can not denye their tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the day of destruction, & the vngodlye shalbe brought foorth to the day of wrath?
31 (l) Who dare declare his way to his face? who wyl rewarde hym for that he dooth?
32 Yet shal he be brought to his graue, and dwel among the heape (of the dead.)

(c) Not being plaged with long sicknes.
(d) They say this, not with tongue, but by the wickednes and impietie of their hart, they seeme so to say.
(e) That is, their great felicitie and wealth.
(f) For the wicked dye vnwares, & neuer endure the course of their dayes to the ende.
(g) Meanyng the wicked: where Iob sayth, That it is not for man to reason with god why he doth thus plague the iust, and prosper the vniust, for who canne teache god wysedome?
(h) And this he meaneth by the godly
(i) Howe ye thinke me wicked, because I am plagued.
(k) Thus theical Iobs house by scorning and mockyng at it.
(l) For no man canne judge by the wicked mens prosperitie what shal become of them.

33 Then

33 Then shal the (m) slymie valley be sweete vnto hym, al men also must folowe hym, as there are innumerable gonne before hym.
34 Howe vayne then is the comfort that ye geue me, seeyng falshood remayneth in al your answeares?

(m) That is, he shalbe content with a homely house of clay, whiche before was not content with a kyngly pallace.

The.xxii.Chapter.

1. Eliphaz affirmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6. He accuseth hym of vnmercifulnesse, 13. and that he denied Gods prouidence. 21. He exhorteth hym to repentance.

1 THen (a) Eliphaz the Themanite gaue answeare, and sayde,
2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wyse may be profitable to hym selfe?
3 Is it any aduantage to the almightie, that thou art ryghteous? or shal it profite hym that thou makest thy wayes perfect?
4 Is he afraide to reprooue thee, & to steppe sooth with thee in to iudgement?
5 Is (b) not thy wickednesse great, and thy vngracious deedes innumerable?
6 For thou (c) hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of their clothyng.
7 To such as were weery, hast thou geuen no water to drynke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungry.
8 But the myghtie man had the earth, and he that was in aucthoritie dwelt in it.
9 Thou hast sent widowes away emptie, & the armes of the fatherlesse were broken.
10 Therefore art thou (d) compassed about with snares, and sodenly vexed with feare.
11 Shouldest thou then see no (e) darkenesse? shoulde not the water flodde runne ouer thee?
12 Is not God on hygh in the heauen? beholde the height of the starres, howe hygh they are.
13 Wylt thou therfore say, How we (f) should god know? can he iudge through the darke cloude?
14 The cloudes couer him, that he may not see, and he walketh on the top of heauen.
15 Hast thou marked the way of the world, wherein wicked men haue walked?
16 Which were cut downe out of time, and whose fundation was as an ouerflowyng ryuer.
17 Whiche sayd vnto God, Goe from vs: and what could the almyghtie do for them?
18 He filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the vngodly be farre from me.
19 The righteous saw it, and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne.

(a) The whole course of this chapter is, that man compared to god, is vniust, and therefore ought to repent.
(b) They knewe not that Iob had so greatly offended: but they coniectured because God so plagued hym, whiche he was not for his sinnes so much as for to proue him, & therfore al their conclusions are false.
(c) Thou hast ben vncharitable and vniust.
(d) That is, therefore art thou thus plagued euery way.
(e) Trouble.
(f) He reproueth Iob, as though he denyed gods prouidence, and that he could not see the thinges that were done in this worlde.

20 Is our substance hewen downe? As for the remnant of them, the (g) fire hath consumed.
21 Therefore (h) reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shal al thynges prosper with thee ryght wel.
22 Receiue, I pray thee, the lawe at his mouth, & lay vp his woordes in thine hart.
23 For yf thou wilt turne to the almightie, thou shalt be (i) built vp, & put al vnrighteousnesse from thy dwellyng.
24 Thou shalt lay vp golde (as plentiful) as the dusse, and the golde of Ophir as the flintes of the ryuers.
25 Yea, almyghtie God shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of syluer.
26 Then shalt thou haue thy delite in the almyghtie, and lyft vp thy face vnto God.
27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto hym, and he shal heare thee, and thou shalt * keepe thy promises.
28 Thou shalt also decree a thyng, and he shal establishe it vnto thee, and the (k) light shal shine in thy wayes.
29 When (the wicked) be cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lifted vp: and God shal saue the humble person.
30 The innocent shal deliuer the Ilande: (l) it shalbe preserued by the puretie of thyne handes.

(g) Meanyng the vngodly and euil persons.
(h) Eliphaz exhorteth Iob to repentance by the great goodnesse that commeth thereof.
(i) God wyl restore vnto thee al thy substance.
* or, pay thy vowes.
(k) That is, the fauour of God.
(l) The place fareth the better, where the ryghteous are.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

2. Iob affirmeth that he both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10. and that he is not punished only for his sinnes.

1 IOb answeared, and sayde,
2 Though my talke be this day in bitternesse, and my plague greater then my gronyng,
3 O that I (a) might know hym, and finde him, & that I myght come before his seate:
4 I would pleade my cause before him, and fyl my mouth with argumentes:
5 I would knowe what answeare he would geue me, and vnderstande what he would say vnto me.
6 Wil he pleade agaynst me with his great power? No, but he wil make me the stronger.
7 There the righteous myght dispute with hym, so should I be deliuered for euer from my iudge.
8 Beholde, though I goe forwarde, I finde hym not: yf I goe backwarde, I can geat no knowledge of hym:
9 If I goe on the leaft syde where he doth his woorke, I can not atteyne vnto hym: agayne, yf I goe on the ryght syde, he hydeth hym selfe, that I can not see hym.

(a) Iob being admonished before to returne to god, sayth, Yf I should come to him, where is he, or where might I finde him, to pleade my cause before hym.

10 But

(b) That is, gods wayes, procuyng therefore him ſelfe not to deſerue ſuche greeuous plagues and afflictions for his faultes.
(c) For God is immutable, & his decrees ſtande faſte.
(d) That is, he hath decreed thus to puniſhe me appoynted hereunto, although I can not attayne to the ſecrete iudgement of God therin, and therfore I doo feare his preſence.

10 But as for my way, he knoweth me, and trieth me, that as the gold I may be tryed.
11 My (b) foote doth keepe his path, his high way haue I holden, & wyl not goe out of it.
12 I wyl not forſake the commaundement of his lippes, I haue eſteemed the woordes of his mouth more then my neceſſarye (foode.)
13 Yet is one, and (c) who can turne hym? he bryngeth to paſſe what he deſyreth.
14 He (d) perfourmeth the thyng that is appoynted for me, and many ſuche thinges dooth he.
15 This is the cauſe that I ſhrynke at his preſence, ſo that when I conſyder hym, I am afrayde of hym.
16 For God maketh my hart ſofte, and the almyghtie putteth me in feare.
17 Becauſe I am not cut of before the darkneſſe, (neyther) hath he couered the darke fro my face.

The .xxiiii. Chapter.

I. Iob deſcribeth the wickednes of men, and ſheweth what curſe belongeth to the wycked. 12. Howe al thynges are gouerned by Gods prouidence, 17. and the deſtruction of the wicked.

A (a) The dooinges of men are ſuch, and ſo variable, that it ſeemed to Iob that god was ignorant and careleſſe, becauſe he puniſhed not the wicked, nor reuenged the godly.
(b) That is, they liue by robbery and theaft.

1 Why ſhoulde not the (a) tymes be hidden from the almyghtie, & they that knowe hym, ſee not his dayes?
2 For ſome men remooue the landmarkes, robbe men of theyr cattel, and feede of the ſame.
3 They driue away the aſſe of the fatherleſſe, & take the widowes oxe for a pledge.
4 They cauſe the poore to turne out of the way, ſo that the poore of the earth hyde them ſelues togeather.
5 Beholde, as wylde aſſes in the deſart goe they forth to theyr worke, and ryſe betymes to ſpoyle: Yea the very (b) wyldernelle miniſtreth foode for them and their chyldren.
6 They reape the corne feelde that is not theyr owne, and gather the vineyarde of the vngodly (whiche they poſſeſſe vniuſtly.)
7 They cauſe the naked to lodge without garment, & without couerynge in the colde.
8 They are wet with the ſhowres of the mountaynes, and imbrace the rocke for want of a couerynge.
9 They plucke the fatherleſſe from the breſt, and take the pledge from the poore.
10 They let hym goe naked without clothyng, and haue taken away the ſheafe of the hungry.
11 They that labour in theyr oyle milles, and treade theyr wine preſſes, ſuffer thirſte.
12 Men of the citie crye out, the ſoules of the ſlayne alſo crye out, yet God regardeth not theyr complaynt.
13 Thoſe are they that flee from the lyght, they knowe not his wayes, nor continue in his pathes.
14 The murderer ryſeth early, and killeth the poore and needie, and in the night is as a theefe.
15 The (c) eye of the adulterer wayteth for the darkeneſſe, and ſayth, There ſhal no eye ſee me: and hydeth his face.
16 In the darke they digge through houſes, whiche they marked for them ſelues in the day tyme: they knowe not the lyght.
17 The morning is to them euen as the ſhadowe of death: yf one knowe them (they are) in the terrours of the ſhadow of death.
18 (The vngodly) is (d) ſwift vpon the water: theyr portion ſhalbe curſed in the earth, and he ſhal not beholde the way of the vineyardes.
19 As the drye grounde and heate (e) conſume the ſnowye waters: ſo ſhal the graue the ſinners.
20 The (f) pitiful man ſhal forgeat hym, he ſhalbe ſweete to the wormes, he ſhalbe no more remembred, & his wyckednelſe ſhalbe broken as a tree.
21 He hath oppreſſed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wydowe hath he donne no good.
22 He (g) drue the myghtie after hym with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was ſure of lyfe.
23 And though they gaue him to be in ſafetie, yet his eyes are vpon theyr wayes.
24 They are exalted for a litle, but (ſhortly) are gonne, brought to pouertie, and taken out of the way, yea, and vtterly pluckte of as the eares of corne.
25 Is (h) it not ſo? who wyl then reproue me as a lyer, and ſay that my woordes are nothyng worth?

C (c) Not only the tyrant, but alſo the adulterer eſcapeth free, and is not corrected.
(d) He fleeth to the waters for his ſuccour.
(e) Although ſuche abominable ſinners liue vncorrected in this worlde, yet at the length hel ſhal deuoure them ſodenly.
(f) Becauſe they pitied not others, they ſhal not be pitied at al.
(g) That is, when they haue plagued and ouerunne the poore and weake, they wyl oppreſſe the ſtrong & mightie alſo.
(h) Then I lye not, and none of you can reproue me.

The .xxv. Chapter.

Bildad prooueth that no man is cleane, nor without ſinne before God.

1 Then anſweared Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,
2 (a) Power and feare (is) with hym, (who) maketh peace in his hyghneſſe.
3 Is there any number of his armies? and vpon whom ſhal not his lyght aryſe?
4 But how may a man, compared vnto god, be iuſtified? or howe can he be cleane, that is borne of a woman?
5 Beholde, the moone * ſhineth not, and the ſtarres are vncleane in his ſyght.

(a) Bildad would proue here that god plagueth the iuſt, yet afterwarde he proſpereth: and becauſe god dealt not ſo with Iob, he concluded that he was wicked.
* compared with God.

6 Howe

6 Howe muche more then man that is but
* or, worme
" corruption, and the sonne of man (which) is but a wooryme?

The. xxvi. Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth that no man can help god, and prooueth it by his wonderful woorkes.

(a) Here Iob reprehendeth Bildad, for that he speaketh not ynough to Gods praise, who needeth not mans wordes, neyther comforteth hym being voyde of comfort.

1 IOb answeared, and sayde, (a)
2 Whom hast thou helped? hym that is without strength? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
3 Where is the counsaile that thou shouldest geue hym whiche hath no wysdome? hast thou taught hym that is very wyse?
4 To whom hast thou spoken these wooydes? who made the breath to comme out of thy mouth?
5 (b) Are not dead thynges shapen vnder the waters, & in (places) neare vnto them?
6 Hel is naked before hym, and destruction hath no couerynge.
7 He streatcheth out the North ouer the emptie place, and hangeth the earth vppon nothyng?
8 He byndeth the water in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 (c) He holdeth backe ỹ face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloude before it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with certayne boundes, (d) vntyl the day & nyght comme to an ende.
11 The (e) very pyllers of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 He stylleth the sea with his power, and through his wisdome smyteth he ỹ strength (thereof.)
13 His spirit hath garnished the heauens, & his hande hath made the crooked serpent.
14 Loe, these are parte of his wayes: but howe litle a portion heare we of hym? who can understande the thunder of his power?

(b) That is, such thinges are in the waters without life, as metals and suche lyke, wherin is expressed gods great power.

(c) His throne of maiestie, whiche are the heauens, he couereth from vs.

(d) That is, so long as the worlde endureth.

(e) Not that heauen hath pyllers, but by the pyllers he vnderstandeth al things vnder heauen.

The. xxvii. Chapter.

3. The constancie and perfectnesse of Iob.
13. The rewarde of the wicked, and of the tyrantes.

A 1 AND Iob proceeded, and went forth in his parable, sayeing,
2 (a) As God lyueth whiche hath taken away my iudgement, & the almighty that hath vexed my mynde:
3 Whyle the breath is in me, and the wynd that GOD hath geuen me is in my nosethyrlles,
4 My lyppes shal talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shal speake no deceite.
5 God forbydde that I shoulde graunt your cause to be ryght: as for me, vntyl myne ende comme, wyl (b) I neuer goe from myne innocencie.
6 My ryghteous dealyng keepe I fast, whiche I wyl not forsake: my hart shal not reproue me (c) of my dayes.
7 Therfore (d) myne enimie shalbe found as the vngodly, and he that taketh part agaynst me, as the vnryghteous.
8 For (e) what hope hath the hypocrite, though he be neuer so couetous, yf God take away his soule?
9 Wyl (f) God heare his crye when trouble commeth vpon hym?
10 Hath he suche delyght in the almyghtie, (g) that he dare alway cal vpon God?
11 I wyl teache you in the " name of God, and the thyng of the almyghtie wyl I not keepe from you.
12 Beholde, al ye your selues haue seene it, why then doo ye thus vanishe in vanitie?
13 (Sayeing,) This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrantes shal receiue of the almighty.
14 If he haue many chyldren (they shal perishe) with the swoorde, and his posteritie shal haue scarsenesse of bread.
15 His remnant shalbe buryed in death, and his wydowes shal not weepe.
16 Though he heape vp siluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the claye:
17 He may wel prepare it, but the godly shal put it on, and the innocent shal deale out the siluer.
18 He buildeth his house as (h) the " moth, and as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the ryche man sleepeth, he shal not be geathered (to his fathers:) they opened theyr eyes, and he was gone.
20 Terrour taketh holde vpon him as waters, and the tempest stealeth hym away in the nyght season.
21 A vehement east wynde carryeth hym hence, and he departeth, a storme hurleth hym out of his place.
22 (God) shal cast vpon hym (such thynges) and not spare hym, he woulde fayne flee out of his hande.
23 Then shal (menne) clap theyr handes at hym, and hysse hym out of his place.

(a) This was the order of the Hebrues to sweare.

(b) That is, I wyl not confesse that god plagues me for myne offence.

(c) Of my former life past.

(d) That is, because they reprehended me vnworthyly, they rather might be accompted wicked, & the plague shal light on them, and be rydde from me.

(e) What auayleth it a man yf he gayne al the worlde, and lose his own soule?

(f) We haue no greater gyft of God, then the spirite of prayer, whereby if we pray, God dooth heare vs.

(g) The hypocrite neyther trusteth nor prayeth to God: yea, though he pray, God wyl not heare hym.

" or, hande.

(h) Whiche breedeth in an other mans garment, and is soone shaken out.

" or, spider.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth that the wysdome of God is vnsearchable.

A 1 THere is a place where siluer is brought out of, and where golde is tryed,
2 Where iron is dygged out of the groundе, & stones resolued into brasse.
3 (God) bryngeth the darknesse to an ende, and searcheth out al perfection, the stones (hydden) in darknesse, and in the deepe shadowe.

ſhadowe.

4 The fluddes breake out againſt the inhabitantes, and the (warers) (a) forgotten of the foote, whiche were hyghet then a man, are gone away.

5 (b) Out of the ſame earth cõmeth bread, and vnder it, as it were, fire is turned vp.

6 The (c) ſtones of it are a place of Saphires, and the duſt of it is golde.

7 There is a way that the byrdes knowe not, that no Vultures eye hath ſeene:

8 Wherein the lyons whelpes walke not, and where no lyon commeth.

9 He (d) putteth his hande vpon the ſtonie rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaines by the rootes.

10 Ryuers flowe out of the rockes, & looke what is pleaſant his eye ſeeth it.

11 He byndeth the fluddes that they doo not ouerflowe: and the thyng that is hyd bryngeth he to lyght.

12 Where then is wyſedome founde? and (e) where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

13 No man can tel how (f) woorthy a thing it is, neyther is it founde in the lande of the lyuyng.

14 The deepe ſayth, It is not in me: the ſea ſayth, It is not with me.

15 It canne not be gotten for golde, neyther may ỹ price of it be bought with any ſiluer.

16 No golde of Ophir, no precious Onyx ſtones, no Saphires may be valued with it.

17 No, neyther golde nor Diamonde ſhalbe equal vnto it, the exchange of it ſhal not be for the place of fyne golde.

18 No mention ſhalbe made of Coral, nor of the Gabis: for wyſdome is more precious then pearles.

19 The Topas of Ethiopia ſhal not be equal vnto it, neither ſhal it be valued with pure golde.

20 Whence then commeth wyſedome, and where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

21 It is hid from the eyes of al men liuing, and hyd from the fowles of the * ayre.

22 Deſtruction and death ſaye, We haue heard the fame thereof with our eares.

23 God ſeeth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of ỹ worlde, and looketh vpon al that is vnder heauen.

25 When he wayed the wyndes, and meaſured the waters:

26 When he made a decree for the rayne, & a way for the lightnynges of the thunder:

27 Then dyd he ſee it, then declared he it, prepared it, and knewe it.

28 And vnto man he ſayde, (g) To feare the Lorde is wyſedome, and to forſake euyl is vnderſtandyng.

(a) Which a man can not wadethorow

(b) As the fruitful feeldes tylled & plowed bringeth foorth corne: ſo it being deeply digged, there are founde ſtones, out of the whiche fire is ſtroke.

(c) The Saphires doo ſhyne with golde points, ſo that here by Saphires, is ment clodds of gold. Al theſe thinges are foũd, but gods wiſdome who can reache?

(d) Here he ſheweth gods power, the earth may be dygged, hilles ouerthrowen, a fountayne made among ſtones, riuers turned from their courſe, but gods wiſdome is not to be found.

(e) Gods wiſdome is partly ſeene in theſe worldly thynges, but his heauenly wyſedome and ſecrete iudgement is hyd, and vnknowen to al men.

(f) That is, it paſſeth mans capaſſitie to attaine to it.

* or, heauen

(g) Meaning by this, that man hath ſo much of this excellẽt wyſdome of god as he dooth ſhew in vertue of liuing, due obedience, and feare of hym.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1. Iob wyſheth the proſperitie of his time paſte. 7. He ſetteth foorth auctoritie, 12. iuſtice, and equitie.

1 MOreouer Iob proceeded and went forth in his A Sparable, ſayeing,

2 O that I were as I was in the monethes paſt, and in the dayes when God preſerued me.

3 When his (a) light ſhyned vpon my head, when I went after the ſame light, and ſhynyng euen through the darkeneſſe:

4 As it ſtood with me when I was young, when God proſpered my houſe:

5 When the almyghtie was yet with me, when my chyldren ſtoode about me.

6 When I waſhed my (b) ſteppes with butter, and when the ſtony rockes gaue me ryuers of oyle:

7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement ſeate, and when I prepared my ſeate in the ſtreete:

8 The (c) young menne ſawe me, and hyd them ſelues, and the (d) aged aroſe, and ſtoode vp:

9 The (e) princes leafte of theyr talkyng, and layde theyr hande to theyr mouth:

10 The mighty keapt ſtyl theyr voyce, and theyr tongue cleaued to the roofe of theyr mouth.

11 When the eare hearde me, it bleſſed me: and when the eye ſawe me, it gaue witneſſe to me:

12 For I delyuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherleſſe, and hym that had none to helpe hym.

13 The bleſſyng of hym that was ready to periſhe, came vppon me, and I cauſed the wydowes hart to reioyce.

14 I put vppon me ryghteouſneſſe, whiche couered me as a garment, and equitie was my crowne.

15 I was an eye to the blynde, and a foote to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cauſe, I ſought it out diligently.

17 I brake the iawes of the vnryghteous man, and pluckt the ſpoyle out of his teeth.

18 Then I ſaid, I ſhal dye in my neaſt: and I ſhal multiplie my dayes as the ſand.

19 For my roote was ſpread out by the waters ſide, & the deaw lay vpon my * cõne.

20 Myne honour encreaſed more and more, and my bowe was * euer the ſtronger in myne hande.

21 Vnto me menne gaue eare, me they regarded, and keapt ſcilence at my counſel.

22 After my woordes they anſweared not, and my talke dropped vpon them.

23 They

(a) That is, when as his fauour preſerued me.

(b) That is, when I had al thynges moſte abundantly. For mylke and oyle ſignifie al plentifulnes: & here Iob deſcribeth his felicitie in times paſt, to the encreaſe of his greefe.

(c) As abaſhed at his countenance and aſhamed of theyr youthful lightneſſe.

(d) Knowing both his wiſdome and eſtimation.

(e) Onely to heare hym for the great wyſedome that appeared in hym, excellyng them, cauſed theyr tongues to be in ſcilence.

* or, harnett

* or, remed

D

23 They (f) wayted for me as for the rayne, and gaped vpon me as (the grounde doth to receiue) the latter showre.

24 When I laughed on them, they (g) beleeued it not, and the lyght of my countenance woulde they not put out.

25 I tryed out theyr way, I sate as cheefe, and dwelt as a kyng with his armie about hym: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comforter.

(f) Here is shewed of what excellencie an vpright & vertuous life is.

(g) That is, they beleued not that I dallied with them, but that I spake in good earnest, & therfore woulde not diminish mine auctoritie.

The.xxx.Chapter.

1. Iob complaineth that he is contemned of the vilest, 11. 21. because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23. Death is the house of al fleashe.

1 BUt (a) nowe they that are yonnger then I, haue me in derision: whose fathers I woulde haue thought scorne to haue set with the dogges of my cattel.

2 Whereto myght the strength of (b) their handes profite me? for the tyme was but lost among them.

3 For very (c) miserie and hunger they fled into the wyldernesse, a darke place, horrible, and waste,

4 Plucking vp * nettles among the bushes, and the Iuniper rootes for theyr meate.

5 And when they were driuen foorth, men cryed after thē, as it had ben after a theefe.

6 Theyr (d) dwellyng was in the clifres of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.

7 Among the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they geathered them selues togeather.

8 They were the children of fooles & vylaynes, whiche are the vilest in the earth.

9 Nowe am I theyr song, and am become theyr tealtyng stocke.

10 They abhorre me, and flee farre from me, and stayne my face with spittel.

11 Because God hath loosed my corde, and humbled me, they haue loosed the bridle before me.

12 Vpon my ryght hande ryse the young men agaynst me, they haue hurt my feete, treadyng vpon me, as vpon the wayes whiche they woulde destroy.

13 My (e) pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easie for them to doo me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them.

14 They fel vpon me, as it had ben the breakyng in (of waters,) and came in by heapes to destroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the winde, and my healthy passeth away as (f) a cloude.

16 Therefore is my soule nowe powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearsed through in ỹ night season, and my sinowes take no reast.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment changed, whiche compasseth me about, as the (g) coller of my coate.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like asshes and duste.

20 When (h) I crye vnto thee, thou dooest not heare me: and though I stande before thee, yet thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become mine enimie, and with thy violent hande thou takest part agaynst me.

22 (In tymes past) thou diddest (i) set me vp on hygh, to be caryed as it were aboue the winde, (but nowe) hast thou geuen me a very soare fal.

23 Sure I am that thou wylt bring me vnto death, euen to the lodgyng that is due vnto al men lyuyng.

24 Notwithstandyng, thou wylt not stretch out thyne hande (agaynst him that is) in the grane, though men crye in his destruction.

25 Dyd not I weepe with hym that was in trouble? Had not my soule compassion vpon the poore.

26 Yet whereas I looked for good, euyl came vnto me: and (k) where I wayted for lyght, there came darkenesse.

27 My bowels seethe in me without reast, for the dayes of my trouble are come vpon me.

28 I went mournyng without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, and cryed.

29 I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of Estriches.

30 My skinne vpon me is (turned) to blacke, and my bones are brent with heate.

31 My harpe is turned to mournyng, and my instrumentes of musicke, into the voyce of them that weepe.

(a) Before is declared how greatly God dooth blesse the godly, and here is sheweth howe heauye a crosse he layeth on thē to proue them.

(b) They nowe despise me, whiche with al their power whē I was in prosperitie could nothing help me, it was so weake.

(c) Here Iob declareth what abiects they were that now reuiled him, & sheweth that they are wicked like vnto their fathers, which dyed yer they came to age.

* or, mallowes.

(d) Shewyng hereby their baseneſse & their pouertie, being suche outcastes: yet nowe they scorne Iob, whiche is a great greefe to be mocked of suche.

(e) That is, they ouerthrewe al my doinges, without helpe of any other.

(f) That is, most swiftly.

(g) It is the maner amōg the Hebrues to haue their garments towed rounde in euerye part, sauyng a hole only in the highest of it, to put foorth the necke.

(h) Iob sayth not this as blamyng god, but greuous affliction mooued affection.

(i) That is, thou diddest set me in hye auctoritie, & suddenly thou puttest me downe.

(k) In steade of comforte they gaue me mockes.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1. Iob rehearseth the innocencie of his liuing, and number of his vertues.

1 I Made a (a) couenant with myne eyes, that I woulde not looke vpon a mayden.

2 For howe great a portion (shal I haue) of God from aboue: and what inheritance of the almyghtie from an high?

3 Is not destruction to the wycked? and some strange thyng to the woorkers of iniquitie?

4 Doth

(a) In this Chapter Iob declareth his vpryght lyuyng, not to boast agaynst God, but to refel the false slaunder of his aduersaries.

4 Doth not he ſee my wayes, and tel al my goeynges?
5 If I haue walked in vanitie, or if my feete haue runne to deceiue:
6 Let me be weighed in an euen ballance, that God may ſee mine innocencie.
7 If my ſteppe haue turned out of the way, and mine hart walked after mine eyes, and yf any (b) or haue cleaued to mine handes:
8 Then ſhal I ſowe, and another eate: yea my * poſteritie ſhalbe cleane rooted out.
9 If my hart haue ben deceiued by a woman, or yf I haue laide wayte at my neighbours dooze:
10 Then let my wife (b) grind vnto another man, and let other men * lye with her.
11 For this is a wyckednelle, and ſinne that is wooꝛthy to be iudged:
12 Yea, a (c) fyre that vtterly ſhoulde conſume and roote out al my increaſe.
13 If I euer thought ſcorne to doo right vnto my ſeruantes and maydens when they had any matter againſt me.
14 When God (d) wyl ſyt in iudgement, what ſhal I doo? and when he wil viſite me, what anſweare ſhal I gene him?
15 He that (e) faſhioned me in my mothers woombe, made he not hym alſo? were we not both ſhapen alyke in our mothers bodyes?
16 If I denyed the pooze of theyr deſyre, oꝛ haue cauſed the eyes of the wydowe to wayte in vayne:
17 If I haue eaten my (f) moꝛſel alone, that the fatherleſſe hath not eaten thereof:
18 (For from my youth (mercy) hath bꝛought me vp as a father, & hath guided me from my mothers woombe.)
19 If I haue ſeene any periſhe foꝛ wante of clothyng, oꝛ any pooze lackyng rayment:
20 If his loynes haue not bleſſed me, becauſe he was warmed with the fleece of my ſheepe:
21 If I haue lyft vp myne hand againſt the fatherleſſe, when I ſaw that I might helpe hym in the gate:
22 Then let myne arme fal from my ſhoulder, & mine arme be bꝛoken from the bone.
23 For I haue feared the vengeance of god, and (knewe very wel that) I was not able to beare his burden.
24 Haue I put my truſt in golde? oꝛ haue I ſayde to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence?
25 Haue I reioyced becauſe my power was great, and becauſe my hand gat ſo muche?
26 Did I (g) behold ỹ ſunne when it ſhined? oꝛ the moone walkyng in her bꝛightneſſe?
27 Hath my hart ben ſecretely deceiued? oꝛ dyd I kyſſe myne owne hande?
28 (That were a wyckednelle wooꝛthy to be iudged: foꝛ then ſhoulde I haue denyed the God that is aboue.)
29 Haue I reioyced at the hurte of myne enimie? oꝛ was I glad that any harme happened vnto hym?
30 I neuer ſuffered my mouth to ſinne by wyſhyng a curſe to his ſoule.
31 Did not the men of mine owne houſhold ſay, Who ſhal gene vs of his fleaſhe? we can not be ſatiſfied.
32 The ſtranger did not lodge in the ſtreete, but I opened my dooꝛes vnto him that went by the way.
33 Haue I keapt ſecrete my ſinne, and hyd mine iniquitie in my boſome, as Adam did?
34 If I feared a great multitude, oꝛ the deſpiſyng of the meaneſt of a familie, I would haue keapt ſcilence, and not gonne out of the (h) dooze.
35 O that I had one which would de heare me: beholde my ſigne that the almyghtie wyl wytneſſe foꝛ me, though myne aduerſarie wyte a booke (againſt me.)
36 Surely I wyl take it vpon my (i) ſhoulder, and as a garlande bynde it (about my head.)
37 I wil tel him the number of my goeinges, and goe vnto hym, as to a (k) prince.
38 If my lande (l) crye againſt me, oꝛ that the (m) foꝛowes therof make any cõplaynt:
39 If I haue eaten the fruites thereof vnpayde foꝛ, yea yf I haue greeued the ſoules of the * maiſters thereof:
40 Then let thyſtles growe in ſteade of Wheate, and cockle foꝛ Barley.

Here ende the woordes of Iob.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

6. Eli reproueth them of follie. 8. Age maketh not a man wyſe, but the ſpirite of God.

1 SO theſe three men ceaſſed to anſweare Iob, (a) becauſe he helde him ſelfe a ryghteous man.
2 But Elihu the ſonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the kinrede of Ram, was very ſoare diſpleaſed at Iob, becauſe he called hym ſelfe iuſt before God.
3 And with Iobs three freendes he was angry alſo, becauſe they had founde no anſweare, and yet condemned Iob.
4 Nowe taryed Elihu tyl they had ended theyr communication with Iob: foꝛ they were elder then he.
5 So when Elihu ſaw that theſe three men were not able to make Iob anſweare, he was miſcontent.
6 Therefoꝛe Elihu the ſonne of Barachel, the

* oꝛ, bowe downe vpon her.
(c) Though mans puniſhmẽt for adulterie be omitted, yet gods plague wyl neuer reaſt to conſume and roote it out.
(d) That is, yf I in lawe haue reiected the complaint of my ſeruant, what ſhould I doo when God calleth me to lawe.
(e) Iob expreſſeth the cauſe why he did pitie his ſeruants, for that they had one creator, and both made of the ſame ſubſtance.
(f) Meanyng that he hath ben beneficial to the poore, to the fatherleſſe and wydowes.
(g) Dyd I vſe to woorſhippe the ſunne or moone, as other gentiles whiche were idolaters.
(h) Meanyng that he dyd not holde his peace, or keepe at home in the iuſt ſuite or cauſe of any.
(i) That is, I wyl carie the booke that the aduerſary ſhal make vpon my ſhoulder, and wyl accept it for a great gift: meaning, he woulde confeſſe his fault, yf he had offẽded.
(k) That is, with great reuerence.
(l) That is, yf the hirelyng that hath laboured in the lande, haue ben defrauded of his wages by me.
(m) That is, yf I haue by violence compelled my lande to be eared, and not genen foode to the labourers.
* oꝛ, huſbandmen.

(a) The Hebrues reade, was iuſt in his owne eyes.

the Buzite, answeared, and sayde, I am young, & ye be men of age, I was afrayde, and durst not shewe foorth my minde.

B 7 For I thought thus within mee selfe, * It becommeth olde menne to speake, and the * aged to teache wysedome.

8 Euery man no doubt hath a minde, but it is the inspiration of the almyghty that geueth vnderstanding.

9 Great menne are not alway wyse, neither dooth euery aged man vnderstande * the thyng that is lawful:

10 Therefore I say, Heare me, and I wyl shewe you also myne vnderstanding.

11 For when I had wayted tyl ye made an ende of your talkyng, and hearde your wisdome, (b) what argumentes ye made in your communication, 12 Yea when I had diligently pondred what ye sayde, I founde not one of you that made any good argument against Iob, that could answeare his woordes.

13 Lest ye shoulde say, We haue (c) founde out wysedome, God shal cast hym downe, and no man.

14 He hath not spoken vnto me, and I wyl not answeare him as ye haue donne.

15 For they were so abashed, that they could not make answeare, nor speake one woorde.

16 When I had wayted (for they spake not, but stoode styl & answeared no more:)

17 Then answeared I in my turne, and I shewed myne opinion.

18 For I am ful of * matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.

19 Beholde, my (d) belly is as the wyne whiche hath no vent, lyke the newe bottels that burst.

20 (Therefore) wyl I speake, that I may take breath: I wyl open my lippes, & make answeare.

21 I wyl (e) regarde no manner of person, no man wyl I spare.

22 For if I woulde goe about to (g) please menne, I knowe not howe soone my maker woulde take me away.

* or, the dayes shal speake.

* or, the multitude of yeeres shal.

* or, iudgement.

(b) To proue Iob plagued for his offences.

(c) And flatter your selues, as though you had ouercome hym.

* or, woords

(d) That is, I shoulde breake in the middes, if I shoulde not speake, my mynde is so hot within me.

(e) I wyl say trueth, al thinges layd apart.

(f) The Hebrue worde is, to aulter the name, calling a rude man learned, or a wicked man iust.

The. xxxiii. Chapter.

5. Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance. 14. He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man, and to drawe hym from sinne.

(a) There is no cause why ye shoulde despise me although I be yong: for I am as you are, made by gods spirite, created of the earth, and receiue lyfe of him.

1 Wherefore heare my woordes, O Iob, and hearken vnto al that I wyl say:

2 Beholde, I haue nowe opened my mouth, my toung hath spoken in my throte.

3 My hart dooth order my woordes aright, and my lyppes talke of pure wysedome.

4 The (a) spirite of God hath made me, & the breath of the almyghtie hath geuen me life.

5 If thou canst geue me answeare, prepare thee selfe, and stande before me.

6 Beholde, (b) before GOD I am euen as thou: for I am fashioned and made euen of the same moulde.

7 Beholde, my terrour shal not feare thee, neyther shal my hande be heauy vpon thee.

8 (c) Nowe hast thou spoken in mine eares, and I haue heard the voyce of thy woordes:

9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, and there is no wickednesse in me.

10 But lo, he hath piked a quarel against me, and taketh me for his enimie.

11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narowly vnto al my pathes.

12 Beholde, in this hast thou not donne ryght, I wyl make answere vnto thee, that God is greater then man.

13 And why doest thou then striue against hym: for he shal not geue thee accomptes of al his woordes.

14 For God speaketh (d) once or twyse (and yet man) vnderstandeth it not.

15 In dreames & visions of the nyght, when slumbryng commeth vpon menne, that they fal a sleepe in their beddes,

16 He openeth the eares of menne, and correcteth them:

17 That he may withdrawe man from his purposes, and deliuer him from (e) pride, 18 And keepe his soule from the graue, and his lyfe from the swoorde.

19 He chasteneth him with sickenesse vpon his bedde, he layeth sore punishment vpon his bones:

20 So that his (f) lyfe may away with no bread, and his soule abhorreth to eate any dayntie meate:

21 In so muche that his fleashe is cleane consumed away, and his bones are broken that they can not be seene.

22 His soule draweth vnto the graue, and his lyfe to * death.

23 Now if there be a messenger, one among a thousand, sent for to speake vnto man, and to shewe him the right way:

24 Then the Lorde is mercyful vnto hym, and sayth, He shalbe deliuered, that he fal not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently reconciled.

25 Then shal his fleashe be as freshe as a childes, and shal returne, as in the dayes of his youth.

26 He shal pray vnto God, and he wyl be fauourable vnto him, & he shal see his face with ioy, for he wyl render vnto man his righteousnesse.

27 A respect hath he vnto menne, let man then say I haue offended, I did vnrighteously, and it hath donne me no good:

B (b) Iob before desired to pleade his cause before God without feare, therefore sayth Elihu, I am here in gods steede, who thou needest not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.

(c) I haue heard the boast of thy righteous lyfe, that thou art innocent and iust, therefore wyl I not proue thee wicked of thy former lyfe, but by these thy woordes.

(d) God speaketh two manner of wayes vnto men, either by sleepe, or by his rod of sicknes & other plagues.

(e) For to beate downe the pride of man, God sendeth his plagues.

(f) That is, sickneesse that decayeth lyfe can take no sustenance.

* or, to the barriers.

28 He hath deliuered my ſoule from deſtruction, and (e) my lyfe ſhal ſee the lyght.
29 Lo, al theſe wooꝛketh God "alway with man:
30 That he bꝛing backe his ſoule from the graue to the lyght, euen the lyght of the lyuing.
31 Marke wel, O Iob, and heare me: holde thee ſtyl, and I wyl ſpeake.
32 But if thou haſt any thing to ſay, then (h) anſweare me, and ſpeake, foꝛ I deſire to iuſtifie thee.
33 If thou haſt nothing, then heare me, and holde thy tongue, and I ſhal teache thee wiſedome.

(e) That is, my ſoule ſhal appeare cleare in the lande of the lyuyng.
"Heb. twyſe (or) thꝛyſe.
(h) That is, to ſhew thee ſelfe iuſt, and not wicked.

The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

5. Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth hym ſelfe ryghteous. 12. He ſheweth that God is iuſt in iudgementes.

1 ELihu anſweared, and ſayde,
2 Heare my wooꝛdes, O ye (a) wyſe menne, hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderſtandyng:
3 Foꝛ the eare diſcerneth wooꝛdes, and the mouth taſteth meates.
4 As foꝛ (b) iudgement let vs ſeeke it out among our ſelues, that we may knowe what is good.
5 Foꝛ Iob hath ſayde, I am righteous, and God hath (c) taken away my iudgement.
6 In my ryght I muſt be a lyer: my wound is incurable without my fault.
7 Where is there ſuche a one as Iob, that (d) drinketh vp ſcoꝛnefulneſſe lyke water,
8 Whiche goeth in the company of wicked doers, and walketh with vngodly menne?
9 Foꝛ he hath ſayde, It profiteth a man nothyng that he ſhoulde walke with God.
10 Therfoꝛe hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderſtanding: farre be it from God that he ſhoulde meddle with wickednelle, and farre be it from the almighty that he ſhould meddle with vnrighteous dealyng.
11 Foꝛ he ſhal rewarde man (after) his woꝛkes, and cauſe euery man to fynd accoꝛding to his wayes.
12 Sure it is that God wil not doo wickedly, neyther wyl the almightie peruert iudgement.
13 Who ruleth the earth but he? oꝛ who hath placed the whole woꝛlde?
14 If he ſet his hart vpon (man) and geather vnto hym ſelfe his ſpirite and his breath.
15 Al fleſche ſhal comme to nought at once, and man ſhal turne agayne vnto duſt.
16 If thou now haue vnderſtandyng, heare this, & hearken to the voyce of my wooꝛdes:
17 Way he be a (e) ruler that loueth not ryght? wylt thou iudge him wicked that is moſt iuſt?
18 Wylt thou ſay vnto a kyng, (thou art) wicked? oꝛ to princes, (ye are) vngodly?
19 God hath no reſpect vnto the perſons of the princes, and regardeth not the ryche moꝛe thē the pooꝛe: foꝛ they be al the woꝛke of his handes.
20 In the (f) twinckling of an eye ſhal they dye, and the people ſhalbe troubled at midnight, and paſſe away, and the mightie ſhalbe taken away without hande.
21 Foꝛ his eyes (looke) vpon the wayes of man, and he ſeeth al his goinges.
22 There is no darkneſſe, noꝛ ſhadowe of death, that can hyde the wicked doers from hym.
23 Foꝛ GOD wyl not lay vpon man moꝛe then he hath ſinned, that he ſhoulde enter into iudgement with him.
24 He ſhal deſtroy the mightie without ſeekyng, and ſhal ſet other in their (g) ſteede.
25 Therfoꝛe ſhal he declare their wooꝛkes: he ſhal (h) turne the night, and they ſhalbe deſtroyed.
26 The vngodly dooth he pounith (i) openly:
27 Becauſe they turned backe from him, and wouldе not conſyder al his wayes:
28 Inſomuche that they haue cauſed the voyce of the (k) pooꝛe to comme vnto hym, and nowe he heareth the complaynt of ſuch as are in trouble.
29 When he geueth quietneſſe, who can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who can beholde hym? whether it be vpon nations, oꝛ vpon one man onely?
30 Becauſe the hypocrite dooth raigne, and becauſe the people are ſnared.
31 Surely of God onely it can be ſayde, I haue pardoned, I wyl not deſtroy.
32 If I haue gonne amiſſe, enfourme thou me: yf I haue donne wꝛong, I wil leaue of.
33 Wyl he perfourme the thyng thꝛough thee? foꝛ thou haſt repꝛoued his (iudgement,) thyne is the choyſe, & not myne: but ſpeake on what thou knoweſt.
34 Let menne of vnderſtanding tel me, and let a wyſe man hearken vnto me.
35 Iob hath not ſpoken of knowledge, neyther were his wooꝛdes accoꝛdyng to wyſedome.
36 O (l) father, let Iob be * wel tryed, becauſe he hath anſwered foꝛ wicked menne:
37 Yea aboue his ſinne he dooth wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplieth his wooꝛdes agaynſt God.

(a) Here Elihu proueth that God can not be vniuſt, becauſe he is the iudge of the worlde, the gouernour & creator of al.
(b) Let vs ſcanne the cauſe by reaſonyng vpꝛightly.
(c) That is, he hath not dealt with me accordyng to the equitie of my cauſe.
(d) That is, for his fooliſhneſſe he beareth the ſcorneful reproofes of the mockers
(e) As though Elihu would ſay, is it meet that the vniuſt and wicked ſhalbe rulers, or innocentes cōmit wickednelſe, or inferiours to controle princes, or ſubiectes to reſiſt the kyng? howe muche leſſe thē oughteſt thou to doo ſo to god the kyng of al kynges.
(f) That is, ſodaynly before they are aware of it.
(g) God exalteth one and humbleth an other, as the foure Monarches of the worlde for example, that is, of the Aſſyrians, of the Perſians, of the Grecias, and of the Romanes: as God dooth myghtyly, ſo dooth he iuſtly.
(h) That is, he ſhal bring to light that which lay in darkneſſe.
(i) That is, in the ſyght of al menne.
(k) Through their cruel and vnmercyful handling of them.
(l) Elihu doth not wiſhe to Iob any euyl, but deſyreth god that he may acknowledge his offence, whiche can by affliction not be brought to paſſe, but

* oꝛ, vnto the ende.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

6. Neither dooth godlyneſſe profite, or vngodlyneſſe hurt god, but man. 18. The wicked crye vnto god, and are not hearde.

1 ELihu (a) ſpake moze ouer and ſayde,
2 Thinkeſt thou it right that thou ſayeſt, I am moze righteous then God?
3 Foz thou ſayeſt, What aduauntage wyl it be vnto thee, and what profyte ſhal I haue (yf I be cleanſed) from my ſinne?
4 I wyl anſweare thee a woozde, and thy (b) companions with thee.
5 Looke vnto the heauen, and beholde it, conſyder the (c) cloudes, whiche are higher then thou.
6 If thou haſt (d) ſinned, what haſt thou donne againſt him? yf thyne offences be many, what haſt thou donne vnto him?
7 If thou be (e) righteous, what geueſt thou him? oz what wyl he receiue of thyne hande?
8 Thy wickednesſe (may hurt) a man as thou art, and thy righteouſneſſe (may profite) the ſonne of man.
9 They whiche are oppreſſed, crye out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out foz the power of the myghty.
10 But none ſayth, Where is GOD that made me? and that geueth * vs occaſyon to praiſe him in the night?
11 Whiche teacheth vs moze then the beaſtes of the earth, and geueth vs moze wyſedome then the foules of heauen.
12 If any (f) ſuch complaine, no man geueth anſweare, and that becauſe of the wickednesſe of proude tyrantes.
13 Foz God wyl not heare vanitie, neither wyl the almyghty regarde it.
14 Although thou ſayeſt (to God) thou wylt not regarde it: yet iudgement is befoze hym, truſt thou in him.
15 But nowe becauſe his anger hath not viſited, neither called men to accompt with great extremitie:
16 Therefoze dooth Iob open his mouth in vayne, and he maketh many woozds without knowledge.

(a) Iob holding his peace, Elihu went on in his talke.
(b) To ſuche as are like to thee in obſtinacie, not leauing thy great errour.
(c) If the cloudes are higher then thou, howe muche more is God excelling thee in al.
(d) It dooth nothing aduauntage god whether we be good or euil, for he needeth not mans helpe, he is moſt mighty, his maieſtie is moſt glorious.
(e) As thoughe he wold ſay, yf we do good, it is our owne: if we doo euil, it is ours alſo.
* oz, ſongues
(f) That is, god heareth them not, becauſe they pray not hartyly to him in fayth.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1. Elihu ſheweth the power of God, 6. and his iuſtice, 9. and wherefore he puniſheth. 13. The propertie of the wicked.

1 ELihu alſo proceeded, and ſayde,
2 Holde thee ſtil a litle, and I ſhal ſhew thee what I haue yet to ſpeake on gods behalfe.
3 I wyl open vnto thee yet farre hygher knowledge, and wil aſcribe righteouſneſſe vnto my maker.
4 And truely my woozds ſhal not be vaine, ſeeing he is with thee that is (a) perfect in knowledge.
5 Behold, the great God caſteth away no man, foz he him ſelfe is (b) mighty in power and wyſedome.
6 As foz the vngodly, he ſhal not preſerue him, but ſhal helpe the pooze to their right.
7 He ſhal not turne his eyes away from the righteous, but as (c) kinges ſhal they be in their throne, he ſhal ſtablyſhe them foz euer, and they ſhalbe exalted.
8 But yf they be layde in chaynes, oz bound with the bandes of trouble, 9 Then wyl he (d) ſhew them their woorke, and their ſinnes which they haue committed ſtoutly.
10 He openeth their eare alſo to diſcipline, and warneth them to leaue of from their wickednesſe.
11 If they nowe wyl take heede & ſerue him, they ſhal weare out their dayes in proſperitie, and their yeeres in pleaſure.
12 But yf they wyl not hearken, they ſhal goe through the ſwoozde, and periſhe oz euer they be aware.
13 As foz (e) hypocrites in hart, they ſhal heape vp wzath (for them ſelues) foz they cal not vpō him, though they be his priſoners.
14 Thus ſhal their ſoule periſhe in * fooliſhneſſe, and their lyfe among the foznicatours.
15 The pooze ſhal he deliuer out of his affliction, & * rounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.
16 Euen ſo woulde he take thee out of the ſtraite place, into a bzode place in the whiche there is no ſtraightneſſe: yea and make thy table quiet, replenyſhed with fatneſſe.
17 Neuertheleſſe, (f) thou haſt commended the iudgement of the vngodly, & euen ſuch a iudgement and ſentence ſhalt thou ſuffer.
18 And ſeeing there is (g) wzath (with god) beware leſt he take thee away in thy wealth, and al that thou haſt to redeeme thee, can not deliuer thee.
19 Thinkeſt thou that he wyl regarde thy rycheſſe? (he ſhal not care for) golde, nor foz al them that excel in ſtrength.
20 Spende not the night in careful thoughtes, howe he deſtroyeth the people out of their place.
21 Beware that thou turne not aſyde to wickednesſe, whiche hytherto thou haſt choſen moze then affliction.
22 Behold, God is of a mighty high power: where is there ſuche a teacher as he?
23 Who wyl repzoue him of his way? who wyl ſay vnto him, Thou haſt done wzong?

(a) And therfore credite my ſayeings, for I come to pleade for gods cauſe.
(b) And therefore he wyl not deſtroy the iuſt, the wyſe, and the godly, ſeeing they are therein like vnto hym.
(c) So god dooth exalt the godly, and they that loue him.
(d) If he ſhal plague the righteous, he wyl declare the cauſe of the ſame.
(e) Hypocrites that confeſſe god in their mouthes and not in their hartes, wyl not acknowledge their offece, and ſo runne into deſperation, and confuſion.
* oz, youth.
* oz, open their eare.
(f) Thou haſt alowed the counſel of the wicked, and layde alyde the counſel of god as vniuſt.
(g) Meanyng thou ſhalt be in paines whiche can not be releaſed for any price.

If ii 24 Remem-

24 Remember that thou doo magnifye his woorke, whiche men doo prayſe.
25 Al men ſee it, yea men doo beholde it a farre of.
26 Beholde, ſo great is God, that he paſſeth our knowledge, (h) neither can the number of his yeeres be ſearched out.
27 He turneth the water to ſmal droppes, he dryueth his cloudes togeather to rayne.
28 Whiche rayne the cloudes doo droppe, and let fal abundantly vpon men.
29 Who can conſyder the (i) ſpreadings out of his cloudes, the coueringes of his tabernacle?
30 Beholde, he dooth ſtreatch his lyght vppon it, and coureth the botome of the ſea.
31 For by theſe * gouerneth he his people, and geueth them abundance of meate.
32 With the cloudes he hydeth the lyght, and at his cõmaundement it breaketh out:
33 Whiche daſhing vpon the next cloudes, ſhewe tokens of wrath.

(h) For he is God from euerlaſting, without beginning or ending.
(i) Gods maieſtie is wonderfully declared in his creatures.
* or, iudgeth.

The. xxxvii. Chapter.

2. Elihu prooueth that the vnſearcheable wyſdome of God is manyfeſt by his workes, 4. as by the thunder, 6. the ſnowe, 9. the whirle winde, 11. and the rayne.

1 AT (a) this alſo my hart is aſtonyed, and mooued out of his place.
2 Heare (b) then the ſounde of his voyce, and the noyſe that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the worlde.
4 A roring voyce foloweth it: for his glorious maieſtie geueth a thunder clap, and he wyl not ſtay when his voyce his heard.
5 God thundreth marueylouſly with his voyce, great thinges dooth he, whiche we can not comprehende.
6 He commaundeth the ſnowe, and it falleth vppon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, & the ſhowres haue their ſtrength and fal downe.
7 With the force of (the rayne) he ſhutteth men vp, that al menne may knowe his (c) woorkes.
8 The beaſtes (d) creepe into their dennes, and remayne in their places.
9 Out of the ſouth commeth the tempeſt, and colde out from the north winde.
10 At the (e) breath of God the hoare froſt is geuen, and the brode waters are froſen.
11 He maketh the cloudes to labour, in ge-uing moyſtneſſe, and agayne, with his light he dryueth away the cloude.
12 He turneth the heauens about by his gouernement, that they may doo what ſo euer he commaundeth them vppon the whole worlde.
13 He cauſeth rayne to come, whether it be for pounyſhment, or for his lande, or to doo good to them that ſeeke him.
14 Hearken vnto this, O Iob, ſtand ſtil, and conſyder the woonderous woorkes of god.
15 Dydſt thou knowe when God diſpoſed them? and cauſed the (f) lyght of his cloudes to ſhine?
16 Haſt thou knowen the varietie of y cloudes, and the woonderous woorkes of hym whiche is perfect in knowledge.
17 And howe thy clothes are warme, when the land is ſtil through the ſouth wynde?
18 Haſt thou helped him to ſpreade out the heauens whiche are ſtrong, and bryght as a
(g) molten glaſſe?
19 Teache vs what we ſhal ſay vnto him:
for we are vnmeete to frame our talke, becauſe of (h) darkneſſe.
20 Shal it be tolde hym what I ſay? Shal man ſpeake when he ſhalbe deſtroyed?
21 For men ſee not the lyght that ſhineth in the cloudes: but the wynde paſſeth and cleanſeth them.
22 The" fayre weather commeth out of the north, the prayſe (thereof) is to God, who is terrible.
23 It is the almyghty, we can not fynde him out: he is excellent in power and iudge-ment, and abundant in iuſtice: he afflicteth not.
24 Let men therefore (i) feare hym: for there ſhal no man ſee him that is wyſe in his owne conceite.

(f) That is, the lightnyng.
(g) For the cleareneſſe or brightnes of them.
(h) That is, of our ignorance.
" Hebre. golde.
(i) Alludyng to Iob.

The. xxxviii. Chapter.

God ſpeaketh to Iob, and declareth the ignorance of man in the conſyderation of his creatures.

1 THen anſweared the Lorde vnto Iob out of the (a) whirle winde, and ſayde, 2 What is he that (b) darkeneth his counſel by wordes without knowledge?
3 Girde vp thy (c) loynes like a man: for I wyl queſtion with thee, geue me an anſweare.
4 Where (d) waſt thou when I layde the fundations of the earth? tel me, yf thou haſt vnderſtandyng.
5 Who hath meaſured it, knoweſt thou? or who hath ſpread the line vpon it?
6 Whereupon are the fundations ſet? or who layde the corner ſtone thereof?
7 (Where by this, that yf he coulde not conceiue gods wonderful woorkes, muche leſſe his vnſearcheable wyſedome.

A
(a) To ſhewe his maieſtie, and to enſtruct Iob, before who he ſpake.
(b) That ſpeaketh ſo couertly and obſcurely.
(c) That is, prepare thy ſelfe to anſweare.
(d) Inferring

(e) Meanyng the windes whiche are called the breath of god, whiche as they blowe hot or colde, ſo they friſe or thawe the waters, making them leſſer and greater.

7 (Where wast thou) when the morning starres prayſed me togeather, and al the chyldren of God reioyced tryumphantly?
8 Who ſhut vp the ſea with doores, when it braſte forth as out of the wombe?
9 When I made the cloudes a couering for it, and darkneſſe as his ſwadlyng band,
10 When I gaue it my commaundement, makyng doores and barres for it, 11 Sayeing, Hytherto ſhalt thou come, but no further, and here ſhalt thou laye downe thy proude waues?
12 Haſt thou geuen the morning his charge ſence thy dayes, and ſhewed the day ſpring his place, 13 That it might take hold of the * corners of the earth, and that the vngodly might be ſhaken out of it?
14 (c) They are faſhioned as is the clay to the ſeale, and ſhalbe as a garment.
15 The vngodlye ſhalbe diſappoynted of their light, and * the arme of the proude ſhalbe broken.
16 (f) Cameſt thou euer into the * ground of the ſea, or walkedſt in the lowe ſteppes of the deepe?
17 Haue the gates of death ben opened vnto thee? or haſt thou ſeene the doores of the ſhadowe of death?
18 Haſt thou alſo perceiued how broade the earth is? If thou haſt knowledge of al this:
19 Then ſhewe me the waye where lyght dwelleth, & where is the place of darkneſs?
21 That thou ſhouldeſt receyue it in the bounds thereof, and knowe the pathes to their houſes.
21 Knewеſt thou afore thou waſt borne how olde thou ſhouldeſt be?
22 (g) Wenteſt thou euer into the treaſures of the ſnowe, or haſt thou ſeene the ſecrete places of the hayle?
23 Whiche I haue * prepared againſt the tyme of trouble, againſt the tyme of battel and warre?
24 By what way is the lyght parted? and into what lande breaketh the eaſt wynde?
25 Who diuideth the waters into diuers chanels? or the waye for the lyghtenyng and thunder, 26 To cauſe it to rayne on the earth, where no man is, and in the wildernеſſe where none inhabiteth?
22 To ſatiſfie the deſolate and waſt ground, and to cauſe the budde of the hearbe to ſpryng forth?
28 Who is the (h) father of the rayne? or who hath begotten the drops of the deawe?
29 Out of whoſe wombe came ỹ yce? Who hath gendered the * coldneſſe of the ayre?
30 That the waters are * (i) hyd as with a ſtone, and lye congealed aboue the deepe?
31 Canſt thou bynde the ſeuen ſtarres togeather? or looſe the bandes of Orion.
32 Canſt thou bryng forth the morning ſtarre in his tyme? canſt thou alſo guyde * the euening ſtarre with his ſonnes?
33 Knoweſt thou the courſe of heauen, that thou mayeſt ſet vp the ordinance therof vpon the earth?
34 Canſt thou lyfte vp thy voyce to the cloudes, that they maye powre downe a great rayne vpon thee?
35 Canſt thou ſende the lyghtenynges, that they may goe their way, ſayeing vnto thee, Loe here are we?
36 Who hath put wyſdome in the reynes? or who hath geuen the hart vnderſtanding?
37 Who numbreth the cloudes in wiſdome? who ſtilleth the vehement * waters of the heauen?
38 (k) To cauſe the earth to growe into hardneſſe, and the clottes to cleaue faſt togeather?
39 (l) Wylt thou hunt the pray for the lion? or fyl the appetite of the lions whelpes?
40 When they couche in their places, and tarrye in the couert to lye in wayte?
41 Who prouideth meate for the Rauen, when his young ones crye vnto God, and flee about for lacke of meate?

* or, wynges
(e) Though the vngodly truſt in their eſtate to endure lóg, yet they ſhalbe as weake as claye, & as a garment ſhal ſoone periſh
* or, the high arme.
(f) A iudge ought to be ſkilful in the cauſe that he iudgeth: but ſeeyng thou knoweſt noneof theſe thinges that are viſible, why wylt thou preſume to iudg of thinges inuiſible?
* or, bottome.
(g) No man can go in the place where the ſnowe is gendered: muche leſſe maye Iob clyme vp to heauen to knowe gods ſecretes
* or, hyd.
(h) Meaning God is the creator and maker of al thinges.
* or, froſt of the heauen.
* Some reade, harde
(i) The yce couereth it, as though it were paued with ſtone.
* or, Arcturus.
* or, bottels.
(k) For ſo groweth the earth by the want of raine
(l) After he had ſhewed his maruails aboue, he cómeth to the earthly creatures, as though god would ſay, The thinges on the clouds are vnknowē vnto thee, yea euē thinges on earth thou durſt not do: how much leſſe then durſt thou to reache to gods ſecrete wyſedome.

The. xxxix. Chapter.

God proceedeth in declaryng the ignorance of Iob, in the conſyderation of his marueylous woorkes, in beaſtes and fowles.

1 KNoweſt thou the time when the wilde goates bryng forth their young among the rockes? or (a) layeſt thou wayte when the hyndes vſe to calue?
2 Canſt thou number the monethes that they goe with young? or knoweſt thou the tyme when they bryng forth.
3 They lye downe, they calue their young ones, and they are delyuered of their trauayle and payne:
4 Yet their young ones growe vp, and ware fat through good feedyng with corne: they goe forth, and returne not againe vnto them.
5 Who letteth the wylde aſſe to goe free? or who looſeth the bondes of the wyld Aſſe?
6 Euen I whiche haue geuen the wylderneſſe to be their houſe, and the (b) barraine lande to be their dwellyng.
7 He ſcorneth the multitude of the citie, neither regardeth the cryeing of the driuer:
8 But ſeeketh his paſture about the mountaynes, and foloweth the greene graſſe.

(a) He cheeflye reciteth theſe beaſtes, forthei bring foorth their younglynges with greateſt payne.
(b) Somme reade, ſalt places, meaning, barraine ground

9 Wyl

9 Wyl the (c) Unicorne doo thee ſeruice, or abyde ſtyl by thy cribbe?
10 Canſt thou bynde the yoke about the Unicorne in the forowe, to make him plow after thee in the valleyes?
11 Mayeſt thou truſte hym becauſe he is ſtrong, or commit thy labour vnto hym?
12 Mayeſt thou beleue hym ẏ he wyl bryng home thy * corne, or cary it vnto thy barne?
13 (Gaueſt thou) the fayre wynges vnto the Peacockes, or wynges and feathers vnto the Eſtritche?
14 (The Eſtritche) leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the duſt.
15 She remembreth not that they might be troden with feete, or broken with ſomme wylde beaſt.
16 So harde is ſhe vnto her young ones, as though they were not hers, and (d) laboureth in vayne without any feare.
17 And that becauſe God hath (e) taken wiſedome from her, and hath not geuen her vnderſtandyng.
18 When her tyme is that ſhe mounteth on hygh, ſhe careth neyther for the horſe, nor the ryder.
19 (f) Haſt thou geuen ẏ horſe his ſtrength? or learned hym to ney courageouſly?
20 Canſt thou make hym afrayde as a graſhopper? his ſtoute neying is feareful.
21 He breaketh the ground (with the hoofes of his feete) he reioyceth in his ſtrength, & runneth to meete the harneſt menne.
22 He mocketh at feare, and is not afraide, neyther ſtarteth he backe from the ſwoorde.
23 Though the quyuers rattle vpon hym, though the ſpeare and ſhielde glyſter:
24 Yet ruſheth he in fiercelye, beatyng the grounde, he regardeth not the noyſe of the trumpettes:
25 But when the trumpettes make moſte noyſe, he ſayth, * Tuſhe, for he ſmelleth the batayle a farre of, the noyſe of the captaynes, and the ſhowtyng.
26 Commeth it throughe thy wiſdome that the Goſhauke fleeth with her wynges towarde the (g) South?
27 Dooth the Eagle mount vp, and make his neſt on hygh at thy commaundement?
28 He abydeth in ſtonye rockes, & dwelleth vpon the hygh toppes of mountaynes:
29 From whence he ſeeketh his praye, and looketh farre about with his eyes.
30 His young ones alſo ſucke vp blood: and where any dead body lyeth, there is he.

(c) If thou canſt not rule the Vnicorne, canſt thou knowe gods ſecretes, or appoynt hym to do thy wil
* or, ſeede.

(d) The Eſtriche when ſhe hath hatched her egs, hydeth them in the ſande, and by the heate of the ſunne, the young are brought forth, but ſhe leaueth the egges as careleſſe, forgettyng the place where ſhe put thē, and ſo her labour is vayne.
(e) To be natural toward her owne.
(f) Thus in al creatures the glory of gods maieſty is declared.
* or, ha ha.

(g) That is, flee into the regions that are whot when cold commeth.

The.xl. Chapter.

God declareth the weakneſſe of Iob, by comparing the ſame to his great worke, and to the ſtrength of Behemoth.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde ſpake vnto Iob, and ſayde,
2 Shal he whom the almyghtye wyl chaſten, contende with hym? Shoulde not he whiche diſputeth with God, geue hym an anſweare?
3 Then Iob (a) anſwered the Lorde, ſaying,
4 Behold, I am vyle, what ſhal I anſwere thee, (therefore) I wyl laye my hand vpon my mouth.
5 Once haue I ſpoken, but I wyl ſaye no more: yea, twyſe, but I wyl proceede no further.
6 Then anſwered the Lorde vnto Iob out of the whyrle wynde, and ſayde, 7 Gyrde vp thy loynes nowe lyke a man: I wyl demaunde of thee, and make thou anſweare.
8 Wylt thou (b) diſanul my iudgement? or wylt thou condemne me, that thou mayeſt be ryghteous?
9 Is thy * power then lyke the power of God? maketh thy voyce a ſoūd as his doth?
10 Decke thee ſelfe nowe with excellencie & maieſtie, and aray thee ſelfe with (c) beautie and glory.
11 Caſt abroad ẏ indignation of thy wrath, and beholde euerye one that is proude, and abaſe hym:
12 Looke on euery one that is arrogant, and bryng hym lowe, and deſtroy the wicked in their place:
13 Hyde them in the duſt togeather, and couer their faces in (d) ſecrete.
14 Then wyl I confeſſe vnto thee alſo, that (e) thyne owne ryght hande ſhal ſaue thee.
15 Beholde (the beaſt) (f) Behemoth, whō I made with thee, whiche eateth haye as an oxe:
16 Loe howe his ſtrength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauel of his belly.
17 When he wyl, he ſpreadeth out his taile lyke a Cedar tree, the ſynnowes of his ſtones are knytte togeather.
18 His bones are ſtrong as braſſe, yea, his bones are lyke ſtaues of iron.
19 He is the begynnyng of the wayes of God, he that made hym, wyl make his (g) ſwoorde to approche vnto hym.
20 Surelye the mountaynes bryng hym fooyth graſſe, where al the beaſtes of the feelde take their paſtime.
21 He raſteth hym in the ſhade, in the couert of the reede and fennes.
22 The trees couer him with their ſhadow, and the wyllowes of the brooke compaſſe hym about.
23 Beholde, he drynketh vp whole ryuers, and

(a) Here Iob cōfeſſeth his offence, and durſt not ſpeake: for when god dooth reprehende, who can anſwere?
(b) Meanyng that for a man to accompt hym ſelfe iuſt, is to accuſe god for vniuſt.
* or, arme.
(c) Which no man is able to doo, for theſe thinges are onely parteining to god.
(d) That is, cauſe them to dye, yf it lye in thy power.
(e) Whiche god can only doo, & therfore truſting in thine own ſtrēgth, thou compareſt with god.
(f) The Hebrues ſay, Behemoth ſignifieth an Elephant, ſo called for his hugenes, by the whiche may be vnderſtande the deuyl.
(g) This beaſt is one of the cheefeſt woorkes of god among the beaſtes, whom though no man dare come neare, yet god can kyl hym.

and

and feareth not, he thynketh that he can drawe vp Iordane into his mouth.

24 He is (h) taken with his eyes, and the (hunter) thrusteth hym through the nose.

(h) Some write that when men purpose to take the Elephant, they make a holowe place in the grounde where he vseth to haunt, & coureth the same with hay, or prouender, which so soone as the Elephant espieth, he runneth hastily vnto it, and falleth into the pyt, and then the hunter thrusteth him through the nose, because it is the tendrest part of hym.

The.xli. Chapter.

God setteth foorth the mallice, the members, the strength, and the pride of Leuiathan.

A

1 Canst thou drawe out (a) Leuiathan with an hooke, or bynde his tongue with a corde?

(a) Leuiathan is a Whale.

2 Canst thou put a hooke in the nose of him? or bore his iawe through with a nawle?

3 Wyl he make many fayre woordes with thee, or flatter thee?

4 Wil he make a couenant with thee? or wilt thou take him for a seruant for euer?

5 Wilt thou take thy pastime with hym, as with a birde, wylt thou bynde hym for thy maydens?

6 That thy companions may make a banket of hym, or shal he be parted among the marchantes?

B

7 Canst thou fil the basket with his skinne? or the fysshe panyer with his head?

(b) For it is dangerous to trust Satan in any thing, yea, it is hurtful to touche hym: for Leuiathan representeth Satan.

8 Lay thyne hande vpon hym, (b) remember the battayle, and doo no more.

9 Beholde, his hope is in vayne: for shal not (one) perysshe euen at the syght of hym?

(c) If the creature can not be resisted, who can compare with the creator?

10 No (c) man is so fierce that dare stirre him vp: Who is able to stande before me?

11 Or who hath geuen me any thyng afore hande, that I may reward him agayne? Al thinges vnder heauen are myne.

12 I wil not keepe secret his great strength, his power, nor his comely proporcion.

(d) That is, who dare pul of his skinne.

13 Who can discouer the (d) face of his garment? or who shal come to him with a double bridle?

(e) That is, who dare looke in his mouth.

14 Who (e) shal open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth rounde about.

15 His scales are as it were strong shieldes, so fastened together as yf they were sealed:

16 One is so ioyned to another, that no ayre can come in:

17 One hangeth so vpon another, and stycketh so together, that they can not be sundred.

(f) That is, he spoweth out flames of fire out of his mouth.

18 His (f) neesynges make a glisteryng like light, & his eyes like the * morning shine.

* or, eye lyddes of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth goe torches, & sparkes of fyre leape out.

20 And out of his nosethrilles there goeth a smoke, like as out of an hot seethyng pot or caldron.

21 His breath maketh the coales burne, and the flame goeth out of his mouth.

D

22 In his necke there remayneth strength, and nothyng is to labourous for hym.

23 The members of his fleashe are ioyned, and cleaue fast together, and can not be mooued.

24 His hart is as harde as a stone, and as fast as * the stithie that the smyth smyteth vpon.

* or, the neather milstone.

25 When he mooueth hym selfe, the mightie are afrayde, and feare troubleth them.

26 If any man drawe out a swoord at him, he wil not moue, neither for the speare, iauelyn, nor brestplate.

27 He setteth as much by iron, as by a straw, and as much by brasse, as by a rotten sticke.

(g) For the hardnes of his skinne is such, that he lyeth vpon it without payne, as in the softe myre.

28 He starteth not away from the arrowe: and as for slyng stones, they are as stubble vnto hym.

29 He counteth the dartes as strawe, he laugheth hym to scorne that shaketh the speare.

(h) He spouteth out water in suche sort, that the seas seeme to boyle.

30 (g) Sharpe stones are vnder hym, and he lyeth vpon sharpe thynges, as vpon the softe myre.

31 He maketh the (h) deepe to boyle lyke a pot, and stirreth the sea together lyke an oyntment.

(i) With a white froth vpon the water.

32 He maketh the (i) path to shine after him, and he maketh the deepe to seeme al hoarie.

(k) He despiseth al other beastes and monsters, and is the proudest of al others.

33 Upon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is so made that he feareth not.

34 He beholdeth al the hygh thynges, (k) he is a kyng ouer al the children of pryde.

The.xlii. Chapter.

6. The repentance of Iob. 9. He prayeth for his freendes, 12. and his goodes are restored double vnto hym.

1 Then Iob answeared the Lorde, and sayde,

(a) Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of God, & bewaileth his offence that he spake he wyst not what.

2 (a) I knowe that thou hast power ouer al thynges, & that there is no thought hyd vnto thee.

3 For who can keepe his owne counsayle so secrete, but it shalbe knowen? therefore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the thynges that are to woonderful for me, and passe myne vnderstandyng.

(b) Iob desyreth to learn of God.

4 Heare (b) thou vnto me also, and let me speake: answeare vnto the thyng that I wyl aske thee.

(c) He sawe him not but by his word, which is the face & image of God.

5 I haue hearde of thee by the hearyng of the eare, but nowe myne eye (c) seeth thee.

6 Wher-

6 Wherfore I gene mine owne selfe the blame, and take repentance in the dust and asshes.

7 Nowe when the Lorde had spoken these woordes vnto Iob, the Lorde sayde to Eliphaz ỳ Themanite, I am displeased with thee, and thy two freendes: for ye haue not spoken of me the (d) thyng that is ryght, lyke as my seruant Iob hath donne.

(d) Ye tok: in hand an euyl cause in that you cõdemp: ned hym by his outward afflictions, & not comfor- ted him with my mercyes.

8 Therefore take you nowe seuen oxen, and seuen rammes, and goe to my seruant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a whole burnt offeryng, and my seruant Iob shal pray for you: hym wil I accept, and not deale with you after your foolyshnesse, in that ye haue not spoken of me the thyng which is ryght, lyke as my seruant Iob hath donne.

9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, went, and dyd accordyng as the Lord commaunded them: the Lord also accepted " the person of Iob.

" or, the face.

10 And the Lorde (e) turned the captiuitie of Iob when he prayed for his freendes: Yea, the Lorde gaue Iob twyse as muche as he had before.

(e) He ryd him from his troubles and plagues.

11 And then came there vnto hym (f) al his brethren, al his sisters, and al they that had ben of his acquayntance (g) afore, and did eate bread with him in his house, and had compassion on hym, and comforted hym ouer al the trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon hym: euery man also gaue hym a certayne summe of money, and " a iewel of golde.

(f) That is, al they that were of his kinrede.

(g) Here is the exceeding blessinges of god towardes the godly, and they that vnfaignedly trust in hym.

" or, an eare ryng.

12 So the Lorde blessed the last dayes of Iob more then the firste: for he had foureteene thousand sheepe, sixe thousand Cammels: a thousand yoke of Oxen, and a thousande shee Asses, 13 He had seuen sonnes also, and three daughters.

14 The first (daughter) called he (h) Iemima, the seconde, (i) Kezia, and the thirde, (k) Kerenhapuch.

(h) Passing in beautie as the day, and long liuing.

(i) As sweete as Cassia, or fine spices.

(k) The childe of beautie.

15 In al the lande were no women founde so fayre as the daughters of Iob: and their father gaue them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this, liued Iob an hundred and fourtie yeeres: so that he sawe his children, and his childrens children, into the fourth generation.

B 7 Al ſheepe and oxen: yea, and the beaſtes of the feelde.
8 The foules of the ayre, and the fyſh of the ſea: and whatſoeuer walketh through the pathes of the ſeas.
9 O Lorde, our gouernour: how excellent is thy name in al the world?

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. ix.

A 1 I Wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, with my whole hart: I wyl ſpeake of al thy marueylous woorkes.
Mornyng prayer.
2 I wyl be glad and reioyce in thee: yea, my ſonges wil I make of thy name, O thou moſt hygheſt.
3 Whyle myne enimies are dryuen backe: they ſhal fal and periſhe at thy preſence.
4 For thou haſt mainteyned my right, and my cauſe: thou art ſet in the throne that iudgeſt right.
5 Thou haſt rebuked the Heathen, and deſtroyed the vngodly: thou haſt put out their name for euer and euer.
6 O thou enimie, deſtructions are comme to a perpetual ende: euen as the cities whiche thou haſt deſtroyed, their memorial is periſhed with them.
7 But the Lorde ſhal endure for euer: he B hath alſo prepared his ſeate for iudgement.
8 For he ſhal iudge the worlde in ryghteouſneſſe: and miniſter true iudgement vnto the people.
9 The Lorde alſo wyl be a defence for the oppreſſed: euen a refuge in due tyme of trouble.
10 And they that knowe thy name wyl put their truſt in thee: for thou Lorde haſt neuer fayled them that ſeeke thee.
11 O prayſe the Lorde whiche dwelleth in Sion: Shewe the people of his doynges.
12 For when he maketh inquiſition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaynt of the poore.
13 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lorde, conſider the trouble whiche I ſuffer of them that hate me: thou that lyfteſt me vp from the gates of death.
14 That I may ſhewe al thy prayſes with- C in the portes of the daughter of Sion: I wyl reioyce in thy ſaluation.
15 The Heathen are ſunke downe in the pit that they made: in the ſame net which they hyd priuily, is their owne foote taken.
16 The Lorde is knowen to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the worke of his owne handes.
17 The wicked ſhalbe turned vnto hel: and al the people that forget God.
18 For the poore ſhal not alway be forgotten: the patient abydyng of the meeke ſhal not peryſhe for euer.
19 Up Lorde, and let not man haue the vpper hande: let the Heathen be iudged in thy ſyght.
20 Put them in feare (O Lorde:) that the Heathen may know them ſelues to be but menne.

Vt quid domine. Pſal. x.

1 Why ſtandeſt thou ſo farre of (O lorde:) A and hydeſt thy face in the needful time of trouble?
2 The vngodlye for his owne luſte dooth perſecute the poore: let them be taken in the craftie wylyneſſe that they haue imagined.
3 For the vngodly hath made boaſt of his owne hartes deſyre: and ſpeaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The vngodly is ſo proude, that he careth not for GOD, neyther is GOD in al his thoughtes.

5 His wayes are alway greeuous: thy iudgementes are farre aboue out of his ſight, and therefore defyeth he all his enimies.

6 For he hath ſayd in his hart, tuſhe, I ſhal neuer be caſt downe: there ſhall no harme happen vnto me.

℣ 7 His mouth is ful of curſing, deceipt and fraude: vnder his tongue is vngodlyneſſe and vanitie.

8 He ſitteth lurkyng in the theeuiſh corners of the ſtreetes: and priuily in his lurkyng dennes dooth he murder the innocent, his eyes are ſet agaynſt the poore.

9 For he lyeth wayting ſecretely: euen as a Lyon lurketh he in his denne, that he may raniſhe the poore.

10 He doth raniſhe the poore: when he getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth him ſelf: that the congregation of the poore may fal into the hande of his captaynes.

12 He hath ſayd in his hart tuſhe, God hath forgotten: he hydeth away his face, and he wyl neuer ſee it.

13 Aryſe (O Lorde God) and lyft vp thyne hande: forget not the poore.

ℭ 14 Wherfore ſhould the wicked blaſpheme God: whyle he dooth ſay in his hart, tuſhe, thou God careſt not for it?

15 Surely thou haſt ſeene it: for thou beholdeſt vngodlyneſſe and wrong.

16 That thou mayeſt take the matter into thy hande: the poore committeth him ſelfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the freendleſſe.

17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly and malitious: take away his vngodlyneſſe, and thou ſhalt finde none.

18 The Lorde is kyng for euer and euer: & the Heathen are periſhed out of the land.

19 Lorde thou haſt hearde the deſire of the poore: thou prepareſt their hart, and thine care hearkeneth thereto.

20 To helpe the fatherleſſe and poore vnto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted agaynſt them.

In domino confido. Pſal.xi.

℟ 1 IN the Lorde put I my truſt: howe ſay ye then to my ſoule, that ſhe ſhoulde flee as a birde vnto the hyl?

2 For loe, the vngodly bende their bowe, and make redy their arrowes within the quiuer: that they may priuily ſhoote at the which are true of hart.

3 For the fundations wyl be caſt downe: and what hath the ryghteous donne?

4 The Lorde is in his holye temple: the Lordes ſeate is in heauen.

5 His eyes conſyder the poore: and his eye lyddes tryeth the chyldren of menne.

6 The Lorde alloweth the righteous: but the vngodlye, and him that delighteth in wickednesſe dooth his ſoule abhorre.

7 Upon the vngodlye he ſhal rayne ſnares, fyre, and brimſtone, ſtorme, and tempeſt: this ſhalbe their portion to drynke.

8 For the ryghteous Lorde loueth righteouſneſſe: his countenance wyll beholde the thyng that is iuſt.

Saluum me fac. Pſal.xii.

℟ 1 HElpe me Lorde, for there is not one godly man left: for the faythful are miniſhed from among the chyldren of menne. ℟ Euenyng prayer.

2 They talke of vanitie euery one with his neighbour: they doo but flatter with their lyppes, and diſſemble in their double hart.

3 The Lorde ſhall roote out al deceiptful lippes: and the tongue that ſpeaketh proude thynges.

4 Whiche haue ſayd, with our tongue wyl we preuayle: we are they that ought to ſpeake, who is lorde ouer vs?

5 Nowe for the comfortleſſe troubles ſake of the needy: & becauſe of the deepe ſighing of the poore.

6 I wyl vp (ſayth the Lord:) and wyl helpe euery one from him that ſwelleth agaynſt him, and wyl ſet them at reſt.

7 The woordes of the Lord are pure woordes: euen as the ſiluer whiche from the earth is tryed and purified ſeuen tymes in the fyre. ℣

8 Thou ſhalt keepe them (O Lorde:) thou ſhalt preſerue them from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on enery ſyde: when they are exalted, the chyldren of menne are put to rebuke.

Vſquequo domine. Pſal.xiii.

℟ 1 HOwe long wylt thou forgeat me (O Lorde) for euer: howe long wylt thou hyde thy face from me? ℟

2 Howe long ſhal I ſeeke counſayle in my ſoule, and be ſo vexed in my hart: how long ſhal myne enimies triumph ouer me.

3 Conſyder and heare me, O Lorde my God: lyghten myne eyes, that I ſleepe not in death.

4 Leſt

4 Lest myne enimie say, I haue preuayled agaynst him: for yf I be cast downe, they that trouble me wyl reioyce at it.
5 But my trust is in thy mercie: and my hart is ioyful in thy saluation.
6 I wyl syng of the Lorde, because he hath dealt so louyngly with me: yea, I wyll prayse the name of the Lorde most highest.

Dixit insipiens. psalm.xiiii.

A 1 THe foole hath saide in his harte: there is no God.
2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doinges: there is not one that doth good (no not one.)
3 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see yf there were any that would vnderstande and seeke after God.
4 But they are al gone out of the way: they are altogeather become abominable, there is none that doeth good, no not one.
5 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceiued: the poyson of Aspes is vnder their lippes.
6 Their mouth is full of cursyng and bytternesse: their feete are swift to shed blood.
7 Destruction and vnhappinesse is in their wayes, and the way of peace haue they not knowen: there is no feare of God before their eyes.
B 8 Haue they no knowledge that they are al suche workers of mischeefe: eatyng vp my people as it were bread?
9 And call not vpon the Lorde, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was:) for God is in the generation of the ryghteous.
10 As for you ye haue made a mocke at the counsayle of the poore: because he putteth his trust in the Lorde.
11 Who shall geue saluation vnto Israel out of Sion? when the Lorde turneth the captiuitie of his people, then shall Iacob reioyce, and Israel shalbe glad.

Domine quis habitabit. Psalm.xv.

A 1 LOrde who shall dwell in thy tabernacle: who shall reste vppon thy holy hyl?
Mornyng prayer.
2 Euen he that leadeth an vncorrupt lyfe: and doeth the thing whiche is ryght, and speaketh the trueth from his hart.
3 He that hath vsed no deceipt in his tongue, nor done euyl to his neighbour: and hath not slaundered his neighbours.
4 He that setteth not by him selfe, but is lowly in his owne eyes: and maketh much of them that feare the Lorde.
5 He that sweareth vnto his neighbour, and disappoynteth him not: though it were to his owne hinderance.
6 He that hath not geuen his money vppon vsurie: nor taken rewarde agaynst the innocent.
7 Who so doeth these thinges: shall neuer fall.

Conserua me, psalm.xvi.

1 PReserue me, O God: for in thee haue I put my trust. A
2 O my soule, thou hast saide vnto the Lorde: thou art my God, my goodes are nothyng vnto thee.
3 Al my delight is vpon the saintes that are in the earth: and vpon suche as excell in vertue.
4 But they that runne after another God: shal haue great trouble.
5 Their drinke offeringes of blood wyll I not offer: neyther make mention of their names within my lippes.
6 The Lorde him selfe is the portion of myne inheritaunce, and of my cup: thou shalt maintayne my lot.
7 The lotte is fallen vnto me in a fayre grounde: yea, I haue a goodly heritage. B
8 I wyl thanke the Lorde for geuing me warnyng: my reynes also chasten me in the nyght season.
9 I haue set God alwayes before me: for he is on my ryght hande, therefore I shall not fall.
10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory reioyced: my flesshe also shall rest in hope.
11 For why? thou shalt not leaue my soule in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thyne holye one to see corruption.
12 Thou shalt shewe me the path of lyfe, in thy presence is the fulnesse of ioy: and at thy ryght hande there is pleasure for euermore.

Exaudi domine iustitiam. psalm.xvii.

1 HEare the ryght, O Lorde, consyder my complaynt: and hearken vnto my prayer, that goeth not out of faigned lippes. A
2 Let my sentence comme forth from thy presence: and let thyne eyes looke vpon the thing that is equal.
3 Thou hast proued and visited myne hart in the night season, thou hast tryed me, and shalt fynde no wickednesse in me: for I am vtterly purposed that my mouth shall not offende.

4 Becauſe of mens woorkes that are done agaynſt the woordes of my lippes: I haue kept me from the wayes of the deſtroyer.
5 O hold thou vp my goinges in thy paths:
that my footeſteppes ſlip not.
6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, for thou ſhalt heare me: encline thyne eare to me, and hearken vnto my woordes.
B 7 Shewe thy marueylous louyng kynd-neſſe, thou that art the ſauiour of them which put their truſt in thee: from ſuch as reſyſt thy right hande.
8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide me
vnder the ſhadowe of thy wynges.
9 From the vngodly that trouble me: mine enimies compaſſe me rounde about, to take away my ſoule.
10 They are encloſed in their owne fat: and their mouth ſpeaketh proude thinges.
11 They lye wayting in our way on euery ſyde: turnyng their eyes downe to the grounde.
12 Like as a Lion that is greedy of his pray:
and as it were a Lions whelpe lurking in ſecrete places.
13 Vp Lorde, diſapoynt him, and caſt hym downe: deliuer my ſoule from the vngod-
C ly whiche is a ſwoorde of thyne.
14 From the men of thy hande, O Lorde, from the men I ſay, and from the euyll woorld: whiche haue their portion in this lyfe, whoſe bellies thou fillest with thy hid treaſure.
15 They haue children at their deſyre: and leaue the reſt of their ſubſtaunce for theyr babes.
16 But as for me, I wyll beholde thy pre-ſence in righteouſneſſe: and when I awake vp after thy likeneſſe, I ſhalbe ſatiſfyed with it.

Diligam te. Pſalm.xviii.

A 1 I Wyll loue thee (O Lorde) my ſtrength, Euenyng prayer. the Lorde is my ſtony rocke and my defence: my ſauiour, my God, and my myght, in whom I wyl truſt, my buck-ler, the horne alſo of my ſaluation, and my refuge.
2 I wyll call vppon the Lorde, whiche is woorthy to be prayſed: ſo ſhall I be ſafe from myne enimies.
3 The ſorowes of death compaſſed me:
and the ouerflowynges of vngodlyneſſe made me afrayde.
4 The paynes of hell came about me: the ſnares of death ouertooke me.
5 In my trouble I wyl call vpon the Lord:
and complaine vnto my God.
6 So ſhal he heare my voyce out of his (holy) temple: and my complaint ſhall comme before him, it ſhall enter euen into his eares.
7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very fundations alſo of the hilles ſhooke, and B were remoued, becauſe he was wroth.
8 There went a ſmoke out of his preſence:
and a conſuming fyre out of his mouth, ſo that coales were kindled at it.
9 He bowed the heauens alſo and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feete.
10 He rode vpon the cherubims and did flee:
he came fleeting vppon the wynges of the wynde.
11 He made darkneſſe his ſecrete place: his pauilion rounde about hym, with darke water and thicke cloudes to couer hym.
12 At the brightneſſe of his preſence his cloudes remooued: haileſtones and coales of fyre.
13 The Lorde alſo thundred out of heauen, C and the higheſt gaue his thunder: haile-ſtones and coales of fyre.
14 He ſent out his arrowes, and ſcattered them: he caſt foorth lightninges, and deſtroyed them.
15 The ſpringes of waters were ſeene, and the fundations of the rounde woorlde were diſcouered at thy chidyng, O Lorde: at the blaſting of the breath of thy diſpleaſure.
16 He ſhall ſende downe from the high to featche me: and ſhal take me out of many waters.
17 He ſhal deliuer me from my ſtrongeſt enimie, and from them whiche hate me: for they are to mighty for me.
18 They preuented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lorde was my vpholder.
19 He brought me foorth alſo into a place of libertie: he brought me foorth, euen becauſe he had a fauour vnto me.
20 The Lorde ſhall rewarde me after my ryghteous dealyng: accoording to the cleanneſſe of my handes ſhal he recompence me. D 21 Becauſe I haue keapt the wayes of the Lorde: and haue not forſaken my God as the wicked dooth.
22 For I haue an eye vnto al his lawes: and wyll not caſt out his commaundementes from me.
23 I was alſo vncorrupt before hym: and eſchewed myne owne wickednesſe.
24 Therefore ſhal the Lorde rewarde me after my righteous dealyng: and accordyng vnto the cleanneſſe of my handes in his eye ſyght.
25 With the holye thou ſhalt be holye:
and with a perfect man, thou ſhalt be perfect.
26 With the cleane thou ſhalt be cleane:

and

and with the frowarde thou ſhalt learne frowardneſſe.

27 For thou ſhalt ſaue the people that are in aduerſitie: and ſhalt bryng downe the hygh lookes of the proude.

D 28 Thou alſo ſhalt lyght my candle: the Lorde my God ſhal make my darkneſſe to be light.

29 For in thee I ſhal diſcomfite an hoſt of menne: and with the healpe of my God I ſhal leape ouer the wal.

30 The way of God is an vndefiled waye, the woorde of the Lorde alſo is tryed in the fire: he is the defender of al them that put their truſt in hym.

31 For who is God, but the Lorde: or who hath any ſtrength, except our God?

32 It is God that gyrdeth me with ſtrēgth of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feete lyke Hartes feete: and ſetteth me vp on high.

E 34 He teacheth my handes to fight: and myne armes ſhal breake euen a bowe of ſteele.

35 Thou haſt geuen me the defence of thy ſaluation: thy ryght hande alſo ſhal holde me vp, and thy louing correction ſhal make me great.

36 Thou ſhalt make roome ynough vnder me for to goe: that my footſteppes ſhal not ſlyde.

37 I wyl folowe vpon myne enimies, and ouertake them: neither wyl I turne againe tyl I haue deſtroyed them.

38 I wyl ſmyte them, that they ſhal not be able to ſtande: but fal vnder my feete.

39 Thou haſt gyrded me with ſtrength vnto the batayle: thou ſhalt throwe downe myne enimies vnder me.

F 40 Thou haſt made myne enimies alſo to turne theyr backes vpon me: and I ſhal deſtroy them that hate me.

41 They ſhal crye, but there ſhalbe none to healpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lorde ſhal they crye, but he ſhal not heare them.

42 I wyl beate them as ſmal as the duſt before the wynde: I wyl caſt them out as the claye in the ſtreetes.

43 Thou ſhalt deliuer me from the ſtrivings of the people: and thou ſhalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I haue not knowen: ſhal ſerue me.

45 As ſoone as they heare of me, they ſhal obey me: but the ſtrange chyldren ſhal diſſemble with me.

G 46 The ſtrange chyldren ſhal fayle: and be afrayde out of theyr pyſons.

47 The Lorde lyueth, and bleſſed be my ſtrong healper: and prayſed be the God of my ſaluation.

48 Euen the God whiche ſeeth that I be auenged: and ſubdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is he that delyuereth me from my (cruel) enimies, & ſetteth me vp aboue mine aduerſaries: thou ſhalt rydde me from the wicked man.

50 For this cauſe wyl I geue thankes vnto thee (O Lorde) among the Gentiles: and ſing prayſes vnto thy name.

51 Greate proſperitie geueth he vnto his kyng: and ſheweth louing kyndneſſe vnto Dauid his annoynted, and vnto his ſeede for euermore.

Celi enarrant. Pſalm. xix.

A Mornyng prayer.

1 THE heauens declare the glorye of God: and the firmament ſheweth his handy woorke.

2 One day telleth another: and one nyght certifieth another.

3 There is neyther ſpeache nor language: but theyr voyces are hearde among them.

4 Theyr ſounde is gone out into al landes: and theyr woordes into the endes of the worlde.

5 In them hath he ſet a tabernacle for the ſonne: whiche commeth forth as a bryde-grome out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a gyant to runne his courſe.

6 It goeth forth from the vttermoſt parte of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the ende of it agayne: and there is nothyng hyd from the heate thereof.

B 7 The law of the Lorde is an vndefiled law, conuertyng the ſoule: the teſtimonie of the Lorde is ſure, and geueth wyſedome vnto the ſimple.

8 The ſtatutes of the Lorde are ryght, and reioyce the harte: the commaundement of the Lord is pure, and geueth lyght vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lorde is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgementes of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be deſyred are they then golde, yea, then muche fyne golde: ſweeter alſo then hony, and the hony combe.

11 Moreouer, by them is thy ſeruant taught: & in kepyng of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tel howe ofte he offendeth? O cleanſe thou me from my ſecrete faultes.

13 Keepe thy ſeruant alſo from preſumptuous ſinnes, leaſt they get the dominion ouer me: ſo ſhal I be vndefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the woordes of my mouth, and the meditation of my hart: be (alway) acceptable in thy ſight. C

15 O

15 O Lorde: my ſtrength and my redeemer.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Pſalm.xx.

A 1 THE Lorde heare thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Jacob defende thee.
2 Sende thee healpe from the ſanctuarie: and ſtrength thee out of Sion.
3 Remember al thy offerynges: and accept thy burnt ſacrifice.
4 Graunt thee thy hartes deſyre: and fulfil al thy mynde.
5 We wyl reioyce in thy ſaluation, and tryumph in the name of the Lord our God: the Lorde perfourme al thy petitions.
6 Nowe knowe I that the Lorde healpeth his annoynted, and wyl heare hym from his holy heauen: euen with the wholeſome ſtrength of his ryght hande.
B 7 Somme put theyr truſte in Charets, and ſomme in Horſes: but we wyl remember the name of the Lorde our God.
8 They are brought downe and fallen: but we are ryſen and ſtand vpryght.
9 Saue Lorde, and heare vs, O kyng of heauen: when we cal vpon thee.

Domine in virtute. Pſalm.xxi.

A 1 THE kyng ſhal reioyce in thy ſtrength, O Lorde: exceedyng glad ſhal he be of thy ſaluation.
2 Thou haſt geuen hym his hartes deſyre: and haſt not denyed hym the requeſt of his lyppes.
3 For thou ſhalt preuent hym with the bleſſynges of goodneſſe: and ſhalt ſet a crowne of pure golde vpon his head.
4 He aſked life of thee, and thou gaueſt him a long lyfe: euen for euer and euer.
5 His honour is great in thy ſaluation: glorye and great worſhyp ſhalt thou laye vpon hym.
6 For thou ſhalt geue hym euerlaſtyng felicitie: and make hym glad with the ioy of thy countenance.
B 7 And why? becauſe the kyng putteth his truſt in the Lorde: and in the mercie of the moſt higheſt, he ſhal not miſcary.
8 Al thyne enimies ſhal feele thy hande: thy ryght hande ſhal fynde out them that hate thee.
9 Thou ſhalt make them lyke a fyery Ouen in tyme of thy wrath: the Lord ſhal deſtroy them in his diſpleaſure, and the fyre ſhal conſume them.
10 Their fruite ſhalt thou roote out of the earth: and their ſeede from among the chyldren of menne.
11 For they intended miſchefe againſt thee: and imagined ſuche a deuice as they are not able to perfourme.
12 Therfore ſhalt thou put them to flyght: and the ſtrynges of thy bowe ſhalt thou make ready againſt the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted Lorde in thyne owne ſtrength: ſo wyl we ſyng and prayſe thy power.

Deus Deus meus. Pſalm.xxii.

A 1 MY God my God (loke vpon me) why haſt thou forſaken me: and art ſo farre from my health, and frō the wordes of my complaint? Euenyng prayer.
2 O my God, I crye in the day tyme, but thou heareſt not: and in the night ſeaſon alſo I take no reaſt.
3 And thou continueſt holy: O thou worſhyp of Iſrael.
4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they truſted in thee, and thou dyddeſt delyuer them.
5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their truſte in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But as for me, I am a worme, and no man: a very ſcorne of menne, and the outcaſt of the people.
7 Al they that ſee me, laugh me to ſcorne: B they ſhoote out their lippes, and ſhake their head, ſayeing,
8 He truſted in God that he would delyuer hym: let hym delyuer hym, yf he wyl haue hym.
9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou waſt my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breaſtes.
10 I haue ben leafte vnto thee euer ſince I was borne: thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.
11 O goe not from me, for trouble is harde at hande: and there is none to healpe me.
12 Many oxen are comme about me: fatte bulles of Baſan cloſe me in on euery ſide.
13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a rampyng and roaryng Lyon.
14 I am powred out lyke water, and al my bones are out of ioynt: my hart alſo in the C myddeſt of my bodye is euen lyke meltyng waxe.
15 My ſtrength is dryed vp like a potſhard, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou ſhalt bryng me into the duſte of death.
16 For (many) dogges are come about me: and the counſel of the wicked layeth ſiege againſt me.

17 They

17 They pearſed my handes and my feete.
I may tell al my bones: they ſtand ſtaring and lookyng vpon me.
18 They part my garmentes among them: and caſt lottes vpon my veſture.
19 But be not thou farre from me, O Lord: thou art my ſuccour, haſte thee to helpe me.
20 Deliuer my ſoule from the ſwoorde: my darlyng from the power of the dogge.
D 21 Saue me from the lions mouth: thou haſt heard me alſo from among the hornes of the Unicornes.
22 I wyll declare thy name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the congregation wyll I prayſe thee.
23 O prayſe the Lorde ye that feare hym: magnifie hym al ye of the ſeede of Jacob, and feare hym all ye of the ſeede of Iſrael.
24 For he hath not deſpiſed nor abhorred the lowe eſtate of the poore, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called vnto hym, he heard hym.
25 My prayſe is of thee in the great congregation: my vowes wyl I perfourme in the ſight of them that feare hym.
26 The poore ſhall eate and be ſatisfied: they that ſeeke after the Lorde, ſhal prayſe hym, your heart ſhall liue for euer.
27 All the endes of the worlde ſhal remember them ſelues, & be turned vnto the lord: and all the kynredes of the nations ſhall worſhyp before hym.
E 28 For the kyngdome is the Lordes: and he is the gouernour among the people.
29 All ſuche as be fat vpon earth: haue eaten and worſhipped.
30 All they that go downe to the duſt ſhall kneele before him: and no man hath quickened his owne ſoule.
31 My ſeede ſhall ſerue hym: they ſhalbe counted vnto the Lord for a generation.
32 They ſhall come, and the heauens ſhall declare his ryghteouſneſſe: vnto a people that ſhalbe borne, whō the lord hath made.

Dominus regit me. Pſal. xxiii.

A 1 THe Lord is my ſhephearde: therefore can I lacke nothyng.
2 He ſhal feede me in a greene paſture: and leade me forth beſyde the waters of comfort.
3 He ſhal conuert my ſoule: and bryng me forth in the pathes of ryghteouſneſſe, for his names ſake.
4 Yea though I walke through the valley of the ſhadow of death, I wyl feare no euil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy ſtaffe comfort me.
5 Thou ſhalt prepare a table before me, agaynſt them that trouble me: thou haſt annoynted my head with oyle, and my cup ſhalbe full.
6 But thy louyng kyndneſſe and mercy ſhal folowe me all the dayes of my lyfe: and I wyl dwell in the houſe of the Lorde for euer.

A 1 THE earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is: the compaſſe of the worlde, and they that dwell therein. Morn. yng prayer.
2 For he hath founded it vpon the ſeas: and prepared it vpon the fluddes.
3 Who ſhall aſſende into the hyll of the Lorde: or who ſhall ryſe vp in his holye place?
4 Euen he that hath cleane handes, and a pure heart: and that hath not lyft vp his minde vnto vanitie, nor ſworne to deceiue his neighbour.
5 He ſhall receiue the bleſſyng from the Lorde: and ryghteouſneſſe from the God of his ſaluation.
6 This is the generation of them that ſeeke hym: euen of them that ſeeke thy face, O Jacob.
B 7 Lyft vp your heades, O ye gates, and be ye lyft vp ye euerlaſtyng doores: and the kyng of glory ſhal come in.
8 Who is the kyng of glory: it is the Lord ſtrong and mighty, euen the Lord mighty in battayle.
9 Lyft vp your heades, O ye gates, and be ye lyft vp ye euerlaſting doores: and the kyng of glory ſhal come in.
10 Who is the kyng of glory: euen the Lorde of hoſtes, he is the kyng of glory.

Ad te domine. Pſal. xxv.

A 1 VNto thee, O Lorde, wyl I lyft vp my ſoule, my God, I haue put my truſt in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let myne enimies triumph ouer me.
2 For all they that hope in thee ſhal not be aſhamed: but ſuche as tranſgreſſe without a cauſe, ſhalbe put to confuſion.
3 Shewe me thy wayes, O Lord: and teach me thy pathes.
4 Leade me forth in thy trueth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my ſaluation, in thee hath ben my hope al the day long.
5 Call to remembraunce, O Lorde, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindneſſe whiche haue ben euer of olde.
6 Oh remember not the ſinnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercie thinke thou vpon me (O Lorde) for thy goodneſſe.

7 Gratious and righteous is the lord: therfore wyl he teache sinners in the way.
8 Them that be meke shal he guide in iudgement: and suche as be gentle, them shal he learne his way.
9 All the pathes of the Lord are mercy and trueth: vnto suche as keepe his couenaunt and his testimonies.
10 For thy names sake, O Lord: be merciful vnto my sinne, for it is great.
11 What man is he that feareth the Lorde: hym shall he teache in the way that he shal choose.
12 His soule shal dwel at ease: and his seede shall inherite the lande.
13 The secrete of the Lorde is among them that feare hym: and he wyll shewe them his couenaunt.
C 14 Myne eyes are euer lookyng vnto the Lorde: for he shall plucke my feete out of the net.
15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: for I am desolate, and in miserie.
16 The sorowes of my heart are enlarged: O bryng thou me out of my troubles.
17 Looke vpon myne aduersitie and miserie: and forgeue me al my sinne.
18 Consyder myne enimies how many they are: & they beare a tyrannous hate agaynst me.
19 O keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let me not be confounded, for I haue put my trust in thee.
20 Let perfectnesse and ryghteous dealyng wayte vpon me: for my hope hath ben in thee.
21 Deliuer Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Iudica me domine. Psal. xxvi.

A 1 BE thou my iudge, O Lorde, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath ben also in the Lorde, therefore shall I not fall.
2 Examine me, O Lorde, and proue me: trye out my reynes and my heart.
3 For thy louyng kyndnesse is euer before myne eyes: and I wil walke in thy trueth.
4 I haue not dwelt with vayne persons: neyther wyl I haue felowshyp with the deceiptfull.
5 I haue hated the congregation of the wicked: and wyl not syt among the vngodly.
6 I wyl washe my handes in innocencie, O Lorde: and so wyl I go to thyne aulter.
B 7 That I may shewe the voyce of thankesgeuyng: and tell of al thy wonderous workes.
8 Lorde, I haue loued the habitation of thy house: and the place where thyne honour dwelleth.
9 O shut not vp my soule with the sinners: nor my lyfe with the bloodthirstie.
10 In whose handes is wyckednesse: and theyr ryght hande are full of gyftes.
11 But as for me, I wil walke innocently: O Lord deliuer me, & be merciful vnto me.
12 My foote standeth ryght: I wyl prayse the Lorde in the congregations.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvii.

A 1 THe Lorde is my light, and my saluation, whom then shal I feare? the lord is the strength of my lyfe, of whom then shal I be afrayde? Euenyng prayer.
2 When the wicked (euen mine enimies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afrayde: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet wyll I put my trust in hym.
4 One thyng haue I desyred of the Lorde, whiche I wyll require: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lord al the dayes of my lyfe, to beholde the fayre beautie of the Lorde, and to visite his temple.
5 For in the tyme of trouble he shal hide me in his tabernacle: yea in the secrete place of his dwelling shal he hide me, and set me vp vpon a rocke of stone.
6 And now shal he lift vp mine head: aboue myne enimies rounde about me.
B 7 Therefore wyl I offer in his dwellyng an oblation with great gladnesse: I wyll syng, and speake prayses vnto the Lorde.
8 Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crye vnto thee: haue mercy vpon me, and heare me.
9 My heart hath talked of thee, seeke ye my face: thy face Lorde wyl I seeke.
10 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy seruaunt away in displeasure.
11 Thou hast ben my succour, leaue me not: neither forsake me, O god of my saluation.
12 When my father and my mother forsake me: the Lorde taketh me vp.
13 Teache me thy way, O Lorde: and leade me in the ryght way, because of mine enimies.
14 Deliuer me not ouer into the wyll of mine aduersaries: for there are false wytnesses risen vp agaynst me, and suche as speake wrong. C
15 I shoulde vtterly haue fainted: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of the Lorde in the lande of the lyuing.
16 O tary thou the Lordes leisure: be strong, and he shal comfort thyne heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lorde.

A 1 VNto thee wyl I crye, O Lorde my ſtrength: thynke no ſcorne of me, leſt yf thou make as though thou hearest not, I become lyke them that goe downe into the pyt.

2 Heare the voyce of my humble petitions when I crye vnto thee: when I holde vp my handes towarde the mercie ſeate of thy holy temple.

3 O plucke me not away (neyther deſtroy me) with the vngodlye and wicked doers: which ſpeake frendly to theyr neighbours, but imagine miſcheefe in theyr hartes.

4 Reward them accordyng to theyr deedes: and accordyng to the wickednesse of theyr owne inuentions, recompence them after the woorke of theyr handes, pay them that they haue deſerued.

5 For they regarde not in theyr mynde the woorkes of the Lorde, nor the operation of his handes: therefore ſhal he breake them downe, and not buylde them vp.

6 Prayſed be the Lorde: for he hath hearde the voyce of my humble petitions.

B 7 The Lorde is my ſtrength and my ſhield, my hart hath truſted in hym, & I am healped: therfore my hart dauncеth for ioy, and in my ſongue wyl I prayſe hym.

8 The Lorde is my ſtrength: and he is the wholeſome defence of his annoynted.

9 O ſaue thy people, and geue thy bleſſyng vnto thyne inheritance: feede them, and let them vp for euer.

Afferte Domino. Pſalm.xxix.

A 1 BRyng vnto the Lorde (O ye myghtye) bryng young rammes vnto the Lorde: aſcribe vnto the Lorde woorſhyp and ſtrength.

2 Geue the Lorde the honour due vnto his name: woorſhyp ỹ Lord with holy woorſhyp.

3 It is the Lorde that commaundeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lorde that ruleth the ſea, the voyce of the Lorde is myghty in operation: the voyce of the Lorde is a glorious voyce.

5 The voyce of the Lorde breaketh the Cedar trees: yea the Lorde breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He made them alſo to ſkip lyke a Calfe: Libanus alſo and Syrion lyke a young Vnicorne.

B 7 The voyce of the Lord diuideth the flambes of fyre, the voyce of the Lorde ſhaketh the wyldernesſe: yea, the Lord ſhaketh the wyldernesſe of Cades.

8 The voyce of the Lorde maketh the Hyndes to bryng foorth young, and diſcouereth the thicke buſhes: in his temple doth euery man ſpeake of his honour.

9 The Lorde ſytteth aboue the water flud: and the Lorde remayneth a king for euer.

10 The Lorde ſhall geue ſtrength vnto his people: the Lorde ſhal geue his people the bleſſyng of peace.

A 1 I Wyl magnifie thee, O Lorde, for thou haſt ſet me vp: and not made my foes to tryumph ouer me. Mornyng prayer.

2 O Lorde my God, I cryed vnto thee: and thou haſt healed me.

3 Thou Lorde haſt brought my ſoule out of hel: thou haſt kept my lyfe from them that goe downe to the pyt.

4 Syng prayſes vnto the Lorde (O ye ſaintes of his:) and geue thankes vnto him for a remembraunce of his holyneſſe.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twincklyng of an eye, and in his pleaſure is lyfe: heauineſſe may endure for a nyght, but ioy commeth in the morнyng.

6 And in my proſperitie I ſaide, I ſhal neuer be remooued: thou Lorde of thy goodneſſe hadſt made my hyl ſo ſtrong.

7 Thou diddeſt turne thy face (fro me:) and I was troubled. B

8 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lorde: and gate me vnto my Lorde right humbly.

9 What profite is there in my blood: when I goe downe to the pyt?

10 Shal the duſte geue thankes vnto thee: or ſhal it declare thy trueth?

11 Heare, O Lorde, and haue mercy vppon me: Lorde be thou my healper.

12 Thou haſt turned my heauyneſſe into ioy: thou haſt put of my ſackcloth, and gyrded me with gladneſſe.

13 Therefore ſhal euery good man ſyng of thy prayſe without ceaſſyng: O my God, I wyl geue thankes vnto thee for euer.

In te Domine ſperaui. Pſalm.xxxi.

A 1 IN thee, O Lorde, haue I put my truſt: let me neuer be put to confuſion, deliuer me in thy righteouſneſſe.

2 Bowe downe thyne eare to me: make haſte to delyuer me.

3 And be thou my ſtrong rocke, and the houſe of defence: that thou mayſt ſaue me.

4 For thou art my ſtrong rocke, and my caſtle: be thou alſo my guyde, and leade me for thy names ſake.

5 Drawe me out of the net that they haue laid priuily for me: for thou art my ſtrēgth.

6 Into thy handes I commend my ſpirite: for thou haſt redeemed me, O Lorde, thou God of trueth.

ℬ 7 I haue hated them that holde of ſuperſtitious vanities: and my truſt hath ben in the Lorde.

8 I wyl be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou haſt conſydered my trouble, and haſt knowen my ſoule in aduerſities.

9 Thou haſt not ſhut me vp into the hande of the enimie: but haſt ſet my feete in a large roome.

10 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and myne eye is conſumed for very heauyneſſe, yea, my ſoule and my body.

11 For my lyfe is waxen olde with heauyneſſe: and my yeeres with mournyng.

12 My ſtrength fayleth me, becauſe of mine iniquitie: and my bones are conſumed.

13 I became a reproofe among al myne enimies, but ſpecially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they that did ſee me without, conueighed them ſelues from me.

℄ 14 I am cleane forgotten as a dead man out of mynde: I am becomme lyke a broken veſſel.

15 For I haue heard the blaſphemie of the multitude: and feare is on euery ſide, while they conſpire together againſt me, and take theyr counſayle to take away my lyfe.

16 But my hope hath ben in thee, O Lord: I haue ſayde, thou art my God.

17 My tyme is in thy hande, deliuer me from the hande of myne enimies: and from them that perſecute me.

18 Shew thy ſeruant the lyght of thy countenance: and ſaue me for thy mercies ſake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lorde, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confuſion, and be put to ſilence in the graue.

20 Let the lying lyppes be put to ſilence: whiche cruelly, diſdaynfully, and deſpitefully ſpeake againſt the ryghteous.

ℑ 21 O how plentyful is thy goodneſſe which thou haſt layde vp for them that feare thee: and that thou haſt prepared for them that put theyr truſt in thee, euen before the ſonnes of menne.

22 Thou ſhalt hyde them priuily by thyne owne preſence, from the prouoking of al menne: thou ſhalt keepe them ſecretely in thy tabernacle, from the ſtryfe of tongues.

23 Thankes be to the Lord: for he hath ſhewed me marueylous great kyndeneſſe in a ſtrong citie.

24 And when I made haſte, I ſayde: I am caſt out of the ſight of thine eyes.

25 Neuertheleſſe, thou heardeſt the voyce of my prayer: when I cryed vnto thee.

26 O loue the Lorde al ye his ſaintes: for the lord preſerueth them that are faythful, and plenteouſly rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be ſtrong, and he ſhal ſtabliſh your hartes al ye that put your truſt in the Lorde.

2 Bleſſed is the man vnto whom the Lorde imputeth no ſynne: & in whoſe ſpirite there is no guyle.

3 For whyle I helde my tongue: my bones conſumed away, through my dayly complaynyng.

4 For thy hande is heauie vpon me day and night: and my moyſture is like the drought in ſommer.

5 I wyl knowledge my ſinne vnto thee: and myne vnryghteouſneſſe haue I not hyd.

6 I ſayde, I wyl confeſſe my ſinnes vnto the Lord: and ſo thou forgaueſt the wickedneſſe of my ſinne.

7 For this ſhal euery one that is godly, B make his prayer vnto thee, in a tyme when thou mayſt be founde: but in the great water ſluddes, they ſhal not come nygh hym.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou ſhalt preſerue me from trouble: thou ſhalt compaſſe me about with ſongues of delyuerance.

9 I wyl enfourme thee, and teache thee in the way wherin thou ſhalt goe: and I wyl guyde thee with myne eye.

10 Be ye not lyke to horſe and mule which haue no vnderſtandyng: whoſe mouthes muſte be holden with byt and bridle, leaſt they fal vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remayne for the vngodly: but who ſo putteth his truſt in the Lorde, mercy embraceth him on euery ſide.

4 For the worde of the Lorde is true: and all his worckes are faythfull.
5 He loueth righteousnesse and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lorde.
6 By the worde of the Lorde were the heauens made: and all the hoastes of them by the breath of his mouth.
B 7 He geathereth the waters of the sea togeather as it were vpon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treasure house.
8 Let all the earth feare the Lorde: stande in awe of him al ye that dwel in the world.
9 For he spake, and it was done: he commaunded, and it stoode fast.
10 The Lorde bringeth the counsaile of the heathen to nought: and maketh the deuises of the people to be of none effect, (and casteth out the counsayles of princes.)
11 The counsayle of the Lorde shall endure for euer: and the thoughtes of his heart from generation to generation.
12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lorde Iehoua: and blessed are the folke that haue chosen hym to be theyr inheritaunce.
13 The Lorde looked downe from heauen, and beholde al the children of men: from the habitation of his dwellyng, he consydereth al them that dwell in the earth.
C 14 He fashioneth all the heartes of them: and vnderstandeth al theyr worckes.
15 There is no kyng that can be saued by the multitude of an host: neyther is anye mightie man deliuered by muche strength.
16 An horse is counted but a vayne thyng to saue a man: neyther shall he deliuer any man by his great strength.
17 Beholde, the eye of the Lorde is vpon them that feare hym: and vpon them that put theyr trust in his mercy.
18 To deliuer theyr soules from death: and to feede them in the tyme of dearth.
19 Our soule hath patiently tarryed for the Lorde: for he is our helpe, and our shielde.
20 For our heart shal reioyce in hym: because we haue hoped in his holy name.
21 Let thy mercyful kyndnesse (O Lord) be vpon vs: lyke as we haue put our trust in thee.

Benedicam dominum. Psal.xxxiiii.

A 1 I Wyll alway geue thankes vnto the Lorde: his prayse shall euer be in my mouth.
2 My soule shall make her boast of the Lorde: the humble shal heare thereof, and be glad.
3 O prayse the Lorde with me: and let vs magnifie his name togeather.
4 I sought the lord, and he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my feare.
5 They had an eye vnto hym, and were lightened: and theyr faces were not ashamed.
6 Loe, the poore crieth, and the lord heareth him: yea, and saueth him out of all his troubles.
7 The angell of the lord tarieth rounde about them that feare him: and deliuereth them. B
8 O taste and see howe gratious the Lorde is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
9 O feare the Lorde ye that be his saintes: for they that feare him, lacke nothing.
10 The lions do lacke, and suffer hunger: but they that seeke the lord, shall want no manner of thing that is good.
11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me: I wil teache you the feare of the Lorde.
12 What man is he that lusteth to liue, and woulde faine see good dayes: kepe thy tong from euyll, and thy lippes that they speake no guile.
13 Eschewe euil, and do good: seeke peace, and ensue it.
14 The eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto theyr prayers. C
15 The countenaunce of the lord is against them that do euil: to roote out the remembraunce of them from the earth.
16 The righteous crie, and the lord heareth them: and deliuereth them out of al their troubles.
17 The Lorde is nigh vnto them that are of a contrite heart: and wyll saue suche as be of an humble spirite.
18 Greate are the troubles of the ryghteous: but the Lorde deliuereth hym out of all.
19 He kepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.
20 But misfortune shall slay the vngodly: and they that hate the righteous shalbe desolate.
21 The Lorde deliuereth the soules of his seruauntes: and al they that put their trust in him, shal not be destitute.

1 PLeade thou my cause, O Lord, with them that stryue with me: and fight thou agaynst them that fyght agaynst me. A Morny̆ng prayer.
2 Lay hande vpon the shielde and buckler: and stande vp to helpe me.
3 Bryng foorth the speare, and stop the way agaynst agaynst them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischeefe for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: and the angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the angel of the Lorde persecute them.

℣ 7 For they haue priuily layde their nette to destroy me without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pytte for my soule.

8 Let a sodayne destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his nette that he hath layd priuily, catche hym selfe: that he may fal into his owne mischeefe.

9 And my soule be ioyful in the Lord: it shal reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shal say, Lorde, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from hym that is to strong for hym: yea, the poore, and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth hym.

11 False wytnesse dyd ryse vp: they layde to my charge thynges that I knewe not.

12 They rewarded me euyl for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheless, when they were sycke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fastyng: and my prayer shall turne into myne owne bosome.

℣ 14 I behaued mee selfe as though it had ben my freende, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and geathered them togeather: yea, the very abiectes came togeather agaynst me vnawares, makyng mowes at me, and ceassed not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers: whiche gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde, howe long wylt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities whiche they bryng on me, and my darlyng from the Lions.

18 So wil I geue thee thankes in the great congregation: I wyl prayse thee among muche people.

19 O let not them that are myne enimies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them wincke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communyng is not for peace: but they imagine deceiptful wordes agaynst them that are quiet in the lande.

℣ 21 They gaped vpon me with their mouthes, and sayde: fye on thee, fye on thee, we sawe it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lorde: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre fro me, O Lorde.

23 Awake and stande vp to iudge my quarell: auenge thou my cause my God and my Lorde.

24 Iudge me, O Lord my God, according to thy ryghteousnesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their heartes, there, there, so woulde we haue it: neyther let them say, we haue deuoured hym.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame togeather that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast them selues agaynst me.

27 Let them be glad and reioyce that fauour my ryghteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruaunt.

28 And as for my tongue, it shalbe talkyng of thy ryghteousnesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi.

MY heart sheweth me the wyckednesse ℟ of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth hym selfe in his owne sight: vntyl his abominable sinne be found out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vnryghteous, and ful of deceipt: he hath left of to behaue hym selfe wysely, and to do good.

4 He imagineth mischeefe vpon his bedde: and hath set hym selfe in no good waye: neyther doth he abhorre any thyng that is euyll.

5 Thy mercy (O Lorde) reacheth vnto the heauen: and thy faythfulnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy ryghteousnesse standeth lyke the strong mountaines: thy iudgementes are lyke the great deepe.

7 Thou Lorde shalt saue both man and ℣ beast, how excellent is thy mercie, O God: and the children of men shal put their trust vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

8 They shalbe satisfied with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt geue them drynke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuer.

9 For with thee is the well of lyfe: and in thy light shal we see lyght.

10 O continue forth thy louyng kyndnesse vnto them that knowe thee: and thy righteousnesse vnto them that are true of hart.

11 O let not the foote of pryde come agaynst me: and let not the hande of the vngodly cast caſt me downe.

Euenyng prayer.

11 But the meeke ſpirited ſhal poſſeſſe the earth: and ſhalbe refreſhed in the multitude of peace.

13 The Lorde ſhal laugh him to ſcorne: for he hath ſeene that his day is comming.

C 14 The vngodly haue drawē out the ſword, and haue bended their bowe: to caſt downe the poore and needy, and to ſlay ſuche as be of a right converſation.

15 Their ſword ſhal go through their owne hart: and their bowe ſhal be broken.

16 A ſmal thyng that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly ſhalbe broken: and the Lorde vpholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lorde knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance ſhal endure for euer.

19 They ſhal not be confounded in the perilous tyme: and in the dayes of dearth they ſhal haue yenough.

20 As for the vngodly they ſhal periſhe, and the enimies of the Lord ſhal conſume as the fat of lambes: yea euen as the ſmoke ſhal they conſume away.

21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not agayne: but the ryghteous is merciful and liberal. D

22 Suche as be bleſſed of God, ſhal poſſeſſe the lande: and they that be curſed of him ſhalbe rooted out.

23 The Lorde ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to hym ſelfe.

24 Though he fal, he ſhal not be caſt away: for the Lord vpholdeth him with his hand.

25 I haue benne young, and nowe am olde: and yet ſawe I neuer the ryghteous forſaken, nor his ſeede begging their bread.

26 The righteous is euer merciful and lendeth: and his ſeede is bleſſed.

27 Flee from euyll, and doo the thing that is good: and dwel for euermore.

28 For the Lorde loueth the thyng that is ryght: he forſaketh not his that be godlye, but they are preſerued for euer. E

29 The ryghteous ſhalbe punished: as for the ſeede of the vngodlye, it ſhalbe rooted out.

30 The righteous ſhal inherite the lande: and dwell therein for euer.

31 The mouth of the ryghteous is exerciſed in wiſdome: and his tongue wyl be talking of iudgement.

32 The lawe of his God is in his hart: and his goinges ſhal not ſlyde.

33 The vngodly ſeeth the righteous: and ſeeketh occaſion to ſlea him.

34 The Lorde wyl not leaue hym in his hande: nor condemne hym when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the Lorde, and keepe his way, and he ſhal promote thee, that thou ſhalt poſſeſſe the lande: when the vngodly ſhal periſhe, thou ſhalt ſee it. F

36 I mee ſelfe haue ſeene the vngodlye in great power: and flouriſhyng lyke a greene bay tree.

37 And I went by, and loe he was gonne: I ſought hym, but his place couldc no where be founde.

38 Keepe innocencie, and take heede vnto the thyng that is ryght: for that ſhal bryng a man peace at the laſt.

39 As for the tranſgreſſours, they ſhal periſh togeather: and the ende of the vngodly is, they ſhalbe rooted out at the laſt.

40 But the ſaluation of the righteous commeth of the Lorde: whiche is also their strength in the tyme of trouble.

41 And the Lorde shal stande by them, and saue them: he shal deliuer them from the vngodly, and shal saue them, because they put their trust in hym.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. xxxviii.

A 1 PVT me not to rebuke (O Lorde) in thyne anger: neyther chasten me in thy heauy displeasure.

Mornyng prayer.

2 For thyne arrowes sticke fast in me: and thy hande presseth me sore.

3 There is no healthy in my flesshe, because of thy displeasure: neyther is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesses are gonne ouer my head: and are lyke a sore burden to heauy for me to beare.

5 My woundes stincke and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I goe mourning al the day long.

B 7 For my loynes are fylled with a sore disease: & there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my hart.

9 Lorde thou knowest al my desire: and my gronyng is not hid from thee.

10 My hart panteth, my strength hath fayled me: and the lyght of myne eyes is gonne from me.

11 My louers and my neighbours dyd stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stoode a farre of.

12 They also that sought after my lyfe, layd snares for me: and they that went about to doo me euyl, talked of wickednesse, & imagined deceit al the day long.

13 As for me, I was lyke a deafe man, and hearde not: and as one that is dumbe, whiche dooth not open his mouth.

C 14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproues.

15 For in thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answeare for me, O Lorde my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen myne enimies) shoulde not triumph ouer me: for when my foote slypt, they reioyced greatly agaynst me.

17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heauynesse is euer in my syght.

18 For I wyl confesse my wickednesse: and be sory for my sinne.

19 But mine enimies liue and are mightie: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that rewarde euyl for good, D are agaynst me: because I folow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lorde my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lorde God of my saluation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. xxxix.

1 I SAYDE, I wyl take heede to my wayes: A that I offende not in my tongue.

2 I wyl keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle) whyle the vngodly is in my syght.

3 I helde my tongue and spake nothyng: I keapt silence, yea euen from good woordes, but it was payne and greefe to me.

4 My hart was hot within me, and whyle I was thus musing, the fyre kyndled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lorde let me knowe myne ende, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certifyed howe long I haue to lyue.

6 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long, and myne age is euen as nothyng in respect of thee, and verily euery man liuing is altogeather vanitie.

7 For man walketh in a vayne shadow, and B disquieteth hym selfe in vayne: he heapeth vp ryches, and can not tel who shal gather them.

8 And nowe Lorde what is my hope: truely my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer me from al mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolishe.

10 I became dumbe and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauy hande.

12 When thou with rebukes doest chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beautie to consume away lyke as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therfore is but vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lorde, & with thyne C eares consyder my calling: holde not thy peace at my teares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as al my fathers were.

15 Oh spare me a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and be no more seene.

Expectans expectaui. Psal. xl.

1 I WAYTED patiently for the Lorde: and A he enclined vnto me, and hearde my callyng.

2 He brought me alſo out of the horrible pit, out of the myre and clay: and ſet my feete vpon the rocke, and ordered my goinges.
3 And he hath put a new ſong in my mouth: euen a thankeſgeuing vnto our God.
4 Many ſhal ſee it, and feare: and ſhal put their truſt in the Lorde.
5 Bleſſed is the man that hath ſet his hope in the Lorde: and turned not vnto the proude, and to ſuch as goe about with lies.
6 O Lorde my God, great are thy woonderous woorkes whiche thou haſt done: lyke as be alſo thy thoughtes whiche are to vs warde, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.
B 7 If I woulde declare them and ſpeake of them: they ſhoulde be moe then I am able to expreſſe.
8 Sacrifice and meate offering thou wouldeſt not haue: but mine eares thou haſt opened.
9 Burnt offeringes and ſacrifyces for ſynne haſt thou not required: then ſaide I, loe I come.
10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I ſhoulde fulfyll thy wyl, O my God: I am content to doo it, yea, thy lawe is within my hart.
11 I haue declared thy righteouſneſſe in the great congregation: loe, I wil not refraine my lippes, O lord, and that thou knoweſt.
12 I haue not hyd thy righteouſneſſe within my hart: my talkyng hath benne of thy trueth, and of thy ſaluation.
13 I haue keapt backe thy louyng mercy and trueth: from the great congregation.
C 14 Withdrawe not thou thy mercie from me, O Lorde: let thy louyng kindneſſe and thy trueth alway preſerue me.
15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my ſynnes haue taken ſuche holde vpon me, that I am not able to looke vp: yea they are moe in number then the heares of myne head, and my hart hath fayled me.
16 O Lord, let it be thy pleaſure to deliuer me: make haſte (O Lorde) to helpe me.
17 Let them be aſhamed and confounded together, that ſeeke after my ſoule to deſtroy it: let them be driuen backwarde, and put to rebuke that wiſhe me euil.
18 Let them be deſolate and rewarded with ſhame, that ſay vnto me: fye vpon thee, fye vpon thee.
19 Let all thoſe that ſeeke thee, be ioyful and glad in thee: and let ſuche as loue thy ſaluation, ſay alway, the Lorde be prayſed.
20 As for me I am poore and needy: but the Lorde careth for me.
21 Thou art my helper and redeemer: make no long tarying, O my God.

1 BLeſſed is he that conſydereth the poore (and needy:) the Lorde ſhall deliuer him in the time of trouble. A Euenyng prayer.
2 The Lorde preſerue him and keepe him aliue, that he may be bleſſed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the wyll of his enimies.
3 The Lorde comfort him when he lyeth ſycke vpon his bed: make thou all his bed in his ſickneſſe.
4 I ſaid, Lorde be mercyful vnto me: heale my ſoule, for I haue ſynned againſt thee.
5 Myne enimies ſpeake euyll of me: when ſhall he dye, and his name periſhe?
6 And yf he come to ſee me, he ſpeaketh vanitie: and his hart conceaueth falſehood within him ſelfe, and when he commeth foorth, he telleth it.
7 Al myne enimies whiſper togeather againſt me: euen againſt me doo they imagine this euill. B
8 Let the ſentence of giltineſſe proceede againſt hym: and now that he lyeth, let him ryſe vp no more.
9 Yea, euen myne owne familyer freende (whom I truſted:) whiche dyd alſo eate of my bread, hath layde great wayte for me.
10 But be thou mercyful vnto me, O Lorde: rayſe thou me vp againe, and I ſhall reward them.
11 By this I knowe thou fauoureſt me: that myne enimie dooth not triumphe againſt me.
12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdeſt me: and ſhalt ſet me before thy face for euer.
13 Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael: world without ende, Amen.

2 My ſoule is a thirſt for God, yea euen for the liuyng God: when ſhall I come to appeare before the preſence of God?
3 My teares haue benne my meate day and nyght: whyle they dayly ſay vnto me, where is nowe thy God?
4 Now when I thinke therupon, I powre out my hart by mee ſelfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the houſe of God.

8 My God, my ſoule is vexed within me: therefore wil I remember thee concerning the lande of Jordane, and the litle hill of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyſe of the water pipes: all thy waues and ſtormes are gonne ouer me.

10 The Lorde hath graunted his louyng kyndneſſe on the day time: & in the night ſeaſon did I ſing of him, & made my prayer vnto the God of my lyfe.

11 I wyl ſay vnto the God of my ſtrength, why haſt thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heauyly whyle the enimie oppreſſeth me?

12 My bones are ſmitten a ſunder, as with a ſwoorde: whyle myne enimies (that trouble me) caſt me in the teeth.

℟ 1 WE haue hearde with our eares, O GOD, our fathers haue tolde vs: what thou haſt done in their time of olde.

2 Howe thou haſt driuen out the heathen with thy hande, and planted them in: how thou haſt deſtroyed the nations, and caſt them out.

3 For they gate not the lande in poſſeſſion through their owne ſwoorde: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hande and thyne arme, and the light of thy countenaunce: becauſe thou haddeſt a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my kyng (O God:) ſend helpe vnto Jacob.

6 Through thee wyll we ouerthrowe our enimies: and in thy name wyll we treade them vnder that ryſe vp againſt vs.

7 For I wyl not truſt in my bowe: it is not ℣ my ſwoorde that ſhall helpe me.

8 But it is thou that ſaueſt vs from our enimie: and puttеſt them to confuſion that hate vs.

9 We make our boaſt of God all day long: and wyll prayſe thy name for euer.

10 But nowe thou art farre of, and puttеſt vs to confuſion: and goeſt not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makeſt vs to turne our backes vpon our enimies: ſo that they whiche hate vs, ſpoyle our goodes.

12 Thou letteſt vs be eaten vp like ſheepe: and haſt ſcattered vs among the heathen.

13 Thou ſelleſt thy people for nought: and takeſt no money for them.

14 Thou makeſt vs to be rebuked of our neyghbours: to be laughed to ſcorne, and had in deriſyon of them that are rounde a- ℭ bout vs.

15 Thou makeſt vs to be a bywoorde among the heathen: & that the people ſhake their heades at vs.

16 My confuſion is dayly before me: and the ſhame of my face hath couered me.

17 For the voyce of the ſlaunderer and blaſphemer: for the enimie and auenger.

4 Girde thee with thy ſwoorde vpon thy thygh, O thou moſt myghtie: accordyng to thy worſhip and renowme.
5 Good lucke haue thou with thyne honour: ride on, becauſe of the woorde of trueth, of meekeneſſe, and ryghteouſneſſe, & thy right hande ſhal teache thee terrible thynges.
6 Thyne arrowes are very ſharpe, and the people ſhalbe ſubdued vnto thee: euen in the middes among the kinges enimies.

1 THE Lorde, euen the most myghtie God, hath spoken: and called the worlde, from the rising vp of the sunne, vnto the goyng downe thereof. A Mornyng prayer.

8 I wyl not reproue thee, because of thy sacrifyces, or for thy burnt offeringes: because they were not alway before me.

9 I wyl take no bullocke out of thy house: nor bee Goates out of thy foldes.

10 For all the beastes of the Forrest are mine: and so are the cattels vppon a thousande hilles.

16 But vnto the vngodly sayd God, why doest thou preache my lawes: and takest my couenaunt in thy mouth?

3 For I knowledge my faultes: and my synne is euer before me.

4 Agaynst thee only haue I synned, and donne this euyll in thy syght: that thou mightest be iustifyed in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Beholde, I was shapen in wickednesse: & in sinne hath my mother conceyued me.

6 But loe, thou requirest trueth in the inwarde partes: and shalt make me to vnderstand wysedome secretely.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hysope, and I shalbe cleane: thou shalt washe me, and I shalbe whiter then snowe.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy & gladnesse: that the bones whiche thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my synnes: and put out al my misdeedes.

10 Make me a cleane hart (O God:) and renue a right spirite within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirite from me.

12 O geue me the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablishe me with thy free spirite.

13 Then shall I teache thy wayes vnto the wicked: and synners shalbe conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuer me from blood giltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shal syng of thy righteousnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lippes, O Lord: and my mouth shall shewe thy prayse.

16 For thou desyrest no sacrifyce, els would I geue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offeringes.

17 The sacrifyce of God is a troubled spirite: a broken and a contrite hart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18 O be fauourable and gratious vnto Sion: builde thou the walles of Hierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifyce of righteousnesse, with the burnt offeringes and oblations: then shall they offer young bullockes vpon thyne aulter.

on ſtyl in his wickedneſſe.
22 The Lord hath ſayde, I wyl bryng my people agayne, as I dyd from Baſan: mine owne wyl I bryng agayne, as I dyd ſometyme from the deepe of the ſea.
23 That thy foote maye be dypped in the blood of thine enimies: and that the tongue of thy dogges may be red through the ſame.
24 It is wel ſeene, O God, howe thou goeſt: howe thou my God and kyng goeſt in the ſanctuarie.
25 The ſyngers goe before, the minſtrelles folowe after: in the myddeſt are the damoſelles playing with the timbrelles.
26 Geue thankes, O Iſrael, vnto God the lord in the congregations: from the ground of the hart.
27 There is lyttle Beniamin their ruler, and the princes of Iuda their counſaile: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nepthali.
28 Thy God hath ſent forth ſtrength for E thee: ſtabliſhe the thyng, O God, that thou haſt wrought in vs.
29 For thy temples ſake at Hieruſalem: ſo ſhal kynges bryng preſentes vnto thee.
30 When the company of the ſpearemen, & multitude of the myghty, are ſcattered abroade among the beaſtes of the people (ſo that they humbly bryng peeces of ſiluer:)
and when he hath ſcattered the people that delight in warre.
31 Then ſhal the princes comme out of Egypt: the Morians lande ſhal ſoone ſtreatch out her handes vnto God.
32 Sing vnto God, O ye kyngdomes of the earth: O ſyng prayſes vnto the Lorde.
33 Whiche ſytteth in the heauens ouer all from the begynnyng: loe, he dooth ſend out his voyce, yea, and that a myghty voyce. F 34 Aſcribe ye the power to God ouer Iſrael: his worſhyp & ſtrength is in the cloudes.
35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holye places: euen the God of Iſrael, he wyl geue ſtrength and power vnto his people, bleſſed be God.

Saluum me fac Deus. Pſalm.lxix.

1 SAue me, O GOD: for the waters A are comme in, euen vnto my ſoule. Euenyng
I ſticke faſt in the depe mire, where prayer.
2 no grounde is: I am come into depe
waters,

waters, so that the fluddes ranne ouer me.
3 I am weery of my cryeing, my throte is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the heares of my head: they that are myne enimies, and would destroy me gyltlesse, are myghty.
5 I payde them the thynges that I neuer tooke: God, thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hyd from thee.
6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lorde God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee be confounded through me, O Lorde God of Israel.
B 7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.
8 I am becomme a straunger vnto my brethren: euen an aleant vnto my mothers chyldren.
9 For the zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.
10 I weapt, and chastened mee selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.
11 I put on a sackcloth also: and they iested vpon me.
12 They that sit in the gate, speake agaynst me: and the drunkardes make songues vpon me.
13 But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable tyme.
C 14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie, euen in the trueth of thy saluation.
15 Take me out of the myre, that I synke not: oh let me be delyuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.
16 Let not the water fludde drowne me, neyther let the deepe swallowe me vp: and let not the pyt shut her mouth vpon me.
17 Heare me, O Lorde, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, accordyng to the multitude of thy mercies.
18 And hyde not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.
19 Drawe nygh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enimies.
20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: myne aduersaries are al in thy sight.
21 Thy rebuke hath broken my hart, I am
D ful of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.
22 They gaue me gal to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drynke.
23 Let their table be made a snare to take them selues withal: and let the thynges (that shoulde haue ben for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of fallyng.
24 Let their eyes be blynded, that they see not: & euer bowe thou downe their backes.
25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathful displeasure take holde of them.
26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwel in their tentes.
27 For they persecute hym whom thou hast smytten: and they talke how they may vexe them whom thou hast wounded.
28 Let them fal from one wickednesse to an E other: and not comme into thy ryghteousnesse.
29 Let them be wyped out of the booke of the lyuyng: and not be wrytten among the ryghteous.
30 As for me, when I am poore, and in heauynesse: thy healpe (O God) shal lyfte me vp.
31 I wyl prayse the name of God with a songue: and magnifie it with thankes geuyng.
32 This also shal please the Lorde: better then a Bullocke that hath hornes and hooues.
33 The humble shal consyder this, and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shal lyue.
34 For the Lord heareth the poore: and dis- F piseth not his prisoners.
35 Let heauen and earth prayse hym: the sea and al that moueth therein.
34 For God wyl saue Sion, and buylde the cities of Iuda: that menne may dwel there, and haue it in possession.
37 The posteritie also of his seruantes shal inherite it: and they that loue his name, shal dwel therein.

Deus in adiutorium. Psalm. lxx.

1 HAste thee, O God, to delyuer me: A make haste to helpe me, O Lorde.
2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that wishe me euyl.
3 Let them (for their rewarde) be soone brought to shame: that crye ouer me, there, there.
4 But let al those that seeke thee, be ioyful and glad in thee: and let al suche as delight in thy saluation, say alway, the Lorde be praysed.
5 As for me, I am poore, and in miserie: haste thee vnto me (O God.)

6 Thou

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lorde, make no long tarying.

In te domine. Pſal.lxxi.

A 1 IN thee, O Lord, haue I put my truſt, let me neuer be put to confuſion: but ryd me, and deliuer me in thy righteouſneſſe, encline thine eare vnto me, and ſaue me.

Morning prayer.

2 Be thou my ſtrong holde (whereunto I may alway reſort:) thou haſt promyſed to helpe me, for thou art my houſe of defence, and my caſtle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hande of the vngodly: out of the hande of the vnrighteous and cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I ben holden vp euer ſence I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my prayſe ſhal alway be of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monſter vnto many: but my ſure truſt is in thee.

B 7 O let my mouth be filled with thy prayſe: (that I may ſing of thy glory) and honour al the day long.

8 Caſt me not away in the time of age: forſake me not when my ſtrength fayleth me.

9 For myne enimies ſpeake againſt me, and they that lay wayte for my ſoule, take their counſayle togeather, ſaying: God hath forſaken hym, perſecute hym, and take hym, for there is none to deliuer hym.

10 Goe not farre fro me, O God: my God, haſte thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and peryſhe that are againſt my ſoule: let them be couered with ſhame and diſhonour that ſeeke to do me euyl.

12 As for me, I wil patiently abide alway: and wyl prayſe thee more and more.

13 My mouth ſhal dayly ſpeake of thy righteouſneſſe and ſaluation: for I knowe no ende thereof.

C 14 I wyll goe forth in the ſtrength of the Lorde God: and wyl make mention of thy righteouſneſſe only.

15 Thou, O God, haſt taught me from my youth vp vntil nowe: therefore wil I tel of thy wonderous workes.

16 Forſake me not, O God, in my olde age, when I am gray headed: vntyll I haue ſhewed thy ſtrength vnto this generation, and thy power to al them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteouſneſſe, O God, is very high: and great thinges are they that thou haſt done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduerſities haſt thou ſhewed me, and yet diddeſt thou turne and refreſhe me: yea, and broughteſt me from the deepe of the earth agayne.

19 Thou haſt brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery ſyde.

20 Therefore will I prayſe thee and thy faythfulneſſe (O God) playing vpon an inſtrument of muſicke: vnto thee wyll I ſyng vpon the harpe, O thou holy one of Iſrael.

21 My lippes wil be faine when I ſyng vnto thee: and ſo will my ſoule whom thou haſt deliuered.

22 My tongue alſo ſhal talke of thy righteouſneſſe al the day long: for they are confounded & brought vnto ſhame, that ſeeke to do me euyl.

Deus iuditium. Pſal.lxxii.

3 The mountaynes alſo ſhal bring peace: & the litle hilles righteouſnes vnto ỹ people.

4 He ſhal keepe the ſimple folke by theyr right: defende the children of the poore, and puniſhe the wrong doer.

5 They ſhal feare thee as long as the ſunne and moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He ſhal come downe like the rayne into a fleece of wooll: euen as the droppes that water the earth.

7 In his time ſhall the righteous floryſhe: B yea and abundance of peace ſo long as the moone endureth.

8 His dominion alſo ſhalbe from the one ſea to the other: and from the flud vnto the worldes ende.

9 They that dwel in the wylderneſſe ſhall kneele before him: his enimies ſhal lycke the duſt.

10 The kinges of Tharſis, and of the Iles, ſhal gene preſentes: the kynges of Arabia, and Saba, ſhal bring gifftes.

11 Al kinges ſhal fal downe before hym: al nations ſhal do him ſeruice.

12 For he ſhal deliuer the poore when he cryeth: the needy alſo, and hym that hath no helper.

13 He ſhalbe fauourable to the ſymple and needy: and ſhal preſerue the ſoules of the poore.

14 He ſhal deliuer theyr ſoules from falſe- C hood & wrong: and deare ſhal theyr blood be 15 He ſhall lyue, and vnto him ſhalbe geuen of the golde of Arabia: prayer ſhalbe made euer vnto him, & dayly ſhall he be prayſed.

16 There ſhalbe an heape of corne in the earth high vpon the hilles: his fruite ſhal ſhake lyke Libanus, and ſhalbe greene in the citie, lyke graſſe vpon the earth.

17 His name ſhal endure for euer, his name ſhal remayne vnder the ſonne among the poſterities: whiche ſhalbe bleſſed through hym, and al the heathen ſhal prayſe hym.

18 Bleſſed be the Lorde God, euen the God of Iſrael: whiche only doth wonderous thinges.

19 And bleſſed be the name of his maieſtie for euer: and al the earth ſhalbe filled with his maieſtie. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Iſrael. Pſal. lxxiii.

A 1 Euenyng prayer. TRuely God is louing vnto Iſrael: euen vnto ſuche as are of a cleane hart.

2 Neuertheleſſe, my feete were almoſt gone: my treadings had welnigh ſlypt.

3 And why? I was greeued at the wicked: I do alſo ſee the vngodly in ſuch proſperitie.

4 For they are in no peryl of death: but are luſtie and ſtrong.

5 They come in no miſfortune lyke other folke: neyther are they plagued lyke other men.

6 And this is the cauſe that they be ſo holden with pryde: and ouerwhelmed with

B crueltie.

7 Theyr eyes ſwell with fatneſſe: and they do euen what they luſt.

8 They corrupt other, and ſpeake of wicked blaſphemie: theyr talkyng is againſt the moſt hyghest.

9 For they ſtretche fourth theyr mouth vnto the heauen: and theyr tongue goeth thorowe the worlde.

10 Therfore fall the people vnto them: and thereout lucke they no ſmall aduauntage.

11 Tuſhe (ſay they) howe ſhoulde God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the moſte higheſt?

12 Loe, theſe are the vngodly, theſe proſper in the world, and theſe haue richeſſe in poſſeſſion: and I ſayde, then haue I cleanſed my hart in vayne, and waſhed my handes in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I ben puniſhed: and chaſtened euery morneyng.

C 14 Yea and I had almoſt ſaid euen as they: but loe, then ſhould I haue condemned the generation of thy childzen.

15 Then thought I to vnderſtande thys: but it was to harde for me.

16 Untyll I went into the ſanctuarie of God: then vnderſtoode I the ende of theſe men.

17 Namely how thou doeſt ſet them in ſlypperie places: and caſteſt them downe, and deſtroyeſt them.

18 Oh howe ſodaynly do they conſume: periſhe, and come to a fearefull ende.

19 Yea, euen lyke as a dreame when one awaketh: ſo ſhalt thou make theyr image to vaniſhe out of the citie.

20 Thus my hart was greeued: and it went euen through my reynes.

21 So fooliſhe was I and ignorant: euen D as it were a beaſt before thee.

22 Neuertheleſſe, I am alway by thee: for thou haſt holden me by my right hande.

23 Thou ſhalt guide me with thy counſell: and after that receiue me with glory.

24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vpon earth that I deſyre in comparyſon of thee.

25 My fleſhe and my hart fayleth: but God is the ſtrength of my hart, and my portion for euer.

26 For loe, they that forſake thee, ſhall periſhe: thou haſt deſtroyed all them that commit fornication againſt thee.

27 But it is good for me to holde me faſt by God, to put my truſt in the Lord God: and to ſpeake of al thy workes (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid deus. Pſal. lxxiiii.

1 O God, wherefore art thou abſent from A vs ſo long: why is thy wrath ſo hot againſt the ſheepe of thy paſture?

2 O thynke vpon thy congregation: whom thou haſt purchaſed and redeemed of olde.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thyne inheritaunce: and mount Sion, wherin thou haſt dwelt.

4 Lyft vp thy feete, that thou mayeſt vtterly deſtroy euery enimie: whiche hath done euyl in thy ſanctuarie.

5 Thyne aduerſaries roare in the myddes of thy congregations: and ſet vp theyr banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed tymber afore out of the thicke trees: was knowen to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But nowe they breake downe al the car- B ued worke therof: with axes & hammers.

8 They haue ſet fyre vpon thy holy places: and haue defiled the dwelling place of thy name, euen vnto the grounde.

9 Yea, they ſayde in theyr hearte, let vs make make hauocke of them altogeather: thus haue they burnt vp al the houses of God in the lande.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophete more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, how long shal the aduersarie do this dishonour: howe long shal the enimie blaspheme thy name for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hande: why pluckest not thou thy right hande out of thy bosome to consume the enimie?

13 For God is my king of old: the helpe that is donne vpon earth, he dooth it him selfe.

C 14 Thou diddest diuide the sea thorow thy power: thou brakest the heades of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heades of Leuiathan in peeces: and gauest him to be meate for the people in the wyldernesse.

16 Thou broughtest out fountaynes and waters out of the hard rockes: thou dryedst vp mightie waters.

17 The day is thyne, and the night is thyne: thou hast prepared the light and the sunne.

18 Thou hast set al the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

19 Remember this, O Lorde, how the enimie hath rebuked: and howe the foolishe people haue blasphemed thy name.

20 O deliuer not the soule of thy Turtle doue vnto the multitude of the enimies: and forgeat not the congregation of the poore for euer.

D 21 Looke vpon the couenant: for al the earth is ful of darknesse, and cruel habitations.

22 Oh let not the simple go away ashamed: but let the poore and needy geue prayse vnto thy name.

23 Arise, O God, mainteyne thyne owne cause: remember howe the foolishe man blaspheme thee dayly.

24 Forgeat not the voyce of thyne enimies: the presumption of them that hate thee, encreaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal lxxv.

A 1 Morning prayer. VNTO thee (O God) doo we geue thankes: yea vnto thee do we geue thankes.

2 Thy name also is so nygh: and that doo thy wonderous woorkes declare.

3 When I receiue the congregation: I shal iudge according vnto right.

4 The earth is weake, and al the inhabiters thereof: I beare vp the pyllers of it.

5 I sayd vnto the fooles, deale not so madly: and to the vngodly, set not vp your horne.

6 Set not vp your horne on hygh: & speake not with a stiffe necke.

7 For promotion commeth neyther from B the East nor from the Weast: nor yet from the South.

8 And why? God is the iudge: he putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.

9 For in the hande of the Lorde there is a cuppe, and the wine is red: it is ful mixt, and he powreth out of the same.

10 As for the dregges therof: al the vngodly of the earth shal drinke them, and sucke them out.

11 But I wyl talke of the God of Jacob: and prayse him for euer.

12 Al the hornes of the vngodly also wyl I breake: and the hornes of the righteous shalbe exalted.

Notus in Iudea. Psal.lxxvi.

1 IN Jurie is GOD knowen: his name is A great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrowes of the bowe: the sheelde, the swoorde, and the battayle.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hylles of the robbers.

5 The proude are robbed, they haue sleape their sleepe: and al the men (whose handes were mightie) haue founde nothyng.

6 At thy rebuke (O God of Jacob:) both the charet and horse is fallen.

7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and B who may stande in thy syght when thou art angry?

8 Thou diddest cause thy iudgement to be heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was styl.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe al the meeke vpon earth.

10 The fiercenesse of man shal turne to thy prayse: & the fiercenesse of them shalt thou refrayne.

11 Promise vnto the Lorde your God, and kepe it, al ye that be roūd about him: bring presentes vnto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shal refrayne the spirite of princes: and is wonderful among the kinges of the earth.

Voce mea ad dominum. Psal.lxxvii.

1 I Wil cry vnto God with my voyce: euen A vnto God wil I cry with my voyce, and he shal hearken vnto me.

2 In the tyme of trouble I sought the Lorde my sore ranne and ceassed not, in the nyght season my soule refused comfort.

3 When I am in heauyneſſe I wyl thynke vpon God: when my hart is vexed, I wyll complayne.
4 Thou holdeſt myne eyes wakyng: I am ſo feeble that I can not ſpeake.
5 I haue conſydered the dayes of olde: and the yeeres that are paſt.
6 I call to remembrance my ſong: and in the nyght I cõmune with mine owne hart, and ſearche out my ſpirites.
B 7 Wyl the Lorde abſent hym ſelfe for euer: and wyl he be no more entreated?
8 Is his mercie cleane gonne for euer: and is his promiſe comme vtterly to an ende for euermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gratious: and wyl he ſhut vp his louyng kyndneſſe in diſpleaſure?
10 And I ſayd, it is mine owne infirmitie: but I wil remember the yeeres of the right hande of the moſt hyghest.
11 I wyl remember the workes of the Lord: & cal to mynde thy woonders of olde tyme.
12 I wyl thinke alſo of al thy workes: and my talkyng ſhalbe of thy dooyng.
13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is ſo great a God, as our God?
C 14 Thou art the God that dooth wonders: and haſt declared thy power among peeple.
15 Thou haſt mightily delinered thy people: euen the ſonnes of Jacob, and Joſeph.
16 The waters ſawe thee, O God, the waters ſawe thee, and were afrayde: the deapthes alſo were troubled.
17 The cloudes powred out water, the ayre thundred: & thyne arrowes went abroade.
18 The voyce of thy thunder was heard rounde about: the lyghtnynges ſhone vpon the ground, the earth was moued, and ſhoke withal.
19 Thy way is in the ſea, and thy pathes in the great waters: and thy foote ſteppes are not knowen.
20 Thou leddeſt thy people lyke ſheepe: by the hande of Moſes and Aaron.

Attendite populc. Pſal. lxxviii.

A 1 Euenyng prayer. HEare my lawe, O my people: enclyne your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.
2 I wil open my mouth in a parable: I wil declare harde ſentences of olde.
3 Whiche we haue heard and knowen: and ſuche as our fathers haue tolde vs.
4 That we ſhoulde not hyde them from the chyldren of the generations to comme: but to ſhewe the honour of the Lorde, his mighty and woonderful workes that he hath donne.
5 He made a couenant with Jacob, & gaue Iſrael a lawe: which he commaunded our forefathers to teache their chyldren.
6 That their poſteritie myght know it: and the chyldren whiche were yet vnborne.
7 To thentent that when they came vp: B they myght ſhewe their chyldren the ſame.
8 That they myght put their truſt in God: and not to forgeat the workes of God, but to keepe his commaundementes.
9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faythleſſe and ſtubburne generation: a generation that ſet not their hart aryght, and whoſe ſpirite cleaueth not ſtedfaſtly vnto God.
10 Like as the chyldren of Ephraim: which being harneſſed and carying bowes, turned them ſelues backe in the day of battayle.
11 They keapt not the couenant of god: and woulde not walke in his lawe.
12 But forgate what he had donne: and the woonderful worke that he had ſhewed for them.
13 Marueylous thynges dyd he in the ſight of our forefathers in the lande of Egypt: euen in the feelde of Zoan.
14 He diuided the ſea, & let them go through: C he made the waters to ſtande on a heape.
15 In the day tyme alſo he led them with a cloude: and al the nyght thorowe with a lyght of fyre.
16 He claue the harde rockes in the wylderneſſe: and gaue them drynke thereof, as it had benne out of the great deapth.
17 He brought waters out of the ſtony rocke: ſo that it guſhed out lyke the ryuers.
18 Yet for al this, they ſinned more agaynſt hym: and prouoked the moſt hyghest in the wylderneſſe.
19 They tempted God in their hartes: and required meate for their luſt.
20 They ſpake agaynſt God alſo, ſayeing: ſhal god prepare a table in the wylderneſſe?
21 He ſmote the ſtony rocke in deede that the water guſhed out, and the ſtreames flowed withal: but can he geue bread alſo, or prouide fleaſhe for his people? D
22 When the lord heard this, he was wroth: ſo the fyre was kindled in Jacob, and there came vp heauy diſpleaſure agaynſt Iſrael.
23 Becauſe they beleeued not in God: and put not their truſt in his helpe.
24 So he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.
25 He rayned downe Manna alſo vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.
26 So man dyd eate angels foode: for he ſent them meate yenough.

27 He

27 He caused the East winde to blowe vnder heauen: and through his power he brought in the Southweast winde.
28 He rayned fleashe vpon them as thicke as E dust: and feathered fowles like as the sand of the sea.
29 He let it fall among their tentes: euen rounde about their habitation.
30 So they did eate & were wel fylled: for he gaue them their owne desyre, they were not disapoynted of their lust.
31 But whyle the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauy wrath of god came vpon them, and slue the welthyest of them: yea and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel.
32 But for all this, they sinned yet more: and beleeued not his woonderous woorkes.
33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanitie: and their yeeres in trouble.
34 When he slue them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquired after god.
35 And they remembred that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redeemer.
36 Neuertheless, they dyd but flatter hym with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.
F 37 For their hart was not whole with hym: neither continued they stedfast in his couenaunt.
38 But he was so mercyful: that he forgaue their misdeedes, and destroyed them not.
39 Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and wouldo not suffer his whole displeasure to aryse.
40 For he consydered that they were but fleashe: and that they were euen a winde that passeth away, & commeth not agayne.
41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wylderneese: and greeued him in the desart.
42 They turned backe and tempted God: and moued the holy one in Israel.
43 They thought not of his hande: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hande of the enimie.
44 Howe he had wrought his myracles in Egypt: and his woonders in the feelde of Zoan.
45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the riuers.
G 46 He sent lyce among them, and deuoured them vp: and frogges to destroy them.
47 He gaue their fruites vnto the Caterpiller: and their labour vnto the Grassehopper.
48 He destroyed their vines with haylestones: and their Mulbery trees with the froste.
49 He smote their catayle also with haylestones: and their flockes with hot thunder boltes.
50 He cast vpon them the furiousnesse of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: and sent euill angels among them.
51 He made away to his indignation, and spared not their soule from death: but gaue their lyfe ouer to the pestilence.
52 And smote al the fyrst borne in Egypt: the most principal and mightyest in the dwellynges of Ham.
53 But as for his owne people, he led them forth like sheepe: and caryed them in the wylderneese lyke a flocke.
54 He brought them out safely, that they shoulde not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enimies with the sea.
55 And brought them within the borders of his sanctuarie: euen to his mountayne whiche he purchased with his right hande.
56 He cast out the heathen also before them: caused their lande to be diuided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwel in their tentes.
57 So they tempted and displeased the most hygh God: and keapt not his testimonies.
58 But turned their backes, and fell away lyke their forefathers: starting asyde lyke a broken bowe.
59 For they greeued him with their hill aulters: and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.
60 When God hearde this, he was wroth: and tooke soare displeasure at Israel.
61 So that he forsooke the tabernacle in Silo: euen the tent that he hadde pitched among them.
62 He deliuered their power into captiuitie: & their beautie into the enimies hand, 63 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the swoorde: and was wroth with his inheritance.
64 The fyre consumed their young men: & their maidens were not geuen to mariage.
65 Their priestes were slaine with ỹ swoord: and there were no wydowes to make lamentation.
66 So the lord awaked as one out of sleepe: and lyke a Giaunt refreashed with wine.
67 He smote his enimies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.
68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
69 But chose the tribe of Juda: euen the hil of Sion whiche he loued.
70 And there he buylded his temple on high: and laid the fundation of it, like the ground whiche he hath made continually.
71 He chose Dauid also his seruaunt: and tooke him away from the sheepe folde.

72 As he was folowing the Ewes great with young ones, he tooke him: that he might feede Jacob his people, and Iſrael his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithful and true hart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

A 1 O God, the heathen are comme into thyne inheritaunce: thy holye temple haue they defyled, and made Hieruſalem an heape of stones.

Mornyng prayer.

2 The dead bodyes of thy seruauntes haue they geuen to be meate vnto fowles of the ayre: and the fleash of thy saintes vnto the beastes of the lande.

3 Their blood haue they shed like water on euery syde of Hieruſalem: and there was no man to bury them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enimies: a very scorne and derision vnto them that are rounde about vs.

5 Lorde how long wylt thou be angry: shal thy gelousie burne lyke fyre for euer.

6 Powre out thine indignation vppon the heathen that haue not knowen thee: and vpon the kingdomes that haue not called vpon thy name.

9 Helpe vs, O God, of our saluation, for the glory of thy name: O deliuer vs, & be merciful vnto our sinnes for thy names sake.

10 Wherefore doo the heathen say: where is nowe their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy seruants blood that is shedde: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our syght.

12 O let the sorowfull syghing of the prisoners come before thee: accordyng to the greatnesse of thy power preserue thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lorde, seuen folde into their bosome.

A Mornyng prayer.
1 BOwe downe thyne eare, O Lorde, and heare me: for I am poore and in miserie.
2 Preserue thou my soule, for I am holy: my God saue thy seruant that putteth his trust in thee.
3 Be mercyful vnto me, O Lorde: for I wyl cal dayly vpon thee.
4 Comfort the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lorde) doo I lyft vp my soule.
5 For thou Lorde art good and gratious: and of great mercy vnto al them that cal vpon thee.
6 Geue eare Lord vnto my prayer: and ponder the voyce of myne humble desyres.
7 In the time of my trouble I wil cal vpon thee: for thou hearest me. B
8 Among the goddes there is none lyke vnto thee (O Lorde:) there is not one that can doo as thou doest.
9 Al nations whom thou hast made, shal comme and worship thee, O Lorde: and shal glorifie thy name.
10 For thou art great, and doest wonderous thynges: thou art God alone.
11 Teache me thy way (O Lord) and I wil walke in thy trueth: O knit my hart vnto thee, that I may feare thy name.
12 I wyl thanke thee, O Lorde my GOD, with al my hart: and wyl prayse thy name for euermore.
13 For great is thy mercy towarde me: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the nethermost hel.
14 O God, the proude are ryssen agaynst me: C and the congregations of naughtie menne haue sought after my soule, and haue not set thee before their eyes.
15 But thou (O Lorde God) art ful of compassion and mercy: long sufferyng, plenteous in goodnesse and trueth.
16 O turne thee then vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: geue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and helpe the sonne of thyne handmayde.
17 Shewe somme good token vpon me for good, that they whiche hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou Lorde hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. lxxxvii.

2 Very

2 Very excellent thinges are spoken of thee: thou citie of God.
3 I wyl thinke vpon Rahab and Babylon: with them that knowe me.
4 Behold ye the Philistines also: and they of Tyre, with the Morians, loe, there was he borne.
5 And of Sion it shal be reported that he was borne in her: and the most high shall stablishe her.
6 The Lorde shal rehearse it when he wryteth vp the people: that he was borne there.
B 7 The syngers also and trumpetters shall he rehearse: al my freshe springes shalbe in thee.

Domine deus. psalm. lxxxviii.

A 1 O Lorde God of my saluation, I haue cryed day and nyght before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thyne eare vnto my callyng.
2 For my soule is full of trouble: and my lyfe draweth nygh vnto hel.
3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe vnto the pit: and I haue ben euen as a man that hath no strength.
4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that be wounded and lye in the graue: whiche be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hande.
5 Thou hast layde me in the lowest pit: in a place of darknesse, and in the deepe.
6 Thyne indignation lyeth hard vpon me: & thou hast vexed me with al thy stormes.
B 7 Thou hast put away myne acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.
8 I am so fast in prison: that I can not geat forth.
9 My syght fayleth for very trouble: Lorde I haue called dayly vppon thee, I haue stretched out my handes vnto thee.
10 Doest thou shewe woonders among the dead: or shall the dead ryse vp agayne and prayse thee.
11 Shall thy louyng kyndnesse be shewed in the graue: or thy faythfulnesse in destruction?
12 Shal thy woonderous workes be knowen in the darke: and thy righteousnesse in the lande where all thinges are forgotten?
13 Unto thee haue I cryed, O Lorde: and early shal my prayer come before thee.
14 Lorde, why abhorrest thou my soule: and hydest thou thy face from me?
C 15 I am in miserie, and lyke vnto him that is at the poynt to dye: (euen from my youth vp) thy terrours haue I suffered with a troubled minde.
16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me: & the feare of thee hath vndone me.
17 They came rounde about me dayly lyke water: and compassed me togeather on euery syde.
18 My louers and freendes hast thou put away from me: and hyd myne acquaintance out of my syght.

Misericordias domini. psalm. lxxxix.

A 1 My song shalbe alway of the louyng kyndnesse of the Lorde: with my mouth wyl I euer be shewing thy trueth, from one generation to another. Euenyng prayer.
2 For I haue sayde, mercie shalbe set vp for euer: thy trueth shalt thou stablishe in the heauens.
3 I haue made a couenaunt with my chosen: I haue sworne vnto Dauid my seruaunt.
4 Thy seede wyl I stablishe for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.
5 O Lorde, the very heauens shal prayse thy woonderous woorkes: and thy trueth in the congregation of the saintes.
6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shalbe compared vnto the Lorde?
7 And what is he among the goddes: that shalbe like vnto the Lorde?
8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsayle of the saintes: and to be had in reuerence of all them that are about hym.
B 9 O Lorde God of hoastes, who is like vnto thee: thy trueth (most mighty Lorde) is on euery syde.
10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they aryse.
11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thyne enimies abroade with thy mighty arme.
12 The heauens are thyne, and the earth is thyne: thou hast laide the fundation of the rounde worlde, and al that therein is.
13 Thou hast made the North & the South: Tabor & Hermon shal reioyce in thy name.
14 Thou hast a mighty arme: strong is thy hande, and hygh is thy ryght hande.
15 Righteousnesse and equitie is the habitation of thy seate: mercy and trueth shal goe before thy face.
C 16 Blessed is the people (O Lorde) that can reioyce in thee: they shal walke in the light of thy countenance.
17 Their delight shalbe dayly in thy name: and in thy ryghteousnesse shal they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their ſtrength: and in thy louyng kindneſſe thou ſhalt lyft vp our horne.

19 For the Lorde is our defence: the holye one of Iſrael is our king.

20 Thou ſpakeſt ſometime in viſions vnto thy ſaintes, and ſaideſt: I haue laide helpe vpon one that is mighty, I haue exalted one choſen out of the people.

21 I haue founde Dauid my ſeruant: with my holy oyle haue I annoynted him.

22 My hande ſhal holde him faſt: and my arme ſhal ſtrengthen him.

23 The enimie ſhall not be able to doo him violence: the ſonne of wickednes ſhal not hurt him.

D 24 I ſhal ſmite downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My trueth alſo & my mercy ſhalbe with him: and in my name ſhal his horne be exalted.

26 I wyll ſet his dominion alſo in the ſea: and his right hande in the fluddes.

27 He ſhal call me, thou art my father: my God, and my ſtrong ſaluation.

28 And I wyll make hym my firſt borne: higher then the kynges of the earth.

29 My mercy wyl I keepe for him for euermore: and my couenant ſhall ſtande faſt with him.

30 His ſeede alſo wyll I make to endure for euer: & his throne as the dayes of heauen.

31 But yf his children forſake my lawe: and walke not in my iudgementes.

32 If they breake my ſtatutes, and keepe not

E my commaundementes: I wyl viſite their offences with the rod, and their ſinne with ſcourges.

33 Neuertheleſſe, my louyng kindneſſe wyll I not vtterly take from him: nor ſuffer my trueth to fayle.

34 My couenant wyl I not breake, nor aulter the thing that is gonne out of my lippes: I haue ſworne once by my holyneſſe that I wyl not fayle Dauid.

35 His ſeede ſhall endure for euer: and his ſeate is like as the ſunne before me.

36 He ſhall ſtande faſt for euermore as the moone: & as the faithful witneſſe in heauē.

37 But thou haſt abhorred & forſaken thyne annoynted: and art diſpleaſed at him.

38 Thou haſt broken the couenant of thy ſeruant: and caſt his crowne to the grounde.

39 Thou haſt ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his ſtrong holdes.

40 All they that goe by, ſpoyle hym: and he

F is become a rebuke to his neighbours.

41 Thou haſt ſet vp ỹ right hand of his enimies: & made al his aduerſaries to reioyce.

42 Thou haſt taken away the edge of his ſwoorde: and geueſt him not victory in the batayle.

43 Thou haſt put out his glory: and caſt his throne downe to the grounde.

44 The dayes of his youth haſt thou ſhortned: and couered him with diſhonour.

45 Lorde, howe long wylt thou hyde thee ſelfe for euer: and ſhall thy wrath burne lyke fyre?

46 Oh remember howe ſhort my time is: wherefore haſt thou made all menne for nought?

47 What man is he that liueth, and ſhal not ſee death: and ſhall he deliuer his owne ſoule from the hande of hel?

48 Lorde where are thy olde louing kyndneſſes: whiche thou ſwareſt vnto Dauid in thy trueth?

49 Remember (Lorde) the rebuke that thy ſeruantes haue: and howe I doo beare in G my boſome the rebukes of many people.

50 Wherewith thine enimies haue blaſphemed thee, and ſlaundered the footeſteppes of thyne annoynted: prayſed be the Lorde for euermore, Amen, Amen.

5 ℣ Lorde, howe glorious are thy woorkes: and thy thoughtes are very deepe.

6 An vnwyſe man dooth not wel conſyder this: and a foole dooth not vnderſtande it.

℣ 7 When the vngodly are greene as ỳ graſſe, and when al the woorkes of wickednelſe do floriſh: then ſhal they be deſtroyed for euer, but thou Lord art the moſt higheſt for euermore.

8 For loe, thyne enimies (℣ Lord) loe thine enimies ſhal periſh: and al the woorkers of wickednelſe ſhalbe deſtroyed.

9 But my horne ſhalbe exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne: for I am annoynted with freſhe oyle.

10 Myne eye alſo ſhal ſee his luſt of myne enimies: and mine eare ſhal heare his deſire of the wicked that ryſe vp againſt me.

11 The ryghteous ſhal floriſh like a Palme tree: and ſhal ſpreade abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Suche as be planted in the houſe of the Lorde: ſhal floriſhe in the courtes (of the houſe) of our God.

13 They ſhal alſo bryng foorth more fruite in their age: and ſhalbe fat and wel lyking.

℟ 1 THe Lorde is kyng, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lorde hath put on his apparel, and gyrded hym ſelfe with ſtrength. Euenyng prayer.

3 Euer ſince the worlde began hath thy ſeate ben prepared: thou art from euerlaſting.

6 Thy teſtimonies, O Lorde, are very ſure: holyneſſe becommeth thyne houſe for euer.

Deus vltionum. Pſalm.xciiii.

A 1 O Lord God to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, ſhewe thee ſelfe.
2 Aryſe thou iudge of the worlde: and rewarde the proude after their deſeruing.
3 Lorde, howe long ſhal the vngodly: howe long ſhal the vngodly tryumph?
4 Howe long ſhal al wicked doers ſpeake ſo diſdaynefully: and make ſuche proude boaſtyng?
5 They ſmyte downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thyne heritage.
6 They murder the wydowe and the ſtranger: and put the fatherleſſe to death.
B 7 And yet they ſay, tuſhe, the Lord ſhal not ſee: neyther ſhal the God of Jacob regarde it.
8 Take heede ye vnwyſe among the people: O ye fooles, when wyl ye vnderſtand?
9 He that planted the eare, ſhal he not heare: or he that made the eye, ſhal he not ſee?
10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, ſhal he not pouniſhe?
11 The Lorde knoweth the thoughtes of man: that they are but vayne.
12 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chaſteneſt (O Lorde:) and teacheſt hym in thy lawe.
13 That thou mayeſt geue him patience in tyme of aduerſitie: vntyl the pyt be dygged

14 For the Lorde wyl not fayle his people: neither wyl he forſake his inheritance.
15 Untyl ryghteouſneſſe turne agayne vnto iudgement: al ſuche as be true in hart ſhal folowe it.
16 Who wyl ryſe vp with me agaynſt the wicked: or who wyl take my parte agaynſt the euyl doers.
17 If the Lorde had not helped me: it had not fayled but my ſoule had benne put to ſcilence.
18 But when I ſayde, my foote hath ſlypped: thy mercy (O Lorde) helde me vp.
19 In the multitude of the ſorowes that I had in my hart: thy comfortes haue refreſhed my ſoule.
20 Wylt thou haue any thyng to doo with the ſtoole of wickednеſſe: which imagineth miſcheefe as a lawe?
21 They geather them togeather agaynſt D the ſoule of the ryghteous: and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the ſtrength of my confidence.
23 He ſhal recompence them their wickedneſſe: and deſtroy them in their owne malice: yea, the Lorde our God ſhal deſtroy them.

1 O Come, let vs ſing vnto the Lord: let vs A hartily reioyce in the ſtrength of our ſaluation.
2 Let vs comme before his preſence with thankeſgeuyng: and ſhewe our ſelues glad B in him with pſalmes.
3 For the Lorde is a great God: and a great kyng aboue al goddes.
4 In his hande are al the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hylles is his alſo.
5 The ſea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the drye lande.
6 O come, let vs worſhyp and fal downe: and kneele before the Lord our maker.
7 For he is (the Lorde) our God: and we B are the people of his paſture, and the ſheepe of his handes.
8 To day yf ye wyl heare his voyce, harden not your hartes: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernеſſe.
9 When your fathers tempted me: prooued me, and ſawe my workes.
10 Fourtie yeres long was I greeued with this generation, and ſayde: it is a people that doo erre in their hartes, for they haue not knowen my wayes.

1 O Syng vnto the Lorde a newe ſongue: A ſing vnto the Lord al the whole earth.
2 Syng vnto the Lord, and prayſe his name: be tellyng of his ſaluation from day to day.
3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his woonders vnto al people.
4 For the Lord is great, and can not worthyly be prayſed: he is more to be feared then al goddes.
5 As for the goddes of the heathen, they be but idolles: but it is the Lorde that made the heauens.

13 For he commeth, for he commeth to iudge the earth: and with righteouſneſſe to iudge the worlde, and the people with his trueth.

Dominus regnauit. Pſal.xcvii.

A 1 THe Lorde is king, the earth may be glad therof: yea the multitude of the Iles may be glad therof.

2 O let me haue vnderstandyng: in the way of godlynesse.

3 When wylt thou come vnto me? I wyl walke in my house with a perfect hart.

4 I wil take no wicked thing in hande, I hate the sinnes of vnfaythfulnesse: there shal no suche cleaue vnto me.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cii.

A 1 HEare my prayer, O Lorde: and let my crying come vnto thee.

Mornyng prayer. 2 Hyde not thy face from me in the tyme of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I cal, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away lyke smoke: and my bones are brent vp as it were a fyrebrande.

4 My hart is smitten downe, and withered lyke grasse: so that I forgeat to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my gronyng: my bones wyl scarse cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pellican in the wyldernes: & like an owle that is in the desart.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were B a sparow: that sytteth alone vpon the house toppe.

8 Mine enimies reuile me al the day long: and they that are mad vpon me, are sworne togeather agaynst me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and myngled my drynke with weepyng.

10 And that because of thyne indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadowe: and I am withered lyke grasse.

12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout al generations.

13 Thou shalt aryse and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercie vpon her, yea the time is come.

14 And why? thy seruauntes thynke vpon C her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shal feare thy name, O Lorde: and all the kynges of the earth thy maiestie.

16 When the Lord shal build vp Sion: and when his glory shal appeare.

17 When he turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: and despiseth not their desyre.

18 This shalbe written for those that come after: and the people whiche shalbe borne, shal prayse the Lorde.

19 For he hath loked downe from his sanctuary: out of the heauen dyd the Lorde beholde the earth.

20 That he might heare the mournynges of suche as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the chyldren appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the D lord in Sion: & his worship at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are geathered togeather: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lorde.

23 He brought downe my strength in my iourney: and shortened my dayes.

24 But I sayd, O my God, take me not away in the middes of mine age: as for thy yeeres

25 Thou Lorde in the begynnyng haſt layd the fundation of the earth: and the heauens are the woorke of thy handes.
26 They ſhal perish, but thou ſhalt endure: they al ſhal waxe olde as dooth a garment.

4 Whiche ſaueth thy life from deſtruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and louing kindneſſe.
5 Whiche ſatisfieth thy mouth with good thynges: makyng thee young and luſtie as an Eagle.
6 The Lorde executeth ryghteouſneſſe and iudgement: for al them that are oppreſſed with wrong.
B 7 He ſhewed his wayes vnto Moſes: his woorkes vnto the chyldren of Iſrael.
8 The Lorde is ful of compaſſion and mercy: long ſufferyng, and of great goodnes.
9 He wyl not alway be chydyng: neyther keepeth he his anger for euer.
10 He hath not dealt with vs after our ſinnes: nor rewarded vs accordyng to our wickedneſſe.
11 For looke howe hygh the heauen is in compariſon of the earth: ſo great is his mercy alſo towarde them that feare hym.
12 Looke howe wyde alſo the Eaſt is from the Weaſt: ſo farre hath he ſet our ſynnes from vs.
13 Yea, lyke as a father pitieth his owne children: euen ſo is the Lorde mercyful vnto them that feare hym.
B 14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembreth that we are but duſt.
15 The dayes of man are but as graſſe: for he flouriſheth as a flowre of the feelde.
16 For as ſoone as the wynde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof ſhal knowe it no more.

3 Which layeth the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the cloudes his Chariot, and walketh vpon the wynges of the wynde.
4 He maketh his angelles ſpirites: and his miniſters a flamyng fyre.
5 He layde the fundations of the earth: that it ſhoulde neuer moue at any tyme.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afrayde. B
8 They goe vp as hygh as the hylles, and downe to the valleyes beneathe: euen vnto the place whiche thou haſt appoynted for them.
9 Thou haſt ſet them theyr boundes which they ſhal not paſſe: neyther turne agayne to couer the earth.

13 He watereth the hylles from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy woorkes.
14 He bryngeth foorth graſſe for the cattel: and greene hearbe for the ſeruice of menne. C
15 That he may bring foode out of ỹ earth, & wyne that maketh glad the hart of man: and oyle to make him a cheareful countenance, and bread to ſtrength mans hart.
16 The trees of the Lorde alſo are ful of ſappe: euen the Cedars of Libanus, which he 17 Wherin the byrdes make their nestes: & the fyre trees are a dwelling for ỹ Storke.

18 The high hyls are a refuge for the wilde Goates: and so are the stony rockes for the Conyes.
19 He appointed the moone for certaine seasons: & the sunne knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makest darknesse, that it may be nyght: wherein al the beastes of the forrest doo moone.
D 21 The Lions roaryng after their pray: doo seeke their meate at God.
22 The sunne aryseth, and they gat them away togeather: and laye them downe in their dennes.
23 Man goeth forth vnto his worke, and to his labour: vntyl the euenyng.
24 O Lorde, howe manyfolde are thy workes: in wysedome hast thou made them al, the earth is ful of thy riches.
25 So is the great and wyde sea also: wherin are thynges creepyng innumerable, both smal and great beastes.
26 There goe the shippes, and there is that Leuiathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastyme therein.
27 These wayte al vpon thee: that thou mayest geue them meate in due season.
E 28 When thou geuest it them, they geather it: and when thou openest thyne hand, they are filled with good.
29 When thou hydest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they dye, and are turned agayne to their dust.
30 When thou lettest thy breath goe forth, they shalbe made: and thou shalt renue the face of the earth.
31 The glorious Maiestie of the Lorde shal endure for euer: the Lorde shal reioyce in his workes.
32 The earth shal tremble at the looke of hym: yf he doo but touche the hylles, they shal smoke.
33 I wyl sing vnto the Lorde as long as I lyue: I wyl prayse my God whyle I haue my beyng.
F 34 And so shal my woordes please hym: my ioy shalbe in the Lorde.
35 As for sinners, they shalbe consumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shal come to an ende: prayse thou the Lord, O my soule, prayse the Lorde.

Confitemini Domino. Psalm. Cv.

A 1 O Geue thankes vnto the Lord, and cal vpon his name: tel the people what thynges he hath donne.
Mornyng prayer.
2 O let your songes be of hym, & prayse hym: and let your talking be of al his woonderous woorkes.
3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the hart of them reioyce that seeke the Lorde.
4 Seeke the Lorde and his strength: seeke his face euermore.
5 Remember the marueylous woorkes that he hath done: his woonders, and the iudgementes of his mouth.
6 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant: ye children of Jacob his chosen.
7 He is the Lord our God: his iudgementes B are in al the worlde.
8 He hath ben alway myndeful of his couenant and promise: that he made to a thousande generations.
9 Euen the couenant that he made with Abraham: and the othe that he sware vnto Isahac.
10 And appoynted the same vnto Jacob for a lawe: and to Israel for an euerlastyng testament.
11 Sayeing, vnto thee wyl I geue the land of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.
12 When there was yet but a fewe of them: and they strangers in the lande.
13 What tyme as they went from one nation to another: from one kyngdome to another people.
14 He suffered no man to doo them wrong: C but reprooued euen kinges for their sakes.
15 Touche not myne annoynted: and doo my prophetes no harme.
16 Moreouer, he called for a dearth vpõ the lande: & destroyed al the prouision of bread.
17 But he had sent a man before them: euen Joseph whiche was solde to be a bond seruant.
18 Whose feete they hurt in the stockes: the iron entred into his soule.
19 Untyl the tyme came that his cause was knowen: the worde of the Lord tryed him.
20 The kyng sent and deliuered him: the prince of the people let hym goe free.
21 He made him lord also of his house: and D ruler of al his substance.
22 That he might informe his princes after his wil: & teach his senatours wisdome.
23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the lande of Ham.
24 And he encreased his people exceedingly: & made them stronger then their inimies.
25 Whose hart turned, so that they hated his people: and dealt vntruely with his seruantes.
26 Then sent he Moses his seruant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.
27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and woonders in the lande of Ham.
28 He sent darknesse, and it was darke: and they were not obedient vnto his woorde.

29 He turned theyr waters into blood: and ſlue their fiſhe.
30 Their land brought foorth frogges: yea euen in their kinges chambers.
31 He ſpake the woorde, and there came all maner of flyes: & lice in al their quarters.
32 He gaue them hayleſtones for rayne: and flambes of fyre in theyr lande.
33 He ſmote their vines alſo, and figge trees: and deſtroyed the trees that were in theyr coaſtes.
34 He ſpake the word, and the graſhoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eate vp al the graſſe in their lande, and deuoured the fruite of their grounde.
E 35 He ſmote al the firſt borne in their lande: euen the cheefe of al their ſtrength.
36 He brought them foorth alſo with ſyluer and golde: there was not one feeble perſon among their tribes.
37 Egypt was glad at theyr departing: for they were afraide of them.
38 He ſpread out a cloude to be a couering: and fyre to geue light in the night ſeaſon.
38 At their deſyre he brought Quayles, and he fylled them with the bread of heauen.
40 He opened the rocke of ſtone, and the waters flowed out: ſo that ryuers ran in the dry places.
41 For why? he remembred his holy promiſe: and Abraham his ſeruaunt.
42 And he brought foorth his people with ioy: and his choſen with gladneſſe.
43 And gaue them the landes of the heathen: and they tooke the labours of the people in poſſeſſion.
44 That they might kepe his ſtatutes: and obſerue his lawes.

A 1 Euenyng prayer. O Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is gratious: and his mercy endureth for euer.
2 Who can expreſſe ỹ noble actes of the Lorde: or ſhewe foorth al his prayſe?
3 Bleſſed are they that alway kepe iudgement: and do righteouſneſſe.
4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the fauour that thou beareſt vnto thy people: O viſite me with thy ſaluation.
5 That I may ſee the felicitie of thy choſen: and reioyce in the gladneſſe of thy people, and geue thankes with thyne inheritance.
6 We haue ſinned with our fathers: we haue done amiſſe and dealt wickedly.
B 7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodneſſe in remembrance: but were diſobedient at the ſea, euen at the red ſea.
8 Neuertheleſſe, he helped them for his names ſake: that he might make his power to be knowen.
9 He rebuked the red ſea alſo, and it was dryed vp: ſo he led them through the deepe, as through a wildernеſſe.
10 And he ſaued them from the aduerſaries hande: and deliuered them from the hande of the enimie.
11 As for thoſe that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.
12 Then beleeued they his wordes: and ſang prayſe vnto him.
13 But within a while, they forgat his workes: & woulde not abide his counſaile.
14 But luſt came vpon them in the wilderneſſe: and they tempted God in the deſart. C
15 And he gaue them their deſyre: and ſent leanneſſe withal into their ſoule.
16 They angred Moſes alſo in the tentes: and Aaron the ſaint of the Lorde.
17 So the earth opened and ſwalowed vp Dathan, and couered the congregation of Abiram.
18 And the fyre was kindled in theyr company: the flame burnt vp the vngodly.
19 They made a Calfe in Horeb: and worſhipped the moulten image.
20 Thus they turned theyr glory: into the ſimilitude of a Calfe that eateth hay.
21 And they forgat God theyr ſauiour: whiche had done ſo great thinges in Egypt. D
22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham: and fearefull thynges by the red ſea.
23 So he ſayde he woulde haue deſtroyed them, had not Moſes his choſen ſtande before him in the gappe: to turne away his wrathful indignation, leſt he ſhould deſtroy them.
24 Yea they thought ſcorne of that pleaſant land: and gaue no credence vnto his word.
25 But murmured in theyr tentes: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.
26 Then lift he vp his hande againſt them: to ouerthrowe them in the wilderneſſe.
27 To caſt out their ſeede among the nations: and to ſcatter them in the landes.
28 They ioyned them ſelues vnto Baal Peor: and ate the offeringes of the dead. E
29 Thus they prouoked him vnto anger with their owne inuentions: & the plague was great among them.
30 Then ſtoode vp Phinees, and prayed: and ſo the plague ceaſſed.
31 And that was counted vnto him for righteouſnes: amõg al poſteritties for euermore.

32 They

32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his spirite: so that he spake vnaduisedly with his lippes.

34 Neyther destroyed they the heathen: as the Lorde commaunded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their workes.

36 Insomuche that they worshipped theyr idols, whiche turned to theyr owne decay: yea they offred theyr sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.

37 And shed innocent blood, euen the blood of theyr sonnes and of theyr daughters: whom they offered vnto the idols of Chanaan, & the lande was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoryng with theyr owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lorde kyndled against his people: insomuch that he abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And he gaue them ouer into the hande of the heathen: and they that hated them, were lordes ouer them.

41 Theyr enimies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.

42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled against him with theyr owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuertheles, when he sawe their aduersitie: he hearde theyr complaint.

44 He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them according vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made al those that had led them away captiue to pitie them.

45 Deliuer vs (O Lorde our God) and gather vs from among the heathen, that we may geue thankes vnto thy holy name, and make our boast of thy prayse.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from euerlastyng, and worlde without ende: and let al the people say, Amen.

Confitemini domino. Psal. Cvii.

A 1 O Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

Mornyng prayer.

2 Let them geue thankes whom the Lorde hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hande of the enimie.

3 And gathered them out of the landes, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.

4 They went astray in the wildernesse out of the way: and founde no citie to dwel in.

5 Hungry and thirstie: theyr soule fainted in them.

6 So they cryed vnto the Lorde in theyr trouble: and he deliuered them from theyr distresse.

7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to ỹ citie where they dwelt. B

8 O that men would therefore prayse the Lorde for his goodnesse, & declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the emptie soule: and filleth the hungry soule with goodnesse.

10 Such as sit in darknesse & in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery & iron.

11 Because they rebelled against the wordes of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsayle of the most high.

12 He also brought downe their hart through heauinesse: they fel downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.

13 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

14 For he brought them out of darkenesse, C and out of the shadowe of death: and brake their bondes in sunder.

15 O that men would therefore prayse the Lord for his goodnesse: & declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse: and smitten the barres of iron in sunder.

17 Foolishe men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse.

18 Theyr soule abhorred al maner of meate: and they were euen hard at deathes doore.

19 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in theyr trouble: he deliuered them out of theyr distresse.

20 He sent his worde and healed them: and they were saued from theyr destruction.

21 O that men would therefore prayse the D Lord for his goodnesse: & declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thankesgeuyng: and tel out his workes with gladnesse.

23 They that go downe to the sea in shippes: and occupy theyr businesse in great waters.

24 These men see the workes of the Lorde: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For at his worde the stormie winde ariseth: whiche lifteth vp the waues thereof.

26 They are caried vp to the heauen, and downe againe to the deepe: theyr soule melteth away, because of the trouble.

27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits ende.

28 So when they crye vnto the Lorde in E theyr trouble: he deliuereth them out of their distresse.

29 For he maketh the storme to ceasse: so that that the waues thereof are styl.

30 Then are they glad, because they be at rest: and so he bryngeth them vnto the hauen where they woulde be.

31 O that menne would therfore prayse the Lorde for his goodnesse: and declare the woonders that he dooth for the chyldren of menne.

32 That they woulde exalt hym also in the congregation of the people: and prayse him in the seate of the elders.

33 Whiche turneth the floodes into a wyldernesse: and dryeth vp the water springes.

34 A fruitful land maketh he barrayne: for the wyckednesse of them that dwel therein.

F 35 Agayne, he maketh the wildernesse a standing water: and water springes of a drye grounde.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may buylde them a citie to dwel in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyardes: to yeelde them fruites of increase.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

39 And againe, when they are minished and brought lowe: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though he suffer them to be euyl entreated through tyrantes: and let them wander out of the way in the wyldernesse.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of miserie: and maketh him housholdes lyke a flocke of sheepe.

G 42 The ryghteous wyl consyder this, and reioyce: and the mouth of al wickednesse shalbe stopped.

43 Who so is wyse wil ponder these things: and they shal understande the louing kyndnesse of the Lorde.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. cviii.

A 1 Euenyng prayer. O God, my hart is redy (my hart is redy:) I wyl sing and geue prayse with the best membre that I haue.

2 Awake thou Lute and Harpe: I mee selfe wyl awake right early.

3 I wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, among the people: I wyl sing prayses vnto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is greater then the heauēs: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloudes.

5 Set vp thee selfe (O God) aboue the heauens: and thy glory aboue al the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: let thy right hande saue them, and heare thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holynesse: I wyll B reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and meat out the valley of Sucoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is myne: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Juda is my law geuer, Moab is my washpot: ouer Edom wyl I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistines wyl I triumph.

10 Who wyl leade me into the strong citie: and who wyl bryng me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken vs, O GOD: and wylt not thou GOD goe forth with our hostes?

12 O helpe vs agaynst the enimie: for vayne is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shal do great actes: & it is he that shal treade downe our enimies.

Deus laudem. Psal. cix.

1 HOlde not thy tongue, O God of my A prayse: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea and the mouth of the deceiptful is opened vpon me.

2 And they haue spoken agaynst me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with woordes of hatred, and fought agaynst me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them, loe, they take nowe my contrarye part: but I geue mee selfe vnto prayer.

4 Thus haue they rewarded me euyl for good: and hatred for my good wyl.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him: and let Satan stande at his right hande.

6 When sentence is geuen vpon hym, let him be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be fewe: and let another B take his office.

8 Let his chyldren be fatherlesse: and his wyfe a wydowe.

9 Let his chyldrē be vagabounds, and beg their bread: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume al that he hath: and let the strangers spoyle his labour.

11 Let there be no man to pitie him: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse chyldren.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the syght of the Lorde: and let not the sinne of his mother be donne away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lorde:

that he may roote out the memorial of them from of the earth.

15 And that because his minde was not to doo good: but persecuted the poore helpelesse man, that he might slea hym that was vexed at the hart.

16 His delyte was in cursing, and it shal happen vnto him: he loued not blessing, therefore shal it be farre from him.

17 He clothed hym selfe with cursing, lyke as with a rayment: and it shal comme into his bowels lyke water, and lyke oyle into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloke that he hath vpon hym: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lorde vnto myne enimies: and to those that speake euil agaynst my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lorde God) according vnto thy name: for swete is thy mercy.

D 21 O deliuer me, for I am helpelesse and poore: and my hart is wounded within me.

22 I goe hence like the shadow that departeth: I am dryuē away as the grassehopper.

23 My knees are weake through fastyng: my flesshe is dryed vp for want of fatnesse.

24 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heades.

25 Helpe me: (O Lord my God:) oh saue me according to thy mercy.

26 And they shal knowe howe that this is thy hand: and that thou Lord hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: and let them be confounded that rise vp against me, but let thy seruant reioyce.

E 28 Let myne aduersaries be clothed with shame: and let them couer them selues with their owne confusion, as with a cloke.

29 As for me, I wyl gene great thankes vnto the Lorde with my mouth: and prayse him among the multitude.

30 For he shal stande at the ryght hande of the poore: to saue his soule from vnryghteous iudges.

Dixit dominus. Psal. Cx.

Q Mornyng prayer.

1 THE Lorde sayd vnto my Lorde: sit thou on my ryght hande, vntyll I make thyne enimies thy foote stoole.

2 The Lord shal send the rod of thy power out of Sion: be thou ruler euen in the middes among thyne enimies.

3 In the day of thy power shal the people offer thee freewyl offerynges, with an holy worshyp: the deawe of thy byrth is of the wombe of the mornyng.

4 The Lorde sware, and wyl not repent: thou art a preest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

5 The Lorde vpon thy ryght hande: shal wound euen kinges in the day of his wrath. B

6 He shal be iudge among the Heathen, he shal fyl the places with the dead bodyes: & smite in sunder the heades ouer diuers countreys.

7 He shal drinke of the broke in the way: therfore shal he lyft vp his head.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxi.

1 I WYL gene thankes vnto the Lorde with A my whole hart: secretly amōg the faythful, and in the congregation.

2 The workes of the Lord are great: sought out of al them that haue pleasure therein.

3 His worke is worthy to be praysed, and had in honour: and his ryghteousnesse endureth for euer.

4 The mercyful and gratious Lorde hath so donne his marueylous workes: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath geuen meate vnto them that feare him: he shal euer be mindeful of his couenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his workes: that he may gene them the heritage of the Heathen.

7 The workes of his handes are veritie B and iudgement: al his commaundementes are true.

8 They stande fast for euer and euer: and are donne in trueth and equitie.

9 He sent redemption vnto his people: he hath commaunded his couenant for euer, holy and reuerent is his name.

10 The feare of the Lorde is the beginnyng of wisedome: a good vnderstandyng haue al they that doo thereafter, the prayse of it endureth for euer.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxii.

1 BLessed is the man that feareth the lorde: A he hath great delyght in his commaundementes.

2 His seede shalbe myghtie vpon earth: the generation of the faythful shalbe blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousnesse shalbe in his house: and his ryghteousnesse endureth for euer.

4 Vnto the godly there aryseth vp lyght in the darkenesse: he is mercyful, louyng, and ryghteous.

5 A good man is mercyful and lendeth: and wyl guyde his workes with discretion.

6 For he shal neuer be moued: and the righ-

7 He will not be afraide for any euill tydinges: for his hart ſtandeth faſt and beleeueth in the Lorde.

B 8 His hart is ſtabliſhed and will not ſhrinke: vntil he ſee his deſire vpon his enimies.

9 He hath diſpearſed abroade and geuen to the poore: and his righteouſneſſe remayneth for euer, his horne ſhalbe exalted with honour.

10 The vngodly ſhal ſee it, and it ſhal greeue him: he ſhal gnaſh with his teeth, and conſume away, the deſire of the vngodly ſhall periſhe.

2 Bleſſed be the name of the Lord: from this time forth for euermore.

3 The Lordes name is praiſed: from the ryſing vp of ỹ ſunne, vnto the going downe of the ſame.

4 The Lorde is high aboue al heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.

5 Who is like vnto the lorde our God, that hath his dwelling ſo high: and yet humbleth him ſelfe to beholde the thinges that are in heauen and earth?

6 He taketh vp the ſimple out of the duſt: and lifteth the poore out of the myre.

7 That he may ſet him with the princes: euen with the princes of his people.

B 8 He maketh the barren woman to keepe houſe: and to be a ioyfull mother of childzen.

A Euenyng prayer. 1 WHen Iſrael came out of Egypt: and the houſe of Jacob from among the ſtrange people.

2 Juda was his ſanctuarie: and Iſrael his dominion.

3 The ſea ſawe that, and fledde: Jordane was driuen backe.

4 The mountaines ſkipped like rammes: and the litle hilles like yoūg ſheepe.

5 What ayleth thee, O thou ſea, that thou fleddeſt: and thou Jordan, that thou waſt driuen backe?

6 Ye mountaynes that ye ſkipped lyke rams: and ye litle hilles like young ſheepe?

A 1 NOt vnto vs, O Lorde, not vnto vs, but vnto thy name geue the prayſe: for thy louing mercie, and for thy truethes ſake.

2 Wherefore ſhal the heathen ſay: where is nowe their God?

3 As for our God he is in heauen: he hath done what ſo euer pleaſed him.

4 Their idols are ſiluer and golde: euen the woorke of mens handes.

5 They haue mouthes and ſpeake not: eyes haue they, and ſee not.

6 They haue eares, and heare not: noſes haue they, and ſmel not.

7 They haue handes and handle not, feete haue they and walke not: neither ſpeake they through their throte.

8 They that make them, are like vnto them: & ſo are al ſuche as put their truſt in them.

B 9 But thou houſe of Iſrael truſt thou in the Lorde: he is their ſuccour and defence.

10 Ye houſe of Aaron put your truſt in the Lorde: he is their helper and defender.

11 Ye that feare the Lorde, put your truſt in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lorde hath ben mindfull of vs, and he ſhal bleſſe vs: euen he ſhal bleſſe the houſe of Iſrael, he ſhal bleſſe the houſe of Aaron.

13 He ſhal bleſſe them that feare the Lorde: both ſmal and great.

C 14 The Lorde ſhal encreaſe you more & more: you and your childzen.

15 Ye are the bleſſed of the Lorde: whiche made heauen and earth.

16 Al the whole heauens are the Lordes: the earth hath he geuen to the childzen of men.

17 The dead praiſe not thee, O Lorde: neyther al they that go downe into the ſilence.

18 But we wyl praiſe the Lorde: from this time forth for euermore. Praiſe the Lorde.

A Mornyng prayer. 1 I Am well pleaſed: that the Lorde hath heard the voyce of my prayer.

5 Gratious is the Lorde and ryghteous: yea our God is mercyful.

6 The Lorde preſerueth the ſimple: I was in miſerie, and he helped me.
7 Turne agayne then vnto thy reſt, O my ſoule: for the Lorde hath rewarded thee.
B 8 And why? thou haſt delinered my ſoule from death: myne eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.
9 I wyl walke before the Lord: in the land of the liuyng.
10 I beleeued, and therefore wyl I ſpeake, but I was ſoare troubled: I ſayde in my haſte all men are lyers.
11 What rewarde ſhal I gene vnto the lord: for al the benefytes that he hath done vnto me?
12 I wyl receiue the cuppe of ſalnation: and call vpon the name of the Lorde.
13 I wyl pay my vowes nowe in the preſence of all his people: ryght deare in the ſight of the Lorde, is the death of his ſaintes.
14 Beholde (O Lorde) howe that I am thy ſeruant: I am thy ſeruant and the ſonne of thine handmayde, thou haſt broken my bones in ſunder.
15 I wyll offer to thee ỹ ſacrifyce of thankeſgeuing: and wyll cal vpon the name of the Lorde.

Memor eſto verbi tui.

A 1 O Thynke vpon thy ſeruant as concerꝛnyng thy woorꝺe: wherein thou haſt cauſed me to put my truſt.

2 The ſame is my comfort in my trouble: for thy woorde hath quickened me.
3 The proude haue had me exceedyngly in deriſion: yet haue I not ſhrinked from thy lawe.
4 For I remembred thyne euerlaſtyng iudgementes, O Lorde: and receiued comfort.
B 5 I am horribly afrayde: for the vngodlye that forſake thy lawe.
6 Thy ſtatutes haue benne my ſongues: in the houſe of my pilgrimage.
7 I haue thought vpon thy name, O Lorde, in the night ſeaſon: and haue kept thy law.
8 This I had: becauſe I kept thy commaundementes.

Portio mea domine.

A 1 THou art my portion, O Lorde: I haue promiſed to keepe thy lawe.
2 I made my humble petition in thy preſence with my whole hart: O be mercyful vnto me, accordyng to thy woorde.
3 I called myne owne wayes to remembrance: and turned my feete vnto thy teſtimonies.
4 I made haſt, and prolonged not the time: to keepe thy commaundementes.
5 The congregation of the vngodlye haue robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy lawe.
B 6 At midnight I wyl ryſe to gene thankes vnto thee: becauſe of thy righteous iudgementes.
7 I am a companion of al them that feare thee: and keepe thy commaundementes.
8 The earth, O Lorde, is ful of thy mercy: O teache me thy ſtatutes.

Bonitatem feciſti.

A 1 O Lorde, thou haſt dealt graciouſly with thy ſeruant: accordyng vnto thy word.
2 O learne me true vnderſtandyng and knowledge: for I haue beleeued thy commaundementes.
3 Before I was troubled I went wrong: but nowe haue I kept thy woorde.
4 Thou art good and gratious: O teache me thy ſtatutes.
B 5 The proude haue imagined a lye againſt me: but I wyl keepe thy commaundementes with my whole hart.
6 Their hart is as fat as brawne: but my delyght hath benne in thy lawe.
7 It is good for me that I haue benne in trouble: that I may learne thy ſtatutes.
8 The law of thy mouth is dearer vnto me: then thouſandes of golde and ſiluer.

Manus tue fecerunt me.

A 1 THY handes haue made me, and faſhioned me: O geue me vnderſtanding, that I may learne thy commaundementes. Euenyng prayer.
2 They that feare thee, wyl be glad when they ſee me: becauſe I haue put my truſt in thy woorde.
3 I knowe (O Lorde) that thy iudgementes are right: and that thou of very faythfulneſſe haſt cauſed me to be troubled.
4 O let thy mercyful kyndneſſe be my comfort: accordyng to thy woorde vnto thy ſeruant.
5 O let thy louyng mercies come vnto me, that I may lyue: for thy law is my delight.
B 6 Let the proude be confounded, for they go wickedly about to deſtroy me: but I wyl be occupied in thy commaundementes.
7 Let ſuche as feare thee, and haue knowen thy teſtimonies: be turned vnto me.
8 O let my hart be ſounde in thy ſtatutes: that I be not aſhamed.

Defecit anima mea.

A 1 MY ſoule hath longed for thy ſaluatiõ: & I haue a good hope becauſe of thy woorde.
2 Myne eyes long ſore for thy woorde: ſayeing, O when wylt thou comfort me?
3 For I am become lyke a bottel in the ſmoke: yet doo I not forgeat thy ſtatutes.
4 Howe many are the dayes of thy ſeruant: when wylt thou be auenged of them that perſecute me?
5 The proude haue digged pittes for me: whiche are not after thy lawe.
B 6 Al thy commaundementes are true: they perſecute me falſely, O be thou my helpe.
7 They had almoſt made an end of me vpon earth: but I forſooke not thy commaundementes.
8 O quicken me after thy louing kindneſſe: and ſo ſhal I keepe the teſtimonies of thy mouth.

In æternum domine.

A 1 O Lorde thy woorde: endureth for euer in heauen.
2 Thy trueth alſo remayneth from one generatiõ to another: thou haſt layde the fundation of the earth, and it abydeth.
3 They cõtinue this day accordyng to thine ordinance: for al thinges ſerue thee.
4 If my delight had not benne in thy lawe: I ſhoulde haue periſhed in my trouble.
B 5 I wyl neuer forget thy cõmaundementes: for with them thou haſt quickened me.
6 I am thyne, oh ſaue me: for I haue ſought thy commaundementes.

7 The

7 The vngodly laide waite for me to deſtroy me: but I wyl conſyder thy teſtimonies.
8 I ſee that al thinges comme to an ende: but thy commaundement is exceeding breade.

Quomodo dilexi.

A 1 LOrde, what loue haue I vnto thy law: al the day long is my ſtudy in it.
2 Thou throughe thy commaundementes haſt made me wyſer then myne enimies: for they are euer with me.
3 I haue more vnderſtanding then my teachers: for thy teſtimonies are my ſtudie.
4 I am wyſer then the aged: becauſe I kepe thy commaundementes.
5 I haue refrained my feete from euery euil way: that I may keepe thy woorde.
6 I haue not ſhronke from thy iudgements: for thou teacheſt me.
B 7 O howe ſweete are thy woordes vnto my throate: yea, ſweeter then hony vnto my mouth.
8 Throughe thy commaundementes I geat vnderſtanding: therefore I hate al wicked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

A 1 THy woorde is a lanterne vnto my feete: and a light vnto my pathes.
Mornyng prayer. 2 I haue ſworne, and am ſtedfaſtly purpoſed: to keepe thy righteous iudgementes.
3 I am troubled aboue meaſure: quicken me (O Lorde) according vnto thy woorde.
4 Let the freewyl offeringes of my mouth pleaſe thee, O Lorde: and teache me thy iudgementes.
5 My ſoule is alway in my hande: yet doo I not forgeat thy lawe.
6 The vngodly haue laide a ſnare for me: but yet I ſwarued not from thy commaundementes.
7 Thy teſtimonies haue I claimed as mine heritage for euer: and why, they are the B very ioy of my hart.
8 I haue applied mine hart to fulfyll thy ſtatutes alway: euen vnto the ende.

Iniquos odio habui.

A 1 I Hate them that imagine euill thinges: but thy lawe doo I loue.
2 Thou art my defence and my ſheelde: and my truſt is in thy woorde.
3 Away from me ye wicked: I wyl keepe the commaundementes of my God.
4 O ſtablyſhe me according vnto thy word, that I may liue: and let me not be diſappointed of my hope.
5 Holde thou me vp, and I ſhalbe ſafe: yea my delight ſhalbe euer in thy ſtatutes.
6 Thou haſt troden downe al them that depart from thy ſtatutes: for they imagine but deceipt.
7 Thou puttеſt away al the vngodly of the B earth like droſſe: therefore I loue thy teſtimonies.
8 My fleaſhe trembleth for feare of thee: and I am afrayde of thy iudgementes.

Feci iudicium.

1 I Deale with the thing that is lawful and right: O geue me not ouer vnto mine oppreſſours. A 2 Make thou thy ſeruaunt to delite in that whiche is good: that the proude doo me no wrong.
3 Myne eyes are waſted away with looking for thy health: and for the woorde of thy righteouſneſſe.
4 O deale with thy ſeruant according vnto thy louyng mercie: and teache me thy ſtatutes.
5 I am thy ſeruaunt, O graunt me vnderſtanding: that I may knowe thy teſtimonies.
6 It is time for thee Lorde to lay to thyne hande: for they haue deſtroyed thy lawe.
7 For I loue thy commaundementes: aboue golde and precious ſtone. B
8 Therefore holde I ſtraight all thy commaundementes: and al falſe wayes I vterly abhorre.

Mirabilia.

1 THy teſtimonies are woonderful: therefore dooth my ſoule keepe them. A 2 When thy woorde goeth forth: it geueth light and vnderſtanding vnto the ſimple.
3 I opened my mouth & drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commaundementes.
4 O looke thou vpon me, and be mercyfull vnto me: as thou vſeſt to doo vnto thoſe that loue thy name.
5 Order my ſteppes in thy woorde: and ſo ſhal no wickedneſſe haue dominiõ ouer me.
6 O deliuer me from the wrongfull dealinges of menne: and ſo ſhall I keepe thy commaundementes.
7 Shewe the light of thy countenance vpon thy ſeruaunt: and teache me thy ſta- B tutes.
8 Myne eyes guſhe out with water: becauſe men keepe not thy lawe.

Iuſtus es domine.

1 RYghteous art thou, O Lord: and true A is thy iudgement.

2 The teſtimonies that thou haſt commaunded: are exceeding ryghteous and true.
3 My zeale hath euen conſumed me: becauſe myne enimies haue forgotten thy woordes.
4 Thy word is tryed to the vttermoſt: and thy ſeruaunt loueth it.
5 I am ſmal and of no reputation: yet doo not I forgeat thy commaundementes.
6 Thy ryghteouſneſſe is an euerlaſting righteouſneſſe: and thy lawe is the trueth.
ℨ 7 Trouble and heauineſſe hath taken holde vppon me: yet is my delight in thy commaundementes.
8 The righteouſneſſe of thy teſtimonies is euerlaſting: O graunt me vnderſtandyng, and I ſhal liue.

Clamaui in toto corde meo.

א 1 I Call with my whole hart: heare me, O Lorde, I wil keepe thy ſtatutes.
Euenyng prayer. 2 Yea, euen vpon thee doo I call: helpe me, and I ſhal keepe thy teſtimonies.
3 Early in the morning doo I crye vnto thee: for in thy woorde is my truſt.
4 Myne eyes preuent the night watches: that I myght be occupied in thy woordes.
5 Heare my voyce, (O Lorde) according vnto thy louing kindneſſe: quicken me according as thou art woont.
6 They drawe nigh that of malice perſecute me: and are farre from thy lawe.
7 Be thou nigh at hande, O Lorde: for all thy commaundementes are true.
ℨ 8 As concerning thy teſtimonies, I haue knowen long ſence: that thou haſt grounded them for euer.

Vide humilitatem.

א 1 O Conſyder mine aduerſitie, and deliuer me: for I doo not forgeat thy lawe.
2 Auenge thou my cauſe, and deliuer me: quicken me according vnto thy word.
3 Health is farre from the vngodly: for they regarde not thy ſtatutes.
4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art woont.
5 Many there are that trouble me, and perſecute me: yet doo I not ſwarue from thy teſtimonies.
6 It greeueth me when I ſee the tranſgreſſours: becauſe they keepe not thy lawe.
ℨ 7 Conſyder, O lord, howe I loue thy commaundementes: O quicken me according to thy louing kindneſſe.
8 Thy woorde is true from euerlaſtyng: al the iudgementes of thy righteouſneſſe endure for euermore.

Principes perſecuti ſunt.

1 PRinces haue perſecuted me without a cauſe: but my hart ſtandeth in awe of thy woordes.
2 I am as glad of thy woorde: as one that fyndeth great ſpoyles.
3 As for lies I hate and abhorre them: but thy lawe doo I loue.
4 Seuen times a day doo I prayſe thee: becauſe of thy righteous iudgementes.
5 Great is the peace that they haue whiche loue thy lawe: and they are not offended at it.
6 Lord I haue looked for thy ſauing health: and donne after thy commaundementes.
7 My ſoule hath kept thy teſtimonies: and ℨ loued them exceedingly.
8 I haue kept thy commaundementes and teſtimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

1 LEt my complaint come before thee, O א Lorde: geue me vnderſtanding according to thy woorde.
2 O let my ſupplication come before thee: deliuer me according to thy woorde.
3 My lippes ſhal ſpeake of thy prayſe: when thou haſt taught me thy ſtatutes.
4 Yea, my tongue ſhall ſing of thy woorde: for al thy cõmaundementes are righteous.
5 Let thyne hand helpe me: for I haue choſen thy commaundementes.
6 I haue longed for thy ſauing health, O Lorde: and in thy lawe is my delight.
7 Oh let my ſoule liue, and it ſhall prayſe thee: and thy iudgementes ſhal helpe me. ℨ
8 I haue gonne aſtray like a ſheepe that is loſt: oh ſeeke thy ſeruant, for I doo not forgeat thy commaundementes.

Ad dominum. Pſalm. cxx.

1 WHen I was in trouble, I א
2 called vpon the Lorde: and Mornyng prayer. he heard me.
Deliuer my ſoule, O lord, from lying lippes: & from a deceiptful tongue.
3 What reward ſhalbe geuen or done vnto thee thou falſe tongue: euen mighty and ſharpe arrowes, with whot burning coles.
4 Wo is me, that I am conſtrained to dwel with Meſech: and to haue mine habitation among the tentes of Cedar.
5 My ſoule hath long dwelt among them: that be enimies vnto peace.
6 I labour for peace: but when I ſpeake vnto them thereof, they make them redy to batayle.

Leuaui oculos. Pſalm.Cxxi.

A 1 I Wyl lyft vp myne eyes vnto the hylles: from whence commeth my helpe.
2 My helpe cõmeth euen from the Lord: whiche hath made heauen and earth.
3 He wyl not ſuffer thy foote to be moued: and he that keepeth thee wyl not ſleepe.
4 Beholde, he that keepeth Iſrael: ſhal neither ſlumber nor ſleepe.
5 The Lord him ſelf is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence vpon thy ryght hande.
6 So that the ſunne ſhal not burne thee by day: neither the moone by night.
B 7 The Lord ſhal preſerue thee from al euyl: yea, it is euen he that ſhal keepe thy ſoule.
8 The Lorde ſhal preſerue thy goeyng out, and thy commyng in: from this time foorth for euermore.

Letatus ſum. Pſalm.Cxxii.

A 1 I Was glad when they ſayd vnto me: we wyl goe into the houſe of the Lorde.
2 Our feete ſhal ſtande in thy gates: O Hieruſalem.
3 Hieruſalem is buylded as a citie: that is at vnitie in it ſelfe.
4 For thyther the tribes goe vp, euen the tribes of the Lorde: to teſtifie vnto Iſrael, to geue thankes vnto the name of the Lord.
5 For there is the ſeate of iudgement: euen the ſeate of the houſe of Dauid.
6 O praye for the peace of Hieruſalem: they ſhal proſper that loue the.
B 7 Peace be within thy walles: and plenteouſneſſe within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions ſakes: I wyl wyſhe thee proſperitie.
9 Yea, becauſe of the houſe of the Lorde our God: I wyl ſeeke to doo thee good.

Ad te leuaui. Pſalm.Cxxiii.

A 1 VNTO thee lyfte I vp myne eyes: O thou that dwelleſt in the heauens.
2 Behold, euen as the eyes of ſeruantes looke vnto the hande of their maiſters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hand of her maiſtreſſe: euen ſo our eyes waite vpon the Lorde our God, vntyl he haue mercy vpon vs.
3 Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercy vpon vs: for we are vtterly deſpiſed.
4 Our ſoule is filled with the ſcorneful reproofe of the wealthy: and with the deſpitefulneſſe of the proude.

Niſi quia. Pſalm.Cxxiiii.

A 1 IF the Lorde hym ſelfe had not ben on our ſide (nowe may Iſrael ſay:) if the Lorde him ſelfe had not ben on our ſide when menne roſe vp againſt vs.
2 They had ſwallowed vs vp quicke: when they were ſo wrathfully diſpleaſed at vs.
3 Yea, the waters had drowned vs: and the ſtreame had gone ouer our ſoule:
4 The depe waters of the proude: had gone euen ouer our ſoule.
5 But prayſed be the Lord: whiche hath not geuen vs ouer for a pray vnto their teeth.
6 Our ſoule is eſcaped, euen as a byrde out of the ſnare of the fowler: the ſnare is broken, and we are deliuered.
B 7 Our helpe ſtandeth in the name of the Lord: which made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt. Pſalm.Cxxv.

A 1 THey that put their truſt in the Lorde, ſhalbe euen as the mount Sion: which may not be remooued, but ſtandeth faſt for euer.
2 The hylles ſtand about Hieruſalem: euen ſo ſtandeth the Lord rounde about his people, from this time foorth for euermore.
3 For the rod of the vngodly commeth not into the lot of the ryghteous: leaſt the righteous put their hand vnto wickedneſſe.
4 Doo wel, O Lorde: vnto thoſe that be good and true of hart.
5 As for ſuche as turne backe vnto their owne wickedneſſe: the Lord ſhal lead them foorth with the euil doers, but peace ſhalbe vpon Iſrael.

In conuertendo. Pſalm.Cxxvi.

A 1 WHen the Lord turned againe the captiuitie of Sion: then were we like vnto them that dreame. Euenyng. prayer.
2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with ioy.
3 Then ſayde they among the heathen: the Lorde hath done great thynges for them.
4 Yea, the Lorde hath donne great thynges for vs already: whereof we reioyce.
5 Turne our captiuitie, O Lorde: as the ryuers in the South.
6 They that ſowe in teares: ſhal reape in ioy.
7 He that nowe goeth on his way weeping, and beareth foorth good ſeede: ſhal doubtleſſe comme againe with ioy, and bryng his ſheaues with hym.

A 1 EXcept the Lorde bvylde the houſe: theyr labour is but loſt that buylde it.
2 Except the Lorde keepe the citie: the watchman waketh but in vayne.
3 It is but loſt labour that ye haſte to ryſe vp early, and ſo late take reaſt, and eate the breade of carefulneſſe: for ſo he geueth his beloued ſleepe.
4 Loe chyldren, and the fruit of the wombe: are an heritage and gyfte, that commeth of the Lorde.
5 Lyke as the arrowes in the hande of the gyant: euen ſo are the young chyldren.
6 Happye is the man that hath his quyuer ful of them: they ſhal not be aſhamed when they ſpeake with their enimies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Pſalm.Cxxviii.

A 1 BLeſſed are al they that feare the Lorde: and walke in his wayes.
2 For thou ſhalt eate the labours of thine handes: O wel is thee, and happy ſhalt thou be.
3 Thy wyfe ſhalbe as the fruiteful vine: vpon the walles of thyne houſe.
4 Thy children lyke the Olyue branches: rounde about thy table.
5 Loe, thus ſhal the man be bleſſed: that feareth the Lorde.
6 The Lord from out of Sion ſhal ſo bleſſe thee: that thou ſhalt ſee Hieruſalem in proſperitie al thy lyfe long.
B 7 Yea, that thou ſhalt ſee thy chylders children: and peace vpon Iſrael.

Sepe expugnauerunt. Pſalm.Cxxix.

A 1 MAny a tyme haue they fought agaynſt me from my youth vp: (may Iſrael nowe ſay.)
2 Yea, many a tyme haue they vexed me from my youth vp: but they haue not preuayled agaynſt me.
3 The plowers plowed vppon my backe: and made long forowes.
4 But the ryghteous Lord: hath hewen the ſnares of the vngodly in peeces.
5 Let them be confounded and turned backwarde: as many as haue enyl wyl at Sion.
6 Let them be euen as the graſſe growing vppon the houſe toppes: whiche wythereth afore it be plucked vp.
B 7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand: neither he that bindeth vp the ſheaues, his boſome.
8 So that they whiche goe by, ſay not ſo muche as the Lorde proſper you: we wyſhe you good lucke in the name of the Lorde.

De profundis. Pſalm.Cxxx.

A 1 OUT of the deepe haue I called vnto thee (O Lord:) Lord heare my voyce.
2 Oh let thine eares conſyder wel: the voyce of my complaynt.
3 If thou Lorde wylt be extreame to marke what is donne amiſſe: oh Lorde who maye abide it?
4 For there is mercye with thee: therefore ſhalt thou be feared.
5 I looke for the Lord, my ſoule doth waite for him: in his woorde is my truſt.
6 My ſoule fleeth vnto the Lord: before the morning watch, I ſay, before the morning watche.
B 7 O Iſrael truſt in the Lorde, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with hym is plenteous redemption.
8 And he ſhal redeeme Iſrael: from al his ſinnes.

Domine non eſt. Pſalm.Cxxxi.

A 1 LOrde, I am not hygh mynded: I haue no proude lookes.
2 I doo not exercyſe mee ſelfe in great matters: whiche are to hygh for me.
3 But I refrayne my ſoule, and keepe it lowe, lyke as a chylde that is weaned from his mother: yea, my ſoule is euen as a weaned chylde.
4 O Iſrael truſt in the Lorde: from this tyme foorth for euermore.

Memento Domine. Pſalm.Cxxxii.

A 1 LOrde, remember Dauid: and al his trouble. Morning prayer.
2 Howe he ſware vnto the Lorde: and vowed a vow vnto the almighty God of Jacob.
3 I wyl not come within the tabernacle of my houſe: nor clymbe vp into my bed.
4 I wyl not ſuffer myne eyes to ſleepe, nor myne eyelidde to ſlumber: neyther the temples of my head to take any reaſt.
5 Vntyl I fynde out a place for the temple of the Lorde: an habitation for the myghty God of Jacob.
6 Loe, we hearde of the ſame at Ephrata: and founde it in the wood.
7 We wyl goe into his tabernacle: and fal lowe on our knees before his footeſtoole.
B 8 Aryſe, O Lorde, into thy reaſtyng place: thou, and the arke of thy ſtrength.
9 Let thy prieſtes be clothed with ryghteouſneſſe: and let thy ſaintes ſyng with ioyfulneſſe.
10 For thy ſeruant Dauids ſake: turne not awaye away the preſence of thyne annoynted.

11 The Lord hath made a faythful othe vnto Dauid: and he ſhal not ſhrynke from it.
12 Of the fruite of thy body: ſhal I ſet vpon thy ſeate.
13 If thy children wil kepe my couenaunt & my teſtimonies that I ſhal learne them: their children alſo ſhal ſitte vpon thy ſeate for euermore.
C 14 For the Lorde hath choſen Sion to be an habitation for him ſelfe: he hath longed for her.
15 This ſhalbe my reſt for euer: here wyl I dwel, for I haue a delite therein.
16 I wyl bleſſe her vittayles with encreaſe: and wyl ſatisfie her poore with bread.
17 I wyl decke her prieſtes with health: and her ſaintes ſhal reioyce and ſyng.
18 There ſhal I make the horne of Dauid to flouriſhe: I haue ordeyned a lanterne for myne annoynted.
19 As for his enimies I ſhal clothe them with ſhame: but vpon him ſelfe ſhall his crowne flouriſhe.

Ecce quam bonum. Pſal. Cxxxiii.

A 1 BEholde howe good and ioyful a thyng it is brethren: to dwel togeather in vnitie.
2 It is lyke the pretious oyntment vpon the head, that ran downe vnto the beарde, euen vnto Aarons beard, and went downe to the ſkirtes of his clothyng.
3 Lyke as the deawe of Hermon: whiche fel vpon the hyl of Sion.
4 For there the Lord promiſed his bleſſing: and lyfe for euermore.

Ecce nunc. Pſal. Cxxxiiii.

A 1 BEholde (nowe) prayſe the Lorde: al ye ſeruauntes of the Lorde.
2 Ye that by night ſtande in the houſe of the Lord: euen in the courtes of the houſe of our God.
3 Lyft vp your handes in the ſanctuarie: and prayſe the Lorde.
4 The Lord that made heauen and earth: geue thee bleſſing out of Sion.

Laudate nomen. Pſal. Cxxxv.

A 1 OPrayſe the Lorde, laude ye the name of the Lord: prayſe it, O ye ſeruantes of the Lorde.
2 Ye that ſtande in the houſe of the Lorde: in the courtes of the houſe of our God.
3 O prayſe the lord, for ỹ lord is gratious: O ſing prayſes vnto his name, for it is louely.
4 For why? the Lord hath choſen Jacob vnto him ſelfe: and Iſrael for his owne poſſeſſion.
5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is aboue al gods.
6 Whatſoeuer the Lorde pleaſed, that dyd he in heauen and in earth: and in the ſea, and in al deepe places.
7 He bryngeth foorth the cloudes from the B endes of the worlde: and ſendeth foorth lyghtnynges with the rayne, bryngyng the windes out of his treaſures.
8 He ſmote the firſt borne of Egypt: both of man and beaſt.
9 He hath ſent tokens and wonders into the middeſt of thee, O thou lande of Egypt: vpon Pharao and al his ſeruauntes.
10 He ſmote diuers nations: and ſlue myghtie kynges.
11 Sehon kyng of the Amorites, and Og the kyng of Baſan: and al the kyngdomes of Chanaan.
12 And gaue their lande to be an heritage: euen an heritage vnto Iſrael his people.
13 Thy name, O Lord, endureth for euer: ſo doth thy memorial, O Lorde, from one generation to another.
14 For the Lord wil auenge his people: and C be gratious vnto his ſeruauntes.
15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but ſyluer and gold: the worke of mens handes.
16 They haue mouthes and ſpeake not: eyes haue they, but they ſee not.
17 They haue eares, and yet they heare not: neyther is there any breath in their mouthes.
18 They that make them, are like vnto them: & ſo are al they that put their truſt in them.
19 Prayſe the Lord ye houſe of Iſrael: praiſe the Lorde ye houſe of Aaron.
20 Prayſe the Lord ye houſe of Leui: ye that feare the Lorde, prayſe the Lorde.
21 Prayſed be the Lord out of Sion: which dwelleth at Hieruſalem.

4 Whiche only doth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for euer.
5 Which by his excellent wiſdome made the heauens: for his mercy endureth for euer.

6 Whiche

B 7 Whiche hath made great lightes: for his mercy endureth for euer.
8 The ſunne to rule the day: for his mercie endureth for euer.
9 The moone and the ſtarres to gouerne the nyght: for his mercy endureth for euer.
10 Whiche ſmote Egypt with theyr fyrſte borne: for his mercy endureth for euer.
11 And brought out Iſrael frō among them: for his mercy endureth for euer.

13 Which diuided the red ſea in two partes: for his mercy endureth for euer.
14 And made Iſrael to go through the middeſt of it: for his mercie endureth for euer.
E 15 But as for Pharao and his hoſt, he ouerthrewe them in the red ſea: for his mercy endureth for euer.
16 Whiche led his people through the wilderneſſe: for his mercy endureth for euer.
17 Which ſmote great kinges: for his mercy endureth for euer.
18 Yea and ſlue mightie kings: for his mercy endureth for euer.
19 Sehon kyng of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for euer.
20 And Og the king of Baſan: for his mercy endureth for euer.
21 And gaue away theyr lande for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for euer.
D 22 Euen for an heritage vnto Iſrael his ſeruaunt: for his mercy endureth for euer.
23 Which remembred vs when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for euer.
24 And hath deliuered vs from our enimies: for his mercy endureth for euer.
25 Whiche geueth foode to al fleſhe: for his mercy endureth for euer.
26 O geue thankes vnto the God of heauen: for his mercy endureth for euer.
27 O geue thankes vnto the Lord of Lordes: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Super flumina. Pſal. Cxxxvii.

Q 1 BY the waters of Babylon we ſate downe and wept: when we remembred (thee) O Sion.
2 As for our harpes we hanged them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.
3 For they that ledde vs away captiue, required of vs then a ſong and melody in our heauineſſe: ſyng vs one of the ſongues of Sion.
4 Howe ſhal we ſyng the Lordes ſongue: in a ſtraunge lande?
5 If I forgeat thee, O Hieruſalem: let my right hande forget her cunning.
6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofe of my mouth: yea, yf I preferre not Hieruſalem in my myrth.
7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Hieruſalem: howe they ſayde, downe with it, downe with it, euen to the grounde. B
8 O daughter of Babylon, waſted with miſerie: yea happy ſhal he be that rewardeth thee, as thou haſt ſerued vs.
9 Bleſſed ſhal he be that taketh thy children: and throweth them againſt the ſtones.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. Cxxxviii.

1 I Wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, A with my whole hart: euen before the Gods wil I ſyng prayſe vnto thee.
2 I wil worſhip towarde thy holy temple, and prayſe thy name, becauſe of thy louyng kyndneſſe and trueth: for thou haſt magnified thy name, and thy worde aboue all thynges.
3 When I called vpon thee, thou heardeſt me: and endueſt my ſoule with muche ſtrength.
4 All the kynges of the earth ſhall prayſe thee, O Lorde: for they haue heard the wordes of thy mouth.
5 Yea they ſhal ſyng in the wayes of the Lorde: that great is the glory of the Lorde.
6 For though the Lorde be high, yet hath he B reſpect vnto the lowly: as for the proude, he beholdeth them a farre of.
7 Though I walke in the middes of trouble, yet ſhalt thou refreſhe me: thou ſhalt ſtretche forth thine hande vpon the furiouſneſſe of mine enimies, and thy right hande ſhal ſaue me.
8 The Lorde ſhal make good his louyng kyndneſſe towarde me: yea, thy mercy, O Lorde, endureth for euer, deſpiſe not then the workes of thyne owne handes.

Domine probaſti. Pſal. Cxxxix.

1 O Lorde, thou haſt ſearched me out A and knowen me: thou knoweſt my downe ſitting and myne vpryſyng, thou vnderſtandeſt my thoughtes long before. Mornyng prayer.
2 Thou art about my path, and about my bedde: and ſpyeſt out al my wayes.
3 For loe, there is not a worde in my tonge: but thou, O Lord, knoweſt it altogeather.
4 Thou haſt faſhioned me behinde and before: and layde thine hande vpon me.
5 Suche knowledge is to wonderfull and excellent for me: I can not attayne vnto it.

6 Whyther

6 Whyther shal I go then from thy spirite:
B or whither shal I go then from thy presence?
7 If I climbe vp into heauē, thou art there:
if I goe downe to hel, thou art there also.
8 If I take the wynges of the morwyng:
and remayne in the vttermost partes of the sea.
9 Euen there also shal thy hande leade me:
and thy ryght hande shal holde me.
10 If I say, peraduenture the darknes shal couer me: then shal my nyght be turned to day.
11 Yea, the darknesse is no darknesse with thee, but the night is as cleare as the day:
the darknes & light (to thee) are both alike.
12 For my reynes are thyne: thou hast coured me in my mothers wombe.
13 I wyl geue thankes vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: mar-uellous are thy woorkes, and that my soule knoweth ryght wel.
E 14 My bones are not hyd from thee: though
I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.
15 Thyne eyes dyd see my substance, yet being vnperfect: and in thy booke were al my members wrytten.
16 Which day by day were fashioned: whē as yet there was none of them.
17 Howe deare are thy counsayles vnto me,
O God: O how great is y summe of them?
18 If I telle them, they are moe in number then the sande: when I wake vp, I am present with thee.
19 Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God:
depart from me ye blood thirstie menne.
20 For they speake vngratfoully agaynst thee: and thyne enimies take thy name in vayne.
D 21 Doo not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I greeued with those that ryse vp agaynst thee?
22 Yea, I hate them ryght sore: euen as though they were myne enimies.
23 Trye me, O God, & seeke the grounde of my hart: proue me, & examine my thoughts.
24 Loke wel if there be any way of wickednesse in me: and leade me in the way euer lasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psalm. Cxl.

A 1 DEliuer me, O Lorde, from the euyl man: and preserue me from the wicked man.
2 Whiche imagine mischeefe in their hartes: and stirre vp strife al the day long.
3 They haue sharpened their tongues lyke a serpent: adders poyson is vnder theyr lyppes.
4 Keepe me, O Lorde, from the handes of the vngodly: preserue me from the wicked menne whiche are purposed to ouerthrowe my goynges.
5 The proude haue layd a snare for me, and spread a net abroade with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.
6 I sayde vnto the Lord, thou art my God:
heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lorde.
7 O Lorde God, the strength of my health: B thou hast couered my head in the day of batayle.
8 Let not the vngodly haue his desyre, O
Lorde: let not his mischeeuous imagination prosper, least they be to proude.
9 Let the mischeefe of their owne lippes fal vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.
10 Let whot burning coales fal vpon them:
let them be caste into the fyre, and into the pyt, that they neuer ryse vp agayne.
11 A man ful of woordes, shal not prosper vppon the earth: euyl shal hunt the wicked person to ouerthrowe hym.
12 Sure I am that the Lorde wyl auenge the poore: and mainteyne the cause of the helpelesse.
13 The ryghteous also shal geue thankes vnto thy name: and the iust shal continue in thy syght.

Domine clamaui. Psalm. Cxli.

A 1 LOrd I cal vpon thee, haste thes to help me: and consyder my voyce when I crye vnto thee.
2 Let my prayer be set foorth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the lyftyng vp of my handes be an euenyng sacrifice.
3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth:
and keepe the doore of my lyppes.
4 O let not my harte be enclyned to anye euyl thyng: let me not be occupyed in vngodly woorkes, with the menne that woorke wickednesse, least I eate of such thinges as pleaseth them.
5 Let the righteous rather smyte me frendly: and reproome me.
6 But let not theyr pretious balmes breake mine head: yea I wyl pray yet agaynst their wickednesse.
B 7 Let their iudges be ouerthrowen in stony places: that they may heare thy woordes, for they are sweete.
8 Our bones lye scattered before the pyt:
lyke as when one breaketh and heweth
wood vpon the earth.
9 But myne eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe

10 Kepe me from the snare which they haue layd for me: and from the trappes of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fal into their owne nets togeather: and let me euer escape them.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psalm.Cxlii.

A Euenyng prayer.

1 I Cried vnto the Lorde with my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lorde dyd I make my supplication.

2 I powred out my complaynte before hym: & shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirite was in heauinesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue they priuily layde a snare for me.

4 I looked also vppon my right hande: and see, there was no man þ would knowe me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lord, and said: thou art my hope and my portion in the lande of the lyuyng.

B 7 Consyder my cõplaint: for I am brought very lowe.

8 O delyuer me from my persecutours: for they are to strong for me.

9 Bryng my soule out of prison, that I may geue thankes vnto thy name: whiche thyng yf thou wylt graunt me, then shal the righteous resort vnto my company.

Domine exaudi. Psalm.Cxliii.

A 1 HEare my prayer, O Lord, and consyder my desire: hearken vnto me for thy trueth and righteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not in to iudgement with thy seruant: for in thy sight shal no man lyuyng be iustified.

3 For the enimie hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life downe to þ ground: he hath layde me in the darknesse, as the men that haue ben long dead.

4 Therfore is my spirite vexed within me: and my hart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past, I muse vpon al thy woorkes: yea, I exercise my self in the woorkes of thy handes.

6 I stretch forth my handes vnto thee: my soule gaspeth vnto thee as a thirstie lande.

B 7 Heare me, O Lord, and that soone, for my spirit waxeth faynt: hyde not thy face from me, lest I be like vnto them that go downe into the pyt.

8 O let me heare thy louing kindenesse betymes in the mornyng, for in thee is my trust: shewe thou me the way that I should walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliuer me, O Lorde, from myne enimies: for I flee vnto thee to hyde me.

10 Teache me to doo the thyng that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy louing spirite leade me foorth into the lande of righteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lorde, for thy names sake: and for thy ryghteousnesse sake bryng my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse slea myne enimies, and destroy al them that vexe my soule: for I am thy seruant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psalm.Cxliiii.

A Mornyng prayer.

1 BLessed be the Lord my strength: whiche teacheth my hands to warre, and my fingers to fight.

2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and deliuerer, my defender in whom I trust: whiche subdueth my people that is vnder me.

3 Lorde, what is man that thou hast suche respect vnto hym: or the sonne of man that thou so regardest hym.

4 Man is lyke a thyng of nought: his tyme passeth away lyke a shadowe.

5 Bowe thy heauens, O Lorde, and comme downe: touche the mountaynes, and they shal smoke.

6 Cast forth the lightning and teare them: shoote out thyne arrowes, & consume them.

7 Sende downe thine hand from aboue: deliuer me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hande of strange children. B

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanitie: & their ryght hand is a right hand of wickednesse.

9 I wyl sing a newe songue vnto thee, O God: and sing prayses vnto thee vpon a ten stringed Lute.

10 Thou that geuest victorie vnto kings: & hast deliuered Dauid thy seruant from the peril of the swoorde.

11 Saue me and deliuer me from the hande of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hande is a right hande of iniquitie.

12 That our sonnes maye growe vp as the young plantes: & that our daughters may be as the pullished corners of the temple.

13 That our garners may be ful and plenteous with al maner of store: that our sheepe may bring foorth thousandes, and ten thousandes in our streetes.

14 That our Oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captiuitie, and no complaining in our streetes. B

15 Happy are the people that be in suche a case: yea, blessed are the people which haue the Lorde for their God.

Exaltabo

Exaltabo te deus. Psal.cxlv.

A 1 I Wyl magnifie thee, O God, my kyng: and I wyl prayse thy name for euer and euer.
2 Euery day wyl I gene thankes vnto thee: and prayse thy name for euer & euer.
3 Great is the Lorde, and marueilous worthy to be prayled: there is no ende of his greatnesse.
4 One generation shal prayse thy workes vnto another: and declare thy power.
5 As for me, I wil be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy prayse, & wonderous workes.
6 So that men shal speake of the might of thy marueilous actes: and I wil also tel of thy greatnesse.
B 7 The memorial of thyne abundant kindnesse shalbe shewed: and men shal syng of thy righteousnesse.
8 The Lord is gracious and mercyful: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.
9 The Lord is louing vnto euery man: and his mercy is ouer al his workes.
10 Al thy workes prayse thee, O Lord: and thy saintes geue thankes vnto thee.
11 They shewe the glory of thy kyngdome: and talke of thy power.
12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightinesse of thy kingdome: might be knowen vnto men.
13 Thy kingdome is an euerlasting kyngdome: and thy dominion endureth throughout al ages.
C 14 The Lorde vpholdeth al suche as fal: and lyfteth vp al those that be downe.
15 The eyes of al waite vpon thee, O Lord: and thou geuest them their meate in due season.
16 Thou openest thine hande: and fyllest al thynges liuing with plenteousnesse.
17 The Lord is righteous in al his wayes: and holy in al his workes.
18 The Lorde is nigh vnto al them that cal vpon hym: yea all suche as cal vpon hym faythfully.
19 He wil fulfill the desyre of them that feare hym: he also wil heare their crye, and wyl helpe them.
20 The Lorde preserueth al them that loue him: but scattereth abroade al the vngodly.
21 My mouth shal speake the prayse of the Lorde: and let al flesh geue thankes vnto his holy name for euer and euer.

Lauda anima mea. Psal.cxlvi.

A 1 PRayse the Lorde, O my soule, whyle I liue wil I prayse the Lord: yea as long as I haue any being, I wyl syng prayses vnto my God.
2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any childe of man: for there is no helpe in them.
3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shal turne agayne to his earth: and then al his thoughtes perishe.
4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his helpe: and whose hope is in the lord his God.
5 Whiche made heauen and earth, the sea, and al that therein is: whiche kepeth his promise for euer.
B 6 Whiche helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: whiche feedeth the hungry.
7 The Lorde looseth men out of prison: the Lorde geueth syght to the blynde.
8 The Lorde helpeth them that are fallen: the Lorde careth for the righteous.
9 The Lorde careth for the straungers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widowe: as for the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vpsyde downe.
10 The Lorde thy God, O Sion, shalbe kyng for euermore: and throughout al generations.

Laudate dominum. Psal.cxlvii.

A 1 O Prayse the Lord, for it is a good thyng to syng prayses vnto our God: yea a ioyfull and pleasant thing is it to be thankful. Euenyng prayer.
2 The Lorde doth builde vp Hierusalem: and geather togeather the outcastes of Israel.
3 He healeth those that are broken in hart: & geueth medicine to heale their sicknesse.
4 He telleth the number of the starres: and calleth them al by their names.
5 Great is our Lorde, and great is his power: yea and his wisdome is infinite.
6 The Lorde setteth vp the meeke: and bringeth the vngodly downe to the ground.
B 7 O syng vnto the Lorde with thankesgeuyng: syng prayse vpon the harpe vnto our God.
8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth rayne for the earth: and maketh the grasse to growe vpon the mountaynes, and herbe for the vse of men.
9 Which geueth fodder vnto the cattel: and feedeth ỹ yong Rauens that cal vpon him.
10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neyther delighteth he in any mans legges.
11 But the Lordes delight is in them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercy.
12 Prayse the Lorde, O Hierusalem: praise thy God, O Sion.
13 For he hath made fast the barres of thy gates:

gates: and hath bleſſed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and fylleth thee with the flowre of wheate.

15 He ſendeth forth his commaundement vpon earth: and his worde runneth very ſwiftly.

16 He geueth ſnowe like wool: and ſcattereth the whote froſt like aſhes.

17 He caſteth forth his yce like morſelles: who is able to abyde his froſt?

18 He ſendeth out his worde, and melteth them: he bloweth with his winde, and the waters flowe.

19 He ſheweth his worde vnto Jacob: his ſtatutes and ordinaunces vnto Iſrael.

20 He hath not dealt ſo with any nation: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his lawes.

Laudate dominum. Pſal. Cxlviii.

1 O Prayſe the Lorde of heauen: prayſe him in the heigth.

2 Prayſe him al ye angels of his: prayſe him al his hoſt.

3 Prayſe him Sunne and Moone: prayſe hym al ye ſtarres and lyght.

4 Prayſe hym al ye heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

5 Let them prayſe the name of the Lord: for he ſpake the worde, and they were made, he commaunded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them faſt for euer & euer: he hath geuen them a lawe, which ſhal not be broken.

7 Prayſe the Lorde vpon earth: ye dragons, and al deepes.

8 Fyre and hayle, ſnowe & vapours: winde and ſtorme, fulfylling his worde.

9 Mountaynes, and al hilles: fruiteful trees, and al Cedars.

10 Beaſtes and al cattel: wormes and feathered foules.

11 Kinges of the earth, and al people: princes, and al iudges of the worlde.

12 Young men and maydens, olde men and children, prayſe the name of the Lorde: for his name only is excellent, and his prayſe aboue heauen and earth.

13 He ſhal exalt the horne of his people, all his ſaintes ſhal prayſe hym: euen the chyldren of Iſrael, euen the people that ſerueth hym.

Cantate domino. Pſal. Cxlix.

1 O Sing vnto the Lorde a newe ſong: let the congregation of ſaints prayſe him.

2 Let Iſrael reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be ioyful in their kyng.

3 Let them prayſe his name in the daunce: let them ſyng prayſes vnto hym with Tabret and Harpe.

4 For the Lord hath pleaſure in his people: and helpeth the meeke harted.

5 Let the ſaintes be ioyful with glory: let them reioyce in theyr beddes.

6 Let the prayſes of God be in their mouth: and a two edged ſworde in theyr handes.

7 To be auenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.

8 To bynde theyr kynges in chaynes: and theyr nobles with lynkes of iron.

9 That they may be auenged of them, as it is written: ſuch honour haue al his ſaintes.

Laudate dominum. Pſal. Cl.

1 O Prayſe God in his holyneſſe: prayſe hym in the firmament of his power.

2 Prayſe him in his noble actes: prayſe him accordyng to his excellent greatneſſe.

3 Prayſe hym in the ſounde of the trumpet: prayſe hym vpon the Lute and Harpe.

4 Prayſe hym in the Cymbales and daunces: prayſe him vpon the ſtringes and pipe.

5 Prayſe him vpon the wel tuned Cymbales: prayſe him vpon the loude Cymbales.

6 Let euery thing that hath breath: prayſe the Lorde.

3 To receiue the inſtruction of wyſedome, iuſtice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To geue wit vnto the ſimple, and that the yong menne myght haue knowledge and vnderſtanding.

These are also the sayeinges of the wyse. Prou.18.

23 It is not good to haue respect of any person in iudgement.
24 He that sayth to the vngodly, Thou art ryghteous: hym shal the people curse, yea the comminaltie shal abhorre him.
25 But they that rebuke (the vngodly) in them doth God delite, and a riche blessing shal comme vpon them.
26 Euery man shal kisse his lippes that geueth a good answeare.
27 Make redy thy woorke that is without, and looke wel vnto that whiche thou hast in the feelde: and then buylde thyne house.
28 Be not a false witnesse against thy neighbour, and speake no falsehood with thy lyppes. ℭ
29 Say not, I wyl handle hym euen as he hath dealt with me: and wyl rewarde * euery man accordyng to his deedes. * or, the man.
30 I went by the feelde of the slouthful, and 31 And lo, it was al couered with nettles, and stoode ful of thornes, and the stone wal was broken downe.

Prou. 12.b. 32 This I sawe, and considered it wel: I looked vpon it, and tooke it for a warnyng.
Prou. 6.a. 33 Yea sleepe on still (I say) a litle, slumber a litle, folde thy handes togeather yet a litle:
34 So shal pouertie comme vnto thee as one that trauaileth by the way, and necessitie like a weaponed man.

The .xxv. Chapter.

These are also parables of Solomon, whiche the men of Hezekia king of Iuda copied out.

A 1 IT is the glory of God to keepe a thing secrete: but the kings honour is to search out a thing:
2 The heauen is high, the earth is deepe: and the kinges hart is vnsearcheable.
3 Take the drosse from the siluer, and there shalbe a vessel for the fyner.
4 Take away the vngodly from the kyng: and his seate shalbe stablished with ryghteousnesse.
* or, stande not in. 5 Put not forth thee selfe in the presence of the king, and * preasse not into the place of great men:
Luke. 14.b. 6 For better is it that it be saide vnto thee, Comme vp hyther: then thou to be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thou seest with thyne eyes.
Eccle. 8.b. Matth. 5.c. 7 Be not * hastie to goe to lawe: lest haply thou knowest not what to doo when thy neighbour hath confounded thee.
* or, be not hastie to strine. 8 Handle thy matter with thy neighbour him selfe, and discouer not thy secrete to another:
B 9 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thy infamie doo not ceasse.
10 A worde spoken in due season, is like apples of golde in a grauen worke of siluer.
11 Who so reprooueth a wyse man that hath an obedient eare, is as a golden earing, and an ornament of fyne gold.
12 As the colde of snowe in the time of harueste: so is a faithful messenger to them that sende him, for he refreasheth his maisters minde.
13 Who so maketh great boastes * and geueth nothing, is like cloudes and wynde without raine.
* or, of falsse liberalitie. 14 With patience is a prince pacifyed, and with a soft tongue is * rigorousnesse broken.
C 15 If thou fyndest hony, eate so muche as is sufficient for thee: lest thou be ouer ful, and barbreake it out againe.
* or, bones are. Prou. 15.a. Gene. 32.a. 1.Sa. 25.c. 16 Withdrawe thy foote from thy neyghbours house: lest he be weery of thee, and so hate thee.
17 Who so beareth falsse witnesse agaynst his neighbour, he is * a very club, a sworde, and a sharpe arrowe.
* or, a maule. 18 The confydence that is put in an vnfaithful man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a slyding foote.
* or, salte-peter, or sope, or nitre. 19 Who so taketh away a mans garment in the colde weather, is * lyke vineger vpon lime, or like him that syngeth songes to an heauy hart.
20 If thyne enimie hunger, feede him, yf he thyrste, geue him drinke:
21 For so shalt thou heape coles of fyre vpon his head, and the Lorde shal rewarde thee.
D 22 The northwinde driueth away the raine: euen so doth an angry countenance a backbyters tongue.
Prou. 21.b. 23 It is better to syt in a corner vppon the house toppe, then with a brawling woman in a wyde house.
24 Good newes from a strange countrey, are as colde water to a thirstie soule.
25 A righteous man falling downe before the vngodly, is like a troubled well, and a spring that is corrupted.
26 As it is not good to eate to much honie, so curiously to searche the glory of heauenly thinges, is not commendable.
27 He that can not rule * him selfe, is lyke a citie whiche is broken downe and hath no walles.
* or, his spirite.

The .xxvi. Chapter.

A 1 LYke as smoke is (not meete) in somer and raine in haruest: euen so is worshyp vnseemely for a foole.
2 As the birde and the swalowe take theyr flyght to flee here and there: so the curse that is geuen in vayne, shal not lyght vpon a man.
Psal. 32.b. 3 Vnto the horse belongeth a whip, to the asse a bridle: and a rod to the fooles backe.
4 Geue not the foole an answeare after his foolishnesse, lest thou becomme lyke vnto hym.
5 But make the foole an answeare to his foolishnesse, lest he be wyse in his owne conceipt.
6 (As he that) cutteth of (his messengers) feete endamageth him selfe: so doth he that committeth a message to a foole.
7 Like as in a lame man his legges are not equall: euen so is a parable in a fooles mouth.
8 He that setteth a foole in high dignitie, that is euen as yf a man would bynde a * stone in a slyng.
* or, would hyde a precious stone in an heape so of stones.
9 As is a thorne in the hand of a dronkard:

so is a parable in a fooles mouth.

10 The mighty that fourmed al thinges, rewardeth the fooles and transgressours.

11 Like as the dogge turneth agayne to his owne vomite: euen so a foole beginneth his foolishnesse agayne afreshe.

1.Pet.3.d.

12 If thou seest a man that is wyse in his owne conceipt: there is more hope in a foole then in him.

Prou.22.d.

13 The slouthful sayth, There is a Lion in the way, and a Lion in the middest of the stretes.

17 Who so goeth by and medleth with other mens strife: he is like one that taketh a dogge by the eares.

18 As he that sayneth him selfe mad, casteth fyrebrandes, deadly arrowes and dartes:

19 So doth a dissembler with his neighbour, and sayth, Am not I in spoꝛt?

20 Where no wood is, there the fyre goeth out: euen so where the talebearer is taken away, there the strife ceasseth.

Eccle.23.b

21 As coles kindle heate, and wood the fyre: euen so doth * a brawlyng felowe stirre vp variaunce.

D

* or, a contentious.

22 A talebearers woꝛds are like * men that strike with hammers, and they pearse the inwarde partes of the body.

* or, as flat-tringes.

23 Burnyng lippes and a wicked hart, are like a potsharde couered with siluer dꝛosse.

24 An enimie wil dissemble with his lippes, and layeth vp deceipt in his hart.

25 But when he speaketh fayze, beleeue him not: foꝛ there are * seuen abominations in his hart.

* or, many.

26 Hatred may be couered by deceipt: but the malice thereof shalbe shewed befoꝛe the whole congregation.

Eccle.10.b. Eccle.28.b.

27 Who so diggeth vp a pit, shal fal therein: and he that rolleth vp a stone, it wyll returne vpon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth the afflicted: and a flattering mouth woꝛketh mischeefe.

Luke.12.c. Ezech.18.a. Iames.4.b.

1 MAke not thy boast of to moꝛowe: foꝛ thou knowest not what a day may bꝛyng fooꝛth.

2 Let another man pꝛaise thee, and not thine owne mouth, yea other folkes, and not thyne owne lippes.

3 The stone is heauy, and the sand waighty: but a fooles wꝛath is heauier then them both.

4 Wꝛath is a cruel thing, and furiousnesse is a very tempest: but who is able to abide enuie?

5 Open rebuke is better then secrete loue.

6 Faythful are the woundes of a louer: but the kisses of an enimie are * cruel.

* or, deceiptful.

B

7 He that is ful abhoꝛreth an hony combe: but vnto him that is hungry, euery * sowꝛ thyng is sweete.

8 He that oft times flitteth, is like a bꝛyde that foꝛsaketh her nest.

9 Baulme & sweete incense make the harte meery: so sweete is that freende that geueth counsel from the hart.

C

* or, he that prayseth his freend with a loude voyce rysyng early in the moꝛnyng: it shalbe counted to him as a dispꝛayse.

15 A bꝛawling woman and the roofe of the house dꝛopping in a raynie day, may wel be compared togeather.

16 He that stilleth her, stilleth the wind, and stoppeth the smell of the oyntment in his hande.

17 Lyke as one iron whetteth another, so doth one man * comfoꝛt another.

* or, sharpe the countenaunce of another.

18 Who so keepeth his fygge tree, shall eate the fruites thereof: so he that wayteth vpon his maister, shal comme to honour.

Eccle.1.a. Eccle.14.a. and.17.c.

19 Like as in one water there appeare diuers faces: euen so diuers men haue diuers hartes.

20 Hel and destruction are neuer full: euen so the eyes of men can neuer be satisfyed.

21 As is the fyning pot foꝛ the siluer, and the furnace foꝛ golde: so is a man tryed by the mouth of him that pꝛayseth him.

22 Though thou shouldest bꝛay a foole with a pestel in a moꝛter like firmentie corner yet wyl not his foolishnesse goe from him.

27 Thou shalt haue goates milke ynough to feede thee, to vpholde thy housholde, and to sustayne thy maydens.

Q 1 THE vngodly fleeth when no man pursueth hym: but the righteous are bold as a Lion. Leuit.26.c

10 Who so causeth the righteous to goe astray by an euyl way, shal fal into his owne pit: but the iust shal haue good thinges in possession.

23 He that folowyng my precептes rebuketh a man, shal fynde more fauour at the last then he that flattereth him.
24 Who so robbeth his father and mother, and sayth it is no sinne: the same is the companion of a " destroyer. Mat.15.a. " or, of a murderer.
25 He that is of a proude stomacke stirreth vp strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lorde, shalbe wel fedde.
26 He that trusteth in his owne hart is a foole: but he that dealeth wysely shalbe safe.
27 He that geueth vnto the poore shal not lacke: but he that hydeth his eyes from them, shal haue many a curse. 2.Cor.9.b
28 When the vngodly are comme vp, men are fayne to hyde them selues: but when they perishe, the righteous encrease. Prou.28.b

The .xxix. Chapter.

A 1 HE that is stifnecked and wyl not be refourmed, shal sodaynly be destroyed " without any helpe. " or, ỳ not be cured.
2 When the ryghteous are in authoritie the people doo reioyce: but when the wicked beare rule, the people mourne.

24 There be foure thinges in the earth the whiche are very litle, but in wysedome they exceede the wyse:

2 What my sonne? what the sonne of my body? and what O my deare beloued sonne?
3 Geue not ouer thy strength and wayes vnto women, whiche are the destruction euen of kinges.
4 O Lamuel, it is not for kinges, it is not (I say) for kinges to drinke wine, nor princes strong drinke.
5 Lest they by drinking forgeat the * lawe, and peruert the iudgement of al * poore mens childzen. * oz, ordinaunce.
6 Geue strong drinke vnto suche as are redy to perishe, & wine vnto those that mourne: * oz, of al the afflicted chyldren.

18 And yf she perceaue that her huswyferie dooth good, her candel goeth not out by nyght.
19 She layeth her fyngers to the spindle, and her hande taketh holde of the distaffe.
20 She openeth her hande to the poore, yea she streatcheth foorth her handes to suche as haue neede.
21 She feareth not that the colde of winter shal hurt her household, for al her household folkes are clothed with scarlet.

* or, prayse her.

29 Many daughters (there be that) geather richesse togeather: but thou goest aboue them all.

30 As for fauour it is deceiptfull, and beautie is a vaine thing: but a woman that feareth the Lorde, shalbe praised.

31 Geue her of the fruite of her handes: and let her owne workes praise her in the gates.

The ende of the prouerbes of Solomon.

The booke of the preacher, otherwyse called Ecclesiastes, which is Solomon the king.

For Solomon is called in scripture by three sundry names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The seconde Idida, that is, beloued of God. The thirde Ecclesiastes, that is a preacher, teaching that true and eternal felicitie consysteth not in any worldly wysedome or abundance of riches, or in carnal pleasure, whiche all be but vayne and transitory: but he prooueth that true felicitie consysteth in a whole ioynyng our selues to God by pure religion, that is, with a sincere fayth and the feare of God, obseruyng his commaundementes.

The fyrst Chapter.

2. All thynges in this worlde are full of vanitie and of none indurance.
13. All mens wysedome is but follie and greefe.

A 1 The wordes of ỹ preacher ỹ son of Dauid kyng of Hierusalem.

2 (a) All is but moste vaine vanitie saith the preacher, and all is most vaine (I say) and but plaine vanitie.

(a) He doth not condemne the creatures and gyftes of god as euyl: but the carefull seeking of them, and the pride and trust that man hath in worldly thinges.

3 For what els hath a man of all the labour that he taketh vnder the sunne?

4 One generation passeth away, another commeth: but the earth abydeth styl.

5 The sunne ariseth, the sonne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there rise vp againe.

6 The winde goeth toward the south, and turneth vnto the north, fetcheth his compasse, whirleth about, and goeth forth, and returneth agayne to his circuites from whence he did come.

7 All fluddes runne into the sea, and yet is the sea it selfe not fylled: for loke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they comme to flowe againe.

8 All thinges are so hard to be knowen, that no man can expresse them: the eye is not satisfyed with syght, the eare is not filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath benne, commeth to passe agayne, and the thing that hath benne donne, shalbe donne againe: there is no newe thing vnder the sunne.

10 Is there any thing wherof it may be said, Loe this is newe? for it was long agoe in the times that haue benne before vs.

11 The thing that is past is out of remembraunce: euen so the thinges that are for to comme, shal no more be thought vpon among them that comme after.

12 I mee selfe the preacher was king of Israel at Hierusalem,

13 And did applie my minde to seeke out and searche for the knowledge of all things that are done vnder heauen: (Suche trauayle and labour hath God geuen vnto the children of men, to exercise them selues therein.)

(b) Man is not able of his owne power to reformme that is amisse, and to ryse vp from sinne, nor to know his imperfection and weakenesse, to doo any thyng that is good, without the grace of God.

14 Thus haue I considered all these thinges that comme to passe vnder the sunne: and loe, they are al but vanitie and vexation of minde.

15 (b) The crooked can not be made straight, nor the imperfection of thinges can be numbred.

16 I communed with myne owne hart, saying, Loe, I am comme to great estate, and haue gotten more wysedome then all they that haue benne before me in Hierusalem.

17 Yea my harte hadde great experience of wysedome and knowledge: for therunto I applyed applyed my mynde, that I myght knowe what were wysedome and vnderstandyng, what were errour and foolishnesse: and I perceyued that this was also but a vexation of minde.

18 For where muche wysedome is, there is also great trauayle and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

The .ii. Chapte.

I. Pleasures, sumptuous buyldynges, riches, and possessions are but vanitie, 14. The wyse and the foole hath both one ende touching the bodily death.

1 THen sayd I thus in my hart, Now goe to, (a) I wyl take myne ease, and haue good daies: but loe, that is vanitie also.

2 Insomuch that (b) I sayd vnto the man geuen to laughter, Thou art mad: and to myrth, What doest thou?

3 (c) So I thought in my hart to geue my fleashe vnto wyne, and agayne to apply my mynde vnto wisedome, and to comprehend foolishnesse: vntyl the tyme that among al the thynges whiche are vnder the sunne, I myght see what were best for menne to doo so long as they lyue vnder heauen.

4 (d) I made gorgeous fayre workes: I buylded my houses, & planted vineyardes.

5 I made me Orchardes and Gardens of pleasure, planted trees in them of al maner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruiteful trees withal.

7 I bought seruants and maydens, and had a great housholde: as for cattel and sheepe, I had more substance of them, then al they that were before me in Hierusalem.

8 I geathered togeather siluer and golde, & the cheefe treasures of kynges and landes: I haue prouided me men singers and women singers, and the delightes of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more worship then al my predecessours in Hierusalem, for wysedome remayned with me.

10 And looke what so euer myne eyes desyred, I let them haue it: and wherin so euer my hart delyghted or had any pleasure, I withheld it not from it: Thus my hart reioyced in al that I dyd, and this was my portion of al my trauayle.

11 But when I consydered al the workes that my handes had wrought, and al the labour that I had taken therein: loe, al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothing of any value vnder the sunne.

12 (e) Then turned I me to consyder wisedome, errour, and foolishnesse, (for what is he among menne that myght be compared to me the king in suche workes?)

13 And I sawe that wysedome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as lyght dooth darkenesse.

14 For a wise man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darkenesse: I perceiued also that they both (f) had one ende.

15 Then thought I in my mynde, yf it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, what nedeth me then to labour any more for wisdome? So I confessed within my hart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wyse are euer as litle in remembrance as the foolishe: for the dayes shal comme (g) when al shalbe forgotten: yea, the wyse man dyeth as wel as the foole.

17 Thus began I to be weery of my lyfe, in so muche that I could away with nothing that is done vnder the sunne: for al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 (h) Yea, I was weery of my labour whiche I had taken vnder the sunne, because I shoulde be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me:

19 (i) And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wyse man or a foole? and yet shall he be lorde of al my labours, whiche I with such wysedome haue taken vnder the sunne: This is also a vayne thyng.

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from al suche trauaile as I tooke vnder the sunne, 21 For as muche as a man shoulde weery hym selfe with wysedome, with vnderstandyng, and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweat for them: This is also a vaine thing, and great miserie.

22 For what getteth a man of al the labour and trauayle of his mynde, that he taketh vnder the sunne?

23 But heauinesse, sorow, and disquietnesse al the dayes of his lyfe: insomuche that his hart can not reast in the nyght: This is also a vayne thyng.

24 Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his soule to be mery in his labour? yea, I saw that this also was a gift of God.

25 For who wyl eate or goe more lustyly to his worke, then I?

26 And why? God geueth to the man that is good before hym, wysedome, vnderstandyng, and gladnesse: but vnto the sinner he geueth weerinesse, that he may geather and heape togeather the thyng that afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto hym whom it pleaseth God:

The proue wherby foure reasons, that true felicitie cõsisteth not in any worldly pleasure.

(a) 1 Ther is no long contentation in any case or pleasure in this lyfe.

(b) 2 The mother of vayne pleasure and much laughter, is foolishnesse.

(c) 3 He that applieth him selfe to the study of godly wysdome, maynot haue to much pleasure in drynkyng of wyne.

(d) 4 The more plenty of gorgeous buyldyng, apparel, rychesse, or worldly pleasure, the more vexation of minde: and al are but vanitie in comparison of godly felicitie, as Solomon affirmeth of his owne experience.

(e) God hath appoynted that man shoulde be obedient to godly reasõ, as to his king: and not to be led with carnal affection.

(f) They both suffer like aduersitie in this worlde: or as touching the corruption of the body, they dye both alike.

(g) Meanyng in this worlde.

(h) That he might seeke the true felicitie whiche is in God.

(i) He rebuketh menne that maketh careful prouidence to enrich their heires by vnlawfull meanes, to their owne damnation, not knowing who or what they shalbe, eyther good or euyl.

God: This is nowe a vayne thyng, yea, a very disquietnesse and vexation of mynde.

The.iii.Chapter.

1. Al thinges haue theyr tyme. 14. The woorkes of God are perfect, and cause vs to feare hym. 17. God shal iudge both the iust and vniust.

1 EVery (a) thyng hath a tyme, yea, al that is vnder the heauen hath his conuenient season.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to plucke vp the thyng that is planted.

3 A tyme to slay, and a time to make whole: a tyme to breake downe, and a tyme to buylde vp.

4 A tyme to weepe, and a tyme to laugh: a tyme to mourne, and a tyme to daunce.

5 A tyme to cast away stones, and a tyme to geather stones togeather: a tyme to imbrace, and a tyme to refrayne from imbracyng.

6 A tyme to wynne, and a tyme to loose: a tyme to spare, and a tyme to spende.

7 A time to cut in peeces, and a time to sow togeather: a tyme to keepe scilence, and a tyme to speake.

8 A tyme to lone, and a tyme to hate: a time of warre, and a tyme of peace.

9 What hath a man els that doth any thing, but weerynesse and labour?

10 (b) For as touchyng the trauayle & carefulnesse whiche God hath geuen vnto men, I see that he hath geuen it them to be exercised in it.

11 Al thynges hath he made beautifull in theyr tyme, yea, further then this, he hath planted the world in their harts, that man may not comprehend the woorke that God maketh from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 So I perceyued that in those thinges there is nothing better for a man, then to be mery, & to do wel as long as he lyueth.

13 For al that a man eateth and drynketh, yea, what so euer a man enioyeth of al his labour: that same is a gyft of God.

14 I consydered also, that what so euer God dooth, it continueth for euer: and that nothyng can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, and that God dooth it, to the intent that menne shoulde feare hym.

15 The thyng that hath ben, is nowe: and the thyng that is for to comme, hath ben afore time: for God restoreth againe the thing that was past.

16 Moreouer, I sawe vnder the sunne vngodlynesse in the steede of iudgement, and iniquitie in the steede of ryghteousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mynde, God shal separate the ryghteous from the vngodly: and then shalbe the tyme and iudgement of al counselles and woorkes.

18 I communed with myne owne hart also concernyng the chyldren of menne, howe God hath chosen them, & yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes.

19 (c) For it happeneth vnto menne as it doth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dyeth, so dyeth the other: yea, they haue both one manner of breath: so that in this, a man hath no preeminence aboue a beast, but are al subdued vnto vanitie.

20 They goe al vnto one place: for as they be al of dust, so shal they al turne vnto dust agayne.

21 (d) Who knoweth the spirite of * man that goeth vpwarde, and the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceyue that there is nothyng better for a man, then to be ioyful in his labour, for that is his portion: but who wyl bryng hym to see the thyng that shal comme after hym?

The.iiii.Chapter.

1. The innocent are oppressed. 4. Mens labours are ful of abuse and vanitie. 9 Mans societie is necessarie. 13. A young man poore and wyse, is to be preferred before an olde kyng that is a foole.

1 SO I turned me, and consydered al the violent wrong that is vnder the sunne: & beholde the teares of suche as were oppressed, and there was no man to comforte them, or that would deliuer and defende them from the violence of theyr oppressours.

2 Wherefore I * iudged those that are dead, to be more happy then those that be alyue:

3 (a) Yea, hym that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because he seeth not the miserable woorkes that are done vnder the sunne.

4 (b) Agayne, I sawe that al trauaile and diligence of labour that euerye man taketh in hande, was done of enuie agaynst his neyghbour: This is also a vaine thing, and a vexation of mynde.

5 (c) The foole foldeth his handes togeather, and eateth vp his owne fleashe.

6 One handful (sayth he) is better with reast, then both the handes ful with labour and trauayle of mynde.

7 Moreouer, I turned me, and beholde yet another

(a) Although true felicitie is not to be put in anye worldelye thing: yet God hath appoynted al necessary thynges to be donne in due time, order, and measure.

(b) God hath appoynted that euerye man shoulde diligentlye trauayle and take paynes in his vocation, to the ende he woulde haue him humble & feare God

(c) There is no difference betwixt a man and a beast, as touchyng the body, which of them both dyeth: but the soule of man lyueth immortally, and the body of man ryseth vp agayne by the mighty power of the spirite of God.

(d) The immortalitie of the soule, is not knowen by carnal reason or sense: but by the woorde and spirite of God.

* or, of the chyldren of menne.

* or, praised

(a) He speaketh here according to the iudgmẽt of the flesh, whiche can not welabide persecution and trouble.

(b) The more perfect that the worke is, the more it is enuied of the wicked.

(c) For idlenes destroyeth him self.

another vanitie vnder the sunne:

8 There is one man, no mo but hym selfe alone, hauing neither childe nor brother, yet is there no ende of his careful trauayle, his eyes can not be satisfied with riches: (yet sayth he not) for whom do I take such trauayle? for whose pleasure do I thus consume away my lyfe? This is also a vayne and miserable thing.

(d) Mutual societie is both comfortable and necessarie for a mans lyfe.

9 (d) Therefore two are better then one, for they may wel enioy the profite of their labour: for yf one of them fal, his companion helpeth hym vp agayne.

or, and wyl not receiue admonition.

10 But woe is hym that is alone: for yf he fal, he hath not another to helpe hym vp.

11 Agayne, when two sleepe together, they are warme: but how can a body be warme alone?

12 One may be ouercome, but two may make resistaunce: a threefolde gable is not lyghtly broken.

(e) Men seke rather to please & to come into fauour with him that shal succede into the place of honour, then with hym that doth occupie the present estate.

13 A poore childe beyng wise, is better then an olde king that doteth, and can not beware in time to come.

14 Some one commeth out of prison, and is made a king: and another which is borne in the kingdome, commeth vnto pouertie.

(f) The people wyl not be long pleased with him that occupyeth the place of honour.

15 And I perceiued that al men liuing vnder ỹ sunne (e) go with the second childe that shall stande vp in the steade of the other.

16 As for the people that haue ben before him, & that come after him, they are innumerable, and they that come after (f) hym shal not reioyce of him: This is also a vayne thing, and vexation of mynde.

(g) We must direct our faith, prayer, and workes by the word of god: and not by a blynde or wicked intent,

17 When thou commest into the house of God, kepe thy foote and drawe nigh, that God which is at hand may heare, that thou geue not the (g) offerynges of fooles: for they knowe nought but to do euyl.

The v. Chapter.

1. Not to speake lightly, cheefely in Gods matters. 6. The couetous can neuer haue ynough.

(a) Be not rashe in speaking of the maiestie of god: or in vowyng and praying to God.

A 1 BE (a) not hastie with thy mouth, and let not thyne hart speake any thyng rashly before God, for God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth: therefore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For where muche carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: & where many wordes are, there men may heare fooles.

3 If thou make a vowe vnto God, be not slacke to performe it: as for foolish vowes he hath no pleasure in them: yf thou promise any thing, pay it.

4 (b) For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou shouldest promise, and not pay.

(b) We ought to vow those thinges the whiche tendeth to the glory of god, & which are in our power to performe.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesshe for to (c) sinne, neyther say thou before the angel, that it is thy ignorance: for then God wyl be angry at thy voyce, and destroy all the worke of thine handes.

(c) In promising that which thou art not able to perourm. Or by intemperate eating & drinkyng, or by saying that you sinned not voluntarily, but of necessitie: making God the authour of sinne.

6 (d) And why? where as are many dreames and many woordes, there are also diuers vanities: but loke that thou feare God.

(d) Dreames are not to be credited: but god is to be feared.

7 If thou seest the poore to be oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withal, so that equitie & ryght of the lawe is wrested in the lande, marueyle not thou at suche a thing: for he that is (e) hygher then the highest regardeth, and there be higher then they.

(e) Meanyng that god wil redresse these thinges, and therefore we must depend vpon him.

8 (f) The increase of the earth vpholdeth al thing: yea the king him selfe is mayntayned by husbandrie.

(f) The decay of husbandry is the decay of the prince.

9 He that loueth money, wyl neuer be satisfied with money: and he that loueth ryches, shalbe without the fruite thereof: This is also a vayne thyng.

10 Where as muche riches is, there are many also that spende them away: and what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauyng that he may looke vpon them with his eyes?

11 A labouring man sleepeth sweetely, whether it be litle or muche that he eateth: but the abundance of the riche wil not suffer him to sleepe.

(g) A plague of the couetous man.

12 (g) Yet is there a sore plague which I haue seene vnder the sunne (namely) riches kept to the hurt of him that hath them in possession:

13 For oft times they perishe with his great miserie and trouble: and if he haue a child, it geatteth nothyng.

14 Lyke as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, so goeth he thither agayne, and caryeth nothyng away with hym of al his labour.

15 This is a miserable plague, that he shal go euen as he came away: What helpeth it him then that he hath laboured in the winde?

16 (h) Al the dayes of his lyfe also he dyd eate in the darke with great carefulnesse, sickenesse, and sorowe.

(h) That is, in vayne, and without profite.

17 Therefore me thinke it a better and a fayrer thyng a man to eate and drynke, and to be refreshed of al his labour that he taketh vnder the sunne, al the dayes of his lyfe whiche God geueth hym: for this is his portion.

18 For vnto whomsoeuer God geueth riches, goodes, and power, he geueth it hym to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be

be refreshed of his labour: this is the gift of God.

19 For he thynketh not much howe long he shal liue, forasmuche as God fylleth his hart with gladnesse.

The.vi.Chapter.

The miserable estate of him to whom God hath geuen richesse, and not the grace to vse them.

1 THere is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a general thing among men: when God geueth a man ryches, goodes, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing of al that his hart can desyre, and yet God geueth him not leaue to enioy ỹ same, but another man spendeth them: This is a vayne thing, and a miserable plague.

2 If a man begeat a hundred children, and liue many yeeres, so that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioy his good, (a) neither be buried, as for hym I say, that vntimely byrth is better then he.

3 For he commeth to nought, and spendeth his time in darkenesse, and his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer, he seeth not the sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other.

5 Yea though he liued two thousand yeres, yet hath he no good lyfe: Come not all to one place?

6 (b) Al the labour that a man taketh, is for him * selfe, and yet his desyre is neuer fylled after his mynde.

7 For what hath the wyse more then the foole? what helpeth it the poore that (c) he knoweth to walke with fooles before the liuing?

8 (d) The cleare syght of the eye, is better then that the soule should walke after desyres of the lust: Howbeit, this is also a vayne thing, and a disquietnesse of minde.

9 The thing that hath ben, is named already, and knowen that it is euen man hym selfe: neyther may he go to lawe with him (e) that is mightier then he.

10 Many thynges there be that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne lyfe, which is but a shadowe? Or who wyl tel a man what shall happen after hym vnder the sunne?

The.vii.Chapter.

Diuers preceptes to folowe that whiche is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

1 A * Good name is more worth then pretious oyntment: and (a) the day of death, is better then the day of byrth.

2 (b) It is better to go into an house of mournyng, then into a banketting house: For there is the ende of all men, and he that is liuing taketh it to hart.

3 (c) Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenaunce is heauie, the hart is reformed.

4 The hart of the wise is in the mournyng house: but the hart of the foolishe is in the house of myrth.

5 It is better to geue eare to the chastening of a wyse man, then to heare the songue of fooles:

6 For the laughing of fooles is like the (d) crackyng of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thyng.

7 The wise man hateth wrong dealing, and abhorreth the hart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better is it to consyder the end of a thing then the beginning: the patient of spirite, is better then the high minded.

9 Be not hastily angry in thy mynde: for wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

10 (e) Say not thou, What is the cause that the dayes of the olde tyme were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyse question.

11 Wisdome with inheritaunce is good, yet better is it with them that without care may beholde the sunne:

12 For wisdome defendeth aswel as money, and the excellent knowledge and wisdome geueth life vnto him that hath it in possession.

13 Consyder the worke of God, howe that no man can make the thing straight, which he maketh crooked.

14 Vse wel the tyme of prosperitie, and remember the time of misfortune: for God doth so temper the one and the other, that a man (f) can fynde nothing els.

15 Al thynges haue I consydered in the time of my vanitie: that the (g) iust man perisheth for his righteousnes sake, and the vngodly liueth in his wickednesse.

16 Therefore be thou neyther to righteous nor ouer wise, that thou perishe not.

17 Be neither to vnrighteous also, nor to foolishe, lest thou dye before thy tyme.

18 It is good for thee to (h) take holde of this, and not to let that go out of thy hand: For he that feareth God, commeth forth with them all.

19 Wisdome geueth more courage vnto the wise, then ten mightie men of the citie.

20 For there is not one iust vpon earth that doth

(c) That is, that he knoweth how to vse his riches well in the iudgement of the wise.

* oꝛ, strength.

2 Kepe the kinges commaundement, namely, foꝛ the othe that thou hast made vnto God foꝛ the same.

(b) Withdraw not thy selfe lyghtly from the kinges obedience.

3 (b) Be not hastie to goe out of his sight, & see thou continue in no euil thing: foꝛ whatsoeuer it pleaseth hym, that dooth he.

4 Lyke as when a king geueth a charge, his commaundement is myghty: Euen so, who may say vnto hym, What dooest thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commaundement, shal feele no harme: but a wyse mans harte discerneth the tyme and iudgement.

6 Foꝛ euery thyng wyl haue opꝛoꝛtunitie and iudgement: and this is the thyng that maketh men ful of carefulnesse and soꝛow.

B 7 And why? a man knoweth not what is foꝛ to comme: foꝛ who can tel hym when it shalbe?

8 Neyther is there any man that hath power ouer noꝛ to h noꝛ that neither ma meddle with.

9 All these thyng
applyed my minde is vnder the sunne, how shyppe vppon another t harme.

10 Foꝛ I haue seene often the bꝛought to theyꝛ graues, (d) and yet t haue returned into the citie againe: and (e) came from the place of holy menne, whiche in the citie were growen out of memoꝛie, as were those also that lyued wel: This is also a vayne thyng.

(d) That is, the vngodly hath benne praysed after their burial.

(e) That is, the holy mē after theyr burial growe out of memoꝛie.

11 (f) Because nowe that euyl woꝛkes are not hastily pounished, the harte of man geueth hym selfe ouer vnto wickednesse.

(f) Where iustice is delayed, there sinne raigneth.

12 Because an euil person offendeth an hundꝛed times, and God deferreth, geuing him long lyfe: therefoꝛe am I sure that it shall goe wel with them that feare God, whiche haue him befoꝛe theyꝛ eyes.

13 Agayne, as foꝛ the vngodlye, it shal not be wel with hym, neither shal he pꝛolongue his dayes, but euen as a shadowe: so shal he be that feareth not God.

14 Yet is there a vanitie vpon earth: There be iust menne vnto whom it happeneth as though they had the woꝛkes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the woꝛkes of the ryghteous: This haue I called also a vayne thyng. C

15 Therefoꝛe I commende gladnesse, because a man hath no better thyng vnder the sunne, then to eate and dꝛynke, and to be merry: (g) foꝛ that shal he haue of his labour al the dayes of his lyfe, whiche God geueth hym vnder the sunne.

(g) This he speaketh in the portion a carnal man.

16 And so I applyed my mynde to learne wysedome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the woꝛlde, and that of such a fashion, that I suffered not myne eyes to sleepe neyther day noꝛ nyght.

17 I vnderstoode of al the woꝛkes of God, but it is not possible foꝛ a man to atteyne vnto the woꝛkes that are donne vnder the sunne: and though he bestowe his labour to seeke them out, yet can he not reach vnto them: yea, though a wyse man woulde vndertake to know them, yet shal he not finde them.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. By no outward thyng can man know whom God loueth or hateth. 11. No man knoweth his ende. 19. Wysedome excelleth strength.

I Foꝛ

1 I in my
,ghteous and
,ntes also are
,d there is no
,one or hate, but
,em.
, one as vnto another,
,e ryghteous, as with the
, with the good and cleane, as
,ncleane: with hym that offereth,
,d him that offereth not: like as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the sinner: as it happeneth vnto the pariured, so happeneth it also to hym that is afrayde to be forswo̅e.

,e commeth in this lyfe, as wel to the godly, as to the wicked.

3 Among al thynges that come to passe vnder the sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto al alyke: This is the cause also, that the hartes of menne are ful of wickednesse, and madde foolishnesse is in their hartes as long as they lyue, vntyl they dye.

(c) This pro-uerbe is the saying of the Epicures, the whiche bele-ueth not the immortalitie of the soule.

4 And why? as long as a man lyueth, he hath an hope: for a (c) quicke dog (say they) is better then a dead lyon.

5 For they that be lyuyng, knowe that they shal dye: but they (d) that be dead, knowe nothyng, neyther deserue they anye more, for their memorial is forgotten.

(d) Repentance after this lyfe, is to late and vnprofitable

6 Also their loue and their hatred, & their enuie is nowe perished, neyther haue they anye more parte in the worlde in al that is donne vnder the sunne.

(e) The wicked flatter them selues to be in gods fauour what so euer they doo, for that they doo abounde in prosperitie.

7 (e) Goe thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, and drynke thy wyne with a glad hart, for thy workes please God: Let thy garmentes be alwayes whyte, and let thy head lacke no ointment.

8 Use thee selfe to lyue ioyfully with thy wyfe whom thou louest all the dayes of thy lyfe, whiche is but vayne, that God geueth thee vnder the sunne al the dayes of thy va-nitie: for that is thy portion in this lyfe of al thy labour and trauayle that thou takest vnder the sunne.

(f) There is no tyme of workyng, or repentance
after this life

9 What so euer thou takest in hande to doo, that do with al thy power: for in the graue that thou goest (f) vnto, there is neyther worke, counsaile, knowledge, nor wisedome.

(g) Thus the wicked world lynges are deceiued, at-tributing to fortune, that which is ordered by the secretet pro-uidence of God, for that the reward accordyng to mens doings is not in this lyfe, but cheefely in the lyfe to comme.

10 So I turned me vnto other thinges vnder the sunne, and I sawe that in runnyng it helpeth not to be swyfte, in batayle it hel-peth not to be strong, to feedyng, it helpeth not to be wyse, to riches, it helpeth not to be a man of muche vnderstandyng, to be had in fauour, it helpeth not to be cunning:
(g) but that al lyeth in tyme and fortune.

11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but lyke as the fyshes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are taught with the snare: euen so are menne taken in the perillous time, when it commeth sodaynly vpon them.

12 (h) This wysedome haue I seene also vnder the sunne, and me thought it a great thyng.

(h) A prayse of wyse men

13 There was a litle citie, and a few menne within it: so there came a great king and besieged it, and made great bulwarkes a-gaynst it.

14 And in the citie there was founde a poore man, but he was wyse, whiche with his wysedome delyuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to suche a simple man.

15 Then sayd I, Wysedome is better then strength: neuertheless, a simple mans wysdome is despised, and his woordes are not heard.

16 A wyse mans counsayle that is * folowed in scilence, is farre aboue the crying of a captayne among fooles.

* or, heard.
Sapi.6.a.
1.Sa.17.c.
2.Sa.22.c.

17 For wysedome is better then harnesse:
but one sinner alone destroyeth much goodnesse.

The.x.Chapter.

1. The difference of foolishnesse and wysedome. 10. A slanderer is lyke a serpene that can not be charmed. 15. Of foolish kynges and ryotous princes. 16. And of good kinges and princes.

1 A Dead flye dooth corrupt sweete oynt-ment, and maketh it to stinke: Euen so oft tymes, he that hath ben had in estímation for wisedome and honour, is abhorred because of a litle foolishnesse.

2 (a) A wyse mans hart is vpon his ryght hande, but a fooles harte vppon his leaft.

(a) A wyse man dooth things aptly, and with good consyderation, but a foole doth contrary.

3 A foole wyl shewe hym selfe when he goeth by the way, * yet thynketh he that eue-ry man dooth as foolishly as hym selfe.

* or, and being a foole him selfe, esteemeth al other menne
as fooles.

4 If a principal spirite be geuen thee to beare rule, be not negligent then in thyne office: for he that can take cure of him selfe, auoydeth great offences.

5 Another plague is there whiche I haue seene vnder the sunne, namely, the ignorance that is commonly among princes: in that a foole sitteth in great dignitie, and the (b) riche are set downe beneath.

(b) Riche in wysedome and vertue.

6 I haue seene seruantes ryde vpon horses, and princes goyng vpon * their feete as it were seruantes.

* or, the earth.

10 A backbyter is no better then a serpent that stingeth without hissyng.

11 The wordes out of a wise mans mouth are gratious: but the lyppes of a foole wyl destroy him selfe.

12 The beginning of his talking is foolishnesse: and the last worde of his mouth is starke madnesse.

13 A foole is ful of wordes, and a man can not tel what shal come to passe: who wyl then warne him of it that shal folowe after hym?

The. xi. Chapter.

1. To be liberal to the poore. 4. Not to doubt of Gods prouidence. 8. Al worldly prosperitie is but vanitie. 9. God wil iudge al.

(a) Be liberal to the poore, though it seeme to be cast into the sea, yet it shal profite thee at the last.

1 LAy (a) thy bread vpon wette faces, and so shalt thou find it after many dayes.

2 (b) Geue part seuen dayes, and also vpon the eight: for thou knowest not what miseri shal come vpon earth.

(b) Distribute thy almes to any that haue neede, without respect of person.

it lyeth.

4 He that regardeth the winde, shal not sowe: and he that hath respect vnto the cloudes, shal not reape.

5 Nowe lyke as thou knowest not the way of the spirite, nor howe the bones do growe in the wombe of her that is with chylde: euen so thou knowest not the workes of god, whiche is the workemaister of al.

6 Ceasse not thou therfore with thy handes to sowe thy seede, whether it be in the morning or in the euenyng: for thou knowest not whether this or that shal prosper, and yf they both take, it is the better.

B

7 The light is sweete, and a pleasant thing is it for the eyes to looke vpon the sunne.

8 If a man liue many yeeres, and be glad in them al, let hym remember the dayes of darkenesse which shalbe many, and that foloweth: Al thynges shalbe but vanitie.

(d) So behaue thee selfe in al worldly affayres, that thou remember alwayes the accompt that thou must make to God for the same at the day of iudgement.

9 Be glad then (O thou young man) in thy youth, and let thy hart be mery in thy yong dayes, folowe the wayes of thyne owne hart, and the lust of thyne eyes, (d) but be thou sure that God shal bryng thee into iudgement for al these thynges.

The. xii. Chapter.

1. To thinke on God in youth, and not to deferre tyll age. 7. The soule returneth to God. 12. Wisdome is the gift of God, and consisteth in fearing him, and keping his commaundementes.

1 PUt away displeasure out of thine hart, and remoue euyl from thy body: for chyldhood and youth is but vanitie.

9 Al is but vanitie (sayth the preacher) al is but playne vanitie.

10 The preacher was yet more wyse, and taught the people knowledge, he gaue good heede, sought out the grounde, and set forth many parables: His diligence was to finde out acceptable wordes, ryght scripture, and the wordes of trueth.

11 For the words of the wise are like prickes and nayles that goe thorowe, of the (x) auc-thours of geatherynges (whiche) are geuen of one shephearde. Hebr. 4.e. (x) Auctours of geatherynges he calleth wise men, because they geather the sayinges of the wiser sort of men in their booke.

21 Therefore beware my sonne of that doctrine that is beside this: for to make many bookes, it is an endelesse worke: & to much studie weerieth the body.

13 Let vs heare the conclusion of al thinges, Feare God, and kepe his commaundementes: for that toucheth al men. For God shal iudge al workes and secrete thinges, whether they be good or euyl.

The ende of the booke of the preacher, otherwyse called Ecclesiastes.

The Ballet of Ballets of Solomon, called in Latine, Canticum Canticorum.

The first Chapter.

1. The familier talke and mystical communication of the spiritual loue betweene Iesus Christe and his churche. 6. The domestical enimies that persecute the churche.

1 (a) The church desyreth the peace of Christe.

That (a) he would kysse me with the kysses of his mouth: for thy loue is more pleasant then wine, and that because of ỹ good and pleasaunt sauour of thy most precious baulmes.

(b) Christes mercy is set foorth by preaching.
(c) The maydens, that is, they that are pure in hart.
(d) Blacke, thorowe the sportes of sinne & persecution.
(e) Fayre, thorow faith in the blood of Christe.

2 (b) Thy name is a sweete smellyng oyntment when it is shed foorth, therefore do the (c) maydens loue thee.

3 Drawe thou me (vnto thee) we wyl runne after thee. The kyng hath brought me into his priuie chambers: We wyl be glad and reioyce in thee, we thinke more of thy loue then of wine: they that be ryghteous loue thee.

4 (d) I am blacke (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) but yet (e) fayre and wel fauoured, like as the tentes of the Cedarenes, and as the hangynges of Solomon.

5 Maruelle not at me that I am so blacke, for why? the sunne hath shyned vpon me: my mothers children haue euyl wil at me, they made me the keper of the vineyardes, but mine owne vineyard haue I not kept.

6 Tel me, O thou whom my soule loueth, where thou feedest the sheepe, where thou makest them rest at the noone day: for why shal I be like him that goeth wrong about the flockes of thy companions?

7 If thou know not thee self, (O thou fayrest among women) then go thy way foorth after the (f) footesteppes of the sheepe, and feede thy goates beside the sheepeheardes tentes. B (f) After the doctrine of the apostles. Exod. 14.c.

8 Unto the host of Pharaos charrets haue I compared thee, O my loue.

9 Thy cheekes and thy necke is beautifull as the turtles, & hanged with spanges and goodly iewelles, a neckbande of golde wil we make thee, with spiuet buttons.

10 (g) When the kyng sytteth at the table, he shall smell my Nardus: a bundell of Myrrhe is my loue vnto me, he wyl lye betwixt my brestes: a cluster of Camphire in the vineyardes of Engaddi is my loue vnto me. (g) So long as the churche foloweth Christe, she shal not erre frō the true fayth of saluation.

11 Oh how fayre art thou my loue, Oh how fayre art thou? thou hast doues eyes. O howe fayre art thou my beloued, howe wel fauoured Cant. 4.a.

fauoured art thou?

12 Our bed is deckt with flowres, the ceelynges of our house are of Cedar tree, and our crosse ioyntes of Cypresse.

The.ii.Chapter.

3. The churche desireth to rest vnder the shadowe of Christe. 8. She heareth his voyce. 14. She is compared to the doue. 15. And the enimies to the foxes.

A 1 I Am the rose of the feelde, and lilie of the valleys,

(a) Christe among his enimies. (b) The loue of the churche towarde Christe. (c) His fruit, that is, his woorde.

2 (a) As the lilie among the thornes: so is my loue among the daughters.

3 (b) Like as the apple tree among the trees of the wood: so is my beloued among the sonnes.

4 My delyght is to syt vnder his shadowe, for (c) his fruite is sweete vnto my throte.

5 He bryngeth me into his wyne seller, his banner spread ouer me, whiche is his loue.

6 Set about me cuppes of wine, comfort me with apples, for I am sicke of loue.

B 7 His left hande lyeth vnder my head, and his right hande shal imbrace me.

Cant.8.a

(d) Christe chargeth the rulers of the Church as it were by an othe, that they trouble not the quietnes therof.

8 (d) I charge you (O ye daughters of Hierusalem) by the roes & hindes of the feelde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touche her, tyl she be content her selfe.

9 Me thinke I heare the voyce of my beloued: loe, there commeth he hopping vpon the mountaynes, and leaping ouer the litle hylles.

10 My beloued is like a roe or a young hart: beholde he standeth behinde (e) our wal, he looketh in (f) at the wyndowe, and peepeth thorowe the grate.

(e) His diuinitie was hid den vnder our fleashe. (f) We can not knowe hym in this lyfe perfectly

11 My beloued answeared and sayde vnto me, O stand vp my loue, my beautiful, and goe to thyne owne: (g) for loe the winter is nowe past, the raine is away and gonne.

(g) That is, sinne and infidelitie is put away by Christe.

12 (h) The flowres are comme vp in the feelde, the tyme of the byrdes singing is comme, and the (i) voyce of the turtle doue is heard in our lande.

(h) Good woorkes. (i) The voyce of the holy ghost.

13 The figge tree bringeth forth her figges, and the vines beare blossomes, and haue a good smel.

C 14 O stande vp then and comme my loue my beautiful, (and comme I say) O my doue, out of the caues of ỹ rockes, out of the holes of the wal, O let me see thy countenance & heare thy voyce: for sweete is thy voyce, and fayre is thy face.

(k) Suppresse the heretikes at the beginnyng, when they preache false doctrine

15 Gear vs (k) the foxes, yea the litle foxes that hurt the vines: for our vines beare blossomes.

16 My loue is myne, and I am his, whiche feedeth among the lilies vntyll the daye breake, and tyl the shadowes be gonne:

(l) The churche prayeth Christe to be a present helpe alwayes in tyme of nede

17 (l) Comme agayne, O my beloued, and be lyke as a roe or a young hart vpon the wyde mountaynes.

The.iii.Chapter.

1. The churche desireth to be ioyned inseparably to Christe her husbande. 6. Her deliuerance out of the wyldernes.

1 BY (a) nyght in my bedde I sought hym whom my soule loueth: yea diligently sought I hym, but I founde hym not.

A (a) Christe is not founde by carnal reason, but by the scripture.

2 I wyl geat vp (thought I) (b) and goe about the citie, in the waies in al the streetes wyl I seeke hym whom my soule loueth: but when I sought him I founde him not.

(b) We must continue in prayer, though we feele no comfort at the first.

3 The watchmen also that goe about the citie founde me (to whom I sayde) Sawe ye not him whom my soule loueth?

4 So when I was a litle past them, I founde hym whom my soule loueth, I haue gotten holde vpon hym, and wyl not let hym goe, vntyl I bryng hym into my mothers house, and into her chamber that bare me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, by the roes and hyndes of the feelde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, tyl she be content her selfe.

Cant.2.b

6 Who is this that commeth vp out (c) of the wildernesse lyke vapours of smoke, as it were a smel of myrre, frankincence, and al maner spices of the Apotecaries?

(c) By this is vnderstanded the children of Israel, whiche in the wyldernesse dyd folowe Christ.

7 Beholde, about (d) Solomons bedsteede there stande threescore valiant, of the most mightie in Israel: they holde swoordes euery one, and are expert in warre.

(d) By Solomons bedsteede, is vnderstanded the temple of Solomon, the which is defended by the swoorde, that is, by the woorde.

8 Euery man also hath his swoorde vpon his thigh, because of feare in the nyght.

9 Kyng Solomon had made hym selfe a palace of the wood of Libanus, the pylers are of syluer, the couerynge of golde, the seate of purple, the grounde is pleasantly paued with loue for the daughters of Hierusalem.

* Somme reade, the pauement of golde, the couerynge of purple.

10 Goe forth (O ye daughters of Sion) and beholde kyng Solomon in the crowne wherwith his mother crowned hym in the day of his mariage, and in the day of the gladnesse of his hart.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1. The prayses of the churche. 7. She is without blemish in his syght. 9. The loue of Christe towardes her.

A 1 O howe (a) fayre art thou my loue, how fayre art thou? thou hast (b) doues eyes, beside that whiche lyeth hyd within: (c) thy hearte lockes are lyke the wool of a flocke of goates that be shorne vpon mount Gilead.

(a) Christe prayseth his Churche, wherein he hath great delyght.

(b) A simple fayth and sincere.

(c) The fruites of a true fayth.

2 (d) Thy teeth are lyke a flocke (of sheepe) of the same bignesse whiche went vp from the washing place, where euery one beareth two twins, and not one vnfruitful among them.

(d) By the teeth is signified fayth, by the which we are al made the sonnes of God equally

3 Thy lippes are lyke a rose coloured ribande, thy wordes are louely, thy cheekes are lyke a peece of a pomegranate within thyne heares.

4 Thy (e) necke is lyke the towre of Dauid buylded with costlye stones lyeing out on the sydes, wherevpon there hange a thousande sheeldes, yea al the weapons of the giantes.

(e) By the necke is signified the preachers.

5 (f) Thy two breastes are lyke two twins of young roes, whiche feede among roses.

(f) The two breastes signifie the two testamentes.

6 O that I myght goe to the mountayne of myrre, and to the hyl of frankencense, tyl the day breake, & tyl the shadowes be past away.

B 7 Thou art all fayre (O my loue) and no spot is there in thee.

8 Come to me frō Libanus (O my spouse) comme to me from Libanus: loke from the top of Amana, from the top of Sanir and Hermon, from the Lions dennes, and from the mountaynes of the Leopardes.

9 Thou hast (with loue) bewitched my hart, O my sister, my spouse, thou hast bewitched my hart with one of thyne eyes, and with one chayne of thy necke.

10 O howe fayre are thy breastes, my sister, my spouse? Thy breastes are more pleasant then wine, & the smel of thyne oyntmentes passeth al spices.

(g) The preaching of the Gospel bringeth foorth much consolation and profite.

11 (g) Thy lyppes, O my spouse, droppe as the hony combe, yea mylke and hony is vnder thy tongue, & the smel of thy garments is lyke the smel of Libanus.

(h) The churche is defended by Christe.

12 (h) A garden wel locked is my sister, my spouse: a garden wel locked, and a sealed wel.

13 The fruites that are planted in thee, are lyke a very paradise of pomegranates with sweete fruites, as Camphire, Nardus, and Saffron, Calamus, Cinamom, with al sweete smellyng trees, Myrre, Aloes, and al the best spices, a wel of gardens, a wel of lyuing waters whiche runne downe from Libanus.

(i) He prayeth for the grace of the holy ghost towarde the Churche, without the whiche nothyng can prosper in it.

14 (i) Vp thou north winde, comme thou south winde and blowe vpon my garden, that the smel thereof may be caryed on euery side: yea that my beloued may comme into his garden, and eate of the sweete fruites (that growe therein.)

The .v. Chapter.

I. Christe calleth his church to the participation of al his treasures. 2. She heareth his voyce. 6. She confesseth her nakednesse. 10. She prayseth Christe her husbande.

A 1 I Am (a) comme into my garden, O my sister, my spouse, I haue geathered my Myrre with my spice: I haue eaten hony with my hony combe, I haue dronken my wine with my milke: Eate, O ye freendes, drinke and be mery, O ye beloued.

(a) The garden signifieth the Churche of God, in the whiche Christe bestoweth his singuler benefites.

2 I am a sleepe, but my hart is waking: I heare the voyce of my beloued when he knocketh, saying, Open to me, O my sister, my loue, my doue, my darling: for my head is ful of deawe, and the lockes of my heare are ful of the night droppes.

3 I haue put of my coate, how can I doo it on agayne? I haue washed my feete, howe shal I fyle them againe?

4 My loue put in his hande at the hole, and my hart was moued within me.

5 I stoode vp to open vnto my beloued, and my handes dropped with Myrre, and the Myrre ranne downe my fingers vpon the locke.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed and gonne his way: Nowe when he spake, my hart was gonne: (b) I sought hym, but I coulde not finde him: I cryed vpon him, neuertheless he gaue me no answeare.

B

(b) Christe dooth leaue his for a time, for that he woulde stirre vp in them a greater desire of hym.

7 So the watchmen that went about the citie found me, smote me, and wounded me: yea they that keapt the walles tooke away my kerchaffe from me.

8 I charge you therefore, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, if ye finde my beloued, that ye tel him howe that I am sicke for loue.

9 What manner of man is thy loue aboue other louers, O thou fayrest among wome? Or what can thy loue doo more then other louers, that thou chargest vs so straightly?

10 As for my loue, he (c) is whyte and red coloured, a goodly person among ten thousande.

(c) The Church setteth foorth Christe to be of most perfection and comlynesse.

11 His head is as the most fine golde, the lockes of his heare are bushed, and blacke as a crowe.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brookes, as though they were washed with milke, and are set lyke pearles in golde.

Somme reade, and remayne by the ful vessels.

13 His cheekes are like a garden bed, wherin the Apotecaries plante al manner of sweete sweete thinges.

14 His lippes are like lilies that drop sweete smelling Myrre: his handes are like gold ringes, hauing inclosed the pretious stone of Tharsis.

15 His body is as the pure iuorie, decked ouer with Saphires: his legges are as the pillers of Marble set vpon sockettes of gold.

16 His face is as Libanus: and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.

17 The wordes of his mouth are sweete: yea he is altogeather louely: Suche a one is my loue, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, suche a one is my loue.

The.vi.Chapter.

2. The Churche assureth her selfe of the loue of Christe. 3. The prayse of the Churche. 8. She is but one and vndefiled.

A 1 WHyther is thy loue gonne then, O thou fairest among women? whyther is thy loue departed, and we wyl seeke him with thee?

(a) Christe is conuersaunt in his Churche, which is directed by his scriptures.

2 (a) My loue is gonne downe into his garden vnto the sweete smelling beddes, that he may refreashe him selfe in the garden, and geather Lilies.

3 My loue is myne, and I am his, whiche feedeth among the Lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my loue, as is (the place) Thirza, thou art fayre as Hierusalem, feareful as an armie of men with their banners.

5 Turne away thyne eyes from me, for they * haue set me on fyre: thy heary lockes are like a flocke of Goates shorne vpon the mount of Gilead.

* or, ouercome me.

6 Thy teethe are like a flocke of shorne sheepe whiche goe out of the washing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitefull among them.

B (b) There be many in the Churche of God, and diuers orders and degrees therein.

7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heare.

8 (b) There are threescore queenes, foure score wines, and damsels without number.

(c) Diuers particuler Churches dispearsed, maketh out one catholike Church.

9 (c) One is my doue, one is my darlyng: she is the only beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters sawe her, they sayd she was blessed, yea the queenes and wyues praysed her.

(d) Christe looketh vpon his Churche subiect to affliction, what fruite it bringeth.

10 What is she this that looketh foorth as the mornyng, fayre as the moone, cleare as the sunne, and feareful as an armie of men with their banners?

11 (d) I went downe into the nut garden to see what grew by the brookes, and to looke yf the vineyarde flourished, or yf the pomegranates were not fourth.

12 I knewe not that my soule had made me the charlot of the people that be vnder tribute.

13 Turne agayne, turne agayne, O thou perfect one, turne againe, turne againe, and we wyl looke vpon thee: What wyl ye see in the (e) Sulamite? She is like menne of warre singing in a company.

(e) Salumite, that is, Hierusalem, the whiche was Shalem, that signifieth peace.

The.vii.Chapter.

1. The beautie of the Churche in al her members. 10. She is assured of Christes loue towardes her.

1 O Howe pleasaunt are thy treadinges with thy shoes thou princes daughter? the ioyntes of thy thighes are like a fayre iewel, whiche is wrought by a cunnyng workmaister.

(a) Thy nauel is replenished with the riche knowledge of gods woorde and heauenly desyres.

2 Thy (a) nauel is like a rounde goblet, whiche is neuer without drinke.

(b) The Churche is ful of spiritual treasures.

3 Thy (b) wombe is like a heape of wheate that is set about with Lilies.

4 (c) Thy two brestes are like two twins of young Roes.

(c) The two testamentes commeth from God, and they be of equal authoritie.

5 (d) Thy necke is as it were a towre of iuorie: thyne (e) eyes also are like the water pooles that are in Hesebon, beside the port of Bathrabbim, thy (f) nose is lyke the towre of Libanus, whiche looketh towarde Damascus.

(d) The preachers ought to be pure.

(e) The magistrates must be wel instructed in the worde of God.

6 That head that standeth vppon thee is like Carmel: and the heare of thy head is lyke purple, and like a king dwelling among many water conduites.

(f) The iudges of good and euyl.

7 O howe faire & louely art thou my darling in pleasures?

8 Thy stature is like a (g) Paulme tree, and thy brestes like the grapes.

(g) The Church doth encrease the more it is pressed and persecuted.

9 I said, I wyl climbe vp into the Paulme tree, and take holde of his high branches.

10 Thy brestes also shalbe as the wine clusters, the smel of thy nosethrilles like as the smel of apples.

(h) Christe wyl cal them that professe his worde, to accompt what fruite they doo bryng.

11 And thy rooffe of thy mouth like the best wine, whiche is meete for my best beloued, pleasant for his lippes, and for his teethe to chawe.

12 I am my beloueds, and he shal turne him vnto me.

13 O comme on my loue, we wyl goe foorth into the feelde, and take our lodging in the villages.

14 (h) In the morning wyl we goe see the vineyarde, we wyl see yf the vine be sprong foorth, yf the grapes be growen, and yf the pomegranates be shut out.

(i) God geueth his graces to the faythful the whiche beinge his Church.

15 (i) There wyl I geue thee my brestes: the Mandragoras geue their sweete smel, and beſyde our dooꝛes are al maner of pleaſant fruites both newe and olde, whiche I haue kept foꝛ thee, O my beloued.

The. viii. Chapter.

2. The Churche wyl be taught by Chriſte. 3. She is vpholden by hym. 6. The vehement loue wherewith Chriſte loueth her. 11. She is the vine that bryngeth foorth fruite to the ſpiritual Solomon, whiche is Ieſus Chriſte.

A 1 O That (a) I might fynde thee without, & kiſſe thee, whom I loue as my bꝛother whiche ſuckt my mothers bꝛeſtes, and that thou ſhalt not be deſpiſed,
2 I wyl leade thee, and bꝛing thee into my mothers houſe, that thou mighteſt teache me, and that I myght gene thee dꝛinke of the ſpiced wine, and of the ſweete ſappe of my pomegranates.
3 His (b) leaft hand ſhalbe vnder my head, and his right hande ſhal imbꝛace me.
4 I charge you O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, that ye wake nat vp my loue, noꝛ touche her, til ſhe be content her ſelfe.
5 (What is ſhe this that commeth vp from the wyldernelſe, & leaneth vpon her loue?) I wake thee vp among the apple trees where thy mother conceaued thee, where thy mother (I ſay) bꝛought thee into the woꝛlde.
6 (c) O ſet me as a ſeale vpon thyne hart, and as a ſeale vpon thine arme: foꝛ loue is mighty as the death, and gelouſie as the hell.
7 Her coales are coales of fyꝛe, and a very vehement flame (of the Lorde:) ſo that many waters are not hable to quenche loue, neyther may the ſtreames dꝛowne it: yea yf a man woulde geue al the good of his houſe foꝛ loue, he ſhoulde count it nothyng.
8 (d) Our ſiſter is but young, and hath no bꝛeſtes: what ſhal we doo foꝛ our ſyſter when ſhe ſhalbe ſpoken foꝛ?
9 (e) If ſhe be a wall, we ſhal builde a ſyluer bulwarke therevpon: yf ſhe be a dooꝛe, we ſhal faſten her with booꝛdes of Cedar trees.
10 I am a wall, and my bꝛeſtes like towꝛes, then was I as one that hath founde fauour in his ſyght.
11 Solomon hath a vineyarde at Baalhamon, and this vineyarde deliuered he vnto the keepers, that euery one foꝛ the fruite thereof ſhould gene him a thouſand peeces of ſyluer.
12 My vineyarde whiche is myne, is in my ſyght: thou (O Solomon) muſt haue a (f) thouſande, and the keepers two hundꝛed, whiche keepe the fruite.
13 Thou that dwelleſt in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companyons may hearken to the ſame.
14 O geat thee away my loue, and be as a Roe oꝛ a young Hart vppon the ſweete ſmelling mountaines.

(a) The fathers of the elde teſtament deſyꝛeth to ſee the incarnation of Chriſte.
(b) His gratious fauour ſhal reſerue me from deſperation in aduerſitie, and from preſumption in proſperitie.
(c) The Churche deſyꝛeth to be ioyned vnto Chriſt by the ſeale of the holy ghoſt.
(d) The Iewes Churche ſpeaketh this of the Churche of the gentiles, the whiche wanted both teſtameates.
(e) The apoſtles preacheth to them that are called inwardly of god to ſaluation.
(f) By this thouſande is ſignified the greateſt profite, which is lyfe euerlaſting, whiche is obteyned by the grace of God, and not by our merites.

¶ The ende of the ballet of ballettes of Solomon, called in Latine Canticum Canticorum.

The end of the [illegible]

The booke of the prophete Esai.

The fyrst Chapter.

2. The prophete accuseth the sinnes of the people, namely of ingratefulnesse, stubbernesse, 11. faythlesse service of God, 24. and sheweth Gods terrible iudgement agaynst them vnlesse they repent.

1 THE (a) vision of Esai the sonne of Amos, which he saw vpon Juda and Hierusalem, in ỳ dayes of Uzia and Joathan, Ahaz and * Ezekiah, kynges of Juda.

(a) A reuelation or prophecie.

* or, Jehezekiah.

2 Heare O heauens, and hearken O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I haue nourished and brought vp children, and they haue donne vnfaythfully agaynst me.

3 The ore hath knowen his owner, and the asse his maisters cribbe: (but) Israel hath not knowen, my people hath geuen no heede.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a seede of the wycked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gonne backwarde.

5 Why shoulde ye be stricken any more? (for) ye are euer fallyng away: euery head is diseased, and euery hart heauie:

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head there is nothing sound in it: (but) woũdes, blaynes, and putrifiyng sore: they haue not benne salued, neyther wrapped vp, neyther molified with the oyntment.

7 Your land is wasted, your cities are burnt vp, strangers deuoure your lande before your face, & it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enimies (in the tyme of warre.)

8 And the daughter of Sion shalbe left as a cotage in a vineyarde, like a lodge in a garden of Cucumbers, lyke a besieged citie.

9 Except the Lorde of hostes had left vs a smal remnant, we shoulde haue benne as Sodoma, and lyke vnto Gomorra.

10 Heare the worde of the Lorde ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices vnto me wyl the Lorde say? I am ful of the burnt offeringes of weathers, and of the fatnesse of fedde beastes, (b) I haue no pleasure in the blood of bullockes, lambes, and goates.

(b) God hateth al maner of seruice and woorkes, seeme they neuer so good and holy, when thei be done without fayth and pureneſse of mynde. C

12 When ye comme to appeare before me treadyng in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but lost labour: incense is an abominable thing vnto me, I may not away with your newe moones, your sabbothes, and solemne meetynges, your solemne assemblies are wicked.

14 I hate your newe moones and appoynted feastes euen from my very hart, they make me weery, I can not abyde them.

15 When ye holde out your handes, I wyl turne myne eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, yet I wyl heare nothyng at al, seeyng your handes are ful of blood.

16 Washe you, make you cleane, put away your euyl thoughtes out of my syght: ceasse from deyng of euyll,

17 Learne to doo wel, apply your selues to equitie, deliuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his ryght, let the wyddowes complaint comme before you:

18 And then goe to, sayth the Lorde, let vs talke togeather: though your sinnes be as redde as scarlet, they shalbe as whyte as snowe: and though they were lyke purple, they shalbe as whyte as wool.

19 If ye be wyllyng and obedient, ye shal eate the good of the lande:

20 But if ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the swoorde: for the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken (or.)

21 Howe happeneth it then that the faythful citie whiche was ful of equitie, is become (vnfaythful) as a whoore? Ryghteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe murderers. D

22 Thy syluer is turned to drosse, and thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wicked and companions of theeues: they loue gyftes altogether, and gape for rewardes: As for the fatherlesse they helpe hym not to his ryght, neyther wyl they let the wyddowes cause cemme before them.

24 Therfore ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, the mightie one of Iſrael: Ah I muſt eaſe me of myne enimies, & auenge me of myne aduerſaries:

25 And I ſhal lay my hande vpon thee, and purely purge away thy droſſe, & take away al thy tinne:

26 And ſet thy iudges agayne as they were ſometyme, and thy ſenatours as they were from the beginning: and then thou ſhalt be called the righteous citie, the faythful citie.

27 Sion ſhalbe redeemed with equitie, and her conuertes with ryghteouſneſſe.

C 28 But the tranſgreſſours, and the vngodly, and ſuche as forſake the Lorde, ſhal altogeather be vtterly deſtroyed.

29 For ye ſhalbe confounded for the trees whiche ye haue deſired: and ye ſhalbe aſhamed of the gardens that ye haue choſen.

30 For ye ſhalbe as a tree whoſe leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moyſtneſſe.

31 And the very ſtrong one (of your idols) ſhalbe as towe, and the maker of it as a ſparke (of fire) and they ſhal both burne togeather, and no man quenche them.

The.ii. Chapter.

1. A prophecie of Chriſte and his kyngdome. 12. Pryde, couetouſnes, ſuperſtition, and idolatry are reproued. 17. Gods terrible iudgement agaynſt theſe.

A 1 THe ſelfe ſame woorde that Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſawe vpon Iuda and Hieruſalem.

2 And (this) ſhal comme to paſſe in the latter dayes, The (a) hil of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe prepared in the heigth of ỹ mountaynes, and ſhalbe hygher then the hylles, and al nations ſhal preaſſe vnto hym.

(a) Chriſte his Churche & his words.

3 And a multitude of people ſhal goe, ſpeakyng (thus one to another) Comme, let vs aſcende to the hyl of the Lorde, to the houſe of the God of Jacob, and he wyl inſtruct vs of his wayes, and we wyl walke in his pathes: for out of Sion ſhal comme a law, and the woorde of the Lorde from Hieruſalem:

4 And ſhal geue ſentence among the heathen, and ſhal reforme the multitude of people: they ſhal breake their ſwoordes alſo into mattockes, and their ſpeares to make ſithes: And one people ſhal not lyft vp a weapon agaynſt another, neyther ſhal they learne to fyght from thencefoorth.

5 Comme ye, O houſe of Jacob, and let vs walke in the lyght of the Lorde:

6 For thou haſt forſaken thy people the houſe of Jacob, (b) becauſe they be replenished (with euyls) from the eaſt, and with ſorcerers lyke the Philiſtines, and in ſtrange chyldren they thinke them ſelues to haue ynough.

(b) The cauſes why God forſaketh his people is, idolatrie, heatheniſhe ſuperſtition, couetouſneſſe, & truſt in other thinges then in God alone B

7 Their lande is ful of ſyluer and golde, neyther is there any ende of their treaſure: their lande is alſo ful of horſes, and no ende is there of their charrettes.

8 Their lande alſo is ful of vayne goddes, and before the woorke of their owne hands they haue bowed them ſelues, yea euen before the thing that their owne fingers haue made.

9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe (before them:) therfore forgeue them not.

10 Get thee into the rocke, and hyde thee in the grounde for feare of the Lord, and for the glorie of his maieſtie.

11 The high lookes of man ſhalbe brought lowe, and the hautineſſe of menne ſhalbe bowed downe: and the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hoſtes (ſhalbe) vpon al the proude, loftie, and vpon al that is exalted, and he ſhalbe brought lowe.

13 And vpon al high and ſtout Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon al the okes of Baſan, 14 And vpon al the hygh mountaynes, and C vpon al the high hylles,

15 And vpon euery hygh towre, and vpon euery fenced wal,

16 And vpon al the ſhippes of Tharſis, and vpon al pictures of pleaſure.

17 And the pryde of man ſhalbe brought downe, and the loftineſſe of menne ſhalbe made lowe, and the Lorde alone ſhalbe exalted in that day.

18 As for the idolles he ſhal vtterlye aboliſhe:

19 And they ſhal creepe into holes of ſtone, and into caues of the earth for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maieſtie, when he aryſeth to deſtroy (the wicked ones of) the earth.

20 In the ſelfe ſame day ſhal man caſt away his goddes of ſyluer, and his goddes of golde into the holes of Mowles and Backes, whiche he neuertheleſſe had made to hym ſelfe to honour them.

21 And they ſhal creepe into the cliftes of D the rockes, and into the toppes of the harde ſtones for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maieſtie, when he aryſeth to

to destroy (the wicked ones of) the earth.
22 Ceasse therfore from man, in whose nose thrilles there is breath: for wherein is he to be accompted of?

The. iii. Chapter.

I. The mischeefes that god sendeth on common weales for the contempt of his word. 14. The couetousnesse of rulers reproued. 16. The proude niceneſſe of women pounished to their shame.

Q 1 FOr loe, the Lorde God of hoastes dooth take away from Hierusalem and Juda al manner of stay, all stay of meate and drinke.
2 The captayne and the souldier, the iudge and the prophete, the (a) prudent and the aged man,
3 The captaine of fiftie and the honorable, the senatour, the cunning artificer, and the eloquent oratour.
4 And I shal geue children to be their princes, and babes shal rule ouer them.
5 And the people shal eche one of them violently oppresse another, and euery one agaynst his neighbour: The boy shall presume agaynst the elder, and the person of lowe degree agaynst the honourable.
6 Yea one shall take a freende of his owne kinrede by the bosome, and say, Thou hast clothyng, thou shalt be our head, and stay this ruine with thy hande.
B 7 Then shal he sweare and say, I can not helpe you: there is neyther meate nor cloathing in my house, make me no ruler of the people.
8 For Hierusalem and Juda must decay: because that both their woordes and counsailes are against the Lorde, to prouoke the presence of his maiestie to anger.
9 Their verye countenaunce bewrayeth them, yea they declare their owne sinnes (them selues) as Sodome, they hide it not: Wo be to their owne soules, for they haue rewarded euyl vnto them selues.
10 Say to the righteous that it shal goe well with them: for they shall eate the fruite of their owne studies.
11 (But) wo be vnto the wicked, for it shalbe euyl with him: for he shalbe rewarded after his owne woorkes.
12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceaue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footesteppes.
13 The Lord is here to commune of the matter, and standeth to iudge the people.
C 14 The lord shal enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, (and shal say to them,) It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the spoyle of the poore is in your houses.
15 What meane ye that ye bray (as in a morter) my people, and grinde the faces of the poore, sayth the Lorde God of hoastes?
16 Moreouer, the Lorde hath saide, Seeing the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, and walke with stretched foorth neckes, and wanton lookes, going and tripping nicely, and tinckling with their feete:
17 Therefore shal the Lorde shaue the heads of the daughters of Sion, and shall discouer their fylthynesse.
18 In that day shal the Lorde take away the gorgiousnesse of ỹ attyre about their feete, and the cawles, and the rounde tyres (after the fashion of the Moone,) 19 The sweete perfumes, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,
20 The bonnettes, and the sloppes, and the head bandes, and the tablets, and the earinges,
21 And rynges, and nose iewels,
22 The costly apparel, and the vayles, and D the wympples, and the crisping pinnes,
23 And the glasses, and the fyne linnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes.
24 And in steede of good smel, there shalbe stincke, and in steede of their girdle a rent, and for well set heare there shalbe baldnesse, in steade of a stomacher, a sackcloth, and (sunne) burnyng for beautie.
25 Thy men shal perishe with the swoorde, and thy valiant souldiers in the batayle (O Hierusalem.)
26 And her gates shal mourne and bewayle: and she beyng desolate, shal syt vppon the grounde.

The. iiii. Chapter.

I. The miserie of the stubburne. 3. A promise of Gods fauour to the residue.

1 IN that day seuen women shall take holde A of one man, sayeing, We wyl fynde our selues meate and apparel: only let vs be called by thy name, to take our shamefull reproofe (from vs.)
2 (a) In that day shal the budde of the lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shalbe excellent and pleasant for them that are escaped of Israel.
3 Then shal the remnaunt in Sion, and the remnaunt at Hierusalem be called holy: (namely) al suche as are written among the liuyng in Hierusalem.
4 (b) After that the Lord hath washt away the fylthynesse of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hierusalem

(a) The prudent, that is, suche as can foresee by their prudencie thinges to comme.

(a) The incarnation of Christe, is the ioy of the faithful.
(b) They are saued whose sinnes are remitted and washt away with the blood of Christe.

ſalem in the ſpirite of iudgement, and in the ſpirite of fyre.

5 And vpon al the dwellinges of the hilles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the Lorde ſhall create a cloude and ſmoke by day, and the ſhining of a flaming fyre by nyght: for al the (c) glory ſhalbe preſerued.

(c) Chriſte wyl preſerue and defende the glory, that is, the faithful in al troubles and temptations.

6 And there ſhalbe a tabernacle for a ſhadowe in the day time from the heate, and a ſafe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

The. v. Chapter.

1. Of Chriſte and his vineyarde, 8. with an execration of couetouſneſſe, 11. drunkenneſſe, 19. and contempt of gods word.

1 NOw wyl I ſyng my beloued freend, a ſong of my freende touching his vineyard. My beloued freend hath a vineyarde in a verye fruiteful plenteous grounde.

A

2 This he hedged, and geathered out the ſtones from it, & planted it with the choyſeſt vine: In the middeſt of it buylded he a towre, alſo made a wine preſſe therein: (a) and he looked that it ſhould bring him grapes, and it brought footh wild grapes.

(a) God looketh to receiue of his people the thankful fruites of fayth, & not the vnpleaſant woorkes of faythleſſe ingratitude.

3 Now O citezin of Hieruſalem, and man of Juda, iudge, I pray thee, betwixt me and my vineyarde.

4 What more coulde haue benne donne for it, that I haue not donne? Wherefore then hath it geuen wylde grapes, where I looked to haue hadde grapes of it?

5 Wel, now I ſhal tel you how I wyl doo with my vineyarde: I wyl take the hedge from it that it may periſhe, & breake downe the wall thereof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyl lay it waſte, it ſhal neither be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and bryers: I wyl alſo forbid the cloudes that they ſhal not rayne vpon it.

B 7 As for the vineyard of the lord of hoaſtes, it is the houſe of Iſrael: and the man of Juda, the plant of his pleaſure: Of theſe he looked for equitie, but ſee there is oppreſſion for ryghteouſneſſe, and loe it is a crying.

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one houſe to another, and bryng one lande ſo nygh vnto another, that there is no more place: Wyl ye be placed alone in the middeſt of the earth?

9 Theſe thinges are in the eares of the lord of hoaſtes: of a trueth great and fayre houſes ſhalbe without any dweller in them.

10 And tenne acres of vines ſhall geue but a quart, and thirtie buſſhelles of ſeede ſhal geue but an Epha.

11 Wo be vnto them that ryſe vp early to folowe drunkenneſſe, continuing vntil night, til they be ſet on fyre with wine.

12 In their feaſtes are harpes and lutes, tabretes and pipes, and wine: but they regarde not the woorke of the Lord, and conſyder not the operation of his handes.

13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, becauſe they haue no vnderſtandyng: (b) Their glory is famiſhed with hunger, and their multitude dryed vp with thirſte.

(b) Their glory, their noble & honorable perſonages.

14 Therefore gapeth hell and openeth her mouth marueylous wyde, that their glory, multitude, and wealth, with ſuche as reioyce in her, may deſcende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fall & is brought lowe, C and the high looke of the proude ſhalbe laid downe.

16 But the Lorde of hoaſtes ſhalbe exalted in iudgement, and god that is holy is ſanctifyed in righteouſneſſe.

17 Then ſhall the ſheepe eate as they were wont, and the riche mens waſtes ſhall (c) ſtraungers deuoure.

(c) Gods children, as though they were ſtraungers, miſerably dealt withal by thoppreſſion of the couetous, ſhal after a time repoſſeſſe & enioy the landes and goods, which the couetous oppreſſours ſhalbe conſtrayned to forſake and leaue as waſte.

18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickedneſſe with cordes of vanitie, and ſinne as it were with a cart rope.

19 Whiche vſe to ſpeake on this manner, Let him make ſpeede & haſten his woorke, that we may ſee it: let the counſayle of the holy one of Iſrael comme and drawe nigh, that we may knowe it.

20 Wo be vnto them that call euyl good, and good euyl, whiche make darkeneſſe lyght, and light darkneſſe, that make ſowre ſweete, and ſweete ſowre.

21 Wo be vnto them that are wyſe in theyr owne ſyght, and thinke them ſelues to haue vnderſtandyng.

22 Wo be vnto them that are ſtrong to ſuppe out wine, and expert menne to ſet vp drunkenneſſe.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue ſentence with the vngodlye for rewardes, but condempne the iuſt cauſe of the ryghteous. D

24 Therefore lyke as fyre licketh vp the ſtrawe, and as the flame conſumeth the ſtubble: euen ſo their roote ſhalbe as corruption, and their bloſſome ſhal vaniſhe away like duſt: for they haue caſt away the lawe of the Lorde of hoaſtes, and deſpiſed the woorde of the holye one of Iſrael.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lorde kyndled agaynſt his people, and hath ſtretched foorth his hande vppon them, yea he hath ſmytten them: and the hilles dyd tremble, and their carkaſes did lye ſtyne in the open ſtreetes: and in al this the wrath of God hath not ceassed, but his hand stretched out styl.

of

26 And he shal geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and shal hysse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and behold, they shal comme hastyly with speede.

27 There shal not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a sluggishe nor sleepie person: there shal not one of them put of his gyrdle from his loynes, nor lose the latchet of his shoe.

28 His arowes are sharpe, and al his bowes bent: his horse hookes are as flynt, and his carte wheeles lyke a whyrle wynde.

29 His crye is as it were of a lyon, and he roareth lyke lyons whelpes: they shal roare and haue the vp the pray, and no man shal recouer it, nor geat it from them.

30 In that day he shalbe so fierce vpon him, as the ragyng of the sea: then one shal beholde the (d) lande, and loe, darknesse and sorow, and the lyght is darkned in the heauens thereof.

(d) The land of Iuda shalbe ouerwhelmed with miserable affliction.

The. vi. Chapter.

Esai sawe the glory of the Lorde. 9. And was sent to prophesie the desolation of Iurie.

A 1 IN the yere that kyng Oziah dyed, I sawe also the Lorde sytting vpon an hygh and glorious seate, and his trayne filled the temple.

2 And about him stoode Seraphims, whereof one had syxe wynges, with twayne each couered his face, with twaine his feete, and with twayne dyd he flee.

3 They cryed also eache one to another on this manner: Holy, holy, holy is the Lorde of hostes, the whole earth is ful of his glory.

4 And the lyntels of the dooze cheekes moued at his crying, and the house was ful of smoke.

5 Then sayde I, Woe is me, for I am lost, in as muche as I am a man of vncleane lyppes, and dwel among people that hath vncleane lyppes also: for myne eyes haue seene the kyng the Lorde of hostes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauyng a hot cole in his hande, whiche he hadde taken from the aulter with the tongues,

(a) Gods sacramentes are not bare signes: but with the signe and the woorde, the matter signified, is exhibited to the faythful.

7 And layde it vppon my mouth, and sayde, Loe, (this) hath touched thy (a) lyppes, and thyne vnryghteousnesse shalbe taken away, and thy sinne forgeuen.

8 Also I hearde the voyce of the Lorde on this manner, Whom shal I sende, and who wyl be our messenger? Then I sayd, Here am I, sende me.

9 And he sayde, Goe and telle this people: Heare in deede, yet vnderstande not: see playnely, and yet perceyue not.

10 Harden the hart of this people, stop their eares, and shut their eyes: lest they see with their eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hartes, and conuert, and be healed.

11 Then spake I, Lorde, howe long? He answered, Until ỹ cities be vtterly wasted without inhabitantes, & the houses without men, & til the land be also vtterly desolate.

12 For the Lorde shal put the menne farre away, and (there shalbe) great waste in the myddest of the lande.

13 Yet in it shal succeede ten kynges, and it shal returne, and be afterwarde wasted: (But) as the Teyle tree, and the Oke in the fall of theyr leaues, haue yet the sappe remaynyng in them, (euen so,) the holye seede shalbe the stay thereof.

(b) Christe dwellyng by fayth in his electe, who seme as dead in the stormy tymes of this worlde, is to them life & stay that thei perishe not.

The. vii. Chapter.

The Syrians moue batayle agaynst Hierusalem. 14. A virgin shal beare a chylde.

A 1 IT happened in the tyme of Ahaz the sonne of Iotham, whiche was the sonne of Uziah kyng of Iuda, that Razin the kyng of Syria, and Pechah the sonne of Romeliah kyng of Israel, went vp toward Hierusalem to besiege it: but (Razin) was not able to wynne it.

(a) Dauids house, that is, Ahaz.

2 Now when the (a) house of Dauid heard woorde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate togeather, his hart quaked, yea, and the hartes also of his people, lyke as when the trees of the wood are moued with the wynde.

3 Then sayde God vnto Esai, Goe meete Ahaz, thou, and thy sonne Sear Iasub, at the head of the ouer poole, in the foote path by the Fullers grounde.

4 And say vnto hym, Take heede to thee selfe, and be styl, feare not, neyther be faynt harted: for these two tailes, that is, for these two smokyng fyrebrandes, the wrath and furiousnesse of Razin the Syrian, and Romelies sonne:

5 Because that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies sonne, haue wickedly conspired agaynst thee,

6 Sayeing, We wyl goe vp agaynst Iuda, vexe them, and bryng them vnder vs, and set a kyng there, euen the sonne of Tabel:

7 Thus sayth the Lorde God thereto, It B shal not so goe foorth, neyther so comme to passe.

8 For the head citie of the Syrians is Damascus, maſcus, but the head of Damaſcus is Razin: and after three ſcore and fiue yeres, ſhal Ephraim be no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but ẏ head of Samaria is Romelies ſonne: yf ye beleeue not, ſurely ye ſhal not be eſtabliſhed.

The Epiſtle on the anunciation of Marie.

10 Moreouer, God ſpake againe vnto Ahaz, ſayeing,

11 Require to thee ſelfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the depth beneath, or towarde the heygth aboue.

12 Then ſayde Ahaz, I wyl require none, neyther wyl I tempt the Lorde.

13 The prophete anſwered, Then heare ye of the houſe of Dauid: Is it not yenough for you that ye be greeuous vnto men, but ye muſt greeue my God alſo?

℣ 14 Therefore the Lorde hym ſelfe ſhal geue you a token: Beholde, a virgin ſhal conceyue and beare a ſonne, and ſhal cal his name Emmanuel.

15 Butter and hony ſhal he eate, vntyl he knowe to refuſe the euyl, and chooſe the good.

16 For or euer the chylde comme to knowledge to eſchewe the euyl and chooſe the good, the lande that thou ſo abhorreſt, ſhalbe deſolate of both her kynges.

17 The Lorde alſo ſhal ſende a tyme vppon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers houſe, ſuche as neuer came ſince the tyme that Ephraim departed from Juda, namely, through the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

18 For at the ſame tyme ſhal the Lord hyſſe for the flyes that are about the water of Egypte, and for the bees in the Aſſyrians lande.

19 Theſe ſhal comme, and ſhal lyght al in the deſolate valleyes, in the holes of ſtones, and vpon al thornie and buſhie places.

(b) The heare of the head, & the beard, the princes, and menne of authoritie, the feete, the common ſorte of people.

20 At the ſame time ſhal the Lord ſhaue the (b) heare of the head, and the feete, and the bearde cleane of, with the raſour that he hyre beyond the waters: namely, with the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

21 At the ſame tyme ſhal a man nourihe a young cowe, and two ſheepe.

22 Then becauſe of the abundance of milke that they geue, he ſhal eate butter: ſo that euery one whiche remayneth in the lande, ſhal eate butter and hony.

23 At the ſame tyme al vineyardes wherin there ſhalbe a thouſande vynes, worth a thouſande ſiluerlynges, ſhalbe turned to bryers and thornes.

24 They ſhal comme into the lande with arrowes and bowes, becauſe al the lande ſhal become bryers and thornes.

25 As for al hylles that ſhalbe dygged with the mattocke, there ſhal not comme vppon them any feare of bryers and thornes: but the cattel ſhalbe dryuen thyther, and the ſheepe ſhal feede there.

The. viii. Chapter.

The delyuerance of the lande by Emmanuel. 14. The ſtone of offence, at which many ſhal ſtumble.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and wryte in it as men dooth with a pen, Make haſtie ſpeede to rob, and haſte to the ſpoyle. A

2 And I called vnto me faythful witneſſes to recorde, Uriah the prieſte, and Zachariah the ſonne of Barachiah.

3 After that, went I vnto the prophetiſſe, & ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne: Then ſayd the Lorde to me, Geue hym his name, A ſpeedy robber, An haſtie ſpoyler.

4 For why? or euer the chylde ſhal haue knowledge to crye my father and mother, ſhal the riches of Damaſcus and the ſpoyle of Samaria be taken away before the king of the Aſſyrians.

5 The Lorde ſpake alſo vnto me agayne, ſayeing,

6 For ſo muche as this people refuſeth the ſtyl runnyng water of Silo, and put theyr delyght in Razin and Romelies ſonne:

7 Beholde, the Lord ſhal bring myghty and great fluddes of water vppon them, namely, the kyng of the Aſſyrians with al his power, whiche ſhal clymbe vp vppon al his fluddes, and runne ouer al his bankes, B

8 And ſhal breake in vppon Juda, he ſhal flowe and paſſe through, til he comme vp to the necke therof: he ſhal fil alſo the wyldernesſe of thy land with his wynges, O Emmanuel.

(a) Mans policie and deuice without God, preuaileth not.

9 Breake downe, O ye people, (a) and ye ſhalbe broken downe, hearken to, al ye of farre countreys, muſter you, and you ſhalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you ſhalbe torne in peeces.

10 Take your counſayle togeather, yet ſhal your counſayle come to nought: determine the matter, yet ſhal it not proſper: for God is with vs.

(b) Affiance is to be put in God, and not in mans policie or helpe.

11 For the Lord ſpake thus to me in a mighty prophelie, (b) and warned me that I ſhoulde not walke in the way of this people, ſayeing, 12 Ye ſhal not ſpeake (woordes) of conſpiracie in al thyngs when this people ſhal ſay conſpiracie: feare them not, neyther be afrayde of them.

13 But ſanctifie the Lorde of hoſtes, let hym hym be your feare and dread.

14 For he shalbe the holy place to flee to, and stone to stumble at, the rocke to fal vpon, a snare and net to both the houses of Israel, and the inhabitours of Hierusalem:

15 And many among them shal stumble, and fal, and be broken, yea they shalbe snared and taken.

(c) The wordes of Christ

16 (c) Bynde vp the testimonie, seale the lawe in my disciples.

17 And I wyl wayte vpon the Lorde that hydeth his face from the house of Jacob, and I wyl looke for him.

18 But lo, as for me and the children which the Lorde hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a wonder in Israel from the Lord of hostes whiche dwelleth vpon the hyl of Sion.

19 And yf they say vnto you, Aske counsel at the Soothsayers, Witches, Charmers, and Conjurers: (then make them this answeare,) Is there a people any where that asketh not counsayle at his God? shoulde men runne vnto the dead for the liuing?

(d) We must seke in gods worde what to folow, for in meanes without gods worde there is no lyght.

20 Geat thee to the (d) lawe, the testimony: and if they speake not after this word, there is no lyght in them.

21 And they shal wander through this lande hardly bestead and hungry, and when they suffer hunger, they wyl be out of patience, and curse their kyng and their God, and shal looke vpwarde and downewarde to the earth.

22 And behold, there is trouble and darkenesse, dymnesse is rounde about hym, and he shalbe driuen into darkenesse.

23 Neuertheless, the darkenesse shal not be suche as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the lande of Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, and afterwarde dyd more greeuously afflict her by the way of the sea beyonde Jordane in Galilee of the heathen.

The .ix. Chapter.

5. He prophecieth of Christes nativitie and dominion.

1 THe people that walked in darkenesse haue seene a great lyght: As for them that dwel in the lande of the shadowe of death, vpon them hath the lyght shyned.

2 Thou hast multiplied the people, and not increased their ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as men make mery in harvest, and they be ioyful, as men that do diuide the spoyle (after the victorie.)

3 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, the staffe of his shoulder, and the rod of his oppressour, as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery battayle that the warrier maketh is done with confused noyse, and defyling their garmentes with blood, (but this battayle) shalbe with burnyng and consuming of fyre.

5 For vnto vs a (a) chylde is borne, and vnto vs a sonne is geuen, vpon his shoulder doth the rule lye, " and he is called with his owne name, Wonderful, the geuer of counsel, the myghtie God, the euerlastyng father, the prince of peace.

(a) Christe his kyngdome and his names. Or, and his name shalbe called. Or, and (the holye ghost) shal cal his name.

6 He shal make no ende to encrease the rule and peace, & shal syt vpon the seate of Dauid, and in his kyngdome, to order the same, and to stablishe it with equitie and ryghteousnesse from hencefoorth for euermore: This shal the zeale of the Lorde of hostes bryng to passe.

7 The Lorde sent a worde into Jacob, the same is come into Israel. B

8 And al the people of Ephraim shal know, and they that dwel in Samaria that say with pryde and hygh stomackes (on this maner,)

9 The tyle worke is fallen downe, but we wyl builde it vp with squared stones: the Mulberie tymber is broken, but we wyl set it vp agayne with Cedar.

10 But the Lorde shal strengthen the enimies of Razin, and ioyne his aduersaries together agaynst hym.

11 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behynde, and shal deuour Israel with open mouth: After al this, is not the wrath of the Lorde ceassed, but yet his hand is stretched out styl.

12 For the people turneth not vnto hym that chastiseth them, neyther do they seeke the Lorde of hostes.

13 Therfore hath the Lord rooted out of Israel both head and tayle, bough and reede, in one day.

14 By the head is vnderstand the senatour and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preached lyes. C

15 For the guides of this people are deceiuers, and those that be gouerned are vtterly lost.

16 Therefore shal the Lorde haue no pleasure in their young men, neyther haue pitie of their fatherlesse and widowes: for they are altogeather hypocrites and wycked, and all their mouthes speake follye: After al this, is not the Lordes wrath ceassed, but yet his hande is stretched out styl.

17 For vngodlynesse burneth as a fyre, and shal shal it deuoure bryers and thornes, and it shal burne as in the thycket of wood, and (the wicked) aduaunce them selues, as the smoke is caryed vp.

18 Through the wrath of the Lord of hostes is the lande ful of darkenesse, and the people be consumed as it were with fyre: no man doth spare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the ryght hande, and doth famyshe, he eateth on the left hande, and he shal not haue ynough: euery man shal eate the flesshe of his owne arme.

20 Manasses (shal eate) Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasses, and they both togeather shal eate Iuda: After al this is not the Lordes wrath ceassed, but yet his hande is stretched out styl.

The .x. Chapter.

1. He threatneth the oppressours of the poore. 12. And prophecieth agaynst Sennacherib.

1 WO be vnto them that make vnryghteous lawes, and that causeth theyr actuaries to wryte greeuousnesse,

2 Wherthrough the poore are put from their right, and my seelie people robbed of iudgement, that wydowes may be theyr pray, and that they may rob the fatherlesse.

3 What wyl ye do in the time of visitation, and whē destruction shal come from farre? to whom wil ye runne for helpe? and where wyl you leaue your glorie?

4 That when I withdrawe my hande ye come not among the prysoners, nor lye among the dead? After al this doth not the wrath of the Lorde ceasse, but yet is his hande stretched out styl.

5 O Assur which art the staffe of my wrath, in whose hande is the rodde of mine indignation,

6 I wyl sende him among those hypocritishe people: among the people that haue deserued my displeasure wyl I sende hym: that he vtterly rob them, spoyle them, and treade them downe lyke the myre in the streete.

7 Howbeit, his meanyng is not so, neyther thynketh his hart on this fashion: but he imagineth howe he may roote out and destroy muche people.

8 For he sayth, Are not my princes al kynges?

9 Is not Chalno as easie to wynne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath then Arphad? or is it lighter to ouercome Damascus, then Samaria?

10 (As who say) I were able to winne the kingdomes of the idolaters and their gods, but not Hierusalem and Samaria.

11 Shal I not do vnto Hierusalem and her images, as I did vnto Samaria and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shal come to passe, that as soone as the Lorde hath perfourmed his whole worke vpon the hyl of Sion and Hierusalem, then wyl I visite the fruite of the stoute hart of the kyng of Syria, with his proude lookes.

13 For he standeth thus in his owne conceipt, This do I through my wisdome: for I am wise, I am he that remoue the landes of the people, I rob theyr treasure, & haue pulled downe the inhabitantes like a valiant man.

14 My hande hath founde out the strength of the people as it were a neast: and lyke as egges that were layde here and there are geathered togeather, so do I geather al countreys, and there was none (so bolde) as to moue the wyng, that dare open his mouth, or once whisper.

15 Shal the axe boast it selfe agaynst hym that heweth therewith? or shal the sawe make any braggyng agaynst hym that ruleth it? That were euen lyke as yf the rod did exalt it selfe agaynst hym that beareth it, or as though the staffe should magnifie it selfe (as who say) it were no wood.

16 Therefore shal the Lorde the GOD of hostes send among his fatlings leanesse, & burne vp his glory as it were with a fyre.

17 And the light of Israel shalbe that fyre, and his holy one shalbe the flambe: and it shal kyndle and burne vp as thornes and bryers in one day.

18 Yea al the glory of his woodes and feeldes shalbe consumed with body and soule, and they shalbe as an host of men, whose standarde bearer fayleth.

19 The trees also of his wood whiche remaine, shalbe of such a number, that a child may tel them.

20 After that day, shal the remnant of Israel, and suche as are escaped out of the house of Jacob, seeke no more comfort at hym that smote them: but vnfaignedly shal they trust vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Israel.

21 The remnaunt, euen the posteritie of Jacob, shal conuert vnto God the myghtie one.

22 For though thy people, O Israel, be as the sande of the sea, yet shal the remnaunt of them conuert vnto him: the decreed consumption ouerflowerth with righteousnesse.

23 And therefore the Lord of hostes shal perfectly fulfyl the thyng that he hath determined mined in the myddest of the whole worlde.

24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God of hostes, Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afrayde for the kyng of the Assyrians, he shal smyte thee with a rodde, and shal lyfte vp his staffe agaynst thee, as the Egyptians dyd sometyme.
25 But very soone after shal my wrath and indignation be fulfilled in the destruction of them:
26 Moreouer, the Lord of hostes shal stirre vp a scourge for hym, lyke as was ỹ slaughter of Madian vppon the rocke Oreb, and as the destruction of the Egyptians, when he lyfted vp his rodde vpon the sea.
27 Then shal his burden be taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the same yoke shalbe destroyed because of the vnction.
E 28 He shal come to Aiath, and goe through towarde Migron, at Michmas shal he lay vp his harnesse.
29 They shal goe ouer the foorde, Geba shalbe theyr reastyng place, Rhama shalbe afrayde, Gibea Saul shal flee away.
30 Lyft vp thy voyce, O daughter Gallim, geue eare to Laisa, thou poore Anathoth.
31 Madmena shal tremble for feare, but the citizins of Gabim are manly.
32 Yet shal he remaine at Nob that day: after that, shal he lyfte vp his hande agaynst the mount of the daughter Sion, the hyl of Hierusalem.
33 But see, the Lorde God of hostes shall breake downe the bough with feare, he shal hewe downe the proude, and fel the hygh mynded.
F 34 The thickets also of the wood shal be roote out with iron, and Libanus shal haue a fal through the myghty.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. He prophesieth of the nativitie of Christe, and of his people. 6. Of the remnant of Israel. 10. And of the fayth of the heathen or Gentiles.

A 1 AND there shal comme a spryng forth of the (a) stemme of * Jesse, & a young shoute shal growe out of his roote.
(a) Christe shalbe borne of the seede of Isai.
* or, Isai.
2 The spirite of the Lorde shal reast vppon hym, the spirite of wysedome and vnderstandyng, the spirit of counsayle & strength, the spirite of knowledge, and of the feare of the Lorde,
3 And shal make hym of deepe iudgemente in the feare of God: for he shal not geue sentence after the thyng that shalbe brought before his eyes, neyther reproue after the hearing of his eares:
4 But with righteousnesse shal he iudge the poore, and with equitie shal he reforme the simple of the worlde, and he shal smyte the world with the rodde of his (b) mouth, and with the breath of his mouth shall he slay the vngodly.
(b) The armour of Christe and of his kyngdome.
5 Ryghteousnesse shalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, and faythfulnesse the gyrdyng vp of his reynes.
6 The woolfe shal dwel with the lambe, & the leoparde shall lye downe by the goate, bullockes, lyons, and catayle, shal keepe company togeather, so that a litle chylde shal leade them.
7 The cowe and the beare shal feede togeather, & their young ones shal lye togeather: the lyon shal eate strawe lyke the oxe or the cowe.
8 The chylde whyle he sucketh, shal haue a desyre to the serpentes nest, and when he is weaned, he shal put his hande into the Cockatrice denne.
9 No man shal doo euyl vnto another, no man shal destroy another in al the hil of my holynesse: for the earth shalbe ful of the knowledge of the Lorde: euen as the sea floweth ouer with water.
10 And in that day shal the Gentiles enquire after the roote of * Jesse, whiche shalbe set vp for a token vnto the people, and his rest shalbe glorious.
* or, Isai.
11 At the same tyme shall the Lorde take in hande agayne to recouer the remnant of his people, whiche shalbe leaft alyue, from the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, Moorians, Elamites, Chaldees, Antiochians, and from the Ilandes of the sea.
12 And he shal set vp a token among the Gentiles, & geather togeather the dispearsed of Israel, yea, and the outcastes of Juda, from the foure corners of the worlde.
13 The hatred of Ephraim also, and enimies of Juda shalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim shal beare none euyl wyl to Juda, and Juda shal not vexe Ephraim.
14 But they both togeather shal flee vppon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the Weast, and spoyle them togeather that dwel towarde the East: the Idumites and the Moabites shal comme vnder their handes, and the Amonites shalbe obedient vnto them.
15 The Lorde also shal cleane the tongues (c) of the Egyptians sea, and with his myghty wynde shal he lyfte vp his hande ouer Nilus, and shal smyte his seuen streames, and make menne goe ouer drye shod.
(c) The tong, that is, the arme of the sea that hindereth the passage.
16 And thus shal there be a way for his people that remaineth from the Assyrians, like as it happened to the Israelites, what time

tyme they departed out of the lande of Egypt.

The.xii.Chapter.

4. The ſongue of the Churche, for the obteynyng of the victorie, and ouercommyng of the worlde.

A 1 AND in that day thou ſhalt ſay, O Lord, I wyl prayſe thee, for thou waſt diſpleaſed at me: but refrayne thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my ſaluation, in whom I wyl truſt, and not be afrayd: for the Lord God is my ſtrength and (my) ſongue, he alſo is become my ſaluation.

3 Therefore with ioy ſhal ye drawe water out of the welles of ſaluation:

4 And then ſhal ye ſay, Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, cal vppon his name, declare his woorkes among the people, keepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellent.

5 Sing prayſes vnto the Lorde, for he hath donne great thynges, as it is knowen in al the worlde.

6 Crye out, and ſing, thou that dwelleſt in Sion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the myddeſt of thee.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1. He propheſieth the deſtruction of Babylon, the captiuitie and the commyng againe of the people.

A 1 THis is the (a) burden of Babylon, whiche Eſai the ſonne of Amos dyd ſee.

(a) Burden, that is, the propheſie.

2 Lyft vp the banner vpon the hygh hyl, cal vnto them, wagge your hande, that they may goe into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue cõmaunded my ſanctified, I haue alſo called my valiant ones, ioying in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyſe of a multitude in the mountaynes, lyke as of a great people, a rushyng as though the kyngdomes of the nations came together: the Lord of hoſtes muſtereth his armie to batayle.

5 They comme out of a farre countrey from the ende of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym ſelf, with the miniſters of his wrath, to deſtroy the whole lande.

6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, and ſhal comme as a deſtroyer from the almyghty.

B 7 Therefore ſhall all handes be letten downe, and al mens hartes ſhal melt away.

8 They ſhal ſtand in feare, carefulneſſe, and ſorowe ſhal comme vppon them, and they ſhall haue payne as a woman that trauayleth with chyld: one ſhalbe abaſhed of another, and theyr faces ſhal burne lyke the flame of fyre.

9 Beholde, the day of the Lord ſhal comme terribly, and ful of indignation, furie and wrath, to make the land waſte, and to roote out the ſinners thereof.

10 For the ſtarres and planettes of heauen ſhal not geue her light, the ſunne ſhalbe darkened in the ryſyng, and the moone ſhal not ſhyne with her lyght.

11 And I wyll viſite the wickedneſſe of the worlde, and the ſinnes of the vngodly. The hygh ſtomakes of the proude wyl I take away, and wyl laye downe the boaſtyng of the tyrant.

12 I wyl make a man dearer then fine gold, and a man to be more worth then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I wyl ſhake the heauens, and the earth ſhall remooue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hoſtes, and in the day of his feareful indignation.

14 And (Babylon) ſhalbe as an hunted or C chaſed Doe, and as a ſheepe that no man taketh vp: euery man ſhal turne to his owne people, and flee eache one into his owne lande.

15 Who ſo is founde, ſhalbe ſhot through: and who ſo taketh theyr parte, ſhalbe deſtroyed with the ſwoorde.

16 Theyr chyldren ſhalbe ſlayne before theyr eyes: theyr houſe ſpoyled, and theyr wyues rauiſhed.

17 For loe, I ſhall bryng vp the Medes agaynſt them, which ſhal not regarde ſiluer, nor be deſirous of golde:

18 With bowes ſhal they deſtroy the young menne, and haue no pitie on women with chylde, and theyr faces ſhal not ſpare the chyldren.

19 And Babylon that glory of kingdomes, and beautie of the Chaldees honour ſhalbe deſtroyed, euen as God deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor.

20 It ſhal not endure for euer, neyther ſhal there be any more dwellyng there, from generation to generation: the Arabians ſhal pitch no tentes there, neither ſhal the ſheephearders make theyr foldes there any more.

21 But fearful wylde beaſtes ſhal lye there, D and the houſes ſhalbe ful of great Owles, Eſtriches ſhal dwel there, and Apes ſhal daunce there.

22 Wylde cattes ſhal crye in the palaces, & dragons ſhalbe in the pleaſant houſes: and as for Babylons tyme, it is at hande, and her dayes ſhal not be prolonged.

The

The.xiiii.Chapter.

I. The returne of the people from captiuitie, the prosperitie of the people of God, and affliction of theyr enimies. 13 The pryde of Babylon.

A 1 BVt the Lord wyl be mercyful vnto Jacob, and wyl yet choose Israel agayne, and set them in theyr owne land, strangers shal cleaue and geat them to the house of Jacob.

2 The people shal take them, and cary them home to theyr owne lande: and the house of Israel shal possesse them in the lande of the Lord, that they may be seruauntes and handmaydens: and they shal take those prisoners whose captiues they had ben before, and rule those that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe shal bryng thee to rest from thy trauel, feare, and hard bondage that thou wast laden withal:

4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vpon the kyng of Babylon, and say, Howe happeneth it that the oppressour leaueth of? Is the golden tribute come to an ende?

5 The Lorde hath broken the scepter of the vngodly, and the rodde of the lordly.

6 Whiche (rod) in anger smyteth the people with continual strokes, and in wrath raigneth ouer the nations persecuted without compassion.

B 7 And therfore the whole world is nowe at rest and quietnesse, and men syng for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Firre trees, and Cedars of Libanus, reioyce at thy fal, saying, Nowe that thou art layde downe, there come no moe vp to hewe downe vs.

9 Hel also beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy commyng, and for thy sake hath raysed his dead, al mightie men, and princes of the earth, al kinges of the earth stand vp from theyr seates,

10 That they may al answeare and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become lyke vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is laid downe into the pytte, and so is the melodie of thy instrumentes. Wormes be laid vnder thee, and wormes be thy couerynge.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer, thou fayre morning childe? Howe hast thou gotten a fal, euen to the grounde, which didst weaken the nations?

13 For thou saydest in thyne hart, I wyl climbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I wyl syt also vpon the mount of the congregation towarde the north.

C 14 I wyl climbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyl be lyke the highest of al.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to the deepe of hel, to the sides of the lake.

16 They that see thee, shal narowly loke vpon thee, and thinke in them selues, (saying,) Is this the man that brought al landes in feare, and made the kyngdomes afrayde?

17 (Is this he) that made the world in a manner waste, & layde the cities to the ground, which let not his prisoners go out?

18 The kynges of the nations lye euery one in his owne house with worship.

19 And thou art cast out of thy graue like a fylthy abominable branche, lyke as dead mens rayment that are shot through with the swoorde, and goe downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them: euen because that thou hast wasted thy lande, and destroyed thy people: the generation of the wycked shalbe out of memorie for euer.

D 21 Let there a way be sought to destroy theyr childzen that be in theyr fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp agayne to possesse the lande, and fyl the world ful of enimies.

22 I wyl stande vp agaynst them, sayth the Lord of hostes, and roote out the name and remnant, sonne, and sonnes sonne of Babylon, sayth the Lorde.

23 I wil geue it to the Otters, & wyl make water puddels of it, & I will sweepe them out with the bosome of destruction, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

24 The Lord of hostes hath swoorne an oth, saying, It shal come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfylled as I haue deuised, 25 So that the Assyrian shal I destroy in my lande, and vpon my mountaynes wyl I treade hym vnder foote, wherethrough his yoke shal come from them, and his burden shalbe taken from theyr shoulder.

26 This deuise hath God taken through the whole world, and this his hand is stretched out ouer al people.

27 For yf the Lorde of hostes determine a thyng, who is able to disanul it? And yf he stretche foorth his hande, who may turne it agayne?

E 28 The same yeere that king Ahaz dyed, was this burden:

29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rod of hym that beateth thee is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shal come an adder, and his fruite shalbe a fiery fleeyng worme.

30 But the firste borne of the poore shalbe fed, and the simple shal dwel in safetie: thy roote also wyl I destroy with hunger, & it shal shal slay the remnant.

31 Mourne thou porte, weepe thou citie, for, O whole lande of Palestina, thou art laid waste: for there shal come from the north a smoke, that not one alone may abyde at home in his tymes.

32 What shal one then answeare the messengers of the Gentiles? For the Lord hath stablished Sion, and the poore of his people that be therin shal put theyr trust in it.

The.xv.Chapter.
A prophesie agaynst Moab.

A 1 THis is the burden vpon Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed & ouerthrowen in the night season, Kir also in Moab was destroyed and perished in the nyght.

2 Moab went vp to the idols house, euen to Dibon to the high places to weepe: for Neba and Moab shal mourne for Medba. Al their heades were balde, & al theyr beardes shauen.

3 In her streetes are they girded about with sackcloth: in al the toppes of her houses and streetes shalbe nothing but mournyng and weepyng.

4 Hel bon and Eleale shal crye, that theyr voyce shalbe heard vnto Jahaz: and therfore the armed souldiers also of Moab shal bleate out and crye for very sorowe of their mindes.

5 Wo shal my hart be for Moabs sake, they shal flee vnto the citie of Zoar, whiche is like a fayre young bullocke of three yeeres olde, for they shal al goe vp to Luith weepyng: euen so by the way toward Horonaim they shal make lamentation for theyr vtter destruction.

B 6 For the waters of Nimrim shalbe dryed vp, by reason whereof the grasse is withered, the hearbes destroyed, and the greene thynges gone.

7 Therefore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the riches therof, they shal cary to the brooke of wyllowes.

8 For the crye went ouer the whole lande of Moab, vnto Eglaim, & vnto Beer Elim was there nothing but mourning.

9 Because the waters of Dimon were ful of blood, I wil adde more vpon Dimon: and Lions vpon the remnant of the lande, and on them that are escaped from Moab.

The.xvi.Chapter.
The destruction of Moab.

A 1 SEnde the Lord of the worlde a lambe from the rocke that lyeth towarde the desart, vnto the hyl of ỹ daughter Sion.

2 For as for the daughter of Moab they shalbe as a (a) trembling birde that is put out of her neast: for they shal cary them vnto Arnon.

3 Geather your counsel, come togeather in iudgement, couer vs with your shadowe in the midday, as the night doth hide the chased, and bewray not them that are fled.

4 Let my persecuted people dwel among you, Moab be thou theyr refuge agaynst the destroyer: for the aduersarie is brought to nought, the robber is vndone, the tyraunt is wasted out of the lande.

5 And in mercie shal the seate be prepared, and he shal syt vpon it in the trueth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudgyng and seeking iudgement, and makyng haste vnto ryghteousnesse.

6 We haue heard of the pryde of Moab, he is very proud, presumptuous, arrogant, and ful of indignation, and vayne are his lyes.

7 Therefore shal Moab make lamentation because of the Moabites (that shalbe slaine) yea they shal wayle altogeather: because of the fundations of the citie that is made of bricke shal ye complayne, euen ye lame people that are left only behynde.

8 For the vines of Helbon are cut downe: as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken downe her principall braunches, they are come euen vnto Jazer, they went on wanderyng vnto the wylderneſſe, her goodly braunches were throwen downe as they went ouer the sea.

9 Therefore wyl I mourne for Jazer, and for the vine of Sibma, I wyl powre my teares vpon thee, O Helbon and Eleale: for the crye of thine enimies is fallen vpon thy summer fruites, and vpon thy harueſt.

10 The mirth and cheare is taken away out of the plentiful feelde, and in the vineyardes there shalbe no ioy nor gladneſſe: the treader shal treade out no wine in theyr prestes, the song of theyr mery cheare haue I layde downe.

11 (b) Wherefore my bowels shal rumble lyke an harpe for Moabs sake, and myne inwarde partes for the cities sake that is made of bricke.

12 And it shal come to passe, that when it is seene that Moab shalbe made weerie of his hyl chappelles, he shal come to his temple to pray, (c) but he shall not be able.

13 So then, this is the saying that the Lord hath spoken concernyng Moab synce that tyme.

14 But nowe the Lord hath spoken, saying, In

(a) The careleſſe and obstinate deſpilers of timely repentance, moued by the preaching of gods worde, shal repent when it is to late.

(b) The superstitious & idolaters haue more trust in one idol and in some one place then in another: but al in vayne.

(c) Not be able through weerineſſe, or it shal not profite hym.

In thꝛee yeeres, which ſhalbe as the yeeres of an hyred ſeruant, ſhal the glozie of Moab be turned into contempt thꝛoughout al his multitude, whiche is very great: and that whiche remayneth, ſhalbe very ſmal and feeble.

The.xvii. Chapter.

A propheſie agaynſt Damaſcus.

A 1 THis is the burden vpon Damaſcus: beholde Damaſcus is taken away to be no mozе a citie, but ſhalbe an heꝛpe of bꝛoken ſtones.

2 The waſte cities of Aroer ſhalbe foldes foꝛ cattel whiche ſhal lye there, and there ſhalbe none to fꝛay them away.

3 Ephzaim alſo ſhal no mozе be ſtrong, and Damaſcus ſhal no longer be a kingdome, & the remnant of Syzia ſhalbe as the glozie of the chyldzen of Iſrael, ſayth the Lozd of hoſtes.

4 And in that day it ſhal comme to paſſe, that the glozie of Jacob ſhalbe made very thinne, and the fatneſſe of his fleaſhe ſhal waxe leane.

5 And he ſhalbe as one that geathereth vp cozne in harueſt, euen like him whoſe arme reapeth the eares of cozne: he ſhalbe alſo lyke him that geathereth eares of cozne in the valley of Rephaim.

B 6 Somme geatheryng in deede ſhal there be left in it, euen as in the ſhakyng of an Olyue tree there remayne two oꝛ thꝛee berries in the top of the vppermoſt bowe, and foure oꝛ fiue in the bꝛoade fꝛuiteful bꝛanches therof, ſayth the Lozde God of Iſrael.

7 Then ſhal man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes ſhal haue reſpect to the holy one of Iſrael.

8 As foꝛ the aulters whiche are his owne handy woozke he ſhal not regarde them, and the thyngs that his fingers hath made, as groues and images, thoſe ſhal he not caſt his eye vnto.

9 In that day ſhal their ſtrong cities be as the foꝛſaken ſhꝛubbes and bꝛanches, which they left becauſe of the chyldzen of Iſrael, and the lande ſhalbe deſolate.

10 Becauſe thou haſt foꝛgotten the God of thy ſaluation, and haſt not benne myndeful of thy ſtrong rocke: therefoꝛe ſhalt thou ſet pleaſant plantes, & ſhalt graffe the bꝛanche of another mans vine.

11 In that day ſhalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the mozнyng ſhalt thou make thy ſeede to floꝛiſh: the harueſt ſhalbe gonne in the day of inheritance, and there ſhalbe ſoꝛowe without hope of comfoꝛt.

12 Wo ſhalbe to the multitude of muche people, whiche ſhal make a ſounde lyke to the noyſe of the ſea, and the violence of the nations whiche ſhal rage lyke the ruſhyng in of many waters.

13 Euen lyke many waters ſhal the people rage, God ſhal rebuke hym, and he ſhal flee farre of, he ſhalbe chaſed away lyke as dꝛye ſtrawe vpon the mountaynes befoꝛe the wynd, and lyke a thing that turneth beſoꝛe the ſtoꝛme. C

14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and oꝛ euer it be mozнyng loe it is gonne: this is the poꝛtion of them that oppꝛeſſe vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

The.xviii. Chapter.

I. An exhortation to the Ethiopians and the countreys nygh adioynyng to them. 7. The vocation of the Gentiles.

1 OThat lande that trufleth vnder the ſhadow of wynges, (that lande) which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia, A

2 Sendyng meſſengers by the ſea, euen in veſſels of reedes ouer the water, Geat you hence ye ſpeedy meſſengers to a nation that is ſcattered abꝛoade, and robbed of that they had, a feareful people from their beginnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the fluddes haue ſpoyled.

3 Al the inhabiters of the woꝛlde, and indwellers of the earth looke vp when he ſetteth vp a token in the mountaynes, & hearken when he bloweth with the trumpe.

4 Foꝛ ſo the Lozd ſayde vnto me (as for me) I wyl take my reſt, and loke vpon the matter in my habitations, lyke a fayꝛe heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueſt.

5 Foꝛ afoꝛe the harueſt when the bꝛanche is growen, there ſhal comme ripe fruite of the floure: and he ſhal cut downe the increaſe with ſithes, and the bꝛanches ſhal he take away with hookes.

6 Thus ſhal they be left togeather vnto the foules of the mountaynes, & to the beaſtes of the earth: foꝛ in ſommer the birdes ſhal remayne vpon it, & euery beaſt of the lande ſhalbe vpon it in winter. B

7 In ỹ tyme ſhal there a preſent be bꝛought vnto the Lozde of hoſtes, euen a people that is ſcattered abꝛode and robbed of that they had, that ſame people whiche haue benne feareful from their begynning hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle & litle, whoſe land the fluddes haue ſpoyled, to the place of the name of the Lozde of hoſtes, euen to the mount Sion.

The.xix.Chapter.

I. He propheſieth againſt Egypt, 18. and the vocation of the Gentiles to Chriſte.

A 1 THE burden of Egypt. Beholde the Lorde rydeth vpon a ſwift cloude, and ſhal comme into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt ſhal tremble at the preſence of him, and the hart of Egypt ſhal quake in the myddeſt of her.

2 And I wyl ſet the Egyptians one againſt another, ſo that one brother ſhal fyght agaynſt another, and one neyghbour agaynſt another, citie againſt citie, and realme agaynſt realme.

3 The mynde alſo of Egypt ſhalbe cleane without counſayle within it ſelfe, and the deuice that they take wyl I deſtroy: and they ſhal ſeeke counſel at idols and at ſorcerers, at wourkers with ſpirites, and at ſoothſayers.

4 And the Egyptians wyl I geue ouer into the hande of a marueylous cruel lorde, and a myghtie kyng ſhal haue dominion ouer them, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

5 The waters of the ſea ſhal fayle, and the riuer ſhal decreaſe and be dryed vp.

B 6 The waters ſhalbe drawen out, the riuers of Egypt ſhalbe emptyed and dryed vp, the reedes & flagges ſhalbe cut downe.

7 The graſſe in the riuer and by the riuers bancke, and al that groweth by the ryuer, ſhal wither away, & be brought to nought.

8 The fiſhers alſo ſhal mourne, and al they that caſt angle into the water ſhal make lamentation: and they that lay foorth their net beſide the waters ſhalbe rooted out.

9 Moreouer, they that wourke in flaxe and make fine wourkes ſhalbe confounded, and ſo ſhal they that weaue open wourkes.

10 For their open wourkes ſhal euen be deſtroyed, and al they that make pondes and ſlues for fiſhe ſhal comme to nought.

11 But you fooliſh princes of Zoan, ye wyſe counſaylers of Pharao, whoſe wit is turned to fooliſhneſſe, howe ſay ye vnto Pharao, I am comme of wyſe menne and of ancient kynges?

12 Where are thy wyſe menne? Let them tel thee yf they can, what the Lord of hoſtes hath deuiſed vpon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue deceiued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the cheefe ſtay thereof.

C 14 In the middeſt of it hath the Lord powred the ſpirite of wickednelle: and they haue deceiued Egypt in euery worke therof, euen as a drunken man ſtaggereth in his vomite.

15 Neyther ſhal the (a) head or tayle, the branche or reede be able to doo any wourke in Egypt.

16 In that day ſhal Egypt be lyke vnto women: it ſhalbe afrayde and ſtande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoſtes whiche he ſhaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt ſhalbe afrayde of the lande of Iuda: ſo that euery one that maketh mention of it ſhalbe afrayde thereat, becauſe of the counſayle of the Lorde of hoſtes whiche he deuiſed for it.

18 In that day ſhal fiue cities in the lande of Egypt ſpeake the language of Chanaan, and ſweare by the Lorde of hoſtes: the citie of deſolation ſhalbe called one of thē.

19 In that day ſhal the aulter of the Lorde be in the middeſt of the land of Egypt, and this title beſyde it vnto the Lorde.

20 And it ſhalbe a token and a witneſſe vnto the Lord of hoſtes in the land of Egypt: for they ſhal crye vnto the Lorde becauſe of ſuche as trouble them, and he ſhal ſende them a ſauiour and a great man to deliuer them.

21 And the Lord ſhalbe knowen in Egypt, D and the Egyptians ſhal knowe the Lorde in that day, and doo ſacrifice and oblation: yea they ſhal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and perfourme it.

22 The Lorde alſo ſhal ſmyte Egypt ſore, and heale them agayne: and they ſhalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he ſhalbe intreated of them, and ſhal heale them.

23 In that day ſhal there be a common way out of Egypt into Aſſyria, and Aſſyria ſhal comme into Egypt, and Egypt into Aſſyria: ſo that the Egyptians & the Aſſyrians ſhal ſerue the Lorde togeather.

24 In that day ſhal the nation of Iſrael be the thirde with Egypt and Aſſyria: and they ſhalbe bleſſed in the myddeſt of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoſtes hath bleſſed, ſayeing, Bleſſed is my people of Egypt, Aſſur alſo is the wourke of my handes, and Iſrael is myne inheritance.

(a) By the head and branche are ment the honorable and cheefeſt of the lande: by the tayle and reede, the multitude & lower ſort of people.

The.xx.Chapter.

Againſt Egypt and Ethiopia.

1 IN the yeere that Tharthan came vnto A Aſdod, when Sargon the king of Aſſyria had ſent him, and had fought againſt Aſdod, and taken it:

2 At the ſame tyme ſpake the Lorde by the hande of Eſai the ſonne of Amos, ſayeing, Go & take of the ſackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy ſhoe from thy foote. And he dyd ſo, walkyng naked and barefoote.

3 And

3 And the Lorde ſaide, Like as my ſeruant Eſai hath walked naked and barefoote for a ſigne and woonder three yeeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen ſo ſhal the king of Aſſyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia chyldren and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great ſhame of Egypt.

5 They ſhalbe brought in feare alſo, and be aſhamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt wherein they are wont to glory.

6 And they that dwel in the ſame Iſle ſhal ſay in that day, Beholde ſuche is our hope, whyther ſhal we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the king of Aſſyria: and howe ſhal we eſcape?

The.xxi.Chapter.

Agaynſt Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

A 1 The burden of the (a) waſte ſea. Euen as the ſtormie weather paſſeth through at the noone day from the wildernesſe, ſo ſhal it comme from the terrible lande.

(a) The waſt ſea is Babylon or Chaldee.

2 A greeuous viſion was ſhewed vnto me: let one deceitful offendour comme agaynſt another, and one deſtroyer agaynſt another: vp Elam, lay ſiege thou of Media, al their groning haue I layde downe.

3 Therefore are my loynes fylled with ſorowe, heauineſſe hath taken hold vpon me, as the panges of a woman that is trauayling: it made me ſtoupe when I hearde it, and it vexed me when I ſawe it.

4 My hart panted, fearefulneſſe came vpon me: the night of my voluptuouſneſſe hath he turned agaynſt me into feare.

5 Whyle they garniſhed the table, the watchman looked: and whyle I was eating and drinkyng, it was ſaid, Vp ye captaynes, take you to your ſhielde.

6 For thus hath the Lorde ſaide vnto me, Goe and ſet a watchman to tel what he ſeeth.

B 7 And he ſawe a charret whiche two horſemen ſate vpon, with the caryage of an aſſe, and the caryage of a camel: ſo he looked, and tooke diligent heede.

8 And he cryed, A lion, my Lorde, I ſtande continually vppon the watch towre in the day time, and am appoynted to keepe my watche euery night.

9 And beholde, here commeth a charret of men with two horſemen, and he anſwearing and ſaide, Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and al the images of her goddes hath he ſmitten downe vnto the grounde.

10 Thou art he whom I muſt threſhe, and thou belongeſt to my corne floure: this that I hearde of the Lorde of hoaſtes the GOD of Iſrael, haue I ſhewed vnto you.

11 The burden of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman what haſt thou eſpied by nyght, watchman what haſt thou eſpied by nyght?

12 The watchman ſaide, The morning commeth, and ſo doth the night: yf ye wil aſke me any queſtion, then aſke it: returne and comme agayne.

13 The burden concerning Arabia. In the woodes of Arabia ſhal ye tary al nyght, euen in the ſtreetes of Dedanim.

C 14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema brought forth water to hym that was thirſtie, they preuented him that was fled away with their bread.

15 For becauſe of ſwordes they are become fugitiue, euen for the drawen ſworde, and for the bent bowe, and becauſe of the greeuouſneſſe of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto me, There is yet a yeere, accordyng to the yeeres of an hyred ſeruant, and al the glory of Cedar ſhal fayle.

17 And the number of them that ſhal eſcape from the bowes, ſhalbe miniſhed by the myghty chyldren of Cedar: for the Lorde God of Iſrael hath ſpoken it.

The.xxii.Chapter.

A prophecie agaynſt Hieruſalem.

A 1 The burden of the (a) valley of viſion. What haſt thou to doo here, that thou climbeſt to the houſe toppes?

(a) Hieruſalem is ment by the valley of viſion.

2 Thou that art full of tumultuouſneſſe, thou troubleſome and proude citie: thy ſlayne men are neyther put to death with the ſworde, nor dead in batayle.

3 Al thy captiues are fugitiue together, the archers haue taken them priſoners: al they I ſay that are founde in thee, are in captiuitie togeather, and they alſo that fledde farre of.

4 Therefore ſayde I, Let me alone, and I wyl make lamentation: ye ſhal not be able to comfort me becauſe of the deſtruction of the daughter of my people. Luke.19.k. Iere.9.a.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of deſtruction, that the Lorde the God of hoaſtes wyl bryng to paſſe in the valley of viſion, breaking downe the citie, and crying vnto mountaynes.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charret of footemen and horſemen, and the citie of Kir ſhewed the ſhielde open.

7 The cheefe valley alſo was ful of charrettes, and the horſemen ſet their faces directly rectly towarde the gate.

8 And in that day dyd the enimie take away the coner of Juda, & then didst thou looke towarde the (b) armour of the house of the forest.

(b) The armourie that Solomon made and furnished with munition. 1.king.7.

9 Ye haue seene also the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye geathered togeather the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houses of Hierusalem ye haue numbred them, and the houses haue ye broken downe, to make the wal strong.

11 A pit also haue ye made betweene the two walles for the waters of the olde poole, (c) and haue not regarded the maker thereof, neyther had respect vnto him that fashioned it long agoe.

(c) The Lord doorh not forbyd to make prouision of sure defence agaynst the enimies, so that our trust be put in hym, and not in our fortresses and strong holdes.

12 And in that day dyd the Lorde GOD of hoastes call men vnto weeping and mourning, to baldnesse and girding about with sackcloth.

13 And behold, they haue ioy and gladnesse, slaying oxen, and killyng sheepe, eatyng fleashe, and drinking wine: let vs eate and drinke, for to morowe we shal dye.

14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoastes, This iniquitie shal not be purged from you till ye dye, sayth the Lorde God of hoastes.

℣ 15 Thus sayth the lord God of hoastes, Geat ye vnto yonder treasurer, euen vnto Sebna, whiche is the ruler of the house.

16 What hast thou to doo here? and whom hast thou here? that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchre, as it were one that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, or that graueth an habitation for him selfe on an harde rocke?

Esai.36.a.

17 Beholde, O thou man, the Lorde shal cary thee away into captiuitie, and shal surely couer thee with confusion.

18 The Lord shal turne thee ouer lyke a ball with his handes (and shal sende thee) into a farre countrey: there shalt thou dye, and there in steede of the charrets of thy pompe shal the house of thy Lorde haue confusion.

19 I wyl driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwellyng shal he ouerthrowe thee.

20 And in that day shal I call my seruant

℣ Eliakim the sonne of Helkia:

21 And with thy garmentes wyl I clothe him, and with thy girdle wyl I strength him: thy power also wyl I commit into his hande, and he shalbe a father of suche as dwel in Hierusalem, and in the house of Juda.

Iob.12.b. Apoc.3.b.

22 And the key of the house of Dauid wyl I lay vpon his shoulder: so that he shal open and no man shut, he shal shut and no man open.

23 And I wyl fasten him as a nayle in a sure place, and he shalbe the glorious seate of his fathers house.

24 Moreouer, al generations and posteritie shal hang vppon him al the glorye of their fathers house, al vessels both great and smal, and al instrumentes of measure and musicke.

25 In that day, sayth the Lorde of hoastes, shal the nayle that is fastened in the sure place, depart and be broken, and fal: and the burden that was vpon it shalbe pluckt away, for so the Lorde hath spoken.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

1. A prophecie agaynst Tyrus, 17 and a promise that it shalbe restored againe.

1 THe burden of Tyre. Mourne ye ships of Tharsis, for there commeth suche destruction, that ye shal not haue an house to enter into, and that there shalbe no traffike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague. A Ezech.25.a

2 Be stil ye that dwel in the Ile, the marchantes of Sidon, and suche as passe ouer the sea haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, and the fruites of the riuer were her victualles, so that it became a common mart of nations.

4 Be ashamed thou Zidon: for the (a) sea, euen the strength of the sea hath spoken, sayeing, I haue not trauayled nor brought forth children, nor nourished vp young men, or brought vp virgins.

(a) By the sea and the strength of the sea, is meant Tyrus

5 When tydinges commeth to the Egyptians, they shalbe sory for the rumour of Tyre.

6 Geat you to Tharsis, mourne you that dwel in the Ile.

7 Is not this that glorious citie of yours, whiche hath benne of olde antiquitie? her owne feete shall cary her forth to be a so- ℣ iourner into a farre countrey.

8 Who hath deuised this agaynst Tyre that (b) crowneth her selfe? whose marchantes are princes, and whose factours are honorable in the worlde.

(b) That crowneth her selfe, that is, whiche boasted her selfe to be as it were the Queene of all cities on the sea coast.

9 Euen the Lorde of hoastes hath deuised this, to put downe the pride of al suche as be glorious, and to minishe al them that be proude vpon the earth.

10 Geat thee out of thy lande like a flood vnto the daughter of Tharsis, for thou hast no more strength.

11 He that smote the kingdomes togeather, holdeth out his hande ouer the sea: euen the Lord him selfe hath geuen a commaun-

dement

vement agaynst the same common place of marchandise, that they shal vtterly destroy the myght thereof.

12 And he sayd, Make no more thy boast O virgin thou daughter Zidon, thou shalt be brought downe: vp, goat thee ouer vnto Cittim, where nenertheless thou shalt haue no rest.

13 Beholde, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great shyppes: they set vp the strong holdes thereof, and destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.

C 14 Mourne ye shippes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe.

15 And in that day shal Tyre be forgotten seuentie yeeres, according to the yeeres of one king: and after the ende of seuentie yeeres shal Tyre sing as dooth an harlot.

16 Take an harpe and goe about the citie thou harlot that hast benne forgotten, make sweete melodie, sing mo songues, that thou mayest be had in remembrance.

17 And after the ende of the seuentie yeeres shal the Lorde visite Tyre, and she shal conuert vnto her reward, and shal commit fornicatiõ with al the kyngdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupying also and their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaynes shal not be layde vp nor keapt in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwel before the Lorde, that they may eate yenough, and haue clothyng sufficient.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

A prophecie of tribulation to comme vpon the worlde because of sinne.

A 1 BEholde, the Lorde maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpside downe, and scattereth abrode the inhabitours thereof.

2 And the priest shalbe as the people, and the maister as the seruant, the mistresse like the mayde, the seller lyke the byer, he that lendeth vpon vsurie, lyke hym that borowe-eth vpon vsurie, the creditour as the dettour.

3 The lande shalbe cleane wasted and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lorde hath spoken.

4 The earth is sory and consumeth away, the worlde is feeble & perisheth, the proude people of the earth are comme to nought.

5 The earth also is become vnpossible vnder the inhabiters thereof, whiche haue transgressed the lawes, changed the ordinance, broken the euerlasting couenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwel therin are fallen into trespasse: Wherfore the inhabitours of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe menne are leaft behynde.

7 The wine fayleth, the vine hath no might, al they that haue benne merie of hart are B comme to mournyng.

8 The myrth of tabrets is layde downe, the noyse of suche as haue made merie is ceassed, the ioy at the harpe is at an ende.

9 They shal drinke no more wine with mirth, strong drinke shalbe bitter to them that drinke it.

10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man may comme in.

11 In the streetes is there a cryeing because of wine, al cheare is vanished away, the mirth of the lande is gonne.

12 In the citie is leaft desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 For in the middes of the land, euen amõg the people, it shal comme to passe as at the shakyng of olines, and as the grapes are when the wyne harueft is donne.

14 They shal lift vp their voyce, and make C a merie noyse: and in magnifiyng of the Lorde shal they crye out of the west.

15 Wherfore prayse ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lord God of Israel in the Iles of the sea.

16 From the vttermost part of the earth haue we hearde prayses and mirth, because of the ryghteous: and I sayde, I knowe a thing in secrete, I knowe a thyng in secrete, wo is me: the transgressours haue offended, the transgressours haue greeuously offended.

17 Fearefulnesse, the pit, and the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on ỹ earth.

18 It wyl comme to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the feareful noyse, shal fal into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the pit, shalbe taken with the snare: for the windowes from on hygh are open, and the foundations of the earth are moued.

19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore ruine, the earth quaketh exceedyngly:

20 The earth shal reele to and fro lyke a dronkarde, and shalbe remoued lyke a tent, and the iniquitie therof shalbe heauie vpon it, it shal fal, and not ryse vp agayne.

21 And in that day shal the Lorde visite the D host aboue that is on hygh, and the kynges of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they shalbe geathered togeather as they that be in pryson, and they shalbe shut vp in warde, and after many dayes shal they be visited.

23 The moone shalbe abashed, and the sunne Luke. 21. 8 ashamed, when the Lorde of hostes shal raigne in mount Sion and in Hierusalem with worshyp, and in the syght of suche as shalbe of his counsel.

The.xxv.Chapter.

I. A thankesgeuyng to God for his woorkes.

A 1 THOV art my Lorde my God, I wyl magnifie thee, I wyl geue thankes vnto thy name, for thou hast brought wōderful thinges to passe, accordyng to thyne olde counsels truely and faythfully.

Esai.26.a 2 Thou hast made a citie a heape of stones, and brought a strong towne into decay: the habitation of strangers hast thou made to be no citie, nyther shal it be buylded any more.

3 Therefore shal the myghtie people geue glorie vnto thee, the citie of the valiant Heathen shal feare thee.

4 For thou hast benne a strength vnto the poore, and a succour for the needy in his trouble, a refuge agaynst euyl weather, a shadowe agaynst the heate: for the blast of raging mennе is lyke a storme that casteth downe a wal.

5 Lyke as the heate in a drye place wasteth al thinges: so shalt thou suppresse the noyse of aliantes, the heate (is abated) with the shadowe of the cloude (euen so shal God) asswage the noyse of the cruel tyrantes.

Luke.14.d 6 And in this mountayne shal the Lorde of hostes make vnto al people a feast of plenteous & delicate thinges, euen of most pleasant and dayntie dishes.

B 7 And in this mountayne shal the Lorde destroy the couerynge that al people are wrapped in, and the hangyng that is spread vpon al nations.

Osee.13.c Apoc.7.c and.21.c 1.Cor.15.f 8 As for death he hath destroyed it for euer, and the Lorde God shal wype away teares from al faces, and the rebuke of his people shal he take away out of al the earth, for so the Lorde hath sayde.

Ephes.2.a 9 And in that day it shalbe sayd, Loe this is our God, we haue wayted for hym, and he shal saue vs, this is the Lorde in whom we haue hoped, we wyl be merie and reioyce in the saluation (that commeth) of hym.

10 For in this mountayne shal the hande of the Lorde ceasse, and Moab shalbe threshed vnder him, euen as strawe is troden to doung on the dounghyl.

11 And he shal stretche out his hande in the middes of them, as he that swimmeth casteth out his handes to swimme: and with the strength of his handes shal he bring downe their pryde.

12 The strong holde also and defence of thy walles hath he ouerthrowen & cast downe, and brought them to the grounde, euen vnto dust.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

I. A song of deliuerance of the people.

1 IN that day shal this song be song in the lande of Juda, We haue a strong citie, saluation shal God appoynt in steede of walles and bulwarkes. A Prou.18.c Zach.2.a.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous people which keepeth the trueth may enter in. Psal.118.b.

3 By an assured purpose wylt thou preserue perfect peace, because they put their trust in thee. Rom.5.a

4 Put ye your trust alway in the Lord: for in the Lorde God there is strength for euer more.

5 For he hath brought downe the high minded citizens: as for the proude citie he hath brought it lowe, euen to the ground shal he cast it downe, and bryng it vnto dust. Esai.25.a

6 The foote, euen the foote of the poore, and the steppes of suche as be in necessitie shal treade it downe.

7 The path of equitie wylt thou grant vnto the iust (O thou most righteous) thou shalt order the path of hym that is ryghteous. B Prou.6.a Jere.10.d

8 Yea in the way of thy iudgementes, O Lorde, haue we put our trust in thee: thy name also and the remembrance of thee, is the thing that our soule longeth for.

9 My soule hath longed for thee al ỹ night, and with my spirite whiche is within me wyl I seeke thee early in the morning: for when thy iudgements are in the earth, the inhabitours of the worlde shal learne ryghteousnesse. Psal.63.a and.143.a

10 Shal the vngodlye man be fauoured, whiche hath not learned ryghteousnesse, but dooth wickedly in the earth, where nothyng ought to be donne but that whiche is righteous: he shal not see the glory of the Lorde.

11 Lorde, when thy hand is lift vp to strike, they see it not: but they shal see it, and be confounded with the zeal of the people, and the fyre that consumeth thyne enimies shal deuoure them.

12 Lorde vnto vs thou shalt prouide peace: for thou also hast wrought al our woorkes in vs. Phil.2.a

13 O Lorde our God, other lordes beside thee hath subdued vs: but we wyl be mindful onely of thee, and of thy name.

14 The dead wyl not lyue, they that be out of lyfe wyl not ryse agayne, therefore hast C thou thou visited and rooted them out, and destroyed al the memorie of them.

15 Thou hast increased the people, O Lord, thou hast increased the people, thou art glorious, thou hast sent them farre of vnto al the coastes of the earth.

Leuit.26.g. 16 Lorde, in trouble haue they visited thee, they powred out their prayer when thy chastenyng was vpon them.

Iohn.16.c. 17 Like as a woman with childe that draweth nigh towardes her trauayle, is sory and cryeth in her paines: euen so haue we ben in thy syght, O Lorde.

Rom.8.d. 18 We haue benne with childe and suffered paine, as though we had brought forth winde: for there is no saluation in the earth, neither doo the inhabiters of the worlde submit them selues.

1. Cor.6.d. 19 Thy dead men shal liue, euen as my body shal they rise againe: awake and syng ye that dwel in dust, for thy deawe is euen as the deawe of herbes, and the earth shal cast out them that be vnder her.

Gene.10.c. 20 Comme my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doores about thee, hyde thee selfe for a litle whyle, vntil the Apoc.6.a. indignation be ouerpast.

Miche.1.a. 21 For beholde, the Lorde is comming out of his place, to visite the wickednesse of suche as dwel vppon earth: the earth also shal disclose her blooddes, and shal no more hyde them that are slayne in her.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

A prophecie of the comming of Christe, and destruction of idolatrie.

A 1 IN that day the Lorde with his soare, great, and mighty swoorde, shal visite (a) Leuiathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked serpent, and he shal slay the dragon that is in the sea.

(a) Leuiathan the greatest of fisshes in the sea, is meant the kyngdome of Satan, and the myghty tyrantes of the worlde, enimies to Christe, and persecutours of his religion.

2 In that day see that ye sing of the congregation which is the vineyarde that bryngeth forth the best wine:

3 Euen I the Lord doo keepe it, in due seasons shal I water it: and lest the enimie doo it any harme, I wyl both nyght and day preserue it.

4 There is no displeasure in me, els when the vineyarde bringeth me forth bryers and thornes, I would goe through it by warre, and burne it vp togeather.

5 Let it take holde of my (b) strength, and it shalbe at one with me, euen at one shal it be with me.

(b) God calleth his woorde his strength, because therby he winneth men, and bindeth them vnto him selfe.

6 The dayes are comming that Iacob shal take roote, Israel shalbe greene and florishe, and the worlde shalbe fylled with fruite.

7 Hath he smitten him as soare as he dyd the other that smote him? Or is he slayne with so soare a slaughter as they that slue hym.

8 Thou wylt ponnishe it in the braunches, B yet not beyond measure: for in the day that the east winde bloweth soare, it taketh away the fruites.

9 By this meanes therefore shal the iniquitie of Iacob be purged, and this is al the fruite (namely) the (c) takyng away of his sinne, yf he make al the stones of the aulter of idols as chalke stones that are beaten in sunder, that their groues and images ryse not vp agayne.

(c) God vseth afflictions, as meanes to call men to repentance, wherevpon foloweth forgeueneesse of sinnes.

10 Els shal the strong citie be desolate, and the habitation forsaken and left like a wildernesse: there shal the Calfe feede, and there shal he lye, and eate vp the graffes thereof.

11 When the braunches of it are drye they are broken of, and the women come and set them on fyre: for it is a people of no vnderstandyng, and therefore he that made them shal not fauour them, and he that created them shal geue them no grace. Deut.32.b.

12 And in that day shal the Lorde make a threshing from the middes of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Israel shalbe geathered togeather one to another.

13 In that day shal the great trumpe be blowen, so that they whiche were lost in the lande of Assyria, and they that were banished in the lande of Egypt, shal come and woorshyp the Lorde in the holy mount of Hierusalem.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1. Agaynst the pride of Ephraim, 9. and agaynst false priestes and preachers.

1 VVO be vnto the crowne of pride, A euen to the drunken people of Ephraim, whose great pompe is as Deut.3.a. a floure that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of suche as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine.

2 Beholde, there commeth a vehement and Mat.16.c. soare day from the Lorde, like an vnmeasurable hayle and perilous tempest, euen lyke the force of mighty & horrible waters that violently beareth downe al thinges.

3 The crowne of the pride of the drunken Ephraemites shalbe troden vnder foote.

4 So that the floure of his fairenesse and beautie whiche is in the head of the valley of fatnesse, shal fade away as dooth an vntymely ripe fygge before harnest: whiche when a man espyeth, he loketh vpon it, and whyle it is yet in his hande he eateth it vp.

5 In that day shal the Lorde of hoastes be the crowne of glory and diamonde of beautie vnto the residue of his people.

6 He wyl be also a spirite of perfect knowledge to him that sitteth in iudgement, and strength vnto them that turne away the batayle to the gate (of the enimies.)

B 7 But they are out of the way by reason of wine, yea farre out of the way are they thorowe strong drinke: the priest also and the prophete are gonne astray by the meanes of strong drinke, they are drunken with wine, they goe amisse through strong drinke, they fayle in prophecying, and stumble in iudgement.

Esai.3.c.

8 For al tables are ful of vomit and filthynesse, that no place is cleane.

9 Whom then shal suche one teache knowledge? and whom shal he make to vnderstande the thing that he heareth? for they are as ignorant as young children that are taken from the milke, and are weaned.

Esai.10.a. Mat.23.a. 10 For they that be suche, must take after one lesson, another lesson, after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after on instruction, another instruction, there a litle, and there a litle.

11 For he that speaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vseth rudenesse of speache, and a straunge language.

12 If any man say vnto them, Loe, this is the rest wherewith ye may ease him that is weery, this is the refreashing: they wyl not hearken.

1.Cor.14.c. 13 Therefore shal the woorde of the Lorde be vnto them lesson vpon lesson, commaundement vpon commaundement, rule vpon rule, instruction vpon instruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may goe on and fal backwarde, be bruised, tangled, and snared.

14 Wherefore heare the woorde of the Lorde ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people whiche is at Hierusalem.

C 15 Because ye haue saide, We haue made a couenant with death, and with hel are we at agreement: and though there goe foorth a soare plague, it shal not comme vnto vs, for we haue made falshood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hyd.

(a) Who so through faith dooth stay him selfe vpon Christ, in hasty going forward, shal not fal: that is, shal not fayle of that he hopeth to obtayne.

16 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I lay in Sion for a fundation a stone, euen a tryed stone, a pretious corner stone, a sure fundation: who so beleeueth, let him not be to (a) hastie.

17 Iudgement also wil I lay to the rule, and ryghteousnesse to the ballance, so that the (b) hayle shal sweepe away as a broome your vaine confydence, and the priuie place of your refuge shal the waters runne ouer.

(b) The gospel is compared to hayle and floodes, for that it breaketh downe and caryeth away idolatrie and superstition, wherin men do trustin vayne.

18 And thus the couenant that ye made with death, shalbe disanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hel shal not stand, yea when the soare plague goeth foorth, ye shalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the time that it goeth foorth it shal take you away: for early in the morning euery day, yea both day and nyght shal it goe through, and when the noyse thereof is perceaued, it shal gender vexation.

20 For the bedde is narowe and not large, and the couering so smal that a man can not winde him selfe (vnder it.)

21 For the Lorde shal stand as in mount Perazim, and shalbe wroth like as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may doo his woorke, his strange woorke, and bring to passe his acte, his strange acte. D

22 Nowe therefore see that ye be no mockers, lest your punishment encrease: for I heard of the Lord of hoastes, that there shal come a short ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare ye then, and hearken vnto my voyce, consyder and ponder my speache.

24 Doth not the husbandman plowe al the day, and openeth and breaketh the clottes of his grounde, that he may sowe?

25 When he hath made it plaine, wyl he not spreade abroade the fitches, and sowe commin, and cast in wheate by measure, and the appoynted barlye & rye in their place?

26 God wyl instruct him to haue discretion, euen his God wyl teache him.

27 For fitches shal not be threashed with an harrowe, neither shal a cart wheele be brought through the cõmin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe, and commin with a rodde.

28 But the seede that bread is made of is threashed, though it be not alway a threashing, and the cart wheele must be brought ouer it, lest he grinde it with his teeth. E

29 This also commeth of the Lorde of hoastes, whiche woorketh with woonderful wysedome, and bringeth excellent woorkes to passe.

The.xxix.Chapter.

I. A prophecie agaynst Hierusalem, and agaynst the vayne traditions of menne.

1 WO vnto thee, O Ariel Ariel, thou citie that Dauid dwelt in: Goe on from yeere to yeere, & let the lambes be slayne. A 2.Sam.5.b

2 I wyl lay siege vnto Ariel, so that there shalbe heauinesse and sorowe in it: and it shalbe shalbe vnto me euen an aulter of slaughter.

3 I wyl beseige thee rounde about, & fyght agaynst thee through a bulwarke, and wyl reare vp dyches agaynst thee.
4 Thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the grounde, and thy speache shal goe lowe out of the dust:
5 Thy voyce also shal come out of ỹ ground lyke the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng shal whysper out of the dust:
6 Moreouer, the noyse of the strange enimies shalbe lyke thynne dust, and the multitude of tyrantes shalbe as dry strawe that Psalm.1.b. can not tarrie: euen sodaynly and in haste shal they? blast goe.
7 Thou shalt be visited of the Lorde of hostes, with thunder, earthquake, and with a great noyse, with stormе and tempest, and with the flame of a consumyng fire.
B 8 And the multitude of al nations that fight Psal.83.c. agaynst Ariel, shalbe as a dreame seene by night: euen so shal they be that make warre agaynst it, and strong holdes to ouercome it, and that lay any siege vnto it.
9 In conclusion, it shalbe euen as when an hungry man dreameth that he is eatyng, & when he awaketh his soule is empty, or as when a thirstie man dreameth that he is drinking, when he awaketh he is yet faint, and his soule hath appetite: euen so shal the multitude of al nations be that fyghteth agaynst mount Sion.
Mat.15.d. 10 Ponder these thinges once in your mindes, and woonder: Blynded are they themselues, and the blynde guydes of other, they are drunken, but not with wyne: they are vnstable, but not through strong drynke.
11 For the Lorde hath couered you with a slumbryng spirite, & hath closed your eyes: your prophetes also and rulers that shoulde see, them hath he couered.
Esai.6.b. 12 And the vision of al the prophetes is becomme vnto you as the woordes of a booke that is sealed vp, whiche menne delyuer to one that is learned, sayeing, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I canne not, for it is sealed.
13 And the booke is geuen to hym that is not learned, sayeing, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I am not learned.
Mat.15.a. Marke.7.a. 14 Therfore thus hath ỹ Lord sayd, For as muche as this people when they be in trouble doo honour me with their mouth, and with they? lyppes, but their harte is farre from me, and the feare whiche they haue vnto me, proceedeth of a commaundement that is taught of men:
Abdi.1.c. I.Cor.1.c. 15 Therefore wyl I doo marueyles among this people, euen marueilous thinges (I say) and a woonder: for the wysedome of they? wyse menne shal perish, and the vnderstandyng of they? wytty men shal hyde it selfe.
16 Woe vnto them that keepe secrete they? thoughtes, to hide they? counsayle from the Lorde, and to doo they? woorkes in darkenesse, sayeing, Who seeth vs, and who knoweth vs? Esai.47.b. Eccle.23.d. Ezech.9.c.
17 Doubtlesse your destruction is in reputation as the Potters claye: and dooth the woorke say of hym that made it, He made not me? And dooth an earthen vessel say of him that fashioned it, He had no vnderstandyng?
18 Is it not hard at hand that Libanus shalbe turned into a lowe feelde, and that the lowe feelde shalbe taken as the wood?
19 And in that day shal deafe men heare the woordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blynde shal see euen out of the cloude, and out of darknesse.
20 The meeke spirited also shalbe mery in the Lorde, and the poore among them that be lowly shal reioyce in the holy one of Israel:
21 For he that dyd violence is brought to nought, and the scornful man is consumed, and they rooted out that made haste early to vnryghteousnesse,
22 Making a man to sinne in the word, and D that tooke hym in a snare, whiche reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned ỹ cause of the ryghteous to nought.
23 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde to the house of Jacob, euen thus sayth he that redeemed Abraham, Jacob shal not nowe be confounded, nor his face pale. Esai.14.a.
24 But when he seeth his children ỹ woorke of my handes in the myddes of hym, they shal sanctifie my name, and prayse the holy one of Jacob, and feare the GOD of Israel.
25 They also that haue ben of an erronious spirite, shal come to vnderstandyng, & they that haue benne scorneful, shal learne doctrine.

The.xxx.Chapter.

I. Agaynst them that forsake the counsayle of God, and cleaue to the counsaile of men.
3. The prophete also threateneth the remnant of the people that after the destruction of Hierusalem went into Egypt.

1 ALas for those disobedient chyldren, A sayth the Lorde, that they wyl take Esai.8.b. counsayle, and not of me, that they wyll take a secrete aduice, and not out of my spirite, and therefore adde they sinne vnto sinne.

2 Euen

2 Euen they that walke to goe downe into Egypt, and haue asked no question at my mouth, but seeke strength in the myght of Pharao, and trust in the shadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore shal the strength of Pharao be your confusion, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your shame.

4 For his captaynes were at Zoan, and his ambassadours came vnto Hanes.

2. king.18.d Ierem.17.b Ezech.29.a

5 They were ashamed of the people that coulde doo them no good, and that myght not helpe them, nor shewe them any profite, but were theyr confusion and rebuke.

6 The burden of the beastes of the South. In a lande of trouble and anguyshe, from whence shal comme the young and olde lyon, the viper and fierce serpent that fleeth agaynst them that vpon coltes beare their riches, and vppon camels their treasures, to a people that can doo them no good.

B 7 For vayne and nothyng worth shall the helpe of the Egyptians be: therefore haue I cryed vnto Hierusalem, they shall haue strength ynough yf they wyll settle theyr myndes in quyetnesse.

Esai.8.a. 8 Nowe therefore goe thy way, and wryte this before them in a table, and note it in a booke: that it may finally remayne and be kept styl for euer.

Esai.1.d. 9 For this is an obstinate people, and dissemblyng chyldren, chyldren that refuse to heare the lawe of the Lorde.

10 For they say vnto the seers, See not: and to them that be cleare of iudgement, Looke not out rycht thynges for vs: but speake fayre wordes vnto vs, looke out errours, 11 Geat you out of this way, departe out of this path, and turne the holy one of Israel from vs.

12 Wherefore thus sayth the holy one of Israel, Because your hartes ryse agaynst this word, and because you trust in wrong dealyng and peruerse iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

13 Therfore shal ye haue this mischeefe for your destruction and fall, lyke as an hygh wal that falleth because of somme ryfte or blast, whose breakyng commeth sodaynly.

C Psalm.2.b. 14 And the hurte thereof is lyke an earthen vessell whiche breaketh without helpe, so that in the bursting of it, there is not found one sheuer to fetche fyre in, or to take water withal out of the pyt.

15 For thus sayth the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Israel, In repentance and in reast shal ye be safe, in quyetnesse and sure confidence shalbe your strength, but ye haue had no lyst thereto.

Exod.14.c. 1. Chr.20.c

16 For ye haue sayd, No, but we wyl escape through horses, therefore shall ye flee: and we wyl geat vs vp vpon swyft beastes, and therefore shall your persecutours be swyfter.

17 A thousande shal flee at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fyue shal ye al flee, tyll ye be leaft as a Shyppe mast vpon the top of a mountayne, and as a Beaken vpon an hyl. Leuit.26.a. Iosua.23.a.

18 Therefore dooth the Lorde cause yon to wayte, that he may haue mercie vpon you, to the intent that he maye haue the preeminence when he is gratious vnto you: for the Lord is the God of iudgement, Blessed are al they that hope in hym. Roma.2.a.

19 If the people remayne in Sion and at Hierusalem, thou shalt not be in heauines: but at the voyce of thy complaynt shall he haue mercie vppon thee, and when he heareth it, he shal geue thee an answere.

20 And though the Lorde gene you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduersitie, thy rayne shalbe no more so scant, but thyne eyes shal see thy rayne, 21 Yea, and thyne eare shal heare the talkyng of him that dooth speake behind thee: This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aside neyther to the ryght hande, nor to the leaft. D Deut.4.a.

22 Ye shal destroy also the couering of your syluer images, and the decking of your golden idolles, euen as fylthynesse shalt thou put them away, and thou shalt say vnto it, Geat thee hence.

23 Then shal God gene raine vnto thy seede that thou shalt sowe the grounde withal, & bread of the increase of the earth, whiche shalbe fat and very plenteous: in that day also shal thy cattayle be fedde in large pastures.

24 The Oxen lykewyse, and the young Asses that eare the grounde, shall eate cleane prouender, which is purged with the wind and the fanne.

25 Finally, vpon euery hygh mountayne & hyll shall there be ryuers, and streames of waters in the day of the great slaughter when the towres fal. 2.Pet.1.b.

26 Moreouer, the light of the moone shalbe as the lyght of the sunne, and the sunne lyght shalbe seuen folde, and haue as muche shyne as in seuen dayes beside, when the Lorde byndeth vp the sore of his people, and healeth the stroke of theyr wounde.

27 Behold, the fame of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his presence is so hot, that no man is able to abyde: his lyppes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a consumyng fyre.

28 His

28 His breath is a vehement flood of water that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may syft away the heathen in the siue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of errour in the iawes of the people.

29 And ye shal syng lyke as in the night when the holy solemnitie begynneth, and ye shal haue gladnesse of hart, lyke as when one commeth with a pype vnto the hyl of the Lorde, and to the most myghtie one of Israel.

30 And the Lorde shal cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shal declare his stretched out arme with a terrible countenance, and with a flame of a consumyng fyre, with noysome lyghtnyng, with a showre, and with haylestones.

Esai.10.a. 31 For through the voyce of the Lorde shal Assur be destroyed, whiche smote other men with the rod.

32 And it shal come to passe, that whither so euer he goeth, the rod shal cleaue vnto him whiche the Lorde shal lay vpon hym, with tabrets and harpes: and with great warre shal he fyght agaynst his host.

Mat.25.b. 33 For the fyre of hel is ordeyned from the begynning, yea euen for the king is it prepared: this hath the Lorde set in the deepe, and made it wyde, the burnyng whereof is fyre and muche wood: the breath of the Lorde whiche is lyke a riuer of brymstone doth kindle it.

The.xxxi. Chapter.

1. He curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

A 1 WO be vnto them that goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and trust in horses, and put their confidence in charrets because they be many, and in horsemen, because they be lustie and strong: but they regarde not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the Lorde.

2 And he neuertheles is wyse, and wyl plague the wycked, and goeth not from his worde, he wil aryse agaynst the housholde of the frowarde, and agaynst the helpe of euyl doers.

3 Nowe the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh, and not spirite: and assoone as the Lorde stretcheth out his hande, then shal the helper fal, and he that shoulde haue ben helped, and they shal altogeather be destroyed.

Apoc.5.a. Gen.49.b. A 4 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto me, Like as the lion and lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afrayd though the multitude of sheepeheardes crye out vpon him, neither be abashed for al the heape of them: so shal the Lorde of hostes come downe to fyght for mount Sion, and defende his hyl.

5 Lyke as the birdes flutter about their neastes, so shal the Lorde of hostes keepe, saue, defende, and deliuer Hierusalem. Deut.32

6 Therfore, O ye children of Israel, turne agayne vnto him whom you haue oft tymes forsaken.

7 For in that day euery man shal cast out his idols of syluer, and his idols of golde, whiche ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your sinne. B Esai.2.c.

8 Assur also shalbe slayne with the sworde, not with a mans sworde, neyther shal the sworde of any man deuour him, and he shal flee from the slaughter, & his choyse young men shalbe discomfited. Esai.37.c.

9 He shal go for feare to his strong holdes, and his princes shal flee from his standerd, sayth the Lorde, whose fyre is in Sion, and his furnace in Hierusalem.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

1. The conditions of good rulers and officers.

1 BEholde, a king shal gouerne after the rule of righteousnesse, and the princes shal rule according vnto the ballance of equitie. A

2 And that man shalbe vnto men as a defence for the winde, and as a refuge for the tempest, lyke as a ryuer of water in a thirstie place, and the shadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande.

3 The eyes of the seeing shal not be dimme, and the eares of them that heare shal take diligent heede.

4 The hart of the vnwyse shal attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue shal speake playnely and distinctly.

5 Then shal the foolishe nigarde be no more called gentle, nor the churle liberal.

6 But the nigarde wil speake nigardly, and his hart wyl worke euil, and play the hypocrite, & imagine abominations agaynst god, to make the hungry leane, and to withholde drynke from the thirstie.

7 The weapons of the churlishe are euyl, he deuiseth noysome deuises, that he may beguile the poore with deceiptful wordes, yea euen there as he shoulde geue sentence with the poore. B

8 But the liberal person imagineth honest thynges, and commeth vp for liberalitie vnto promotion. Pro.17.b.

9 Vp ye riche and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce, ye careles daughters marke my wordes.

10 Many

10 Many yeeres & dayes shal ye be brought in feare, O ye careleſſe women: for the vintage shal fayle, and the haruest shal not come.

11 Be abashed, you that liue in abundance, tremble you that liue careleſſe, cast of your rayment, make your selues bare, and put sackcloth about you.

12 For as the infantes wepe when their mothers teates are dryed vp: so shall you weepe for your fayre feeldes, and fruitefull vineyardes.

13 My peoples feelde shal bring thornes and thystles: and so shal it be in euery house of voluptuousneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

¶ 14 The palaces also shalbe broken, and the greatly occupied cities desolate: The towres and bulwarkes shal become dennes for euermore, where wilde asses take theyr pleasure, and sheepe theyr pasture.

15 Vnto the time that the spirite be powred vpon vs from aboue, and that the wyldernesse be a fruitful feelde, and the plenteous feelde be reckoned for a wood.

16 Then shal equitie dwel in the desart, and ryghteousneſſe in a fruiteful lande.

Rom.5.a. Iere.33. 17 And the worke of righteousneſſe shalbe peace, and her fruite rest and quietneſſe for euer.

18 And my people shal dwel in the Innes of peace, and in sure dwellynges, in safe places of comforte.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it shal fal in the wood, and the citie shalbe set lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happy shal ye be when ye shal safely sowe your seede beside al waters, and driue thither the feete of your oxen & Asses.

The .xxxiii. Chapter.

1. Threatning agaynſt the Assyrians.
20. A destruction of them that shal see the Lorde.

¶ 1 WO to thee that destroyest when thou wast not destroyed, thou breakest the league, where as none hath broken it with thee: for when thou shalt leaue destroying, thou thee selfe shalt be destroyed: and when thou ceasest from breakyng the league, then shal they breake it to thee.

Exod.21.b. Leuit.24.d. Wisd.11.c. Mat.7.a.

2 O Lorde, haue mercy vpon vs, we haue put our whole trust in thee: be an arme to such early, and our healthy in the tyme of trouble.

Psal.9.b.

3 At that confuse noyse the people fled, & at thyne exalting the heathen were scattered.

4 And the spoyles shalbe gathered, which shalbe yours, as are the gathering of Buchus, and the multitude goyng to it shalbe as Locustes running to and fro.

5 The Lord is exalted, for it is he that dwelleth on hygh, he hath filled Sion with iudgement and ryghteousneſſe.

6 And a sure stablishing of thy tymes shalbe strength, health, wisdome, & knowledge: and the very feare of the Lorde shalbe the treasure of it.

7 Behold the messengers shal crie without: and the embassadours of peace shal weepe bitterly. B

8 Theyr streetes are waste, there walketh no man therein: God hath broken the appoyntment, the cities are cast away, and men are nothing regarded.

9 The desolate earth is in heauineſſe, Libanus is shamed and hewen downe, Saron is lyke a wyldernesse, Basan and Charmel are spoyled of theyr fruites.

10 And therefore sayth the Lord, I wyl vp nowe, nowe wyl I be aduaunced, now wil I be exalted.

11 Ye shal conceiue stubble, & beare strawe: and your spirite shalbe the fyre, that it may consume you. Iere.5.c.

12 And the people shalbe burnt like lime, and as thornes burnt that are hewen of, and cast in the fyre.

13 Nowe hearken to ye that are farre of, howe I haue done, and consyder my power ye that are at hande.

14 The sinners at Sion are afraide, a sudden fearefulneſſe is come vpon the hypocrites: What is he among vs, say they, that shall dwel by the consuming fyre? Which of vs may abyde the euerlasting heate? ¶ Psal.14.a. and.23.a.

15 He that leadeth a godly life, and speaketh the trueth, he that abhorreth gaines by violence and deceipt, he that keepeth his hande that he touche no reward, whiche stoppeth his eares that he heare no counsaile against the innocent blood, whiche holdeth downe his eyes that he see no euyl:

16 He it is that shal dwel on high, whose safegarde shalbe in a bulwarke of rockes: to hym shalbe geuen meate, and his waters shal not fayle.

17 Thyne eyes shal see the king in his glory, euen the king of the farre countreys shal they see.

18 Thyne hart studyed for feare, thynking thus, What shal then become of the scribe? of the receiuer of our money? what of hym that taxed our fayrest houses? 1. Cor.1.a.

19 There shalt thou not see a cruel people of a strange tongue, to haue so confused a language that it may not be vnderstanded, neither so straunge a speache but it shalbe perceiued.

20 Looke

20 Looke vppon Sion the head citie of our solemne feastes: thyne eyes shal see Hierusalem that glorious habitation, the tabernacle that neuer shal remoue, whose nailes
Heb.9.b. shal neuer be taken out world without end, whose cordes euery one shal neuer corrupt.
D 21 For the glorious maiestie of the Lorde shal there be present among vs, as a place where fayre broad riuers and streames are, through the whiche, shal neyther Galley rowe, nor great Shyppe sayle.
Iacob.4.c. 22 For the Lorde is our iudge, the Lorde is our lawe geuer, the Lorde is our kyng, and he hym selfe shalbe our sauiour.
23 Thy tacklyng is loosed, therefore it can not make fast the mast, nor spread the saile: then there is dealed great spoyle, yea, lame menne runne after the pray.
24 There lyeth no man that sayth, I am sicke: but al euyl is taken away from the people that dwel there.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

I. The last destruction of the Synagogue, in which the kyngdome and priesthood of the people was translated to the Churche and congregation of Christe.

A 1 COme ye heathen & heare, take heede, you people: hearken thou earth and al that is therein, thou round compasse, and al that dwelleth thereupon.
2 For the Lorde is angrye with al people, and his displeasure is kindeled agaynst al the multitude of them, he hath destroyed them, and delyuered them to the slaughter.
3 So that their slayne shalbe caste out, and theyr bodyes shal stynke, that euen the very hylles shalbe wet with the blood of them.
4 Al the starres of heauen shal waste, and the heauens shal fold together like a roule, and al the starres thereof shal fal, lyke as the leaues fal from the vynes and fygge trees.
5 For my swoorde shalbe bathed in heauen, and shal immediatly come downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vpon the people whiche I haue cursed.
6 And the lordes swoord shalbe ful of blood, and be ruddie with the fatnesse and blood of lambes and goates, with the fatnesse of the kydneyes of weathers: For the Lorde shal kyl a great offeryng in Bozra, and a great slaughter in the lande of Idumea.
(a) God declareth his loue & care to preserue his Churche by his seuere pounishyng of the enimies to his Churche. 7 There shal the Unicornes fal with them, and the Bulles with the Gyantes, & theyr lande shalbe throughly soked with blood, and theyr grounde corrupt with fatnesse.
8 For it is the (a) day of Gods vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion.
9 And his fluddes shalbe turned to pitche, and his earth to brymstone, and therewith shal the lande be kyndeled.
10 So that it shal not be quenched day nor nyght, but smoke euermore, and so foorth lye waste: and no man shal goe through it for euer.
11 But Pellicanes, Storkes, great Owles, and Rauens, shal haue it in possession, and dwel therein: for God shal spreade out the lyne of desolation vpon it, and the stones of emptynesse.
12 Her nobles shall cal, and there is no kyngdome: and al her princes shalbe nothyng.
13 Thornes shal growe in theyr palaces, nettles and thystles in theyr strong holdes, that the dragons maye haue theyr pleasure therein, and that they may be a court for Estriches.
14 There shall strange visures and monsterous beastes meete one another, and the wylde keepe company togeather, there shal the Lamia lye and haue her lodgyng. C
15 There shall the Owle make her nest, buylde, be there at home, and bryng foorth her young ones: there shal the Kytes come togeather, eache one to his lyke.
16 Seeke through the booke of the Lorde, and reade it: there shal none of these things be leaste out, there shal not one nor such like fayle: for his mouth commaundeth, and that same dooth his spirite geather togeather, or fulfil.
17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hande diuided it by the line: therefore those shal possesse it for euer, from generation to generation shal they dwel therein.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

I. Of the time and kyngdome of Christ.

1 BUT (a) the desart and wyldernes shal reioyce, the waste ground shalbe glad, and florishe as the Lylie. (a) The baren nature of mankynd to al goodnesse shalbe made fruiteful by grace promised in Christ. Deut.20.a. and.31.b.
2 She shal florish pleasantly, and be ioyful, and euer be geuyng thankes more and more: For the glory of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron, shalbe geuen her: These shal knowe the honour of the Lorde, and the maiestie of our God.
3 And therfore (b) strength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees. (b) God geueth strength of grace to the feeble consciences, by preaching the woorde.
4 Say vnto them that are of a fearful hart, be of good cheare, and feare not, beholde, your God commeth to take vengeance, and you Matth.11.a and.15.c. Luke.17.c. Psalm.8.a. Esai.41.c. 43.c.44.a.

you shal see the reward that God geueth: God commeth his owne selfe, and wyl deliuer you.

5 Then shal the eyes of the blynde be lyghtened, and the eares of the deafe opened.

6 Then shal the lame menne leape as an hart, and the dumbe mans tong shal geue thankes: for in the wyldernesse there shal welles spryng, and fluddes of water in the desart.

B 7 The drye grounde shal turne to ryuers, & the thirstie to sprynges of water: whereas dragons dwelt afore, there shal grow sweet flowres and greene rushes.

8 There shalbe foote pathes, and common streetes, this shalbe called the holy way, no vncleane person shal goe through it, for the Lorde hym selfe shal goe with them that way, and the wayfayrer nor ignorant shal not erre.

9 There shalbe no Lyon, and no rauishyng beastes shal comme therin, nor be there, but men redeemed shal goe there free and safe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde, I say, shal conuert, and come to Sion with thankesgeuyng: euerlastyng ioy shal they haue, pleasure and gladnesse shalbe among them, and as for al sorowe and heauynesse, it shal vanishe.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

I. Hierusalem is besieged by Sennacherib, in the tyme of kyng Ezekias.

A 1 IN the fourteenth yeere of king Ezekias, came Sennacherib king of the Assyrians
2.king.18.c 2.Chr.32.a Esai.7.b. 8.b.10.a. 17.d.e.32.a
downe, to laye siege vnto al the strong cities of Juda, to conquer them.

2 And the kyng of the Assyrians sent Rabsakeh from Lachis towarde Hierusalem, agaynst Ezekias, with an exceedyng host, whiche set hym by the conduite of the ouer poole, in the way that goeth through the Fullers laude.

3 And so there came forth vnto him Eliakim, Helkias sonne, the cheefe ouer the Esai.22. housholde, Sobna the Scribe, and Joah Asaphs sonne the secretarie:

4 And Rabsakeh sayde vnto them, Tel Ezekia that the great kyng sayth thus vnto hym, What presumption is this that thou trustest vnto?

5 I sayde surely that thou trustest in vayne woordes, when counsayle and strength are necessarie to batayle: but nowe whereto trustest thou, that thou rebellest against me?

2.king.18.b Ezec.29.a. 6 Loe, thou puttest thy trust in a broken staffe of reede (I meane) Egypt, whiche he that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hande, and thrusteth it through: euen so is Pharao the kyng of Egypt, vnto al them that trust in hym.

B 7 But yf thou wouldest say vnto me, We trust in the Lorde our God, Is not he that God whose hygh places and aulters Ezekia tooke downe, and commaunded Juda and Hierusalem to woorshyp onely before this aulter?

8 Nowe therefore delyuer hostages, that thou rebel no more against my lord the king of the Assyrians, and I wyl geue thee two thousande horses, yf thou be able to set men vpon them.

9 Howe darest thou resist the power of the smallest prince that my lorde hath? howe darest thou trust in the charettes and horsemen of Egypt?

10 Moreouer, thinkest thou that I am come vp hyther to destroy this lande without the Lordes wyl? The Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe vp agaynst this lande, and destroy it.

11 Then sayd Eliakim, Sobna, and Joah, vnto Rabsakeh, Speake to vs thy seruantes, we pray thee, in the Syrians language, for we vnderstande it wel, and speake not to vs in the Jewes tongue, least the folke heare whiche syt vpon the wal.

12 Then answered Rabsakeh, Hath my maister sent me to speake this onely to thy maister and thee? hath he not sent me to them also that syt vpon the wal? that they may be compelled to eate their owne dung, and drynke theyr owne stale with you?

13 And Rabsakeh stoode styffe, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Jewes tongue, & sayde, Nowe take heede howe the great kyng of the Assyrians geueth you warning,

14 Thus sayth the kyng, Let not Ezekia deceyue you, for he shal not be able to delyuer you. C

15 Moreouer, let not Ezekia comfort you in the Lorde, when he sayth, The Lorde without doubt shal defend vs, and shal not geue ouer this citie into the handes of the kyng of the Assyrians.

16 Hearken not to Ezekia, for thus saith the kyng of Assyria, Obteyne my fauour, enclyne to me, so may euery man enioy his vineyardes and figge trees, and drynke the water of his Cesterne:

17 Vnto the tyme that I comme mee selfe, and bryng you into a land that is like your owne, wherein is wheate and wyne, which is both sowen with seede, and planted with vineyardes.

18 Let not Ezekia deceyue you, when he Esai.10.a. sayth vnto you, the Lorde shal delyuer vs: Myght the gods of the gentiles keepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of the Assyrians?

of

19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defend Samaria out of my hande?
20 Or which of al the gods of these landes hath deliuered theyr countrey out of my power? Is the Lorde in deede able to deliuer Hierusalem from my hande?
21 Unto this Ezekias messengers helde their tongues, & answeared not one worde: for the kyng had charged them that they shoulde gene hym no answeare.
22 So came Eliakim Helkias sonne the cheefe ouer the houshold, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphes sonne the secretary, vnto Ezekia with rent clothes, and told hym the wordes of Rabsakeh.

The.xxxvii.Chapter.

I. Ezekia humbleth hym selfe before the Lord. 35. The armie of Sennacherib is slaine of the angel of the Lord. 38. and he him selfe is killed of his owne sonnes.

A 1 When Ezekia heard that, he rent his
2.Reg.19.a clothes, and put on sackcloth, & went into the temple of the Lorde.
2 But he sent Eliakim the cheefe ouer the housholde, and Sobna the scribe, with the eldest priestes clothed in sacke, vnto the Jonas.3.a. prophete Esai the sonne of Amos,
3 And they said vnto him, Thus sayth Ezekia, This is the day of trouble, of plague, and of blasphemie: for the chyldren are come to the place of byrth, but there is no power to byng them foorth.
4 The Lorde thy God (no doubt) hath wel considered the wordes of Rabsakeh, whom his lord kyng of the Assyrians hath sent to defie and blaspheme the liuing God, with suche wordes as the Lorde thy God hath heard right wel: and therefore lift vp thy prayer for the remnant that yet are left.
5 So the seruantes of the kyng Ezekia came to Esai.
6 And Esai gane them this answeare, Say thus vnto your lord, Thus sayth the Lord, Be not afrayd of the wordes that thou hast heard, wherwith the king of the Assyrians seruantes haue blasphemed me.
B 7 Beholde, I wil raise vp a winde agaynst
Esai.37.b. hym, and he shal heare a rumour, and he shal goe againe into his countrey, there wil I destroy him with the sworde in his owne lande.
1.Sa.23.c. 8 Now when Rabsakeh returned, he found the kyng of Assyria laying siege to Libnas: for he had vnderstanding that he was departed from Lachis.
9 And there came a rumour that Tharakas king of Ethiopia was come forth to warre agaynst hym: and when the kyng of Assyria heard that, he sent other messengers to kyng Ezekia with this commaundement.
10 Say thus to Ezekia kyng of Juda, Let not thy God deceiue thee in whom thou hopest, and sayest, Hierusalem shal not be geuen into the handes of the kyng of Assyria.
11 For loe, thou knowest well howe the kyngs of Assyria haue handled al the landes that they haue subuerted: and hopest thou to escape?
12 Were the people of the gentiles whom my progenitours conquered, deliuered at any time through theyr gods? (As namely) 1.Kin.17.a.
Gosan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden, whiche were at Thalassar?
13 Where is the kyng of Hemath, and the kyng of Arphad, and the king of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Ana?
14 Nowe when Ezekia had receiued the let- C ter of the messengers, and read it, he went vp into the house of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde, 15 And Ezekia prayed vnto the Lorde (on this maner.)
16 O Lorde of hostes, thou God of Israel, Exod.25.e. whiche dwellest vpon Cherubim, thou art the God that only is God of al the kyngdomes of the world, for thou only hast created heauen and earth. Gene.1.a.
17 Encline thine are Lorde & consyder, open Baruc.1.c.
thyne eyes Lord, and see, and ponder al the wordes of Sennacherib, which hath sent his embassage to blaspheme the liuing God.
18 It is true, O Lord, that the kings of Assyria haue conquered al kingdomes & landes, 19 And cast theyr gods in the fyre: for those were no gods, but the workes of mens handes, of wood or stone, therefore haue they destroyed them.
20 Nowe therfore deliuer vs, O Lord our God, from the hands of Sennacherib, that al the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou only art the Lorde.
21 Then Esai the sonne of Amos sent vn- D to Ezekia, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Wheras thou hast made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the kyng of Assyria, 22 This is the answere that the Lord hath geuen concerning him: Despised art thou and mocked, O daughter Sion, he hath shaken his head at thee, O daughter of Hierusalem.
23 But thou Sennacherib, whom hast thou defyed & blasphemed? Agaynst whom hast thou Zach.2.b. Mat.25.d. Actes.9.c.

thou lyfted vp thy voyce, and exalted thy proude lookes? euen agaynst the holy one of Israel.

24 Thou with thy seruauntes hast blasphemed the Lorde, and thus holdest thou of thee selfe: I wil couer the high mountaynes and sydes of Libanus with my horsemen, and there wyl I cut downe the hygh Cedar trees, and the fayrest Firre trees: I wil vp in the height of it, and into the cheefest of his tymber woodes.

25 If there be no water, I wyl graue and drynke: and as for waters of defence, I wil drye them vp with the feete of myne host.

26 Yea, hast thou not hearde what I haue taken in hande and brought to passe of olde tyme? That same wyl I do nowe also, and waste, destroy, and bring strong cities vnto heapes of stones.

27 For theyr inhabitours shalbe like lame men brought in feare and confounded: they shalbe like grasse and greene hearbes in the feelde, lyke the hay vpon house toppes, that withereth before it be growen vp.

E 28 I knowe thy wayes, thy goyng forth, and thy comming home, yea and thy madnesse agaynst me.

29 Therefore thy furiousnesse agaynst me and thy pride is come before me, I wil put my ryng in thy nose, and my bridle byt in the iawes of thee, and turne thee about, euen the same way that thou camest.

30 I wyl geue thee also this token (O Ezekia) this yeere shalt thou eate such as groweth of it selfe, and the seconde yeere that whiche springeth agayne of the same, and in the thirde yeere ye shal sowe and reape, yea ye shal plant vineyardes, and enioy the fruites thereof.

31 And suche of the house of Iuda as are escaped shal come together, and the remnant shal take roote beneath, and bryng forth fruite aboue.

32 For the escaped shal go out of Hierusalem, & the remnant from the mount Sion: and this shal the zeale of the Lord of hostes bryng to passe.

33 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde concernyng the kyng of the Assyrians, He shal not come into this citie, and shal shoote no arrowe into it, there shal no shielde hurte it, neyther shal they cast ditches about it.

F 34 The same way he came he shal returne, and not come at this citie, sayth the Lord.

2.Reg.19.g Eccle.48.d Esai.31.b. 2.Mac.15.d

35 And I wil keepe and saue this citie (saith he) for myne owne, and for my seruant Dauids sake.

36 Thus the angel of the Lord went forth, and slue of the Syrians host an hundred fourescore and fiue thousande: and when men arose vp early in the morning, beholde they were slayne, and al lay ful of dead bodyes.

37 So Sennacherib the king of the Assyrians brake vp, and dwelt at Niniue.

38 Afterwarde it chaunced as he prayed in the temple of Nesroch his God, that Adramaleth and Sarazer his owne sonnes slue him with the sworde, and fled into the land of Armenia: and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his steede.

The .xxxviii. Chapter.

I Ezekia is sicke vnto death, 5. but is yet reuiued by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeeres after. 10. For which benefite he geueth thankes.

1 ABout this tyme was Ezekia sicke vnto death, and the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos came vnto hym, and sayde, Thus commaundeth the Lord, Set thyne house in order, for thou must dye, and shalt not escape. A 2.Reg.20.a 2.Par.34.f

2 Then Ezekia turned his face toward the wal, and prayed vnto the Lord:

3 And sayd, Remember, O Lord, I beseche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a stedfast hart, and haue done the thyng that is pleasant to thee. And Ezekia wept soare.

4 Then sayde God vnto Esai,

5 Goe, and speake vnto Ezekia, The Lord God of Dauid thy father sendeth thee this worde, I haue hearde thy prayer, and consydered thy teares: beholde I wil put fyfteene yeeres moe vnto thy lyfe, Ionas. 3.b.

6 And deliuer thee and thy citie also from the hande of the kyng of Assyria: for I wyl defende the citie.

7 And take thee this token of the Lord, that he wil do it as he hath spoken. B 2.Reg.20.g

8 Beholde, I wil returne the shadowe of Ahaz dyal that nowe is layde out with the sunne, and bryng it ten degrees backward: So the sunne turned tenne degrees backewarde, the which he was dessended afore. Iosu.10.f.

9 A thankesgeuyng which Ezekia kyng of Iuda wrote, when he had ben sicke, and was recouered.

10 I thought I shoulde haue gone to the gates of hel when mine age was shortened, and haue wanted the residue of my yeeres.

11 I spake within mee selfe, I wil neuer visite the Lorde (the Lorde I say) in this life: I wyl neuer see man among the dwellers of the worlde.

12 Mine age is folden togeather, and taken away from me like a shepheardes cotage, I haue hewen of my lyfe (by my sinnes) like as as a weaner cutteth of his webbe: he wyl with pynyng sickneſſe make an ende of me, yea, he wyl make an ende of me in one day.

Iob.4.b 13 I thought I would haue lyued vntyl the morowe, but he bruised my bones like a lyon: and in one day thou wylt make an ende of me.

C 14 Then chattered I like a Swallow, and syke a Crane, and mourned syke a Doue, I syxte vp myne eyes into the heyght: O Lorde (sayde I) my sickneſſe keepeth me downe, ease thou me.

15 What shal I say? the Lorde hath made a promise to me, yea, and he hym selfe hath performed it: I shal therfore so long as I lyue remember this bitternesse of my syke.

16 O Lorde, to al those that shal lyue hereafter, yea to al men shal it be knowen, that euen in those yeeres I haue a ioyful syke, and that it was thou that causedst me to sleepe, agayne thou hast geuen syke to me.

17 Beholde, bitter as gal was my penſiuenesse, so sore longed I for health, and it was thy pleasure to deliuer my syke from the filthy pit: for thou it is (O Lorde) that hast cast al my sinnes behynde thy backe.

Psal.6.a. 78.b.115.b. 18 For hel prayseth not thee, death dooth not magnifie thee: they that goe downe into the graue prayse not thy trueth:

19 But the liuing, yea the liuing knowledge thee, as I doo this day: the father telleth his chyldren of thy faythfulnesse.

Luke.1.g. 20 To heale me it is the Lordes worke, and we wyl sing my songes in the house of the Lorde al the dayes of our syke.

D 21 And Esai said, Take a plaster of figges, and lay it vpon the sore, so shal it be whole.

22 Then sayde Ezekia, O what a miracle is this, that I shal goe vp into the house of the Lorde.

The.xxxix.Chapter.

3. Ezekia is reproued of Esai, because he shewed his treasure vnto the embassadours of Babylon.

A 1 AT the same tyme Merodach Baladans sonne kyng of Babylon, sent letters and presentes to Ezekia: for he vnderstoode that he had benne sicke, and was recouered agayne.

2.king.20.c

2. Chr.32.c 2 And Ezekia was glad thereof, and shewed them the house of his treasures of siluer and golde, of spices, and rootes, of precious oyles, and al that was in cubbordes & treasure houses: there was not one thyng in Ezekias house, and so throughout al his kingdome, but he let them see it.

3 Then came Esai the prophet to king Ezekia, and sayde vnto hym, What haue the menne sayde, and from whence came they vnto thee? Ezekia answered, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.

4 Esai sayde, What haue they looked vpon in thy house? Ezekia answered, Al that is in my house haue they seene, & there is nothing in my treasure but I shewed it them.

5 Then sayde Esai vnto Ezekia, Understande the worde of the Lorde of hostes:

6 Beholde, the tyme wyl comme that euery thing which is in thyne house, & al that thy progenitours haue layde vp in store vntyl this day, shalbe caried to Babylon, and nothyng left behinde, thus sayth the Lorde. 2.king.24.c

7 Yea and part of thy sonnes that shal come of thee, and whom thou shalt begeat, shalbe caryed hence, and become gelded chamberlaynes in the kyng of Babylons court.

8 Then sayde Ezekia to Esai, Good is the worde of God whiche thou hast tolde me. He sayde moreouer, For there shalbe peace and faythfulnesse in my tyme.

3. The comming of saint Iohn Baptist. 9. The preparation of the Apostles. 11. The callyng of the Gentiles.

A 1 COmfort my people (O ye prophetes) comfort my people, sayth your God. The Epistle on saint Iohn Baptistes day.

2 Comfort Hierusalem at the hart, and tel her that her trauayle is at an ende, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath receiued at the Lordes hande sufficient correction for al her sinnes.

5 For the glory of Lorde shal appeare, for al fleashe shal at once see that the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken it.

6 The same voyce spake, Now crye. And ỹ prophete answered, What shal I crye? That al fleashe is grasse, & that al the goodlynesse therof is as the floure of the feelde. Iohn.10.b.

10 Beholde, the Lorde God shal come with 11 He ſhal feede his flocke like an heardman, he ſhal geather the lambes togeather with his arme, and cary them in his boſome, and ſhal kindly intreate thoſe that beare young.

12 Who hath meaſured ỹ waters in his fiſt? who hath meaſured heauen with his ſpan, and hath compꝛehended al the earth of the woꝛlde in thꝛee meaſures? who hath wayed the mountaynes and hylles in a ballance?

Wiſd.9.d 13 Who hath directed the ſpirite of the loꝛd? Rom.11.b oꝛ who gaue him counſayle, & ſhewed him?

C 14 Who is of his counſayle, and geueth him vnderſtandyng, and hath taught him the path of iudgement? who taught him cunnyng, and opened to him the way of vnderſtandyng?

15 Beholde, al people are in compariſon of him as a dꝛop of a bucket ful, and are counted as the leaſt thing that the ballance waieth: yea & the Iſles he taketh vp as a very litle thyng.

16 Libanus is not ſufficient to miniſter fire to his offering, and al the beaſtes therof are not ynough foꝛ one ſacrifice.

Pſal.62.d 17 Al people in compariſon of hym are reckened as nothing: yf they be cõpared with him, leſſe then nothing, & as it that is not.

18 To whom then wyl ye lyken G O D, oꝛ what ſimilitude wyl ye ſet vp to hym?

19 Shal ỹ caruer make him a carued image? & ſhal the goldſmith couer him with golde, oꝛ caſt him into a fourme of ſiluer plates?

20 Moꝛeouer, ſhal the image maker, that the pooꝛe man whiche is diſpoſed may haue ſomme thyng to ſet vp alſo, ſeeke out and chooſe a tree that is not rotten, and carue thereout an image that moueth not?

D 21 Know ye nothyng? hearde ye neuer of it? hath it not ben pꝛeached vnto you ſince the begynnyng? haue ye not benne enfourmed of this by the foundation of the earth?

Eſai.44.d 22 It is he that ſitteth vpon the circle of the woꝛlde, whoſe inhabiters are (in compariſon of hym) but as graſhoppers: he ſpꝛeadeth out the heauens as a couering, he ſtꝛetcheth them out as a tent to dwel in.

23 He bꝛingeth pꝛinces to nothyng, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be ſayde, They be not planted noꝛ ſowne agayne, neyther their ſtocke rooted agayne in the earth: foꝛ aſſoone as he bloweth vpon them, they wyther and fade away lyke the ſtꝛawe in a whirle wynde.

25 To whom nowe wyl ye lyken me, and whom ſhal I be lyke, ſayth the holy one?

26 Lyft vp your eyes on high, and conſyder who hath made thoſe thynges which come out by ſo great heapes, and he calleth them al by their names: there is nothyng hyd frõ the greatneſſe of his power, ſtrength, and might. Pſal.147.a

27 Howe may then Jacob thynke, oꝛ may Iſrael ſay, My wayes are hyd from the Loꝛd, and my God knoweth not of my iudgementes?

28 Knoweſt thou not, oꝛ haſt thou not heard that the euerlaſtyng God, the Loꝛde which made al the coꝛners of the earth, is neither weerie noꝛ faynte? and that his wyſedome can not be compꝛehended? E

29 It is he that geueth ſtrength vnto the weery, and power vnto the faynt.

30 Chyldꝛen are weery and faynt, and the ſtrongeſt menne fal:

31 But vnto them that haue their truſt in the Loꝛd, ſhal ſtrength be encreaſed: Egles wynges ſhal growe vpon them, when they runne they ſhal not fal, and when they goe they ſhal not be weery. Iere.17.b

2. Of the goodneſſe and mercy of God towarde the people.

A 1 BE ſtyl you (a) Ilandes and hearken vnto me: let the people lay their ſtrength togeather, let them conume hyther, and then ſhew their cauſe: we wyl go to the law togeather.

(a) By the Ilandes, God meaneth the gentiles, whõ he pꝛoueth for their idolatry.

2 Who rayſed vp the (b) iuſt man from the eaſt, and called him to goe foꝛth? who caſt downe the people, and ſubdued the kynges beſoꝛe hym? that he may thꝛowe them al to the grounde with his ſwoꝛde, and ſcatter them lyke ſtubble with his bowe.

(b) By the iuſt man, is ment Abraham, who being called out of Vr of the Chaldeans, who being iuſtified by fayth, became the father of many nations, whõ God alwayes defended agaynſt al his enimies.

3 He foloweth vpon them, and goeth ſafely hym ſelfe, and that in a way where beſoꝛe his foote had not troden.

4 Who hath made & created theſe thinges? euen he that called the generatiõs from the begynnyng, euen I the Loꝛd which am the firſt, and with the laſt.

5 The Iſles ſawe and dyd feare, and the endes of the earth were abaſhed, dꝛewe nygh, and came hyther.

6 Enery man helped his neyghbour, and ſayde to his bꝛother, Be ſtꝛong.

7 The carpenter comfoꝛted the goldſmith, and the goldſmith the hammerman, ſayeing, Sowder wyl doo very wel in it: and they faſtened it with nayles, that it ſhoulde not be moued. B

8 But thou Iſrael art my ſeruant, thou Jacob whom I haue choſen, thou art the ſeede of Abꝛaham my bꝛoued.

9 Thou

9 Thou art he whom I led from the endes of the earth: for I called thee euen from among the glorious men of it, and sayde vnto thee, Thou art my seruant, I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

Esai.44.b. 10 Be not afrayde, for I am with thee: Melt not away as waxe, for I am thy GOD to strengthe thee, helpe thee, and keepe thee with the right hande of my righteousnesse.

11 Beholde, al they that resist thee shal come to confusion and shame, and thyne aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to nought.

12 So that who so seeketh after them, shall not fynde them, thy destroyers shal perishe: and so shall they that vndertake to make batalle against thee be as that is not, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the Lorde thy God wyl strengthen thy right hande, euen I that say vnto thee, Feare not, I wyl helpe thee.

℣ 14 Be not afrayde, thou litle worme Jacob, and thou despised Israel: for I wyl helpe thee, sayth the Lord, and the holy one of Israel thy redeemer.

15 Beholde, I wyl make thee a treading cart and a newe flaile, that thou mayest threshe and grinde the mountaynes, and bryng the hilles to powder.

16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shal cary them away, and the whirle wind shal scatter them: but thou shalt reioyce in the Lorde, and shalt delight in the holy one of Israel.

Gene.21.c. 17 When the thirstie and poore seeke water and fynde none, and when their tongue is dryc of thirst, I geue it them, saith the lord, I the God of Israel forsake them not.

18 I bring foorth fluddes in the hilles, and Esai.25.b. 43.44.a. welles in the plaine feeldes: I turne the wildernesse to riuers, and the dryc land to conduites of water.

19 I plant in the waste grounde trees of Cedar, Boxe, Myrre, and Oliues, and in the dric I set Firre trees, Elmes, and Hawthornes togeather.

20 Al this doo I, that they altogeather may see and marke, perceaue with their hartes, and consyder that the hande of the Lorde maketh these things, and that the holy one of Israel bringeth them to passe.

21 Stande at your cause, sayth the Lord, and bring foorth your strongest grounde, sayth the kyng of Jacob.

D 22 Let them bring foorth their goddes, and let their goddes tel vs what shal chaunce hereafter, yea let them shewe vs the things that are past what they be, let them declare them vnto vs, that we may take them to hart, and knowe them hereafter.

23 Either shewe vs thinges for to come, and tel vs what shalbe donne hereafter, so shall we knowe that ye are goddes: doo some thing eyther good or bad, so wyl we both knowledge the same, and tel it out.

24 Beholde, ye are goddes of nought, and your making is of nought: yea abominable is the man that hath chosen you.

25 Neuertheless, I haue waked vp one from the north, and he shal come from the east, he shal call vpon my name, and shal treade vpon princes as vpon clay, and as the potter treadeth downe the myre. Esai.43.a. Cyrus.

26 Who declareth this from the beginning, and we wyl knowe him: or from the olde times, and we wyl confesse and say that he is ryghteous? but there is none that sheweth or declareth any thing, there is none also that heareth your woordes.

27 The fyrst is he that shal say to Sion, Beholde, behold they are present: and to Hierusalem it selfe wyl I geue an euangelist. ℣

28 But when I consyder there is not a man among them, nor any that can geue counsayle, nor that when I examine them that can answeare one woorde.

29 Loe wicked are they, and vayne, with the thinges also that they take in hande, yea their images are but wind & vaine things.

The comming of Christe.

A Mat 3.b. 12.a. 17.a.

1 BEhold this is my seruant vpon whom I leane, my elect in whom my soule is pacified: I haue geuen my spirite vpon him, that he may shewe foorth iudgement among the gentiles.

2 He shal not be an outcryer, nor lyft vp his voyce, his voyce shal not be hearde in the streetes.

3 And a broosed reede shal he not breake, & the smoking flaxe shal he not quenche: but faithfully & truely shal he geue iudgement.

4 He shal not be penslue nor careful, that he may restore righteousnesse vnto the earth: & the gentiles also shal looke for his lawes.

5 For thus sayth God the Lorde vnto him, euen he that made the heauens and spread them abroade, and set forth the earth with her encrease, which geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirite to them that dwel therein, Esai. 40 c. and.44.c.

6 I the Lorde haue called thee in ryghteousnesse, and wyl holde thee by the hande, and wyl also defende thee, and geue thee for a couenant of the people, to be the lyght of the gentiles. Esai. 49.c. Luke.2.c.

7 That thou mayst open ỹ eyes of ỹ blinde, let out the prisoners frō their bondes, and them that sit in darknesse out of the dungeon house. B Zach.9.b.

8 Euen I am the Lord, & this is my name: and my glory wil I geue to none other, neither myne honour to grauen images.
9 Beholde, olde thinges are come to paſſe, and newe thinges doo I declare, and or euer they comme I tel you of them.
10 Sing vnto the Lord a newe ſong of thankeſgeuing, blowe out his prayſe from the ende of the worlde: they that be vppon the ſea, and al that is therein prayſe him, the Iſles and they that dwel in them.
11 Let the wyldernesſe with the cities lyft vp her voyce, the townes alſo that they of Cedar dwel in: let them be glad that ſytte vppon rockes of ſtone, and let them crye downe from the high mountaines, 12 Aſcribing glory vnto the Lorde, and magnifying him among the gentiles.
13 The Lorde ſhal comme forth like a Giaunt, & take a ſtomacke to him like a freſhe man of warre: he ſhal roare and crye, and ouercome his enimies.
14 I haue long holden my peace (ſayth the Lorde) (a) I haue benne ſtil and refrained mee ſelfe, but nowe I wyl crie like a trauayling woman, and at once wyl I deſtroy and deuoure.
15 I wyl make waſte both mountayne and hil, and dryе vp euery greene thing that groweth thereon: I wyl dryе vp the fluds to become Ilandes, & drinke vp the riuers.
16 I wil bring the blinde into a ſtreete that they know not, and leade them into a footepath that they are ignorant in: I ſhal make darkneſſe light before them, and the thing that is crooked to be ſtraight: Theſe thinges haue I donne vnto them, and not forſaken them.
17 They are fallen backe, yea and let them be aſhamed earneſtly that hope in idols, and ſay to the moulten images, Ye are our goddes.
18 Heare O ye deafe men, and ſharpen your eyes to ſee, O ye blinde.
19 Who is blinde but my ſeruant? or ſo deafe as (b) my meſſenger whom I ſent vnto them? for who is ſo blinde as the perfect man, and ſo blinde as the Lordes ſeruant?
20 Thou haſt ſeene muche, and keepeſt nothing: & eares are open, & no man heareth.
21 The Lorde is merciful vnto them for his righteouſneſſe ſake, that his woorde might be magnifyed and prayſed:
22 (c) But the people them ſelues is robbed and trodenvnder the foote, chained in dungeons, and they al, I ſay, are ſhut into priſon houſes: they be caryed away captiue, and no man dooth looſe them: they be troden vnder foote, and no man dooth labour to bring them agayne.
23 But who is he among you that pondereth this, that conſydereth it, and taketh it for a warning in time to comme?
24 Who gaue Jacob to be troden vnder foote, and Iſrael to be ſpoyled? Did not the Lorde? Becauſe we haue ſinned agaynſt him, & haue had no delight to walke in his wayes, neither ben obedient vnto his law:
25 Therefore he hath powred vpon him his wrathful diſpleaſure and ſtrong batayle, and hath fyred him on euery ſyde, yet wyl he not vnderſtande: he burneth him vp, yet ſinketh it not into his hart.

(a) Chriſte for a time deferreth, as it were with paine, to deliuer his elect from the tyranny of antichriſt, but at the time appointed he wyl enforce hym ſelfe, as a woman in her trauaile, to deliuer his people.
(b) By the ſeruant, meſſenger, and the perfect man, he meaneth the Iewes and their prieſts, who ought of al other people to haue had knowledge, and ſo haue ſerued god perfectly.
(c) A greeuous ſentence againſt thoſe that wyl not beholde the light when it ſhineth, nor beleue gods woord when it is preached.

(a) Christe is the way, the world is the desart, the doctrine of the gospel, the waters, the wylde beastes, the cruel and superstitious misbeleuers.
20 The wyld beastes shal worshyp me, the dragons & the young Estriches: for I shal geue water in the wyldernes, and streames in the desart, that they may geue drynke to my people whom I chose.
D 21 This people haue I made for mee selfe, and they shal shewe forth my prayse.
22 For thou Jacob wouldest not cal vpon me, but thou haddest an vnlust toward me, O Israel.

The.xlvii.Chapter.

The woorde of the Lorde agaynst Babylon.

A 1 BVT as for thee, O daughter, thou virgin Babylon, syt thou downe in the dust, syt vpon the grounde, there is no throne, O thou daughter of Chaldea, for thou shalt no more be called tender and pleasant.

2 Bring foorth the querne & grinde meale, vntrusse thy broydred heare, put of thy shoes, make bare thy knees, and wade thorowe the water riuers.

Ezech. 16.c. Naum.4.a. 3 Thy fylthynesse shalbe discouered, and thy priuities shalbe seene: for I wil auenge me of thee, and wyl shew no mercie to thee, as I doo to other men.

4 Our redeemer is called the Lorde of hoastes, the holy one of Israel.

5 Sit stil, holde thy tongue, geat thee into some darke corner, O daughter Chaldea: for thou shalt no more be called ladye of kyngdomes.

Deut. 21.b. Iere.59.b. 6 I was so wroth with my people, that I punished myne inheritance, and gaue them into thy power, neuertheless, thou shewedst them no mercie, but euen the very aged of them diddest thou oppresse ryght soare with thy yoke.

C 7 And thou thoughtest thus, I shalbe lady for euer, and beyde al that, thou hast not regarded these things, neither remembred what was the ende of that citie Hierusalem.

Esai. 20.b. Reuel. 18.c.

9 And yet both these thinges shal come to thee vpon one day in the twinckling of an eye, namely widowhood and desolation: they mightyly fall vpon thee, for the multitude of thy witches, and for the great heape of thy coniurers.

Daniel. 5.e.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickednesse, and hast sayde, No man seeth me: thyne owne wysedome and cunnyng hath deceiued thee, in that thou hast saide in thyne hart, I am alone, and without me there is none.

Esai. 29.c.

11 Therefore shal trouble comme vpon thee, and thou shalt not knowe from whence it shal ryse: mischeefe shal fall vpon thee, whiche thou shalt not be able to put of, a sodayne vtter destruction shal comme vpon thee or euer thou be ware.

12 Nowe goe to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches with whom thou hast wearyed thee selfe from thy youth, yf they may helpe thee or strength thee.

13 Thou hast hitherto had many counsailes of them: So let the heauen gasers, and the beholders of starres, and moone prophets, comme on nowe and deliuer thee, yea and let them shewe when these newe thinges shal come vpon thee.

C 14 Beholde, they shalbe lyke strawe, whiche yf it be kyndled with fyre, no man may ridde it for the vehemencie of the flame, & yet it geueth no sinders to warme a man by, nor cleare fyre to syt by.

3 And saide vnto me, Thou art my seruant Israel, I wyl be honoured in thee.

4 Then I answered, I haue lost my labour, I haue spent my strength in vayne: Neuertheless I wyll commit my cause and my worke vnto the Lorde my God. John.17.b.

5 And nowe, sayth the Lorde, Euen he that fashioned me from my mothers wombe to be his seruant, that I may bryng Jacob agayne vnto hym, albeit Israel wyl not be geathered vnto hym agayne, yet in Gods sight shal I be glorious, my God shalbe my strength.

6 And he sayde, It is but a smal thing that thou art my seruant to set vp the kynredes of Jacob, and to restore the destruction of Israel: For I haue made thee the lyght of the Gentiles, that thou mayst be my health vnto the ende of the worlde. Esai.42.b. John.8.b. Actes.13.c.

1 THus sayth the Lorde, Where is the byl A Ierem.3.a. of your mothers deuorcement, whom Esai.59.a. I sent away? or who is the vsurer to whom I solde you? Behold, for your offences are ye solde, and because of your transgression is your mother forsaken.

2 For why would no man receiue me when Num.11.c. I came? and when I called no man gaue Esai.59.a. me answere? Is my hand shortned that it Exod.14.c. myght not helpe? or haue I not power to Iosua.3.d. delyuer? loe, at a woorde I drynke vp the sea, and of water fluddes I make dry land: so that for want of water the fishe dooth corrupt, and dye for thirste.

3 As for heauen, I clothe it with darknes, Exod.10.c. and put as it were a sacke vpon it. I.Cor.1.a.

4 The Lord God hath geuen me a wel learned tongue, so that I canne comforte them that are troubled, yea, and that in due season: he wakeneth myne eare vp betymes in the morning, I say betymes in the morning he wyll waken myne eare, that I myght hearken as to the scolemaisters.

5 The Lorde God hath opened myne eare, The Epistle and I haue not gainesayd, nor withdrawen on the Tuesday before mee selfe. Easter.

6 But I offred my backe vnto the smyters, Mat.16.g. and my cheekes to the nyppers: I turned Luke.20.c. not my face from shame and spyttynges, Psalm.55.a

7 And the Lorde God shal helpe me, there- Heb.13.a. fore shal I not be confounded: I haue therfore hardened my face lyke a flynt stone, for I am sure that I shal not comme to confusion. B

8 He is at hande that iustifieth me, who wil then goe with me to lawe? Let vs stande togeather, yf there be any that wyl reason with me? let hym comme here foorth to me?

9 Beholde, the Lorde God wyl helpe me, Rom.8.b. what is he then that can condemne me? Psal.102.b loe, they al shal waxe olde lyke a cloth, the 2.Pet.3.b. moth shal eate them vp.

10 Therfore

10 Therfore who so feareth the Lord among you, let him heare the voyce of his seruant: Who so walketh in darknesse, and no light shyneth vpon hym, let hym put his trust in the name of the Lorde, and holde hym by his God.

11 But take heede, ye al kyndle a fyre, and stirre vp the coales: walke on in the glistering of your owne fyre, and in the coales that ye haue kyndled: This commeth vnto you from my hande (namely) that ye shal sleepe in sorowe.

The.li. Chapter.

Consolation and comfort is promised vnto the faythful.

A 1 HEarken vnto me ye that hold of righteousnesse, and ye that seeke the Lord: take heede to the stone whereout ye are hewen, and to the graue whereout ye are dygged.

Gen. 21.a Rom. 4.a. Gen. 12.a. 2 Consyder Abraham your father, and Sara that bare you, howe that I called hym alone, and blessed hym, and encreased hym.

3 Therefore shal the Lorde comfort Sion, and repayre al her decay, makyng her desart as a paradise, and her wylderneſſe as the garden of the Lorde: Myrth and ioy shalbe founde there, thankesgeuyng, and the voyce of prayse.

4 Haue respect vnto me then, O my people both high and lowe, and lay thine eare vnto me: for a lawe and an ordinance shal goe forth fro me to lighten the gentiles.

Esai. 9.a. 5 It is hard by that my healthy and my righteousnesse shal goe forth, and the people shalbe ordered with mine arme: the Ilands (that is the gentiles) shal hope in me, and put theyr trust in myne arme.

Psal. 102.d Mat. 24.c. 2. Pet. 3. 6 Lyft vp your eyes towarde heauen, and looke vpon the earth beneath: for the heauens shal vanishe away lyke smoke, and the earth shal waxe olde lyke a garment, and they that dwel therein shal perysshe in lyke manner: but my saluation shal endure for euer, and my ryghteousnesse shal not ceasse.

B 7 Hearken vnto me, ye that haue knowledge in ryghteousnesse, thou people that beareſt my lawe in thyne hart: feare not the reuylinges of men, be not afrayde of theyr blasphemies.

Jere. 21.f. Mat. 10.d. Luke. 12.a.

Psal. 102.b 8 For wormes and mothes shal eate them vp lyke cloth and wool: but my righteousnesse shal endure for euer, and my sauyng health from generation to generation.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, and be strong, O thou arme of the Lorde, wake vp, lyke as in tyme past, euer, and synce the worlde began.

10 Art not thou the same arme that hast wounded the proud, and hewen the dragon in peeces? Art not thou euen the same whiche hast dried vp the deepe of the sea, which hast made playne the sea grounde, that the deliuered might go through?

Esai. 14.d. Exod. 14.c.

11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shal turne agayne, and come with ioy vnto Sion, continual ioy shalbe on theyr head, and mirth and gladnesse shalbe with them, and sorowe and woe shal flee from them.

1. Esd. 1.b. 2. Cor. 1.c.

12 Yea I, (euen) I am he that in al thyngs geueth you consolation: what art thou then that feareſt a mortal man, and the childe of man, which goeth away as doth the flowre?

Esai. 40.a. 1. Pet. 1.b.

13 And forgetteſt the Lord that made thee, that spread out the heauens, and layde the fundation of the earth: but thou art euer afrayde for the syght of thyne oppressour, whiche is redy to do harme: where is the wrath of the oppressour?

14 The exile maketh haste to be loosed, that he dye not in prison, and that his bread fayle hym not. C

15 I am the Lorde thy God that diuide the sea, and his waues shal rage, whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

Mat. 8.a. Esai. 48.a.

16 I haue put my wordes in thy mouth, and haue defended thee in the shadowe of my hande, that I may plant the heauens, and lay the fundation of the earth, and say vnto Sion, Thou art my people.

Esai. 49.a. Psal. 75.b. Jere. 25.c.

17 Awake, awake, and stande vp, O Hierusalem, thou that from the hand of the Lord hast drunken out the cup of his wrath, thou that hast supped of and sucked out the slumbryng cuppe to the bottome.

18 For among al the sonnes whom he hath begotten, there is not one that may hold it vp, and not one to leade it by the hande of al the sonnes that he hath nourished.

19 Both these thynges are happened vnto thee, but who is sory for it? yea destruction, waſtyng, hunger, and sworde, but who wyl comfort thee?

20 Thy sonnes lye comfortlesse at the head of euery streete lyke a taken venison, and are ful of the terrible wrath of the Lorde, and pounishment of thy God.

21 And therefore thou miserable and drunken (howbeit not with wine) heare this: D

22 Thus sayth the Lord, thy Lord and God, the defender of his people, Beholde, I wyl take the slumbryng cuppe out of his hande, euen the cuppe with the dregs of my wrath, that from henceforth thou shalt neuer drynke of it more:

23 But I wil put it into theyr hande that trouble thee, whiche haue spoken to thy soule, Stoupe downe, that we may go ouer ther, thee, make thy body euen with the ground, and as the ſtreete to go vpon.

2 Shake thee from the duſt, aryſe and ſtand vp, O Hieruſalem: plucke out thy necke from the bonde, O thou captiue daughter Sion.

Rom.7.b. 3 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye are ſolde for nought, therefore ſhal ye be redeemed alſo without any money.

Gen.46.a. Exod.1.a. 4.Kin.18.c. 4 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, My people went downe aforetyme into Egypt, there to be ſtrangers, and the kyng of the Aſſyrians oppreſſed them without anye cauſe.

Ezech.36.d Rom.2.a. 5 And nowe, what profite is it to me, ſayth the Lorde, that my people is freely caryed away, and brought into heauineſſe by their rulers, and my name euer styl blaſphemed, ſayth the Lorde?

6 But that my people may know my name, I mee ſelfe will ſpeake in that day, Behold here am I.

B Num.2.a. Rom.10.c. 7 O howe beautiful are the feete of the embaſſadour that bryngeth the meſſage from the mountayne, and proclaymeth peace? that bryngeth the good tydinges, and preacheth health, and ſayth vnto Sion, Thy God is the kyng.

1.Iohn.1.e. 8 Thy watchmen ſhal lyft vp their voyce, with ounde voyce they ſhal reioyce together: for they ſhal ſee playnely when the Lorde ſhal conuert Sion.

Eſai.49.c. 9 Be glad, O thou deſolate Hieruſalem, and reioyce together: for the Lorde hath comforted his people, he hath deliuered Hieruſalem.

Pſal.98.a. 10 The Lord hath made bare his holy arme, and ſhewed it forth in the ſyght of al the gentiles, and al the endes of the earth hath ſeene the ſauyng health of our God.

2.Cor.6.c. 11 Away, away, geat you out from hence, and touche no vncleane thing: go out from among ſuche, and be cleane that beare the veſſel of the Lorde.

12 For ye ſhal not eſcape by runnyng, nor by fleeing away: but the Lord ſhal goe before you, and the God of Iſrael ſhal gather you togeather.

(a) Chriſt is called Gods ſeruant for his office ſake, whiche he exerciſed in the tyme of his abaſing him ſelfe in the fleaſhe. 13 Beholde my (a) ſeruaunt ſhal deale proſperouſly, therefore ſhal he be magnified, exalted, and greatly honoured.

The.liii.Chapter.

I. He propheſieth euidently of the paſſion of our ſauiour Ieſus Chriſte.

A 1 BVt who hath geuen credence vnto our preaching? or to whom is the arme of the Lorde knowen? John.12.e. Rom.12.c.

2 For he dyd growe before the Lord lyke as a branche, and as a roote in a drye ground, he hath neither beautie nor fauour: when we looke vpon him there ſhalbe no fayreneſſe, we ſhal haue no luſt vnto hym.

Eſai.52.c. Heb.5.a. 3 He is deſpiſed and abhorred of men, he is ſuche a man as hath good experience of ſorowes and infirmities: We haue reckoned him ſo vile, that we hid our faces from him.

Mat.8.b. 1.Pet.2.c. 4 Howbeit, he only hath taken on hym our infirmitie, and borne our paynes: yet we did iudge him as though he were plagued, and caſt downe of God.

2.Cor.11.a. 5 Whereas he (notwithſtanding) was wounded for our offences, and ſmytten for our wyckedneſſe: for the payne of our punishment was laide vpon him, and with his ſtrypes are we healed.

Pſal.119.a. 6 As for vs, we are al gone aſtray like ſheepe, euerye one hath turned his owne way: but the Lord hath throwen vpon him al our ſinnes.

B Iere.11.d. Mat.27.b. Actes.8.d. 2.Cor.5.c. 7 He ſuffred violence, and was euyl entreated, and did not open his mouth: he ſhalbe led as a ſheepe to be ſlayne, yet ſhal he be as ſtyl as a lambe before the ſhearer, and not open his mouth.

8 From the pryſon and iudgement was he taken, & his generation who can declare? for he was cut of from the grounde of the lyuyng, whiche pounithment dyd goe vpon hym for the tranſgreſſion of my people.

Mat.27.c. 9 His graue was geuen hym with the condemned, and with the riche man at his death, whereas he dyd neuer violence nor vnright, neither hath there bene any deceiptfulneſſe in his mouth. 2.Cor.5.c. 1.Pet.2.d. John.12.c.

Rom.3.c. 11 Of the trauayle and labour of his soule shal he see the fruite, and be satisfied: my righteous seruant shal with his knowledge iustifie the multitude, for he shal beare their sinnes.

12 Therefore wyl I geue hym among the great ones his parte, and he shal diuide the spoyle with the myghty, because he geueth ouer his soule to death, and is reckened among the transgressours: whiche neuertheless hath taken away the sinnes of the multitude, and made intercession for the misdoers.

1 A Galat.4.d. Luke.13.c. BE glad nowe thou barren that bearest not, reioyce, syng, and be mery, thou that art not with chyld: for the desolate hath moe chyldren then the married wyfe, sayth the Lorde.

2 Make thy tent wyder, and spreade out the hangynges of thyne habitation: spare not, laye foorth thy cordes, and make faste thy stakes:

3 For thou shalt be multiplyed on the right side, and on the left, and thy seede shal haue the gentiles in possession, and dwel in the desolate cities.

4 Feare not, for thou shalt not be confounded: be not ashamed, for thou shalt not come to confusion: yea, thou shalt forgeat the shame of thy youth, & shalt not remember the dishonour of thy widowhead.

Esai.57.a. Ezech.16.b 2.Cor.11.a. 5 For he that made thee shalbe thy lord and husbande (whose name is the Lorde of hostes) and thy redeemer shalbe euen the holy one of Israel, the Lorde of the whole worlde.

B 7 Esai.26.c. Psalm.29.a A lytle whyle haue I forsaken thee: but with great mercyfulnesse shal I take thee vp vnto me.

8 When I was angry I hyd my face from thee for a litle season: but through euerlastyng goodnes haue I pardoned thee, saith the Lorde thy redeemer.

Gene.9.b. 9 And this is vnto me as the water of Noe: for lyke as I haue sworne that I wyl not bryng the water of Noe any more vpon the worlde: so haue I sworne that I wyl neuer be angry with thee, nor rebuke thee.

2. Ring.7.a

10 The mountaynes shal remoone, and the hylles shal be ouerthrowen, but my louyng kindnesse shal not moone, and the bonde of my peace shall not fal awaye from thee, sayth the Lorde thy mercyful louer.

Esai.6.a. 11 Behold thou poore, wexed, and despised, I wyl make thy walles of precious stones, and thy fundation of Saphires,

1. Iohn.2.b and.4.d. C 13 Thy chyldren shalbe al taught of God, & I wyl geue thee plenteousnesse of peace.

14 In rychteousnesse shalt thou be grounded, and be farre from oppression: for the whiche thou needest not to be afrayde, neyther for hynderance, for it shal not comme nygh thee.

15 Lo, who so gathereth togeather (against thee, doth it) without me, and who so within thee, dooth ioyne togeather agaynst thee, shal surely fal.

16 Behold, I make the Smyth that blowe-eth the coales in the fire, and he maketh a weapon after his handye worke: I make also the waster to destroy.

Luke.21.b. Actes.4.a. 17 But al the weapons that are made agaynst thee, shal not prosper: and as for all tongues that shal resist thee in iudgement, thou shalt ouercomme them, and condemne them: this is the heritage of the Lordes seruantes, and their rychteousnesse commeth of me, sayth the Lorde.

A Eccle.51.d. John.7.d. Apoc.22.b. 1 COme to the waters, al ye that be thirstie, and ye that haue no money, come, buye, that ye maye haue to eate: come buye wyne and mylke without anye money or money worth.

Actes.13.b 2.Sam.7.c 2 Wherefore doo ye laye out any money for the thyng that feedeth not, and spende your labour about the thyng that satisfieth you not? But hearken rather vnto me, and ye shal eate of the best, and your soule shall haue her pleasure in plenteousnesse.

3 Encline your eares, and comme vnto me, take heede, (I say) and your soule shal liue: for I wyll make an euerlastyng couenant with you, euen the sure mercies of Dauid.

4 Behold, I gaue hym for a witnes among the folke, for a prince and a teacher vnto the people.

Psal.103.a. Esai.65.d. 7 Let the vngodly man forsake his owne wayes, and the vnrighteous his owne imaginations, and turne againe vnto the Lord, so shal he be mercyful vnto hym, and to our God, for he is very redy to forgeue.

8 For thus sayth the Lorde, My thoughtes are not your thoughts, and your wayes are not my wayes.

Deut.32.a. 9 But as farre as the heauens are hygher then the earth: so farre do my wayes excede yours, and my thoughtes yours.

10 And lyke as the rayne and snowe commeth downe from heauen, & returneth not thyther agayne, but watereth the earth, maketh it fruiteful and greene, that it may geue corne vnto the sower, and bread to hym that eateth.

11 So the woorde also that commeth out of my mouth, shal not turne agayne voyd vnto me, but shal accomplishe my wyll, and prosper in the thyng whereto I sende it.

12 And so shal ye goe forth with ioy, and be led with peace: the mountaynes and hilles shal sing with you for ioy, and all the trees of the fielde shal clappe theyr handes.

13 For thornes there shal grow fyrre trees, and the myrre tree in the steade of bryers: and this shalbe donne to the prayse of the Lord, and for an euerlasting token that shal not be taken away.

11 The Lord shal euer be thy guide, & satisfie the desyre of thy hart in ỹ time of drought, and fyl thy bones with marowe: thou shalt be like a freshe watered garden, and like the fountayne of water that neuer leaueth runnyng.

Iohn.4.b.

12 Then the places that haue euer ben waste, shalbe builded of thee, there shalt thou lay a fundation for manye kinredes: thou shalt be called the maker vp of the breache, and the builder agayne of the way to dwel in,

Esai.56.a. and.66.d. 13 Yea, yf thou turne thy feete from the sabboth, so that thou do not the thyng whiche pleaseth thee selfe in my holy day, and thou cal the pleasant, holy, and glorious sabboth of the Lorde, and that thou geue hym the honour, so that thou do not after thine owne imagination, neyther seeke thine owne wil, nor speake (thine owne) wordes:

14 Then shalt thou haue thy pleasure in the Lorde, and I wyl cary thee high aboue the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Iacob thy father: for the Lordes owne mouth hath so promised.

The.lix. Chapter.

1. The Lorde is mightie to saue, and redy to heare our requestes, 12. our sinnes are the cause why God heareth not vs, neither graunteth our requestes.

1 BEholde the Lordes hande is not so shortened that it can not helpe, neither is his eare so stopped that it may not heare.

Esai.50.a. Num.11.a.

2 But your misdeedes haue separated you from your God, and your sinnes hyde his face from you, that he heareth you not.

Iere.5.b. Esai.1.d.

3 For your handes are defiled with blood, and your fyngers with vnryghteousnesse: your lyppes speake leasynges, and your tongue setteth out wyckednesse.

4 No man regardeth righteousnesse, and no man iudgeth truely: euery man hopeth in vayne thinges, and imagineth deceipt, conceiueth weerinesse, and bringeth forth euil.

Iob.15.d Psal.7.b. 5 They breede cockatrice egges, and weaue the spiders webbe, who so eateth of their egges dyeth: but yf one treade vpon them, there commeth vp a serpent.

6 Their webbe maketh no cloth, and they may not couer them with their labours: their deedes are the deedes of wickednesse, & the worke of robberie is in their handes.

7 Their feete runne to euil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their counsels are wicked counsels, harme and destruction are in their wayes.

Pro.1.a. Psal.5.d. and.13.a. Rom.13.d.

8 But the way of peace they knowe not, in B their goynges is no equitie: their wayes are so crooked, that whosoeuer goeth therin knoweth of no peace.

9 And this is the cause that equitie is so farre from vs, and that ryghteousnesse commeth not nigh vs: we looke for lyght, loe it is darkenesse, for the morning shine, see, we walke in the darke.

Esai.5.a. Iob.30.b. Deut.28.c. Iohn.12.c.

10 We grope like the blind vpon the wall, we grope euen as one that hath no eyes, we stumble at the noone day, as though it were towarde night in the fallyng places, lyke men that are halfe dead.

11 We roare al like beares, and mourne stil lyke doues: we looke for equitie, but there is none: for health, but it is farre from vs.

12 For our offences are many before thee, and our sinnes testifie agaynst vs: yea we must confesse that we offende, and knowledge that we do amisse:

13 (Namely) transgresse and dissemble agaynst the Lorde, and fal away from our God, vsyng presumptuous and trayterous imaginations, and casting false matters in our hartes.

14 And therefore is equitie gone aside, and ryghteousnesse standeth farre of, trueth is fallen downe in the streete, and the thyng that is playne & open, may not be shewed.

C Deut.4.a

15 Yea, the trueth is taken away, and he that refrayneth him selfe from euyl, must be spoyled: when the Lorde sawe this, it displeased him soare that there was no equitie.

16 He sawe also that there was no man righteous, and he wondred that there was no man to helpe him: wherefore he helde hym by his owne power, and he sustayned hym by his owne righteousnesse.

17 He put ryghteousnesse vpon hym for a brest plate, he set the helmet of healthy vpon his head: he put on wrath in the steade of clothyng, and tooke ielousie about hym for a cloke.

Ephes. 6.b. 1.Thes.5.a.

18 Euen as when a man goeth forth wrathfully to recompence his enimies, and to be auenged of his aduersaries, he wil recompence and rewarde the Ilandes.

19 They shal feare the name of the Lorde from the rysyng of the sunne, and his maiestie vnto the goyng downe of the same: for he shal come as a violent water streame which the winde of the Lorde hath moued.

Rom.11.d. Psal.13.a.

20 But vnto Sion there shal come a redeemer, deemer, and vnto them in Iacob that turne from wickednesse, sayth the Lorde.

21 I wyl make this couenant with them (sayth the Lorde:) My spirite that is vpon thee, and the woordes which I haue put in thy mouth, shal neuer go out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy chylders chylderen, from this tyme forth for euermore worlde without ende, sayth the Lorde.

The.lx.Chapter.

1. A consolation and comfort to Hierusalem.
5. The Church is geathered togeather among the Gentiles by preachyng of the Gospel,
16. and aboundeth with al good thynges.

A 1 GEat thee vp betymes, and be bright (O Hierusalem) for thy lyght commeth, and the glorie of the Lord is rysen vp vpon thee. Actes.26.c. Ephes.5.b

2 For loe, whyle the darknesse and cloude couereth the earth and the people, the Lord shal shewe thee lyght, and his glorye shalbe seene in thee.

3 The Gentiles shal comme to thy light, and kinges to the brightnesse that springeth forth vpon thee.

4 Lyft vp thyne eyes, & looke rounde about thee: al these geather them selues & comme to thee, thy sonnes shal comme vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters shal geather them selues to thee on euery syde. Esai.49.d Mar.7.d Gen.15.a

5 Then thou shalt see this and be glorious, thou shalt marueyle exceedingly, and thine hart shalbe opened: when the abundance of the sea shalbe conuerted vnto thee (that is) when the ryches of the Gentiles shal come vnto thee,

6 The multitude of camels shal couer thee, the Dromedaries of Madian and Epha: al they of Saba shal comme, bryngyng golde and incense, and shewyng the prayse of the Lorde. Psal.72.d Mat.2.b

B 7 Al ỹ cattel of Cedar shalbe geathered vnto thee, the rammes of Nabaioth shal serue thee, to be offered acceptably vpon myne aulter, and the house of my glory wil I garnishe.

8 But what are these that flee here lyke the cloudes, and as the doues fleeyng to their wyndowes? Heb.13.b

9 The Iles also shal wayte for me, & specially the ships of Tharsis, that they may bryng thy sonnes from farre, and their syluer and their golde with them, vnto the name of the Lorde thy God, vnto the holy one of Israel that hath glorified thee.

10 Strangers shal buylde vp thy walles, and their kynges shal doo thee seruice: for when I was angry, I smote thee, and of my mercy I pardoned thee. Esai.53.d

11 Thy gates shal stande open styl both day and nyght, and neuer be shut, that the host of the Gentiles may comme, and that their kynges may be brought vnto thee. Apoc.21.d

12 For euerye people and kyngdome that serueth not thee shal perish, and be destroyed with vtter destruction.

13 The glory of Libanus shal comme vnto thee, the Firre trees, Boxes, and Cedars togeather, to garnishe the place of my sanctuarie: for I wyl glorifie the place of my feete.

14 Moreouer those shal come kneeling vnto thee that haue vexed thee, and al they that despise thee shal fal downe at thy foote: thou shalt be called the citie of the Lorde, Sion (the citie) of the holy one of Israel. C

15 Because thou hast benne forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee: I wyl make thee glorious for euer and euer, and ioyful throughout al posterities.

16 Thou shalt sucke the milke of the Gentiles, & kynges breastes shal feede thee: and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde am thy sauiour and redeemer, the myghtie one of Iacob. Esai.49.c

17 For brasse, wyl I geue thee golde, & for iron, siluer: for wood, brasse, and for stones, iron: I wil turne thine oppression into peace, and thyne exactions into righteousnesse.

18 Violence & robberie shal neuer be heard of in thy lande, neither harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called health, & thy gates the prayse of god.

19 The sunne shal neuer be thy day lyght, and the lyght of the moone shal neuer shine vnto thee: but the Lorde him selfe shalbe thyne euerlasting light, and thy God shalbe thy glory. Apoc.21.a

20 Thy sunne shal neuer goe downe, and thy moone shal not be hyd: for the Lord him selfe shalbe thine euerlasting lyght, and thy sorowful dayes shalbe ended. Apoc.22.b

21 Thy people shalbe al righteous and possesse the lande euer, the floure of my plantyng, the worke of my handes whereof I wyl reioyce. D

22 The youngest and least shal growe into a thousande, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shal shortly bryng this thing to passe in his tyme.

The.lxi.Chapter.

1. He prophesieth that Christe shalbe annoynted and sent to preache.

1 THE spirite of the Lord is vpon me: for the Lorde hath annoynted me, and sent me to preache good tydynges vnto the poore, Luke.4.c and.7.c. Esai.11.a Esai.57.b and.66.a

poore, that I myght bynde vp the wounded hartes, that I myght preache deliuerance to the captiue, and open the prison to them that are bounde:

Mat.15.a and.11.a

2 That I might declare the acceptable yeere of the Lorde, and the day of the vengeance of our God: that I myght comfort al them that are in heauyneſſe:

3 That I might geue vnto thē that mourne in Sion, that I might geue (I ſay) beautie in ſteede of aſhes, ioyful oyntment for ſyghing, pleaſant raymēt for an heauy mind, that they myght be called trees of ryghteouſneſſe, a plantyng of the Lorde for hym to reioyce in.

4 They ſhal buylde the long rongh wylderneſſe, and ſet vp the olde deſart: they ſhal repayre the waſt places, and ſuche as haue ben voyde throughout many generations.

5 Strangers ſhal ſtande and feede your cattel, and the alyantes ſhalbe your plowmen, and dreſſers of your vines.

Eſai.66.a Ierr.33.d

6 But ye ſhalbe named the prieſtes of the Lord, and menne ſhal cal you the ſeruantes of our God: ye ſhal enioy the goodes of the Gentiles, and triumph in their ſubſtance.

7 For your great repproofe you ſhal haue double ioy, and for ſhame ſhal they haue ioy of their portion: for they ſhal haue double poſſeſſion in their lande, and euerlaſtyng ioy ſhalbe with them.

8 For I the Lorde whiche loue ryght and hate robberie (though it were offered me) ſhal make their woorkes ful of faythfulneſſe, and make an euerlaſtyng couenant with them.

9 Their ſeede alſo and their generation ſhalbe knowen among the Gentiles, and among the people: al they that ſee them, ſhal knowe that they are the hygh bleſſed ſeede of the Lorde.

Luke.2.b Pſal.132.a. Ezech.16.b

10 And therfore I am ioyful in the Lorde, and my ſoule reioyceth in God: for he hath put vpon me the garment of ſaluation, and couered me with the mantle of ryghteouſneſſe: he ſhal decke me lyke a bridegrome, and as a bryde that hath her apparel vpon her.

11 For lyke as the grounde bryngeth foorth her fruite, and as the garden ſhooteth forth ſeede: ſo ſhal the Lorde God cauſe ryghteouſneſſe and prayſe to florifhe foorth before al the Heathen.

The.lxii. Chapter.

I. A prophecie of the comming of Chriſte.

A1 FOR Sions ſake wyl I not holde my tongue, and for Hieruſalems ſake I wil not ceaſſe, vntyl their righteouſneſſe breake foorth as the ſhining lyght, and their ſaluation as a burnyng lampe.

2 Then ſhal the Gentiles ſee thy righteouſneſſe, and al kynges thy glory: thou ſhalt be named with a new name, which the mouth of the Lorde ſhal ſhewe.

John.1.a Apoc.2.c

3 Thou ſhalt be a crowne in the hand of the Lorde, and a glorious garlande in the hand of thy God.

4 From this tyme forth thou ſhalt neuer be called the forſaken, and thy lande ſhal no more be called the wylderneſſe: but thou ſhalt be called, My pleaſure is in her, and thy land ſhalbe called the maryed woman: for the Lorde loueth thee, and thy lande ſhalbe ioyned in mariage.

Ezech.16.b Oſee.2.c Eſai.54.a

5 And lyke as a young man taketh a virgin to mariage, ſo ſhal thy ſonnes be maryed vnto thee: and as a brydegrome is gladde of his bryde, ſo ſhal thy GOD reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue ſet watchmen vpon thy walles, O Hieruſalem, whiche ſhal neyther ceaſſe day nor nyght to preache the Lorde: and ye alſo that remember the Lorde, ye ſhal not keepe hym cloſe,

7 Nor leaue to ſpeake of hym, vntyl Hieruſalem be ſet vp, and made the prayſe of the worlde. B

8 The Lord hath ſworne by his right hand and by his ſtrong arme, that from hencefoorth he wyl not geue thy corne to be meat for thyne enimies, nor thy wyne wherein thou haſt laboured, to be drynke for the ſtrangers.

9 But they that haue geathered in the corne, ſhal eate it, and geue thankes to the Lorde: and they that haue borne in the wine, ſhal drinke it in the court of my ſanctuarie.

10 Go you, go you thrugh the gates, make cleane the way for the people, make plaine, make playne the foote path, and take away the ſtones out of it, and ſet out a token for the people.

11 Behelde the Lord proclaymeth vnto the endes of the worlde, Tel the daughter Sion, See thy ſauiour commeth, beholde he bryngeth his recompence with hym, and his woorke before hym.

Eſai.40.b Zach.9.b Mat.21.a

12 For they whom the Lorde deliuereth, ſhalbe called the holy people: and as for thee, thou ſhalt be named the greatly occupyed, and not the forſaken citie.

The.lxiii. Chapter.

7. Of the redemption promiſed to the people.

1 What

The Epistle on the Munday before Easter.

1 What is he this that commeth from Edom, with redde coloured clothes from Bosra? he is honourably arayed, and commeth in mightyly with his power: I am he that teacheth righteousnesse, and am of power to helpe.

2 Wherefore then is my clothyng red, and thy rayment like his that treadeth in the wine presse?

3 I haue troden the presse mee selfe alone, and of al people there is not one with me: thus wyl I treade them downe in my wrath, and set my feete vpon them in mine indignation, and their blood shal be sprong vpon my clothes, and so wyl I staine al my rayment.

Esai. 34.b. 4 For the day of vengeance is assigned in my hart, and the yeere when my people shalbe delinered is come.

5 I looked about me, & there was no man to shewe me any helpe, I marueyled that no man helde me vp: then I helde me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnesse sustayned me.

6 And thus wil I treade downe the people in my wrath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and vppon the earth wyl I laye their strength.

B 7 I wyl declare the goodnesse of the Lord, yea and the prayse of the Lord for al that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louing kindnesse.

Exod. 15.a. Esai. 12.a.

8 For he saide, These no doubt are my people, and no shrinking children: and so was he their sauiour.

9 In their troubles, he was also troubled with them, and the angel that went foorth from his presence deliuered them: of very loue and kindnesse that he had vnto them he redeemed them, he hath borne them and caried them vp euer since the world began.

Exod. 13. 14.d. 24.c.

10 But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy spirite, he was their enimie, and fought against them him selfe.

11 Yet remembred Israel the olde time of Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with them that feede his sheepe? Where is he that hath geuen his holy spirite among them?

Exod. 43.c.

Psal. 77.a. 12 He led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arme, diuiding the water before them, whereby he gate him selfe an euerlasting name.

13 He led them in the deepe as an horse is ledde in the plaine, that they shoulde not stumble.

14 As a tame beast goeth in the feelde, and the spirite of God geueth him rest: thus (O God) hast thou led thy people to make thee selfe a glorious name withal.

15 Looke downe then from heauen, and beholde from the dwelling place of thy sanctuarie and thy glory: howe is it that thy gelousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louing kindnesse wyl not be intreated of vs?

C Deut. 26.d Baruc. 2.c.

16 Yet art thou our father: for Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Israel acquainted with vs: but thou Lorde art our father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlasting.

Mat. 6.d. Luke. 11.a. and. 23.a.

17 O Lorde, wherefore hast thou led vs out of the way? wherefore hast thou hardened our hartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs agayne for thy seruantes sake, and for the generation of thyne heritage.

Psal. 119.b.

18 Thy holy people haue hadde but a litle whyle thy sanctuarie in possession, for our enimies haue troden downe thy holye place.

19 And we were thyne from the beginnyng, when thou wast not their Lorde, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

The.lxiiii.Chapter.

1 The prophete (vnder the person of the Iewes) bewayleth their exile and banishment. 6. Mans ryghteousnesse is lyke a cloth defyled.

A 1 O That thou wouldest cleaue the heauens in sunder and come downe, that the mountaynes myght melt away at thy presence.

2 Lyke as at an hotte fyre, and (that the mahtious myght boyle away) as the water doth vpon the fyre: whereby thy name myght be knowen among thine enimies, and that the gentiles myght tremble before thee.

3 When thou wroughtest woonderous strange woorkes, we looked not for them: thou camest downe, and the hilles melted at thy presence.

4 For since the beginnyng of the worlde, it hath not ben hearde or perceaued, neyther hath any eye seene another god beside thee, whiche dooest so muche for them that put their trust in thee.

1. Cor. 2.a.

5 Thou helpest hym that dooth right with chearefulnesse, and them that thinke vpon thee in thy wayes: but loe, thou hast benne angry, for we offended, and haue ben euer in sinne, though the world haue cleaued to them, yet shal we be saued.

Rom. 3.b. Psal. 14.a.

Rom.9.c. 8 But nowe, O Lorde, thou father of ours, we are thy clay, and thou art our potter, and we al are the woorke of thy handes.

Pſal.79.a. Iere.10.d. 9 Be not to ſoare diſpleaſed, O Lorde, and keepe not our offences to long in thy remembrance: but conſyder that we all are thy people.

Mich.3.c. 10 The cities of thy ſanctuarie lye waſte, Sion is a wylderneſſe, and Hieruſalem a deſart.

11 Our holye houſe, whiche is our beautie where our fathers prayſed thee, is brent vp: yea, al our commodities and pleaſures are waſted away.

¶ The ende of the booke of the prophete Esai.

The booke of the prophete Jeremie.

The fyrst Chapter.

1. The stocke of Jeremie, and in what tyme he prophecied. 6. He excuseth hym selfe and woulde refuse the office of a prophete, because he is young and vnexpert. 8. He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth bolde.

A1 THese are ỹ sermons of Jeremie the sonne of Helkiah ỹ priest, one of thē that dwelt at Anathoth in ỹ lande of Beniamin,

Jere.11.a

2 When the Lord had first spoken with him in the tyme of Josiah the sonne of Amon kyng of Juda, in the thirteenth yeere of his raigne:

2.king.25.a 3 And so duryng vnto the time of Jehoakim
Jere.39.a. the son of Josiah king of Juda, & vntil the eleuenth yeere of Zedekiah the sonne of Josiah kyng of Juda were ended, when Hierusalē was taken, euen in the fifth moneth.

4 The woorde of the Lorde spake thus vnto me.

Esai.44.a 5 Before I fashioned thee in thy mothers and.46.a wombe, I dyd know thee: and or euer thou Psal.70.a wast borne, I sanctified thee, and ordeyned thee to be a prophete vnto the people.

Exod.4.c 6 Then sayde I, O Lorde God, I can not Actes.9.c speake, for I am yet but young.

7 And the Lorde answeared me thus, Say
Mat.10.c not so, I am to young: for thou shalt goe to al that I shal sende thee vnto, and what so 1.Cor.3.a euer I commaunde thee, that shalt thou speake.

8 Be not afrayde of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

9 And with that the Lord stretched out his Psal.6.a hand and touched my mouth: and the same Jere.18.a
Lorde sayde vnto me, Beholde, I put my woordes in thy mouth.

10 And behold, this day doo I set thee ouer the people & kyngdomes, that thou mayest roote out, and breake of, destroy, and make waste, and that thou mayest buylde vp and plant.

11 After this the Lorde spake vnto me, saying, Jeremie, what seest thou? And I sayd, I (a) see a rodde of an Almonde tree.

12 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me, Thou hast seene ryght, for I wyl make hast spedily vpon my woorde to performe it.

13 It happened afterwarde that the Lorde spake to me agayne, and sayde, What seest thou? And I sayd, I doo see a seething pot, lookyng from out of the north.

14 Then sayde the Lord vnto me, Out of the C north shal come a plague vpon al the dwellers of the lande. Jere.14.b and.25.b Abac.1.b

15 For lo, I wyl cal al the kynredes of the kyngdomes of the north, sayth the Lorde, and they shal comme, and euery one shal set his seate in the gates of Hierusalem, and in al their walles rounde about, and in al cities of Juda.

16 And through them shal I declare my iudgement vpon al the wickednesse of those menne that haue forsaken me, that haue burnt burnt incense vnto strange goddes, and worshipped ỹ workes of their owne hands.

(a) God sheweth to Hierusalem the destruction of the Iewes by the Babylonians to be at hand Job.41.b

Ezech.3.a. 17 And therefore girde vp thy loines, aryse, and tel them al that I geue thee in commaundement: Feare them not, lest I destroy thee before them.

18 For beholde, this day doo I make thee a Iere.15.d. strong fenced towne, an iron piller, and a brasen wal against the whole land, against the kinges & mighty men of Iuda, against the priestes and people of the lande.

19 They shal fyght against thee, but they shal not be able to ouercome thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the lord.

The.ii. Chapter.

2. God rehearseth his benefites donne vnto the Iewes. 8. Agaynst priestes & prophets or preachers that contemne & despise god. 12. The Iewes are destroyed because they forsoke God, and because they ran a whore hunting after idolles.

A 1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Goe thy way, crie in the eares of Hierusalem, and say, Thus saith the lord: I remember thee, the kindnesse of thy youth, and the loue of thy despousyng, in that thou followedst me through the wyldernesse in an vntilled lande.

3 Israel was an halowed thing vnto the Lorde, and was his fyrst fruites: al they Iere.10.d. that deuoure Israel shal offende, misfortune shal fal vpon them, sayth the Lord. Zach.2.d.

4 Heare therefore the woorde of the Lorde, O thou house of Iacob, and al the generations of the house of Israel.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde, What vnfaythfulnesse founde your fathers in me, that they went so farre away fro me, falling to lightnesse, and being so vaine?

6 They thought not in their harts, Where is the Lorde that brought vs out of the land of Egypt, that led vs through the wyldernesse, through a desart and rough land, thorowe a drie and deadly lande, yea a lande Exod.14.c. that no man had gonne through, & wherein no man had dwelt?

B 7 And when I had brought you into a plea- Deut.6.b. sant fertile lande, that ye might enioy the fruites & al the commodities of the same: ye went forth and defyled my lande, and brought myne heritage to abomination.

8 The priestes them selues said not, Where is the Lorde? They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the shepheards offended against me, the prophetes dyd prophecie in Baal, and followed suche thinges, as shal bring them no profyte.

9 Wherefore I am constrained, sayth the Lord, yet againe to contende in iudgement with you, and with your childers children.

10 Goe into the Iles of Cethim, and looke wel: send vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such things be done there.

11 Whether the gentiles them selues haue changed their gods, whiche yet are no gods in deede? but my people hath changed their (a) honour for a thing that may not helpe them.

12 Be astonished, O ye heauens, be afrayde and abashed at such a thing, sayth the lord.

13 For my people hath done two euils: they haue forsaken me the wel of the water of life, and digged them pittes, yea vile and broken pittes that can holde no water.

14 Is Israel a bonde seruant, or one of the householde? why is he then so spoyled?

15 They roare and crie vpon him as lions, they haue made his lande waste: his cities are so burnt vp, that there is no man dwellyng in them:

16 Yea the childzen of Noph and Taphnes shal cracke their crowne.

17 Commeth not this vnto thee because thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, euen when he led thee by the way?

18 And what hast thou nowe to doo in the streete of Egypt, to drinke water out of (b) Nilus? eyther what makest thou in the way to Assyria, to drinke water of the flud?

19 Thyne owne wickednesse shal reproue thee, and thy turning away shal condemne thee: that thou mayest knowe and vnderstande howe euil and hurtful a thing it is that thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast not feared me, sayth the Lord god of hoastes.

20 I haue euer broken thy yoke of olde, and Iere.3.b. burst thy bondes, yet sayest thou, I wyl no more transgresse: but lyke an harlot thou runnest about vpon al high hilles, and among al greene trees.

21 Whereas I planted thee a noble vine, and wholy a right seede: howe art thou turned then into a bitter vnfruiteful and strange grape?

22 (Yea and that so soare) that though thou washe thee selfe with Nitrus, and make thee selfe to sauour with that sweete smelling hearbe of Borith: yet in my sight thou art stayned with thy wickednesse, sayth the Lorde thy God.

23 How sayest thou now, I am not vncleane, 2.king.7.b. and I haue not followed Baalim? Looke Iere.3.b. vppon thyne owne wayes in the valleyes Esai.57.a. what thou hast donne? Thou art lyke Ezec.16.b. a swyft dromedarie that goeth easyly her way.

24 And thy wantonnesse is like a wylde

(a) Honour that is, the faythful and euerliuing god in whom only they ought to glory.

(b) God reproueth the people for that they sought remedies, whiche are ment by the water of Nilus: and the flud against their euils, among the Egyptians and Assyrians, wher as their only remedie had ben to haue reconciled them selues vnto the Lorde with faithful repentance

Asse that vseth the wylderneſſe, and that ſnuffeth and bloweth at her wyl: who can tame her? All they that ſeeke her, ſhal not fayle but fynde her in her moneth.

25 Keepe thy foote from nakedneſſe, and thy throte from thirſte, and thou thinkeſt in thee ſelfe, Tuſhe, I wyl take no ſorowe, for I haue loued the (c) ſtrangers, & them wyl I folowe.

(c) The propertie of idolaters is, not only to contempne the voyce of the preacher cal-lyng them to repentance: but ſhameleſſely to proone the loue of ſtrangers and the folowyng of them, that is, the woorſhipping of ſtockes and ſtones, and ſeruing of god agaynſt his woorde after theyr owne deuiſes.

26 Like as a theefe that is taken with the deede commeth to ſhame: euen ſo is the houſe of Iſrael come to confuſion, the common people, their kinges and rulers, their prieſtes and prophetes.

17 For they ſay to a ſtocke, Thou art my father: and to a ſtone, Thou haſt begotten me: yea they haue turned their backe vpon me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble, when they ſay, Stand vp and helpe vs:

18 (I ſhal anſweare them) Where are nowe thy goddes that thou haſt made thee? byd them ſtande vp, and helpe thee in the tyme of thy neede: for looke howe many cities thou haſt, O Iuda, ſo many goddes haſt thou alſo.

29 Wherefore then wyl ye goe to lawe with me? ſeeyng ye al are ſinners agaynſt me, ſayth the Lorde.

30 It is but loſt labour that I ſmite your children, for they receiue not my correction: your owne ſwoorde deſtroyeth your prophetes like a deuouring Lion.

2.Chr.24.b 31 O generation, hearken vnto the woorde of the Lorde: Am I become a wylderneſſe vnto the people of Iſrael? or a lande that hath no lyght? wherefore ſayth my people then, We are Lordes, we wyl come no more vnto thee?

32 Dooth a maide forgeat her rayment, or a bride her ſtomacher? but my people hath forgotten me a very long whyle.

33 Why beautifyeſt thou thy wayes ſo highly, to obtayne fauour therethrough? therefore alſo haſt thou taught wickedneſſe thorowe thy wayes.

Deut.28.b. Iere.7.a. Ezr.20.D. Pſal.105.c. 34 Vppon thy winges is founde the blood of poore and innocent people, whom thou didſt not fynde in corners and holes: but thou ſlueſt the prophetes for reproouing al theſe thinges.

35 Yet dareſt thou ſay, I am (without ſinne and) giltleſſe, Tuſhe, his wrath can not comme vpon me: beholde, I wyl reason with thee, becauſe thou dareſt ſay, I haue not offended.

36 Why gaddeſt thou ſo muche hyther and thyther, to change thy wayes? for thou ſhalt be confounded aſwel of Egypt as thou waſt of the Aſſyrians.

37 Yea, thou ſhalt goe thy way from them, and ſmite thyne handes togeather vppon thy head, becauſe the Lorde ſhal bryng that confydence and hope of thyne to nought, and thou ſhalt not proſper withal.

The.iii.Chapter.

1. God beyng mercyful, calleth to repentance his people whiche he had forſaken for theyr whordome with idols. 20. He exhorteth Iſrael vnto repentance, promyſyng them ſhepheardes that ſhoulde haue the true knowledge of God. 23. The returne of Iſrael vnto God, confeſſing theyr offence.

1 COmmonly when a man putteth away his wyfe, and ſhe goeth from him and A Deut.24.a. maryeth with an other, then the queſtion is, Shoulde he reſort vnto her any more after that? (Is not that lande then defyled and vncleane?) But as for thee thou haſt played the harlot with many louers, yet turne agayne to me, ſayth ỹ Lord. Oſee.3.a.

2 Lyft vp thine eyes to the high places, and looke where thou haſt not benne defyled: Thou haſt wayted for them in the ſtreetes, & as a murderer in ỹ wylderneſſe, through thy whoredome and ſhameful blaſphemies is the lande defyled.

3 This is the cauſe that the rayne and euenyng deawe hath ceaſſed: thou haſt gotten 2.king.17.a thee an whores forehead, and wilt not be aſhamed.

4 Wylt thou not hereafter ſay vnto me, O my father, thou art he that haſt brought me vp, and led me from my youth?

5 Wyl God continue his wrath for euer? wyl he keepe our faultes in memorie to the ende? Neuertheleſſe, thou ſpeakeſt ſuche woordes, but thou art euer dooyng woorſe and wooſle to the vttermoſt of thy power.

6 The Lorde ſaide alſo vnto me in the time Iere.1.a. of Ioſuah the kyng, Haſt thou ſeene what Iere.2.d. that rebellion Iſrael hath done? howe ſhe 2.king.17.b hath runne vp vpon al the hilles, and among al thicke trees, and there played the harlot?

7 Haſt thou ſeene alſo when ſhe had done al B this, howe I ſaide vnto her, that ſhe ſhould turne againe vnto me, and yet ſhe is not returned? Iuda that vnfaythful ſyſter of hers alſo ſawe this:

8 Namely, that after I had wel ſeene the Ezech.23.b adulterie of the ſhrinking harlot Iſrael, I put her away, & gaue her a byl of diuorcement: for al this, her vnfaithful ſyſter Iuda was not aſhamed, but went backe and played the whore. 2.king.17.a

9 Yea and the wantonneſſe of her whoredome hath defyled the whole lande: for ſhe hath hath committed foznication with stones and stockes.

Osee.5.a. 10 Neuertheleſſe, her vnfaythful ſiſter Juda is not turned vnto me agayne with her whole hart, but faignedly, ſayth the Lozd.

Ezech.16.c. 11 And the Lozde ſaide vnto me, The backſlyder Iſrael, is moze ryghteous then the vnfaythful Juda.

C 14 O ye diſobedient childzen, turne againe, ſaith the Lozde, and I wyl be maryed with you: foz I wyl take one out of the citie, and two out of one generatiõ from among you, and bzyng you into Sion, 15 And wyl geue you Heardmenne after myne owne mynde, whiche ſhal feede you with learnyng and wyſedome.

16 Mozeouer, when ye be encreaſed and multiplied in the land, then ſaith the Lozd, There ſhal no moze boaſt be made of the arke of the Lozdes Teſtament: no man ſhal thinke vpon it, neyther ſhal any man make mention of it: foz from thencefoozth it ſhal neyther be viſited, neyther ſhal ſuch thing be donne any moze.

Galat.4.c. 17 Then ſhal Hieruſalem be called the Lozdes ſeate, and al heathen ſhalbe geathered vnto it foz the name of the Lozdes ſake whiche ſhalbe ſet at Hieruſalem: and from that tyme foozth they ſhal folowe no moze the imagination of theyz owne frowarde hart.

Matth.8.b. 18 Then thoſe that be of the houſe of Juda ſhal goe into the houſe of Iſrael, and they ſhal comme togeather out of the Nozth, into the ſame lande that I haue geuen your fathers.

19 I haue thought thus, Howe ſhal I take thee among my chyldzen, and geue a pleaſant land foz thyne heritage, yea, & a goodly hoſt of the heathen? And I ſayd, Cal me father, and thzynke not from me.

20 Truely lyke as a woman fayleth her huſbande, ſo are ye vnfaythful vnto me, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſayth the Lozde.

Ierem.31.c 21 The voyce of the childzen of Iſrael was heard on hygh, weepyng and waylyng: foz that they haue defyled theyz way, and foz-gotten God theyz Lozde.

22 O ye diſobedient chyldzen, Turne agayne, and ſo ſhal ye heale your backturnynges. Loe, we comme vnto thee, foz thou art the Lozde our God.

23 Truely in vaine is health hoped foz from the hylles, be they neuer ſo many: but the health of Iſrael ſtandeth onely vpon God our Lozde. Osee.13.a. Actes.4.a.

25 So doo we alſo ſleepe in our confuſion, and ſhame couereth vs: foz we and our fathers from our youth vp vnto this day, haue ſinned agaynſt the Lozde our GOD, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lozde our God. Pſal.106.a Eſai.64.a. Judic.7.c. 1.Eſd.9.b.c and.10.b.

The.iiii.Chapter.

2. The true repentance or returning to God, 4. he exhorteth to the circumciſion of the hart. 5. The deſtruction of Iurie is prophecied for the malice of their hartes.

A 1 O Iſrael, yf thou wylt turne thee, then turne vnto me, ſayth the Lozd, and yf thou wylt put away thine abominations out of my ſyght, thou ſhalt not be moued,

2 And ſhalt ſweare, The Lozde lyueth in trueth, in equitie, and ryghteouſneſſe, and al people ſhalbe foztunable and ioyfull in hym. Ie.5.a.12.a

3 Foz thus ſayth the Lozde to al Juda and Hieruſalem, Plowe your lande, and ſowe not among the thoznes.

4 Be circumciſed in the Lozde, and cut away the fozeſkynne of your hartes, al ye of Juda, and al the indwellers of Hieruſalem: that myne indignation bzeake not out lyke fire, and kyndle, ſo that no man may quenche it, becauſe of the wickednеſſe of your imaginations. Ierem.6.b. and.11.a.

5 Preache in Juda and Hieruſalem, crye out and ſpeake, blow the trumpettes in the lande, crye, that euery man may heare, and ſay, Geather you togeather, and we wyl goe into ſtrong cities. Eſai.58.a.

6 Set vp the token in Sion, ſpeede you, and make no tarrying: foz I wyl bzyng a great plague and a great deſtruction from the Nozth. Ierem.1.b.

7 Foz the ſpoyler of the Gentiles is bzoken vp from his place as a lion out of his den, B that he may make thy lande waſte, and deſtroy the cities, ſo that no man may dwel therein.

8 Where

8 Wherefore gyrde your selues about with sackcloth, mourne and weepe: for the fearful wrath of the Lorde is not withdrawen from vs.

9 At the same tyme, sayth the Lorde, The harte of the kyng and of the princes shalbe gone, the priestes shalbe astonished, and the prophtes shalbe sore afrayde.

10 Then sayde I, O Lorde God, hast thou then deceiued this people and Hierusalem, Deut.23.a. sayeing, Ye shal haue peace, and nowe the swoorde goeth through theyr lynes?

11 Then shal it be sayde to the people and Hierusalem, A strong wynde in the hygh places of the wildernesse commeth through Jerem.1.b. the way of my people, but neyther to fanne nor to cleanse.

12 After that shal there comme vnto me a strong wynde from those places, and then wyl I also geue sentence vpon them.

13 For loe, he aryseth lyke a cloude, & his charettes are like a stormie wynde, his horses are swyfter then the Eagle: Woe vnto Lamen.4.a. vs, for we are destroyed. Dan.7.a.

14 O Hierusalem, washe thyne harte from wickednesse, that thou mayest be helped: howe long shal thy vayne thoughtes remayne with thee? Psalm.51.a Esai.1.c.

15 For a voyce from Dan, and from the hyl of Ephraim speaketh out, and telleth of a destruction.

16 Remember the heathen, and geue Hierusalem warnyng, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are comming from farre countreyes, they haue cryed out agaynst the cities of Juda.

Zacha.8.c. 17 And they haue beset her about in euery place, lyke as the watchmen in the feelde: for they haue prouoked me to wrath, sayth the Lorde.

1.Kin.18.b. 18 Thy wayes and thy thoughtes haue brought thee vnto this, suche is thine owne Jerem.2.c. wickednesse and disobedience: and because and.14.d. it is a bytter thyng, it hath stricken thee to the hart.

19 Ah my belly, ah my belly, shalt thou cry, howe is my hart so sore? my hart panteth within me, I can not be styl, for I haue heard the crying of the trumpettes, and peales of warre.

20 They crye murder vppon murder, the whole lande shal perishe: Immediatly my tentes were destroyed, and my hangynges in the twynckelyng of an eye.

D 21 How long shal I see the tokens of warre, and heare the noyse of the trumpettes?

Esai.5.b. 22 (Neuertheless, this shal comme vppon Baruch.3.b them) because my people is becomme foo- Dtee.4.b. lishe, and hath not knowen me: they are the chyldren of foolishnesse, and without anye discretion: to do euyl they haue wit yenough: but to do wel they haue no wisdome.

23 I haue looked vpon the earth, and see it was waste and voyde: I looked towarde heauen, and it had no shyne.

24 I beheld the mountaynes, and loe, they trembled, and al the hilles were in a feare.

25 I looked about me, and there was no body: and al the byrdes of the ayre were away.

26 I marked wel, and the plowed feelde was become waste, yea, al their cities were broken downe at the presence of the Lorde, and indignation of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the Lorde sayde, The whole lande shalbe desolate, yet wyl I not then haue donne.

28 And therfore shal the earth mourne, and C the heauen be sory aboue: for the thing that I haue spoken to the prophetes, purposed, and taken vpon me to doo, shal not repent me, and I wyl not goe from it.

29 The whole lande shal flee for the noyse of horsmen and bowmen, they shal runne into dennes, into woodes, and clymbe vp the stony rockes: al the cities shalbe voyde, and no man dwellyng therein.

30 What wylt thou nowe doo, thou beyng Jerem.2.c. destroyed? For though thou clothest thee 2. Kin.9.f. selfe with scarlet, and deckest thee with golde, though thou paintest thy face with colours nowe, yet shalt thou trymme thee selfe in vaine: For those that hytherto haue ben thy louers, shal abhorre thee, and goe about to slay thee.

31 For I heare a noyse like as it were of a woman trauailyng, & one labouryng of her first chylde, euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that casteth out her armes, and sowneth, sayeing, Ah, woe is me, howe sore vexed and faynt is my hart for feare of the murderers?

The.v. Chapter.

1. In Iurie is there no righteous or faithful man founde, eyther amongst the people, or the rulers, for whose sake the Lord shoulde spare the citie, 15. wherefore Iurie is destroyed of the Assyrians.

1 LOoke through Hierusalem, behold, and A see, seke through her streetes also within, yf ye can finde one man that dooth equal and ryght, or seeketh for the trueth, and I shal spare that citie, sayth the Lord.

2 For though they can say, The Lorde lyueth: yet they sweare to deceyue.

3 Wheras thou (O Lord) lookest only vpon sayth & trueth: Thou hast scourged them, but they tooke no repentance, thou hast corrected them for amendment, but they refused refused thy correction, they made theyr faces harder thē a stone, & would not amend.

4 Therfore I thought in mee selfe, Peraduenture they are so simple and foolishe that they vnderstande nothyng of the Lordes way, and iudgementes of theyr God.

Deut.17.b. 5 Therefore wyl I goe vnto theyr heades and rulers, and talke with them, yf they knowe the way of the Lorde, and iudgementes of theyr God: But these (in lyke manner) haue broken the yoke, and burst the bondes in sunder.

Deut.32.b. 6 Wherefore a Lion out of the wood hath hurt them, and a woolfe in the euening shal destroy them, the Leopard doth lye lurking by theyr cities, to teare in peeces al them that come thereout: for theyr offences are multiplied, and theyr departyng away is encreased.

B 7 Sophon.1.a. Shoulde I then for al this haue mercye vpon thee? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no gods: and albeit that I fed them to the ful, yet they fal to adulterie, and haunt harlots houses.

Ezech.22.b 8 In the desyre of vncleanly lust they are become lyke ý stoned horse, enery man neigheth at his neighbours wyfe.

Iere.9.a. 9 Should I not correct this, sayth the lord? shoulde I not be auenged of enery people that is lyke vnto this?

10 Climbe vp vpon theyr walles, beate them downe, and (a) destroy them not vtterly: take away theyr battlements, because they are not the Lordes.

(a) These wordes are not to be referred vnto the citie or walles which were vtterly destroyed: but to a remnant of the people whō God did reserue, that his whole Churche should not vtterly perysshe, although but a fewe dyd remayne fyythful. Deut.28.c. Baruc.4.c.

11 For vnfaythfully hath the house of Israel and Juda forsaken me, sayth the Lorde.

12 They haue denyed the Lord, and sayde, It is not he (that loketh vpon vs) tushe, there shal no misfortune come vpon vs, we shal see neyther sworde nor hunger.

13 As for the warnyng of the prophetes, it is but winde, yea there is not the worde of God in them: suche thynges shal happen vnto them selues.

14 Wherefore, thus sayth the Lord God of hostes, Because ye speake suche woordes, beholde, the woordes that are in thy mouth wil I turne to fyre, and make the people to be wood, that the fyre may consume them.

15 Loe, I wyl bring a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, sayth the Lorde, a mightie people, an olde people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neyther vnderstandest what they say.

16 Theyr arrowes are sodayne death, yea they them selues be very giantes.

17 This people shal eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea they shal deuour thy sonnes and thy daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shal eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong & wel defensed cities wherin thou didst trust, they shal bring to ouertie, and that through the sworde.

18 Neuertheless, I wyl not then haue done with you, sayth the Lorde. Iere.16.b.

19 But yf they say, Wherfore doth the Lord our God al this vnto vs? Then answeare them, Because that like as ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange gods in your lande, euen so shal ye serue straungers out of your lande. Deut.28.g.

20 Preache this vnto the house of Jacob, and crye it out in Juda, and say thus, 21 Heare this, thou foolishe and vndiscrete people, Ye haue eyes, but ye see not, eares haue ye, but ye heare not. D Esai.6.b. Iohn.9.b.

22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lord? wil ye not tremble at my presence? which binde the sea with the sand by a continual decree, so that it can not passe his boundes: for though it rage, yet can it do nothyng, and though the waues thereof do swel, yet may they not go ouer. Iob.26.b. and.18.a.

23 But this people hath a false and obstinate hart, they are departed & gone away fro me.

24 They thinke not in theyr hartes, O let vs feare the Lorde our God, who geueth vs raine early and late when neede is, whiche keepeth euer stil the harnest for vs yeerely. Esai.69.a.

25 Neuertheless, our misdeedes haue turned these from you, and your sinnes haue robbed you of good thinges.

26 For among my people are found wicked persons, that priuily lay snares and waite for men, to take them, and destroy them.

27 And lyke as a net is ful of birdes, so are theyr houses ful of that whiche they haue gotten with falshood and deceipt: Hereof commeth theyr great substaunce & riches.

28 Hereof are they fat and wealthie, and are more mischeuous then any other: they minister not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, yea and they prosper: yet they iudge not the poore according to equitie. E Esai.1.c.

29 Shoulde I not punishe these thynges, saith the Lorde? shoulde not I be auenged of al suche people as these be? Iere.5.b. and.9.a.

30 Horrible and greeuous thinges are done in the lande.

31 The prophetes teache falsly, & the preachers receiue giftes, and my people hath pleasure therein: what wil come thereof at the last? Osee.7.a. Rom.1.a.

A 1 These are the woordes that God spake vnto Ieremie, saying,

Jerem.17.b and.26.a. 2 Stand vnder the gate of the Lordes house, and crye out these woordes there with a loude voyce, and say, Heare the woorde of the Lorde al ye of Juda that goe in at this dooze to woorshyp the Lorde:

Esai.1.c. Jerem.26.e 3 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Amend your wayes and your counsayles, & I wyl let you dwel in this place.

Exod.22.c. Zache.8.c. Levit.29.g. Job.23.a. 5 But rather in deede amende your wayes and counsayles, and iudge right betwixt a man and his neyghbour.

6 Oppresse not the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the wyddowe, shed not innocent blood in this place, cleane not to strange goddes to your owne destruction:

B 7 Then wyll I let you dwel in this place, yea, in the lande that I gaue afozetyme to your fathers for euer.

8 But take heede, ye truste in lyeing tales, that beguyle you, and doo you no good.

9 For when ye haue stollen, murdered, committed adulterie, and periurie, when ye haue offered vnto Baal, folowing strange and vnknowen goddes: shal ye be vnpounished?

1.King.8.g 10 Yet then come ye, and stande before me in this house (whiche hath my name geuen vnto it) and say, Tushe, we are absolued quyte, though we haue donne al these abominations.

11 What, thinke you this house that beareth my name, is a denne of theeues? And yet I see (what you thynke) sayth the Lorde. Esai.59.b.

12 Goe to my place in Silo, whereunto I gaue my name afozetyme, and looke well what I dyd to the same place for the wyckidnesse of my people of Israel. Job.2.b. Matth.21.b Jerem.32. Josue.18.a.

13 And nowe seeyng ye haue donne all these deedes, sayth the Lorde, and I mee self rose vp euer betymes to warne you, & to commune with you, yet would ye not heare me, I called, ye woulde not answere: Jere.26.a. 1.Sam.3. 4.5.6. Prou.1.c. Esai.65.b.

17 Seest thou not what they doo in the cities of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem? Jere.44.c.

18 The children geather stickes, the fathers kyndle the fyre, the women kneade the dough to bake cakes for the queene of heauen: they powre out drynke offerynges vnto strange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath.

19 Howbeit, they hurte not me, sayth the Lorde, but rather confounde and shame them selues.

20 And therefore thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, my wrath and indignation shalbe powred out vpon this place, vpon men and cattayle, vpon trees in the feeld, and fruite of the lande: and it shal burne, so that no man may quenche it.

21 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Heape vp your burnt offerynges with your sacrifices, and eate the fleashe. D Esai.1.a.

22 For when I brought your fathers out of Egypt, I spake no woorde vnto them of burnt offerynges and sacrifices: Deut.10.a. Esai.43.a.

24 But they were not obedient, they enclyned not their eares thereunto: but went after their owne imaginations, and after the motions of their owne wicked hart, and so turned them selues away, and conuerted not vnto me. Zach.7.a.

25 And this haue they donne from the time that your fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day: Neuertheless, I sent vnto you al my

The.viii.Chapter.

1. The destruction of the Iewes. 4. The Lorde moueth the people to amendement, recknyng vp their sinnes. 20. He reprehendeth the lyeing doctrine of the prophetes and priestes.

℣ 1 AT the same tyme, sayth the Lorde, the bones of the kyngs of Juda, the bones of his princes, the bones of the preachers and prophetes, yea, and the bones of the Citizens of Hierusalem, shalbe brought out of theyr graues, Deut.4.d. 2 And layd against the Sunne, the Moone, and al the heauenly host, whom they loued, whom they serued, whom they ranne after, Luke.24.c. whom they sought and woorshypped: they shall neyther be geathered togeather nor buryed, but shal lye as dung vpon ỹ earth.

3 And all they that remayne of this wicked generation, shal desire rather to dye then to lyue, whereseuer they remayne, and wheras I scatter them, saith the Lord of hostes.

4 Thus shalt thou say vnto thē also, Thus sayth the Lord, Do menne fal, so that they aryse not vp agayne? or if Israel repent, wyl not God turne agayne to them?

5 Wherefore then is this people of Hierusalem gone so farre backe, that they turne not agayne? They are euer the longer the more obstinate, and wyll not be conuerted.

6 For I haue looked and considered, but there is no man that speaketh a good word, there is no man that taketh repentance for his sinne, that wil so much say, What haue I donne? but euerye man turneth to his owne course, lyke a fierce horse headlong to the batayle.

Ierr.14.b. 15 We looked for peace, and we fare not the better, we wayted for the tyme of health, and loe, here is nothyng but trouble.

16 The noyse of his horses is hearde from Dan, the whole lande is afrayde at the neighing of his strong horses: for they are come in, and haue deuored the land with al that is in it, the cities, and those that dwel therein.

Leuit.26.b. 17 Moreouer, I wyl sende cockatrices and serpentes among you (whiche wyl not be charmed) and they shal byte you, sayth the Lorde.

18 I would haue had comforte against sorowe: but sorowe is come vpon me, and heauinesse vexeth my hart.

19 For loe, the voyce of the crying of my people is hearde (for feare of them that come) from a farre countrey: Is not the Lord in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherefore then haue they greeued me (that the Lorde say) with their images, and foolishe strange fashions of a forraigne god?

20 The harnest is gone, the sommer hath an ende, and we are not helped.

21 I am soare vexed because of the hurte of my people, I am heauie and abashed:

22 Is there not triacle at Gilead? Is there no Phisition there? why then is not the health of my people recouered?

The.ix. Chapter.

1. The complaynt and bewaylyng of the prophete, 3. the malice of the people. 24. In the knowledge of God ought we only to reioyce. 26. The vncircumcision of the hart.

¶ 1 Esai.22.a. O Who wyl geue my head water ynough, and a wel of teares for myne eyes, that I may weepe night and day for the slaughter of my people?

2 Would God that I had a cottage somewhere farre from folke, that I might leaue my people and go from them, for they be al adulterers and a shrynkyng sort.

3 They bende their tongues lyke bowes to shoote out lyes, they waxe strong vppon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothing away withal in the worlde, for they goe from one wickednesse to another, and wyl not knowe me, sayth the Lorde.

Ierr.12.b. 4 Mat.10.c. Mich.7.a. Yea, one must keepe him selfe from another, no man may safely trust his owne brother: for one brother vndermineth another, one neighbour beguileth another.

Psal.28.a. 5 Yea one dissembleth with another, and they deale with no trueth: They haue practised their tongues to lye, and taken great paynes to do mischeefe.

6 Thou sittest in the middes of a deceiptful people, which for very dissembling falshood wyl not knowe me, sayth the Lord.

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes, Beholde, I wil melt them, and trye them: for what shoulde I els do to my people? B

8 Their tongues are lyke sharpe arrowes to speake deceipt: with their mouth they speake peaceably to their neighbour, but priuily they lay wayte for him. Pro.18.a. Psal.18.a.

9 Shoulde I not punishe them for these thinges, saith the Lord? or shoulde I not be auenged of any suche people as this? Ierr.5.b.

10 Vpon the mountaynes wyl I take vp a lamentation, and a sorowful crye, and a mourning vpon the fayre places of the wilnernesse: namely, howe they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there anye more, yea, a man shal not heare one beast crye there: birdes and cattel are al gone from thence.

11 Psal. 79.a. Mich.3.c. I wyl make Hierusalem also an heape of stones, and a denne of venemous wormes: & I wil make the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shal dwel therein.

12 What man is so wise as to vnderstande this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say, O thou lande, why perishest thou so? wherfore art thou so brent vp, and like a wildernesse that no man goeth through?

13 Yea the Lorde him selfe tolde the same vnto them that forsooke his lawe, and kept not the thing that he gaue them in commaundement, neyther liued thereafter:

14 C Deut. 29.a. Iosu.24.c. But folowed the wickednesse of their owne hartes, and serued strange gods, as their forefathers taught them.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyl feede this people with wormewood, and geue them gal to drynke.

16 Deut.22.b. Ierr.23.c. Deut.20.c. I wyl scatter them also among the heathen, whom neyther they, nor their fathers haue knowen: and I wyl sende a swoorde among them to persecute them, vntyl I bryng them to nought.

17 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beware of the vengeance that hangeth ouer you, & cal for mourning wyues, and sende for wise women, that they come shortly, 18 And syng a mourning song of vs, that the teares may fal out of our eyes, and that our eye liddes may gushe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion: O howe are we so sore destroyed: O howe are we so pitiously confounded: We must must forsake our owne natural countrey, and we are shut out of our owne lodgings.

20 Yet heare the worde of the Lorde (O ye women) & let your eares regarde the wordes of his mouth: that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that euery one may teache her neighbour to make lamentation.

D 21 (Namely thus) Death is climing vp in at our wyndowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the chylde before the doore, and the young man in the streete.

Iere.7.d. and.8.d. 22 But tel thou playnely, thus sayth the Lorde, The dead bodyes of men shal lye vpon the grounde as the doung vpon the feelde, and as the handful after the mower, and there shalbe no man to take them vp.

Esai.55.c. 1.Cor.1.d. 2.Cor.11.a. 23 Thus sayth the Lorde, Let not the wise man reioyce in his wisdome, nor the strong man in his strength, neither the riche man in his ryches.

Mat.9.d. and.12.a. Osee.6.b. 24 But who so wyl reioyce, let hym reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which do mercy, equitie, and ryghteousnesse vpon the earth: therefore haue I pleasure in suche thinges, sayth the Lorde.

A 1 HEare the woorde of the Lorde that he speaketh vnto thee, O thou house of Israel.

Esai. 47.b. 2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Ye shal not learne after the maner of the heathen, and ye shal not be afrayde for the tokens of heauen: for the heathen are afrayde of suche.

Esai. 44.b. 3 Yea al the customes and lawes of the gentiles are nothing but vanitie: They hewe downe a tree in the wood with the handes of the workeman, and fashion it with the axe.

4 They couer it ouer with golde or siluer, they fasten it with nayles and hammers, that it moue not.

5 It standeth as styffe as the Palme tree, it can neyther speake, nor goe one foote, but must be borne: Be not ye afrayde of suche, for they can do neyther good nor euyl.

Barue. 6.c. 2.Kin. 17.g Apoc. 15.a. B 6 But there is none lyke vnto thee, O lord, and great is the name of thy power.

7 Who would not feare thee, O kyng of the gentiles? for thyne is the dominion: for among al the wise men of the gentiles, and in al their kyngomes, there is none that may be lykened vnto thee.

8 They are altogether brutishe and vnwise in this one thyng: (a) wood is the teaching of vanitie.

(a) By wood is meant al kind of matter whereof images are wont to be made, which althongh they be garnished with golde & syluer, and clothed in purple and silke, & set vp (as some man say) to be lay mens bokes, yet teache they nothing saith the prophete, but vanitie.

9 Siluer is brought out of Tharsis, & beaten to plates, & golde from Ophir, a worke that is made with the hande of the craftes man, and they are clothed with yelow silke and scarlet: al these are the worke of cunnyng men.

10 But the Lord is a true God, a liuing God, and an euerlastyng kyng: yf he be wroth, the earth shaketh, al the gentiles may not abyde his indignation.

11 (As for their gods) thus shal you say to them, They are no goddes that made neyther heauen nor earth, therefore shal they perishe from the earth, and from al thyngs vnder heauen.

12 But (as for our God) he made the earth with his power, and with his wysdome doth he order the whole compasse of the worlde, with his discretion hath he spread out the heauens.

Psal.13.a. 13 At his voyce the waters geathered together in the ayre, he draweth vp ỹ cloudes from the vttermost partes of the earth, he turneth lyghtnyng to rayne, and bryngeth forth the windes out of their treasures.

C 14 His wysdome maketh al men fooles, and confounded be casters of images: for that they cast is but a vayne thing, and hath no lyfe.

Esai.1.d. and.44.b. Iere.6.c. 15 The vayne craftesmen with their workes that they in their vanitie haue made, shal perishe one with another in time of visitation.

16 Nevertheless, Iacobs portion is none such: but it is he that hath made al things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hostes is his name.

17 Geather vp thy wares out of the lande, thou that art in the strong place.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl nowe throwe as with a stone slyng the inhabiters of this lande at this once, and I wyl bryng trouble vpon them, that they shal proue true the wordes that I haue spoken by the prophetes.

19 Alas howe am I hurte? alas howe payneful are my scourges vnto me? for I consyder this sorowe by mee selfe, and I must suffer it.

(b) The kynges, the rulers, the prophetes, & the priestes are blynd, & so destroyeth the flocke.

22 Beholde, the noyse is harde at hand, and great sedition out of the north, to make the cities of Iuda a wylderneſſe, & a dwelling place for dragons.

I. A curse to them that obey not the woorde of Gods promise. 10. The people of Iuda folowyng the steppes of their fathers, woorshippeth strange Gods. 15. The Lorde sayth that he wyl not heare the Iewes, and forbyddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

A 1 THis is a sermon whiche the Lord commaunded Ieremie for to preache, sayeing,

2 Heare the wordes of this couenant, and speake vnto the menne of Iuda, and to al them that dwel at Hierusalem,

Deut.27. and.28.b Galat.3.b 3 And say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Cursed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the woordes of this couenant,

4 Whiche I commaunded vnto your fathers, what time as I brought them out of Egypt from the iron furnace, sayeing, Be obedient vnto my voyce, and doo accordyng to al that I commaunde you, so shal ye be my people, and I wyl be your God:

Exod.19.a

Gen.15.c 26.a.& 27.c 5 And wyl keepe my promise that I haue swoorne vnto your fathers, (namely) that I woulde geue them a lande whiche floweth with mylke and hony, as ye see it is comme to passe vnto this day. Then answeared I and sayde, Amen: let it be euen so Lorde as thou sayest.

6 Then the Lorde sayde vnto me agayne, Preache this in the cities of Iuda, & round about Hierusalem, & say, Heare the woordes of this couenant, and keepe them.

7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euer since the tyme that I brought them out of the lande of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warnyng be tymes, sayeing, Hearken vnto my voyce. B

8 Neuertheleſſe they woulde not obey me, nor encline their eares vnto me: but folowed the wicked imaginations of their owne hartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them al the woordes of this couenant that I gaue them to keepe, whiche they (notwithstandyng) haue not kept. Iere.13.b

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto me, It is found out that whole Israel and al these cities of Hierusalem are gonne backe.

10 They haue turned them selues to the blasphemies of their forefathers, whiche had no lust to heare my woordes: Euen likewyse haue these also folowed strange gods, and woorshipped them: The house of Israel & Iuda haue broken my couenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wyl sende a plague vpon them, which they shal not be able to escape: and they shal cry vnto me, and I wyl not heare them.

Zach.7.b Deut.35.c 12 Then shal the townes of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem goe and cal vpon their gods vnto whom they made their oblations: but they shal not be able to helpe them in tyme of their trouble.

Iere.2.b 13 For as many cities as thou hast, O Iuda, so many gods hast thou had also: and locke how many streetes there be in thee (O Hierusalem) so many shameful aulters haue ye set vp, aulters (I say) to offer vpon them vnto Baal.

C 14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, byd neither praise nor prayer for them: for though they crye vnto me in their trouble, yet wyl I not heare them. Iere.7.b and.15.a

15 What part hath my beloued in my house, seing he hath wrought abomination, seruing many Gods? The holy fleashe offerynges in the temple are gonne from thee (O Iuda) and thou when thou hast donne euyl, makest thy boast of it. Agge.2.b

16 The Lord called thee a greene olive tree, a faire one, a fruiteful one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enimie set fire vpon it, and the branches of it are destroyed. Iere.17.b Mat.7.b Rom.11.c

17 For the Lord of hostes that planted thee, hath deuised a plague for thee (O thou house of Israel and Iuda) for the euyl that ye haue donne to prouoke hym to wrath, in that ye dyd seruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of the, and vnderstand it: for thou hast shewed me

3 But thou Lord to whom I am wel knowen, thou that haſt ſeene & proued my hart, take them away, lyke as a flocke is caryed to the ſlaughter houſe, and appoynt them for the day of ſlaughter.

Iere.14.a 4 Howe long ſhal the lande mourne, and al the hearbes of the feelde periſh for the wickednes of them that dwel therein? The cattel, & the birdes are gonne, yet ſay they, Tuſhe, God wyl not deſtroy vs vtterly.

B 7 As for me (I ſay) I haue forſaken myne owne dwellyng place, and left myne heritage: I haue geuen that my ſoule (b) loued ſo wel into the hande of her enimies.

(b) He meaneth the citie with the temple and the people whom he loued intyrely.

8 Myne heritage is become vnto me as a lion in the wood: it cryed out vpon me, therefore haue I forſaken it.

10 Diuers heardmen haue broken downe my Eſai.56.c vineyarde, and troden vpon my portion: of Eſai.5.a my pleaſant portion they haue made a wilderneſſe and deſart.

11 They haue layde it waſte, and nowe that it is waſt it ſigheth vnto me: yea the whole land lyeth waſte, and no man regardeth it.

C 14 Thus ſayth the Lorde vpon al my euyl neyghbours that lay hande on myne heritage whiche I haue poſſeſſed, euen my people of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl plucke them (namely Iſrael) out of their lande, and put out the houſe of Iuda from among them.

17 But yf they wyl not obey, then wyl I Mat.22.b roote out the ſame folke, and deſtroy them, ſayth the Lorde.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1. The deſtruction of the Iewes is prefigured, and their ſparſing abroade. 11. Why Iſrael was receiued to be the people of god, and why they were forſaken.

1 Thus

A 1 THus sayth the Lorde vnto me, Goe thy way, and geat thee a linnen girdle, and girde it about thy loines, let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a girdle, according to the commaundement of the Lorde, and put it about my loynes.

3 After this, the seconde time the Lorde spake vnto me againe,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast prepared, and put about thee, and geat thee vp, and goe vnto Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So went I, and hyd it at Euphrates, as the Lorde commaunded me.

6 And it happened long after this, that the Lorde spake vnto me, Vp, and geat thee to Euphrates, & fetch the girdle from thence, whiche I commaunded thee to hide there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates, and digged vp, & tooke the girdle from the place where I had hyd it: and beholde, the girdle was corrupt, so that it was profytable for nothyng.

8 Then saide the Lorde vnto me,

B 9 Thus sayth the Lorde, Euen so wyl I corrupt the pride of Juda, and the hygh minde of Hierusalem.

Iere.7.c. 11.b.& 18.c. and.19.c. 10 This people is a wicked people, they wil not heare my woorde, they folowe the wicked imaginations of their owne hart, and hang vpon strange goddes, them they serue and woorship, and therefore they shalbe as this girdle that serueth for nothyng.

11 For as straightly as a girdle lyeth vppon a mans loynes, so strayghtly dyd I bynde the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Juda vnto me, saith the Lord: that they might be my people, that they myght haue a glorious name, that they myght be in honour: but they would not obey me.

Deut.4.c. and.26.d. Iere.30.d. 12 Therfore lay this riddle before them, and say, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Euery pot shalbe fylled with wine. And they shal say vnto thee, Thinkest thou we know not that euery pot shalbe fylled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shal fyll al the inhabitours of this lande with drunkennesse, the kinges that syt vppon Dauids stoole, the priestes and prophetes, with al that dwel at Hierusalem.

C 14 And I wyl set them one agaynst another, yea the fathers against the sonnes, sayth the Lorde, I wyl not pardon them, I wyl not spare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but destroy them.

15 Heare, geue eare, take not disdayne at it: for it is the Lord him selfe that speaketh.

16 Honour the Lorde your God or he take his light from you, and or euer your feete stumble in darknesse at the hil: lest when you looke for the lyght, he turne it into the shadowe and darknesse of death.

17 But yf ye wil not heare me that geue you secrete warning, I wyl mourne from my whole hart for your stubbernesse: Piteously wyl I weepe, and the teares shal gushe out of mine eyes, for the lordes flocke shalbe caryed away captiue. Iere.31.c. Lamen.1.a.

18 Tel the king and the queene, Humble your selues, syt you downe lowe, for your dignitie shalbe throwen downe, and the crowne of your glory shal fal from your head.

19 The cities towarde the south shalbe shut vp, and no man shal open them: al Juda shalbe caryed away captiue, so that none shal remayne.

20 Lyft vp your eyes, and beholde them that come from the north: where is the flocke, (O thou lande) that was geuen thee? and where are thy fatte and rythe sheepe? Iere.19.a. Esai.13.b.

21 To whom wylt thou make thy mone when the enimie shal come vpon thee? for thou hast taught them thee selfe, and made them maisters ouer thee: Shal not sorowe come vpon thee as on a woman trauayling with childe?

D 22 And yf thou wouldest then say in thyne hart, Wherefore come these thinges vppon me? Euen for the multitude of thy blasphemies shal thy hynder partes and thy feete be discouered. Iere.15.b.

23 May a man of Inde change his skinne, and the cat of the mountayne her spottes? so, may ye that be exercised in euyl, doo good?

24 Therefore wil I scatter them like as the stubble that is taken away with the south winde.

25 This shalbe your portion, and the portion of your measure wherewith ye shalbe rewarded of me, sayth the Lorde, because ye haue forgotten me, and put your trust in deceiptful thinges.

26 Therefore shal I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and discouer thy shame. Ozee. 2.b.

27 Thy adulteries, thy neyghynges, thy shameful whoredome on the hilles in the feeldes, & thy abominations haue I seene: Wo be vnto thee (O Hierusalem) wylt thou neuer be cleansed any more? or when shal that be?

A 1 THe woorde of the Lorde ſhewed vnto Jeremie concerning the dearth of the fruites.

2 Juda hath mourned, his gates are deſolate, they are brought to heauineſſe, euen vnto the grounde, and the crie of Hieruſalem goeth vp.

3 The lordes ſent their ſeruantes to fetche water, and when they came to the welles, they did fynde no water, but caryed their veſſels home emptie: they be aſhamed and confounded, and couer their heades.

Jere.23.b. 4 For the grounde is dryed, becauſe there commeth no rayne vppon it: the plowmen alſo be aſhamed and couer their heades.

5 The Hinde alſo forſoke the young fawne that he brought forth in the feelde, becauſe there was no graſſe.

6 The wilde aſſes did ſtande in the hygh places, & drewe in their winde like the dragons, their eies did faile for want of graſſe.

9 Why wylt thou make thee ſelfe a coward, and as it were a giaunt, that yet may not helpe? But thou, O Lorde, art in the middeſt of vs, and thy name is called vpon of vs, forſake vs not.

10 Thus hath ỹ Lord ſaide vnto his people, Seeing they haue had ſuche a luſt to wander abroade, and haue not refrained theyr feete: therefore the Lorde hath no pleaſure in them, but he wyl nowe bring agayne to remembrance al their mildeedes, and puniſhe al their ſinnes.

Jere.7.d. Thou ſhalt not pray to doo this people good.

12 For though they faſt, I wil not heare their prayers, and though they offer burnt offeringes and ſacrifyces, yet wyl not I accept them: for I wyl deſtroy them with the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence.

Jere. 23.d.

15 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde, As for thoſe prophetes that preache in my name, whom I neuertheleſſe haue not ſent, and that ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no ſwoorde nor hunger be in this lande: with ſwoorde and Zach.13.a. with hunger ſhal thoſe prophetes perithe.

16 And the people to whom they preache, ſhalbe caſt out of Hieruſalem, dye of hunger, and be ſlaine with the ſwoorde, & there ſhalbe no man to burie them, both they, and their wiues, their ſonnes, and their Jere.16.a. daughters: for thus wyl I poure their wickedneſſe vpon them.

17 This ſhalt thou ſay alſo vnto them, Mine eyes ſhal weepe without ceaſſing day and night: for my people ſhalbe deſtroyed with Lamen.1.d. great harme, and ſhal perithe with a great and.2.c. plague.

18 For yf I goe into the feelde, loe, it lyeth al ful of ſlaine men: If I come into the citie, loe, they be al famiſhed of hunger: yea their prophetes alſo and prieſtes ſhalbe led into an vnknowen lande.

19 Haſt thou then vtterly forſaken Juda? Doeſt thou ſo abhorre Sion? Wherefore haſt thou ſo plagued vs, that we can be healed no more? We looked for peace, and there commeth no good, for the time of Jere.8.c. health, and loe here is nothing but trouble.

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) al our miſdeedes, and the ſinnes of our fathers: for we haue offended thee.

2 And yf they say vnto thee, Whyther shal we goe? then tel them, the Lord geueth you this answeare, Somme vnto death, somme to the swoorde, somme to hunger, somme into captiuitie.

Ezech.5.c

3 For I wyl bryng foure plagues vpon thē, sayth the Lord, The swoord shal slay them, the dogges shal teare them in peeces, the foules of the ayre and beastes of the earth shal eate them vp, and destroy them.

6 Seeyng thou gockst from me, and turnest backwarde, sayth the Lorde, therfore I did stretche out myne hande agaynst thee to destroy thee, & I haue ben sory for thee so long that I am weery.

7 I haue scattered them abroade with the fanne of euery syde of the land, I haue wasted my people and destroyed them, yet they haue had no lust to turne from their owne wayes.

Iere.7.c

13 As for thy ryches and treasure, I wyl geue them out into a pray: not for money, but because of al thy sinnes that thou hast donne in al thy coastes.

14 And I wyl bryng thee with thyne enimies into a land that thou knowest not: for the fyre that is kindled in myne indignation shal burne you vp.

Deut.32.c.

15 O Lorde thou knowest, therfore remember me, and visite me, reuenge me of my persecutours, take me not from this lyfe in the time of thy anger: thou knowest that for thy sake I suffer rebuke. C

16 When I had found thy woordes I dyd eate them vp greedyly, they haue made my hart ioyful and glad: for thy name was (b) called vpon me, O Lorde God of hoastes.

Psal.19. Ezech.3.a (b) I am called thy prophete.

17 I dwel not among the scorners, neither is my delyght therein: but I dwel alone because of thy hande, for thou hast filled me with bitternesse.

18 Shal heauinesse endure for euer? Are my plagues then so great that they may neuer be healed? Wylt thou be as one that is false, and as a water that falleth, and can not continue?

19 Upon these woordes, thus sayd the Lord vnto me, If thou wylt turne agayne, I shal set thee in my seruice, and if thou wylt take out the thynges that is pretious from the vyle, thou shalt be euen as myne owne mouth: they shal conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them.

Iere.21.a

20 And so shal I make thee a strong brasen wal agaynst this people, they shal fyght agaynst thee, but they shal not preuayle: for I mee selfe wyl be with thee, to helpe thee and deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

Iere.1.c

21 And I wyl ryd thee out of the handes of the wicked, and deliuer thee out of the handes of tyrantes.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth the miserie of the Iewes. 2. He sheweth that the worshippyng of images and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cause of their miserie. 13. He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon, and their deliuerance from thence agayne. 19. The callyng of the Gentiles.

1 THus sayde the Lorde vnto me, A

2 Thou shalt take thee no wyfe, nor begeat chyldren in this place.

3 For of the chyldren that are borne in this place, of their mothers that haue borne them, and of their fathers that haue begotten them in this lande, thus saith the Lord,

4 They shal dye an horrible death, no man shal weepe for them, nor burie them, but they shal lye as doung vpon the earth: they shal perysshe through the swoorde and hunger, and their bodyes shalbe meate for the fowles of the ayre, and beastes of the earth.

Leuit.10.c Iere.14.d

5 For thus saith the Lorde, Goe not thou into the house of mournyng, nor comme to

Psal.29.a Iere.15.a

mourne and weepe for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people, sayth the Lorde, yea my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande shal they dye olde and young, and shal not be buryed: no man shal beweepe them, no man shal clippe or shaue him selfe for them.

℣ 7 They shal not wring their hands in mourning wyse on their dead one to comfort another: one shal not offer another the cup of consolation to forgeat their heauinesse for their father and mother.

1.Cor.15.b 8 Thou shalt not goe into their feast house, to sit downe to eate or drinke with them:

9 For thus sayth the Lord of hostes the god of Israel, Behold, I shal take away out of this place the voyce of myrth and gladnes, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bryde, yea and that in your dayes, that ye may see it.

Jere.7.d and.25.b

10 Nowe when thou shewest this people al these woordes, and they say vnto thee, Wherefore hath the Lorde deuised al this great plague for vs? or what is the offence and sinne that we haue donne agaynst the Lorde our God?

Jere.5.d

11 Then make thou them this answeare, Because your fathers haue forsakē me, saith the Lorde, and haue walked after strange gods, whom they honoured and worshipped: but me haue they forsaken, and haue not keapt my lawe.

Deut.4.d Jere.7.b

12 And ye with your shameful blasphemies haue exceeded the wickednesse of your fathers: for euery one of you hath folowed the frowarde & euyl imaginations of his owne hart, and is not obedient vnto me.

Jere.7.d

13 Therfore wyl I cast you out of this land, into a lande that ye and your fathers know not: and there shal ye serue strange goddes day and nyght, there wyl I shewe you no fauour.

Deut.28.c

℣ 14 Beholde therefore, sayth the Lorde, the dayes are comme that it shal no more be sayde, The Lorde lyueth whiche brought the chyldren of Israel out of the land of Egypt:

Jere.23.b

15 But it shalbe sayde, The Lorde lyueth that brought the chyldren of Israel from the north, and from al landes where he had scattered them: for I wyl bryng them agayne into the lande that I gaue their fathers.

16 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl sende out many fyshers to take them, and after that wyl I sende out many hunters to hunt them out from al mountaynes and hylles, and out of the caues of stone.

Mat.4.c

17 For myne eyes beholde al their wayes, and they can not be hid fro my face: neither can their wicked deedes be keapt close out of my syght.

18 But first wyl I sufficiently reward their shameful blasphemies and sinnes, because they haue defiled my lande (a) with their stynking caryons and their abominations, wherewith they haue fylled myne heritage.

(a) Gods seruice donne according to his woorde fauoureth sweetely, that is, pleaseth god: but gods seruice and worship without his word, dooth fauour lyke carion, that is, is abhorreth, & much displeaseth God.

19 O Lord my strength, my power & refuge in time of trouble: the Gentiles shal come vnto thee from the endes of the world, and say, Verely our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, their idols are but vayne and vnprofitable.

20 Howe can a man make those his gods, whiche are not able to be gods?

21 And therefore I wyl once teache them, sayth the Lord, I wyl shewe them my hand and my power, and they shal knowe that my name is the Lorde.

The.xvii.Chapter.

1. The frowardnesse of the Iewes. 5. Cursed be those that put their confidence in man, and those blessed that trust in God. 9. Mans hart is wicked. 10. God is the searcher of the hart. 13. The lyuyng waters are forsaken. 21. The halowyng of the Sabboth is commaunded.

A 1 YOur sinne (O ye of the tribe of Iuda) is writtē in the table of your hartes, and grauen so vpon the edges of your aulters with a penne of iron, and with an Adamant clawe:

2 That as the fathers thinke vpon their chyldren, so thinke you also vpon your aulters, wooddes, thicke trees, hygh hylles, mountaynes, and feeldes.

3 Wherefore, O my mount that standeth in the feelde, I wyl make al thy substance and treasure to be spoyled, for the great sinne that thou hast donne vpon thy hygh places throughout al the coastes of thy lande.

Jere.15.a and.20.b

4 Thou shalt be cast out also from the heritage that I gaue thee: and I wyl subdue thee vnder the heauy bondage of thy enimies, in a lande that ye knowe not: for ye haue ministred fyre to myne indignation, whiche shal burne euermore.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde, Cursed be the man that putteth his trust in man, and that taketh fleashe for his arme, and he whose hart departeth from the Lorde.

Psal.49.d Prou.11.c Jere.46.c and.48.a Ezech.29.a

6 He shalbe lyke the heath that groweth in wyldernesse: As for the good thing that is for to comme, he shal not see it, but dwel in a drye place of the wyldernesse, in a salt and and vnoccupyed lande.

Psal.2.b. and.39.c. Prou.22.c. Psal.1.a. Prou.11.b.

8 For he shalbe as a tree that is planted by the waters syde, whiche spreadeth out the roote vnto moystnesse, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe shalbe greene: And though there growe but litle fruite because of drouth, yet is he not carefull, but he neuer leaueth of to bryng foorth fruite.

9 Among all thynges, man hath the most deceiptfull and stubburne hart: Who shall then knowe it?

Iere.11.d. Reuela.2.d. Psal.7.b. Rom.2.a. Prou.23.a. Psal.52.b. Luke.13.b.

10 Euen I the Lorde searche out the ground of the hart, and trye the reynes, and reward euery man accordyng to his wayes, and accordyng to the fruite of his workes.

11 The Partriche maketh a nest of egges, whiche she layed not: he commeth by ryches, but not ryghteously, in the myddest of his lyfe must he leaue them behynde hym, and at the last be founde a very foole.

12 But thou (O Lord) whose throne is most glorious, excellent, and of most antiquitie, whiche dwellest in the place of our holye rest:

13 Thou art the comfort of Israel, all they that forsake thee shalbe confounded, all they that do depart from thee shalbe writtē in earth: for they haue forsaken the Lorde the very conduite of the waters of lyfe.

Iere.3.b. Ezech.36.d John.4.b.

C 14 Heale me, O Lorde, and I shalbe whole: saue thou me, and I shalbe saued: for thou art my prayse.

15 Beholde, these men say vnto me, Where is the worde of the Lorde? let it come now.

16 Whereas I neuertheless obediently folowed thee as a shephearde, and haue not vncalled taken this office vppon me, this knowest thou well: my wordes also were ryght before thee.

Iere.14.a. and.26.b.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me, O Lorde: for thou art he in whom I hope when I am in peryll.

18 Let my persecutours be confounded, but not me: let them be afrayde, and not me: Thou shalt bryng vpon them the time of plague, and shalt destroy them ryght sore.

Iere.8.a. and.26.a.

19 Thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe and stande vnder the gate wherethrough the people and the kynges of Iuda go out and in, yea vnder al the gates of Hierusalem,

20 And say vnto them, Heare the worde of the Lorde ye kynges of Iuda, and all thou people of Iuda, and all the citizens of Hierusalem that go through this gate,

D 21 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Take heede for your lyues that ye cary no burden vpon you in the sabboth, to bryng it thorowe the gates of Hierusalem.

Exod.23.d. Deut.5.b.

22 Ye shall beare no burden also out of your houses in the Sabboth, you shall do no labour therein: but halowe the Sabboth, as I commaunded your fathers.

Exod.20.d.

23 Howbeit they obeyed me not, neyther hearkened they vnto me: but were obstinate and stubburne, and neyther obeyed me, nor receaued my correction.

24 Neuertheless, yf ye wyl heare me, sayth the Lorde, and beare no burden into the Citie through this gate vpon the sabboth, yf ye wyll halowe the sabboth, so that ye do no worke therein:

25 Then shall there go through the gates of this citie kynges and princes that shall syt vpon the throne of Dauid, they shalbe carryed vpon charets, and ryde vpon horses, both they and their princes: yea whole Iuda, & al the citizens of Hierusalem shal goe here through, and this citie shal euer be inhabited.

26 There shal come men also from the cities of Iuda, from about Hierusalem, & from the lande of Beniamin, from the playne feeldes, from the mountaynes, & from the wylderneſſe, which shal bring whole burnt offerynges, sacrifices, oblations, & incense, and offer vp thankesgeuyng in the house of the Lorde.

27 But if ye wyl not be obedient vnto me to halowe the sabboth, so that ye wyl beare your burdens through the gates of Hierusalem vpon the sabboth: then shall I set fyre vpon the gates of Hierusalem, and it shal burne vp the houses of Hierusalem, and no man shalbe able to quenche it.

The.xviii. Chapter.

I. God sheweth by the example of a potter that it is in his power to destroy the despysers of his worde, and to helpe them againe when they amende. 18. The conspiracie of the Iewes agaynst Ieremie. 19. His prayer agaynst his aduersaries.

1 THis is another communication that God had with Ieremie, saying, A

2 Aryse and go downe into the potters house, and there shal I tel thee more of my mynde.

3 Nowe when I came to the potters house, I founde hym makyng his worke vpon a wheele.

4 The vessel that the potter made of claye brake among his handes: So he began a newe, and made another vessel accordyng to his mynde.

5 Then sayde the Lorde thus vnto me,

Esai.45.b. Jere.19.c. Rom.9.c.

6 May not I doo with you as this potter dooth, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lorde? Beholde ye house of Israel, ye are in my hande, euen as the clay is in the potters hande.

Ezech.18.c. Luke.15.a. John.3.b.

7 When I take in hand to roote out, to destroy, or to waste away any people or kingdome:

8 If that people against whom I haue thus deuised, conuert from their wickednesse, I repent of the plague that I deuised to bring vpon them.

1.Sam 15.f

9 Againe, when I take in hande to builde or to plant a people or a kingdome:

10 If the same people doo euil before me, and heare not my voyce, I repent of the good that I haue deuised for them.

11 Speake nowe therfore vnto whole Juda, & to them that dwel at Hierusalem, Thus saith the Lorde, Beholde, I am deuisyng a plague for you, and am taking a thing in hande against you: therefore let euery man turne from his euil way, and take vpon you the thing that is good and ryght.

12 But they saide, No more of this, we wyl folowe our owne imaginations, and doo euery man according to the wylfulnesse of his owne minde.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde, Aske among the heathen yf any man haue heard suche horrible thinges, as the maiden Israel hath donne?

C

14 (a) Wyl a man forsake the snowe of Libanus, whiche commeth from the rocke of the feelde? Or shal the colde flowing waters that commeth from another place be forsaken?

(a) It is extreme madnesse to forsake God the only fresshe spring of pure pleasant waters, who is nygh at hande, & to goe far of to seeke fowle & fylthy puddels, wherin there is nothing but vncleane & stinking water. Jere.19.b. and.49.c. Jere.11.b.

15 But my people hath forgotten me, they haue made sacrifyce in vayne, and theyr prophetes make them fall in their wayes from the auncient pathes, and to goe into a way not vsed to be troden (of iust men.)

16 Wherethrough they haue brought theyr lande into an euerlasting wylderneſſe and scorne: so that who so euer trauayleth therby shalbe abashed, and wagge their heads.

17 With an east winde wil I scatter them before their enimies: and when their destruction commeth, I wyl turne my backe vpon them, but not my face.

18 Then saide they, Comme, let vs imagine some thing against this Jeremie: for the priestes shal not be destitute of the lawe, neither shal the wyse men be destitute of counsaile, nor the prophetes destitute of the woorde of God: Comme, and let vs smite him with the tongue, and let vs not marke al his woordes.

19 Consyder me, O Lorde, and heare the voyce of mine enimies.

20 Shal they recompence euyl for good? for they haue digged a pit for my soule: Remember howe that I stoode before thee to speake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them. Psal.109.e Jere.10.d.

21 Therfore let their children dye of hunger, and let them be oppressed with the sword: Let their wiues be robbed of their children and become wydowes, let their husbandes be slaine, let their young menne be killed with the swoorde in the feelde. Psal.109.b Lamen.3.k.

22 Let the noyse be hearde out of their houses when thou bringest the murderer sodainely vpon them: for they haue digged a pitte to take me, and laide snares for my feete. D

23 Yet Lord thou knowest al their counsaile that they haue deuised to slay me, forgeue not their wickednesse, and let not their sinnes be put out of thy sight, but let them be iudged before thee as giltie: this doo thou vnto them in the time of thyne indignation. Jere.11.d.

The.xix.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth the destruction of Hierusalem, for the contempt and dispysyng of the woorde of God.

A

1 THus sayth the Lorde, Goe thy way and buye thee an earthen pitcher, and bring foorth the senatours and cheefe priestes,

2 Unto the valley of the children of Hennom, whiche lyeth without the east gate, and shewe them there the woordes that I shal tell thee,

3 And say thus vnto them, Heare the woord of the Lorde ye kinges of Juda, and ye citizens of Hierusalem, Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel: Beholde, I wyl bryng suche a plague vpon this place, that the eares of al that heare it shal glowe: 1.king.21.c. Jere.6.c.

4 And that because they haue forsaken me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offered in it vnto strange gods, whom neyther they, their fathers, nor the kinges of Juda haue knowen: they haue fylled this place also with the blood of innocentes.

5 And they haue set vp an aultar vnto Baal, to burne their children for a burnt offering vnto Baal, whiche I neither commaunded nor charged them, neither thought once therevpon. Deut.12.d. and.28.b. Psal.101.c. Ezech.16.e. and.20.d.

6 Behold therfore the time commeth (saith the Jere.7.d.

the Lorde) that this place shal no more be called Thopheth, nor the valley of the children of Hennom: but, ỳ valley of slaughter.

B 7 For in this place wyl I bryng to nought the counsaile of Iuda and Hierusalem, and kyl them downe with the swoorde before theyr enimies, and I wil deliuer them into the handes of them that seeke theyr lyues, and theyr dead carkalles wyl I geue to be meate for the foules of the ayre, and the beastes of the feelde.

8 And I wil make this citie so desolate and despised, that who so euer goeth thereby, shalbe abashed, and iest vponher, because of al her plagues.

1. Kin. 10. f. Ieremi. 18. d 49. f. 50. b. Lamen. 4. b Deut. 28. c. 3. King. 6. f.

9 I wyl feede them also with the fleashe of theyr sonnes and theyr daughters, yea, euery one shal eate vp another in the besiegyng and strayghtnesse wherwith their enimies (that seeke theyr lyues) shal keepe them in.

10 And the pitcher shalt thou breake in the syght of the menne that goeth with thee,

Ieremi. 18. a 11 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Euen so wyl I destroy this people and citie as a man breaketh an earthen vessel that can not be made whole againe: in Thopheth shal they be buryed, for they shal haue none other place.

Ieremi. 7. d.

12 Thus wyl I do vnto this place also, saith the Lord, and to them that dwel therin, yea I wyl make this citie as Thopheth.

13 For the houses of Hierusalem, and the houses of the kynges of Iuda shalbe defiled lyke as Thopheth, and so shal al the houses in whose roofes they dyd sacrifice vnto al the host of heauen, and powred drynke offerynges vnto strange goddes.

C 14 And so Ieremie came from Thopheth, where the Lorde had sent hym to prophesie, and stoode in the courte of the house of the Lord, and spake to al the people.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I wyl bryng vpon this citie, and vpon euery towne about it, al the plagues that I haue deuised agaynst them, because they haue ben obstinate, and would not obey my warnynges.

Ieremi. 7. c.

The .xx. Chapter.

2. Ieremie is smytten and cast into prison, for preachyng of the worde of God. 4. He prophesieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7. He complayneth that he is a mockyng stocke for the woorde of God. 9. He is compelled by the spirit to preach the word.

A 1 When Phashur the priest, the sonne of Emmer, chefe in the house of the Lorde, heard Ieremie preache these woordes (so stedfastly,)

2 He smote Ieremie, and put hym in the prison, that is, in the hygh gate of Beniamin, towardes the house of the Lorde.

Iohn. 18. c. Actes. 14. a.

3 The next day folowing, Phashur brought Ieremie out of ỳ prison agayne: Then sayd Ieremie vnto him, The Lord shal cal thee no more Phashur (that is, excellent and encreasyng,) but Magor, (that is, feareful and afrayde) euery where.

4 For thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wyl make thee afrayde, euen thee selfe, and al that fauour thee, whiche shal perishe with the swoorde of theyr enimies, euen before thy face, and I wyl geue whole Iuda into the handes of the king of Babylon, whiche shal carry somme vnto Babylon prisoners, and slay somme with the swoorde.

5 Moreouer, al the substance of this citie, what so euer they haue gotten with theyr trauayle, al theyr precious thynges, and al the treasure of the kynges of Iuda, wyl I geue into ỳ handes of theyr enimies, which shal spoile them, & cary them vnto Babylō.

2. Kin. 20. e Ieremi. 15. c.

6 But as for thee (O Phashur) thou shalt goe into captiuitie, with al thy houshold, & to Babylon shalt thou comme, where thou shalt dye, and be buryed, thou, and all thy fauourers, to whō thou hast preached lyes.

7 O Lord, yf I am deceiued, then hast thou (a) deceiued me, thou enforcedst me, and hast preuayled: dayly am I despised, and laughed to scorne of euery man.

(a) The prophete assureth the truth of his doctrine, agaynst the slanderer, for it is the word of god, who can not deceyue, nor be deceyued.

8 For since I began to preache, I cried out agaynst violencie, and exclaymed agaynst oppression: for the which cause they cast the woorde of the Lorde in my teeth, to my reproche continually.

9 Wherefore I thought from henceforth not to speake of hym, nor to preache anye more in his name, but the woorde of the Lorde was a very burnyng fire in my hart, and in my bones, whiche when I would haue stopped, I myght not.

10 Verily I hearde the euyl reportes of many, terrour was on euery side of me: (b) camplayne vpon him, say they, and we wil tel his tale: yea al mine owne companions, and suche as were conuersant with me, lay in wayte for my halting, sayeing, Peraduenture he wil be deceiued, & so shal we preuaile agaynst him, and be auenged of hym.

(b) The priests and such as were in authoritie with the kyng, styrred vp the people to watch narowly Ieremies sayeinges, if they coulde finde him to haste in any thyng wherefore they myght accuse him to the kyng.

11 But the Lorde stoode by me like a mighty Giant, therfore my persecutours fel, and could do nothing: they shalbe fore confounded, for they haue done vnwysely, they shal haue an euerlastyng shame whiche shal neuer be forgotten.

12 And nowe, O Lord of hostes, that tryest the ryghteous, whiche knowest the reynes and the very hartes, let me see them punished:

nished: for vnto thee I haue declared my cause.

13 Syng vnto the Lorde, and prayse hym, for he hath deliuered the soule of the oppressed from the hande of the violent.

(c) The most godly menne are sommetymes caried away with the vnrulye rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this prophete, the cause of this immoderate zeale was, for that he sawe his trauayle to saue the people to be in vaine, Gods woorde contemned, and al godlynes fornefully despised.

14 Cursed be the daywherin I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me foorth.

15 Cursed be the man that brought my father the tydynges to make hym glad, sayeing, Thou hast begotten a sonne:

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities (c) whiche the Lorde turned vpsidedowne, and repented not: let hym heare cryeing in the mornyng, and at noone day lamentable howlyng.

17 Why slewest thou not me as soone as I came out of my mothers wombe? or that my mother had ben my graue her selfe, that the byrth myght not haue come out, but remayned styl in her?

18 Wherfore came I foorth of my mothers wombe? to haue experience of labour and sorowe, and to leade my lyfe with shame?

The.xxi.Chapter.

5. He prophesieth that Zedekias shalbe taken, and the citie burned.

A 1 Iob.10.c. THese are the woords that the Lord spake vnto Jeremie, what tyme as king Zedekias sent vnto hym Phashur the sonne of Melchias, and Sophonias the sonne of Maasias priest, sayeing,

2 Aske counsayle at the Lord (we pray thee) on our behalfe, for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon besiegeth vs: yf the Lorde peraduenture wyl deale with vs according to his marueylous power, and take hym from vs.

3 Then spake Jeremie, Geue Zedekias this answere:

4 Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Beholde, I wyl turne backe the weapons that ye haue in your handes, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldees, whiche besiege you rounde about the walles, and I wyl bryng them togeather into the myddest of this citie.

5 And I mee selfe wyl fyght agaynst you with an outstretched hande, and with a myghty arme, in great displeasure and terrible wrath:

6 And wyl smyte them that dwel in this citie, yea, both menne and cattel shal die of a great pestilence.

B 7 Ieremi.31.a But after this, (sayth the Lorde) I shal delyuer Zedekias kyng of Juda, and his seruantes, his people, and such as are escaped in the citie, from the pestilence, swoord, and hunger, into the power of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon, yea, into the hands of theyr enimies, into the handes of those that folowe vppon theyr lyues, whiche shal smyte them with the swoorde, they shal not pitie them, they shal not spare them, they shal haue no mercie vpon them.

8 And vnto this people thou shalt say, Thus sayth the Lorde, Behold, I laye before you the way of lyfe and death. Deut.30.c. Jerem.27.a and.38.a.

9 Whoso abideth in the citie, shal perish eyther with the swoorde, with hunger, or pestilence: but who so goeth out to holde on the Chaldees parte that besiege it, he shal saue his lyfe, and shal winne his soule for a pray.

10 For I haue set my face agaynst this citie (sayth the Lorde) to plagne it, and to doo it no good: it must be geuen into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, and be brent with fire. Jerem.22.a

11 And vnto the house of the kyng of Juda, say thus, Heare the woorde of the Lorde: Esai.1.c.

12 O thou house of Dauid, thus saith the Lorde, Minister ryghteousnesse, and that soone, delyuer the oppressed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out lyke a fire, and burne, so that no man may quench it, because of the wickednesse of your imaginations. Jerem.22.a Zachar.7.b. Jerem.4.a.

13 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl comme vppon thee that dwellest in the valleyes, rockes, and feeldes, and say, Tushe, who wyl make vs afrayde? or who wyl comme into our houses? Jere.48.a. Deut.29.c. Jerem.5.b. 12.a.13.b. and.23.c.

14 For I wyl visite you, sayth the Lord, because of the wickednesse of your inuentions, and wyl kyndle suche a fyre in your wood, as shal consume al that is about you. Sopho.1.c.

The.xxii.Chapter.

2. He exhorteth the kyng of Iuda to iudgment and ryghteousnesse. 9. Why Hierusalem is brought into captiuitie. 11. The death of Sellum the sonne of Iosias is prophesied.

1 THus sayth the Lorde, Goe downe into A the house of the kyng of Juda, and speake there these woordes,

2 And say, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, thou kyng of Juda, that sittest in the kingly seate of Dauid, thou, and thy seruantes, and thy people, that goeth in and out at these gates.

3 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Keepe equitie and ryghteousnesse, delyuer the oppressed from the power of the violent, doo not greeue nor oppresse the stranger, the fatherlesse, nor the wyddowe, and shedde no innocent blood in this place. Esai.1.c. Jerem.21.c Zach.7.c.

4 And

4 And yf ye keepe these thynges faythfully, then shal there come in at the dooze of this house kynges, to syt vpon Dauids seate, they shalbe caried in charrets, and ride vpon hozses, both they, and theyz seruantes, and theyz people.

Esai.1.c. Iere.51.c. Heb.6.b. 5 But yf ye wyl not be obedient vnto these commaundementes, I sweare by myne owne selfe, sayth the Lozd, this house shalbe waste.

6 Foz thus hath the Lozde spoken vpon the kynges of Juda, Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: shal I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwel in?

B 7 I wyl prepare a destroyer with his weapons foz thee, to hewe downe thy especial Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fyre.

Deut.29.d. 1.Kin.9.b. 8 And al the people that goe by this citie, shal speake one to another, Wherefoze hath the Lozd done thus vnto this noble citie?

Deut.29.d. 1.Kin.9.b. 2.Kin.23.b 2.Chzo.7.d 9 Then shal it be answeared, Because they haue bzoken the couenaunt of the Lozde theyz God, and haue woozshypped and serued strange gods.

2.Kin.23.c. 10 Mourne not ouer the dead, and be not woe foz them: but be sozy foz hym that departeth away, foz he commeth not agayne, and seeth his native countrey no mozе.

2.Chzo.3.c. 11 Foz thus sayth the Lozde as touchyng Sellum the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, whiche raigned after his father, When he is caried out of this place, he shal neuer come hither agayne.

Esai.5.c. Agge.1.a. 12 Foz he shal dye in the place whereunto he is led captiue, and shal see this lande no mozе.

13 Wo wozth him that buildeth his house with vnryghteousnesse, and his parlours with the good that he hath gotten by violence, which neuer recompenceth his neighbours labour, noz payeth hym his hyze:

C 14 Who thynketh in him selfe, I wil builde me a wide house and gozgeous parlours, who causeth windowes to be hewen therein, and the seelynges and ioystes maketh he of Cedar, and paynteth them with Sinoper.

15 Thinkest thou to raigne nowe that thou hast inclosed thee selfe with Cedar? Dyd not thy father eate and dzynke and pzosper wel, as long as he dealt with equitie and ryghteousnesse?

16 Yea when he helped the oppzessed and poore to theyz ryght, then pzospered he wel, from whence came this, but only because he knewe me, sayth the Lozde?

17 Neuertheless, as foz thyne eyes & thyne hart they looke vpon couetousnesse, to shed innocent blood, to do wzong and violence.

18 And therfoze thus saith the Lozd against Iehoakim the sonne of Josias king of Juda, They shal not mourne foz him (as they vse to doo) Alas bzother, alas syster: neyther shal they say vnto hym, Alas syz, alas foz that noble pzince. 2.King.22. and.23.a. and.24.a. Iere.36.d.

19 But as an asse shal he be buryed, corrupt, and be cast without the gates of Hierusalem.

20 Climbe vp the hyl of Libanus, (O thou daughter Sion) lyft vp thy voyce vpon Basan, crye from al partes: foz al thy louers are destroyed.

D 21 I gaue thee warnyng whyle thou wast yet in pzosperitie: but thou saydest, I wyl not heare: And this manner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou wouldest neuer heare my voyce.

22 Al thy heardmen shalbe dziuen with the winde, and thy darlinges shalbe caryed away into captiuitie: then shalt thou be bzought to shame and confusion, because of al thy wyckednesse.

23 Thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, and makest thy nest in the Cedar trees, O how litle shalt thou be regarded when thy sozowe and panges come vpon thee, as vpon a woman trauailing with childe? Esai.13.d. and.21.a. Iere.12.b. and.21.a. 2.Kin.24.b

24 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lozde, though * Conanias the sonne of Iehoakim kyng of Juda were the signet of my right hande, yet wil I plucke him of. * oz, Iechonias.

25 And I wyl geue thee into the hande of them that seeke thy life, and into the power of them that thou feaxest, euen into the power of Nabuchodonosoz the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Mozeouer, I wyl sende thee and thy mother that bare thee into a strange lande where ye were not bozne, and there shal ye dye.

27 But as foz the lande that ye wyl desyze to returne vnto, ye shal neuer come at it agayne. E

28 This man Conanias shalbe like an image robbed and tozne in peeces, and like a vessel wherein there is no pleasure: Wherfoze both he and his seede shalbe sent away, and cast into a land that they knowe not.

29 O thou earth, earth, earth, heare the wozde of the Lozde.

30 Thus sayth the Lozde, Wzite this man destitute of childzen: foz no pzosperitie shal this man haue al his dayes, neyther shal any of his seede be so happye as to sit vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule any mozе in Juda.

1. He speaketh agaynſt euyl curates that make hauocke of the flocke of the lord. 5. The commyng of the true ſhepheard Chriſt is prophecied. 9. Agaynſt falſe prophetes. 32. The miracles of falſe prophetes.

A 1 WO vnto the ſheepheardes that deſtroy and ſcatter my flocke, ſayth the Lord. Ezech.34.a

2 Wherefore this is the ſaying of the Lord God of Iſrael concernyng the ſheepeheardes that feede my people, Ye ſcatter and thruſt out my flocke, and loke not vpon them: therfore now wil I viſite ỹ wickednesse of your imaginations, ſayth the Lord.

3 And I wil geather together the remnant of my flocke from al landes that I had driuen them vnto, and wyl bryng them againe to theyr foldes, that they may growe and encreaſe.

4 I wyl ſet ſheepheardes alſo ouer them, whiche ſhal feede them: they ſhal no more feare and dreade, and there ſhall none of them be loſt, ſayth the Lorde.

The Epiſtle on the.xx. Sunday after Trinitie. Iere.33.c. Eſai.11.a. Deut.33.c. 5 Beholde, the tyme commeth, ſayth the Lorde, that I wyl rayſe vp the ryghteous braunche of Dauid, which kyng ſhal beare rule, and he ſhal proſper with wyſedome, and ſhal ſet vp equitie and ryghteouſneſſe agayne in the earth.

I.Cor.1.d. Iere.16.c. 6 In his tyme ſhal Juda be ſaued, and Iſrael ſhal dwel without feare: and this is the name that they ſhal cal him, The Lord our ryghteouſneſſe.

B 7 And therfore beholde the time commeth, ſayth the Lord, that it ſhalbe no more ſayd, The Lorde liueth which brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

8 But, the Lord liueth which brought forth and led the ſeede of the houſe of Iſrael out of the north lande, and from al countreyes where I had ſcattered them: and they ſhal dwel in their owne lande agayne.

9 My hart breaketh in my body, becauſe of the (falſe) prophetes, al my bones ſhake, I am become lyke a drunken man that by the reaſon of wine can take no reaſt, for verye feare of the Lord and his holy wordes.

Iere.14.a. 10 Becauſe the lande is ful of adulterers, and through ſwearyng it mourneth, & the pleaſant paſtures of the deſart are dried vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, and theyr power is nothyng ryght.

11 For the prophetes and the prieſtes them ſelues are polluted hypocrites, and theyr wickednesſe haue I founde in my houſe, ſayth the Lord.

12 Wherefore theyr way ſhalbe ſlypperie in the darkeneſſe, wherein they may ſtacker and fal; for I wyl bryng a plague vpon them, euen the yeere of theyr viſitation, ſayth the Lord.

13 I haue ſeene folly among the prophetes of Samaria that preached for Baal, and deceiued my people of Iſrael.

C 14 I haue ſeene alſo among the prophetes of Hieruſalem foule adulterie, and preſumtuous lyes: they take the moſte ſhameful men by the hande, flatteryng them, ſo that they can not returne from theyr wickednesſe: al theſe with their citizens are vnto me as Sodom, & as the inhabiters of Gomorre.

Iere.9.b. 15 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes concernyng theſe prophetes, Beholde, I wyl feede them with woormewood, and make them drynke the water of gal: for from the prophetes of Hieruſalem is hypocriſie come into al the lande.

Iere.27.b. and.29.b. 16 And therfore the Lorde of hoſtes geueth you this warnyng, Heare not the wordes of the prophetes that preache vnto you, and deceiue you, truely they teache you vanitie: for they ſpeake the meanyng of theyr owne hart, and not out of the mouth of the Lorde.

Iere.12.a. and.14.b. Sopho.1.c 17 They ſay vnto them that deſpiſe me, The Lorde hath ſpoken it, tuſhe, ye ſhal proſper right wel: and vnto al them that walke after the luſt of theyr owne hart, they ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no miſfortune happen you.

18 For who hath ſytten in the counſayle of the Lorde, that he hath heard and vnderſtande what he is about to doo? who hath marked his deuiſe, and heard it?

Iere.30.d. 19 Beholde the ſtormie weather of the Lord (that is) his indignation ſhal goe forth, and a violent whirlewinde ſhal fal downe vpon the head of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the Lord ſhal not turne agayne, vntyl he perfourme and fulfyl the thought of his hart: and in the latter dayes ye ſhal knowe this meanyng. Iere.14.a.

D 21 I haue not ſent theſe prophetes, (ſayth the Lorde) and yet they ranne, I haue not ſpoken to them, and yet they preached.

22 But if they had continued in my counſel, they had opened to my people my wordes, and they had turned my people from theyr euil wayes, and wicked imaginations.

23 Am I then God that ſeeth but the thing whiche is nigh at hande, and not that is farre of, ſayth the Lorde?

Pſal.139.a Eſech.8.b. Pſal.129.a Amos.9.a Eſai.71.a. Actes.7.f. and.17.b. 24 May any man hide him ſelfe ſo, that I ſhal not ſee him, ſayth the Lord? do not I fulfil heauen and earth, ſaith the Lorde?

25 I haue heard wel ynough what the prophetes ſay that preache lyes in my name, ſaying, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 Howe long wil this continue in the prophetes prophetes hart to tel lyes, and preache the craftie subtiltie of theyr owne hart?

27 Whose purpose is with the dreames that euery one tel, to make my people forgeat my name, as theyr fathers dyd when Baal came vp.

2.Cor.4.a. 1.Pet.4.b. D

28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him tel it, and he that vnderstandeth my word, let hym shewe it faythfully: for what hath chaffe and wheate to doo togeather, sayth the Lorde?

29 Is not my woorde lyke a fire, sayth the Lorde? and lyke an hamber that breaketh the harde stone?

30 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Behold I wyl vppon the prophetes that steale my woorde priuily from euery man.

31 Beholde, here am I, sayth the Lorde, agaynst the prophetes that make tongues tender to speake, and to say, The Lord hath sayde it.

32 Beholde, here am I, sayth the Lorde, against those prophetes that dare prophesie lying dreames, and deceiue my people with theyr vanities & inconstant deuices, yet I neuer sent nor cõmaunded them: they shal do this people no good at al, saith the Lord.

33 If this people, eyther any prophete or priest, aske thee, and say, What is the (a) burden of the Lorde? Thou shalt say vnto them, What burden? I wyl forsake you, sayth the Lorde.

(a) The wicked mennes hartes were so hardened agaynst the trueth, that they vsed scornefully to scoffe at Gods threatning prophecies in mockage, calling them Gods farelle or burden.

34 And the prophete, priest, or people, that vseth this tearme, The burden of the lord: hym wyl I visite, and his house also.

35 But thus shal ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother, What answere hath the Lorde geuen? or what is the Lordes commaundement?

36 And as for the burden of the Lord, ye shal speake no more of it, for euery mans owne woorde is his burden: because ye haue altered the woordes of the liuyng God, the Lord of hostes our God.

E

37 Thus shal euery man say to the prophetes, What answere hath the Lorde geuen thee? or what sayth the Lorde?

38 And not once to name the burden of the Lorde. Therefore thus sayth the Lord, For as much as ye haue vsed this tearme (The burden of the Lorde) where as I notwithstanding sent vnto you, and forbade you to speake of the Lordes burden:

39 Behold, therefore I wyl take you vp as a burden, and wyl caste you farre of from my presence, yea, and the citie also that I gaue you and your fathers:

40 And wyl bryng you to an euerlasting confusion, and into a shame that shal neuer be forgotten.

The.xxiiii. Chapter.

1. The vision of the two pannyers of figges.
5. The firste vision signifieth, that parte of the people shoulde be brought agayne from captiuitie. 8. The second, that Zedekias and the reast of the people should be destroyed.

A

1 THE Lorde shewed me a vision: behold there stoode two maundes of figges before the temple of the lord, after that Nabuthodonozor kyng of Babylon had led away captiue Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim kyng of Iuda, the mighty men also of Iuda, with the woorkmaisters & cunnyng men of Hierusalem, vnto Babylon. 2.Kin.24.d

2 In the one maund were very good figges, euen lyke those that be fyrste rype: in the other maunde were very noughty figges, which might not be eaten thei were so euil.

3 Then sayd the Lorde vnto me, What seest thou, Ieremie? I sayde, figges, wherof some be very good, and some so euyl that no man may eate them. Deut.9.d.

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, after this manner:

5 Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Like as thou knowest the good figges: so shal I knowe the menne led away, whom I haue sent out of this place into the lande of the Chaldees for theyr profite:

6 And I wyl set myne eyes vppon them for the best, for I wyl bryng them agayne into this lande, I wyl buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, I wyl plant them, and not roote them out.

7 And I wyl geue them an harte to knowe B howe that I am the Lorde: they shalbe my people, and I wyl be theyr God: for they shal returne vnto me with their whole hart. Deut.29.a. Iere.30.d. and.31.d.

8 And lyke as thou knowest the noughtie figges whiche may not be eaten, they are so euyl: euen so wyl I, sayth the Lorde, cause Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, yea, and all his princes, and the residue of Hierusalem that remayne ouer in this lande, and them also that dwel in Egypt, to be vexed and plagued in kyngdomes and landes. and.32.e. Iere.29.c.

9 And I wyl make them to be a reproofe, a Psa.79.a common by woorde, a laughyng stocke and Baruch.3.a shame in al the places where I shal scatter them.

10 I wyl sende the swoorde, hunger, and pestilence among them, vntyl I haue cleane consumed them out of the land that I gaue vnto them and theyr fathers.

The.xxv. Chapter.

1. Ieremie prophesieth that they shalbe in captiuitie threescore and ten yeeres, because thei contemned & despised the word of god.

1. A Ser-

A 1 A Sermon that was geuen vnto Ieremie vpon al the people of Juda, in the fourth yeere of Iehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda (that was in the fyrst yere of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylō,)

2 Whiche sermon Jeremie the prophete made vnto al the people of Juda, and to al the inhabiters of Hierusalem, on this maner, Jerem.39.c and.35.c. and.38.a. 3 From the thirteenth yeere of Josias the sonne of Ammon kyng of Juda, vnto this present day, (that is euen twentie and three yeeres) the worde of the Lorde hath ben committed vnto me, and so I haue spoken vnto you, I haue rysen vp early, I haue geuen you warnyng in season: but ye would not heare me.

2. Chr.36.c 4 Though the Lorde hath sent his seruantes al the prophetes vnto you in season: yet woulde ye not obey, ye woulde not encline

2. King.7. your eares to heare.

5 He sayde, Turne agayne euery man from his euyl way, and from your wicked imaginations, and so shal ye dwel for euer in the lande that the Lorde promised you and your forefathers.

6 And goe not after strange goddes, serue them not, worshyp them not, and anger me not with the woorkes of your owne hands,

B then wyl I not punishe you.

7 Neuertheless, ye woulde not heare me, sayth the Lorde, but haue prouoked me to anger with the woorkes of your handes, to your great harme.

Jerem.1.b. 8 Wherefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes, Because ye haue not hearkened vnto my worde, 9 Loe, I wyl sende out and cal for all the people that dwel in the North, saith the Lorde, and wyl prepare Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon my seruant, and wyl bryng them vpon this lande, and vpon all that dwel therein, and vpon al the people that are about them, and wyl vtterly roote them out: I wil make them amazed, a mockage, and a continual desart.

Esai.10.a. Jerem.17.

Jerem.8.b. and.16.b. 10 Moreouer, I wyl take from them the voyce of gladnesse and solace, the voyce of the bridegrome, and the bryde, the noyse of the mylstones, and the lyght of the cresets.

11 And this whole lande shal become a wyldernesse and astonished: and these nations shal serue the kyng of Babylon three score yeeres and ten.

2. Chr.36.d 1. Esd.1.a. Jere.5.c. and.29.b. Dani.9.a. Zachar.1.b. 12 When the three score and ten yeeres are expired, I wyl visite al the wickednesse of the kyng of Babylon and his people, saith the Lorde, yea, and the lande of the Chaldees, & wyl make it a perpetual wyldernes,

13 And wyl fulfil al my woordes vpon that lande which I haue deuised agaynst it: yea al that is wrytten in this booke, which Jeremie hath prophecied of al people, 14 So that they also shalbe subdued vnto diuers nations, and great kinges: for I wil C recompence them according to their deedes Job.34.d. and woorkes of their owne handes.

15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken vnto me, Take this wyne cuppe of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayst cause al people to whom I sende thee for to drynke of it:

16 That when they haue drunken thereof, Esai.51.d. they may be madde, and out of their wits, Psal.75.b. when the sworde commeth that I wyl send among them.

17 Then tooke I the cup from the Lordes hande, and made al people to drynke therof, vnto whom the Lorde had sent me:

18 But fyrste the citie of Hierusalem, and al the cities of Juda, theyr kynges and princes, to make them desolate, amazed, despised, and hyssed at, and cursed, according as it is comme to passe this day.

19 Yea, and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his seruantes, his princes, and his people altogeather one with another:

20 And al kynges of the lande of Hus, all kynges of the Philistines lande, Ascalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnant of Asdod,

22 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the D Ammonites,

22 Al the kynges of Tyrus and Sidon, the kynges of the Iles that are beyonde the sea,

23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and al them that dwel in the vttermost partes of the world,

24 Al the kynges of Arabia, and (generally) al the kynges that dwel in the desart,

25 Al the kynges of Zimri, al the kynges of Elam, al the kynges of the Medes, 26 Al the kynges towarde the North, whether they be farre or nigh, euery one against his neighbour, yea, and al the kyngdomes that are vppon the whole earth: and the king of Sesach shal drynke also after them.

27 Therefore say thou vnto them, This is the commaundement of the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Drynke, and be drunken: spewe, and fal, that ye neuer aryse, and that through the sworde whiche I wyl send among you.

28 But yf they wyl not receiue the cuppe of E thy hande, and drynke it, then tel them, thus doth the Lorde of hostes threaten you, Drynke it you shal, and that shortly.

29 For loe, I begyn to plague the citie that Jere.49.d. my name is geuen vnto, thinke ye then that Ezech.9.b. I wyl leaue you vnpunished? ye shal 1.Pet.4.c.

not not goe quite: for why? I cal for a swoorde vpon al the inhabitours of the earth, saith the Lorde of hostes.

30 Therefore tel them al these woordes, and say vnto them, The Lorde shal crye from aboue, and his voyce shalbe heard from his holy habitation, with a great noyse shal he crye from his court regal: he shal geue a great voyce lyke the grape geatherers, and the sounde thereof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the woorlde. Joel.4.c. Amos.1.b.

31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon al people, and wil holde his courte of iustice with al flesshe, and wyl deliuer the vngodly to the swoorde, sayth the Lorde. Ierr.30.d.

32 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, a miserable plague shal goe from one people to another, and a great stormie water shal aryse from al the endes of the earth.

33 And the same day shal the Lord him selfe slay them from one end of the earth to another: there shal no mone be made for any of them, none geathered vp, none buryed: but shal lye as doung vpon the grounde.

F 34 Mourne, O ye sheepeheardes, and crye, sprynckle your selues with asshes, O ye rammes of the flocke: for the tyme of your slaughter and breache is fulfilled, and ye shal fal lyke vesselles that were muche set by.

Psal.142.a 35 The sheepeheardes shal haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shal not escape.

36 Then shal the sheepheardes crie horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shal mourne: for the Lord hath consumed their pasture, 37 And their best feeldes lye dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forsaken their foldes lyke as a Lion: for their lande is waste because of the spoylers furious crueltie, and of his feareful indignation.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

2. Ieremie moueth the people to amendement. 7. He is taken of the prophetes and priestes, and brought to iudgement. 23. Urias the propher is kylled of Iehoakim, contrary to the wyl of God.

A 1 IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, came this woorde from the Lorde, saying, Ierr.7.a. and.17.d.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Stande in the courte of the Lordes house, and speake vnto al them which (out of the citie of Iuda) come to do woorshyp in the Lordes house, al the woordes that I commaunde thee to say: looke that thou keepe not one woorde backe.

3 (If peraduenture they wyl hearken and turne euery man from his wycked way, that I may also repent of the plague whiche I haue determined to bring vpon them, because of their wicked inuentions.) Deut.4.a. and.12.b. Ierr.18.a. Iohn.3.b.

4 And after this manner shalt thou speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, If ye wyl not obey me, to walke in my lawes whiche I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the woordes of my seruants the prophetes whom I sent vnto you, rysyng vp tymely, and styl sendyng, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wil I do to this house as I did vnto Silo, and wyl make this citie to be abhorred of al the people of the earth. Ierr.7.a.

7 And the priestes, the prophetes, and al the people heard Ieremie preache these woordes in the house of the Lorde. B

8 Nowe when he had spoken out al the woordes that the Lorde commaunded hym to preach vnto the people, then the priestes, the prophetes, and al the people tooke holde vpon hym, and sayde, Thou shalt dye:

9 Howe darest thou be so bolde as to say in the name of the Lorde, It shal happen to this house as it did vnto Silo, and this citie shalbe so waste that no man may dwel therein?

10 And when al the people were geathered about Ieremie in the house of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda heard of this rumour, and they came soone out of the kings palace into the house of the Lorde, and sate them downe before the newe doore of the Lorde.

11 Then spake the priestes and the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to all the people these woordes, This man is woorthy to dye: for he hath preached agaynst this citie, as ye your selues haue heard with your eares. 2.Kin.15.g. Ierr.36.d. Iohn.19.a. Mat.16.g.

12 Then sayde Ieremie vnto the rulers, and to al the people, The Lorde hath sent me to preache agaynst this house, and agaynst this citie, al the woordes that ye haue heard.

13 Therefore amende your wayes, and your aduisementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, so shal the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath deuised agaynst you.

14 Nowe as for me, I am in your handes, doo with me as you thynke expedient and good: C

15 But this shal ye knowe yf ye put me to death, ye shal make your selues, this citie, and al the inhabitantes therof, giltie of innocent Mat.23.c.

nocent blood: for this is of a trueth, that the Lorde hath sent me vnto you, to speake al these wordes in your eares.

16 Then sayde the rulers and the people vnto the priestes and prophetes, This man may not be condemned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lorde our God.

Mich.1.a. 17 The elders also of the lande stoode vp, and sayde thus vnto al the people, Mich.3.c. 18 Micheas the Morasthite, whiche was a prophete vnder Ezekias kyng of Juda, spake to al the people of Juda, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes, Sion shalbe plowed lyke a feelde, Hierusalem shalbe an heape of stones, and the hyl of the Lordes house shalbe turned to an high wood.

Jonas.3.b. 19 Did Ezekias the king of Juda, and al the people of Juda put hym to death for this? No verily: but rather feared the lord, and made their prayer vnto hym, for the whiche cause also the Lorde (a) repented of the plague that he had deuised agaynst them: shoulde we then do suche a shameful deede agaynst our soules?

(a) In the deuine nature there is no such affections or changeableneſſe: but God is sayde after the maner of men to repent, when he doth not execute that he had denounced, or doth deferre the plague whiche he had threatned.

20 There was a prophete that preached styfly in the name of the Lorde, called Urias, the sonne of Semaiah of Kiriathiarim: this man also preached agaynst this citie and agaynst this lande, accordyng to al as Jeremie sayth.

21 Nowe when Jehoakim the king with al the estates and princes had heard his wordes, the king went about to slay him: when Urias perceiued that, he was afrayde, and fled, and departed into Egypt.

22 Then Jehoakim the king sent seruants into the lande of Egypt (namely) Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, and certayne men with hym into Egypt:

23 Whiche fetched Urias out of Egypt, and brought him vnto kyng Jehoakim, that slue hym with the swoorde, and cast his dead body into the common peoples graue.

24 But Ahikam the sonne of Saphan helped Jeremie, that he came not into the handes of the people to be slayne.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

1. Jeremie at the commaundement of the Lord sendeth bondes to the kyng of Iuda, and to the other kinges that were nigh, whereby they are monished to become subiectes vnto Nabuchodonosor. 9. He warneth the people, and the kynges, and rulers, that they beleeue not false prophetes.

IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, came this woorde vnto Jeremie from the Lorde, whiche spake thus vnto me,

2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke,

3 And sende them to the kyng of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the king of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, and to the kyng of Sidon, and that by the messengers whiche shal come to Hierusalem, vnto Zedekiah the kyng of Juda:

4 And byd them say vnto their maisters, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, Speake thus vnto your maisters: Deut.10.c.

5 I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cattel that are vpon the grounde, with my great power and stretched out arme, & haue geuen it vnto whom it pleased me.

6 And nowe wyl I deliuer al these landes into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon my seruant: the beastes also of the feeld wil I geue hym, to do him seruice. Eccle.10.f. Judi.11.d. Jere.32.a. Dan.4.c. Jere.25.b. B

7 And al the people shal serue hym, and his sonne, and his childers childzen, vntyl the tyme of the same lande be come, and his tyme also: yea many people & great kinges shal serue hym. Jere.21.b. and.38.a.

8 Moreouer, that people and kyngdoms which wil not serue Nabuchodonosor, and that wyl not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon: the same people wil I visite with the swoorde, with hunger and pestilence, vntyl I haue consumed them in his handes, sayth the Lord.

9 And therfore folowe not your prophetes, soothsayers, expounders of dreames, charmers, and wytches, which say vnto you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon. Jere.23.f. and.29.b.

10 For they preache you lyes, to bryng you farre from your lande, and that I myght cast you out, and destroy you.

11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon and serue hym, those wyl I let remayne styl in their owne lande, sayth the Lord, and they shal occupie it, and dwel therein. Jere.38.c.

12 Al these thynges tolde I Zedekiah the kyng of Juda, and sayd, Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and serue hym and his people, that ye may liue.

13 Why wilt thou and thy people perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, with pestilence, lyke as the Lorde hath denised for al people that wil not serue the kyng of Babylon? Jere.23.f. and.39.b.

14 Therefore geue no eare vnto those prophetes that tel you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon: for they preach you lyes. C

15 Neither haue I sent them, saith the Lord: howbeit, howbeit they are bolde falsely to prophecie in my name, that I myght the sooner driue you out, & that ye might perishe with your preachers.

16 I speake to the priestes also, and to al this people: thus sayth the Lord, Heare not the wordes of your prophetes that preache vnto you, and say, Behold the vessels of the Lordes house shal shortly be brought hither agayne from Babylon, for they prophecie lyes vnto you.

Iere.28.a

17 Heare them not, but serue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may lyue: wherefore wyl ye make this citie to be destroyed?

18 But yf they be true prophetes in very deede, and if the worde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lord of hostes, that the remnant of the ornamentes whiche are in the house of the Lorde, and in the house of the kyng of Juda, and at Hierusalem, be not caried to Babylon also.

19 For thus hath the Lord of hostes spoken concerning the pyllers, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the ornamentes that yet remayne in this citie, 20 Which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon tooke not when he caryed away Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim king of Juda, with al the power of Juda and Hierusalem, vnto Babylon captiue.

4.king.24.c

21 Yea thus hath the Lord of hostes the god of Israel spoken as touchyng the residue of the ornamentes of the Lordes house, of the king of Juda his house, and of Hierusalem:

22 They shalbe caryed vnto Babylon, and there shal they remayne vntyl I visite the, saith the Lorde: then wyl I bring them hyther agayne.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1. The false prophecie of Hananias the propphete. 12. Ieremie sheweth that the prophecie of Hananias is false, by the example of the other prophetes.

A

1 AND it came to passe the same yeere, euen in the beginning of the raigne of Zedekiah kyng of Juda, in the fourth yeere, the fifth moneth, that Hananias the sonne of Assur the prophet of Gibeon, spake to me in the house of the Lorde, in the presence of the priestes, and of al the people, and sayde,

Iere.27.c

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the GOD of Israel, I haue brokē the yoke of the king of Babylon,

3 And after two yeeres wyl I bring againe into this place al the ornamentes of the Lordes house, that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon caryed away from this place vnto Babylon,

Iere.27.c

4 Yea I wyl bring againe Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim the king of Juda hym selfe, with al the prisoners of Juda that are caried vnto Babylon, euen into this place, sayth the Lorde: for I wyl breake the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the prophete Ieremie gaue answeare vnto the prophete Hananias before al the priestes, and before al the people that were present in the house of the Lorde.

6 And the prophete Ieremie sayde, Amen, the Lorde doo that, and graunt the thing whiche thou hast prophecied, that he may bring agayne al the ornamentes of the lords house, and restore al the prisoners from Babylon into this place.

Mich.3.a

7 Neuertheless hearken thou also what I wyl say, that thou and al the people may heare.

8 The prophetes that were before vs in tyme past, whiche prophecied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence,

9 Eyther of peace vpon many nations and great kingdomes, were proued by this (yf God hath sent them in very deede) when the thyng came to passe which the prophete tolde before.

Deut.18.b

10 And Hananias the prophete tooke the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and brake it:

11 And with that sayd Hananias that al the people might heare, Thus hath the Lorde spoken, Euen so wyl I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon from the necke of al nations, yea and that within this two yeere. And so the prophete Ieremie went his way.

12 Nowe after that Hananias the prophete had taken the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and broken it, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Ieremie, sayeing, 13 Goe and tel Hananias these wordes, Thus sayth the Lorde: Thou hast broken the chayne of wood, but in steede of wood thou shalt make chaynes of iron.

C

14 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the GOD of Israel, I wyl put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of al this people, that they may serue Nabuchodonosor ỹ king of Babylon, yea and so shal they doo: and I wyl gene him the beastes of the fielde.

15 Then sayde the prophete Ieremie vnto the prophete Hananias, Heare me Hananias, The Lorde hath not sent thee, but thou bringest this people into a false beleefe.

Iere.29.c

16 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Be-holde I wyl ſende thee out of the land, and within a yeere thou ſhalt dye, becauſe thou haſt falſely ſpoken agaynſt the Lorde.

17 So Hananias dyed the ſame yeere in the ſeuenth moneth.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1. The epiſtle of Ieremie ſent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10. He prophecieth their returne from the captiuitie after ſeuentie yeeres.

A 1 THeſe are the woordes of the booke that Ieremie the prophet ſent from Hieruſalem vnto ỹ priſoners, the ſenatours, prieſtes, prophetes, & al the people, whom Nabuchodonoſor had led from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon,

2 After that tyme that kyng Iechonias and his queene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Iuda and Hieruſalem, the woorkemaiſters of Hieruſalem, were departed thyther.

3 Whiche booke Elaſah the ſonne of Saphan, and Gamariah the ſonne of Helkia dyd beare, whom Zedekias the kyng of Iuda ſent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon: theſe were the woords of Ieremies booke.

4 Thus hath the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken vnto al the priſoners that were led from Hieruſalem to Babylon:

Iere.35.d 5 Buylde you houſes to dwel therein, plant you gardens that you may enioy the fruites thereof.

Gen.1.d and.9.a 6 Take you wyues to beare you ſonnes and daughters, prouide wiues for your ſonnes, and huſbandes for your daughters, that they may geat ſonnes and daughters, and that ye may multiplye there, and decreaſe not.

B 7 Seeke after the peace and proſperitie of the citie wherein ye be pryſoners, and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace therof ſhal your peace be.

Baru.1.a 1.Tim.2.a.

Iere.33.c and.27.b 8 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the GOD of Iſrael, Let not theſe prophetes and ſoothſayers that be among you deceiue you, and beleeue not your owne dreames:

Iere.14.b 9 For why? they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not ſent them, ſayth the Lorde.

1.Chr.26.d Iere.22.b 1.Eſd.1.a 10 But thus ſayth the Lord, When ye haue fulfilled ſeuentie yeeres at Babylon, I wil bring you home, and of mine owne goodnes I wyl carye you hyther agayne into this place.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuiſed for you, ſaith the Lorde: my thoughtes are to geue you peace, and not trouble, & to geue you an ende as you wiſhe and hope to haue.

12 Ye ſhal crye vnto me, ye ſhal goe and call vpon me, and I wyl heare you. Deut.4.e and.30.a

13 Ye ſhal ſeeke me and fynde me, yea yf ſo be that you ſeeke me with your whole hart. Iohn.7.d

14 I wyl be founde of you, ſayth the Lorde, and wyl deliuer you out of priſon, and geather you togeather agayne out of al places wherein I haue ſcattered you, ſayth the Lorde, and wyl bring you agayne to the ſame place from whence I cauſed you to be caried away captiue. C

15 But where as ye ſay that God hath rayſed you vp prophetes at Babylon,

16 Thus hath the Lorde ſpoken to the king that ſitteth in the throne of Dauid, and to al the people that dwel in this citie, (and) to your brethren that are not gonne with you into captiuitie: 2.Kin.24.d

17 Thus (I ſay) ſpeaketh the Lord of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl ſende a ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence vpon them, and wyl make them lyke vntymely figges that may not be eaten for bitternes: Iere.14.b

18 And I wyl perſecute thē with the ſword, with hunger, and peſtilence, I wyl deliuer them vp to be vexed of al kyngdomes, to be curſed, abhorred, laughed to ſcorne, and put to confuſion of al the people among whom I haue ſcattered them:

19 And that becauſe they haue not ben obedient vnto my commaundementes, ſayth the Lorde, whiche I ſent vnto them by my ſeruantes the prophetes: I ſtoode vp early and ſent vnto them, but they woulde not heare, ſayth the Lorde. Iere.25.a and.44.a

20 Heare therefore the woorde of the Lorde al ye priſoners whom I ſent from Hieruſalem to Babylon,

21 Thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken of Ahab the ſonne of Colaiah, & of Zedekias the ſonne of Maaſiah, which prophecie lies vnto you in my name, Beholde, I wyl deliuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, that he may ſlay them before your eyes. D

22 And al the priſoners of Iuda that are in Babylon ſhal take this terme of curſing, and ſay, Now God doo vnto thee as he did vnto Zedekias and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roſted in the fire, 23 Becauſe they ſinned ſhamefully in Iſrael: for they haue not onely defiled their neighbours wiues, but alſo preached lying woordes in my name, whiche I haue not commaunded them: this I teſtifie & aſſure, ſayth the Lorde.

24 But

24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto hym:
25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Because thou hast sent letters in thyne owne name vnto al the people that is at Hierusalem, and to Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea and sent them to al the priestes, saying,
E 26 The Lord hath ordeyned thee to be priest
2.kyng.11.a in the steade of Iehoiada the priest, that
2.Chr.23.a thou shouldest be cheefe in the house of the Lorde aboue al prophetes and preachers, and that thou myghtest set them vpon the pyllory, or in the stockes:
27 Howe happeneth it then that thou haste not reproued Ieremie of Anathoth, whiche neuer leaueth of his prophecying?
28 And beside al this, he hath sent vs worde
Iere.29.c. vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely that our captiuitie shal long endure, that we shoulde builde vs houses to dwel therein, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites thereof.
29 Which letter Sophonias the priest read, and let Ieremie the prophete heare it.
30 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, saying,
31 Sende worde to al them that be in captiIere.28.c. nitie, on this maner, Thus hath the Lorde spoken concernyng Semeiah the Nehelamite: Because that Semeiah hath prophecied vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope:
32 Therefore thus the Lorde doth certifie you, Beholde, I wil visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shal remayne among this people, and none of them shall see the good that I wyll do for my people, sayth the Lorde: for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

The.xxx.Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from Babylon.
8 God by his chastening sheweth that the people is synful. 16. The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

A Iere.30.c. 1 THese are the wordes that the Lorde sheweth vnto Ieremie, saying,
2 Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Write vp diligently al the wordes that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke.
3 For loe, the tyme commeth, sayth the lord, that I wyl bryng agayne the prysoners of my people of Israel & Iuda, sayth the lord: for I wyl restore them vnto the lande that I gaue to their fathers, and they shal haue it in possession.
4 Agayne, these woordes spake the Lorde concernyng Israel and Iuda, 5 Thus sayth the Lorde, We haue hearde a terrible crye, feare, and disquietnesse.
6 For what els doth this signifie that I see? (Namely) that al strong menne smyte euery man his hande vpon his loynes, as a woman in the payne of her trauayle? Who euer sawe a man trauayle with chylde? Enquyre thereafter and see, yea, al theyr faces are marueylous pale. Iere.13.b.
7 Alas for this day, which is so dreadful that none may be lykened vnto it, and alas for B the tyme of Iacobs trouble, from the whiche he shal yet be delyuered.
8 For in that day, sayth the Lord of hoastes, I wyl take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and straungers shal no more haue dominion ouer hym:
9 But they shal do seruice vnto God theyr Lorde, and to Dauid their kyng whom I wyl rayse vp vnto them. Eze.34.d.
10 And as for thee, O my seruaunt Iacob, Iese.46.a. feare not, saith the lord, and be not afrayd, O Israel: for loe, I wil helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captiuitie: and Iacob shal turne agayne, he shalbe in rest, and haue a prosperous lyfe, and no man shal make hym afrayde:
11 For I am with thee to helpe thee, sayth the Lorde: and though I shal destroy al Amos.9.d. the people among whom I haue scattered thee, yet wyl I not destroy thee, but correct thee, and that with discretion: for I Iere.10.d. wyl not vtterly destroy thee.
12 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde, Thy Exod.33.a. brosynges are perylous, and thy woundes Nahum.1.a redy to cast thee into sickneſſe.
13 There is no man to meddle with thy cause, or to lay a plaster vppon thee, or to bynde vp thy woundes to heale thee.
14 Al thy louers haue forgotten thee, and C care nothyng for thee: for I haue geuen thee a cruel stroke, and chastened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy misdeedes: for thy synnes haue had the ouer hande.
15 Why makest thou mone for thy harme? Iere.13.b. In deede thou art sore wounded and in ieopardie: but for the multitude of thy misdeeds and sinnes I haue donne this vnto thee.
16 And therefore al they that deuoure thee, Iere.12.a. and.10.d. shalbe deuoured, and al thyne enemies shalbe led into captiuitie: al they that make thee waste, shalbe wasted them selues, and al those that rob thee, wyl I make also to be robbed.
17 For I wyl geue thee thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole, sayeth the Lord, because they reuyled thee, as one cast away and deſpyſed: Sion (ſayde they) is ſhe whom no man regardeth.

Num.24.a. 18 For thus ſayth the Lord, Beholde, I wyl bring againe ỹ captiuitie of Jacobs tentes, and defende his dwelling place: the citie ſhalbe builded in her olde eſtate, and the houſes ſhal haue their right fundation.

19 And out of them ſhal goe thankeſgeuing and the voyce of ioy: I wyl multiplye them, and they ſhal not be fewe, I wyl endue them with honour, and no man ſhal ſubdue them.

20 Their children ſhalbe as aforetime, and their congregation ſhal continue in my ſyght: and al thoſe that vexe them wyl I viſite.

Mich.5.a. 21 A captayne alſo ſhal comme of them, and a prince ſhal ſpring out from the middeſt of them, him wyl I chalenge to mee ſelfe, and he ſhal comme vnto me: for what is he that geueth ouer his hart to come vnto me, ſayth the Lorde?

John.6.c. Jere.23.b. 22 Ye ſhalbe my people alſo, and I wylbe your God.

24.b.31.f. Jere.23.c. and.25.b. 23 Beholde, on the other ſyde ſhal the wrath of the Lorde breake out as a ſtormie water, as a mighty whirle winde, and ſhal fal vpon the heades of the vngodly.

24 The terrible diſpleaſure of the Lord ſhal not leaue of, vntil he haue donne and performed the intent of his hart, whiche in the latter dayes ye ſhal vnderſtande.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth that the people of Iſrael ſhalbe reſtored agayne vnto their proſperitie. 18. To be turned from ſinne, is the gyft of God. 27. The birth of Chriſte is prophecied.

A 1 AT the ſame time, ſaith the Lorde, ſhal I be the God of al the generations of Iſrael, and they ſhalbe my people.

Num.13.c. 2 Thus ſayth the Lord, The people of Iſrael which eſcaped in the wildernesſe from the ſwoorde, founde grace to comme into their reſt.

John.6.b. 3 Euen ſo ſhal the Lorde now alſo appeare vnto me from farre, (and ſay) I loue thee with an euerlaſting loue, therefore by my mercie I haue drawen thee vnto me.

4 I wyl repayre thee againe, O thou daughter of Iſrael, that thou mayeſt be faſt and ſure: thou ſhalt take thy tabrets againe, and goe forth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou ſhalt plant vines againe vpon the hilles of Samaria, and the grape geatherers ſhal plant, and commonly eate of it.

6 For the dayes ſhal come when the watchmen vpon the mount of Ephraim ſhal crie, Aryſe, let vs goe vp vnto Sion to our Lorde God.

B 7 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Reioyce with gladneſſe because of Jacob, crie vnto the head of the gentiles, ſpeake out, ſyng and ſay, O Lorde ſaue thy people the remnant of Iſrael. Eſai.2.a.

8 Beholde I wyl bring them agayne from out of the north lande, and geather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blinde & lame that are among them, with the women that be great with childe, and ſuche as be alſo deliuered: and the companye of them that comme agayne ſhalbe great.

9 They ſhal come weeping, and with merciful pitie wyl I bring them hyther agayne: I wyl leade them to the riuers of water in a ſtraight way where they ſhal not ſtumble: for I am Iſraels father, and Ephraim is my fyrſt borne.

Deut.23.a. Gen.47.d. 10 Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye gentiles, preache in the Iles that lye farre of, and ſay, He that hath ſcattered Iſrael, ſhal geather him togeather agayne, and ſhal keepe him as a ſhephearde doth his flocke.

11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Jacob, and ryd him from the hande of the violent.

12 And they ſhal come and reioyce vpon the hil of Sion, and ſhal haue plenteouſneſſe of goodes, whiche the Lorde ſhal geue them, (Namely) wheate, wine, oile, young ſheepe, and calues: and their ſoule ſhalbe as a wel watered garden, for they ſhal no more be hungry.

13 Then ſhal the maid reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde folkes: for I wyl turne their ſorowe into gladneſſe, and wyl comfort them from their ſorowes, & make them ioyful.

C 14 I wyl powre plenteouſneſſe vppon the hartes of the prieſtes, and my people ſhalbe ſatisfyed with my goodneſſe, ſayth the Lorde.

Jere.3.c. Matth.2.c. 15 Thus ſayth the Lorde, The voyce of heauineſſe, weeping, and lamentation was hearde on high, euen of Rachel mourning for her children, and woulde not be comforted becauſe they were not.

16 But nowe, ſayth the Lord, Leaue of from weeping and crying, withholde thyne eyes from teares: for thy labour ſhalbe rewarded, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhal comme agayne out of the lande of their enimies.

17 Yea euen thy poſteritie ſhal haue conſolation in this, ſayth the Lorde, that thy children ſhal come agayne into their owne lande.

18 Moreouer I hearde Ephraim that was led away captiue complayne on this maner, O Lorde thou hast correct me, and thy chastenyng haue I receiued as an vntamed calfe, conuert thou me, and I shalbe conuerted: for thou art my Lorde God.

19 Yea assoone as thou turnest me, I shal repourme mee selfe, & when I vnderstande, I shal smite vpon my thigh: for veryly I haue committed shameful thynges: for I haue borne the reproofe and confusion of my youth.

20 Vpon this complaint I thought thus by mee selfe, Is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the childe with whom I haue had al my myrth and pastime? For since the tyme that I first communed with hym, I haue hym euer in remembrance: therefore my hart driueth me vnto him, gladly & louingly wyl I haue mercy vpon hym, sayth the Lorde.

Gen.48.d

D 21 Make thee selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thyne hart vpon the way that thou diddest walke, and turne agayne, O thou daughter of Israel, turne agayne to these cities of thyne.

22 How long wylt thou goe astray, O thou shrinking daughter? for the Lord wil worke a newe thing vpon earth: A woman shal compasse a man.

23 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, It wyl comme thereto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, these wordes shalbe hearde in the lande and in his cities, The Lorde blesse thee, O thou dwellyng place of ryghteousnesse, O thou holy hyl.

24 And there shal dwel Iuda and al her cities, the sheepheardes and husbandmen:

Mat.5.a

25 For I wyl feede the hungry soule, and refreshe al faynt hartes.

26 When I hearde this, I came agayne to mee selfe, I sawe like as I had ben waked out of a sweete sleepe.

27 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, The dayes comme that I wyl sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda with men and with cattel.

E 28 Yea it shal comme therto, that lyke as I haue gonne about in tymes past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, and chasten them: euen so wyl I also goe diligently about to buylde them vp agayne, and to plant them, sayth the Lorde.

30 For euery one shal dye for his owne misdedes: so that who so eateth a sowre grape, his teeth shalbe set on edge.

31 Beholde the dayes wyl comme, sayth the Lorde, that I wyl make a newe couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda: Heb.8.b

32 Not after the couenant that I made with their fathers, when I toke them by the hande and led them out of the lande of Egypt, whiche couenant they brake, yea euen when I as an husband had rule ouer them, sayth the Lorde. Heb.10.b

33 But this shalbe the couenant that I wyl make with the house of Israel after those dayes, sayth the Lorde, I wyl plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and write it in their hartes, and wyl be their God, and they shalbe my people. Esai.51.b Iere.24.b and.30.d

34 And from thencefoorth shal no man teach his neighbour or his brother, and saye, Knowe the Lorde: but they shal al knowe me from the lowest vnto the highest, sayth the Lorde: for I wyl forgeue their misdeedes, and wyl neuer remember their sinnes any more.

35 Thus sayth the Lorde whiche gaue the sunne to be a lyght for the day, & the moone and the starres to shine in the night, which moueth the sea, so that the fluddes thereof ware fierce, his name is the Lorde of hostes, F Gen.1.d

36 Lyke as this ordinance shal neuer be taken out of my sight, sayth the Lorde, so shal the seede of Israel neuer ceasse, but alway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde, Like as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the fundations of the earth beneath may not be sought out: so wyl I also not cast out the whole seede of Israel for that they haue committed, sayth the Lorde. Rom.11.a

38 Beholde the dayes comme, sayth the Lorde, that the citie of the Lorde shalbe enlarged from the towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wal. 2.Esd.3.a Zach.24.b

39 From thence shal the ryght measure be taken before her vnto the hyl top of Gareb, and shal comme about Goath. Iere.19.b

The.xxxii.Chapter.

I. Ieremie is cast into prison, because he prophecied that the citie shoulde be taken of the kyng of Babylon.

A 1 THese woordes spake the Lord vnto Jeremie in the tenth yeere of Zedekias kyng of Juda, whiche was the eyghtenth yeere of Nabuchodonosor,

2 What tyme as the king of Babylons host layde siege vnto Hierusalem: but Jeremie the prophete lay bounde in the court of the prison, whiche was in the kyng of Judaes house,

3 Where Zedekias the king of Juda caused hym to be layd, because he had prophecied on this manner, Thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wyl deliuer this citie into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche shal take it.

Jerr.34.a 38.a.&39.

4 As for Zedekias the kyng of Juda, he shal not be able to escape the Chaldees: but surely he shal comme into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche shal speake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them shal looke another in the face.

5 And Zedekias shalbe caryed vnto Babylon, and there shal he be vntyl the time that I visite him, sayth the Lorde: but if thou takest in hande to fyght agaynst the Chaldees, thou shalt not prosper.

6 And Jeremie sayde, Thus hath the Lord spoken vnto me,

B 7 Beholde, Hananeel the sonne of Sellum thyne vnkles sonne shal comme vnto thee, and require thee to redeeme the lande that lyeth in Anathoth vnto thee selfe: for by reason of kynred it is thy ryght to redeeme it, and buye it out.

Leuit.25.d Num.24.a and.36.a. Ruth.4.a

8 And Hananeel myne vnkles sonne came to me in the court of the prison, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, and sayde vnto me, Buye my land I pray thee that lyeth in Anathoth in the countrey of Benjamin, for by heritage thou hast ryght to loose it out for thee selfe, therefore redeeme it. Then I perceiued that this was the commaundement of the Lorde:

9 And so I bought the land from Hananeel of Anathoth myne vnkles sonne, & wayed hym there the money, euen seuen sicles, and tenne siluer pence:

10 And I writ it in a booke, and sealed it, and tooke witnesses, and wayed hym there the money vpon the waygh̄tes.

11 So I tooke the euidence with the copie when it was orderly sealed.

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the sonne of Neriah, the sonne of Maasiah, in the sight of Hananeel my cosin, and in the presence of the witnesses that be named in the euidence, and before al the Jewes that were thereby in the court of the prison.

13 I charged Baruch also before them, sayeing,

14 The Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel commaundeth (thee) to take this sealed euidence with the copie, and to lay it in an earthen vessel, that it may long continue. C

15 For the Lord of hostes the God of Israel hath determined that houses, feeldes, and vineyardes shalbe possessed agayne in this lande.

16 Nowe when I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, I besought the Lorde, sayeing,

17 O Lorde God, it is thou that hast made heauen & earth with thy great power and hygh arme, and there is nothyng hyd from thee. Gen.1.a Jere.10.b

18 Thou shewest mercy vpon thousandes, thou recompensest the wickednesse of the fathers into the bosome of the children that comme after them. Exod.54.a.

19 Thou art the great and mightie God, whose name is the Lorde of hostes, great in counsel, and excellent in woorke, thyne eyes looke vpon al the wayes of mens chyldren, to reward euery one after his way, and accordyng to the fruites of his inuentions. Rom.2.a Exod.7.d vnto the.15. chapter.

20 Thou hast done great tokens and wonders in the lande of Egypt, as we see this day vpon the people of Israel, and vpon those men, to make thy name great, as it is comme to passe this day.

21 Thou hast brought thy people of Israel out of the land of Egypt, with tokens, with woonders, with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with great terriblenesse: D

22 And hast geuen them this lande, lyke as thou haddest promised vnto their fathers (namely) that thou wouldest geue them a lande that flowyth with milke and hony.

23 Nowe when they came therein and possessed it, they folowed not thy voyce, and walked not in thy lawe: but al that thou commaundedst them to doo, that haue they not donne, and therefore comme al these plagues vpon them. Jud.2.3.4 6.8. Esth.5.b

24 Beholde, there are bulwoorkes made now agaynst this citie to take it, and it shalbe wonne of the Chaldees that besiege it with swoorde, with hunger, and death: and looke what thou hast spoken, that same shal comme vpon them, for lo al thinges are present vnto thee.

25 Yet sayest thou vnto me, O Lorde God, & commaundest me that I shal buye a peece of lande vnto mee selfe for money, and take witnesses therto: and yet in the meane season the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, sayeing,

27 Be-

27 Beholde, I am the Lorde God of al flesh: is there any thyng then to harde for me?

E 28 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shal deliuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, they shal take it: Iere.25. and.39.c.

29 For the Chaldees shal come and winne this citie, and set fyre vpon it, and burne it, with the gorgious houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drynke offeringes vnto strange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For the chyldren of Israel and the chyldren of Iuda haue only ben doing wickednesse before me from their youth vp, they haue ben only prouoking me to wrath with the workes of their owne handes, sayth the Lorde.

31 For what hath this citie ben els, but a prouoking of my wrath euer since the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherin I cast it out of my syght?

32 Because of the great blasphemies of the children of Israel and Iuda, whiche they haue done to prouoke me, yea, they, theyr kynges, theyr princes, theyr priestes, theyr prophetes, the men of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem:

Iere.2.b. 33 When I stood vp early and taught them, and instructed them, they turned theyr backes to me, and not their faces,

Iere.8.d. 34 They woulde not heare to be refourmed and correct: but set their idols in the house

F that is halowed to my name, to defyle it.

35 They haue builded hye places for Baal in the valley of the children of Hennom, to cause their sonnes and daughters to passe through (fyre) in the honour of Moloch, whiche I neuer commaunded them: neyther came it euer in my thought to make Iuda sinne with such abomination.

36 And nowe therefore thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken concerning this city, which as ye your selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hande of the king of Babylon, (when it is wonne) with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

Deut.30.a. 37 Beholde, I wil geather them togeather from al landes, wherein I haue scattered them in my wrath, in feareful and great displeasure, and wil bring them againe vnto this place, where they shal dwel safely:

Psal.119. 38 And they shalbe my people, and I wil be their God.

39 And I wil geue them one hart and one way, that they may feare me al the dayes of their lyfe: that they and their children after them may prosper.

40 And I wil set vp an euerlastyng conenaunt with them, (namely) that I wyll G neuer ceasse to do them good, and that I wyl put my feare in their hartes, so that they shal not runne away from me. Ezec. 36.c.

41 Yea, I wil haue a lust and pleasure to do them good, and faythfully to plant them in this lande with my whole hart, and with my whole soule. Deut. 39.a. Iere.21.c.

42 For thus sayth the Lord, Lyke as I haue brought al this great plague vppon this people: euen so wil I also bryng vpon them al the good that I haue promised them.

43 And menne shal haue their possessions in this lande, wherof ye say nowe that it shal neither be inhabited of the people, nor of cattel, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees:

44 Yea, lande shalbe bought for money, and euidences made thereupon, and sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vppon the mountaynes, & them that lye beneath, yea, & in the cities that are in the south: for I wil bring their prysoners hyther agayne, sayth the Lorde.

The .xxxiii. Chapter.

1. The prophete is monyshed of the Lorde to pray for the deliueraunce of the people, whiche the Lorde promyseth. 8. God forgeueth sinnes, and doth gratiously to the people for his owne renowme. 15. Of the byrth of Christe.

MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde A came vnto Ieremie agayne when he Iere.20. was yet bounde in the court of the and.32.a. prysone.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde who made Hierusalem, who fashioned the same to establyshe it, whose name is the Lorde,

3 Crye vnto me, and I wyl answeare, and Exod.14. shewe thee great and hye thynges whiche I.Sam.7.d. were vnknowen vnto thee.

4 Thus (I say) speaketh the Lorde God of Israel, concerning the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kinges of Iuda that are broken through the ordinaunce and the swoorde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fyght agaynst the Chaldees, and they are fylled with the dead carkasses of menne, whom I haue slayne in my wrath and displeasure when I turned my face from this citie, because of al her wickednesse.

6 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl repayre and heale their woundes, and make them whole: I wyl open them the large treasure of peace and trueth,

B 7 And wyl returne the captiuitie of Juda and Israel, and wyl set them vp agayne as they were before:

Jere. 44.d. 8 From al misdeedes wherein they offended agaynst me, I wyl cleanse them: and al their blasphemies which they haue donne agaynst me, when they regarded me not, I wyl forgeue them.

9 And this shal geat me a name, a prayse and honour among al the people of the earth, whiche shal heare al the good that I wyl shewe vnto them, yea, they shalbe afrayde and astonyed at al the good deedes and benefites that I wyl do for them.

10 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde, In this place (whereof ye say that it shalbe a wyldernesse, wherein neyther people nor cattayle shal dwel) in lyke maner in the cities of Juda and in the streetes of Hierusalem (whiche also shalbe so voyde that neyther people nor cattel shal dwel there,)

11 Shal the voyce of gladnesse be hearde agayne, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, the voyce of them that shal syng, Psal. 108.a 1. Mac. 4.d. Prayse the Lorde of hoastes, for he is louyng, and his mercie endureth for euer: and the voyce of them that offer vp gyftes in the house of the Lorde: for I wyl restore the captiuitie of this lande as it was afore, sayth the Lorde.

12 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes, It shal come yet thereto, that in this lande which is voyde from men and cattel, and in al the cities of the lande, there shalbe set vp shepheardes cottages to rest their flockes.

13 In the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lye vpon the playne, and in the cities of the South, in the land of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, and in the cities of Juda, shall the sheepe passe agayne vnder the hande of him that telleth them, sayth the Lorde.

C

14 *Beholde, the tyme commeth sayeth the Lorde, that I wyl performe that good thyng whiche I haue promysed vnto the house of Israel, & vnto the house of Juda.

15 In those dayes, and at the same tyme I wyl bryng forth vnto Dauid the braunch of righteousnesse, and he shal do equitie and ryghteousnesse in the lande.

16 In those dayes shal Juda be saued, and Hierusalem shal dwel safe: and this shalbe her name, (a) God our ryghteousnesse.

17 For thus the Lorde promyseth, Dauid shal neuer want one to sit vpon the throne of the house of Israel:

18 Neyther shal the priestes and Leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerynges, to kindle the meate offerynges, and to prepare the sacrifices.

19 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie after this maner, 20 Thus sayeth the Lorde, May the couenaunt whiche I haue made with day and nyght be broken, that there shoulde not be day and nyght in due season?

21 Then may my couenaunt also be broken whiche I made with Dauid my seruaunt, and so he not to haue a sonne to raigne in his throne: so shal also the priestes and leuites neuer fayle, but serue me.

22 For like as the starres of heauen may not be numbred, neyther the sande of the sea measured: so wil I multiplie the seede of Dauid my seruaunt, and the Leuites my ministers.

23 Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came to Jeremie, sayeing, 24 Consyderest thou not what this people speaketh? Two kynredes (say they) hadde the Lorde chosen, and those same two hath he cast away: for so they haue despysed my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.

25 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, If I haue made no couenaunt with day & night, and geuen no statute vnto heauen & earth:

26 Then wyl I also cast away the seede of Jacob and Dauid my seruaunt, so that I wil take no prince out of his seede to rule the posteritie of Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob: but yet I wyl turne agayne their captiuitie, and be mercyful vnto them.

The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

2. He threatneth that the citie, and the kyng Zedekias also shalbe geuen into the handes of the kyng of Babylon.

1 THese are the worde whiche the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie, what tyme as Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoast, and al the kyngdomes that were vnder his power, and al his people, fought agaynst Hierusalem and al the cities thereof. A Jere. 39.a.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Goe and speake to Zedekias the kyng of Juda, and tel hym, the Lorde sendeth thee this worde, Beholde, I wil deliuer this citie into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, he shal burne it with fyre, 2. kyng. 25.a Jere. 32.a. and. 39.a.

3 And thou shalt not escape his handes, but shalt be taken prysoner, and deliuered into his power: Thou shalt looke the kyng of Babylon in the face, and he shal speake to thee mouth to mouth, & then shalt thou goe

* Jere. 23.a. (a) This name hath God geuen to Christe, & doth properly belong to him alone, but here it is attributed vnto the Church, for that God the father hath espoused Christ his sonne vnto the Church, and hath endowed her with al that is his.

goe to Babylon.

4 Yet heare the woorde of the Lorde, O Zedekias thou kyng of Iuda, thus sayth the Lorde vnto thee, Thou shalt not be slayne with the swoorde,

1.Sam.21.f

5 But shalt dye in peace: And as thy forefathers the kinges thy (a) progenitours were brent, so shalt thou be brent also, and in thy mournyng they shal say, O Lorde: for thus haue I determined, sayth the Lord.

(a) Zedekias is promised to be brent after his death, that is, to haue his funerals honorably donne.

6 Then sayde Ieremie the prophet al these woordes vnto Zedekias kyng of Iuda in Hierusalem, 7 What time as the kyng of Babylons host besieged Hierusalem, and the remnant of the cities (namely) Lachis, & Azecah, which yet remayned of the strong defenced cities of Iuda.

B

2.Chr.11.a.

8 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie the prophet, when Zedekias was agreed with al the people at Hierusalem, that there shoulde be proclaymed a libertie:

Exod.21.c. Leui.26.f. Deut.15.b.

9 So that euery man should let his seruant and handmayde goe free, Hebrue, and Hebruesse, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bondman.

10 Nowe as they had consented, al the princes and al the people which had geathered vnto this agreemēt, that euery man should set at libertie his bondseruant and bondwoman, and no longer to hold them bound: euen so they were obedient, and let them go free:

11 But afterward they repented, and tooke againe the seruants & handmaidens whom they had let goe free, and so made them bonde agayne.

12 For whiche cause the woord of the Lord came vnto Ieremie from the Lorde him selfe, sayeing, Deut.15.a. Exod.21.a.

13 Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I made a couenant with your fathers, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, sayeing,

C

14 When seuen yeeres are out, euerye man shal let his bought seruant an Hebrue goe free, yf he haue serued hym sixe yeeres: but your fathers obeyed me not, and hearkened not vnto me.

15 As for you, ye were nowe turned, and did ryght before me, in that ye proclaymed euery man to let his neyghbour goe free, and in that ye made a couenant before me in the temple that beareth my name.

16 But yet ye turned your selues agayne, & blasphemed my name, in this that euery man hath requyred his seruant and handmayde agayne whom ye had let goe quyte and free, and compelled them to serue you agayne, and to be bondmen and bondwomen.

17 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Ye haue not obeyed me, euery man to proclaime freedome vnto his brother & neyghbour: wherefore I wyl cal you vnto freedome, sayth the Lord, euen vnto the swoord, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and wyl make you to be plagued in al kingdomes of the earth.

18 Yea, those men that haue broken my couenant, and not kept the woordes of the appoyntment whiche they made before me when they hewed the Calfe in two, and when they went through the two halfes thereof, Gene.15.b.

19 The princes of Iuda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded men, the priestes, and al the people of the lande whiche went through the two sides of the Calfe:

20 Those men wyl I geue into the power of their enimies, and into the handes of them that folowe vppon their lyues: and their dead bodyes shalbe meate for the fowles of the ayre and beastes of the fielde.

Psal.79.a. Ierem.7.d.

21 As for Zedekias the king of Iuda, and his princes, I wyl delyuer them into the power of their enimies, and of them that desire to slay them, and into the hand of the kyng of Babylons host, whiche is now departed from you.

D

Ierem.37.c

22 But through my commaundement (saith the Lorde) they shal comme agayne before this citie, they shal fight agaynst it, wynne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyl lay the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shal dwel therin.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

1. He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and thereby confoundeth the pride of the Iewes.

1 THE woordes whiche the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie in the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, are these:

A

2 Go vnto the house of the Rechabites, and cal them out, and bryng them to the house of the Lorde, into some commodious place, and geue them wyne to drynke.

2.Kin.10.c.

3 Then tooke I Iazaniah the sonne of Ieremie, the sonne of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and al his sonnes, and the whole houshold of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them into the house of the Lorde, into the closet of the children of Hanan the sonne of Iegedaliah the man of god, which was by the closet of the princes,

res, that is aboue the closet of Maasiah ỹ
sonne of Sellum, whiche is the treasurer.
5 And before the sonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites, I set pottes ful of wyne, and cuppes, and sayde vnto them, Drynke wyne:
6 But they said, We wil drinke no wine: for Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father commaunded vs, sayeing, Ye and your sonnes shal neuer drynke wyne, builde houses, sowe no seede, plant no vines,
B 7 Yea ye shal haue no vineyardes: but for al
Iere.29.b. your tyme ye shal dwel in tentes, that ye may lyue long in the lande wherein ye be strangers.
8 Thus haue we obeyed the commaunde-ment of Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father in al that he hath charged vs, and so we drynke no wyne al our lyfe long, we, nor our wyues, our sonnes and our daughters,
9 Neither buyld we any house to dwel therin: we haue also among vs neyther vyneyardes, nor corne lande to sowe:
10 But we dwel in tentes, we obey, and do accordyng vnto al that Jonadab our father commaunded vs.
11 But now that Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came vp into the lande, we sayde, Comme, let vs goe to Hierusalem, that we may escape the host of the Chalde-es and the Assyrians: and so we dwel now at Hierusalem.
12 Then came the woorde of the Lord vnto
Jeremie, sayeing,
13 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Go and tel the men of Juda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, Wyl ye not be reformed to obey my woordes, sayth the Lorde?
C 14 The woordes which Jonadab the sonne Jerem.18.a of Rechab commaunded his sonnes, that and.25.a. they shoulde drynke no wyne, are fast surely kept, for vnto this day they drynke no wyne, but obey their fathers commaun-dement: but as for me, I haue stand vp early, I haue spoken vnto you, and geuen you earnest warnyng, and yet haue ye not ben obedient vnto me.
15 Yea I haue sent my seruantes al the prophetes vnto you, I rose vp early, and sent you woord, sayeing, O turne you now eue-ry man from his wicked way, amende your lyues, and goe not after strange goddes to woorship them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye wouldе neyther heare me, nor folowe me.
16 The chyldren of Jonadab Rechabs sonne, haue stedfastly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me.
17 And therfore thus sayth ỹ Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyl bryng vpon Juda, & vpon euery one that dwelleth Prou.1.c.
in Hierusalem, al ỹ trouble that I haue de- Esai.45.b.
uised against them: For I haue spoken vnto Jerem.7.b.
them, but they wouldе not folowe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheles they would geue me no answeare.
18 Jeremie also spake vnto the housholde of the Rechabites, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, For as muche as ye haue obeyed the commaundement of Jonadab your father, and kept al his pre-ceptes, and donne accordyng to al that he hath bydden:
19 Therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes Jerem.33.c
the God of Israel, Jonadab the sonne of Rechab shal not fayle, but haue one out of his stocke to stande alway before me.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

I. Baruch wryteth (as Ieremie endyreth) the booke of the curses agaynst Iuda and Israel.

1 IN the fourth yere of Jehoakim the sonne A of Josias the kyng of Juda, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, sayeing,

8 So Baruch the sonne of Neriah dyd accoꝛding to al that Ieremie the pꝛophete commaunded him, readyng the woꝛdes of the Loꝛd out of the booke in the Loꝛdes house.

9 And this was done in the fifth yeere of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, in the ninth moneth, when it was cõmaunded that al the people of Hierusalem shoulde fast befoꝛe the Loꝛde, and they also that were come from the cities of Iuda vnto Hierusalem.

10 Then read Baruch the woꝛdes of Ieremie out of the booke within the house of the Loꝛd, out of the treasurie of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan the scribe, whiche is besyde the hygher loft of the newe dooꝛe of the Loꝛdes house, that al the people might heare.

11 Nowe when Micheas the sonne of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, heard al the woꝛdes of the Loꝛde out of the booke, 12 He went downe to the kynges palace into the scribes chamber, foꝛ there al the pꝛinces were set, Elisama the scribe, Dalaiah the sonne of Semei, Elnathan the sonne of Achboꝛ, Gamariah ẏ sonne of Saphan, Zedekias the sonne of Hananias, with al the pꝛinces.

13 And Micheas tolde them al the woꝛdes that he hearde Baruch reade out of the booke befoꝛe the people.

E 14 Then al the pꝛinces sent Iehudi the sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of Chusi, vnto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the booke wheroꝛt thou hast read befoꝛe al the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah tooke ẏ booke in his hande, and came vnto them.

15 And they sayd vnto him, Sit downe and reade the booke, that we may heare also. So Baruch read, that they might heare.

16 Nowe when they had hearde al the woꝛdes, they were aũashed one vpon another, and sayd vnto Baruch, We wyl certifie the kyng of al these woꝛdes.

17 And they examined Baruch, saying, Tel vs, howe didst thou wꝛyte al these woꝛdes out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answeared them, He spake al these woꝛdes vnto me with his mouth, and I wꝛote them in the booke.

19 Then sayd the pꝛinces vnto Baruch, Goe thy way, hyde thee with Ieremie, so that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to the kyng to the court (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Elizama the scribe) and tolde the kyng al the woꝛdes, that he myght heare.

D 21 So the kyng sent Iehudi to fet hym the booke: whiche he bꝛought out of Elizama the scribes chamber, and Iehudi read in it, that the kyng and al the pꝛinces which were about hym myght heare.

22 Nowe the kyng sate in the wynter house (foꝛ it was in the nynth moneth) and there was a fyre befoꝛe hym.

23 And when Iehudi had read thꝛee oꝛ foure leaues thereof, he cut the booke in peeces with a penknife, and cast it into the fire vpon the harth, vntyl the booke was al bꝛent in the fyre vpon the harth. 1. Mac. 3. c.

24 Yet no man was abashed thereof, noꝛ rent his clothes, neyther the king hym selfe noꝛ his seruantes, though they hearde al these woꝛdes.

25 Neuertheless, Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah besought ẏ king that he woulde not burne the booke: notwithstandyng the kyng woulde not heare them:

26 But commaunded Ierahmel the sonne of Amelech, Saraiah the sonne of Ezriel, and Seleniah the sonne of Abdeel, to lay handes vpon Baruch the scribe, and vpon Ieremie the pꝛophete: but the Loꝛd kept them out of syght.

27 Nowe after that the kyng had bꝛent the booke, and the sermons whiche Baruch wꝛote at the mouth of Ieremie, the woꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto Ieremie, saying, 28 Take another booke, and wꝛyte in it al E the foꝛesayd sermons that were wꝛitten in the first booke whiche Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hath bꝛent.

29 And tel Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, thus sayth the Loꝛde, Thou hast bꝛent the booke, and thoughtest within thee selfe, Why hast thou wꝛytten therein, that the kyng of Babylon shal come, and make this lande waste, so that he shal make both people and cattel to be out of it? 2. Kin. 24. b Ierre. 22. c.

30 Therfoꝛe thus the Loꝛd saith of Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, There shal none of his generation sit vpon the thꝛone of Dauid, his dead coarse shalbe cast out, that the heate of the day, and the frost of the nyght may come vpon hym.

31 And I wyl visite the wyckednesse of him, of his seede, and of his seruantes: Moꝛeouer, al the euil that I haue pꝛomised them, though they heard me not, wil I bꝛing vpon them, vpon the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and vpon al Iuda.

32 Then tooke Ieremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, which wꝛote therin out of the mouth of Ieremie, al the sermons that were in the first booke whiche Iehoakim ẏ king of Iuda did burne: & there were added vnto thẽ many mo sermons, like vnto the foꝛmer.

The .xxxvii. Chapter.

1. Zedekias succeedeth Conaniah, 3. he sendeth vnto Ieremie to pray for hym.

A 1 ZEdekias the sonne of Iosiah, whiche was made kyng through Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon, raigned in the lande of Iuda, in the steade of * Conaniah the sonne of Iehoakim.

2. Reg. 24. * or, Iechonia.

2 But neyther he, nor his seruantes, nor the people in his land, would obey the wordes of the Lord which he spake by the prophete Ieremie.

Ierem. 31. a.

3 Neuertheles, Zedekias the kyng sent Iehucal the sonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, to the prophete Ieremie, saying, O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

4 Nowe Ieremie walked free among the people at that time, and was not put in prison as yet.

Ezech. 17. b 5 Pharaos host also was come out of Egypt: which when the Chaldees which besieged Hierusalem perceiued, they departed from thence.

6 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Ieremie, saying,

B 7 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, This answeare shal ye geue to the kyng of Iuda, that sent you vnto me for counsayle: Behold, Pharaos host whiche is come forth to helpe you, shal returne into Egypt into his owne lande.

Ierem. 46. a.

8 But the Chaldees shal come agayne, and fight agaynst this citie, winne it, and set fyre vpon it.

9 For thus sayth the Lorde, Deceiue not your owne myndes, thinking on this manner, Tushe, ỹ Chaldees go now theyr way from vs: No, they shal not goe theyr way.

10 For though ye had slayne the whole host of the Chaldees that besiege you, and that none remayned of them but wounded men, yet shoulde they stande vp, and set fire vpon this citie.

11 Nowe when the host of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hierusalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Ieremie went out of Hierusalem toward the lande of Beniamin, to geat hym from among the people.

13 And whē he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Ieriah, the sonne of Selemiah, ỹ sonne of Hananiah, whiche fel vpon hym, and tooke him, saying, Thy mynde is to runne to the Chaldees.

Ierem. 28. b.

C 14 Then sayd Ieremie, It is not so, I go not to the Chaldees: Neuertheles, Ieriah woulde not beleeue him, but brought Ieremie bounde before the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were angry with Ieremie, and smote hym, and layde him in prison in the house of Ionathan the scribe: for they had made that house the prison.

16 Thus was Ieremie put in a dungeon and prison, and so lay there a long tyme.

17 Then Zedekias the king sent for hym, and called him, and asked him quietly in his owne house, saying, Thinkest thou this businesse (that nowe is in hande) commeth of the Lorde? Ieremie answeared, Yea that it doth: and thou (sayde he) shalt be deliuered into the king of Babylons power.

Ierem. 38. c.

18 Moreouer, Ieremie sayde vnto king Zedekias, What haue I offended againſt thee, againſt thy seruantes, or againſt this people, that ye haue put me in prison?

19 Where are your prophetes which haue prophecied vnto you, and sayde, That the kyng of Babylon shoulde not come againſt you and this lande?

Ierem. 28. a.

20 And therefore heare nowe, O my Lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and send me no more into the house of Ionathan the scribe, that I dye not there.

21 Then Zedekias commaunded to put Ieremie in the fore entrie of the prison, and dayly to be geuen him a cake of bread of the bakers streete, vntil al the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Ieremie remayned in the fore entrie of the prison.

The .xxxviii. Chapter.

1. By the motion of the rulers, Ieremie is put into a dungeon.

1 SAphatiah the sonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the sonne of Phashur, Iucal the sonne of Selemiah, & Phashur the sonne of Melchia, perceiued the wordes that Ieremie had spoken vnto al the people, namely on this manner, A

2 Thus saith the Lord, Who so remayneth in this citie, shal perishe eyther with the swoorde, with hunger, or pestilence: but who so falleth vnto the Chaldees shal escape, wyming his soule for a pray, and shal lyue.

Ierem. 21. b. and. 27. a.

3 For thus sayth the Lorde, This citie no doubt must be deliuered into the power of the king of Babylon, and he also shal winne it.

Ierem. 22. c.

4 Then sayde the princes vnto the kyng, Sir, we beseche you let this man be put to death: for thus he discourageth the handes of the souldiers that be in this citie, and the handes of al the people, when he speaketh suche wordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people, but mischeefe.

5 Zede-

5 Zedekias the kyng answeared, and sayde, Loe, he is in your handes: for the king may denye you nothyng.

6 Then tooke they Ieremie, and caste hym into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entry of the prison, and they let downe Ieremie with coardes into a dungeon where there was no water, but myre: So Ieremie stacke fast in the myre.

ℬ 7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Mozian, beyng a chamberlayne in the kinges court, vnderstoode that they had cast Ieremie into the dungeon,

8 He went out of the kings house, and spake to the kyng, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these woordes,

9 My lord the kyng, whereas these menne meddle with Ieremie the prophete, they do hym wrong, (namely) in that they haue put hym in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the kyng commaunded Abedmelech the Mozian, and sayde, Take from hence thyrty menne, whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Ieremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye.

11 So Abedmelech tooke the menne with hym, and went to the house of the kyng, and there vnder the treasury he gate old ragges and worne cloutes, and let them downe by a corde into the dungeon to Ieremie.

12 And Abedmelech the Mozian sayd vnto the prophete Ieremie, O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thyne arme holes, betwixt them and the cordes: and Ieremie dyd so.

13 So they drewe vp Ieremie with cordes, and toke hym out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entry of the prison.

ℭ 14 Then Zedekias the king sent, and caused Ierem.37.c Ieremie the prophet to be called vnto him, into the thirde entrie that is in the house of the Lorde, and the kyng sayde vnto Ieremie, I wyl aske the somewhat, but hyde nothyng from me.

15 Then Ieremie answeared Zedekias, If I be playne vnto thee, thou wylt cause me to suffer death: yf I geue thee counsayle, thou wylt not folowe me.

16 So the kyng swore an oth secretly to Ieremie, sayeing, As the Lorde lyueth that made vs these soules, I wyl not slay thee, nor geue thee into the handes of them that seeke after thy lyfe.

Ierem.27.a 17 Then sayde Ieremie vnto Zedekias, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, If calle be that thou wylt goe forth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes, thou shalt saue thy lyfe, and this citie shal not be brent, yea, both thou and thy housholde shal escape with your lyues:

18 But yf thou wylt not goe forth to the kyng of Babylons princes, then shal this citie be delyuered into the handes of the Chaldees, whiche shal set fire vpon it, and thou shalt not be able to escape them.

19 And Zedekias sayd vnto Ieremie, I am afrayde for the Iewes that are fledde vnto the Chaldees, lest I come into their hands, and so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answeared, No, they shal not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord, I beseche thee, which I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be wel, and saue thy lyfe:

21 But if thou wilt not goe forth, the Lord D hath told me this playnly,

22 Beholde, al the women that are leaft in the kyng of Judaes house, shalbe led forth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes: and they shal say, Thou art deceiued, and the menne in whom thou diddest put thy trust haue gotten thee vnder, and set thy feet fast in the myre, and gone their way from thee.

23 Therefore al thy wyues with thy chyldren shal they leade forth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes, but shalt be the kyng of Babylons prisoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt.

24 Then sayde Zedekias vnto Ieremie, Looke that no body know of these woords, and thou shalt not dye.

25 But yf the princes perceyue that I haue talked with thee, and come vnto thee, sayeing, O speake, what sayd the kyng to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyl not put thee to death, tel vs, (we pray thee) what sayde the kyng to thee?

26 See thou geue them this answeare, I haue humbly besought the king that he wil let me lye no more in Iehonathans house, that I dye not there.

27 Then came al the princes vnto Ieremie, and asked hym: and he told them after the manner as the kyng bade hym. Then they held their peace, and let hym alone: for they perceyued nothyng.

28 So Ieremie abode styl in the fore entry Ierem.39.c of the prison, vntyll the day that Hierusalem was wonne.

The.xxxix.Chapter.

1. Nabuchodonosor besiegeth Ierusalem, 4. Zedekias fleeth, 5. He is taken of the Chaldees, 6. his sonnes are slayne, 7. His eyes are thrust out.

1 NOwe when the citie of Hierusalem Ierem.32.a was taken (for in the ninth yeere of 2.Kin.25.a Zedekias

Zedekias kyng of Juda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoste, and besieged Hierusalem, and fought agaynst it,

2 And in the eleuenth yeere of Zedekias, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie.)

3 Then al the princes of the kyng of Babylon came in, and sate them downe vnder the porte: Neregel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsachim, Rabsaris, Neregel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with al the other princes of the kyng of Babylon.

Jerem.34.a 4 And when Zedekias the kyng of Juda, with his souldiers, sawe them, then they fled, and departed out of the citie by night, through the kynges garden, and through the porte that is betweene the two walles, and so the kyng went towarde the wyldernesse:

5 But the Chaldees hoste folowed faste after them, and tooke Zedekias in the feeld of Hiericho, and brought hym prisoner to Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon vnto Reblath, that lyeth in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon him.

6 So the kyng of Babylon caused the children of Zedekias, and al the nobles of Juda, to be slayne before his face at Reblath,

B 7 And made Zedekias eyes to be put out,
2. Kin.25.d and bounde hym with two chaynes, and Jere.22.d. sent hym to Babylon.

8 Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kynges palace, with the other houses of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hierusalem.

9 As for the remnant of ỳ people that were in the citie, and such as were come to him, and whatsoeuer was leafte of the common sort, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne caryed them to Babylon.

10 But Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne let the rascal people, and those that had nothyng, dwel styl in the lande of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne feeldes at the same tyme.

11 Nabuchodonosor also the kyng of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine a charge concernyng Jeremie, sayeing, 12 Take and cherishe him, and make much of hym, see thou doo hym no harme, but entreate hym after his owne desyre.

13 So Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, Nabuzarban, Rabsares, Neregel, Sarezer, Rabmag, and al the kyng of Babylons lordes sent for Jeremie,

C 14 And caused hym to be fet out of the forIere.38.D. entrie of the prison, and committed him vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne
Jere.40.b. of Saphan, that he shoulde carrye hym home: and so he dwelt among the people.

15 Nowe when Jeremie laye yet bounde in the fore entrye of the pryson, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto hym, sayeing,

16 Goe and tel Abedmelech the Morian, Thus sayth the Lorde of hoostes the God of Israel, Behold, the cruel and sharp plague that I haue deuised for this citie, wyl I bryng vpon them, that thou shalt see it:

17 But I wyl deliuer thee in that day, saith the Lorde, and thou shalt not comme in the handes of those menne whom thou fearest:

18 For doubtlesse I wyl saue thee, so that thou shalt not perishe with the swoord: but thy lyfe shalbe saued, and that because thou hast put thy trust in me, sayth the Lorde.

The.xl. Chapter.

I. Ieremie hath licence to goe whyther he wyl. 4. Iohanan prophesieth death vnto Gedaliah.

1 THis is the woorde that the Lord spake A vnto Jeremie, when Nabuzaradan the Jere.43.a. cheefe captayne had let hym goe free Iosua.18.a from Ramath, whyther he had ledde hym bounde among al the prisoners that were carryed from Hierusalem and Juda, vnto Babylon.

2 The cheefe captayne called for Jeremie, and sayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy God spake myghtyly before of the miserie vpon this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath sent it, and performed it as he hath promised: for ye haue sinned agaynst the Lorde, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce, therfore commeth this plague vpon you.

4 Behold, I loose the bands from thy handes this day: yf thou wylt nowe goe with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I wyl see to thee, and prouide for thee: but yf thou wylt not goe with me to Babylon, then remaine Gene.3.b.
here: Beholde, al the lande is at thy wyl, Tobi.1.b.
looke where thou thynkest conuenient and good for thee to abyde, there dwel.

5 For as yet he was not gone backe agayne to Gedaliah: therfore he sayde to him, Goe backe to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, whom the kyng of 2. Kin.15.c.
Babylon hath made gouernour ouer the cities of Juda, and dwel with hym among the people, or remayne wheresoeuer it please thee. So the cheefe captayne gaue hym his expences with a rewarde, and let hym goe.

6 Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah Jere.39.c.
the sonne of Ahicam to Mispa, and dwelt there with him among the people that were leaft leaſt in the lande.

B 7 Nowe when the captaynes of the hoſt of Iuda, which with theyr felowes were ſcattered abroade on euery ſyde in the land, vnderſtoode that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour in the lande, and that man, wyfe, and chylde, yea and the pooze men in the lande that were not led captiue to Babylon, ſhoulde be vnder his iuriſdiction:

8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, (namely) Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, Iohanan and Ionathan the ſonnes of Careah, Sareah the ſonne of Thanehumeth, the ſonnes of Ephai the Netophatite, Iezaniah the ſonne of Maachati, with theyr companions.

9 And Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the 2.Kin.15.c. ſonne of Saphan ſware vnto them and their felowes in this maner, Be not afraid to ſerue the Chaldees, dwel in the lande, and do the kyng of Babylon ſeruice, ſo ſhal ye proſper.

C 10 Beholde, I dwel at Miſpa to be an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, and to ſatiſfie ſuche as come to vs: therefore geather wine, corne, and oyle, and keepe them in your warehouſes, and dwel in your cities that ye haue in keepyng.

11 Yea al the Iewes alſo that dwel in Moab, vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, and in al the countreys, when they heard that ỹ king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan gouernour vpon al them that were left in Iuda:

12 Al the Iewes (I ſay) returned out of al places where they were fled vnto, & came into the lande of Iuda to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, and geathered wine & other fruites, and that very muche,

13 Moreouer, Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt that were ſcattered on euery ſide in the lande, came to Gedaliah to Miſpa, and ſayde vnto hym,

14 Knoweſt thou not that Baalis the kyng
D of the Ammonites hath ſent Iſmael ỹ ſonne of Nathaniah to ſlay thee? But Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam beleeued them not.

15 Then ſayd Iohanan the ſonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Miſpa theſe woordes ſecretly, Let me goe, I pray thee, and I wil ſlay Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, ſo that no body ſhal knowe it: Wherefore wyl he kyl thee, that al the Iewes whiche reſort vnto thee might be ſcattered, and the remnant in Iuda periſhe?

16 And Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam ſaid to Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, Thou ſhalt not do it: for they are but lyes that thou ſayeſt of Iſmael.

The.xli.Chapter.

2. Iſmael killeth Gedaliah guilefully, and many other with hym. 11. Iohanan followeth after Iſmael.

1 BUt in the ſeuenth moneth, it happened A that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah 2.Kin.24.a the ſonne of Eliſama, one of the kinges blood came, and the greateſt about the kyng, and ten men with hym, vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam to Miſpa, and they did eate togeather in Miſpa.

2 And Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with thoſe ten men that were with him, ſtart vp, and ſmote Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan with the ſworde, and ſlue hym whom the kyng of Babylon had made a gouernour of the lande.

3 Iſmael alſo ſlue al the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Miſpa, and al the Chaldees that he founde there waityng vpon hym, and thoſe that were able to fyght he ſlue with hym.

4 The next day after that he had ſlayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came certayne men from Sichem, from Silo, & Samaria, to the number of foureſcore, whiche had ſhauen their beardes, rent theyr clothes, and were al heauie, brynging meate offerynges and incenſe in theyr hands, to offer it in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 And Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah Eccle.12.c. went forth of Miſpa weepyng, to meete them: Nowe when he met them, he ſayde, Goe your way to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam.

7 And when they came in the myddeſt of B
the citie, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with hym, ſlue them euen at the middeſt of the pyt.

8 Among theſe foureſcore men there were ten that ſayd vnto Iſmael, Oh ſlay vs not, for we haue yet a great treaſure in ỹ feelde, of wheate, barley, oyle, and hony: So he ſpared them, and ſlue them not with theyr brethren.

9 Nowe the pyt wherein Iſmael did caſt 2.Kin.25.c.
the dead bodyes of the men whom he ſlue becauſe of Gedaliah, had kyng Aſa cauſed to be made for feare of Baaſa the kyng of Iſrael, and the ſame pytte dyd Iſmael fyl with ſlayne men.

10 As for the remnant of the people, the kynges daughters, and al the people that were left at Miſpa, vpon whom Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine had made Gedaliah ỹ ſonne of Ahicam gouernour, Iſmael 2.Kin.25.c.
the ſonne of Nathaniah caryed them away priſoners towarde the Ammonites.

11 But

11 But when Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al they whiche had ben captaynes ouer the kynges host with him, heard of al the wyckednesse that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had done:

Gen. 13.c. 1.Sa. 30.b. 12 They tooke theyr companions, and went out for to fyght with Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, and founde hym by the great waters that are at Gibeon.

13 Nowe when al the people whom Ismael led captiue, sawe Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al the other captaynes of the host, they were glad.

¶ 14 So al the people that Ismael had caryed away from Mispa, were brought againe: and when they returned, they came to Johanan the sonne of Careah.

15 But Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah fled from Johanan with eight companions, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaines of the host that were with hym, tooke al the remnaunt of the people, whom Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had slayne Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, whom they also had reserued from him, fighting men, women, & children, and gelded men, whom they brought agayne from Gibeon,

17 And went from thence, and sate them downe at Geruth Chamaam, which lyeth beside Bethlehem, that they might goe into

Jere. 12.c. Egypt for feare of the Chaldees:

18 Of whom they were afrayde, because that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had Jere. 40.a. slaine Gedaliah Ahicams sonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour in the lande.

The .xlii. Chapter.

1. The captaynes aske counsayle at Ieremie what they ought to do. 19. Ieremie admonisheth the remnant of the people not to goe into Egypt.

¶ 1 SO al the captaynes of Johanan ỳ sonne of Careah, Iezaniah the sonne of Osaiah, came, with al the people from the least vnto the most,

2 And sayde vnto Ieremie the prophete, Jere. 21.a. and. 37.a. O heare our petition, that thou mayest pray for vs vnto the Lord thy God, (Namely) for al the remnant, whereof there be fewe of vs left of many, as thou seest vs:

3 That the Lorde thy God may shewe vs a way to goe in, and tel vs what we shoulde do.

4 Then Ieremie the prophete sayde vnto them, I haue heard you, behold, I wil pray vnto God your Lorde as ye haue required me: and looke what answeare the Lorde geueth, I shal certifie you thereof, and keepe nothyng backe from you.

5 And they sayde vnto Ieremie, The Lord be a true and faythful witnesse betwixt vs, Iosu. 1.c. that we wyl do al that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs.

6 Whether it be good or euil, we wil hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde God, to whom we sende thee, that we may prosper when we haue folowed the voyce of the Lorde our God.

7 And after ten dayes came the woorde of ℣ the Lorde vnto Ieremie.

8 Then called he Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the people that were with hym, yea and al the people from the least to the most,

9 And sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent me to lay foorth your prayers before hym:

10 Yf you wyl dwel in this lande, I wyl Jere. 21.b. builde you vp, and not breake you downe, I wyl plant you, and not roote you out: for I (a) repent as concerning the trouble that I haue done to you.

(a) Gods repentance is nothing els but that he dooth not prosecute to the vttermost his wrath accordyng to the deserues of this people.

11 Feare not the kyng of Babylon, of whom ye stande in awe, O be not afrayde of him, sayth the Lorde, for I wyl be with you to helpe you, and deliuer you from his hande.

12 I wyl pardon you, I wyl haue mercye vpon you, and cause hym to pitie you, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.

13 Neuertheless, yf ye purpose not to dwel in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God:

14 But wyl say thus, We wyl not dwel ¶ here, but goe into Egypt, where we shal neyther see warre, heare the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there wyl we dwel:

15 Wherefore heare nowe the woorde of Jere. 27.a. the Lorde, O ye remnant of Juda, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Yf ye be wholly purposed to goe into Egypt, and to dwel there as strangers, 16 The swoorde that ye feared shal ouertake Jere. 41.c. you in Egypt: and the hunger whereof ye be afrayde, shal hang vpon you, and folowe you into Egypt, and there shal ye dye.

17 And al they that of set purpose vndertake to goe into Egypt to soiourne there, shal perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, not one of thē shal remayne, there shal none escape the plague that I wyl bryng vpon them.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the god of Israel, Like as my wrath and indignation is moued agaynst the inhabiters of Hierusalem: so shal my displeasure be kindled againſt you alſo if ye goe into Egypt, & there ye ſhalbe reuiled, abhorred, brought to ſhame and confuſion, and as for this place ye ſhal neuer ſee it more.

len

19 The Lorde forbiddeth you (O ye remnant of Iuda) that ye ſhal not goe into Egypt: and forgeat not that I haue warned you earneſtly this day.

D 20 For ye haue diſſembled with me: for ye ſent me vnto the Lorde your God, and ſaid, Iere.42.a Pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and looke what anſweare the Lorde our GOD geueth thee, that bring vs agayne, and we wyl doo thereafter:

21 Nowe haue I ſhewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the whiche cauſe he hath ſent me to you.

Deut.28.a. 22 Nowe therefore be ye ſure that ye ſhal periſhe with the ſworde, with hunger, and peſtilence, euen in the ſame place where your luſt is to goe and dwel.

The.xliii.Chapter.

I. Iohanan caryeth the remnant of the people into Egypt, contrary to the mynde of Ieremie. 8. Ieremie prophecieth the deſtruction of Egypt.

A 1 NOw when Ieremie had ended al the woordes of the Lorde his God vnto the people, which to declare the Lord their GOD had ſent him to them, euen al theſe woordes ((I ſay,)

2 Azariah the ſonne of Oſaiah, and Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, with al the ſtubburne perſons, ſayde vnto Ieremie, Thou Iere.42.a lyeſt, the Lorde our God hath not ſent thee to ſpeake vnto vs, that we ſhoulde not goe into Egypt and dwel there:

3 But Baruch the ſonne of Neriah prouoketh thee againſt vs, that he myght bring vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they might ſlay vs, and cary vs away priſoners vnto Babylon.

4 So Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the hoſt, and al the people folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, (namely) to dwel in the lande of Iuda:

5 But Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaines of the hoſt caried away al the Iere.41.a remnant of Iuda, that were comme togeather agayne from al the heathen, among whom they had benne ſcattered, to dwel in the lande of Iuda,

6 Men, women, chyldren, the kings daughters, al thoſe that Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had left with Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, the ſonne of Saphan: they caryed away alſo the prophete Ieremie, and Baruch the ſonne of Neriah,

7 And ſo came into Egypt: for they were B not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis:

8 And in Thaphnis the woorde of the lorde happened vnto Ieremie, ſayeing,

9 Take great ſtones in thine hande, & hide them in the bricke wal vnder the dooze of Pharaos houſe in Thaphnis, that al the menne of Iuda may ſee,

10 And ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the lord Iere.46.a of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Behold, I wyl ſende and cal for Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon my ſeruant, & wyl ſet his ſeate vpon theſe ſtones that I haue hyd, and he ſhal ſpreade his tent ouer them.

11 And when he commeth, he ſhal ſmite the lande of Egypt, ſomme with ſlaughter, ſomme with banithment, and ſomme with the ſworde.

12 He ſhal ſet fire vpon the temple of the E- C gyptians goddes, and burne them vp, and take them ſelues priſoners: moreouer, he ſhal aray him ſelf with the land of Egypt, lyke as a ſheephearde putteth on his coate, and ſhal depart his way from thence in peace.

13 The pillers alſo of the temple of the ſunne that is in Egypt ſhal he breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians goddes.

The.xliiii.Chapter.

I. He reproueth the people for their idolatry. 15. They that ſet lyght by the threatnyng of the Lorde are chaſtened.

1 THis is the woorde that was ſhewed to A Ieremie concernyng al the Iewes which dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Phathures.

2 Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Ye haue ſeene al the miſerie that I haue brought vpon Hieruſalem, and vpon al the cities of Iuda: ſo that this day they are deſolate, and no man dwellyng therein,

3 And that becauſe of the great blaſphemies whiche they committed to prouoke me vnto anger, in that they went backe to doo ſacrifice and woorſhip vnto ſtrange goddes, whom neyther they nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen.

4 Howbeit I ſent vnto them my ſeruantes Iere.25.a al the prophetes, I roſe vp early, I ſent vn- and.29.a to them and gaue them warnyng, O doo no ſuche abominable thynges, and thynges that I hate.

5 But they wouldē not folow nor hearken, to turne from their wickednesse, and to do no more sacrifice vnto strange goddes.

6 Wherefore myne indignation and wrath was kyndled, and it brent vp the cities of Juda, with the streetes of Hierusalem, so that they were made waste and desolate, as it is comme to passe this day.

7 Nowe therefore, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Howe happeneth it that ye doo so great euyl vnto your owne soules, thus to destroy the menne and women, chyldren and babes of Juda, so that none of you is left?

8 Because ye prouoke me to wrath with the worckes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto strange goddes in the lande of Egypt where as ye be gonne to dwel, that ye myght vtterly perysh, and that ye might be reuyled, and shamefully intreated of al nations?

9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wickednesse of your forefathers, the wickednesse of the kynges of Juda and their wyues, the wickednesse that ye your selues and your wyues haue donne in the land of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem?

10 Yet are ye not sory this day, ye feare not, neyther walke ye in my lawe, and myne commaundementes that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore, thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, I am stedfastly aduised and determined to punish you, and to roote out al Juda.

12 As for ỹ remnant of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwel, I wyl take them, and they shal al be destroyed, in the lande of Egypt shal they perishe, beyng consumed with the swoorde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most they shal perishe with the swoord and with hunger: Moreouer, they shalbe reuyled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded.

Eſech.39.a 13 For I wyl visite them that dwel in Egypt, as I haue visited Hierusalem, with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

¶ 14 So that none of the remnant of Juda whiche are gonne to dwel in Egypt, shalbe left to comme agayne into the lande of Juda, although they thinke to comme thyther agayne and to dwel there: for none shal comme agayne but suche as are fled away.

15 Then al the menne whiche knewe that their wiues had offered vnto strange gods, and a great sorte of wyues that stood there, yea and al the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phathures, answered Jeremie, and sayde,

16 As for the wordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wyl in no wyse heare them:

17 But whatsoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth that wyl we do, we wyl do sacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the queene of heauen, lyke as we and our forefathers, our kynges and our heades haue donne in the cities of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem: for then had we plenteousnesse of victuales, then were we in prosperitie, and no misfortune came vpon vs: Jere.7.b 1.Mach.1.b

18 But since we left to offer and to do sacrifice vnto the queene of heauen, we haue had scarcenesse of al thinges, and perishe with the swoorde and hunger.

19 (Last of al) when we (women) dyd sacrifice and offered vnto the queene of heauen: did we make her cakes and powre vnto her drynke offerynges to doo her seruice without our husbandes wylles?

20 Then sayd Jeremie vnto al the people, to the menne, to the women, and to al the folke whiche had geuen hym that answere,

21 Dyd not the Lorde remember the sacrifices that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, which al the people haue offred in the cities of Juda, in the streetes of Hierusalem? and hath he not considered this in his mynde? D

22 In so muche that the Lorde myght no longer suffer the wickednesse of your inuentions, and the abominable thinges whiche ye dyd: Is not your lande desolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, so that no man dwelleth therein any more, as it is comme to passe this day? Eſai.1.a

23 Dyd not al this happen vnto you, because ye made suche sacrifice, and sinned agaynst the Lorde? Ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinances and statutes: yea this is the cause that al misfortune happened vnto you, as it is comme to passe this day. 1.king.17.b Jere.2.c.3. c.and 5.c Baruc.3.a

24 Moreouer, Jeremie spake vnto al the people, and to al the women, Heare the woorde of the Lorde al Juda that be in the lande of Egypt.

25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the god of Israel, Ye and your wyues haue spoken with your owne mouth the thyng that ye haue fulfylled in deede, yea thus haue ye sayde, We wyl not fayle but performe the vowes that we haue vowed, we wyl doo sacrifice, and powre out drinke offerynges to the queene of heauen: Purposely wyl ye set vp your owne meanynges, & performe your vowes. Jere.44.c

26 And therefore heare the woorde of the

Lorde

Lorde al Juda that dwel in the land of Egypt: Beholde, I haue ſworne by my great Gen.22.b. name, ſayth the Lorde, that my name ſhal not be rehearſed through any mans mouth of Juda in al the lande of Egypt, to ſay, The Lorde God lyueth.

27 For I wil watch to plague them, and not Jere.42.a. for their wealth: and al the men of Juda that be in the lande of Egypt ſhal perysshe with the ſworde, and with hunger, vntyll they be vtterly deſtroyed.

28 Neuertheleſſe, thoſe that fledde away for the ſworde, ſhal come agayne out of Egypt into the lande of Juda, but there ſhalbe very fewe of them: and al the remnaunt of Juda that are gonne into Egypt there to dwel, ſhal knowe whoſe woordes ſhalbe founde true, theyrs, or myne.

29 Take this for a token, that I wil viſite you in this place ſayth the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt wil perfourme my purpoſe vppon you, to punyſhe you.

30 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wil delyuer
2.king.25.a Pharao Hophrea kyng of Egypt, into the handes of his enemies that ſeeke after his lyfe: euen as I gaue Zedekias the kyng of Juda into the handes of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon his enemie, whiche ſought after his lyfe.

The.xlv.Chapter.

2. Baruche is reproued of Ieremie.

A THeſe are the woordes that Ieremie the prophete ſpake vnto Baruch the Jere.36.a. ſonne of Neriah, after that he hadde written theſe Sermons in a booke at the mouth of Ieremie, in the fourth yere of Iehoakim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda, ſayeing,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto thee, O Baruch:

3 Inſomuche as thou thoughteſt thus (when thou waſt wryting) Wo is me, the Lord hath geuen me payne for my trauayle, I haue weeryed my ſelfe with ſighing, and haue founde no reſt:

4 Therfore tel hym, O Ieremie, that ỹ Lord ſayth thus: Beholde, the thyng that I haue buylded, wyl I breake downe agayne, and roote out the thyng that I haue planted, yea, this whole lande:

5 And ſeeketh thou yet promotion? (loke not for it, and) deſyre it not, for I wil bryng a
Jere.21.b. miſerable plague vpon al fleſhe, ſayeth the Lorde: but thy lyfe wil I geue thee, for a pray, in al places whyther ſo euer thou goeſt.

The.xlvi.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth the deſtruction of Egypt.
27. Deliueraunce is promyſed to Iſrael.

1 HEre folowe the woordes of the Lorde A to the prophete Ieremie, whiche he ſpake agaynſt (al) the gentiles.

2 These woordes folowing preached he to the Egyptians, concernyng the hoaſt of Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt, when he was in Charchamis beſide the water of Euphrates, what tyme as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon ſlue hym, in the fourth yere of Jehoakim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda.
Eſai.19.a. and 20.a. Ezec.29.a. 30. and.31.a 2. kyn. 24.b Jere.36.a.

3 Make redy buckler and ſheelde, and goe forth to fyght.

4 Harneſſe your horſes, and ſet your ſelues vpon them, ſet your ſallets faſte on, bryng forth ſpeares, ſcoure your ſwords, and put on your breſt plates.

5 But alas, how happeneth it that I ſee you ſo afrayde? why ſhrynke ye backe? Their worthies are ſlayne, yea, they runne ſo faſt away that none of them looketh behynde hym: fearefulneſſe is fallen vppon euery one of them, ſayth the Lorde.

6 The lightest of foote ſhal not flee away, and the worthies ſhal not eſcape: towarde the North by the water of Euphrates they did ſtumble and fal.

7 But what is he this that ſwelleth vp as it B were a floodde, roaryng and razyng lyke the ſtreames of water?

8 It is Egypt that ryſeth vp lyke the flood, and caſteth out the waters with ſo great noyſe: And he ſayde, I wyl goe vp and wil couer the earth, I wyl deſtroy the citie with them that are therein.

9 Geat you vp ye horſes, roule forth ye charettes, come forth worthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoaſtes is a day of vengeance, that he may auenge hym of his enemies: The ſworde ſhal deuoure, it ſhalbe ſatiſfied & bathed in theyr blood, for the Lorde God of hoaſtes ſhall haue a ſlayne offering towarde the North, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Goe vp vnto Gilead, and bryng triacle, O virgin thou daughter of Egypt: but in vayne ſhalt thou goe to ſurgerie, for thy wounde ſhal not be ſtopped.

12 The heathen haue heard of thy ſhame, and the lande is ful of thy confuſion: for one ſtrong man did ſtumble vpon another, and they are fallen both togeather.

13 These are the woordes that the Lorde ſpake to the prophete Jeremie, concernyng the commyng of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, whiche was ſent to deſtroy the lande of Egypt:

¶ 14 Preache out through the lande of Egypt, and cauſe it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, and Taphnis, and ſay, Stande ſtil, make thee redy, for the ſworde ſhal conſume thee rounde about.

15 Howe happeneth it that thy myghty worthies are fallen? why ſtoode they not faſte? euen becauſe the Lorde thruſt them downe.

16 The ſlaughter was great, for one fel euer styl vpon another: and they ſayde, Up, let vs goe agayne to our owne people, and to our owne natural countrey, from the cruel ſworde.

17 They did crye euen there, Pharao the kyng of Egypt is a kyng of troubleſommes: he hath ouerpaſt the appoynted tyme.

18 As I liue (ſayth the kyng whoſe name is the Lorde of hoaſtes) ſo ſurely as Thabor ſtandeth among the mountaines, & Charmel in the ſea: euen ſo aſſuredly ſhal this miſchefe come (vpon Egypt.) Eſai. 48. b.

19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make redye thy geare to flit: for Noph ſhalbe voyde and deſolate, ſo that no man ſhall dwell therein.

20 The lande of Egypt is lyke a goodlye fayre Calfe: but deſtruction ſhal come out of the North, (I ſay) it commeth.

D 21 Her waged ſouldiers that be with her are like fat Calues, they alſo ſhal flee away togeather and not abyde: for the day of their ſlaughter, and the time of their viſitation ſhal come vpon them.

22 The cry of them ſhal make a noyſe as the hiſſing of ſerpentes: for they ſhal enter in with their hoaſtes, and come agaynſt her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

(a) Her wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people, whiche was lyke a great wood.

23 And they ſhal cut downe her (a) wood, ſayth the Lord, They ſhalbe innumerable: for they ſhalbe mo in number then the graſſehoppers, ſo that no man ſhalbe able to tel them.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the North.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wil viſite that reſtleſſe people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both their gods and their kinges, euen Pharao and al them that put their truſt in hym:

26 Yea, I wil deliuer them into the handes of thoſe that ſeeke after their lyues, (namely) into the power of Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, and into the power of his ſeruauntes: and after al theſe thynges, it ſhalbe inhabited as afore tyme, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Be not thou afrayde, O my ſeruaunt Jacob, feare not thou, O Iſrael: for loe, I wil helpe thee from farre, and thy ſeede from the lande of their captiuitie: Jacob alſo ſhal come agayne and be in reſte, he ſhal proſper, and no man ſhal do him harme.

28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my ſeruaunt) ſayth the Lorde, for I am with thee, and wil deſtroy al nations among whom I haue ſcattered thee: neuertheleſſe I wil not conſume thee, but chaſten thee and correct thee, yea, and that with diſcretion, neither wil I vtterly deſtroy thee.

The. xlvii. Chapter.

1. The worde of the Lorde agaynſte the Philiſtines.

1 THeſe are the woordes that the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie ỹ prophete againſt the Philiſtines, before that Pharao ſmote the citie of Azah. a

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, there ſhal waters aryſe out of the North, and ſhal growe to a great floodde, running ouer and couering the lande and al that is therein, the cities, and them that dwel therein: and the men ſhal cry, and al they that dwel in the lande ſhal mourne.

3 At the noyſe and ſtampyng of their ſtrong barbed horſes, at the ſhaking of their charets, and at the rumblyng of the wheeles: the fathers ſhal not looke to their children, ſo feeble and weery ſhal their handes be,

4 At the ſame tyme when he ſhalbe there to deſtroy the whole lande of the Philiſtines, he ſhal make waſte both Tyrus, Sidon, and the reſidue of their ayde: for the Lorde wyl deſtroy the Philiſtines, the remnant of the Ile of * Caphtor. * or, Cappadocia.

5 Baldneſſe is come vpon Azah, Aſcalon is put to ſylence, with the reſte of their valleys: Howe long wylt thou teare thee ſelfe?

6 O thou ſworde of the Lorde, howe long wilt thou not ceaſſe? Turne agayne into thy ſheath, reſt, and leaue of. B

7 But howe can it ceaſſe, when the Lorde hym ſelfe hath geuen it a charge agaynſte Aſcalon, and rayſed it vp agaynſt the cities of the ſea coaſt?

The. xlviii. Chapter.

1. The worde of the Lorde agaynſt the Moabites.

Thus

A 1 THus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, against Moab, Wo be to the Esai.15.a. and.16.a. and.25.b. Ezech.25.b. Sopho.2.b citie of Nebo, for it is layde waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and afrayde.

2 Moab can boast no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischeefe agaynst it: Comme (shal they say) let vs roote them out, that they may be no more a natiō, thou also shalt be destroyed, O Madmena, and the swoorde shal persecute thee.

3 A voyce shal crye from Horonaim: Great wastyng and destruction shal comme vpon them.

4 Moab is made desolate, her litle ones haue cryed out.

5 For at the goyng vp vnto Luith he arose with lamentation and mournyng, & downe towarde Horonaim they heard a cruel and deadly crye:

6 Geat you away, saue your lyues, and be lyke vnto the heath in the wyldernesse.

B 7 For because thou hast trusted in thyne
Esai.2.b. Iere.17.b Ezech.29.a owne woorkes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his priestes and princes shal goe away into captiuitie.

8 The destroyer shal comme vpon al cities, none shal escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the feeldes shalbe layde waste, lyke as the Lorde hath spoken.

9 Geue wynges vnto Moab, that she geat her away speedyly: for her cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shal dwel therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the woorke of the Lorde fraudulently, and cursed be he that keepeth backe his swoord from shedding of blood.

Iere.47.b 11 Moab hath euer benne ryche and careless from her youth vp, she hath benne styl setled vpon lyes, she was neuer yet put out of one vessel into another (that is) she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remayneth, and her sauour is not yet chaunged.

12 But lo, the time commeth, saith the lord, that I shal sende her trussers to trusse her vp, which shal remoue her from her dwelling, and emptie her vessels, and breake her wine pottes.

13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos,
3.king.12.a. lyke as Israel was ashamed of Bethel wherein she put her trust.

C 14 Wherefore doo ye thinke thus, We are mightie and strong menne of warre?

15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities brent vp, her chosen young menne be slayne, sayth the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

16 The destruction of Moab commeth on a pace, and her fal is at hande.

17 Al ye neighbours mourne for her, and al ye that knowe her name, say, O howe happeneth it that the strōg staffe and the goodly rodde is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glory, and sit in thirst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shal comme vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes.

19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, geat thee to the streete, and loke about thee, aske them that are fledde and escaped, and say, What thyng is happened?

20 Oh Moab is confounded & ouercome: mourne and crye, tel it out at Arnon that Moab is destroyed,

21 For iudgement shal comme vpon the D playne lande (namely) vpon Holon, & Jahzah, and vpon Mephaath,

22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, & Beth Deblathaim,

23 Vpon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon, 24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and al the cities in the lande of Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab is smitten downe, and her arme broken, sayth the Lorde.

26 Make her drunken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lord, that menne may clap their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.

27 Diddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though he had benne taken (with theft) among theeues? for so often as thou makest mention of hym, thou skippest for ioy.

28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities and dwel E in rockes of stone, and become lyke doues that make their nestes in holes.

29 As for Moabs pride we haue heard of it, Esai.16.b Iere.49.c
she is very hygh minded, I know her stoutnesse, her boastyng, her arrogancie, and the pryde of her stomacke, (sayth the Lorde.)

30 I knowe (sayth the Lorde) her indignation, she dooth not rycht, her woordes are lyes, and they haue not dealt truely.

31 Therefore wyl I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my hart shal lament the menne of Kirchares.

32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyl weepe for thee as for Jazer: thy vine branches shal comme ouer the sea vnto the sea of Jazer, the destroyer shal breake into thy haruest and grape geathering.

33 Myrth and cheare shalbe taken away from the fertile feelde, and from the lande of Moab: there shalbe no sweete wyne in the presse, ỹ treader shal haue no stomacke to crye, yea there shalbe none to crye vnto hym,

34 Whiche afore tyme were hearde from Helbon to Eleale, and Jahaz, whiche lyfted vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim that bullocke of three yeere old: the waters alſo of Nemrim ſhalbe dryed vp.

F 35 Moreouer, I wyl make Moab ceaſſe, ſayth the Lorde, from the offerynges and cenſing that ſhe hath made vnto her gods in hygh places.

36 Wherfore my hart mourneth for Moab lyke a crowde playing an heauye ſong, and for the mens ſake of Kirchares my hart mourneth alſo, euen as a pype that pypeth a doleful ſong: for their riches whiche they haue geathered ſhalbe deſtroyed.

Eſai.15.d 37 Al heades ſhalbe ſhauen, and al beardes clipped of, al handes bounde, and al loynes girded about with ſackcloth.

38 Vpon al the houſe toppes and ſtreetes of Moab there ſhalbe lamentable mournyng: for I wyl breake Moab lyke an vnprofitable veſſel, ſayth the Lorde.

39 O howe is ſhe deſtroyed? O how mourneth ſhe? O how dooth Moab hang downe her head & is aſhamed? Thus ſhal Moab be a laughyng ſtocke, and had in deriſion of al them that be rounde about her.

Deut.28.e Iere.49.d 40 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, the enimie ſhal comme fleeing as an Egle, and ſpreade his winges vpon Moab.

41 They ſhal take the cities, and winne the ſtrong holdes: then the myghtie mens hartes in Moab ſhalbe lyke the hart of a woman trauaylyng with chylde.

G 42 And Moab ſhalbe made ſo deſolate that ſhe ſhal no more be a people, becauſe ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lorde.

Eſai.24.e 43 Feare, pit, and ſnare ſhal comme vpon thee, O Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

44 Who ſo eſcapeth the feare, ſhal fal into the pit, and who ſo geatteth out of the pit, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: for I wyl bryng a yere of viſitation vpon Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

45 They that are able to flee, ſhal ſtande vnder the ſhadowe of Helbon, for there ſhal goe a fire out of Helbon, and a flame from Sion, and ſhal burne vp that proude people of Moab, and the top of thoſe ſeditious chyldren.

46 Wo be vnto thee, O Moab, thou people of Chamos ſhalt perythe: yea thy ſonnes and daughters ſhalbe ledde away captiue.

47 Yet at the laſt wyl I bryng Moab out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lord. Thus farre is of the plague of Moab.

The.xlix.Chapter.

1. The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt the Ammonites, 7. agaynſt Idumea, 13. Damaſcus, 28. Cedar, 34. Elam.

1 AS concernyng the Ammonites, thus the Lorde ſayth, Hath Iſrael no chyldren? for is he without any heyre? Why hath your kyng then taken Gad in? Wherfore dooth his people dwell in his cities? A Ezech.21.d. and.25.a. Amos.1.a

2 Behold therfore, the time commeth, ſaith the lord, that I wyl bryng a noyſe of warre into Rabath of the Ammonites, & it ſhalbe layde on a deſolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Iſraelites ſhalbe lordes ouer thoſe that had them in poſſeſſion afore, ſayth the Lorde.

3 Helbon ſhal mourne, for Ai ſhalbe rooted out of the grounde, (ſayth the Lorde:) the citie of Rabath ſhal crye out, and girde them ſelues with ſackecloth, they ſhal mourne and runne about the walles, for theyr kyng ſhalbe led away priſoner, yea his prieſtes and princes with him.

4 Wherfore gloryeſt thou in the (a) valleys? thy valley hath flowed away, O thou rebellious daughter, and thynkeſt thou that thou art ſo ſafe by reaſon of thy treaſure, that no man ſhal comme to the? (a) The plentifulneſſe of the foyle, the ſtrong ſituation of the place, and their great wealth, caſteth the Ammonites lyke a retchleſſe wanton girle to blaſpheme the Lorde, to annoy his people, & to be without al feare of enimies.

5 Beholde, I wyl bryng a feare vpon thee, ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, from al thoſe that be about thee, ſo that ye ſhalbe ſcattered euery man from another, & no man ſhal geather the togeather agayne that be fled.

6 But after that I wyl bryng the Ammonites alſo out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

7 Vpon the Edomiees hath the Lorde of hoſtes ſpoken on this maner, Is there no more wyſedome in Theman? Is there no more good counſayle among his people? Is their wyſedome then turned cleane to nought? B Eſai.21.b Exod.25.b and.35.d.

8 Geat you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe, O ye citizens of Dedan: for I wyl bryng deſtruction vpon Eſau, yea and the day of his viſitation.

9 If the grape geatherers come vpon thee, ſhoulde they not leaue ſomme grapes? If the nyght robbers come vpon thee, ſhoulde they not take ſo muche as they thought were yenough?

10 But I wyl make Eſau bare, and diſcouer his ſecretes, ſo that he ſhal not be able to byde the: his ſeede ſhalbe waſted away, yea his brethren and his neyghbours, and he hym ſelfe ſhal not be left behynde.

11 Thou ſhalt leaue thy fatherleſſe chyldren behynde thee, and I wyl keepe them, and thy thy wydowes shal take their comfort in me.

Iere. 25.b. Ezech.9.b 1.Pet.4.c. 12 For thus hath the Lorde spoken, Behold, they that men thought were vnmeete to drinke of the cuppe, haue dronken with the fyrst: and thinkest thou then to be free? No no, thou shalt neither be quit nor free: but thou must drinke also.

13 For why? I haue sworne by mee selfe, sayth the Lorde, that Bozrah shal become a wylderneſſe, an open shame, a laughing stocke, and cursyng, and al her cities shalbe a continual desart.

C 14 For I am perfectly informed of the Lorde, that he hath sent a message alredye vnto the heathen: Gather you togeather, and goe forth agaynst her, make you redye to batayle:

Abdi.1.a. 15 For loe, I wyl make thee but smal among the heathen, & litle regarded among men.

Esai. 48.b. Iere.48.d. 16 Thy hie stomacke, and the pride of thy hart hath deceiued thee, because thou dwelst in the holes of stony rockes, and hast the high mountaynes in possession: Neuertheleſſe, though thy nest were as high as the Egles, yet I wyl cast thee downe, saith the Lorde.

17 Moreouer, Idumea shalbe a wylderneſſe, who so goeth by it, shalbe abashed, & woonder at al her miserable plagues.

Iere.18.b. and.19.b. and.50.b. Gen.19.a 18 Like as Sodome, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about were turned vpsyde downe, sayth the Lorde: so shal no body dwel in Idumea, and no man shal haue his habitation there.

19 Behold, like as the lion, so shal a destroyer comme vp from the pleasant medowes of Iordane, vnto ỹ strong dwelling place, and when I haue made him quiet, I wyll make him to flee from her, and al chosen men wyl I set in aray agaynst her: who is lyke vnto me? what is he that wyl striue with me? what shepheарde may stande in my handes?

Psal. 37.b. 20 Therefore heare the counsel of the Lorde that he hath taken vpon Idumea, and his purpose that he hath deuised vpon the citizens of Theman: the least of the flocke shal trayle them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they shal make it waste, and them selues also.

21 At the noyse of their fal the earth shall quake, the crie of their voyce shalbe heарde vnto the red sea.

D 22 Behold, the enimie shal comme and flee vp hyther like as it were an Egle, and spread his winges vpon Bozrah: then shal the hartes of the woorthies in Edom be as the hart of a woman trauayling of chylde.

23 Upon Damascus, Hemath, and Arphad, shal come confusion: for they shal heare euil tydynges, they shalbe tossed to and fro lyke the sea that can not stande stil. Esai.17.a. Amos.1.a.

24 Damascus shalbe soare afrayde, and shal flee: trembling commeth vpon her, sorowe and payne shal ouertake her, as a woman trauaylyng of childe.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous citie, the citie of my ioy, is not spared?

26 Her young men shal fal in the streetes, and al her menne of warre shalbe taken away in that time, sayth the Lord of hoastes.

27 I wyl kindle a fyre in the walles of Damascus, whiche shal consume the palace of Benhadad.

28 As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon smote, the Lord hath spoken thus vpon them: Aryse, and geat you vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people toward the east. Esai.21.c.

29 Their tentes and their flockes shal they take away, yea their hanginges and theyr vessels, their Cammels also shal they carie away with them: they shal crie to them, feare is on euery syde. E

30 Flee, geat you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwel there, O ye inhabitours of Hazor, sayth the Lorde: for Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon hath holden a counsayle concernyng you, and concluded his deuice agaynst you.

31 Aryse and geat you vp agaynst yonder riche and careleſſe people, sayth the Lorde, which haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwel alone.

32 Their Camels shalbe a pray, and the droues of their catel driuen away: Moreouer, those wyl I scatter towarde all the windes, and to the farthest partes of the worlde, yea from al the sydes thereof wyll I bring their destruction, sayth the Lorde.

33 Hazor also shalbe a dwelling for dragons, and an euerlasting wylderneſſe, so that no body shal dwel there, and no man shal haue there his habitation.

34 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake to the prophete Ieremie concernyng Elam, in the beginnyng of the raigne of Zedekias kyng of Juda. Ezech. 32.a Daniel.8.a.

35 Thus sayth the Lord of hoastes, Behold, I wyl breake the bowe of Elam, theyr principal strength.

36 And vpon Elam I wyl bryng the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, & wyl scatter them agaynst the same foure windes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shall flee vnto them.

37 For I wyl cause Elam to be afrayde of their enimies, and of them that ſeeke their liues, & wil bring vpon them a miſcheefe, euen my wrath, ſayth the Lord: And I wil perſecute them with the ſwoorde, ſo long til I haue brought them to nought.

38 I wyl ſet my throne in Elam, I wyl deſtroy both the king & princes from thence, ſaith the Lorde: but in proceſſe of time I wyl bring Elam out of captiuitie againe, ſayth the Lord.

The. L. Chapter.

I. He prophecieth the deſtruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Iſrael, whiche was in captiuitie.

A 1 THe woordes that the Lorde ſpake vnto the prophete Jeremie concernyng Babylon and the lande of the Chaldees:

Eſai. 13. a. and. 47. a. and. 51. a. Jere. 25. b. Eſai. 46. a. Daniel. 5. a.

2 Preache among the gentiles, let your voyce be hearde, make a token, crie out, keepe no ſylence, but ſay, Babylon is wonne, Bel is confounded, and Merodach is ouercome, yea their goddes be brought to ſhame, and their images burſt in peeces:

3 For out of the north there doth comme a people againſt her, whiche ſhal make her land ſo waſte, that no body ſhal dwel therin, neither man nor beaſt, for they ſhal flee and depart from thence.

4 In thoſe dayes, and at that time, ſaith the Lorde, the children of Iſrael ſhal come, they and the children of Juda, weeping & making haſte, and ſhal ſeeke the Lord their God.

1. Eſd. 1. a.

5 They ſhal aſke the way to Sion, thither ſhal they turne their faces, ſayeing, Come, and we wyl cleaue to the Lorde in a couenant that neuer ſhalbe broken.

Jere. 23. a. Ezech. 36. f.

6 My people haue benne a loſt flocke, my ſhepheardes haue deceiued them, and haue made them goe aſtray vpon the hilles, they haue gonne from the mountaine to the litle hil, and forgotten their folde.

7 Al they that came vpon them haue deuoured them, and their enimies ſaid, We haue made no fault againſt them, for they haue diſpleaſed the Lorde, (yea euen the Lorde whiche is) the habitation of their righteouſneſſe, & the hope of their fathers.

B

8 Flee from Babylon, and depart out of the lande of the Chaldees, and be ye as the rammes that goe before the flocke.

9 For loe, I wyl wake vp an hoaſt of people from the northren lande, & bring them vpon Babylon, theſe ſhal lay ſiege to it, and winne it: their arrowes ſhal not miſſe, like as a cunning archer ſhooteth not wrong.

Jere. 50. g.

10 And the Chaldees ſhalbe ſpoyled, and al they that ſpoyle them ſhalbe ſatisfyed, ſaith the Lorde:

11 Although ye were ſo chearefull and glad to treade downe myne heritage, and fulfilled your pleaſures as the calues in the graſſe, and triumphed ouer them like buls (when ye had gotten the victory.)

Eſai. 47. a.

12 Your mothers ſhalbe ſoare confounded, and they that bare you ſhal come to ſhame, ſhe ſhalbe the leaſt ſet by among the nations, voyde, waſted, and dryed vp.

13 No man ſhalbe able to dwel there for the feare of the Lorde, but ſhe ſhalbe whole deſolate: al they that goe by Babylon ſhall ſtande ſtil and be abaſhed, and ſhal wonder at al her plagues.

Jere. 18. b. 19. b. and 49. c.

14 Goe forth in your array againſt Babylon rounde about al ye that can handle bowes, ſhoote at her, ſpare no arrowes: for ſhe hath ſinned againſt the Lorde.

C

15 Crie out againſt her rounde about: ſhe ſhal yeelde her ſelfe, her fundations ſhall fall, and her walles ſhal comme downe, for it ſhalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, yea vengeaunce ſhalbe taken of her: and as ſhe hath donne, ſo deale ye with her.

16 Roote out the ſower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ſickle in harueſt: for feare of the ſwoorde of the enimie euery man ſhal gear him to his owne people, and euery man ſhal flee to his owne lande.

Exod. 21. b. Leuit. 24. d. Joel. 3. b.

17 Iſrael is a ſcattered flocke, the lions haue diſpearſed them: fyrſt the king of the Aſſyrians deuoured them, laſt of al this Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon hath bruiſed al their bones.

2. king. 17. a Eſai. 10. a. 1. king. 25. b

18 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl viſite the king of Babylon and his kingdome, as I haue viſited the king of the Aſſyrians, 19 And wyl bring Iſrael againe to his pleaſaunt paſture, that he may feede vppon Charmel and Baſan, and be ſatisfyed vpon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad.

1. king. 19. g Eſai. 14. d.

20 In thoſe dayes, & at the ſame time, ſayth the Lorde, yf ỹ offence of Iſrael be ſought for, there ſhal none be founde, yf men enquire for the ſinne of Juda, there ſhalbe none: for I wyl be mercyful vnto them whom I ſuffer to remaine.

21 Goe downe (O thou auenger) into the enimies land, and viſite them that dwel therin: downe with them, and ſmyte them vpon the backes, ſayth the Lorde, doo accordyng to al that I haue commaunded thee.

D

22 There is gonne about the lande a crie of a ſlaughter and great murder (namely on this manner,)

23 Howe happeneth it that the hammer of the the whole worlde is thus broken and bruyſed in ſunder? Howe chaunceth it that Babylon is become a wylderneſſe among the heathen (on this maner?)

24 I mee ſelfe haue layde a ſnare for thee, and thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and ſnared: for why, thou haſt contended againſt the Lorde.

25 The Lorde hath opened his houſe of ordinance, and brought foorth the weapons of his wrath: for the thyng that is donne in the lande of the Chaldees, it is the Lord of hoſtes worke.

26 Come againſt her, for this is her ende, breake vp her cheſtes, threſh her as ye threſh corne, deſtroy her, that nothing ſhalbe left.

27 Slaye al theyr myghty ſouldiers, and put them to death: wo be vnto them, for the day and time of their viſitation is at hand.

E 28 (Me thynke) I heare (already) a crye of them that be fledde and eſcaped out of the lande of Babylon, whiche ſhewe in Sion the vengeance of the Lorde our God, the vengeance of his temple, (yea a voyce of them that crye againſt Babylon.)

29 Cal vp al the archers againſt Babylon, pitche your tentes rounde about her, that none eſcape, recompence her as ſhe hath deſerued, and accordyng as ſhe hath done, ſo deale with her againe: for ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lorde, againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

Ierem.50.c Apoc.18.b.

30 Therfore ſhal her young men fal downe in the ſtreetes, and all her menne of warre ſhalbe rooted out in that day, ſayth the Lorde.

2.Theſ.2.a

31 Beholde, I ſpeake vnto thee, O thou proude, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, for thy day ſhal come, euen the tyme of thy viſitation.

32 And the proude ſhal ſtumble and fal, & no man ſhal helpe hym vp, I wyl burne vp his cities with fire, and it ſhal conſume al that is rounde about hym.

33 Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, The children of Iſrael and Iuda ſuffer violence togeather, al they that haue them in captiuitie keepe them faſte, and wyl not let them goe.

F 34 But theyr auenger & redeemer is myghtie, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, he ſhal maynteyne theyr cauſe, he ſhal make the lande ſhake, and iudge them that dwel therein (one with another.)

35 The ſworde ſhal come vpon the Chaldees, ſayth the Lord, vpon them that dwel in Babylon, vpon theyr princes, and vpon theyr wyſe men.

36 The ſworde vpon theyr ſoothſayers, as for thoſe they ſhal become fooles: the ſworde vpon theyr worthies, ſo that they ſhal ſtande in feare.

37 The ſworde vpon theyr horſemen and charettes, and vpon all the common people that dwel among them, ſo that they ſhal al become lyke women: the ſworde vpon theyr treaſure, ſo that it ſhalbe ſtollen away.

38 A drought vpon theyr waters, ſo that they ſhalbe dryed vp: for the lande worſhyppeth images, and deliteth woonderfully in idolles.

39 Therefore ſhal wylde beaſtes, Lamia, and Cat of mountaynes, and Eſtriches dwel therin: for there ſhal neuer man dwel there, neyther ſhal any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

40 Like as God deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor, with the cities that laye there about, ſayth the Lorde: ſo ſhal no man dwel there alſo, neyther ſhal any man haue there his habitation. Gene.19.

41 Beholde, there ſhal come a people from the North with a great bonde of men, and many kinges ſhal ſtande vp from the endes of the earth. Iere.50.b. Deut.28.c.

42 They beare bowes and bucklers, cruel are they and vnmerciful: theyr voyce roareth lyke the ragyng ſea, they ryde vpon horſes, and come weaponed to fight againſt thee, O Babylon.

43 Aſſoone as the king of Babylon heare tel of them, his handes ſhal waxe feeble, ſorowe and heauineſſe ſhal come vpon him as a woman trauaylyng with chylde. G

44 Beholde, lyke as the lyon commeth vp from the ſwellyng of Iordan, vnto the dennes of Ethan, ſo wyl I driue them foorth, and make them runne againſt her: but whom ſhal I chooſe out & ordeyne to ſuche a thyng? for who is lyke me? or who wyl ſtryue with me? or what ſheephearde maye ſtande againſt me? Ierem.49.c

45 Therefore heare the counſel that the Lorde hath geuen vpon Babylon, and the deuice that he hath taken vpon the lande of the Chaldees, The leaſt among the people ſhal drawe them out, and looke what pleaſant houſes they haue, they ſhal laye them waſte.

46 The noyſe at the wynnyng of Babylon ſhal moue the earth, and the crye ſhalbe heard among the Gentiles.

The.li. Chapter.

1. Howe Babylon ſhould be ouerthrowen.
59. Ieremie geueth his booke to Saraias.

I Thus

A 1 THus hath the Lorde sayde, Beholde, I wyl rayse vp a perillous wynd against Babylon, and her citizens that beare euyl wyl agaynst me. Jerem.25.b and.50.a.

2 I wyl sende also into Babylon fanners to fanne her out, and to destroye her lande: for in the day of her trouble they shalbe about her on euery syde.

3 Moreouer (the Lorde wyl say) vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduaunce them selues in theyr armour: ye shal not spare her young men, kyl downe al her host.

4 Thus the slayne shal fal downe in the lande of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the streetes.

5 As for Israel and Juda, they shal not be forsaken of theyr God of the Lord of hostes, yea, (a) for ỹ holy one of Israels sake, haue the Chaldees fylled theyr land ful of sinne.

(a) For the holy one of Israels sake, that is, for the greeuous affliction and great iniurie done to gods people, whiche he reputeth as done vnto hym selfe.

6 Flee away from Babylon, euery man saue his life, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednesse: for the time of the Lordes vengeance is come, yea, he shal reward her agayne.

7 Babylon hath ben in the Lordes hande a golden cuppe, that maketh al landes dronken: of her wyne haue al people dronken, therefore are they out of their wittes.

B 8 But sodaynely is Babylon fallen and destroyed: mourne for her, bring plaisters for her woundes, yf she may peraduenture be healed agayne. Esai.48.b. Jerem. 25.c Esai.21.b. Apoc.18.a.

9 We would haue made Babylon whole, say they, but she is not recouered: therefore wyl we let her alone, and goe euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is comme into heauen, and is gonne vp to the cloudes.

(b) Howsoeuer the Iewes had deserued to be plagued at gods hande, yet had the Chaldees no cause on their partes why to deale so cruellye with them, and so God declareth theyr righteousnesse in respecte to the Chaldees, by punishyng them and delyuerying his people.

10 The Lorde hath brought foorth our (b) righteousnesse, and therefore comme on, we wyl shewe in Sion the woorke of the Lorde our God.

11 Make sharpe the arrowes, and multiply your shieldes: for the Lord shal rayse vp the spirite of the kyng of the Medes, whiche hath already a desire to destroy Babylon: this shalbe the vengeaunce of the Lord, and the vengeaunce of his temple.

12 Set vp tokens vppon the walles of Babylon, make your watche strong, set your watchmen in aray, yea, hold prouy watches, and yet for al that shal the Lorde goe foorth with his deuice whiche he hath taken vpon them that dwel in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest by the great waters, O thou that hast so great treasure and riches, thine ende is come, and the reckenyng of thy wynnynges.

14 The Lord of hostes hath swoorne by him selfe, that he wyl ouerwhelme thee with men like grashoppers in number, whiche with a courage shal crye alarum alarum against thee: Amos.6.c. Jere.22.a.

C 15 Yea, euen the Lorde of hostes that with his power made the earth, with his wysedome prepared the rounde worlde, & with his discretion spread out the heauens. Jere.35.b.

16 Assoone as he letteth his voyce be heard, the waters in the ayre ware fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lyghtnynges to raine, he bryngeth the wyndes out of theyr secrete places.

17 (If they be esteemed) by theyr wysdome, al men are becomme fooles: confounded be al the casters of images, for the thyng that they make is but deceite, and hath no breath. Esai.44.c. Baruch.6.a

18 Claine is it, and an erronious woorke, and in the tyme of visitation it shal perishe.

19 The portion of Jacob is none suche: but he that made al thinges, whose name is the Lorde of hostes, he is the rodde of his inheritance.

20 (c) Thou hast ben myne hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peeces, and with thee haue I destroyed kyngdomes. (c) Thou hast ben. This God speaketh vnto Babylon.

21 Through thee I haue beaten to powder horse and horsemen, yea, the charettes, and such as sate vpon them. D

22 Thorowe thee I haue broken man and woman, olde and young, bacheler, and mayden.

23 Through thee I haue destroyed the sheephearde and his flocke, the husbandman and his cattel, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therefore wyl I reward the citie of Babylon, and al the inhabitantes of Chaldea, with al the euyl which they haue done vnto Sion, yea, that ye your selues shal see it, sayth the Lorde.

25 Behold, I come vpon thee thou noysome (d) hyl, sayth the Lorde, thou that destroyest al landes, I wyl stretche out my hande ouer thee, and cast thee downe from the stonye rockes, and wyl make thee a burnt hyl, (d) Babylon is called an hil, although it stoode in a lowe place, and no hils about it: for that her walles and buyldynges were so great and hygh as mountaines.

26 So that neyther corner stones shalbe taken any more out of thee: but waste and desolate shalt thou lye for euermore, sayth the Lorde.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpettes among the heathen, prouoke the nations against her, cal the kingdomes of Ararat, Menni, and Ascanez, against her, set the prince against her, bring as great a sorte of terrible horses against her, as yf they were grashoppers.

28 Prepare against them the people of the Medes,

Medes, with theyr kynges, princes, and al theyr cheefe rulers, yea and the whole land that is vnder hym.

29 The lande also shal shake and be afraid when the deuice of the lord shal come forth against Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon so waste that no man shal dwel any more therein.

30 The woorthies of Babylon shal leaue the battayle, & keepe them selues in strong holdes, theyr strength hath fayled them, they shalbe like women, theyr dwellyng places shalbe burnt vp, theyr barres shalbe broken.

31 One Pursuant shal meete another, yea one Poste shal come by another, to bryng the kyng of Babylon tydinges that his citie is taken on euery syde, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the souldiers soare afraide.

33 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, (e) The daughter of Babylon hath ben in her tyme lyke as a threshyng flooze, but shortly shal her haruest come.

(e) The complaynt of Gods people

34 Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon hath deuoured and destroyed me, he hath made me an emptie vessel, he swalowed me vp lyke a dragon, and fylled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 My substance whereof he hath spoyled me, and the thyng that was left me which he hath caryed away, crye out agaynst Babylon, sayth the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea and my blood also agaynst the Chaldees, sayth Hierusalem.

36 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wil defende thy cause, and auenge thee, I wyl drynke vp her sea, and drye vp her water springes.

37 Babylon shal become an heape of stones, a dwellyng place for dragons, a fearefulnesse and woonderyng, and no man shal dwel there. Esai.12.c.

38 They shal roare together lyke Lions, and as the young Lions when they be angrye, so shal they bende them selues.

39 In theyr heate I wyl geue them a dinner, and they shalbe dronken for ioye: then shal they sleepe an euerlastyng sleepe, and neuer wake, sayth the Lorde.

40 I wyl cary them downe to be slayne lyke sheepe, lyke Weathers, and Goates:

41 O howe was Sesach wonne? O howe was the glorye of the whole lande taken? howe happeneth it that Babylon is so woondred at among the heathen?

42 The sea is ryssen ouer Babylon, & hath couered her with her great waues.

43 Her cities are layd waste, the land lyeth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a lande where no man dwelleth, and where no man trauayleth through.

44 Moreouer, I wyl visite Bel at Babylon, and the thing that he hath swalowed vp, that same shal I plucke out of his mouth: the gentiles also shal run no more vnto him, yea and the walles of Babylon shal fal. Ierc.1.a. Esai.46.a. Dan.14.d.

45 O my people, come out of Babylon, that euery man may saue his life from the feareful wrath of the Lorde. Esai.52.b. 2.Cor.6.e

46 Be not faynt harted, and feare not at euery rumour that shalbe hearde in the land: for euery yere bringeth new tidinges, and in the yeere folowing new tydynges, & robbing in the lande, and lord vpon lord.

47 And loe, the time commeth that I wyl visite the images of Babylon, & the whole land shalbe confounded, yea and her slayne shal lye in the middest of her.

48 Heauen and earth with al that is therein shal reioyce ouer Babylon, when the destroyers shal come vpon her from the north, sayth the Lorde.

49 Like as Babylon hath beaten downe and slayne many out of Israel, so shal there fal many, and be slaine in al her kingdome. Iere.50.c.

50 Ye that haue escaped the sworde, haste you, stande not styl, remember the Lorde a farre of, and thinke vpon Hierusalem.

51 For we are ashamed to heare the blasphemies, our faces were couered with shame, because the strange aliantes came into the sanctuarie of the Lorde.

52 Wherefore beholde, sayth the Lorde, the time commeth that I wyl visite the images of Babylon, & through the whole lande they shal mourne and fal.

53 Though Babylon clymed vp into heauen, and keapt her power on hygh, yet shal I sende her destroyers, sayth the Lorde. Iere.49.d.

54 A pitious crye (shalbe hearde) from Babylon, and a great miserie from the lande of the Chaldees:

55 When the Lorde destroyeth Babylon, and when he driueth out the high stomacke and proude boasting, wherewith they haue ben as furious as the waues of the great water fluddes, & made great crakes with theyr woordes:

56 For the destroyers shal come vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, which shal take theyr woorthies, and breake theyr bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lord shal sufficiently recompence them,

57 Yea (sayth the Lorde) I wil make theyr princes, their wise men, their cheefe rulers, theyr nobles, & their woorthies dronken, so that they shal sleepe an euerlasting sleepe, and and neuer wake: thus saith the king, whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

58 Moreouer, thus saith the Lord of hostes, The thicke wal of Babylon shalbe broken, and her hygh gates shalbe burnt vp, and the thyng that the gentiles and the people haue wrought with great trauayle and labour shal come to nought, and be consumed in the fyre.

59 This is the charge that Jeremie the prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the sonne of Neriah the sonne of Maasiah, when he went towarde Babylon with Zedekias the kyng of Juda, in the fourth yeere of his raigne: nowe this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Jeremie wrote in a booke al the miserie that shoulde come vpon Babylon, yea and al these sermons that be wrytten agaynst Babylon,

61 And gaue Saraiah this charge, When thou commest vnto Babylon, see that thou reade these wordes, 62 And say, O Lord, thou art determined to roote out this place, so that neither people nor cattel shal dwel there anye more, but to lye waste for euer.

63 And when thou hast read out the booke, bynde a stone to it, and caste it in the myddest of Euphrates, 64 And say, Euen thus shal Babylon sinke, and be thruste downe with the burden of trouble that I wyl bryng vpon her: so that she shal neuer come vp againe. Thus farre are the preachinges of Jeremie.

Jere.27.b. and.39.a. to the eleuenth yeere of kyng Zedekias.

6 And in the fourth moneth the nineth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the lande.

7 So al the souldiers brake away, and fled B out of the citie by nyght, through the way of the porte, betweene the two walles by the kynges garden: (Nowe the Chaldees had compassed the citie round about) yet went these men their way through the wyldernesse.

8 And so the Chaldees folowed vpon them, and tooke Zedekias the kyng in the feelde of Jericho when his host was runne from hym.

9 So they caryed the kyng away prysoner Jere.39.b.
to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

10 The kyng of Babylon also caused Zedekias sonnes to be slayne before his face, yea and put al the princes of Juda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out the eyes of Zedekias, and caused him to be bounde with two chaynes, to be caryed vnto Babylon, and let hym lye in prison tyl he dyed.

12 Nowe the tenth day of the fifth moneth, in the nineteenth yeere of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, and the kyng of Babylons seruauntes came vnto Hierusalem,

13 And burnt vp the house of the Lorde: he C burnt vp also the kinges palace, al the houses, and al the gorgeous buildinges in Hierusalem.

14 And the whole host of the Chaldees that were with the cheefe captayne, brake downe al the walles of Hierusalem rounde about.

15 As for the poore people, and suche folke as was yet leaft in the citie, whiche also were fallen to the kyng of Babylon, yea and what people as yet remayned, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne caryed them away prysoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey did Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and feeldes.

17 The Chaldees also brake the brasen pillers that were in the house of the Lord, yea the seate and the brasen lauer that was in the house of the Lorde, and caryed al the mettal of them vnto Babylon.

18 They tooke away also the chaldernes, shouels, flesshookes, sprynckelers, spoones, and al the brasen vessels that was occupyed in the seruice,

19 With the basons, colepannes, sprinck- D lers,

ers, pottes, candlestickes, spoones, and cuppes, whereof somme were of golde, and somme of siluer.

20 The cheefe captaine tooke also the two
1.king.7.d. pyllers, the lauer, the twelue brasen bullockes that stoode vnder the seate whiche kyng Solomon had made in the house of the Lorde: and al the vesselles conteyned so muche metal, that it myght not be wayed.

D 21 For euery pyller was eyghteene cubites hygh, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites, and foure fyngers thicke, and rounde.

22 Nowe vpon the rope were brasen knops, and euery knop was fiue cubites hygh, and vpon the knoppes were hoopes, and pomegranates rounde about of cleane brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pyllers fashioned with the pomegranates, whereof there were an hundred, nynetie, & sixe, whiche hanged vpon the hoopes rounde about.

24 The cheefe captayne also tooke Saraiah the hygh priest, and Sophoniah that was cheefe next hym, and the three keepers of the doore.

25 He tooke out of the citie a chamberlaine, whiche was captayne of the souldiers, and seuen menne that were the kinges seruantes, which were found in the citie: and Sophera captaine that vsed to muster the men of warre, with three score men of the countrey that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine tooke, and caryed them to the kyng of Babylon, vnto Reblath:

27 And the kyng of Babylon caused them E to be put to death at Reblath in the land of Hemath: and thus Iuda was ledde away captiue out of his owne lande.

28 This is the summe of the people whom Nabuchodonosor ledde away captiue: In the seuenth yeere of his raigne, he carryed away of the Iewes, three thousande, twentie and three,

29 In the eighteenth yeere, Nabuchodonosor carryed away from Hierusalem, eyght hundred, thirtie, and two persons.

30 In the three and twentieth yeere of Nabuchodonosor, Nabuzaradan the cheefe capayne tooke away seuen hundred, fourtie and fyue Iewes prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousande and syxe hundred.

31 In the thirtie and seuenth yere after that Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda was carryed away, in the fiue and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the same yeere that he raigned) gaue Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda his pardon, and let hym out of prison, 32 And spake louyngly to hym, and set his throne aboue the thrones of the other kings that were with hym in Babylon.

33 He changed also the clothes of his prison, yea, and dyd eate with hym al his lyfe long.

34 And he had a continual lyuyng geuen F
hym of the kyng of Babylon, euerye day a certayne thyng allowed hym al the dayes of his lyfe, vntyl he dyed.

The ende of the booke of the prophete Ieremie.

The lamentations of the prophete Ieremie.

The first Chapter.

It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie, and Hierusalem destroyed, that Ieremie the prophete sate weepyng, and sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and syghyng and howlyng with an heauie and woful hart, sayde,

Q 1 Las) how sytteth the citie so desolate, that sometyme was ful of 2.Sam.4.d people? Howe is
2.Kin.15.a. she become like a wydowe whiche was great amõg nations? Howe is she brought vnder tribute that ruled landes?

Iob.6.b. 2 She weepeth sore in the night, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among al her louers, there is none that geueth her any comfort, yea her next freendes transgresse agaynst her, and are become her enimies.

3 Iuda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the Heathen, she findeth no reast, all they that persecuted her, tooke her in straight places (where she coulde not escape.)

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because

no

no man commeth no more to the solemne feastes: al her gates are desolate, her preistes make lamentation, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe is in great heavynesse.

Jerem.52.c 5 Her enimies have benne rulers ouer her, and her enimies have prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her chyldren are ledde away captyne before their enimies.

6 Al the beautie of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke Hartes that finde no pasture, they are driuen away before their enimie, so that they have no more power.

Beth 7 Now Hierusalem remembred in the time of her misery and bare estate, al her ioy and pleasure that she hath had in times past, seing her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enimies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enimies stande lookyng at her, and laugh her Sabboth dayes to scorne.

8 Hierusalem hath sinned greevously, therefore is she come in decay: al they that had her in honour, despise her, for they have seene her sylthynesse, yea, she syghyth, and * is ashamed of her selfe.

* or, and is turned backward.

9 Her skyrtes are defyled, she remembred not her last ende, therfore is her fal so wonderful, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lord consyder my trouble, for mine enimie hath the vpper hande.

10 The enimie hath put his hande to al the precious thynges that she had, yea euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, whom thou (neuertheles) hast forbydden to comme within thy congregation.

Deut.23.c. 11 Al her people seeke their bread with heavinesse, and looke what precious thing every man hath, that geveth he for meate to saue his lyfe: consyder, O Lorde, and see howe vyle I am become.

2. Kin.6.c. Lamen.2.c. (a) The bondage thorow sinne is most greevous, which therfore is called the yoke of sinnes, fastened in or to gods hande, because by no meanes it can be shakē of or remitted, but only of gods special grace and mercy. Jerem.3.c. Lamen.2.c.

12 Have ye no regarde al ye that goe foreby, beholde and see yf there be any sorowe lyke vnto myne, wherewith the Lorde hath troubled me in the day of his fearefull wrath.

13 From aboue hath he sent downe a fyre into my bones, and it burneth them cruelly: he hath layd a net for my feete, and thrown me wyde open, he hath made me desolate, so that I must euer be mournyng.

14 The (a) yoke of my transgressions is bounde fast to his hande, they are wrapped (or writhen) and come vp about my necke: he hath caused my strength to faile, the lord hath delivered me into those handes wherout I can not quyte mee selfe.

15 The Lorde hath destroyed al the myghty menne that were in me, he hath proclaymed an appoynted tyme to slaughter al my best menne: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Juda, lyke as it were in a wynepresse.

16 Therefore doo I wepe, and myne eyes gushe out of water: for the comfort that should quicken me, is farre fro me: my children are dryuen away, for why? the enimie hath gotten the vpper hande.

17 Sion casteth out her handes, and there is no man to comforte her: the Lorde hath layd the enimies rounde about Jacob, and Hierusalem is become abomination in the myddest of them.

18 The Lorde is ryghteous, for I have provoked his countenance vnto anger, O take heede al ye people, and consyder my heavinesse, my maydens and my young men are ledde away into captiuitie. Dan.9.a.

19 I called for my louers, but they beguyled me, for my priestes and counsaylours, but they perished, enen whyle they sought for meate to saue theyr lyues.

20 Consyder (O Lorde) howe I am troubled, my wombe is disquyeted, my hart turneth about in me, and I am ful of heavinesse, because I rebelled stubburnly: the swoord hurteth me without, and within I am lyke vnto death. Lamen.2.c.

21 They heare my mournyng, but there is none that wyl comforte me: al mine enimies have hearde of my trouble, and are gladde therof, because thou hast donne it, and thou hast brought forth the tyme whiche thou calledst, whē they also shalbe lyke vnto me. D

22 Let al their wickednesse comme before thee, and doo thou to them as thou hast donne vnto me for al my trespasses: for my sorowe is very great, and my hart is heavye.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 ALas) howe hath the Lorde darkned the daughter of Sion in his wrath? as for the honour of Israel, he hath caste it downe from heauen vnto the earth, and he remembred not his owne (a) footestoole when he was angry? A Lamen.3.b.

(a) By the footstoole is meant the temple of Hierusalem.

2 The Lorde hath caste out al the habitations of Jacob without any fauour, al the strong places of the daughter of Juda hath he broken in his wrath, and thrown them downe to the grounde, her kyngdome and her princes hath he prophaned.

3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken al the (b) horne of Israel, he hath withdrawen his right hand from ỹ enimie, yea, a flambe of fyre is kyndeled in Jacob, and

(b) By the horne, that is, the power or strength.

and hath consumed vp al rounde about.

4 He hath bent his bowe lyke an enimie, he hath fastened his ryght hande as an aduersarie, and euery thyng that was pleasant to see, he hath slayne: he hath powred out his wrath lyke a fyre into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.

5 The Lorde is become lyke as it were an enimie, he hath deuoured Israel and al his palaces, yea al his strong holdes hath he destroyed, and filled the daughter of Iuda with muche sorowe and heauinesse.

Iere.7.b. 6 His tabernacle as a garden hath he destroyed, his solemne meetynges hath he put downe: the Lord hath brought it so to passe, that the hygh solemne feastes and sabbothes in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heauie displeasure hath he despised the kyng and priestes.

ℵ 7 The Lord hath forsaken his owne aulter, and hath abhorred his owne sanctuarie, and hath geuen the walles of theyr towres into the handes of theyr enimie: theyr enimies made a noyse in the house of the Lord, as it had ben a solemne feast day.

8 The Lorde thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he spread out his line, and drewe not in his hande til he had destroyed them: therefore mourne the turrettes, and the broken walles fal

Iere.52.b. downe togeather.

9 Her gates are sunke downe to the ground, her barres are broken and smitten in sunder, her king and princes (are caried away) to the gentiles: they haue not the lawe, neither her prophetes haue any vision from the Lorde.

10 The senatours of the daughter Sion sit vpon the grounde in scilence, they haue strawed ashes vpon theyr heades, and gyrded them selues with sackcloth, the may-

Lamen.1.a. dens of Hierusalem hang downe theyr heades to the grounde.

11 Myne eyes do fayle through weepyng, my bowels do swel, my liuer is powred vpon the earth for the great hurt of the daughter of my people, seeyng the chyldren and babes did sowne in the streetes of the citie.

* or, wheate and wine. 12 They haue said to their mothers, Where is * bread and drynke? When they fel downe as wounded in the streetes of the citie, and when they dyed in theyr mothers bosome.

ℶ 13 What shal I take to witnesse against thee, or what shal I liken to thee, O daughter Hierusalem? To whom shal I compare thee, O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee withal? thy hart is lyke a mayne sea, who may heale thee?

14 Thy (c) prophetes haue looked out vayne and foolishe thinges for thee, they haue not shewed thee of thy wickednesse, to kepe thee from captiuitie: but they haue seene out for thee * burdens of vanitie and banishment. Iere.5.d.

(c) The false prophetes toke vpon them the name of seeers whiche was proper to the true prophetes: but theyr vayne burdens, that is, theyr false prophecies brought the people vnder the greeuous burden of affliction and banishment.

15 Al they that goe by the way clappe their handes at thee, hyssyng and wagging their heades vpon the daughter Hierusalem (and say,) Is this the citie that men cal so fayre, (and) the ioy of the whole earth?

16 Al thine enimies gape vpon thee, they hysse and grinde theyr teeth, saying, Let vs deuoure, for the tyme that we looked for is come, we haue founde and seene it.

17 The Lorde hath fulfylled the thyng that he was purposed to doo, and perfourmed his worde that he had * deuised long agoe: he hath destroyed and not spared, he hath caused thine aduersarie to triumph ouer thee, and set vp the horne of thyne enimie.

18 Theyr hart cryed vnto the Lorde, O * thou citie of the daughter Sion: let thy teares runne downe like a riuer day and night, rest not, and let not the apple of thine eye leaue of.

19 Stande vp, crye in the night in the beginning of the watch, powre out thine hart lyke water before the Lorde: lift vp thine handes towardes him for the liues of thy young chyldren that dye of hunger in the streetes.

20 Behold, O Lord, and consyder to whom thou hast done thus: shal the women then eate theyr owne fruite, euen chyldren of a spanne long? shal the priestes and prophetes be slayne in the sanctuarie of the Lorde? ℶ

21 Young and olde lye through the streetes vpon the grounde, my maydens and young men are slayne with the sword, whom thou in the day of thy wrathful indignation hast put to death, yea euen thou hast put them to death, and not spared them.

22 My * terrours that are round about me hast thou called as it were to a feast day, so that in the day of the Lordes wrath none escaped, neither was any left behind: those that I haue brought vp and nourished, hath myne enimie destroyed.

* or, deuised. * or, commaunded. Deut.4.c. * or, O thou wal. * or, enimies, whom I feared.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 I Am the man that through the rodde of his wrath haue experience of miserie. ℵ

2 He droue me forth, and led me, yea into darknesse, but not into lyght.

3 Surely against me is he turned, he turneth his hande dayly (against me.)

4 My

4 My flesshe and my skinne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he brused.
5 He hath builded agaynst me, and closed me in with gal and trauayle.
6 He hath set me in darkenesse, as they that be dead (for) euer.
B 7 He hath hedged me in, that I can not geat out, and he hath layde heauie lynkes vpon me.
8 Though I crye and cal pitiously, yet heareth he not my prayer.
9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with squared stones, and made my pathes crooked.
10 He layeth wayte for me (lyke) a beare, and (as) a Lion in a hole.
11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in peeces, he hath layde me waste.
12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke to * shoote at.
* or, for the arrowe.
13 The arrowes of his quiuer hath he shot, euen into my reynes.
C 14 I am laughed to scorne of al my people, they make songes vpon me al the day long.
Iere.20.b. 15 He hath fylled me with bytternesse, and made me drunken with woormewood.
16 He hath smitten my teeth in peeces with stones, and roulled me in the dust.
17 My soule departed from peace: I forgeat al good thynges.
18 And I sayde, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lorde.
19 O remember yet my miserie & my trouble, the woormewood, and the gal.
20 Yea in remembryng my soule dooth stil remember them, & is humbled within me.
D 21 I consyder these thynges in my hart, and I geat hope agayne.
22 (Namely) it is of the Lordes mercyes that we are not vtterly consumed, for truely his pitiful compassion hath not ceassed.
23 Newe mercies shal the Lord shewe vpon thee early in the day springyng, (O Lorde) great is thy faythfulnesse.
Psal.16.a. 24 The Lord is my portion, sayth my soule, therefore wyl I hope in hym.
25 O howe good is the Lorde vnto them that put their trust in hym, and to the soule that seeketh after hym.
26 The good man with stylnesse and patience tarieth for the healthy of the Lorde.
27 Good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon hym from his youth vp.
E 28 He sytteth alone, he holdeth hym styl, because he hath taken (the Lordes yoke) vpon hym.
* or, mouth 29 He layeth his * face vpon the earth, yf there happen to be any hope.
30 He offereth his cheeke to the smyter, he wyl be content with reproches.
31 For the Lorde wyl not forsake for euer.
32 But though he punishe, yet accordyng to the multitude of his mercies he receiueth to grace agayne. 1.Sam.3.b.
33 For he doth not plague wyllyngly, nor afflict the chyldren of men, 34 To treade al the prisoners of the earth vnder his feete,
35 To decline the iudgement of man before the most high, F
36 To condemne a man in his cause: "the Lorde hath not pleasure in suche thynges. "the Lorde seeth it not.
37 What is he then that sayth and it commeth to passe, and the Lorde commaunded it not?
38 Out of the mouth of the most high, goeth not euyl and good?
39 Wherefore then mourneth the lyuyng man? let him mourne for his owne sinne.
40 Let vs looke wel vpon our wayes, and remember our selues, and turne agayne to the Lorde. Iob.31.d. Psal.14.a.
41 Let vs lyft our hartes with our handes vnto God (that is) in the heauens. G
42 We haue sinned and rebelled, (therfore) hast thou not spared.
43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, and persecuted vs: thou hast slayne without any fauour.
44 Thou hast bid thee selfe in a cloud, that our prayers shoulde not goe through. Eccle.35.d.
45 Thou hast made vs as the offcouryng and refuse in the middest of the people.
46 Al our enimies gape vpon vs.
47 Feare and a snare is come vpon vs, yea desolation and destruction. Lamen.1.d.
48 Whole riuers of water gushe out of mine eyes for the hurte of the daughter of my people.
49 Myne eye runneth, and can not ceasse, for there is no reast,
50 Tyl the Lord looke downe from heauen and consyder.
51 Myne eyes breaketh my hart because of al the daughters of my citie.
52 Myne enimies hunted me out sharpely like a birde, yea and that without a cause.
53 They haue shut vp my lyfe in a dungeon, and cast stones vpon me.
54 The waters flowed ouer my head: then thought I (nowe) am I vndone.
55 I called vpon thy name, O Lorde, out of the deepe pyt.
56 Thou hast heard my voyce, withdrawe not thine eare from my sighing and crying.
57 Thou drewest nigh vnto me when I called vpon thee: and hast sayd, Feare not.
58 Thou (O Lorde) hast mayntayned the cause of my soule, & hast redeemed my life.
59 O Lorde thou hast seene my wrong, take thou my cause vpon thee.

60 Thou

60 Thou haſt ſeene al their vengeance, and al their deuiſes againſt me.
61 Thou haſt heard their diſpiteful woꝛdes, O Loꝛde, yea and al their imaginations againſt me:
62 The lyppes of them that ryſe againſt me, & their deuiſes that they take againſt me al the day long.
63 Beholde (alſo) their ſitting downe and their ryſing vp, (nowe) I am their ſong.
64 Reward them, O Loꝛde, accoꝛdyng to the woꝛkes of their handes.
* oꝛ, ſoꝛowe of hart. 65 Geue them * an obſtinate hart, euen thy curſe.
66 Perſecute them, O Loꝛde, with thyne indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauen.

13 They haue taken young men to grinde, and the boyes faynted vnder the (burdens) of wood.

14 The elders haue ceassed from the gates, C and the young menne from their songes.

* or, our daunce. * or, crowne 15 The ioy of our hart is gonne, our * melodious meetyng is turned into mourning.

16 The * garlande of our head is fallen: alas that euer we sinned.

17 Therefore our hart is ful of heauynesse, Iere.31.a and for these thinges our eyes are dimme.

18 Because of the hyl of Sion that is destroyed: (insomuche that) the foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou, O Lorde, remaynest for euer, D and thy seate worlde without ende:

20 Wherfore wylt thou styl forget vs, and forsake vs so long?

21 O Lorde, turne thou vs vnto thee, and (so) shal we be turned, renue our dayes as in olde tymes:

22 But thou hast banniched vs vtterly, and hast benne exceedyngly displeased at vs.

The ende of the lamentations of Ieremie.

The booke of the prophete Ezechiel.

The fyrst Chapter.

I. The tyme wherein Ezechiel prophecied, and in what place. 3. His kinrede, 5. The vision of the foure beastes. 16. The fashion and woorke of the wheeles. 26. The vision of the throne.

(a) After the Iubilee, in whiche yeere the booke of the lawe was found: which was the .18. yeere of Iosias, so that .25 yeeres after this booke was founde, Iechonias was led away captiue with Ezechiel (and many of the people) who the fift yeere after sawe these visions.

IT came to passe in the (a) thyrtieth yeere in ỹ fourth (moneth) in ỹ fifth day of ỹ moneth, that (I beyng in the middes of the captiuitie, by the ryuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, and I sawe visions of God:

2 In the fifth (day) of the moneth, whiche was the fyfth yeere of kyng Ioakims captiuitie,

3 The woorde of the Lorde came to Ezechiel the priest the sonne of Buzi, in the lande of the Chaldeans by the riuer Chebar, where the hand of the Lord was vpon hym.

4 And I looked, & beholde a stormie winde came out of the north, a great cloude, and a fyre foldyng it selfe (in the cloude) and a bryghtnesse rounde about it, and foorth of the myddes thereof as the colour of Amber out of the middes of the fyre.

(b) Whiche were the foure Cherubims that represented the glory of God, as Ezech.3.b

5 And out of the middes therof, the likenes of foure (b) beastes (appeared) and this was their fourme: They had ỹ likenes of a man.

6 And

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure winges.

7 Their feete were straight feete, and the sole of their feete like the sole of calues feete, and they glistred as the appearance of brasse burnished.

8 From vnder their winges vppon al the foure * corners they had mens hands: and they foure had their faces & their winges.

* or, quarters.

9 Their winges were ioyned one to another: when they went, they looked not backe, but eche one went straight forward.

10 But (touchyng) the similitude of their faces, they foure had the (c) face of a man and the face of a lion on the ryght syde, and they foure had the face of an Oxe on the leaft syde, they foure also had the face of an Eagle.

(c) Euery Cherub had foure faces, the face of a man and of a lion on the ryght syde, and the face of a bullocke and of an Egle on the leaft syde.

11 Thus were their faces: and their winges were spread out aboue, (so that) two (winges) of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two (wynges) couered (euery one of) their bodies.

12 Euery one went straight forwarde: (d) whyther as the spirite led them, thyther they went, and returned not in their goeing.

(d) Whither their wyl or minde was to goe.

13 And the fashion of the beastes, their appearance was like coales of fyre, burnyng like the appearance of cressets, it ranne among the beastes, and the fyre gaue a glister, and out of the fyre there went lightnyng.

C 14 And the beastes ranne, and returned like lightning.

15 When I had consydered the beastes, beholde a wheele vpon the earth nigh to the beastes, to * euery of the foure before his face.

* or, hauing foure faces.

16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles was like the colour of (e) Tharsis, and they foure had one fashion, and their fashion and their worke (was) as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

(e) That is, a precious stone of a goodly colour, thought to be the Thurkis.

17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sydes: they turned not when they went.

18 They had (f) ringes, and height, and were fearefull to beholde: and their ringes were ful of eyes rounde about them foure.

(f) The vtter compasse of the wheeles, whiche some cal strakes.

19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beastes were lyft vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp.

20 Whyther soeuer the spirite (was) to goe, they went, and thither (was) the spirite of the wheeles to goe, and the wheeles were lyft vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.

21 When the beastes went, they went, and when they stoode, they stoode, and when they were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyfted vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in ỹ wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the fyrmament vppon the heades of the beastes, was like the colour of chrystal woonderful, spread ouer their heades aboue. D

23 And vnder the firmament their winges were straight (foorth) one towardes another, euery one had two couernyng them, and (g) euery one had two couering them, (euen) their bodyes.

(g) He noteth two maner of couerings, the one with wings, stretched vpward to couer their faces, & the other with the neather winges to couer their bodyes.

24 And when they went, I heard the noyse of their winges, like the noise of many waters as the voyce of the almighty, the voyce of speache as the noyse of an hoast: when they stoode, they let downe their winges.

25 And there was a voyce from the fyrmament that was ouer their heades, when they stood, and had let downe their wings.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion of a throne like a Saphire stone: and vpon the similitude of the throne by appearance, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.

27 And I sawe as the appearance of Amber (and) as the similitude of fyre round about within, from the appearance of his loynes vpwarde: and from the appearance of his loynes and downewarde I sawe as the likenesse of fyre, and brightnesse rounde about it.

28 As the likenesse of a bowe that is in a cloude in the day of rayne, so was the appearance of the brightnesse rounde about: this was the appearance of the similitude of the glory of the Lorde, and when I sawe it, I (h) fel vpon my face, and heardkened vnto the voyce of one (i) that spake.

(h) Consyderyng the maiestie of god, and the weakneſſe of fleashe.

(i) That is, the Lorde.

The. ii. Chapter.

The prophete is sent to call the people from their errour.

1 AND then sayde he vnto me, Stand vp vpon thy feete (O thou sonne of man) and I wyl talke with thee. A

2 And the spirite entred into me when he had spoken vnto me, and set me vpon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.

3 And he saide vnto me, Thou sonne of man, I sende thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious people whiche haue rebelled against me, both they and their forefathers haue wickedly behaued themselues against me, euen vnto this verye day.

4 For they are children of a * harde face and

* or, impudent.

and ſtiffe hart, I doo ſend thee vnto them, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God.

5 And whether they wyl heare or refuſe (for they are a rebellious houſe) yet they may knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

6 And thou ſonne of man feare them not, neither be afraide of their woordes, for "byers and thornes are with thee, and thou doeſt dwel among ſcorpions: feare not their woords, nor be abaſhed at their lokes, for they are a rebellious houſe.

" or, rebelles.

ℶ 7 And thou ſhalt ſpeake my woordes vnto them, whether they wyl heare or refuſe, for they are rebellious.

" or, heare. 8 Therfore thou ſonne of man, "obey thou al thinges that I ſay vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious like the rebellious houſe: open thy mouth, and (a) eate that I geue thee.

(a) That is, print in thy memorie, or receaue in thyne hart al my words, as Ezec. iii. b

9 And I looked, and beholde a hande was ſent vnto me, and loe, in it was a roule of a booke.

10 And he opened it before me, and it was written within and without, and there was written therein (b) lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

(b) That is, gods iudgementes agaynſt the wicked.

The. iii. Chapter.

1. The prophete beyng fedde with the worde of God, and with the conſtant boldneſſe of the ſpirite, is ſent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17. The office of true preachers.

א 1 AFter this ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, eate what ſo euer thou fyndeſt, eate this roule, and goe thy way, and ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fedde me with this roule.

3 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thy belly ſhal eate, and thy bowels ſhalt thou fyll with this roule that I geue thee: then did I eate, and it was in my mouth as ſweete as honie.

4 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, goe, geat thee vnto the houſe of Iſrael, and declare my woordes vnto them.

Pſal. 19. b.

5 For not to a people of "profounde lippes and harde language art thou ſent, but vnto the houſe of Iſrael:

" ſtrange ſpeache.

6 Not to many nations of a ſtrange ſpeache and hard langnages, whoſe woordes thou vnderſtandeſt not: certainely yf I had ſent thee vnto them, they woulde haue hearkened vnto thee.

7 But the houſe of Iſrael wyl not hearken vnto thee, for they wyl not hearken vnto me: for al the houſe of Iſrael haue ſtiffe foreheades, and ſtubburne hartes.

8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face ℶ ſtrong againſt their faces, and thy forehead ſtrong agaynſt their foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint ſtone haue I made thy forehead: thou ſhalt not feare them, nor be abaſhed at theyr lookes: for they are a rebellious houſe.

10 He ſaid moreouer vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, al my woordes that I ſhal ſpeake vnto thee receaue in thyne hart, and hearken with thyne eares.

11 And goe, geat thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, & thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto them, and ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God: but ſurely they wyll not heare, neither wyl they leaue of.

12 With that the ſpirite tooke me vp, and I hearde behinde me a voyce of a great ruſhing, (to wit,) Bleſſed be the glory of Iehouah from his place.

13 (I hearde) alſo the noyſe of the winges of the beaſtes ioynyng one with another, and the ratling of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyſe of great ruſhing.

14 Nowe when the ſpirite lyft me vp and ℭ tooke me away, I went in bitterneſſe and furie of my ſpirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was ſtrong.

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I ſate where they ſate, & I remayned there ſeuen dayes aſtoniſhed among them.

16 And when the ſeuen dayes were expired, the Lorde ſayde vnto me,

17 Thou ſonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefore thou ſhalt heare the woorde at my mouth, and geue them warnyng from me. Ezech. 33. b

18 When I ſhal ſay vnto the wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou geueſt not hym warnyng, nor ſpeakeſt to admonithe the wicked of his euil way, and ſo to liue: then ſhal the ſame vngodly man die in his owne vnrighteouſneſſe, but his blood wyl I require of thyne hande.

19 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou geue warnyng vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlyneſſe & from his wicked way: he ſhal dye in his owne wickednesſe, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

20 Agayne, yf a ryghteous man turne from ℶ his ryghteouſneſſe and doo the thing that is euil, I wyl lay a ſtumbling blocke before him: and he ſhal dye, becauſe thou haſt not geuen him warning, dye ſhal he in his owne ſinne, ſo that his righteouſneſſe which he hath done ſhal not be thought vpon: but his blood wyl I require at thyne hande.

21 Neuer-

21 Neuertheleſſe yᵗ thou admoniſhe that ryghteous man, that the ryghteous ſinne not, and ſo the ryghteous do not ſinne: then ſhal he lyue, becauſe he hath receiued thy warnyng, and thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

22 And the hande of the Lorde was there vpon me, and he ſayde vnto me, * Stande vp, and goe into the feeld, that I may there talke with thee.

* or, aryſe.

23 So when I had ryſen vp, and gonne forth into the feelde, beholde the (a) glory of the Lorde ſtoode there, lyke the glorye whiche I ſawe by the riuer Chebar: then fel I downe vpon my face.

(a) Meanyng the viſion of the Cherubims and the wheeles.

24 And the ſpirite came into me, which ſet me vp vpon my feete, and ſpake vnto me, and ſayde vnto me, * Goe thy way, and ſhut thee ſelfe in thyne houſe.

* or, geat thee in.

25 Beholde, O thou ſonne of man, * they haue prepared bandes agaynſt thee, & they wyl bynde thee with them, and thou ſhalt not goe out among them.

* or, they ſhal put bondes vpon thee.

26 And I wyl make thy tongue (b) cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou ſhalt be dumbe, & not be as a reprouer vnto them: for they are a rebellious houſe.

(b) It is a great plague of God towarde the people, when he cauſeth the miniſters to ceaſſe preachyng & rebukyng of ſinne.

27 But when I ſpeake vnto thee, I wyl open thy mouth, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God: Who ſo heareth, let hym heare, who ſo leaueth of, let hym leaue: for they are a rebellious houſe.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The ſiege of the citie of Hieruſalem is ſignified. 9. The long continuance of the captiuitie of Iſrael. 16. A hunger is prophecied to comme in the captiuitie.

AND thou ſonne of man, take thee a tyle ſtone, and lay it before thee, and purtray vpon it the citie Hieruſalem,

2 And lay ſiege againſt it, and buylde a fort againſt it, and caſt a mount againſt it: ſet the campe alſo againſt it, and lay engins of warre againſt it rounde about.

(a) Hereby he repreſented the idolatrie and ſinne of the tenne tribes, (for Samaria was on his left hande from Babylon) and how they had remayned therin three hundred and nineteene yeeres.

3 Moreouer take an iron panne, and ſet it betwixt thee and the citie for an iron wal, then ſet thy face towarde it to beſiege it, & make an aſſault againſt it: this ſhalbe a token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

4 But thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon thy left ſide, and lay the ſinne (a) of the houſe of Iſrael vpon it: (accordyng) to the number of the dayes that thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon it, thou ſhalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue layde vpon thee the yeeres of their iniquitie accordyng to the number of the dayes (euen) three hundred and ninetie "dayes, ſo ſhalt thou beare the iniquitie of the houſe of Iſrael.

"vnderſtãde ſhal they be.

6 When thou haſt fulfylled theſe dayes, (lye downe agayne) and ſleepe vpon thy (b) ryght ſide, and beare the ſinnes of the houſe of Iuda: fourtie dayes haue I appoynted thee, (c) a day for a yeere (euen) a day for a yeere.

(b) Whiche declared Ioſuah, who had nowe frō the tyme of Ioiuah ſlept in theyr ſinnes fourtie yeeres.

(c) That is, for euery yeere they haue ſinned, to ſleepe one day.

7 Therefore ſet nowe thy face towarde the ſiege of Hieruſalem, and diſcouer thyne arme, that thou mayeſt prophecie agaynſt it.

8 Behold, I wyl lay * chaynes vpon thee, that thou ſhalt not turne thee from one ſide to another, tyl thou haſt ended the dayes of thy beſiegyng.

* or, bandes

9 Wherefore take vnto thee wheate, barly, beanes, lintils, millot, and fitches, and put theſe togeather in a veſſel, and make thee loaues of bread thereof, accordyng to the number of the dayes * that thou muſt lye vpon thy ſide, that thou mayeſt haue bread to eate for three hundred and ninetie daies.

* or, that thou muſt ſleepe.

10 And thy meate that thou eateſt (ſhalbe) by wayght, (namely) twentie ſickles euery day: and from tyme to tyme ſhalt thou eate thereof.

11 Thou ſhalt drinke alſo water by meaſure, (namely) the ſyxth (part) of an Hin: from tyme to tyme ſhalt thou drinke.

12 Barly cakes ſhalt thou eate, and them ſhalt thou bake in (d) mans doung before their eyes.

(d) Signifiyng hereby the great ſcarcitie of fuel & matter to burne.

13 And with that ſayde the Lorde, Euen thus ſhal the chyldren of Iſrael eate their defiled bread among the Gentiles whither I wyl caſt them.

14 Then ſayde I, Oh Lorde God, behold, my ſoule was yet neuer ſtayned, for fro my youth vp vnto this houre I dyd neuer eate of a dead carkaſſe, or of that whiche was ſlayne of wyld beaſtes, neyther came there euer any vncleane fleaſhe in my mouth.

15 (Whereunto) he anſweared me, Lo I wil grant thee (e) cowe aſſins in ſtede of mans doung, and thou ſhalt make thy bread with them.

(e) To be as fire to bake thy bread with.

16 And he ſayde vnto me, Beholde thou ſonne of man, I wyl breake the (f) ſtaffe of bread in Hieruſalem, and they ſhal eate their bread with wayght and with care, and their water in meaſure, and aſtoniſhement ſhal they drinke,

(f) That is, the force and ſtrength wherewith it ſhoulde nouriſhe.

17 That they hauyng a lacke of bread and water, may be aſtonied one at another, and be conſumed in their iniquitie.

The. v. Chapter.

1. The ſigne of the heares, by which is ſignified the deſtruction of the people. 6. The cauſes of the anger of God towarde the people.

A 1 AND thou ſonne of man, take thee then a ſharpe knife (namely) a barbers raſour, take that to thee, and cauſe it to (a) paſſe vpon thy head and vpō thy beard: then take thee wayght ſcales and diuide (the heare.)

(a) To ſhaue thy head and bearde.

2 Thou ſhalt burne with fire the third part in the middes of the (b) citie whē the dayes of the ſiege are fulfilled, and thou ſhalt take the other thirde part and ſmite about it with a knife, and the laſt thirde part thou ſhalt ſcatter in the wynde, and I wyl draw out a ſwoorde after them.

(b) To wit, of that citie whiche he had purtrayed vpon the bricke, chap. 4. By the fire he meaneth famine and peſtilence, wherewith one part periſhed during the ſiege of Nabuchodonoſor: by the ſword, thoſe that were ſlayne when Zedekias fled, thoſe that were caryed away captiue: and by the ſcatteryng into the wynde, thoſe that fled into Egypt, and into other partes after the citie was taken.

3 Thou ſhalt alſo take therof a few in number, and bynde them in thy lap.

4 Of them yet ſhalt thou take, & caſt them into the middeſt of the fire, and burne them in the fire: therof ſhal a fyre comme forth into all the houſe of Iſrael.

5 Moreouer, thus ſaith the lord God, This ſame is Hieruſalem, whiche I ſet in the middeſt of nations and countreys rounde about her.

6 But ſhe hath changed my iudgementes into wickednes more then the nations, and my ſtatutes more then the countreys that are rounde about her: for they haue refuſed my iudgements and my ſtatutes, and haue not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, For your (c) multiplyeing more then the Gentiles that dwel rounde about you, and becauſe ye haue not walked in my lawes, neyther haue ye kept my ordinances, no, ye haue not donne accordyng to the iudgementes of the nations that are round about you:

(c) Becauſe ye haue encreaſed the number of your idols & ſuperſtitions more then the Gentiles.

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I wyl alſo (comme) agaynſt thee, I mee ſelfe I ſay: for in the middeſt of thee wyl I execute iudgement in the ſight of the Heathen.

9 And I wyl doo in thee as I neuer dyd (before) and as I wyl neuer doo the lyke from that tyme forth, & that becauſe of al thyne abominations.

10 For in the middeſt of thee the fathers ſhal eate their owne ſonnes, and the ſonnes ſhal eate their owne fathers, and I wyl execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnant of thee wyl I ſcatter into al the wyndes.

11 Wherfore, as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, Surely ſeyng thou haſt defiled my ſanctuarie with al maner of abominations, and with al ſhamefull offences:

12 For this cauſe wyl I alſo deſtroy thee, myne eye ſhal not ſpare thee, neyther wyl I haue any pitie.

13 One thirde part of thee ſhal dye of the peſtilence, and ſhalbe conſumed of hunger in the middeſt of thee, another thirde part ſhalbe ſlayne downe rounde about thee with the ſwoorde, the other thirde part (that remayneth) wyl I ſcatter abroade toward al the wyndes, & drawe out a ſwoord after them.

14 Thus wyl myne indignation be perfourmed, & I wyl cauſe my wrath to ceaſſe among them, and I wyl be (d) comforted: ſo that when I haue fulfylled myne anger agaynſt them, they ſhal knowe that I the Lorde with a feruent ielouſie haue ſpoken it. C

(d) That is, I wyl not be pacified tyl I be reuenged. Eſai. 1. c.

15 Moreouer, I wyl make thee waſte, and a reproch among al the Heathen that dwel about thee, in the ſight of al them that goe by thee.

16 So thou ſhalt be a reproche and ſhame, a chaſtiſement and a wondryng vnto the nations that are rounde about thee, when I ſhal execute iudgementes in thee, in anger and in wrath, and in ſharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue ſpoken it:

17 When I ſhal ſhoote among them the perilous (e) dartes of hunger, whiche ſhalbe for their deſtruction, therefore ſhal I ſhoote them, becauſe I wyl deſtroy you, I wyl encreaſe hunger vpon you, and wyl breake your ſtaffe of bread.

(e) Which be the graſſhoppers, myldeawe, and whatſoeuer were occaſions of famine

18 " Plagues wyl I ſende vpon you, yea and wicked beaſtes alſo to ſpoyle thee, peſtilence and bloodſheddyng ſhal come vpon thee, and the ſwoorde wyl I bryng ouer thee: I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

" or, famine

The. vi. Chapter.

1. He ſheweth that the people ſhalbe plagued for the ſinne of idolatrie.

1 AND the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing, A

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face to the mountaynes of Iſrael, and propheſie agaynſt them,

3 And ſay, Heare the woorde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, Thus hath the Lord God ſpoken to the (a) mountaynes, hylles, riuers, and dales, Beholde (euen I) wyl bring a ſwoorde vpon you, and I wyl deſtroy your hygh places. Ezech. 30. a

(a) He ſpeaketh to al the places where the Iſraelites accuſtomed to commit their idolatries, threatnyng them deſtruction.

4 Your aulters ſhalbe deſtroyed, and your images of the ſonne ſhalbe broken downe, your ſlayne men wyl I caſt downe before your idols.

5 And the dead carkaſſes of the chyldren of Iſrael wyl I " caſt before their idolles, your bones wil I ſcatter round about your aulters.

" or, lay.

6 In al your dwellyng places your cities ſhalbe 2. king. 23. c shalbe desolate, and the high places laide waste, so that your aulters shalbe made waste and desolate, your idols shalbe broken * and abolished, and your images of the sunne shalbe cut downe, & your workes quite taken away.

* or, and cease.

B 7 The slaine shal fall among you: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Yet wyl I leaue a remnant, that you may haue (some) that shal escape the sword among the nations, when ye shalbe scattered through the countreys.

9 And they that escape of you shal thinke vpon me among the heathen where they shalbe in captiuitie, because I haue benne * broken: for their whorishe hart whiche hath departed from me, and for their eyes that haue gone a whoring after their idols: and * they shalbe abhorred before their owne eyes for the euyls whiche they haue committed in al their abominations.

* or, greened.

* or, they shalbe ashamed of them selues.

10 And they shal know that I am the Lord, and that I haue not saide in vaine, that I woulde doo this euyl vnto them.

11 Thus sayth the Lord God, * (b) Smite thyne handes togeather, and stampe with thy feete, and say, Wo worth al the abominations and wickednesses of the house of Israel: for they shal fal with the sword, with hunger, and with pestilence.

* or, smite with thyne hande, and spurne with thy foote.

(b) He wylleth the prophete not only with wordes, but also with gestures of hande and foote, to signifye the destruction to come.

12 Who so is farre of, shal dye of the pestilence, he that is nigh at hande shal perishe with the sworde, and the remnant that are besieged shal dye of hunger: thus wyl I satisfye my wrathful displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shal ye knowe that I am the Lord, when their slayne men shalbe among their idols rounde about their aulters, vppon euery high hil, and toppes of mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree, and vnder euery thicke oke, (euen) in the places where they dyd offer sweete sauour to al their idols.

14 I wyl stretche mine hand out vpon them, and wyl make the land waste and desolat, (c) from the wildernesse vnto Diblath through al their habitations: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) Some reade, more desolat then the wylderneſſe of Diblath, which was in Syria, and bordered vpon Israel: but it may stande wel for the wyldernesse whiche was south vnto Diblath, whiche was north, meanyng the whole countrey.

The. vii. Chapter.

2. The ende of al the lande of Israel shal sodaynely comme. 20. The cause of the destruction thereof. 23. The prophete is commaunded to shewe the summe of the euyls that are at hande.

A 1 THe woord of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde God, An ende is comme vnto the lande of Israel: yea verily the ende commeth vpon the foure corners of the lande.

3 Nowe shal the ende come vpon thee: for I wyl sende my wrath vpon thee, and wyl * punishe thee according to thy wayes, and * rewarde thee after al thyne abominations.

* or, iudge thee.

* or, lay vpon thee.

4 Myne eye shal not spare thee, neyther wyl I haue pitie, but * rewarde thee according to thy wayes, and declare thyne abominations: then shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde.

* or, I wyl lay thy wayes vpon thee, and thyne abominations shalbe in the middest of thee.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Behold, one euyl shal comme after another:

6 The ende is here, the ende (I say) is come, it watched for thee: beholde it is comme (alredy.)

(a) That is, the beginning of thy punishment.

7 The (a) morning is comme vnto thee that dwellest in the lande, the time is at hande, the day of trouble is hard by, and not the (b) sounding againe of the mountaynes.

(b) That is, no vayne or counterfaite crie, as is the eccо in the hilles.

8 Nowe I wyl shortly powre out my sore displeasure ouer thee, and fulfyl my wrath vppon thee: I wyl iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee al thyne abominations.

9 Myne eye shal not spare, neither wyl I haue pitie, but * rewarde thee after thy wayes, and thyne abominations shalbe in the middest of thee: and ye shal know that I am the Lorde that smiteth.

* or, lay vpon thee.

10 Beholde the day, beholde it is come, the morning is gonne forth, the rodde (c) florisheth, pride hath budded.

(c) Meanyng Nabuchodonosor, whom god had appoynted to be a rod to scourge them.

11 Crueltie is waxen to a rodde of wickednesse, none of them (shal remayne,) none of their richesse, * not one of their seede, and no lamentation shalbe made for them.

* or, none of their pleasures.

12 The time commeth, the day draweth nie: who so byeth, let him not reioyce, he that selleth, let him not be sory: for wyl wrath is vpon al the multitude thereof.

(d) That is, in the yere of Iubilee, whē euery man returned to such possessions as he solde before. Leuit. xxv. b

13 So that the seller shal not come agayne to the thyng that he solde, although their life be (d) yet with the liuyng: for when the prophecie was preached vnto al the people, none returned, no man shal (e) strengthen him selfe in the iniquitie of his lyfe.

(e) Iniquitie shal make no man strong agaynst god.

14 (f) They haue blowen the trumpet, and made al redy, but none goeth to ỹ batail: for my wrath is vpō the whole multitude.

(f) The Israelites made a bragge, but their hartes fayled them.

15 The sworde (shalbe) without, pestilence and hunger within: so that who so is in the feelde shalbe slayne with the sworde, and he that is in the citie shalbe deuoured with hunger and pestilence.

16 But they that flee away from them shal escape, and shalbe in the mountaynes lyke the doues of the valleyes, al they ſhal mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

* or, bowels.

(g) Their gold and ſiluer brought them to this ruine or deſtruction.

20 He had alſo ſet the beautie of his (h) ornament in maieſtie: but they made images of their abominations and * fylthyneſſe in it, therefore haue I ſet it farre from them.

21 Moreouer, I wyl geue it into the handes of ſtrangers to be ſpoyled, and to the wicked of the earth for to be robbed, and they ſhal pollute it.

24 Wherefore I wyl bryng the moſt wicked of the heathen to take their houſes in poſſeſſion, I wyl make the pompe of the mighty to ceaſſe, and their (k) ſanctuaries ſhalbe defyled.

The. viii. Chapter.

2. An appearance of the ſimilitude of God. 3. Ezechiel is brought to Hieruſalem in the ſpirite. 6. The Lorde ſheweth the idolatries of the houſe of Iſrael, and chefely of the prieſtes.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Ieconias, ſo that there was fourteene monethes betwixt the firſt viſyon and this.

1 AND it was in the (a) firſt yeere, in the firſt (moneth), in the fifth (day) of the moneth, I ſate in my houſe, and the elders of Iuda ſate before me, and the hande of the Lorde God fel there vpon me.

2 Then I beheld, and loe (there was) a likeneſſe as the appearance of fyre: from the appearance of his loynes downeward, fyre: and from his loynes vpwarde as the appearance of bryghtneſſe, like (the colour of) amber.

3 And he ſtreatched out the likeneſſe of an hande, and tooke me by an hearie locke of my head, and the ſpirite lyft me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and (b) brought me in a diuine viſion to Hieruſalem, into the entry of the inner (c) gate that lyeth toward the north, where remained the * image of (d) emulation (and) of gayne.

(b) This was in the ſpirit, and not in body.

(c) The porch or court where the people aſſembled.

* or, idol.

(d) Of emulation, becauſe it diſpleaſed god: of gayne, becauſe it was ſet vp and worſhipped for gayne & increaſe of their offeringes for the prieſtes, and of theyr catel & ſubſtance for the people,

4 And beholde, the glory of the God of Iſrael (was) in the ſame place, (euen) as I had ſeene it afore in the feelde.

5 And he ſaid vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, lyft vp thyne eyes nowe toward the north: then lyft I vp myne eyes towarde the north, and beholde northwarde at the gate of the (e) aulter this * image of emulation (was) in the entrye.

(e) That was in the court where the people had made an aulter to Baal,

* or, idol.

6 And he ſaide furthermore vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, ſeeſt thou not what theſe do? (namely) the great abominations that the houſe of Iſrael commit in this place, to driue me from my ſanctuarie? but turne thee about, and thou ſhalt ſee yet greater abominations.

7 And with that brought he me to the court gate, and when I looked, beholde there was a hole in the wall.

8 Then ſaide he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, digge nowe in the wall: and when I digged in the wall, beholde (there was) a dooze.

9 And he ſayde vnto me, Goe thy way in, and loke what wicked abominations they doo heere.

10 So I went in and ſawe, and beholde (there were) al manner of creepyng thinges, (f) and abominable beaſtes, and al the idols of the houſe of Iſrael paynted vpon the wall rounde about.

(f) Whiche were forbidden in the law Leui. xi.

11 There ſtood alſo before the images three ſcore and tenne menne of the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael, and in the middeſt of them ſtoode Iaazaniah the ſonne of Saphan, with euery man his cenſor in his hande, and the ſmoke of the incenſe aſſended as a cloude.

* or, in the darke.

12 Then ſaide he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, haſt thou ſeene what the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael doo * ſecretly, euery one in the (g) chamber of his imagerie? for they ſay, The Lorde ſeeth vs not, the Lorde

(g) For beſid their common idolatrie they had their particuler ſeruice in their ſecrete places or pewes.

Lorde hath forsaken the earth.

13 And he sayde vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they doo.

14 And with that he brought me to the doore of the gate of the Lordes house towarde the North, and beholde there sate women mournyng for (h) Thammuz.

15 Then sayde he vnto me, Hast thou seene this, thou sonne of man? Turne thee yet about, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these are.

16 And so he brought me into the inwarde court of the Lordes house, and behold, at the doore of the Lordes house, betwixt the porch and the aulter, there were about twentie and fyue men that turned theyr backes vpon the temple of the Lord, and theyr faces towarde the East, and these woorshypped the sunne eastwarde.

17 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene (this) thou sonne of man? Thynketh the house of Juda that it is but a tryfle to doo these abominations which they doo heere? for they haue filled the lande ful of wickednesse, and haue returned to prouoke me (to anger) and loe, (i) they are puttyng the * branches to theyr noses.

18 Therefore wyl I also doo somethyng in my wrathful displeasure, so that myne eye shal not spare them, neither wyl I haue pitie: yea, and though they crie in mine eares with a loude voyce, yet wyl I not heare them.

(h) The Iewes say, this was a prophete of the idolles, who after his death was once a yeere mourned for in the night, only of women. Saint Hierome taketh it for Adonis, Venus louer. Other thinke it was Osyris an idol of the Egyptians.

* or, stinch.

(i) They smelled to theyr branches, flowers, or posies, in doing their sacrifice to the sunne, which yet before god was vile & stincking, howe sweete soeuer they seemed to them selues.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. The destruction of the citie. 4. They that shalbe saued are marked. 8. A complaynt of the prophete for the destruction of the people.

1 HE cried also with a loud voice in mine eares, sayeing, Drawe neare ye (a) visitations of the citie, euery man with a destroying weapon in his hande.

(a) The persons appointed to visite the citie, as Nabuchodonosor & his captaynes.

2 And behold, then came there (b) sixe men out of the streete of the vpper gate towarde the North, and euerye man a slaughter weapon in his hande: There was one amongest them that had on hym lynnen rayment, and a wryters (c) inckhorne by his side: these went in, and stood beside the brasen aulter.

(b) Whiche were sixe angels, in lykenesse of men.

3 And the glorye of the God of Israel was gone from the Cherub whereupon it was, to the doore of the house: and he called to the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon him, and the wryters inckhorne by his side.

(c) To marke them that shoulde be saued from destruction.

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Goe thorowe the myddest of the citie, euen thorowe the middest of Hierusalem, and set a marke vpon the foreheades of them that mourne and * are sory for al the abominations that be done therein.

* or, crye.

5 And to the other he sayde that I myght heare, Goe ye after hym through the citie, and smyte, let your eye spare none, neyther haue ye any pitie:

6 Kyl and destroy both olde men and young maydens, chyldren, and women: but as for al those that haue the marke vppon them, see that ye touche them not, and begyn at my sanctuarie. Then they began at the antient men whiche were before the house.

7 And he sayde vnto them, Defyle ye the temple, fyl the courtes with the slaine, then goe your way forth. So they went out, and slue downe through the citie.

8 Nowe when they had done the slaughter, and I yet escaped, I fel downe vppon my face, and cryed, sayeing, Ah Lorde God, wylt thou then destroy al the residue of Israel, in powryng out thy wrath vpon Hierusalem?

9 Then sayde he vnto me, The wickednes of the house of Israel and Juda is exceedyng great: so that the land is ful of blood, and the citie ful of revoltyng (from God:) for they say, The Lorde hath forsaken the earth, and the Lorde seeth it not. Esai. 1. c.

10 As touchyng me also, myne eye shal not spare them, neyther wyl I haue pitie: but wyl recompence theyr wayes vppon theyr heades.

11 And beholde, the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and the wryters inckhorne by his syde, reported the matter, and sayde, As thou hast commaunded me, so haue I done.

The. x. Chapter.

2. Of the man that tooke hot burnyng coales out of the myddle of the wheeles of the Cherubims.

1 AND as I looked, beholde in the firmament that was aboue the head of the (a) Cherubims, as it were a Saphire stone (made) like the similitude of a throne, was seene ouer them. A Ezech. 1. d.

(a) Whiche in the fyrste chap. and fift vearse, he called the foure beastes

2 Then spake he to hym that had the lynnen raiment vpon him, and said, * Creepe in betweene the wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thyne hande ful of hot coales out from betwene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the citie. And he

* or, got.

* creepe

* or, went in.

* crept in, that I myght see.

3 (Nowe the Cherubims stoode vppon the ryght syde of the house when the man went in, & the cloude filled the inner court.

4 And the glory of the Lord remoued from the Cherubims, and came vppon the doore of the house: so that the temple was filled with a cloude, and the court was ful of the shyne of the Lordes glory.

5 Yea, and the sounde of the Cherubims wynges was heard into the fore court, like as it had benne the voyce of the almyghtye God when he speaketh.)

6 Nowe when he had bydden the man that was clothed in lynnen, saying, Take fyre from the myddest of the wheeles, & from the mydst of the Cherubims: he went and stoode beside the wheeles.

℣ 7 Then one Cherub reached forth his hand from betweene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, & tooke therof, and gaue it into the handes of hym that had on the linnen raiment: which took it, and went out.

8 And vnder the winges of the Cherubims there appeared the lykenesse of a mans hande.

9 I looked also, and beholde, foure wheeles beside the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to looke vppon after the fashion of the precious stone Tharsis.

Ezech.1.c.

10 As touchyng their appearaunce, (they were al foure of one fashion) as yf one wheele had ben in another.

11 When they went forth, they went vpon their foure sides, not turning backe in their goyng: for whiche way the (head of the) first looked, after it they went, so that they turned not backe in their goeyng.

12 And their whole bodyes, their backes, their handes, and their wynges, yea, and the wheeles also were ful of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.

Ezech.1.c.

13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearyng, O wheele.

℣ 14 Euery one of them had foure faces, so that the face of the fyrste was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the second the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a lyon, and of the fourth the face of an Egle.

Ezech.1.a.

15 And the Cherubims were lyfted vp: this is the beast that I sawe at the water of Chebar.

16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges to mount vp from the earth, the same wheeles also turned not from besides them.

17 (Shortly) when they stoode, these stoode also, and when they were lyfted vp, the (wheeles) lyfte vp them selues also with them: for the (b) spirite of the beast was in the (wheeles.)

(b) There was one consent betwene the Cherubims and the wheeles.

18 Then the glorye of the Lorde departed from aboue the dooze of the temple, and remayned vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims flackred with their wynges, and lyfte them selues vp from the earth in my sight: when they went, the wheeles were besides them, & they stoode at the dooze of the east gate of the house of the Lorde: so the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on hygh.

20 This is the (c) beast that I sawe vnder the God of Israel by the ryuer Chebar, & I perceyued that it was the Cherubims.

(c) That is, the whole body of the foure beastes or Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure winges, and vnder their wynges the lykenesse of mens handes.

22 The similitude of their countenances, were the very same countenances which I saw at the riuer Chebar, and the selfe same appearaunces: euery one in his goyng went strayght forwarde.

The.xii. Chapter.

1. Who they were that seduced the people of Israel. 5. Agayust these he prophecieth, shewyng them howe they shalbe dispearsed abroade.

MOreouer, the spirite lyft me vp, and brought me vnto the east gate of the Lordes house, which lyeth eastward: & behold, at the entry of the gate (were) fiue and twentie menne, among whom I sawe Iaazaniah the sonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people.

A

(a) We shal not be pulled out of Hierusalem, tyl the houre of our death come, as the flesshe is not taken out of the caldron tyl it be sod. (b) Contrary to their vain cõfidence he sheweth in what sense this citie was the caldron, that is, because of the dead bodyes that haue benne murdered therein, and so lye as the flesshe in the caldron.

2 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these men imagine mischefe, & a wicked counsayle take they in this citie,

3 Sayeing, It is not neare, let vs buylde houses: this (Hierusalem) is the (a) caldron, and we be the flesshe.

4 Therefore shalt thou propheeie agaynst them: yea propheeie, O sonne of man.

5 And with that fel the spirite of the Lorde vpon me, and saide vnto me, Speake, thus sayth the Lorde, On this manner haue ye spoken (O ye house of Israel) and I know the imaginations of your hartes.

6 Many one haue ye murdered in this citie, and filled the streetes ful of the slayne:

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, The slayne men that ye haue layd in the myddest of the (citie,) are the (b) flesshe, and this citie is the caldron: but I wyl bryng you out of it.

8 Ye

8 Ye haue feared the ſwoꝛd, and I wil bꝛing a ſwoꝛde ouer you, ſayth the Loꝛde God.
9 And I wyl bꝛyng you out of the myddeſt thereof, and deliuer you into the handes of ſtrangers, and wil execute iudgementes among you.
10 Ye ſhal fal by the ſwoꝛde, in the boꝛders of (c) Iſrael wyl I iudge you, and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Loꝛde.
11 This citie ſhal not be your caldꝛon, neither ſhal ye be the fleaſhe in the myddeſt thereof: but in the boꝛders of Iſrael wyl I " pounyſhe you.
12 That ye may knowe that I am the Loꝛd, in whoſe commaundementes ye haue not walked, noꝛ kept my lawes, but haue done after the cuſtomes of the heathen that lye rounde about you.
13 Nowe when I pꝛopheſied, (d) Pheltiah the ſonne of Banaiahu dyed: then fel I downe vpon my face, & cryed with a loude voyce, ſaying, Ah Loꝛde God, wylt thou then vtterly deſtroy al the remnant in Iſrael?
14 And ſo the woꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto me on this manner,
15 Thou ſonne of man, thy bꝛethꝛen (euen) thy bꝛethꝛen, the men of thy kinrede, and al the houſe of Iſrael, wholly (are they) vnto whom the inhabitantes of Hieruſalem haue ſayde: (e) Withdꝛawe ye farre from the Loꝛde, foꝛ the lande is geuen vs in poſſeſſion.
16 Therfoꝛe (tel them) thus ſayth the Loꝛd god, Although I ſend them farre of among the gentiles, and ſcatter them among the nations, yet wyl I be to them as a litle (f) ſanctuarie in the landes where they ſhal come.
17 Tel them alſo, Thus ſayth the Loꝛde God, I wil geather you agayne out of the nations, and bꝛing you from the countreys where ye be ſcattered, and I wil geue you the lande of Iſrael agayne.
18 And they ſhal come thither, and they ſhal take away al theyꝛ idols, and al theyꝛ abominations from thence.
19 And I wil geue them one hart, and I wyl put a newe ſpirite within theyꝛ bowelles: that ſtony hart wyl I take out of theyꝛ bodꝛy, and geue them a fleaſhly hart,
20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and keepe mine oꝛdinances, and do them, that they may be my people, and I theyꝛ God.
21 But to the hart of theyꝛ idols and theyꝛ abominatiõs theyꝛ hart goeth, their wayes wyl I bꝛyng vpon theyꝛ owne heades, ſaith the Loꝛde God.
22 After this did the Cherubims lyft vp theyꝛ wynges, and the wheeles beſydes them, and the gloꝛy of the GOD of Iſrael was vpon them on bygh.
23 So the gloꝛy of the Loꝛde went vp from the myddeſt of the citie, and ſtoode vpon the mount of the citie towarde the eaſt. Ezech. 10.a
24 And the ſpirite tooke me vp, and bꝛought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie in a viſion by the ſpirite of God: then the viſion that I had ſeene went vp from me.
25 So I ſpake vnto the (g) captiues al the wooꝛdes of the Loꝛd which he had ſhewed me.

(d) It ſeemed this noble man dyed of ſome terrible death, and therfore the prophete feared ſome ſtraunge iudgement of God toward the reſt of the people.
(e) They that remayned ſtyl at Hieruſalé, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were caſt of and forſaken of God.

The .xii. Chapter.

The parable of the captiuitie. 10. The expoſition of the parable, by which the takyng of king Zedekias is ſignified.

A 1 THe woꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto me, ſaying,
2 Thou ſonne of man, thou dwelleſt in the middeſt of a rebellious houſe, whiche haue eyes to ſee, and yet ſee not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: foꝛ they are a rebellious houſe.
3 Therefoꝛe (O thou ſonne of man) " pꝛepare thee inſtrumentes to flyt with, and remoue on the day tyme that they may ſee, yea (euen) in theyꝛ ſyght ſhalt thou goe from thy place to another place, if peraduenture they wyl conſyder that they be a rebellious houſe.
4 Thou ſhalt bꝛing foꝛth thine inſtrumentes as ſtuffe to flyt with by the day time in their ſight, & thou thee ſelfe ſhalt goe foꝛth alſo at euenyng befoꝛe theyꝛ eyes, as they that goe foꝛth to flyt.
5 Digge thꝛough the wal in theyꝛ ſight, and cary out thereby.
6 In theyꝛ ſyght ſhalt thou beare vpon thy ſhoulders, and cary it foꝛth in the darke: hyde thy face, that thou ſee not the earth, foꝛ I haue made thee a (a) ſhewe token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.
7 And I dyd ſo as I was commaunded, I bꝛought foꝛth my ſtuffe by day, as the ſtuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euenyng I dygged thꝛough the wal with my handes, and bꝛought it foꝛth in the darke, and bare it vpon my ſhoulder in theyꝛ ſyght.
8 And in the moꝛnyng came the wooꝛde of the Loꝛde vnto me, ſaying, 9 Thou ſonne of man, hath not the houſe of Iſrael, the rebellious houſe, ſayde vnto thee, (b) What doeſt thou?
10 Then tel them, thus ſaith the Loꝛd God, This " burden toucheth the prince at Hieruſalem, & al the houſe of Iſrael that dwel among " oꝛ, make thee veſſels to goe into captiuitie.

B (a) That as thou doeſt, ſo ſhal they do, and therfore in thee they ſhal ſee theyr owne plague and puniſhment.
(b) Do not they deride and mocke thy dwyngs?

among them.

11 Tel them, I am your shewe token, lyke as I haue done, so shal it be done vnto them, they shal goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them shal loade his shoulders in the darke, and geat hym away, they shal breake downe the wal to cary through by it: he shal couer his face, that he see not the grounde with his eyes.

C 13 My net wyl I (c) spreade out vpon him, and he shalbe caught in my "nette, and I wyl bryng hym to Babylon in the land of the Chaldees, whiche he shal not see, and yet shal he dye there.

(c) When the kyng shal thinke to escape by fleeing I wil take him in my net, as Ezec. 17.c.&.32.a

" Or, toiles.

14 As for al his helpers and al his bandes that be about hym, I wil scatter them towarde al the wyndes, and drawe out a swoorde after them.

15 So when I haue scattered them among the heathen, and strawed them in the landes, they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

Ezech.11.c

16 But I wil leaue a litle number of them from the swoorde, hunger, and pestilence, to tel al theyr abominations among the heathen where they come, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

17 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, with a fearful trembling eate thy bread, with vnquietnesse and sorowe drynke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the lande speake thou, Thus sayth the Lorde GOD vpon them that dwel in Hierusalem, and vpon the lande of Israel, They shal eate theyr bread with sorowe, and drynke theyr water with desolation: yea the lande after plentifulnesse shalbe layde waste for the wickednesse of al them that dwel therein.

20 And the cities that nowe be wel inhabited, shalbe voyde, and the lande desolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

D 21 Yet came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me agayne, saying, 22 Thou sonne of man, what manner of prouerbe is that whiche ye vse in the lande of Israel, saying, (d) The dayes are slacke in commyng, and al visions fayle?

(d) Because they did not see the prophecies accomplished, they cõtemned them as though they neuer should be fulfilled.

23 Tel them therfore, Thus sayth the Lord God, I wil make that prouerbe to ceasse, and they shal no more vse it as a prouerbe in Israel: but say vnto them, The dayes are at hande, and the effect of euery vision.

24 There shal no vision be anye more in vayne, neither anye flatrering diuination within the house of Israel:

25 For I the Lord speake it, and whatsoeuer I shal speake, it shalbe performed, and not be slacke in comming anye more, yea euen in your dayes, O rebellious house, wyl I speake the thyng, and bryng it to passe, sayth the Lorde God.

26 And the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

27 Beholde thou sonne of man, the house of Israel sayth (on his manner) The vision that he seeth, it wil be manye a day or it come to passe: it is farre of yet the tyme that he prophesieth of.

28 Therefore say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God, Al my woordes shal no more be delayed, looke what I speake, that same shal come to passe, sayth the Lorde God.

I. The worde of the Lorde agaynst false prophetes, which teache the people the counsels of theyr owne hartes.

1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, A

2 Thou sonne of man, prophesie against those prophetes of Israel which prophesie, and say vnto them that prophesie out of theyr owne hartes, Heare the woorde of the Lorde,

Iere.23.c.

3 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Wo be vnto those foolishe prophetes that folowe theyr owne spirite, and haue seene nothing.

4 O Israel, thy prophetes are like the foxes in (a) desart places.

(a) Watching to destroy the vineyardes, reade Cant.2.c.

5 For ye haue not stande vp in the gappes, nor made a hedge for the house of Israel, to stande in the battayle in the day of the Lorde.

6 They haue seene vanitie and lying diuination, saying, The Lorde sayth it: and the Lord hath not sent them, and they haue made (men) hope that they would confyrme the woorde.

7 Haue ye not seene vayne visions, and spoken false prophesies, when ye say, The lord hath spoken it, whereas I neuer sayde it? B

8 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Because ye haue spoken vanitie, and haue seene lyes: therefore beholde I am against you, sayth the Lorde God:

(b) What one false prophet did say (whiche is here called the building vp of a wal) another false prophete woulde affirme the same, though he had neyther occasion nor good grounde to beare hym.

9 Myne handes shalbe vpon the prophetes that see vanities and diuine lyes: they shal not be in the counsel of my people, nor written in the booke of the house of Israel, neyther shal they come in the lande of Israel, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde God:

10 And that for because they haue deceiued my people, and tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one setteth vp a (b) wal, and they daube it with vntempered clay.

11 Therefore tel them whiche daube with vntempered vntempred morter, that it shal fal: for there shal come a great showre of rayne, I wyll sende haylestones to cause it to fal, and a great storme of wynde shal breake it.

12 And loe, when the wal is fallen, shal it not then be saide vnto you, Where is nowe your * morter that ye dawbed withal?

* or, daubyng.

13 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl cause a stormie wynde to breake out in my wrathful displeasure, so that in myne anger there shal come a myghty showre of rayne, and haylestones in my wrath to destroy it.

C

(c) That is, whatsoeuer man of him selfe setteth forth, vnder the authoritie of gods woorde, and God alloweth it not.

14 As for the wal that ye haue daubed with vntempred morter, I wyl breake it downe, and make it euen with the grounde, so that the fundation therof shalbe discouered, and it shal fal: yea, and ye your selues shal perish in the myddes therof, and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

15 Thus wyl I perfourme my wrath vpon this wal, and vpon them that haue daubed it with (c) vntempred morter, and then wyl I say vnto you, The wal is * gonne, and the daubers of it.

* or, is no more.

(d) These superstitious women for lucre would propheſie, tel euery man his fortune, geuing them pyllowes to leane on, & kerchifes to couer their heades, that they myght the more allure them, and bewitch them.

16 (To wit) the prophetes of Israel, which prophecie vpon Hierusalem, and looke out visions of peace for it, whereas no peace is, sayth the Lorde God.

17 Wherefore, O thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst the daughters of thy people, which prophecie out of their owne hartes, and prophecie agaynst them:

18 And say, Thus sayth the Lord God, Wo be vnto them that sowe (d) pyllowes vnder al arme holes, and put kerchifes vpon the heades of euery stature, to hunt soules. Wyl ye hunt the soules of my people, and geue lyfe to the soules that (come) vnto you?

(e) These sorcerers made the people beleeue that they coulde preserue life or destroy it, and that it should come to euery one accordyng as they propheſied.

19 And wyl ye pollute me to my people for handfulles of barley, & for peeces of bread, to kyl the soules of them that dye not, and promise (e) lyfe to them that lyue not, in lying to my people that heareth your lyes?

20 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon your pillowes wherwith ye hunt the soules to (f) make them flee, & I wyl teare them from your armes, and wyl let the soules goe, (euen) the soules that ye hunt to make them flee.

(f) Makyng them flocke vnto you with deceiue able doctrine, as the fowlers doo the byrdes with their stales and calles.

21 Your kerchifes also wyl I teare in peeces, and deliuer my people out of your handes, so that they shal come no more in your handes to be hunted: and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeyng that with your lyes ye discomfite the hart of the righteous, whom I haue not discomforted agayne, for so muche as ye encourage the hande of the wicked, so that he may not turne from his wicked way, in promisyng hym lyfe:

23 Therefore shal ye see no more vanitie, neyther shal ye diuine diuinations, for I wyl deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

2. The Lorde denyeth his woorde to the people for their sinnes sake.

1 THere resorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Israel, and sate downe by me. A

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, sayeing,

3 Thou sonne of man, these men haue set vp their idolles in their hartes, and put the stumblyng blocke of iniquitie before their face, should I then answere them at their request?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his idols in his hart, and putteth the stumblyng blocke of his iniquitie before his face, & commeth to the prophet: vnto that man wyl I the Lord mee selfe geue answere when he commeth, accordyng to the multitude of his idolles.

(a) As his abomination hath deserued, that is, he shalbe led with lies according as he delyted therein.

5 That the house of Israel may be snared in their (b) owne hartes, because they be cleane gonne from me al of them through their idolles.

(b) That is, conuince them by their owne consciences.

6 Wherefore tel the house of Israel, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Returne and cause (c) to returne from your idolles, and turne your faces from al your abominations.

(c) Al suche as by your example haue declined from God.

B

7 For euery man, whether he be of the house of Israel, or a stranger that soiourneth in Israel, whiche departeth from me, and setteth vp his idols in his hart, & putteth the stumblyng blocke of his wickednesse before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aske counsayle at me through hym: vnto that man wyl I the Lorde geue answeare by myne owne selfe:

8 I wyl set my face agaynst that man, and wyl make hym to be an example (for other) yea, and a common byworde, and wil roote hym out of my people, that ye maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

9 And yf that prophete be deceyued when he telleth a thyng, then I the Lorde mee selfe haue deceyued that prophete, and wyl stretche out my hande vpon hym, to destroy hym out of my people of Israel: 2. king. 22. c

10 And

10 And they shalbe punished for their wickednesse, according to the sinne of him that asketh shal the sinne of the prophete be:

11 That the house of Israel may wander no more from me, neyther be anye more defiled inal their transgressions: but that they may be my people, and I theyr God, sayth the Lorde God.

12 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

13 Thou sonne of man, when the lande sinneth agaynst me by committing a trespasse, I wyl stretche out my hande vppon it, and breake theyr staffe of bread, and sende dearth vpon them, to destroy man and beast footh of it.

Ezech. 4.b. and.5.b.

C 14 And though Noe, Daniel, and Job, these three men were among them: yet shal they in theyr ryghteousnesse, delyuer but theyr owne soules, sayth the Lorde God.

Jere.15.a.

15 If I bryng noysome beastes into the lande, & they spoyle it, and it be so desolate that no man may passe thorow it for beasts, 16 If these three men were also in the myddest thereof: as truely as I lyue, sayth the Lorde God, they shal saue neyther sonnes nor daughters, but be only delyuered them selues: and as for the lande it shalbe waste.

17 Or yf I bryng a swoord vpon this land, and say, Swoorde goe through the lande, so that I slay downe man and beast in it,

" or, in the myddest thereof.

18 And yf these three men were " therin: as truely as I lyue, sayth the Lorde God, they shal delyuer neyther sonnes nor daughters, but onely be " saued them selues.

" or, delyuered.

19 If I sende a pestilence into this lande, and powre out my sore indignation vpon it in blood, so that I roote out of it both man and beast,

" or, in the middest of it

20 And yf Noe, Daniel, and Job " were therein: as truely as I lyue, sayth the Lord God, they shal delyuer neyther sonne nor daughter, but " saue theyr owne soules in theyr ryghteousnesse.

" or, deliuer.

D 21 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde God, Howe muche more when I sende my foure " troublous plagues vppon Hierusalem, the swoorde, hunger, perillous beastes, and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it?

" or, foure sore iudgementes.

22 Beholde, there shalbe a remnant saued therein, whiche shal bryng footh theyr sonnes and daughters: behold, they shal come footh vnto you, and ye shal see theyr way, and theyr enterprise, & ye shalbe comforted concerning the euyl that I haue brought vppon Hierusalem, (euen) concernyng al that I haue brought vpon it.

23 They shal comforte you when ye shal see theyr way and woorkes, and ye shal knowe howe that it is not without a cause that I haue done al agaynst Hierusalem as I did, sayth the Lorde God.

The.xv.Chapter.

As the vnprofitable wood of the vine tree is cast into the fyre, so sayth he that Hierusalem shalbe brent.

1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, A sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree more then of euery other tree, and of the wylde vine among other trees of the forrest?

3 Doo menne take wood of it to make any woorke withal? or wyl menne take a pynne of it to hange any vessel thereon?

4 Beholde, it is cast in the fyre to be brent, the fyre consumeth both the endes of it, the myddes of it is brent: is it meete then for any woorke?

5 Seeyng then that it was meete for no woorke beyng whole, muche lesse may there any thyng be made of it when the fyre hath consumed and brent it.

6 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, As the vine tree (that is) among the trees of the forrest, whiche I haue geuen to the fyre to be consumed: so wyl I geue the inhabitantes of Hierusalem.

7 And I wyl set my face agaynst them, they B shal goe out from the fyre, and yet the (a) fyre shal consume them: then shal ye knowe that I am the Lord, when I set my face agaynst them,

(a) Though they escape one danger, yet another shal take them.

8 And when I make the lande waste, because they haue so sore offended, sayth the Lord God.

The.xvi.Chapter.

2. The prophete declareth the benefites of God toward Hierusalem. 60. Mercy is promised to the repentant.

1 AGayne the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

(a) Thou boastest to be of the seede of Abraham, but thou art degenerate, and folowest the abominations of the wicked Chananites, as children doo the maners of their fathers Esa.1.a.57.a

2 Thou sonne of man, shewe Hierusalem theyr abominations,

3 And say, Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto Hierusalem, Thy habitation and kynred is of the lande of (a) Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite.

4 In the day of thy byrth, (b) when thou wast borne, the stryng of thy nauel was not cut of, thou wast not bathed in water to " make thee cleane, thou wast not salted with salt, nor swadled in cloutes.

(b) When I

5 No

first brought thee forth of the land of Egypt, & planted thee in this land to be my church. " or, to softē thee.

5 No eye pitied thee to do any of these thinges for thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee: but thou wast vtterly cast out vpon the feelde, in contempt of thy person in the day of thy byrth.

B 6 Then came I by thee, and sawe thee defiled in thine owne blood, and I sayd vnto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Lyue, (euen) when thou wast in thy blood, I said vnto thee, Liue.

(c) These woordes, blood, pollution, nakednesse, and filthinesse, &c. are oft times repeated, to beate downe their pride, and to cause them to consyder what they were before God receiued them to mercy, fauoured thē, and couered their shame.

7 I caused thee to multiplie as the budde of the feelde, thou art growen vp, and waxen great, thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasant beautie, thy breastes are fashioned, thy heare is goodly growen, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Nowe when I went by thee and looked vpon thee, beholde thy time was come, yea (euen) the tyme to woo thee: then spread I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy (c) dishonestie, yea I made an oth vnto thee, and contracted mee selfe with thee (sayth the Lorde God) and so thou becamest myne owne.

9 Then washed I thee with water, and pourged thy blood from thee, & I annoynted thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee with broydred woorke, and shodde thee with Badgers skinne, and I gyrded thee about with fine lynnen, and couered thee with silke.

11 I decked thee with costly apparel, I put braselets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke, 12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and earerynges vpon thine eares, and a beautiful crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus wast thou deckt with golde and siluer, and thy rayment was of fine linnen, and of silke, and of broydred woorke: thou dydst eate fyne floure, hony, and oyle, marueilous beautiful wast thou, and thou didst luckily prosper into a kingdome.

14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfect thorowe my beautie whiche I put vpon thee, sayth the Lorde God.

15 But thou hast put thy confidence in thine owne beautie, & played the harlot, because of thy renowne: and hast (d) powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, " thou wast his.

16 Thou didst take thy garmentes, and deckt thy high places with (e) diuers colours, and played the harlot thereupon, (f) " they come not, and it shal not be.

17 The goodly iewels which I gaue thee of myne owne golde & siluer, hast thou taken and made thee mens images thereof, and committed whoredome with them.

18 Thy broydred garmentes hast thou taken, and deckt them therwith: mine oyle and incense hast thou set before them.

19 My meate whiche I gaue thee, as fyne flowre, oyle, and honie, to feede thee withal, that hast thou set before them for a sweete sauour: and thus it was, sayth the Lorde God.

20 Thou hast taken thyne owne sonnes and daughters whom thou hast begotten vnto me, and these hast thou offered vp vnto them to be (g) deuoured: is this but a smal whoredome of thine?

(g) Meaning by fire, reade Leuit. 18. b. 2. Reg. 23. b

21 And thou hast slayne my chyldren, and deliuered them, to cause them to passe (thorowe the fyre) for them.

22 And yet in al thine abominations and whoredomes thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked and bare thou wast at that tyme, and wast defiled in thine owne blood.

D 23 After al these thy wickednesses (woe, woe vnto thee, sayth the Lord God,) 24 Thou hast built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euerye streete.

25 Thou hast built thine high place at euery " head of the way, thou hast made thy beautie to be abhorred, thou hast opened thy feete to euery one that came by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

" Corner of the streete.

26 Thou hast committed fornication with the (h) Egyptians thy neighbours which were great in fleashe, and thus hast thou increased thine whoredome to anger me.

(h) He noteth the great impietie of this people, who first fallyng from God to seeke helpe at strange nations, did also at lēgth embrace their idolatry, thinking thereby to make theyr amitie more sure.

27 Beholde, I did stretche out my hande ouer thee, and did minishe thine ordinary (foode) and deliuered thee ouer into the wylles of them that hate thee, (euen) to the daughters of the Philistines, whiche are ashamed of thine abominable wayes.

28 Thou hast played the whoore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea thou hast (I say) with them played the harlot, and yet hadst thou not yenough.

29 Thus hast thou furthermore multiplyed thy fornication from the lande of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 Howe weake is thyne hart, sayth the Lord God, seeing thou doest al these, (euen) the woorkes of a presumptuous whoorysshe woman?

E

31 Building thy high places at the head of euery way, and makest thy high places in euery streete: thou hast not ben as another whoore that holdeth scorne of a reward:

32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh other in steade of her husbande.

33 Giftes

(d) There was none idolatrie so vile, wherewith thou diddest not pollute thee selfe.

" or, that thou mightest be his.

(e) This declareth how the idolaters put theyr cheefe delite in those thinges whiche please the eyes & outward senses.

(f) In suche sorte as the like hath not ben, nor shalbe, so that they passed al nations in idolatry.

" Or, there neither shalbe, nor hath benne anye that hath done the lyke.

33 Giftes are geuen to al other whoores: but thou geuest rewardes vnto al thy louers, and rewardest them to come vnto thee on euery syde for thy fornication.

34 It is come to passe with thee in thy whoredomes contrarye to the vse of other women, yea there hath no such fornication ben committed after thee: seeyng that thou geuest gyftes vnto other, and no reward is geuen thee, therefore thou art contrary.

F 35 Therfore heare the worde of the Lorde, O thou harlot.

36 Thus sayth the Lord God, Because thou hast (i) powred out * thy brasse, and discouered thy filthinesse through thy fornications with thy louers, and with al the idols of thyne abominations, and in the blood of thy children whom thou hast geuen them:

37 Beholde therefore, I wil geather togeather al thy (k) louers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, yea and al them whom thou hast loued, and euerye one that thou hatest: I wyl (I say) geather them togeather rounde about agaynst thee, and wyl discouer thy shame before them, that they may see al thy filthinesse.

38 Moreouer, (l) I wyl iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murderer, and recompence thee thine owne blood in wrath and iealousie.

39 I wyl geue thee ouer into their handes, and they shal destroy thy high place, and breake downe thy high places, they shal strip thee also out of thy clothes: thy fayre iewelles shal they take from thee, and so leaue thee naked and bare.

40 Yea they shal bring a companye vpon thee, which shal stone thee with stones, & thruste thee through with their swoordes,

G 41 They shal burne vp thy houses with fyre, and punishe thee in the sight of many women: thus wyl I make thee ceasse from playing the harlot, so that thou shalt geue out no more rewardes.

42 So wil I make my wrath toward thee to reast, and my iealousie shal depart from thee, and I wyl ceasse, and be angrye no more.

43 Seeyng thou remembrest not the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in al these thinges: beholde, therefore I wyl bring thine owne wayes vpon thy head, saith the Lorde God, so that (m) thou shalt not commit (any more) mischeefe vpon al thyne abominations.

44 Beholde, al they that vse common prouerbes, shal vse this prouerbe also agaynst thee, saying, Suche a (n) mother, suche a daughter.

45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that haue cast of her husbande and her children: yea thou art the syster of thy (o) systers, whiche forsooke their husbandes and their children, your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 Thyne eldest syster is Samaria, she and her (p) daughters that dwel vpon thy left hande: but thy younger syster that dwelleth on thy right hand is Sodoma and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations, as a litle, and a litle: but in al thy wayes thou hast ben more corrupt then they.

48 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lord God, Sodoma thy syster with her daughters, haue not done as thou hast done and thy daughters.

49 Beholde, the sinnes of thy sister Sodoma were these, (q) Pride, fulnesse of meat, and abundance of idlenesse, these thynges had she and her daughters: besydes that, they strengthed not the hande of the poore and needie.

50 But they were hautie, and committed abomination before me, therefore I tooke them away as I sawe good.

51 Neyther hath (r) Samaria done halfe of thy sinnes, yea thou hast exceeded them in thyne abominations, and hast (s) iustified thy sisters in al thyne abominations whiche thou hast done.

52 Therefore thou whiche didst condemne thy sister, beare thyne owne shame, for thine owne offences that thou hast committed more abominable then they did, whiche in deede are more ryghteous then thou art, be thou (I say) ashamed, and beare the shameful rebuke, seeyng that thou hast iustified thy systers.

53 Therefore I wyl bring agayne their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodom and her daughters, and the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiuities among (t) them, 54 That thou mayest take thyne owne confusion vpon thee, and be ashamed of al that thou hast done, in that thou hast (v) comforted them.

55 And thy syster Sodom & her daughters shal returne to their former state, Samaria also and her daughters shal returne to their former state, when thou & thy daughters shal returne to your former state.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not (x) heard of by thy report in the day of thy pryde,

57 Before thy wickednesse was (y) discouered according to the time of the reproche of the daughters of Aram, & of al the daughters

(i) That is, lauished out thy money vpon images to thy shame.

* or, thy neather partes.

(k) Egyptians, Assyrians, and Chaldeans, whom thou tokest to be thy louers, shal come & destroy thee. Ezech. 23.b.

(l) I wyl iudge thee to death, as the adulterers, & murderers.

2. Kin. 25.d

(m) Of al the heynous offences this shalbe the last, or God wyl punishe thee so, that thou shalt neuer sinne more.

(n) As were the Chanaanites & the Hittites, and other your predecessours, so are you theyr successours.

(o) That is, of Samaria, and Sodom,

(p) That is, her cities,

(q) He alleageth these foure vices, pryde, excesse, idlenesse, & contempt of the poore, as foure principal causes of suche abhomination wherefore they were so horribly punyshed. Gen. 19.d,

(r) Whiche worshypped the calues in Bethel and Dan. 1. Kin. 12.d,

(s) Thou art so wicked, that in respect of thee Sodom and Samaria were iust.

(t) That is, as yf he had sayd, neuer.

(v) In that thou hast shewed thee selfe woorse then they, and yet thoughtest to escape punishment.

(x) Thou wouldest not cal her punyshment to mind, whe thou wast aloft, to learn by her example to feare my iudgementes.

(y) That is, til thou wast brought vnder by the Syrians and the Philistines, ters of the Philistines rounde about her, whiche dispise thee on al sydes.

58 Thou hast borne thy wickednesse and thyne abomination, sayth the Lorde.

59 For thus sayth the Lorde God, I might (by right) deale with thee as thou hast donne, whiche hast despised the (z) othe in breaking the couenant:

(z) Reade the eyght verse.

60 Neuertheless, I wyl remember my couenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I wyl establishe vnto thee an euerlasting couenant.

61 Then shalt thou remember thy wayes, and be ashamed when thou shalt receiue thy sisters, (both) thy elder and thy yonger: and I wyl geue them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy couenant.

62 And I wyl establishe my couenant with thee, that thou mayst knowe that I am the Lorde.

(aa) This declareth the frutes of gods mercy, to wit, sorow and repentance for their former lyfe.

63 That thou mayest thinke vpon it, and be (aa) ashamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more for shame of thee self, when I am pacified towarde thee for al that thou hast donne, sayth the Lorde God.

The. xvii. Chapter.

The parable of the two Egles.

A 1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, put forth a parable, and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, thus sayth the Lord God, There came a great (a) Egle, with great winges, yea with a myghtie long bodye, and ful of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and tooke the byghest branche of a Cedar tree,

4 And brake of the top of his twigges, and caryed it into the lande of (b) marchantes, and set it in a citie of marchantes.

5 He tooke also of the (c) seede of the lande, and planted it in a fruiteful grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and set it in * an open trenche.

6 Then dyd it growe, and was a (d) spreadyng vine, but (e) lowe of stature, whose branches turned towarde "it, & the rootes of it were vnder it: thus there came of it a vine, and it brought forth branches, and shot forth buddes.

7 But there was another (f) Egle, a great one, whiche had great wynges and manye feathers: and behold the rootes of this vine turned towardes it, and spread out her braches towardes it, that she myght water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted vpon a good soyle beside great waters, so that it shuld haue brought out branches, and borne fruite, and haue benne a goodly vine.

B

9 Speake thou therefore, thus sayth the Lord God, Shal this vine prosper? shal (g) he not pul vp the rootes therof, and destroy the fruite therof, and cause them to dry? al the leaues of her bud shal wyther without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes therof.

(g) Nabuchodonosor, vnderstande by the first egle.

10 Beholde, it was planted: Shal it prosper therefore? Shal it not be dryed vp and withered? when the (h) east wynde shal touche it, it shal wyther in the trenches where it grewe.

(h) That is, the Babylonians.

11 Moreouer the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

12 Speake nowe to the rebellious house, Knowe ye not what these thynges (doo signifie?) Tel them, beholde the king of Babylon is comme to Hierusalem, and hath taken the king therof, and the princes therof, & hath led them with him to Babylon.

13 He tooke of the kynges seede, and made a couenant with hym, and toke an othe of hym: the princes of the land tooke he with hym also,

14 That the kingdome myght be in subiection, and not lyft vp it selfe, but keepe the couenant, and stande to it.

C

15 But he rebelled against him, and sent his ambassadours into Egypt, that he myght haue horses and muche people: Shoulde he prosper? shal he escape that dooth such thinges? or shal he breake the couenant and escape free?

16 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lord god, he shal dye at Babylon in the place where the kyng dwelleth that made hym kyng, whose othe he hath despised, and whose couenant he hath broken.

17 Neither shal Pharao with his great host and multitude of people maynteyne him in the warre, whē they haue cast vp mountes, and buylt a fort to destroy many persons.

(i) Because he tooke the name of God in vayne, and brake his oth which he had cōfirmed by geuing his hande, therfore the prophete declareth that god woulde not suffer periurie and infidelitie to escape punishment.

18 For seeyng he hath despised the othe and broken the couenant, (whereas he yet gaue his (i) hande thereupon) and donne al these thynges, he shal not escape.

19 Therfore thus sayth the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, I wyl bryng myne othe that he hath despised, and my couenant that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 I wyl spreade my net vpon hym, and he shalbe caught in my net: and I wyl bryng him to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with him there, for the trespasse whiche he hath committed agaynſt me.

D 21 As for thoſe that flee from him, with al his hoſt, they ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſworde, & the reſidue ſhalbe ſcattered towardes al the wyndes: and ye ſhal knowe that I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

22 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl alſo take of the top of this high Cedar, and wil ſet it, and cut of the top of the tender plante thereof, and wyl plant it vpon an hygh hyl and a great.

23 (Namely) vpon the hygh hyl of Iſrael wyl I plante it, that it may bryng foorth bowes, and geue fruite, and be an excellent Cedar: & vnder it ſhal remayne al birdes, and euerye ſoule ſhal remayne vnder the ſhadowe of the branches thereof.

24 And al the trees of the feelde ſhal know that I the Lorde haue brought downe the hygh tree, and exalted the lowe tree, that I haue dryed vp the greene tree, and made the dry tree to floriſhe, (euen) I the Lorde that ſpake it, haue alſo brought it to paſſe.

The.xviii.Chapter.

4. He ſheweth that euery man ſhal beare his owne ſinne. 21. To hym that amendeth, is ſaluation promiſed.

A

(a) The people murmured at the chaſtiſinges of the Lorde, and therfore vſed this proverbe, meanyng that their fathers had ſinned, & they were puniſhed for their tranſgreſſions, reade Iere. 31.d.

(b) That is, yf he haue not communicated in the ſacrifices of idols.

(c) Meanyng ſuch as were ſet apart in tyme of natural and monthly diſeaſes, namely in tyme of chylde birth, leproſie, and ſuche lyke, as Leuit. 20.c.

1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 What meane ye by this common proverbe that ye vſe in the lande of Iſrael, ſayeing, The (a) fathers haue eaten ſowre grapes, and the chyldrens teeth are ſet on edge?

3 As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lord God, ye ſhal vſe this bywoorde no more in Iſrael.

4 Beholde, al ſoules are myne: lyke as the ſoule of the father is myne, ſo is the ſoule of the ſonne myne alſo: the ſoule that ſinneth, ſhal dye it ſelfe.

5 But if a man be iuſt, and doo that whiche is lawful and ryght:

6 And hath not (b) eaten vpon the hylles, he hath not lyft his eyes to the idols of the houſe of Iſrael, neyther hath defyled his neyghbours wyfe, neither hath come neare a (c) woman removed:

7 Neither hath oppreſſed any man, but hath reſtored to the detter his pledge: he that hath not ſpoyled any by violēce, hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not geuen foorth vpon vſurie, neyther taken any encreaſe, he hath withdrawen his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betwene man and man:

9 And hath walked in my ſtatutes, & kept my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a ryghteous man, he ſhal ſurely lyue, ſayth the Lorde God.

10 If he now geat a ſonne that is a robber, a ſhedder of blood, and doo any one of theſe thynges:

11 Though he doo not al theſe thynges, but eyther hath eaten vpon the hylles, or defiled his neyghbours wyfe:

12 Or hath oppreſſed the poore and needy, or ſpoyled by violence, or hath not reſtored the pledge, or hath lift vp his eyes vnto the idols, or hath committed abomination:

13 Or hath geuen foorth vpon vſurie, or hath taken encreaſe: Shal this man lyue? he ſhal not lyue: Seeyng he hath donne al theſe abominations he ſhal dye the death, his blood ſhalbe vpon him.

14 Now if this man geat a ſonne alſo, that ℭ ſeeth al his fathers ſinnes whiche he hath donne, and feareth, neither dooth ſuch like:

15 (Namely) that hath not eaten vpon the hylles, neyther hath lyft vp his eyes to the idols of the houſe of Iſrael, nor defyled his neyghbours wyfe:

16 Neyther hath oppreſſed any, nor hath withholde the pledge, neyther hath ſpoyled by violence: (but) hath geuen his bread to the hungry, & hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neyther hath withdrawen his hande from the afflicted, nor receiued vſurie nor encreaſe, (but) hath executed my iudgementes, and walked in my ſtatutes: this man ſhal not dye in his fathers ſinne, but ſhal lyue without fayle.

18 As for his father, becauſe he hath cruelly oppreſſed and ſpoiled his brother by violence, and hath not donne good among his people, loe he dyeth in his owne ſinne.

19 And yet ſay ye, Wherefore then ſhoulde not this ſonne beare his fathers ſinne? Becauſe the ſonne hath donne iudgement and righteouſnes, he hath keapt al my ſtatutes, and donne them: therefore ſhal he lyue in deede.

20 The ſame ſoule that ſinneth ſhal dye, the ſonne ſhal not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither ſhal the father beare the ſonnes iniquitie: the ryghteouſneſſe of the ryghteous ſhalbe vpon him, and the wyckedneſſe of the wicked ſhalbe vpon hym ſelfe alſo. Deut. 24.c 2. king. 14.c 2. Chr. 25.a

21 But if the vngodly wyl turne away frō D al his ſinnes that he hath donne, and keepe al my ſtatutes, and doo the thyng that is iudgement and ryght, doubtleſſe he ſhal lyue, and not dye.

22 As for al his ſinnes that he dyd before, they ſhal not be mentioned vnto him: but in his ryghteouſneſſe that he hath donne he he shal liue.

2. Pet. 3. b. Ezech. 33 b. 23 For haue I any pleasure in the death of a sinner saith the Lorde God? shal he not liue yf he returne from his wayes?

24 Againe, yf the righteous turne from his righteousnesse, and doo iniquitie, and shall doo according to al the abominations that the wicked man dooth: shal he liue? Al the righteousnesse that he hath donne shal not be remembred, but in his transgression that he hath committed, in his sinne that he hath sinned, in them he shal dye.

25 And yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not (d) indifferent. Heare therefore ye house of Israel, is not my way equal? or are not your wayes rather vnequal?

(d) In punishing the fathers with the children.

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, and dyeth in the same: in his iniquitie whiche he hath committed shal he dye.

℣ 27 Againe, when the wicked turneth away from his wickednesse that he hath donne, and dooth iudgement and right, he shal saue his soule aliue.

" Considereth or remembreth his iniquities.

28 Because he " seeth and turneth away from al his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shal surely liue, and not die.

29 And yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lorde is not equal. Are not my wayes equal O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequal?

30 Therefore I wyl iudge you, euery man according to his wayes, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God, returne and bring againe others from al your wickednesse, so iniquitie shal not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you al your transgressions whereby ye haue transgressed, and make you a newe hart and a newe spirite: for why wil ye die, O ye house of Israel?

32 Seeing I haue no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lorde God, " bryng againe your selues then, and ye shal liue.

" or cause therefore one another to returne.

The. xix. Chapter.

2. The captiuitie of Iehoas and Iehoiakim is signifyed by the lions whelpes, and by the lion.

1 THou also take vp a lamentation for the (a) princes of Israel,

(a) That is, Iehoas and Iehoiakim Iosias sons, whofor their crueltie and pride are compared vnto lions.

2 And say, Wherefore lay thy mother that Lioneſſe among ỹ lions? she nourished her young ones among the lions whelpes.

3 One of her whelpes she brought vp, and it became a lion, it learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

4 The (b) heathen hearde of him, & caught him in their snare, and brought him in hookes vnto the lande of Egypt.

(b) Meaning Pharao Necho king of Egypt.

5 Now when she sawe that she had wayted, and her hope was lost, she tooke another (c) of her whelpes, and made him a lion.

chaines.

(c) Whiche was Iehoiakim.

6 Whiche went among the lions, and became a fierce lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

7 He " destroyed their palaces, and made their cities waste, insomuch that the whole lande, and euery thing therein, were vtterly desolate through the voyce of his roaring.

" or, and he knewe theyr wydowes.

8 Then set the (d) heathen togeather on euery syde of the countreys agaynst him, laide their nettes for him, and tooke him in their pit.

(d) Nabuchodonosor with his great armie whiche was geathered of diuers nations.

9 So they put him in prison in chaines, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce shoulde no more be heard vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

10 As for thy (e) mother, she is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she brought foorth fruit and branches by the abundant waters.

(e) He speaketh this in the reproche of this wicked king, in whose blod, that is, in the race of his predecessours, Hierusalem was & so shoulde haue benne blessed, according to Gods promises, and florisheth like a fruiteful vine.

11 And she had strong roddes for the scepters of them that beare rule, and her stature was exalted on high among the branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was pluckt vp in wrath, cast out vpon the grounde, the east winde dryed vp her fruite (her branches) were broken of and wythered, (as for) the roddes of her strength, the fyre consumed them.

13 And nowe she is planted in the wylderneſſe, in a drie and thirstie grounde.

14 And there is a fyre gonne out of the rodde of her branches, it hath deuoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rodde for a scepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and shalbe for a lamentation.

The. xx. Chapter.

3. The Lorde denyeth that he wyl answeare them when they pray, for the offence of vnkyndneſſe whiche he here obiecteth.

1 IN the (a) seuenth yeere, the tenth day of the fifth moneth, certaine of the elders of Israel came for to aske counsaile at the Lorde, and sate downe before me.

A (a) Of the captiuitie of Ieconias.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

3 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto the elders of Israel, & say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Are ye come to enquire of

* or, when I am asked, I wyl not answeare.

me? As truely as I liue, I * wyl not be sought of you, sayth the Lorde God.

4 Wylt thou iudge them sonne of man, wilt thou iudge (them?) cause them to vnderstande the abominations of their fathers.

5 And tel them, Thus sayth the Lord God, In the day when I chose Israel, and (b) lyft vp mine hande vppon the seede of the house of Jacob, and was knowen vnto them in the lande of Egypt, yea when I lyft vp myne hande ouer them, and sayde, I am the Lorde your God:

(b) This was a manner of swearing whiche was obserued in takyng an othe of al antiquitie, & is yet in diuers countreys vsed.

6 Euen in the day that I lyft vp myne hand vnto them, to bring them out of the lande of Egypt, into a land that I had prouided for them, whiche floweth with milke and hony, and is pleasant among al other landes:

7 Then saide I vnto them, Cast away euery man the abominations of his eyes, and defyle not your selues with the idolles of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

B 8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken vnto me, they dyd not cast away euery man the abominations of his eyes, neither dyd they forsake the idolles of Egypt: then I saide, I would powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accomplishe my wrath vpon them, yea euen in the middest of the lande of Egypt.

9 And I wrought for my names sake that it shoulde not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifestly knowen, in bringing them forth of the lande of Egypt.

10 Nowe when I had caused them to goe out of the lande of Egypt, & brought them into the wylderneſſe:

11 I gaue them my statutes, and shewed them my iudgementes: whiche who so doeth, shal liue in them.

Rom. 10.a. Galat. 3.b. Leuit. 18.a. Exod. 20.b

12 I gaue them also my Sabboth dayes to be a token betwixt me and them, and therby to knowe that I am the Lorde whiche halowe them.

13 And yet ỹ house of Israel rebelled against me in the wylderneſſe, they woulde not walke in my statutes, they haue cast away my iudgementes, which who so dooth, shal liue in them, and my Sabboth dayes haue they greatly polluted: then I said, I would powre out myne indignation vppon them, and consume them in the wylderneſſe.

Num. 14.b.

14 And I wrought for my names sake, lest it shoulde be defyled before the heathen, in whose syght I brought them out.

15 Yet neuertheleſſe I lyft vp my hand vnto them in the wylderneſſe, that I would not bring them into the lande whiche I gaue them, that floweth with milke and hony, and is a pleasure of al landes:

16 And that because they cast away my iudgementes, and walked not in my statutes, but haue defyled my Sabbothes: for their hart was gonne after their idols.

17 Neuertheleſſe myne eye spared them, so that I woulde not destroy them, nor consume them in the wylderneſſe.

18 Moreouer, I sayde vnto their sonnes in the wylderneſſe, Walke not in the statutes of your (c) fathers, keepe not their iudgementes, and defyle not your selues with their idols.

(c) Whereby the holy ghost confuteth them that say, They wyl followe the religion and example of their father: and not measure their doynge by gods worde, whether they be approuable thereby or no.

19 I am the Lorde your God, walke in my statutes, keepe my iudgementes, and doo them.

20 Halowe my Sabbothes, for they are a token betwixt me and you: that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde your God.

21 Notwithstandyng, their sonnes rebelled agaynst me also, they walked not in my statutes, they kept not my iudgementes to fulfyl them, whiche he that dooth shal liue in them, they prophaned my Sabboth dayes, and I sayde, I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accomplishe my wrath vpon them in the wylderneſſe.

22 Neuertheleſſe, I withdrewe my hande, and wrought for my names sake, lest it shoulde be defyled in the syght of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth. D

23 I lyft vp my hande to them also in the wylderneſſe, that I woulde scatter them among the heathen, and strawe them among the nations:

24 Because they had not kept my iudgementes, but cast aside my statutes, & broken my Sabbothes, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

25 Wherefore I (d) gaue them also statutes that were not good, and iudgementes wherein they shoulde not liue.

(d) Because they woulde not obey my lawes, I gaue them vp to them selues, that they should obey their owne fantasies, as vearse, 39. Rom. 1.d.

26 And I defyled them in their owne gifts, in that they (e) caused al that openeth the wombe to passe, that I myght destroy them, that they might knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

(e) Causyng their fyrst born to passe through the fyre in sacrifyce to Moloch.

27 Therefore speake vnto the house of Israel thou sonne of man, and thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Yet in this also your fathers haue blasphemed me, and greeuously transgressed agaynst me:

28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the whiche I lyfted vp my hande to geue it vnto them, when they saw euery hygh hill, and al thicke trees, they offered there there their ſacrifices, & there they preſented their offering of(g) anger, there alſo they made their ſweet ſauours, and powred out their wyne offerynges.

(g) Such offeryng as prouoke God to anger.

29 And I ſayde vnto them, What is that high place whereunto ye reſort? & the name of it is called(h) Bamah vnto this day.

(h) Whiche ſignifieth an hygh place, declaryng that they vaunted thē ſelues of their idolatrie, & were not aſhamed thereof, though God had cōmaunded expreſly that they ſhoulde haue no aulter lyfted vp on hye by ſtayres. Exod. 20. d.

30 Wherefore ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Are ye not defyled in the wayes of your fathers, and commit ye not whoredome after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your giftes, and make your ſonnes to paſſe thyough the fyre, you are polluted with al your idolles vnto this day: ſhal I anſwere you when I am aſked, O houſe of Iſrael? As I lyue, ſayth the Lorde GOD, I * wyl not be ſought of you.

* or, I wyl not anſwere when I am aſked.

32 And (that whiche) commeth into your minde ſhal not be at al, which you ſay, We wyl be as the Gentiles, as the kynredes of countreys, to ſerue wood and ſtone.

33 As truely as I lyue, ſaith the Lord God, I mee ſelfe wyl rule you with a mightie hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I wyl bryng you from the people, and geather you out of the countreis wherin ye are ſcattered, with a myghtie hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with indignation powred out.

F

(i) That is, amongſt ſtrange nations.

35 And I wyl bryng you into the (i) wilderneſſe of the people, and there I (k) wyl be iudged with you face to face.

(k) I wyl reaſon & pleade my cauſe with you me ſelfe.

36 Lyke as I pleaded with your fathers in the wylderneſſe of Egypt: ſo wyl I pleade with you alſo, ſayth the Lorde God.

37 I wyl cauſe you to paſſe vnder the rod, and I wyl bryng you into the bonde of the couenant.

38 And I wil * purge out of you the rebels, and them that tranſgreſſe agaynſt me, and bring them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Iſrael they ſhal not comme in it, that you may knowe how that I am the Lorde.

* or, cul.

39 As for you, O houſe of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lord God, Go you and ſerue euery man his idols, ſeeyng that ye obey not me: and polluts no more my holye name with your giftes and your idols.

40 For vpon my holy hyl, euen vpon ỹ high hyl of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God, ſhal al the houſe of Iſrael, & al that is in the lande worſhip me: and in the ſame place wyl I fauour them, and there wil I require your heaue offerynges, & the firſtlynges of your oblations, with al your holy thinges.

41 I wyl accept your ſweete ſauour, when I bring you from the nations, and geather you togeather out of the landes wherein ye haue ben ſcattered, that I may be halowed in you before the Heathen.

42 And ye ſhal knowe that I am the lorde, when I ſhal bring you into the lande of Iſrael, into the lande for the whiche I lyft vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There ſhal ye call to remembrance your owne wayes, and al your workes wherein ye haue benne defiled, and ye ſhalbe cut of in your (l) owne ſight for al your wickednesſe that ye haue donne.

G

(l) Your owne conſciences ſhal condemne you as worthy to be cut of from the earth.

44 And ye ſhal knowe that I am the lord, when I deale with you for my names ſake, and not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt workes, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God.

45 Moreouer, the word of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

46 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face toward the way of(m) Themanah, and dryp (thy woorde) towarde the (n) ſouth, and prophecie towarde the forreſt of the ſouth feelde,

(m) To wit, the ſouth.

(n) That is, towarde Hieruſalem and Iuda, whiche was ſouth from Babylon.

47 And ſaye to the forreſt of the South, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl kindle a fire in thee, that ſhal conſume al the (o) greene trees, with al the dry: the continual flame ſhal not be quenched, and euery face from the ſouth to the north ſhalbe burnt therein.

(o) That is, both ſtrong and weake in Hieruſalem.

48 And al fleaſhe ſhal ſee that I the Lorde haue kindled it, and it ſhal not be quēched.

49 Then ſaide I, Ah Lorde God, they ſay of me, Doth not he ſpeake (p) parables?

(p) Becauſe the people ſaide that the prophete ſpake darkly, therefore he deſireth the Lorde to geue them a playne declaration thereof.

The. xxi. Chapter.

3. He threatneth the ſwoorde, that is to ſay, deſtruction to the citie of Hieruſalem.

1 THE woord of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face toward Hieruſalem, and (a) dryp (thy woord) towarde the holy places, and prophecie againſt the lande of Iſrael.

A

(a) As doctrine is compared to rayne, euen ſo here wordes are compared to droppes.

3 Say to the lande of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde, Behold, I am againſt thee, and wyl drawe my ſwoorde out of the ſheath, and cut of from thee both the (b) ryghteous and the wicked.

(b) That is, ſuch as ſeme to haue an outwarde ſhewe of ryghteouſneſſe by obſeruation of the ceremonies of the lawe.

4 Seeyng then that I wyl cut of from thee both the ryghteous and the wicked: therefore ſhal my ſwoorde goe out of his ſheath agaynſt al fleaſhe from the (c) ſouth to the north,

(c) Meanyng through al the lande.

5 That al fleaſhe may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue drawen my ſwoorde out of the ſheath, and it ſhal not be put in againe.

V 6 Mourne therefore, O thou sonne of man, yea (euen) with the (d) breaking of thy loynes, mourne bitterly in their presence.

(d) As though thou were in extreme anguishe wherewith thy loines should breake.

7 And yf they say vnto thee, Wherefore mournest thou? Then tel them, For the tydinges that commeth: Al hartes shal melt, al handes shalbe letten downe, al stomackes shal faynt, and al knees shal goe as water: beholde it commeth, and shalbe brought to passe, sayth the Lorde God.

8 Agayne, the woord of the Lord came vnto me, sayeing,

9 Thou sonne of man, prophecie & speake, thus sayth the Lorde G D D, Speake, the swoorde, the swoord is sharpened and wel furbished.

10 Sharpened is it to make a great slaughter, and furbished that it may glitter: Shal we then make myrth? It contemneth the (e) rod of my sonne (as) (f) al other trees.

(e) Meanyng the scepter, shewing that it wyl not spare the kyng who should be as the sonne of God, and in his place.

11 He hath geuen it to be furbished, to holde it in the hande: this swoorde is sharpened, and furbished, to geue it into the hande of the (g) slayer.

(f) That is, the rest of the people.

(g) To wit, vnto the armie of the Chaldeans.

12 Crye and howle sonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people (it commeth) vpon al the princes of Israel: the terrours of the swoorde shalbe vpon my people, smite therfore thou vpon thy thygh.

13 Because it is a tryal: and what yf (h) it contemne the rod? it shalbe no more, sayth the Lorde God.

(h) Meanyng the sword of the kyng of Babylon, whiche shal not spare the scepter of Iuda.

14 Prophecie thou sonne of man, and smite thy (i) handes togeather, and let the swoord be doubled thryse, (euen) the swoorde of the great slaughter, entring into their priuie chambers,

(i) That is, encourage the swoorde.

15 To make them faynt at the hartes, and to multiply their falles, in all their gates haue I geuen the terrour of the swoorde: Ah it is made bryght, and dressed for the slaughter.

16 Gat thee (k) one way or other, eyther vpon the ryght hande or vpon the left, whithersoeuer thy face turneth.

(k) He speaketh vnto the swoorde, geuyng it libertie to raunge at his pleasure.

17 I wyl smite my handes togeather also, and make my wrathful indignatiō to rest: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it.

18 The woorde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, sayeing,

19 Thou sonne of man, appoynt thee two (l) wayes, that the swoorde of the kyng of Babylon may come: both these wayes shal goe out of one lande, & choose thee a place, at the head of the cities wayes choose it.

(l) Where the way diuideth and leadeth to many cities.

20 Appoynt a way that the swoorde may comme towarde Rabbath of the Ammonites, and towarde (m) Iuda in the defenced Hierusalem.

(m) The tribe of Iuda that keapt them selues cheefely in Hierusalem.

D 21 For the kyng of Babylon stoode at the (n) parting of the wayes, at the head of the two wayes, consultyng by diuination, he made his arrowes bryght, consulted with images, and looked in the lyuer.

(n) To know whether he shoulde goe agaynst the Ammonites or them of Hierusalem.

22 At his ryght hande was the soothsayeing for Hierusalem, to appoynt captaynes, to open (theyr) mouth to the slaughter, and to lyft vp their voyce with the alarum, to set battayle rammes agaynst the gates, to cast a bulwarke (and) to buylde a fort.

23 And it shalbe vnto them as a false diuination in their syght, for the (o) othes made vnto them: but (p) he wyl cal to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intēt they may be taken.

(o) Because there was a league betweene the Iewes and the Babylonians, they of Hierusalē shal thynke nothyng lesse then that this thing shal comme to passe.

(p) That is, Nabuchodonosor wil remember the rebellion of Zedekias, & so comme vpon them.

24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Because ye haue made your iniquitie to be remembred in discoueryng your transgressions, so that in al your workes your sinnes myght appeare, because ye are comme to remembrance, ye shalbe taken by hande.

25 O thou shameful wicked (q) prince of Israel, whose day is comme, euen when wickednesse shal haue an ende,

(q) Meanyng Zedekas.

26 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl take away the (r) Diademe, & put of the crowne: this shalbe no more the same, I wyl exalte the humble, and abase hym that is hygh.

(r) Some referre this to the priestes attyre, for Iehozadek the priest went into captiuitie with the kyng.

27 Ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen wyl I put (s) it, and it shal not be, vntyl he comme to whom the iudgement belongeth, and to whom I haue geuen it.

(s) That is, the state of the kyngdom & priesthood shal euer more and more decay tyl Christe comme, vnto whom of ryght both belong.

28 And thou, O sonne of man, prophecie and speake, Thus sayth the Lorde God to the chyldren of Ammon, and to their blasphemie, speake thou, The swoorde, the swoord is drawen foorth alredy to slaughter, & furbished to cōsume because of the glittering:

29 Whyles they see vnto thee vanitie, and diuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wicked that be slayne, whose day is come when their iniquitie shal haue an ende.

30 Shoulde I cause it to returne into his sheath? In the place where thou wast created, in the lande of thyne habitation wyl I iudge thee:

31 And I wyl powre myne indignation vpō thee, and wyl blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wrath, and deliuer thee into the handes of desperate people, whiche are skylful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt feede the fyre, and thy blood shalbe shed in the middest of the land: thou shalt be put out of remembrance, for I the Lorde haue spoken it.

The. xxii. Chapter.

The woord of the Lord agaynst Hierusalem for manslaughter, and denying due honour to their fathers and mothers, and other wickednesse.

21 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, and saide.

2 Thou sonne of man, wilt thou not (a) iudge, wylt thou not iudge this bloody citie? wilt thou not shewe her al her abominations?

3 And tel them, thus saith the Lorde God, The citie sheddeth blood in the middest of it, that her (b) time may come, and maketh idols (c) against her selfe, to defyle her selfe.

4 Thou hast made thee selfe giltie in the blood that thou hast shed, and defyled thee in the idolles whiche thou hast made: thou hast caused thy dayes to drawe nigh, and made the time of thy yeeres to come: therefore wyl I make thee a reproche among the heathen, and to be a mocking in al landes.

5 Whether they be nigh or farre from thee, they shal laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten thee so foule a name, and art full of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee (was redye) to his power to shedde blood.

7 In thee haue they despised father & mother, in thee haue they oppressed the stranger, in thee haue they vexed the widowe and the fatherlesse.

8 Thou hast despised my holy thinges, and defyled my Sabbothes.

9 * Tale tellers are there in thee to shed blood, in thee are suche as eate vppon the hilles, and in the middest of thee they commit abomination.

10 In thee they discouered their fathers shame, in thee they haue humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 Euery man hath dealt shamefully with his neighbours wyfe, and abominably defyled his * daughter in lawe, in thee hath euery man forced his owne syster, euen his fathers daughter.

12 Yea giftes haue beene receiued in thee to shed blood, thou hast taken vsurie and increase, thou hast oppressed thy neighbours by extortion, and forgotten me, saith the Lorde God.

13 Beholde, I haue (d) smitten my handes vpon thy couetousnesse that thou hast vsed, and vpon the blood whiche hath ben (shed) in the middest of thee.

14 Is thy hart able to endure? or may thy handes be strengthened in the dayes that I shal haue to doo with thee? Euen I the Lorde that speake it, wyl bring it also to passe.

15 I wyl scatter thee among the heathen, and strawe thee about in the landes, & wyl cause thy filthinesse to (e) ceasse out of thee.

16 Yea and thou shalt be thyne (f) owne inheritance in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lorde.

17 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto me as drosse: al they are brasse, tinne, iron, and lead in the middest of the furnace, euen drosse of siluer are they.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Forasmuche as ye al are turned into drosse, therefore beholde I wyl bring you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Like as they geather siluer, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead into the middest of the furnace, and the fire is blowne there vnder to melt them: euen so wyl I geather you in myne anger and in my wrath, and let you remaine (there) and cause you to (g) melt.

21 I wyl bring you together, and blow the fyre of my wrath vpon you, and ye shalbe molten in the middest thereof.

22 Like as the siluer is molten in the middest of the furnace, so shal ye also be molten therein, that ye may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue powred my wrath vppon you.

23 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

24 Thou sonne of man, tel her, Thou art an vncleane lande, whiche is not (h) rayned vpon in the day of wrath.

25 There is a (i) conspiracie of her prophetes in the middest thereof: as a roaring lion rauening his pray they deuoure soules, they haue taken the riche and pretious thinges, they haue made her many widdowes in the middest thereof.

26 Her priestes haue broken my lawe, and defyled my holy thinges, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther discerne they betweene the cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes from my Sabbothes, & I am defiled among them.

27 Thy rulers in the middest of thee are like woolues rauening the pray, to shed blood, and destroy soules for their owne couetous lucre.

28 As for her (k) prophetes, they daube with vntempered morter, they see vanities, and diuine lies vnto them, saying, The Lorde saith so: whereas the Lorde hath not spoken.

29 The people in the lande vsed wicked extortion and robberie, they vexe the poore and needie, & oppresse the stranger against right.

30 And I sought among them for a man that would (l) make vp the hedge, and set hym selfe

The.xxiii.Chapter.

4. Of the fornication, that is to say, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hierusalem, vnder the name of Aholah and Aholibah.

1 The woord of the Lorde came vnto me, 2 sayeing,

Thou sonne of man, there were two women the daughters of (a) one mother.

3 And they committed fornication in (b) Egypt, they played the harlottes in their youth: there were their brestes pressed, and there they bruised the teates of their virginitie.

4 The (c) names of them (were) Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister, and they were myne, and they bare sonnes & daughters: thus (were) their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hierusalem Aholibah.

5 Aholah played the harlot (d) when she was mine, and she was set on fyre with her louers the Assyrians her neighbours:

6 Whiche were clothed with blewe sylke, (both) captaines and princes, they were al pleasant young menne, and horsemen ryding vpon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredome with them (being) al chosen men of Assur, and with al on whom she doted, and defiled her selfe with al their idols.

8 Neither leaft she the fornication that she vsed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they (e) lay with her, they bruised the brestes of her maydenhead, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Wherfore I deliuered her into the hands of her louers (euen) into the handes of the Assyrians vpon whom she doted.

10 These discouered her shame, tooke her sonnes and daughters, and slue her with the swoorde, an euyl name had she among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her sister Aholibah saw this, and destroyed her selfe with inordinate loue more then she, and with her fornications, more then her sister with her fornications.

12 She doted vpon the Assyrians captaynes and princes her neighbours, clothed with al manner of gorgeous apparel, horsemen ryding vppon horses, being al pleasant young menne.

13 Then I sawe that she was defiled, and they tooke both one way.

14 But she encreased stil in whoredome: for when she sawe men painted vpon the wal, the (f) images of the Chaldees painted with vermilion,

15 And girded with girdles vpon their loines, & with dyed attyre vpon their heades, looking al lyke princes, after the manner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne.

16 As soone as she sawe them, she burnt in loue vpon them, and sent messengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bedde of loue, they defyled her with their whoredome: and so was she polluted with them, and her lust was abated from them.

18 And she discouered her whoredome, and disclosed her shame: then my hart forsooke her, lyke as my hart was gonne from her sister also.

19 Neuertheless, she encreased her whoredome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt.

20 She burnt in lust vppon their lechers, whose fleash was lyke the fleathe of asses, and their issue like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou hast called to remembrance the fylthynesse of thy youth, when thy teates were bruised by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl rayse vp thy louers agaynst thee from whom thy hart is departed, and geather them togeather agaynst thee on euery syde.

23 (Namely) the Babylonians and al the Chaldees, "rulers, wealthie and mighty menne, with al the Assyrians, al pleasant young men, captaynes and princes, al valiant and renowmed ryding vpon horses.

24 These shal comme vpon thee with charrettes, wagons, and wheels, and great multitude of people, with buckler, shielde, and helmet they shal beset thee on euery syde: "I wyl geue iudgement before them, yea they them selues shal iudge thee according to their owne iudgement.

25 I wyl lay myne indignation vpon thee, so that they shal deale cruelly with thee: they shal cut of thy nose and thyne eares, and thy remnaunt shal fal by the swoorde, they shal cary away thy sonnes and daughters, and the residue shalbe deuoured by the fyre.

26 They shal strip thee out of thy clothes, and

(a) Meaning Israel and Iuda, which came both out of one familie.

(b) They became idolaters after the maner of the Egyptians.

(c) Aholah signifieth a mansion or dwelling in her selfe, meaning Samaria, which was the royal citie of Israel, and Aholibah signifyeth, My mansion in her, whereby is ment Hierusalem, where gods temple was.

(d) Or, vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of god: they became idolaters, forsoke god, & put their trust in the Assyrians.

(e) The holy ghost vseth these termes which seeme strange to chaste eares, to cause this wicked vice of idolatrie so to be abhorred, that vnneth any should abide to heare the name therof mentioned.

C

(f) This declareth that no woordes are able sufficiently to expresse the rage of idolaters, and therfore the holy ghost here compareth them to those which in their raging loue & filthy lustes dote vpon the images and paintinges of them after whom they lust.

D

"Or, Pekod, and Shoah, and Koa.

"Or, I wyl leaue the punishment vnto them.

and take away thy fayre iewels.

27 Thus wyl I make thy wickednesse to ceasse from thee, and thy fornication out of the lande of Egypt: so that thou shalt turne thyne eyes no more after them, and cast thy mynde no more vpon Egypt.

E 28 For thus sayth the Lorde God, Behold, I wyl deliuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hatest, yea, euen into the hands of them from whom thyne harte is departed.

29 And they shal deale hatefully with thee, and take away al thy (g) labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the shame of thy fornications (h) shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

(g) Al the treasures and riches which thou hast gotten by labour.

(h) Al the worlde shal see thy shameful forsakyng of God to serue idolles.

30 I wyl doo these thynges vnto thee, because thou hast gonne a whoorying after the heathen, & because thou art polluted with their idolles.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy syster, therfore wyl I geue her cup into thine hande.

32 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Thou shalt drynke of thy systers cup deepe and large, thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had in derision, because it conteyneth muche.

(i) Meanyng, that the afflictions should be so great, that they should cause them to loose their senses and reason.

33 Thou shalt be filled with (i) drunkennesse and sorowe (euen) with the cup of destruction and desolation, with the cuppe of thy syster Samaria.

34 Thou shalt drynke it, and sucke it out, and thou shalt breake the sheardes thereof, and teare thyne owne brestes: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

35 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, For as much as thou hast forgotten me, and cast me aside behynde thy backe, so beare nowe thyne owne wickednesse and whoredome.

F 36 The Lorde sayde moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not iudge Aholah, and Aholibah? shewe them their abominations.

37 (Namely) that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their hands: and with their idols haue they committed adulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe (by the fire) to be their (k) meate.

(k) That is, to be sacrifices to their idols. Reade, Ezech. 16. c.

38 Yea, and this haue they donne vnto me also, they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, and haue prophaned my Sabbothes.

(l) They sent into other countreys to haue such as should teach them the seruice of their idolles.

39 For when they had slayne their children for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuarie to defile it: and lo, thus haue they done in the myddest of myne house.

40 And howe muche more (is it) that they sent for men to comme from (l) farre, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and loe, they came: for whom thou dyddest washe thee selfe, and paynted thyne eyes, and deckedst thee with ornamentes.

41 Thou satest vpon a stately bed, and a (m) table spread before it, whereupon thou hast set myne incense and myne oyle.

(m) He meaneth the auters that was prepared for the idolles. " or, the table.

42 And a noyse of a mery company at "it, and with the men, beside the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the desart, which gaue them bracelettes vpon their handes, and beautiful crownes vpon their heades.

43 And I sayde vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe shal her fornications come to an ende, and she also.

44 And they went in to her as they go vnto a G common harlot: euen so went they to Aholah and Aholibah, those wicked women.

45 And the ryghteous men they shal iudge them after the maner of harlottes, and after the maner of murderers: for they are harlottes, and blood is in their handes. Ezech. 16. d

46 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl bryng a great multitude of people vpon them, and geue them to be scattered and spoyled.

47 And the multitude shal stone them with stones, & cut them downe with their swordes, they shal slaye their sonnes and daughters, and burne vp their houses with fyre.

48 Thus wyl I cause wickednesse to ceasse out of the land, that al (n) women may be taught not to doo after your wickednesse.

(n) Meanyng al other cities and countreyes.

49 And so they shal lay your wickednesse vpon your owne selues, & the sinnes of your idols shal ye beare: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

3. He prooueth the firyng of Hierusalem by a parable of a seething pot.

1 IN the (a) nynth yere, in ỹ tenth moneth, the tenth day of the (b) moneth, came the word of the Lorde vnto me, sayeing,

(a) Of Iechonias captiuitie, and of the raigne of Zedekias. 2. king. 25. a

2 O thou sonne of man, wryte thee the name of this day, yea, euen of this present day: for the kyng of Babylon set hym selfe agaynst Hierusalem this selfe same day.

(b) Called Tebeth, conteynyng part of December and parte of Ianuarie, in which moneth and day Nabuchodonosor besieged Hierusalem.

3 And shew the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lord God, Prepare a (c) pot, set it on, & powre water into it.

(c) Whereby is meant Hierusalem.

4 Geather the (d) peeces therof into it, euery good peece, the thygh and the shoulder, and fyl it with the cheefe bones.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, " and burne also bones vnder it: let it boyle wel, and let the

(d) That is, the citizens & chefe men therof. " or, heape.

the bones therevnto see the wel therein.

6 With that saith the Lord God on this maner, Wo vnto the bloodie citie, to the pot whose scumme is therein, & whose scumme is not gone out of it: bring it out (e) peece by peece, let no (f) lot fal vpon it.

(e) Signifiyng they shoulde not be destroyed al at once, but by litle and litle
(f) Spare no state or condition.

7 For her blood is in the middest of it, vpon a high drye (g) stone hath she powred it, & not vppon the ground, that it myght be couered with dust.

(g) The citie shewed her crueltie to al the worlde, and was not ashamed thereof, neyther yet hydde it.

8 That it myght cause wrath to aryse, and take vengeance: I haue set her blood vpon a high (drye) rocke, that it shoulde not be couered.

9 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, O wo be vnto the bloodthirsty citie, for whom euen I mee selfe wyl make a great fire, 10 And heape on muche wood, and (h) kindle the fire, and seethe the fleshe, & " spice the pot, so that the very bones shalbe brent.

(h) Meaning that the citie shoulde be vtterly destroyed, and that he wold geue the enimies an appetite therevnto.
" or, taste in spice.

11 Moreouer, I wyl set the pot emptie vpon the coales, so that the brasse thereof may be hot and burnt, and the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, and the scumme of it shalbe consumed.

12 She hath weeryed her selfe with "labour, yet her great scumme is not gonne of her, in the fire her scumme (must be consumed.)

13 In thy filthinesse is wickednesse: because I (i) woulde haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged from thy filthynesse, thou shalt not be purged any more, tyl I haue caused myne indignation to rest in thee.

" or, tyres.
(i) I laboured by sending my prophete to cal thee to repentance, but thou wouldest not.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue spoken it: yea, it is come thereto already that I wyl doo it, I wyl not goe backe, I wyl not spare, I wyl not repent: but according to thy wayes & imaginations shal they (k) iudge thee, sayth the Lorde God.

(k) That is, the Babylonians.

15 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

16 Thou sonne of man, behold, I wyl take awaye from thee the (l) pleasure of thyne eyes with a plague, yet shalt thou neyther mourne nor weepe, neyther shal thy teares runne downe.

(l) Meanyng, his wyfe, in whom he delyghted, as, verse. 18.

17 Mourne in silence, make no mourning of the dead, bynde the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy shooes vppon thy feete, couer not thy lyppes, and (m) eate no mans bread.

(m) For mourners were wont to eate bread sent vnto them by theyr neighbours in tyme of mournyng.

18 So I spake vnto the people betymes in the morning, and at euen my wyfe dyed: then vpon the next morow I dyd as I was commaunded.

19 And the people saide vnto me, Wylt thou not tel vs what this signifieth towarde vs that thou dooest so?

20 I answeared them, The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing, D

21 Tel the house of Israel, thus sayth the lord God, Behold, I wil pollute my sanctuary, euen the glory of your power, the pleasure of your eyes, and your hartes delite: & your sonnes and daughters whom ye haue left, shal fal through the sworde.

22 Lyke as I haue done, so shal ye doo also: ye shal not couer your lyppes, ye shal eate no mans bread.

23 And your tyre (shalbe) vppon your heades, and your shooes vppon your feete: ye shal neyther mourne nor weepe, but ye shal pyne away in your iniquities, and mourne one towardes another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is your shewetoken: according to al that he hath done, ye shal doe: when it commeth, then ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Also, thou sonne of man, shal it not be in the day when I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleasure of their eyes, and the (n) lyfting vp of theyr soules, theyr sonnes and theyr daughters?

(n) Theyr hartes delite

26 In that day shal come one that is escaped, vnto thee, (o) (and bryng it) to the hearyng of (thyne) eares.

(o) That is, bryng thee tydynges of the destruction of Hierusalem.

27 In that day shal thy mouth be opened to hym whiche is escaped, that thou mayst speake, and be no more dumbe: yea, thou shalt be theyr shewe token, that they maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxv. Chapter.

I. The woorde of the Lorde vppon the sonnes of Ammon, whiche reioyced at the fal of Hierusalem. 8. Againſt Moab and Seir, against Idumea, against the Philistines.

1 THE woord of the Lord came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the Ammonites, and prophecie vpon them.

(a) Because ye reioyced when the enimie destroyed my citie and temple.

3 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heare the word of the Lord God, thus sayth the Lord God, For so muche as thou saydest (a) Ha ha ouer my sanctuarie because it was polluted, and ouer the lande of Israel because it was desolate, and ouer the house of Iuda because they went into captiuitie:

(b) That is, to the Babylonians.

4 Beholde therefore, I wyl delyuer thee to the people of the (b) East, that they maye haue thee in possession: these shal settle their (c) palaces in thee, and make their dwellynges in thee, they shal eate thy fruite, and drynke vp thy mylke.

(c) They shal chase thee away, and take thy gorgeous houses to dwel in.

5 As

5 As for (d) Rabbath, I wyl make of it a stable for Camels, and of the Ammonites a sheepefolde: and ye shal know that I am the Lorde.

(d) Called also Philadelphia, whiche was the cheefe citie of the Ammonites, & ful of conduites, as 2. Sam. 12. d.

6 For thus sayth the Lord God, Insomuch as thou hast clapped with thyne handes, and stamped with thy feete, yea and reioyced ouer the lande of Israel with al thy "despite in hart:

"or, tyckling of hart.

7 Beholde therfore, I wyl stretche out my hand ouer thee, and deliuer thee to be spoyled of the heathen, and roote thee out from among the people, and cause thee to perishe out of the landes, yea I wyl make thee to be destroyed, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Forsomuche as Moab and Seir do say, Beholde, the house of Juda is lyke as al gentiles be:

9 Therefore beholde I wyl open the syde of Moab from the cities, from his cities (I say) of his frontires, the pleasures of the countrey (as namely) Bethiesimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim:

(e) Vnderstande out of the next former verse, I wyl open. &c.

10 (e) Unto the children of the east against the Ammonites, and wyl geue it into possession, so that the Ammonites shal no more be had in remembrance among the heathen.

11 And I wyl execute iudgementes vpon Moab, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Thus sayth the Lorde God, For that Edom hath done in auenging reuengement vpon the house of Juda, and hath done great offence and auenged hym selfe vpon them:

13 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl reache out myne hande vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, I wyl make it desolate from Theman, and Dedanah shal falle by the swoorde.

14 And I wyl execute my reuengement vpon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, they shal do in Edom accordyng to my wrath and indignation, so that they shal knowe my vengeance, sayth the Lorde God.

"or, tyckling hart, as they often haue whiche delite in see. kyng reuengement.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde God, For that the Philistines did in vengeance, (namely) in auengyng reuengement, with a "despiteful hart to destroy it for the olde enmitie:

(f) Whiche were certain garisons of Philistines, wherby they oft molested the Iewes. Of the Cerethites Dauid also had a garde. 2. Sam. 8. d.

16 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil stretche out my hande ouer the Philistines, and destroy the (f) Cerethites, and cause al the remnant of the sea coast to perishe:

17 A great vengeance wil I take vpon them, with pounishmentes of my wrath, that they may know that I am the Lord, when I shal lay my vengeance vpon them.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

I. He prophecieth that Tyrus shalbe ouerthrowen, because it reioyced at the destruction of Hierusalem.

1 AND it came to passe in the (a) eleuenth yeere, the first day of the moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

(a) Eyther of the captiuitie of Ieconias, or of the raigne of Zedekias.

2 Thou sonne of man, because that Tyre hath spoken vpon Hierusalem, Haha, the gates of the people is broken, (b) it is turned vnto me, for nowe that she is destroyed I shalbe (c) fylled:

(b) The traffique of merchandize that was vsed in Hierusalem, shal be turned to me agayne.

3 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, Beholde, O Tyre, I wyl vpon thee, I wyl rayse vp many nations agaynst thee, lyke as when the sea aryseth with his waues.

(c) My riches & fame shal encrease: thus the wicked reioyce at theyr fal by whō they may haue any profite or aduantage.

4 They shal breake the walles of Tyre, and cast downe her towres, I wyl scrape her dust from her, and make her a drye rocke.

5 She shalbe for a spreading of nettes in the sea, for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lord God, and she shalbe for a spoyle to the nations.

(d) Meanyng the smal townes and villages that were in the countrey or territorie of Tyrus.

6 Her (d) daughters that are in the feelde shalbe slayne with the swoorde, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

7 For thus sayth the Lord God, Behold, I wil bring vpon Tyrus Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon from the north, a kyng of kinges, with horses, charrets, horsemen, with a multitude, and muche people.

8 Thy daughters that are in the feeld shal he slay with the swoorde: but agaynst thee he shal make bulwarkes, and cast a mount agaynst thee, and lift vp his speare against thee.

9 He shal set engins of warre before hym agaynst thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towres.

10 The dust of his horses shal couer thee they shalbe so many, thy walles shal shake at the noyse of the horsemen, wheeles, and chariots, when he shal enter into thy gates, as into the entrie of a citie broken downe.

11 With the hoofes of his horses shal he treade downe al thy streetes, he shal slay the people with the swoorde, and the pyllers of thy strength shal fal downe to the grounde.

12 They shal rob thy riches, and spoyle thy merchandize, thy walles shal they breake downe, and destroy thy houses of pleasure, thy stones, thy tymber and dust shal they cast into the myddest of the water. Iere. 7. b.

13 Thus wil I cause the sounde of thy songs to to ceasse, and the noyse of thy harpes shal no more be heard.

¶ 14 I wyl bryng thee into a drye rocke, thou shalt be for a spreading of nets, thou shalt neuer be built againe: for euen I the Lorde haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

15 Thus hath the Lord God spoken concernyng Tyre, Shal not the Iles tremble at the noyse of thy fal, and at the crye of the wounded, when they shalbe slayne and murdered in the middest of thee?

(e) The gouernous and rulers of other countreys by the sea, whereby he signifieth that her destruction should be so horrible that al the world should heare thereof, and be afrayde.

16 Al princes of the (e) sea shal come downe from theyr thrones, they shal lay away theyr robes, and put of theyr brodered garmentes, yea with tremblyng shal they be clothed, they shal sit vpon the ground, they shalbe astonished at euery moment, and be amased at thee.

17 They shal mourne for thee, and say vnto thee, How art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of the (f) seas, the renowmed citie whiche was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitantes, whiche caused theyr feare to be on al that haunted therein?

(f) Meanyng merchantes, whiche by their traffique did enriche her wonderfully, and encrease her power.

18 Nowe shal the inhabitours of the Iles be astonished in the day of thy fal: yea the Iles that are in the sea shalbe troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus sayth the Lorde God, When I make thee a desolate citie, as other cities be that no man dwel in, and when I bring vp the deepe vpon thee, that great waters may couer thee:

20 Then wil I cast thee downe vnto them that descende into the pyt, vnto a people of (g) olde time, and set thee in a land that is beneath, like the olde ruines, with them whiche goe downe to the graue, so that no man shal dwel more in thee: but I wyl reserue honour for the (h) land of the liuing:

(g) Whiche are dead long ago.

(h) Meanyng Iudea, when it shalbe restored.

21 I wyl "make thee terrours, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou not be founde for euermore, sayth the Lorde God.

" or, I wyl bring thee to nought.

The .xxviii. Chapter.

1. The woorde of God agaynst the kyng of Tyrus for his pryde.

1 THE woord of the Lord came vnto me, A
2 saying.
Thou sonne of man, Tel the prince of Tyre, thus sayth the Lorde God, Because thou hast a proude harte, and hast sayde, I am a (a) God, I sit in the seate of God, in the myddest of the sea: whereas thou art but a man, and not God, (b) though thou set thyne hart as the hart of God.
(a) Lyke as God is safe in heauen, euen so I am safe that none canne comme to hurt me.
(b) Though thou diddest thynke in thine harte that thou wast equal with God.
3 Beholde, thou thynkest thee selfe wyser then (c) Daniel, that there is no secretes hyd from thee.
(c) Thus he speaketh by derision, for Daniel had declared notable signes of his wysedome in Babylon, when Ezechiel wrote this.
4 With thy wysdome and thine vnderstandyng thou hast gotten thee great wealthynesse, and geathered treasure of syluer and golde.
5 With thy great wysdome and occuppying hast thou encreased thy "power, and because of thy great riches thy hart is proud.
"or, riches.
6 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, For so muche as thou hast set thyne hart as the hart of God:
7 Beholde, I wyl bryng strangers vppon thee, euen the terrible nations, these shall drawe out theyr swoordes vppon the beautie of thy wysdome, and shal defile thy glory.
8 They shal caste thee downe to the pit, so that thou shalt dye the death of them that be slayne in the myddest of the sea.
9 Wylt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God? whereas thou art but a man, and not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.
10 Dye shalt thou the death of the (d) vncircumcised in the handes of the strangers: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.
(d) Lyke the rest of the heathen and infidels, whiche are gods enimies.
11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,
12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vppon the kyng of Tyre, and tel hym, thus sayth the Lorde God, Thou sealest vp the summe, (e) ful of wysedome and perfite beautie.
(e) He derideth the vayne opinion and confidence that the Tyrians had in theyr riches, strength, and pleasures.
13 Thou hast ben in the pleasant garden of God, thou art deckte with al maner of precious stones, with Rubie, Topas, Diamond, Thurkis, Onyx, Iasper, Saphyr, Emeralde, Carbuncle, & golde: the woorkmanship of thy timbzelles, and of thy pipes (that (chat be) in thee, was prepared in the day that thou wast created.

℣ 14 Thou art an (f) annoynted Cherub that couereth, & I haue set thee (in this dignitie) thou wast vppon the holy mount of God, thou hast walked in the myds of the stones of fyre.

15 From the tyme of thy creation thou hast benne perfite in thy wayes, tyl wickednesse was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandize they haue filled the myddes of thee with crueltie, and thou hast sinned: I wyl caste thee as prophane out of the (g) mount of God, and I wyl destroy thee, O couerynge Cherub, from the myddes of the stones of fire.

17 Thy hart was proud in thy beautie, and thrugh thy brightnesse thou hast destroyed thy wysedome: I wyl caste thee downe to the ground, I wyl laye thee before kinges, that they may beholde thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy (h) sanctification with the great wickednes of thine vnrighteous occupying: I wyl bryng a fire from the myddest of thee, to consume thee, and wyl make thee to ashes vppon the earth, in the sight of al them that looke vppon thee.

19 Al they that haue ben acquaynted with thee among the heathen, shalbe abashed at thee: thou hast ben a terrour, & neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

℣ 21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst Sidon, and prophecie vpon it,

22 And speake, Thus sayth the Lord God, Beholde, O Sidon, I wyl vpon thee, and I wyl be glorified in the myddest of thee: that it may be knowen how that I am the Lorde, when I shal haue executed iudgementes in her, and shalbe sanctified in her.

23 For I wyl sende pestilence and bloodsheddyng into her streetes, and the slayne shal fal in the myddes of her by the swoord (commyng) vppon her on euery side: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

24 They shalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the house of Israel, nor a greeuous thorne of al that are rounde about them and despised them: and they shal know that I am the Lorde God.

25 Thus sayth the Lorde God, When I geather the housholde of Israel togeather agayne from the nations among whom they be scattered, then shal I be sanctified in them in the sight of the gentiles, and they shal dwel in the lande that I gaue to my seruant Iacob.

26 They shal dwel with confidence therin, buylde houses, and plant vineyardes, yea, with confidence shal they dwel therein, when I haue executed iudgementes vppon al those that despise them rounde about: and then shal they knowe that I am the Lorde their God.

(f) He meaneth the royal state of Tyrus, whiche for the excellencie and glorye therof, he compareth to the Cherubims whiche couered the arke: and by this word annoynted, he signifieth the same.

(g) Thou shalt haue no parte among my people.

(h) That is, the honour whereunto I called thee.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth agaynst Pharao, and of the desolation of Egypt, with the sparkling abroade of the Egyptians.

1 IN the (a) tenth yeere, vppon the twelfth day of the tenth moneth, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst Pharao the kyng of Egypt, prophecie agaynst hym, and against the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake, and tel hym, thus sayth the Lord God, Beholde, O Pharao, thou kyng of Egypt, I wyl vppon thee thou great (b) dragon that lyeth in the myddes of his ryuers, thou that sayest, The ryuer is mine, I haue made it for mee selfe.

4 I wyl put (c) hookes in thy chawes, and hang the fishe in thy ryuers vpon thy skales: after that, I wyl drawe thee out of the myddest of thy ryuers, yea, and al the fishe of thy ryuers shal hang vpon thy skales.

5 I wyl leaue thee in the wildernesse (both) thee and al the fish of thy ryuers: thou shalt fal vpon the open feelde, thou shalt not be brought togeather, nor geathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beastes of the feelde, and to the fowles of the "ayre.

6 That al they which dwel in Egypt, may knowe that I am the Lorde, because they haue benne a staffe of reede to the house of Israel.

7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hande, thou brakest and rent al their shoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakest and madest al their loynes to stand vpryght.

8 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl bryng a swoorde vppon thee, and destroy out of thee both man and beast.

9 Yea, the lande of Egypt shalbe desolate and waste, & they shal know that I am the Lorde, because he saide, The riuer is mine, I mee selfe haue made it.

10 Beholde therfore, I wyl vpon thee and vppon thy ryuers, I wyl make the lande of Egypt vtterly waste and desolate, from the towre of Seueneh, vnto the borders of Ethiopia.

11 No foote of man shal passe by it, nor foote

(a) To wit of the captiuitie of Ieconias, and of the raigne of Zedekias: But note that the disposition of these visions are not set foorthaccordyng to the order of the tymes: but accordyng to the nearnes and distance of the countreys against whom they were writte. As the vision of Tyrus, seene in the eleuēthyere, is set before this seene in the tenth yere, because it was nearer to Iurie then Egypt.

(b) He compareth Pharao to a dragon or crocodile which was wont to haunt the riuer Nilus.

(c) I wyll send enimies against thee, whiche shal plucke thee and thy people that trust in thee out of thy sure places.

of beast shal passe by it, neither shal it be inhabited fourtie yeeres.

12 I wyl make the land of Egypt to be desolate among other waste countreyes, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeeres among other destroyed cities: and I wyl scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them through the countreyes.

Jer. 46.d. 13 Agayne, thus saith the Lord God, When the fourtie yeeres are expired, I wyl gather the Egyptians togeather agayne out of the nations among whom they were scattered.

℣ 14 And I wyl bring the captiuitie of Egypt agayne, & cause them to returne into the lande of Pathros, the land of theyr habitation, and they shalbe there a (d) smal kingdome.

(d) Meanyng that they should not haue ful dominion, but be vnder the Persians, Gretians, & Romanes: & the cause is, that the Israelites shoulde no more put theyr truste in them, but learne to depende on God.

15 Yea it shalbe the smalest among other kyngdomes, neyther shal it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I wyl so minishe them, that they shal no more rule the nations.

16 And they shalbe no more vnto the house of Israel a truste, which bringeth their iniquitie to remembrance, when they shal looke after them: and they shal know that I am the Lorde God.

(e) Counting fro the captiuitie of Ieconias.

17 In the (e) twentie and seuenth yeere, the firste day of the first moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon caused his armie to serue a great seruice agaynst Tyrus: euery head was made balde, and euerye shoulder bare, yet had neither he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus for the seruice whiche he serued agaynst it.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl geue the lande of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and spoyle her spoyles, and take her pray to pay his host theyr wages withal.

" The trauaile he toke about Tyre

20 For the " woorke which he wrought about it, I haue geuen hym the lande of Egypt, because they wrought for me, saith the Lorde God.

21 In that day I wyl cause the horne of the house of Israel to bud foorth, and I wyl geue thee the openyng of thy mouth in the mids of them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxx. Chapter.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewayled.

℣ 1 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophesie, and speake, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Howle, woe woorth this day:

3 For the day is neare, the day of the Lorde is at hande, the " darke day, the tyme of the nations shalbe.

" or, a clowdie day.

4 And the swoorde shal come vpon Egypt: and feare shalbe in Ethiopia when the slayne shal fal in Egypt: and they shal take away her multitude, and her fundations shalbe broken downe.

5 Yea Ethiopia, Libya, and Lydia, al their common people, and Chub, and al that be confederate vnto them, shal fal with them through the swoorde.

6 Thus sayth the Lorde, the mayntayners of the lande of Egypt shal fal, the pryde of her power shal come downe: euen from the towre of (a) Seueneh shal they fal downe in it with the swoorde, sayth the Lorde God.

(a) Whiche was a strong citie of Egypt. B

7 Among other desolate countreyes they shalbe made desolate, among other waste cities they shalbe wasted.

8 And they shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue set a fire in Egypt, and when al her helpers shalbe destroyed.

9 In that day shal messengers goe foorth from me in shyppes, to make the careleſſe Moryans afrayde, and feare shall come vpon them, accoryding to the day of Egypt: for loe it commeth.

10 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wil cause the multitude of Egypt to ceasse by ý hand of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon.

11 He, and his people with him, the terrible nations shalbe brought to destroy the land: they shal drawe out theyr swoordes vpon Egypt, and fyl the lande ful of slayne men.

12 I wyl make theyr riuers drye, and sel the lande into the handes of wycked (people:) the lande and al that is therein I wyl destroy through the hande of strangers: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it.

13 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl destroy the idols, and bring the images of (b) Noph to an ende: there shal no more be a prince of Egypt, and a feareſulneſſe wyl I sende into the Egyptians lande.

(b) Called also Memphis, or Alkaira.

14 As for Pathros I wil make it desolate, and kyndle a fyre in (c) Zoan, and I wyl execute iudgementes in (d) No.

(c Or, Thaphnis.

(d) Which is supposed of diuers to be the citie Alexandria.

15 And I wyl powre out my wrathful indignation vpon Sin ý strength of Egypt, and I wyl destroy the multitude of No.

" or, Heliopolis.

16 And I wil kindle a fire in Egypt, Sin shalbe in great brauineſſe, No shalbe rooted out, and Noph shal haue dayly sorowe.

17 The young men of " Auen, and of "Phibeseth shal fal by the swoorde, and these (cities) shal goe into captiuitie.

(e)Meaning that there shalbe great sorowes and afflictions, when the strength and force of Egypt shalbe broken.

18 At Tehaphnees the day shalbe (c) darke, when I breake there the barres of Egypt, and when the pompe of her power shal ceasse in her: a cloude shal couer her, and her daughters shal goe into captiuitie.

19 Thus wyl I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they shal knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

(f) Of the captiuitie of Ieconias, or raigne of Zedekias.

20 And in the (f) eleuenth yeere, vpon the seuenth day of the firste moneth, the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

21 Thou sonne of man, I haue (g) broken the arme of Pharao kyng of Egypt: and loe, it shal not be bounde vp to be healed, to put a roller to binde it, to make it strong to holde the swoorde.

(g)For Nabuchodonosor destroyed Pharao Necho at Charchemish. Iere. 46. d.

22 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil vpon Pharao king of Egypt, & breake his arme that was strong, but is broken: and I wil cause the swoorde to fal out of his hande.

23 As for the Egyptians I wil scatter them among the nations, and strawe them in the landes about.

24 Agayne, I wyl strengthen the arme of the kyng of Babylon, and geue hym my swoorde in his hande, but I wyl breake Pharaos armes, and he shal grone the gronynges of a deadly wounded man before hym:

(h)Whereby we see that tyrauntes haue no power of them selues, neither can do any more harme then god appoynteth, and when he wyl they must ceasse.

25 Yea I wyl strengthen the kyng of Babylons arme, & the armes of Pharao shal fal downe: and they shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I shal (h) geue my swoorde into the hand of the kyng of Babylon, that he may stretche it out vpon the lande of Egypt.

26 And I wil scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them in the landes about: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

I. A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians. 10. He prophecieth a lyke destruction to them both.

(a)Of Zedekias raigne, or Ieconias captiuitie.

1 MOreouer, in the (a) eleuenth yeere, the firste day of the thirde moneth, the woord of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

(b)Meaning that he was not lyke in strength to the kyng of the Assyrians, whom the Babylonians ouercame.

2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, & to al his people, Whom art thou (b) lyke in thy greatnesse?

3 Beholde, Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with fayre branches, and with thicke shadowyng bowes of a high stature, and his toppe was among the thicke bowes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe set hym vp on high, with the riuers running rounde about his plantes, and set out her (c) litle riuers vnto al the trees of the feelde.

(c)Many other nations which were vnder theyr dominion.

5 Therfore was he higher then al the trees of the feelde, and his bowes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters which the deepe sent out.

6 Al foules of the * ayre made theyr neastes in his branches, vnder his bowes dyd al the beastes of the feelde bring foorth theyr young, & vnder his shadow dwelt al mightie nations.

* or, heauen

7 Beautiful was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his branches: for his roote stoode beside great waters.

8 No Cedar tree myght (d) hyde hym in the garden of God, there was no Fyre trees lyke his braunches, the Chestnutte trees were not lyke the boughes of hym: al the trees in the garden of God myght not be compared vnto hym in his beautie.

(d)Signifying that there was no greater power in the world then his was.

9 I made hym fayre with the multitude of his branches: insomuche that al the trees in the pleasant garden of God had enuie at hym.

10 Therfore thus saith the Lord God, Forsomuche as he hath lyfte vp hym selfe so high, and hath shot vp his toppe among the thicke boughes, and his hart is lyft vp in his heigth:

11 I haue therefore deliuered hym into the handes of the (e) mightiest among the heathen: he shal handle him, (for) in his wickednesse haue I cast hym away.

(e)That is, Nabuchodonosor, who afterwarde was the monarche and only ruler of the worlde.

12 And strangers haue destroyed hym, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him: vpon the mountaynes & vpon al valleys haue his bowes fallen, and his boughes are (f) broken by al the riuers of the lande: and al the people of the earth are departed frō his shadowe, and haue forsaken him.

(f) Hereby is signified the destruction of the power of the Assyrians, by the Babylonians.

13 Upon his ruine shal al the fowles of the * ayre remayne, and al the beastes of the feelde shalbe vpon his branches.

* or, heauen

14 So that none of al the trees by the waters shalbe exalted in theyr heigth, nor shoote vp theyr toppes among the thycke boughes, neyther shal theyr trees stande in their heigth, as many of them as drynke water: for they are al delinered vnto death in the nether partes of the earth, in the middes of the childzen of men, among them that goe downe to the pyt.

(g) The depe waters that caused him to mount so high (meanyng his great abundance and pompe,) shal nowe lament as they whiche in mourning were couered with sackcloth.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde God, in the day when he went downe to the graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I (g) couered the deepe for hym, I restrayned the

fluddes therof, and the great waters were stayed, I caused Libanus to mourne for hym, and al the trees of the feelde faynted.

16 I made the Heathen shake at the sounde of his fal, when I cast hym downe to hel with them that descende into the pit: all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Libanus, al that (h) drinke waters, shalbe (i) comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hel with hym vnto them that be slayne with the swoorde, whiche were his arme (and) dwelt vnder his shadowe in the middest of the nations.

18 To whom art thou thus lyke in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden vnto the neather partes of the earth: in the myddest of the vncircumcised shalt thou sleepe with them that are slayne with the swoorde: This is Pharao and al his multitude, sayth the Lorde God.

(h) That are nourished with waters.
(i) To cause this destruction of the king of Assyria to seeme more horrible, he setteth foorth other kynges and princes whiche are dead, as though they reioyced at the fal of suche a tyrant.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

The prophete is commaunded to bewaile Pharao kyng of Egypt. 12. He prophecyeth that destruction shal come vnto Egypt through the kyng of Babylon.

A 1 IN the (a) twelfth yere, the first day of the twelfth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the kyng of Egypt, and say vnto him, Thou art (b) like a lion of the Heathen, and as a whale fyshe in the sea: thou drawest out thy riuers, thou (c) troublest the waters with thy feete, and stampest in their riuers,

3 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl spread my net ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee comme vp into my net.

4 For I wyl leaue thee vpon the lande, and cast thee vpon the open feelde, and I wyl cause al the foules of the ayre to remayne vpon thee, and fyl al the beastes of the feeld with thee.

5 Thy fleashe wyl I lay vpon the hylles, and fyl the valleys with thy (d) hyghnesse.

6 I wyl (e) water thyne ouerflowing lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, and the riuers shalbe ful of thee.

7 When thou art put out I wyl couer the heauen, and make his starres dimme: I wyl spreade a cloud ouer the sunne, and the moone shal not geue her lyght.

8 Al the lightes of heauen wil I make darke for thee: & bryng darknesse vpon thy lande, sayth the Lorde God.

(a) Whiche was the first yeere of the generall captiuitie vnder Zedekias.
(b) Thus the scriptures compare tyrantes to cruel & huge beastes, whiche deuour al that be weaker then they, & such as they may ouercome.
(c) Thou disquieteste the worlde with warre.
(d) With the heapes of the carkasses of thyne armie.
(e) As Nilus ouerfloweth Egypt, so wyl I make the blood of thyne host to ouerflowe it.

9 I wyl stirre vp to anger the hartes of many people, when I bryng thy destruction among the Heathen, and vpon the countreys whiche thou knowest not.

10 Yea I wyl make many people amased at thee, and their kynges shalbe astonished with feare for thee, when I shal make my swoorde to glitter agaynst their faces: and they shalbe afrayde at euery moment euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fal.

11 For thus sayth the Lord God, The king of Babylons swoorde shal come vpon thee:

12 With the swoordes of the mightie wyl I smite downe thy multitude: they al shalbe terrible nations, and they shal destroy the (f) pompe of Egypt, and the multitude thereof shalbe consumed.

13 I wyl destroy also al the beastes thereof from the great waters sydes, neyther shal the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hoones of beastes trouble them.

14 Then wyl I make their waters (g) deepe, and cause their ryuers to runne lyke (h) oyle, sayth the Lorde God.

15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with al that is therin shalbe layd waste, and when I smite al them whiche dwel in it, then shal they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mournyng when they shal lament her, The daughters of the nations shal lament her, they shal make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer al the people thereof, sayth the Lorde God.

17 In the twelfth yere, the fyfteenth day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, sayeing, 18 Thou sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, & (i) cast them downe, euē them and the daughters of the famous nations, vnto the neather partes of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pyt.

19 Whom doest thou passe in (k) beautie? go downe & sleepe with the vncircumcised.

20 Among those that be slayne with the swoorde shal they lye, to the swoorde is (l) she alredy deliuered: drawe her downe, and al her multitude.

21 The (m) mightie worthyes shal speake to her out of the midst of hel, & to her helpers: they are gone downe & sleepe (with) the vncircumcised that be slayne with the swoorde:

22 Assur is there also with al his company, and their graues round about hym, which were slayne and fel al with the swoorde:

23 Whose graues are made in the syde of the pit, and his multitude are round about his graue, (to wit) al the slayne and fallen by the swoorde, which cause a feare (to be)

(f) This came to passe in lesse then fourtie yeres after the prophecie.
(g) The inhabitantes of Egypt shalbe so cleane destroyed, that there shal remayne none to drawe the waters out of the riuers to water theyr grounds as before, wherby it shalbe the deeper in his channel.
(h) That is, cleare and vntroubled with feete passyng thorowe the foordes.
(i) That is, prophecie that they shalbe cast downe. Thus the Lord geueth power both to plant & to destroy by his word.
(k) Haue not other kyngdomes more beautiful thē thou perished?
(l) That is, Egypt.
(m) To make the matter more sensible, he bryngeth in Pharao as though the dead should meete him when he is slayne, and marueyle at hym.

He setteth out the office of the gouernours and ministers. 14. He strengtheneth them that dispayre, and boldeneth them with the promise of mercy.

in the lande of the lyuyng.

24 There is Elam also, with al his people rounde about his graue: whiche al beyng slayne and fallen with the swoorde, are gonne downe vncircumcised vnder the earth, whiche neuertheleſſe sometyme brought feare into the lande of ỹ (o) liuing: they beare their owne shame, with the other that be gonne downe to the graue.

(n) They which beyng a lyue were a terrour to al the world, nowe beyng dead, are despised both of the lyuing & the dead.

25 They haue made his bed in the middest of the slayne, with al his multitude, their graues are rounde about hym: al these vncircumcised slayne by the swoord, although they caused their feare in the lande of the lyuyng, yet haue they borne their shame with them that got downe to the pyt, they are layde in the middest of them that are slayne.

(o) That is, the Capadotians and Italians, or Spaniardes Iosephus writeth.

26 There is (o) Mesech also and Tubal, and their people, and their graues rounde about hym: these al vncircumcised were slayne with the swoord, because afore tyme they made the lande of the lyuyng afrayde.

27 They shal not lye with the (p) valiant (whiche are) fallen of the vncircumcised, whiche are gonne downe to the graue with their weapons of warre, and haue layde their swoordes vnder their heades: but their iniquitie shalbe vpon their bones, because the terrour of their myghtie (was) in the lande of the lyuyng.

(p) Whiche dyed not by cruel death: but by the course of nature, and are honorably buryed with their coate armour and signes of honour.

28 Yea, and among the vncircumcised shalt thou be destroyed, & sleepe with them that perished through the swoorde.

29 There is Edom with her kynges and princes also, which with their strength are layde by them that were slayne with the swoorde: yea among the vncircumcised shal they sleepe, and with them whiche are gonne downe into the pyt.

30 Moreouer there be al the princes of the (q) north, with al the Sidonians, whiche are gonne downe with the slayne: with their feare and strength they are comme to confusion, and lye there vncircumcised among those that be slayne with the swoord, & beare their owne shame with them that be gonne downe to the pyt.

(q) That is, the kynges of Babylon.

(r) Lyke as the wicked reioyce, whē they see others partakers of their miseries.

31 Pharao shal see them, and be (r) comforted ouer al his multitude: Pharao and al his armie (shalbe) slayne with the swoorde, sayth the Lorde God,

(s) I wil make the Egyptiās afraid of me, as they haue caused other to feare them

32 For I haue geuen my feare (s) in the lande of the lyuyng: but Pharao and al his people shalbe layde among the vncircumcised, and among them that be slayne with the swoorde, sayth the Lorde God.

1 AGayne, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

A

2 Thou sonne of man, speake to the chyldren of thy people, and tel them, When I sende a swoorde vpon a land, yf the people of the land take a man of their coastes, and set hym to be their (a) watchman:

(a) He sheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernours and teachers, whiche may haue a care ouer them, & to warne thē euer of the dāgers which are at hande.

3 Yf when he seeth the swoord comme vpon the lande, he shal blowe the trumpet and warne the people:

4 Then he that heareth the noyse of the trumpet and wyl not be warned, and the swoorde comme and take hym away, his blood shalbe vpon his owne head.

5 For he heard the sounde of the trumpet, and would not be warned, therefore his blood be vpon hym: but he that receiueth warnyng, he shal saue his lyfe.

6 Agayne yf the watchman see the swoorde comme, and blowe not the trumpet, so that the people is not warned, yf the swoorde comme then, and take any man from amōg them: the same shalbe (b) taken away in his owne sinne, but his blood wil I require at the watchmans hande.

B

(b) Signifiyng that the wicked shal not escape punishment, though the watchmen be negligent: but yf the watchmen blowe the trumpet, and then he wyl not obey, he shal deserue double punishment. Cap. 3. c.

7 And thou, O sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the woorde at (c) my mouth, & thou shalt warne them from me.

(c) Whiche teacheth that he that receiueth not his charge and watchworde at the Lordes mouth, is a spye, and not a true watchman.

8 Yf I say vnto the wicked, Thou wicked, thou shalt surely dye: and thou speakest not to admonishe the wicked of his way: that wicked man shal dye in his owne sinne, but his blood wyl I require at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe yf thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it, and he yet wyl not be turned from his way: then shal he dye in his iniquitie, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

10 Therfore, O thou sonne of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, yea say thus, Yf our offences and sinnes lye vpō vs, and we be consumed in them, (d) howe shoulde we then lyue?

(d) Thus the wicked when they heare of Gods iudgementes for their sinnes, dispayre of his mercies, & murmure.

11 Tell them, as truely as I lyue, sayth the Lord God, I haue no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but muche rather that the wicked turne from his way, and lyue: Turne you, turne you from your wicked wayes, for why wyl ye dye, O ye of ỹ house of Israel?

12 Therefore thou sonne of man, tel the chyldren of thy people, The ryghteousneſſe of of the righteous shal not saue him in the day of his iniquitie: againe, the wickednesse of the wicked shal not ouerthrow him for it in the day that he returneth from his wickednesse: neither shal the righteous liue for (e) it in the day that he sinneth.

13 If I say vnto the righteous, he shal surely liue: and so he trust to his owne righteousnesse, and doo sinne: then shal his righteousnesse be no more thought vpon, but in his wickednesse that he hath donne, in it he shal die.

14 Againe, yf I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die: and so he turne from his sinnes, and (f) doo the thing that is lawful and right, 15 Insomuche that the same wicked man geueth the pledge againe, restoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commaundementes of life, and dooth none iniquitie: then shal he surely liue, and not dye.

16 None of the sinnes that he hath committed shalbe mentioned vnto him: for insomuche as he dooth nowe the thing that is lawful and right, he shal liue.

17 And yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: but their owne way is rather vnequal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousnesse, and dooth the thing that is wicked, he shal dye therein.

19 But yf the wicked turne from his wickednesse, dooing the thing that is lawful and right, he shal liue therefore.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I wyl iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the twelfth yeere, the fifth day of the tenth moneth of our (g) captiuitie, one whiche was escaped out of Hierusalem came vnto me, & said, The citie is smitten.

22 Nowe the (h) hande of the Lorde had ben vpon me the euening afore this man which was escaped came vnto me, and had (i) opened my mouth vntil the morning that he came to me: yea my mouth was opened, so that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, and saide,

24 Thou sonne of man, these that dwel in the wasted lande of Israel talke and say, (k) Abraham was but one (man) and he had the lande in possession: nowe are we many, and the lande is geuen vs to possesse also.

25 And therefore tel them, thus sayth the Lorde God, In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lift vp to idols, and haue shed blood: shal ye then haue the lande in possession?

26 Ye (l) leane vppon your swoordes, ye woorke abominations, euery one defyleth his neighbours wyfe: and shal ye possesse the lande?

27 Say thou thus vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, they that are in the desolate places shal fal by the swoorde, and him that is in the open feeld, wyl I geue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the strong holdes and dennes shal dye of the pestilence.

28 For I wyl make the land so desolate and waste, that the pompe of her strength shal ceasse: the mountaines of Israel shalbe so waste, that no man shal trauaile thereby. Ezech. 7. d.

29 Then shal they know that I am the lord, when I make the land desolate and waste, because of al their abominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou sonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of their houses, & speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Comme I pray you, let vs heare what word is gonne foorth from the Lord:

31 They come vnto thee as the people vseth to comme, and my people sit before thee & heare thy woordes, but they doo not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a (m) iest of them, and their hart goeth after their couetousnesse.

32 And loe, thou art vnto them as a (n) lesting song of one that hath a pleasant voyce and can sing wel: for they heare thy woordes, but doo them not.

33 When this commeth to passe (loe it commeth) then shal they knowe that there hath benne a prophete among them.

The .xxxiiii. Chapter.

2. Againste shepheardes that despise the flocke of Christe, and seeke their owne gayne.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie against the shepheardes of Israel, prophecie and speake vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God vnto the shepheardes, Wo be vnto ỹ (a) shepheards of Israel that feede them selues: shoulde not the shepheardes feede the flockes?

3 Ye eate vp the fatte, ye clothe you with the wooll, the best fedde doo ye slay: but the flocke doo ye not feede.

4 The weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue he not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde together, the driuen away haue

(e) Namely, his righteousnesse.
(f) Hereby he condempneth al them of hypocricie, whiche pretende to forsake wickednes, and yet declare not them selues suche by their fruites: that is, in obeying gods commaundementes, and by godly lyfe.
(g) When the prophete was led away captiue with Ieconias.
(h) I was endued with the spirite of prophecie as Cap. viii. a.
(i) Whereby is signifyed that the ministers of god can not speake tyl god geue them courage, and open their mouthes.
(k) Thus the wicked think them selues more worthy to enioy gods promise then the saincles of god, to whom they were made: and woulde binde god to be subiect to them, though they woulde not be bounde to hym.
(l) As they that are redy stil to shed blood.
(m) This declareth that we ought to heare gods worde with such zeale & affection, that we shoulde not only delight therein to heare it preached, but also in al pointes obey it: els we abuse the worde to our owne condempnation, and make of the ministers as though they were iestes to serue mens fantasies.
(n) Or a song of pastime & plasure.
(a) By the shepheards, he meaneth the king, the magistrates, priestes, and prophetes.

haue ye not brought againe, the lost haue ye not sought: but with force & crueltie haue ye ruled them.

5 They are scattered without a shepheard, yea al the beastes of the feelde (b) deuoure them, and they goe astray.

(b) For lacke of good gouernment & doctrine they perishe.

6 My sheepe go wandring vpon al mountaynes, and vpon euery hygh hil, yea my flocke is scattered through al the face of the earth, and there is no man that seeketh or searcheth (after them.)

7 Therefore, O ye shepheardes, heare the woorde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lorde God, forasmuche as my sheepe are robbed and deuoured of al the wylde beastes of the feelde, hauing no shephearde, and seeing that my shepheardes seeke not my sheepe, but the shepheardes feede them selues, and feede not my sheepe.

9 Therfore heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye shepheardes,

10 Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon the shepheardes, and require my sheepe from their handes, and make them ceasse from feeding of the sheepe, yea the shepheards shal feede them selues no more: for I wyl (c) deliuer my sheepe out of their mouthes, so that they shal not deuoure them after this.

(c) By destroying the couetous hirelinges, and restoring true shepheards.

11 For thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I (euen) I wyl looke to my sheepe mee selfe, and seeke them out.

12 Like as a shephearde when he hath ben among the flocke, seeketh after the sheepe that are scattered abroade: euen so wyl I seeke after my sheepe, and deliuer them out of al places where they haue benne scattered in the (d) cloudie and darke day.

(d) In the day of theyr affliction & miserie: and this promise is to comfort the Churche in al daungers.

13 I wyl bring them out from the people, and geather them togeather out of the landes, I wyl bring them into their owne lande, and feede them vpon the mountaines of Israel by the riuers, and in al the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I wyl feede them in right good pastures, and vpon the high mountaynes of Israel shal their foldes be: there shal they lye in a good folde, and in a fat pasture shal they feede, euen vppon the mountaines of Israel.

℣ 15 I wyl feede my sheepe, and bring them to their rest, sayth the Lorde God.

(e) That is, by putting difference betweene the good and bad, and so geue to eyther as they deserue.

16 Suche as be lost, wyl I seeke: suche as are driuen away, wil I bring agayne: such as be broken, wil I binde vp: suche as be weake, wyl I make strong: suche as be fat and strong, those wil I roote out, and feede them with (e) iudgement.

17 And as for you, O my sheepe, sayth the Lord god, I wyl iudge betweene catel & catel, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a smal thing to you to haue eaten vp the good (f) pasture, and to treade downe the residue of your pasture with your feete also? to drinke the deepe waters, and to trouble the rest also with your feete?

(f) By good pasture and deepe waters is meant the pure word of god, and the administration of iustice: whiche they did not distribute to the poore til they had corrupt it.

19 Thus my sheepe must be fayne to eate the thing that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to drinke it that ye with your feete haue defyled.

20 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God vnto them, Beholde, I (euen) I wyl iudge betweene the fatte catel and the leane catel, 21 Forasmuche as with syde and shoulder ye haue shoued, and with your hornes haue pushed al the weake, til ye haue scattered them abroade.

D

22 I wyl saue my sheepe, so that they shal no more be spoyled, yea I wyl iudge betweene catel and catel.

23 I wyl set vp ouer them a shephearde, and he shal feede them, euen my seruant (g) Dauid, he shal feede them, and he shalbe their shephearde.

(g) Meaning Christe, of whom Dauid was a figure, as Osee. iii. a.

24 And I the Lorde wyl be their God, and my seruant Dauid shalbe their prince: euen I the Lorde haue spoken it.

25 Moreouer, I wyl make a couenant of peace with them, and cause euil beastes to ceasse out of the lande: so that they may dwel (h) safely in the wylderneſſe, and sleepe in the woodes.

(h) This declareth, that vnder Christ the flocke shoulde be truely deliuered from sinne and hel: and so be safely preserued in the Church, where they should neuer perishe.

26 And I wyl set them (as) a blessing round about my hil, and I wyl cause raine to come downe in due season, (and) there shal be raine of blessing.

27 And the tree of the feelde shal yeelde her fruite, & the earth shal geue her encrease: they shalbe safe in their lande, and shal knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of those that serued them selues of them.

28 They shal no more be spoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beastes of the lande: but safely shal they dwel, and no man shal fray them.

29 And I wyl rayse vp for them a (i) plant of renowme, and they shalbe no more "clunged with hunger in the land, neither beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

(i) That is, the rod that shal come out of the roote of Isai.

" or, clembd or hunger starued.

30 Thus shal they vnderstande that I the Lorde their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, sayth the Lorde God:

31 And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture, ſhure, are menne: and I am your God, ſaith the Lorde God.

The. xxxv. Chapter.

The deſtruction that ſhal comme on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, becauſe they troubled the people of the Lorde.

1 MOreouer the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeng,

Eſai. 44. a. 2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the mount (a) Seir, prophecie agaynſt it,

(a) Where the Idumeans dweit.

3 And ſay vnto it, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O thou mount Seir, I wyl vpon thee, I wyl reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waſte and deſolate wyl I make thee.

4 Thy cities wil I lay waſt, and thou ſhalt lye voyde, that thou mayeſt know how that I am the Lorde,

5 Forſomuch as thou beareſt an olde enmitie, and haſt put the chyldren of Iſrael to flight by the force of the ſwoord, in the time of their calamitie, (when their) iniquitie had an ende.

6 Therefore as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lord God, I wyl prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood ſhal folow vpon thee, except thou (b) hate blood, euen blood ſhal perſecute thee.

(b) Except thou repent thy former crueltie.

7 Thus wyl I make the mount Seir deſolate and waſt, and cut out from it him that paſſeth out, and hym that returneth:

(c) To wit, to their former eſtate.

8 His mountaines wil I fil with his ſlaine men, thy hylles, valleys, and al thy riuers, the ſlayne with the ſwoorde ſhal fal in them.

(d) Meanyng Iſrael, and Iuda.

9 I wyl make thee a perpetual wyldernes, ſo that thy cities ſhal not (c) returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

(e) As thou haſt donne cruelly, ſo ſhalt thou be cruelly handled.

10 And becauſe thou haſt ſayde, (d) Both theſe nations, and both theſe landes muſte be myne, and we wyl haue them in poſſeſſion, whereas the Lorde was there:

(f) Shewyng that when God puniſheth the enimies, the godly ought to conſyder that he hath a care ouer them, and ſo prayſe his name: and alſo that the wicked rage as though there were no God, vyl they feele his hande to their deſtruction.

11 Therefore as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lord God, I wyl euen do accordyng to thy (e) wrath, and accordyng to thyne enuying whiche thou haſt vſed in thyne hatred agaynſt them: and I wyl make mee ſelfe (f) knowē amongſt them when I haue iudged thee.

12 Yea and thou ſhalt knowe that I the Lord haue heard all thy blaſphemies, whiche thou haſt ſpoken agaynſt the mountaynes of Iſrael, ſayeng, They are made waſte, and geuen vs to deuoure.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boaſtes agaynſt me, yea and multipliſed your woordes agaynſt me, which I haue heard.

14 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, To the ioy of al the worlde wyl I make thee waſte.

15 And lyke as thou waſt glad becauſe the heritage of the houſe of Iſrael was deſtroyed, euen ſo wyl I doo vnto thee, thou ſhalt be deſtroyed, O mount Seir, and al Idumea wholly, and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The. xxxvi. Chapter.

2. He promiſeth to deliuer Iſrael from the Gentiles. 22. The benefites donne vnto the Iewes, are to be aſcribed to the mercy of God, not vnto their deſeruynges.

1 THou ſonne of man prophecie vnto the mountaynes of Iſrael, and ſpeake, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael,

A Ezech. 6. a.

2 Thus ſayth the Lord God, Becauſe your (a) enimie hath ſayde vpon you aha, the (b) hygh places of the worlde are now become ours in poſſeſſion:

(a) That is, the Idumeans.

(b) That is, the hylly countreys of Iuda.

3 Prophecie therfore and ſpeake, thus ſayth the Lorde God, For becauſe that they haue made you deſolate, and ſwalowed you vp on euery ſyde, that ye myght be a poſſeſſion vnto the reſidue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the (c) lyppes and tongues of menne, and to the reproche of the people:

(c) Ye are made a matter of talke and derision to al the worlde.

4 Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde GOD, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lord God to the mountaynes and hylles, to the ryuers & valleys, to the waſte and deſolate places, and to the cities that are forſaken, whiche are ſpoyled and had in derision on euery ſide, among the reſidue of the Heathen:

(d) They appointed with them ſelues to haue it, and therfore came with Nabuchodonoſor againſt Hieruſalē for this purpoſe.

5 Therfore thus ſaith the Lord God, Surely in the fire of my gelouſie haue I ſpoken agaynſt the reſidue of the Gentiles, and agaynſt al Edom, which haue (d) appoynted my lande for their poſſeſſion, which alſo reioyced frō their whole hart with a deſpiteful ſtomacke, to caſt it out for a pray.

(e) Becauſe ye haue ben a laughyng ſtocke vnto them.

6 Prophecie therfore vpon the lande of Iſrael, and ſpeake vnto the mountaynes and hylles, to the riuers and dales, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Behold this haue I ſpoken in my gelouſie and terrible wrath, becauſe ye haue borne the (e) ſhame of the Heathen:

(f) By making a ſolemne othe. Chap. 20. a.

7 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I haue (f) lyft vp my hand, ſurely the Heathen that are about you, ſhal beare their ſhame.

(g) God declareth his mercyes and goodneſſe towarde his Churche, who ſtyl preſerueth his, euen when he deſtroieth his enimies.

8 But you, O mountaynes of Iſrael, ye ſhal (g) ſhoote out your branches, & bring foorth your fruite to my people of Iſrael: for they are at hande to comme.

9 Beholde, I comme vnto you, and vnto you wyl I turne, that ye may be tylled and sowen.

10 I wyl multiply menne vpon you (euen) al the house of Israel wholy, the cities shal be inhabited, and the decaied places shalbe repayred agayne.

11 And I wyl multiply vpon you man and beast, which shal encrease and bring fruite: and I wyl cause you to dwel after your old estate, and be better (k) vnto you then at the begynnyng: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Yea I wyl cause men to walke vpon (l) you, (euen) my people Israel, and they shal possesse (k) thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, & thou shalt no more henceforth deprive them of (menne.)

13 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Forsomuch as they say vnto you, Thou art an (i) eater vp of menne, and a waster of thy people:

14 Therefore thou shalt eate no more men, neyther destroy thy people any more, sayth the Lorde God:

15 Neyther wyl I cause menne to heare in thee the shame of the Heathen any more: neyther shalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cause thy folke to fal any more, sayth the Lorde God.

16 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

17 O thou sonne of man, when the house of Israel dwelt vpō their owne ground, they defiled them selues with their owne waies & imaginations: so that in my syght their way was lyke the vncleannesse of a remoued woman.

18 Wherefore I powred my wrathful displeasure vpon them, because of the blood that they had shed in the land, & because of their idols wherewith they had defiled it:

19 I scattered them also among the Heathē, so that they were strawed about in the landes: according to their ways, & after their owne inuentions, so dyd I iudge them.

20 And when they entred vnto the Heathen whyther they went, they polluted my holy name, when they sayde of them, These are the people of God, and are gonne out of his lande.

21 Then spared I my holy (m) name, which the house of Israel had dishonoured amōg the Gentiles where they came.

22 Therefore tel the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, I (n) doo not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for my holy names sake, whiche ye dishonoured among the Heathen where ye came.

23 Therfore I wyl halowe my great name agayne, which among the Gentiles is polluted, for ye your selues haue dishonoured it among them: and the Gentiles shal knowe that I am the Lorde, sayth the Lorde God, when I shalbe sanctified in you before your eyes.

24 As for you, I wyl take you from among the Heathen, & geather you togeather out of al countreys, and bring you agayne into your owne lande.

25 Then wyl I sprinckle cleane (o) water vpon you, and ye shalbe cleane: yea from al your vncleannes and from al your idols shal I cleanse you.

26 A newe hart also wyl I geue you, and a newe spirite wyl I put into you: as for that stony hart I wyl take it out of your fleashe, and geue you a fleashly hart.

27 I wyl geue my spirite among you, and cause you to walke in my commaundementes, and ye shal keepe my iudgementes, and doo them.

28 And so ye shal dwel in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye shalbe my people, and I wyl be your God.

29 I wyl deliuer you frō al your vncleannesse, I wyl cal for the (p) corne, and wyl encrease it, and lay no famine vpon you.

30 I wyl multiply the fruites of the trees and the increase of the feelde: so that ye shal receiue no more reproche of hunger among the Heathen.

31 Then shal ye remember your owne wicked waies, and your imaginations which were not good: so that ye shalbe (o) irksome in your owne eyes for your sinnes and abominations.

32 But I wyl not doo this for your sakes, saith the Lorde God, be ye sure of it: therefore, O ye house of Israel, be ashamed and confounded of your owne waies.

33 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde GOD, What time as I shal cleanse you from al your iniquities, then wil I make the cities to be inhabited againe, and the places that be decayed shalbe repaired.

34 The desolate land shalbe tylled againe, whiche aforetime lay waste in the sight of all them that went by.

35 And they shal say, This waste land was lyke the garden of Eden: and these waste & desolate and ruinous cities (were) strong (and) inhabited.

36 Then the residue of the Heathen that lye rounde about you, shal knowe that I the Lorde (r) repaire that was broken downe, & plant agayne that that was made waste: euen I the Lorde haue spoken it, and wyl doo it in deede.

37 Thus sayth the Lord God, I wyl yet for this be sought of the house of Israel to do it

(h) Whiche was accomplished vnder Christe, to whom al these temporal deliuerances dyd direct them.

(i) That is vpon the mountaynes of Iuda.

(k) You, changyng the number.

(l) Thus the enimies imputed as the reproche of the lande, whiche God dyd for the sinnes of the people, according to his iust iudgementes.

(m) And therfore wouldе not suffer my name to be had in contempt, as the Heathen wouldе haue reproched me, yf I had suffered my Churche to perishe.

(n) This excludeth from men al dignitie & meane to deserue any thing by, seeyng that god referreth the whole to him self, and that only for the glory of his holy name.

(o) That is, his spirite, whereby he reformeth the hart, and regenerateth his, Esai. 44. 3

(p) Vnder the aboundance of temporal benefites, he concludeth the spiritual graces.

(q) Ye shal come to true repentance, and thynke your selues vnworthy to be of the number of Gods creatures, for your ingratitude agaynst him.

(r) He declareth that it ought not to be referred to the foyle or fertilitie of the earth that any countrey is riche and abundant, but onely Gods mercies: as his plagues & curses declare when he maketh it barren.

te for them, I wyl multiplie them as a flocke of men.

38 Like as the holy flocke, and the flocke of Hierusalem are in the high solempne feastes, so shal also the wasted cities be filled with flockes of men: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxxvii.Chapter.

He prophecieth the bringing againe of the people beyng in captiuitie. 16. He sheweth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.

A 1 THe hande of the Lorde was vpon me, and caryed me out in the spirite of the Lord, and set me downe in the middest of a playne feelde that was ful of (a) bones.

(a) By this vision he prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe deliuered, whom he compareth to bones of dead men, for as drye bones seeme without al hope of lyfe againe, so the Israelites thought they should neuer returne into theyr countrey, as appeareth by theyr woordes in the eleuenth vearse, Our bones are dryed, and our hope is gonne. &c.

2 And he led me round about by them, and beholde there was very many in the open feelde, and lo (they were) very drie.

3 Then saide he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thinkest thou these bones may liue againe? I answeared, O Lorde God, thou knowest.

4 And he saide vnto me, Prophecie thou vpon these bones, and speake vnto them: Ye drye bones heare the woord of the lord,

5 Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto these bones, Beholde, I wyl cause breath to enter into you, that ye may liue.

6 I wyl geue you sinowes, and make fleash growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, and so geue you breath, that ye may liue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 So I prophecied as I was commaunded: and as I was prophecying, there was a noyse, and loe a great motion, so that the bones came neare togeather, bone to his bone.

8 Nowe when I had looked, beholde they had synowes, and fleash growe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skinne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then saide he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, prophecie thou towarde the winde, prophecie and speake to the winde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Comme, O thou " ayre from the foure windes, and " blowe vpon these slayne, that they may liue.

" or, breath
" or, breathe.

10 So I prophecied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receyued life, and stood vp vpon their feete, a marueylous great armie.

11 Moreouer he saide vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: beholde they say, Our bones are dryed vp, our hope is gonne, and we are cleane cut of.

12 Therefore prophecie thou, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl open your graues, O my people, and cause you to comme vp out of your sepulchres, and bring you into the lande of Israel agayne.

13 So shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues, O my people, and bring you (b) out of your sepulchres.

(b) That is, when I bring you out of these places and townes where ye are captiues.

14 My spirite also wyl I put in you, and ye shal liue, I wil set you againe in your owne lande: and ye shal knowe that I the Lorde haue sayde it, and fulfilled it in deede, saith the Lorde.

15 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing,

C

16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Iuda and to the children of Israel his companyons. Then take another sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Ioseph the " stocke of Ephraim, and to al the householde of Israel his companions.

" or, tree.

17 And (c) ioyne them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande.

(c) Whiche signifieth the ioyning togeather of the two houses of Israel and Iuda.

18 Now yf the children of thy people speake vnto thee, sayeing, Wylt thou not shewe vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answeare, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil take the (d) " stocke of Ioseph, whiche is in the hande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his felowes, and wil put them with him, (euen) with the stocke of Iuda, and make them one " stocke, and they shalbe one in my hande.

(d) This is, the house of Israel.
" or, tree.
" or, tree.

20 And the sticke wherevpon thou writest, shalt thou haue in thy hand, that they may see.

21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl take the children of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gonne, and wil gather them togeather on euery syde, and bryng them agayne into their owne lande.

D

22 Yea I wyl make one people of them in the lande vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one kyng shalbe kyng to them al: they shal no more be two peoples, neither be diuided from hence foorth into two kyngdomes.

Iohn. 10. c.

23 They shal also defyle them selues no more with their idols and abominations, and al their wicked doinges: I wyl saue them out of al their dwelling places wherein they haue sinned, and wyl so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I wyl be their God.

24 Dauid my seruant shalbe their king, and they al shal haue one shepheard: they shal walke in my iudgements, and my commaundementes shal they keepe, and fulfil them.

25 They shal dwel in the lande that I gaue vnto Iacob my seruant, whereas your fathers also haue dwelt, yea (euen) in the same lande shal they, their children, and their childers children dwel for euermore: and my seruant Dauid shalbe their prince for euer.

26 Moreouer I wyl make a bonde of peace with them, whiche shalbe vnto them an euerlasting conenant: I wyl settle them also and multiplie them, my sanctuarie wyl I set among them for euermore.

27 My tabernacle shalbe with them: yea I wylbe their God, and they shalbe my people.

28 Thus the heathen also shal knowe that I the Lorde doo sanctifye Israel, when my sanctuarie shalbe among them for euermore.

The.xxxviii.Chapter.

1. He prophecieth that Gog and Magog shal come with an appoynted hoast into the lande of promise.

A

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, sayeing.

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face against (a) Gog, the land of Magog, which is the cheefe prince of Mesech & Tubal, and prophecie against him,

(a) Whiche was a people that came of Magog the son of Iaphet. Gene x.a, Magog also here signifieth a certain countrey, so that by these countreys whiche had the gouernment of Gretia and Italy, he meaneth the principal enimies of the Church. Apoc.xx.b.

3 And say, thus sayth the Lorde God: O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Mesech & Tubal, beholde I wyl vpon thee:

4 And I wil turne "thee backe, and put hookes in thy chawes, I wyl bring thee forth and al thyne hoast, both horse and horsemen, al armed with al sortes of armour, a great multitude with speares and shyldes, al handling swoordes.

" or, destroy thee.

5 They of (b) Paras, of Cush, and Phut, with them (euen) al (hauyng) shieldes and helmets,

(b) The Persians, Ethiopians, & men of Aphrica.

6 Gomer and al his hoastes, the house of Togarma out of the north quarters and al his hoastes, yea and muche people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, set thee selfe in aray with al the people that are come vnto thee by heapes, and be thou their defence.

8 After many dayes thou shalt be visited, and in the latter yeeres thou shalt comme into the lande that hath benne turned (and rost) with the swoorde, and geathered togeather againe out of many people vppon the mountaines of Israel, whiche haue ben alwayes (subiect) to waste: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwell al safe.

9 Thou shalt assende and comme vp lyke a storme, as a cloude to couer the lande shalt thou be: thou with al thyne hoastes, and a great multitude of people with thee.

10 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde God, At the same time shal thinges comme into thy minde, so that thou shalt thinke (c) euyll thoughtes,

(c) That is, to molest & destroy the Churche.

11 And say, I wyl vp to the lande of (d) vnwalled villages, I wyl goe to them that be at rest, whiche dwel safely, al dwelling without walles, they haue neither barres nor gates:

(d) Meaning Israel which had now ben destroyed, & was not yet built againe, declaring hereby also the simplicitie of the godly, who seeke not so much to fortifie themselues by our warde force, as to depend on the prouidence and goodnesse of god.

12 To spoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vppon the desolate places that are (nowe) inhabited, and vpon that people that is geathered togeather from among the heathen, whiche haue gotten catel & goodes, and dwel in the middes of the lande.

13 Then shal Saba & Dedan, and the marchantes of Tharsis with al their lions, say vnto thee, (e) Art thou comme to spoyle a pray? hast thou geathered thy people togeather to take a bootie, to take away siluer and gold, to cary away catel and good, and to haue a great pray?

(e) One enimie shal enuie another, becausse euery one shal thinke to haue the spoyle of the people of god.

14 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, thou shalt prophecie and say vnto Gog, thus sayth the Lorde God: In that day when my people Israel (f) dwelleth safe, shalt thou not knowe it?

(f) Shalt not thou espie thyne occasyons to come against the Church, when they suspect nothyng?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north partes, thou and muche people with thee, whiche ride al vppon horses, (euen) a great multitude and a mighty armie.

16 Yea thou shalt comme vpon my people of Israel, as a cloude to couer the lande: this shal comme to passe in the (g) latter dayes, and I wyl bring thee vp into my lande, that the heathen may knowe me, when I shalbe (h) sanctifyed in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

(g) Meaning in the last age, & from the comming of Christe vnto the end of the world

(h) Signifiing that god wyl be sanctified by mainteynyng his Church and destroying his enimies, as chap. xxxvi.c and xxxvii.d.

17 Thus saith the Lorde God, Art not thou he of whom I haue spoken in olde time by the handes of my seruantes the prophetes of Israel, which prophecied in those dayes and yeeres, that I shoulde bring thee vpon them?

18 At the same time when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Israel, sayth the Lorde God, shal myne indignation ryse in my wrath:

19 For in my gelousie & fire of my wrath haue I spoken it, surely at that time there shalbe a great shaking in ỳ lande of Israel.

20 The very fishes in the sea, the foules in the ayre, the beastes of the feelde and al that moone and creepe vpon the earth, & al the

the men that are vpon the earth, shal tremble at my presence, the hylles also shalbe turned vpside downe, the (i) stayres shal fal, and al walles shal fal downe to the grounde.

21 I wyl cal for a swoorde vppon (k) hym in al my mountaynes, sayth the Lorde God: so that euery mans swoorde shalbe vpon an other.

22 With pestilence and blood wil I pleade agaynst him: stormie rayne and haylstones, fire and brymstone wyl I cause to rayne vpon hym and al his hostes, yea, and vpon al that great people that is with hym.

23 Thus wyl I be magnified, sanctified, & knowen in the eyes of many nations: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(i) Al meanes wherby man should think to saue hym selfe, shal fayle, the afflictions in those dayes shalbe so great, & the enimies destructiō shalbe so terrible

(k) Against the people of Gog and Magog.

The. xxxix. Chapter.

1. He sheweth the destruction of Gog and Magog. 13. The graue of Gog and his host.

1 THerfore, O thou sonne of man, prophecie agaynst Gog, and speake, thus saith the Lorde God, Behold, O Gog, thou cheefe prince at Mesech and Tubal, I wyl vpon thee.

2 And I wyl " turne thee about, and I " wyl (a) prouoke thee forewarde, and cause thee to come vp from the North partes, and bryng thee vp to the mountaynes of Israel.

3 And as for thy bowe, I wyl smyte it out of thy left hande, and cause thyne arowes to fal out of thy ryght hande.

4 Thou, with al thyne host, & al the people that is with thee, shal fal vppon the mountaynes of Israel: then wyl I geue thee vnto the (b) flockes of byrdes, (euen) to al feathered foules and beastes of the feeld, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fal vpon the open feelde: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sit so careleslie in the Iles wyl I sende a fyre, and they shal know that I am the Lorde.

7 I wyl make also the name of my holynes to be knowen among my people of Israel, and I wyl not let them pollute my holye name any more: but the very heathen also shal knowe that I am the Lorde, the holye one of Israel.

8 Beholde, it is (c) come, and it is donne, sayth the Lorde God: this is the day wherof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwel in the cities of Israel, shal goe forth, and (d) set fire vppon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes and arowes, " handstaues, and swoordes, and they shal burne them with fire seuen yeere.

10 So that they shal els bryng no wood from the feelde, neyther hewe downe anye out of ỹ wood: for with weapons shal they make theyr fire, they shall rob those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, sayth the Lorde God.

11 At the same tyme wyl I geue vnto Gog a place to be buried in Israel, euen the valley wherthrough men goe toward the East sea: those that trauayle thereby, shal (e) stop theyr noses: there shal Gog and al his multitude be buryed: and it shalbe called the valley of the " multitude of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long shal the house of Israel be burying of them, that they maye cleanse the lande.

13 Yea, al the people of the lande shal burye them, and they shal haue a name when I shalbe glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 They shal choose out men to goe continually through the lande, to (f) burye as they passe through those that remaine vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen monethes shal they make their searche.

15 And the trauaylers that passe through the land, where they see a mans bone, they shal set vp a token by it, tyl the dead buryers haue buried it also in the valley of the " multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called (g) Hamonah: thus shal they make the lande cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God, Speake vnto al feathered foules, yea, and to al the beasts of the feeld, Assemble you togeather, and come, geather you round about to my (h) sacrifice that I sacrifise for you, (euen) a great sacrifice vpon the mountaynes of Israel, that ye may eate flesh, and drynke blood.

18 Ye shal eate the flesh of the valiant, & drynke the blood of the princes of the land, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be al fedde at Basan.

19 Ye shal eate the fat your belly ful, and drynke blood tyl ye be dronken of my sacrifice, whiche I haue sacrifised for you.

20 Ye shal fil you at my table with horses & " horsemen, with the valiant and men of warre, sayth the Lorde God.

21 I wyl set my glory also among the Gentiles, that al the heathen may see my iudgment that I haue executed, and my hande whiche I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the house of Israel shal know that I am the Lorde theyr God, from that day, and so forewarde.

23 And

(a) That is, I wyl encourage thee with clapping & stroking, as men doo horses when they wyl encourage them.

(b) Hereby he signifieth that whiche is woont to befal in war: that the bodyes of the slaine should be vnburied.

(c) That is, this plague is fully determined in my counsel, and can not be changed.

(d) After this destruction, shalbe suche peace and tranquilitie, that they shal neede no weapons of warre, but burne them al with fyre.

(e) For the stinke of the carkases that shal ly slaine there vnburyed.

(f) Partely that the holy lande should not be polluted, and partly for the compassion whiche the children of God haue euen vppon their enimies.

(g) So called, for the multitude of the people of Gog that shoulde be slaine there.

(h) As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled, so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice and feast for al birdes and beastes to feede vpō.

" or, I wyl strike thee with syxe plagues.

" or, I wyl leaue but the sixt part of thee.

" or, ramme.

" or, Hamon Gog.

" or, chariotts.

23 And the heathen shal know, that whereas the house of Israel was led into captiuitie, it was for theyr (i) wickednesse sake, because they offended me: for the whiche cause I hidde my face from them, and deliuered them into the handes of their enimies, that they myght al be slayne with the swoorde.

(i) The heathen shal knowe that they ouercame not my people by theyr owne strength, neither yet by the weakenesse of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples sinnes.

24 Accordyng to theyr vncleannesse, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, and hyd my face from them.

25 Therfore thus saith the Lord God, Now wyl I bring agayne the captiues of Jacob, and haue mercy vppon the whole house of Israel, & be gelous for my holy names sake,

26 After that they haue borne theyr shame, & al theyr transgression, whereby they haue transgressed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, & no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them againe from among the people, when I haue gathered them together out of their enimies landes, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shal they knowe that I am the Lord their God, whiche caused them to be led into captiuitie among the heathen, but haue gathered them agayne into their owne lande, and not lefte one of them anye more there.

29 After that wyl I hyde my face no more from them, but wyl powre out my spirite vppon the house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God.

The.xl. Chapter.

1. The restoring of the cities and of the temple that was to come, is shewed vnto the prophet.

1 IN the fiue and twentieth yere of our captiuitie, in the (a) beginning of the yeere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is, the fourteenth yeere after the citie was smytten, the selfe same day came the hande of the Lord vpon me, and brought me thither:

(a) The Iewes counted the beginning of the yere after two sortes: for feastes, they beganne to counte in March: and for theyr other affaires, in September, so that this is to be vnderstande of September.

2 Euen into the lande of Israel brought he me in the visions of God, and set me downe vpon a marueylous high mountaine, wherupon there was as it had ben the buyldyng of a citie towarde the south.

3 Thyther he carried me, and behold, there was a (b) man, whose similitude was like brasse, whiche had a twysted lyne of flaxe in his hande, and a cane to measure with: and he stoode in the dooze.

(b) Whiche was an angel in fourme of a man, that came to measure out this buyldyng.

4 And that man sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, marke wel with thine (c) eyes, hearken to with thine eares, and fasten it in thy harte whatsoeuer I shal shewe thee: for to the intent that they myght be shewed thee, therefore art thou brought hither, and whatsoeuer thou seest, thou shalt certifie the house of Israel thereof.

(c) By this & the like Hebrue phrases, he exhorted him to behold, & marke diligently as a thing worthy noting.

5 Behold, there was a wal on the (d) outside of the house rounde about: the cane to measure with that he had in his hand, was sixe cubites long by the (e) cubite, & a hand breadth: So he measured the breadth of the buyldyng with one cane, and the heyght with one cane.

(d) Whiche compassed the whole hyl of Sion, in the top whereof the temple was buylded.

6 Then came he to the gate whiche looketh towarde the East, and went vp the stayres thereof, and measured the post of the gate, one cane broade, and the other post of the gate one cane broade.

(e) The cubite whiche he speaketh of, was larger then the common cubite by a hād breadth, that is, foure inches, and it was called the holy cubite: the common cubite conteyned but fiue hād breadth, and this sixe, reade cha. 43

7 And (euery) chamber was one cane long, and one cane broade, & betweene the chambers, were fiue cubites: and the post of the gate by the porche of the gate within, was one cane.

8 He measured also the porche of the gate within, with one cane.

9 Then measured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: and the * pentises thereof two cubites, and the porch of the gate (was) inwarde.

* or, fronts

10 And the chambers of the gate eastward, were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure, and the pentises had one measure on this side, and one measure on that side.

11 After this he measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, & the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers, was one cubite (on this side) and the space one cubite on that side: and the chambers, sixe cubites on this side, and sixe cubites on that side.

13 He measured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe, the breadth of fiue and twentie cubites: dooze against dooze.

14 He made * frontes also of three score cubites, (euen) vnto the front of the courte rounde about the gate.

* or, pentises.

15 And from the forefront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within (were) fiftie cubites.

16 And there were narow windowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate round about, and so in the arches: and the windowes (went) rounde about within, and vppon the frontes were palme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outwarde court, wheras were chambers, and a pauement made for the court round about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And

18 And the pauement (was) by the syde of the gates ouer agaynst the length of the gates: and the pauement (was) beneath.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, a hundred cubites eastwarde and northwarde.

20 And the gate in the outwarde court that looked towarde the north, measured he after the length and breadth thereof.

D 21 And the chambers thereof (were) three on this side, and three on that side: and the frontes therof, and the arches therof were after the measure of the (f) first gate: the length thereof was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

(f) That is, the east gate, as appeareth in the next verse.

22 And their windowes, and their arches, with their palme trees (were) after the measure of the gate that looketh towarde the east: and the goeyng vp vnto it (had) seuen steppes, and the arches thereof (were) before them.
